Highway 45 northbound lane now open

By JUDY STEFFES
 SPECIAL TO THE STATESMAN

One northbound lane of USH 45 opened Monday morning to motorists headed out of West Bend. The Wisconsin Department of Transportation will be splitting traffic to one lane in each direction as they work on the median.

Project coordinator, Jeanne Marchant says the most confusing area will probably be County Highway H near Dairyland Seed. Marchant says within the next couple of weeks, orange barrels will be replaced by traffic signals.

The $9.4 million project to expand Highway 45 to four lanes should be completed by the end of October. After the project is complete a ribbon cutting is scheduled with an appearance by Governor Jim Doyle.

Work to begin on CTH D Oct. 4

Traffic on CTH D west of USH 41 in the Town of Wayne will be restricted to one lane for a one-week period beginning Monday, October 4, 2004, if weather conditions are favorable. The Washington County Highway Department will be repairing the driving surface on the bridge carrying CTH D over the Rock River.

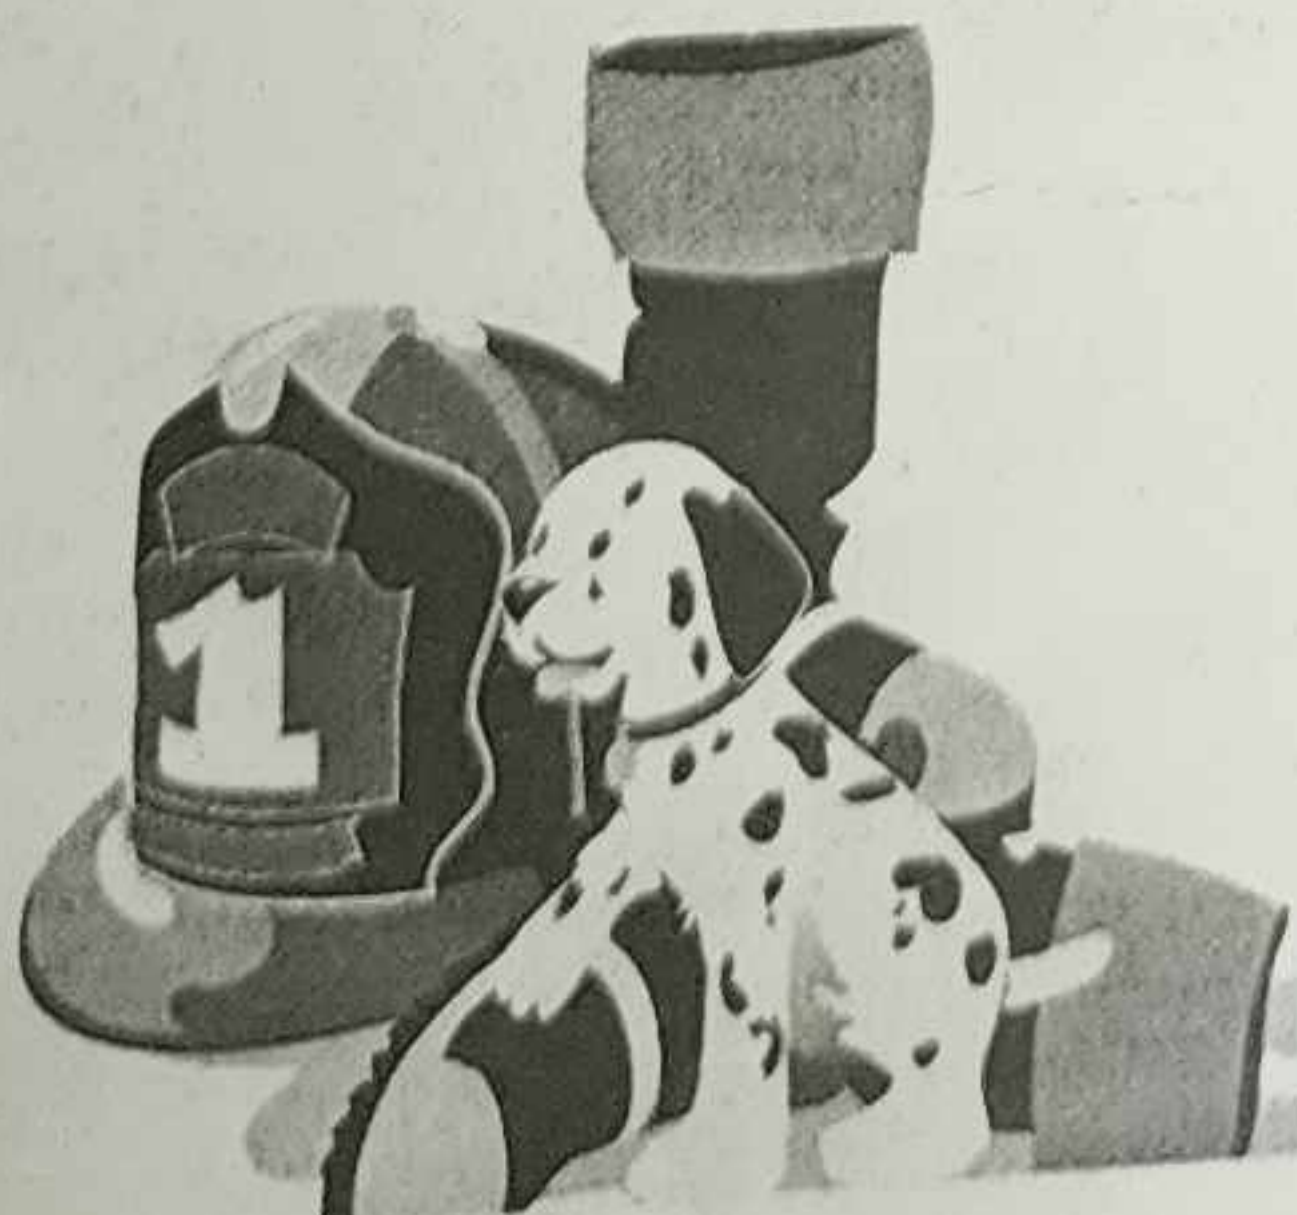

Stop signs will be installed and motorists will be required to stop and alternate passing through the single lane of traffic over the bridge. Motorists are asked to use extra care when driving in the construction area. Alternate routes should be selected if possible.

The project consists of removing part of the old concrete deck and replacing that section with new concrete. County forces will be doing all the work.

If you have any questions about this news release please call the Washington County Highway Department at 262-335-4435 and ask for Ken Pesch or Nick Becker.

Village Construction Project Complete

The Village of Kewaskum can now check off the finished box on one of their road projects for this year. Riverview Drive received a major facelift this year getting all new sanitary and storm sewer as well as reconstruction of the road itself. Shown above, Steve Gundrum of Payne and Dolan watches as a dumptruck is unloading into a paver. Payne and Dolan had two pavers and crews on the job Tuesday morning. Clinton Street is also nearing completion in the village. That road had a similar face lift. Edgewood Road is the last project that will be finished up by the beginning of next month.

Kettle Kountry Kolors talent show is back

Ever wonder what it is like to be Toby Keith, Celine Dion, Tim McGraw or Britney Spears and sing in front of big crowds of adoring fans?

All right, that may be a stretch, but most people have talents and a hidden inner desire to perform those talents and Kettle Kountry Kolors, the fall festival which is coming to Kewaskum on the weekend of Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 8, 9 and 10, might be just the chance for you to unveil those abilities.

For the third year in a row, the promoters of this festival, the Friends of Kewaskum, are presenting the talent show, which the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce has generously agreed to sponsor. The Chamber of Commerce has donated a tidy sum of money which will be used as prizes for the top performers.

The Talent Show, which is open to all children and adults of all ages, will be held on Saturday, October 9, beginning at 2 p.m. in the south pavilion (beer garden) in River Hill Park.

Registration forms are currently available at Hair On Main, 227 Main Street in Kewaskum, or at St. Francis Bank at 1225 Fond du Lac Avenue, also in Kewaskum.

There is a $5.00 entry fee per act, and the competition is broken down into three categories: the talent show division for solos, the lip sync division, which is entertainment using a CD providing sound and music, and group routines for duets, bands, dance teams or even magic shows.

The deadline for signing up to perform in the show has been set for Friday, October 8, according to Wendi Dreher, who has generously agreed to once again be the chairman for this show. Wendi has stated the prize structure will be determined by the number of entries in each division.

When asked if all the acts are serious, Dreher said, "It's a little bit of both," indicating last year a little boy performed a very entertaining skit about the popular cartoon character, Scooby Doo.

There is no charge to watch the performers at the Talent Show, so be sure to come up to River Hill Park on Saturday to watch the show and have some fun. For further information about the Talent Show, you may contact Wendi Dreher at 626-2428. And, don't forget to sign up to display YOUR talents!

Grothman thanks supporters

Glenn Grothman

After a four-to-one victory in the recent election, Glenn Grothman expressed his desire to thank the hundreds of supporters whose tireless work throughout the campaign was critical to his primary election success. "This was a campaign by and for conservatives in the Republican Party," stated Grothman. Municipal clerks across the district struggled to keep up with the incredibly high turnout from voters looking to send a message to Madison insiders. Over 33,500 votes were cast in the Republican primary for the 20th Senate District.

"I ran at the urging of hundreds of concerned citizens throughout the 20th Senate District, and they were by our side pushing us to victory throughout the entire campaign," concluded Grothman. "I am humbled by the groups that came forward to support our message, but the bottom line is that this election was a statement by the people that they want the Republican Party to come back to its roots to achieve real, principled results. I want to thank everyone who supported me throughout the campaign and the thousands of people throughout the district that voted for me on September 14th.

Modern Woodmen program gets to root of the matter It's Almost Halloween!

Modern what? The name of one of the nation's largest fraternal benefit societies is confusing to many. But a new program launched by Modern Woodmen of America, which has offices in Kewaskum, ties to its roots.

Founded in 1883, Modern Woodmen was named in honor of the pioneer woodmen who cleared forests to build homes and secure futures for their families. Today, Modern Woodmen offers financial services and fraternal member benefits to clear away burdens for families throughout the nation.

The Plant a Tree program helps Modern Woodmen members plant seedlings - an activity the organization says is a great way to create a secure future for families, communities and the environment in the 21st century. Modern Woodmen's more than 750,000 members nationwide will be encouraged to order and plant a free tree, provided by Modern Woodmen. With seven varieties available, participants can select a tree that's appropriate for the climate in which they live.

"This program ties Modern Woodmen members to the roots of our organization in a modern way," says Jeff Jaeger, local Modern Woodmen representative. "They can order and plant a free tree to beautify their communities, recognize family milestones or plant it as a family volunteering project."

Each Modern Woodmen member can order one tree per year, through the organization's website at www.modern-woodmen.org. Members can also take part in locally organized tree-planting events through their local Modern Woodmen chapters, called camps, and youth service clubs. Additionally, Modern Woodmen will offer a free tree as part of its comprehensive Ecology Awareness program, a free educational program available to schools and youth groups. Through the tree-planting program and the help of its members, Modern Woodmen aims to plant well over 10,000 trees across the United States in 2004.

Founded in 1883 as a fraternal benefit society, today Modern Woodmen of America offers financial services and fraternal member benefits to individuals and families throughout the United States.

Farmington struggles to control development

A meeting was held in the Town of Farmington where officials discussed paying farmers not to develop their land. The proposal comes a year after the town board adopted a freeze on subdivision construction.

Supervisor, Gary Schreiber says putting a moratorium on development is actually cost saving.

One of the speakers at the meeting came from Dance County to explain how that area benefited after it started purchasing development rights several years ago.

County residential burglaries on the rise recently

Three more residential burglaries have been reported in Washington County recently. Sgt. Randy Boudry says homes were broken into on Blueberry Road in Allenton, Church Road in the Town of West Bend and Hillcrest Road in the Town of Addison.

Boudry says money was stolen.

Over the past few weeks there have been a rash of burglaries in Washington County. Some of the communities that have been hit include Richfield, Erin, Hartford and the Town of West Bend. No big ticket items are being stolen, however deputies say they're surprised at the number of burglaries.

The sheriff's department is asking neighbors to keep their eyes out and report any suspicious activity.

WB couple charged with theft from Jaycees

Charges have been handed down for a West Bend couple accused of stealing $4,500 from the West Bend Jaycees.

A criminal complaint says Missey Propper and her husband Ryan allegedly wrote at least 15 checks to themselves from the club's checking account. Propper said they needed the money for legal fees because her husband was involved in a custody battle with his former wife.

Propper reportedly told police, she knew taking the money was wrong, and they were trying to pay some of it back. Fellow Jaycees became suspicious, when they noticed the club's account had dropped from $10,000 into the hundreds.

Propper has also been suspended from her job with the Downtown West Bend Association. The board met in closed session and voted to suspend Propper without pay pending the outcome of the criminal investigation.

The couple are due in court in March. If convicted they could be sentenced to three-and-a-half years in prison.

Silverbrook Drive to Paradise Road in W.B. now open in West Bend

Silverbrook Drive in West Bend now runs clear through from the north end of town to Paradise Road. The new road opened last Friday.

The city extended Silverbrook because of the new Home Depot and the development of another subdivision to the west of Silverbrook Drive near 18th Avenue.

Sheboygan County to take over stock car racing

The Sheboygan County Fair has decided to take over stock car racing. This week the fair board announced they would be ending their 44 year relationship with Eastern Wisconsin Stock Cars.

Stating instead, they will be the ones to take over promotion of the Saturday night racing. The announcement has infuriated about 800 members of the Eastern Wisconsin Stock Car Association.

A spokesperson for the fair park says the decision was made in hopes of improving attendance and increasing the payout to drivers. Some racers are saying the fair park made the change so they could pocket more money.

The fair park said they would be posting a new list of rules in November. Some racing divisions have already been changed with sprint cars replacing the modified series after the 2005 season. Limited late models and super stocks are also being changed to late models and grand nationals.

Some of the drivers who walked out of the meeting have pledged to find another track elsewhere.

Balian faces felony charges for drinking

Felony charges have been filed against Moose Balian. The man accused in the hit and run death of Jimmy Gengler, is now being accused of illegally drinking alcohol and violating a condition of his sentence.

A criminal complaint says two people saw Balian drink beer and whiskey while at a wedding reception in November. Balian has been ordered to maintain absolute sobriety priors to his sentencing in December of last 2003.

Balian is now charged with felony bail jumping. If convicted he could be sentenced to six years in prison. He's set to appear in court October 7th.

Fillmore Firefighters practice on W.B. home

Firefighters from Fillmore joined those from Newburg for a practice burn in West Bend last Saturday. The practice home was a two story along Highway 33 east next to the former Old Floral Acres Greenhouse.

Purchasing the property was Kevin Juech, owner of Kevin's Lawn Care. Juech plans to build a new business along Highway 33. Early plans call to save the existing barn and turn it into an antique store.

About 40 volunteer firefighters participated in the exercise.

Young men learn about their faith from work experience with poor

By JUDY HARLOW
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

After living most of their lives in what can be termed a "sheltered environment," 11 young men from Kewaskum, all members of Holy Trinity or St. Michaels parishes, ventured into inner city living for a week this past summer to help some of the less fortunate people found in low income areas.

The eight Kewaskum High School students, single representatives from St. Marys Springs High in Fond du Lac, St. Lawrence Seminary and one home schooler, along with chaperones Randy Thull and Tom Staehler, spent a full week as participants in the Catholic Heart Work Camp in Rockford, Ill., during July.

They all came away with stories about their projects and the people they met during the week. Even more important, most of the participants have a new appreciation of what they have in their homes and families, along with an understanding of what it means to live their religion. They also said they have deepened their relationship with God.

Those who volunteered to be participants in the camp included Matt Rinzel, Alex Hestekin, Jeff Thull, Noah Schoofs, Randy Hestekin, Clark Stamm, Brett Koeferl, Alex Benzing, Tyler Stamm, James Feind and Ross Stockhausen.

Clark Stamm attends St. Marys Springs while his younger brother Tyler is at St. Lawrence and Benzing is home-schooled.

Five of the young men shared their thoughts on the trip after several of them commented on the experience following a recent liturgy at Holy Trinity.

Gathering at the Bishop Lane Retreat Center in Rockford, their home base for the week, the boys were placed in groups of five or six workers with a wide variety of assignments for the week.

"We left (each day) after the morning Mass, which was about 9 a.m.," Thull said. "My group ... we painted a homeless shelter for people trying to get back on their feet."

Schoofs said he was part of a group that worked for non-profit organizations, cleaning up around buildings in a mainly manufacturing area. "We pulled weeds, also," Schoofs went on. "We filled about 40 large garbage bags with weeds."

"I painted a daytime shelter for poor people," Hestekin said, reporting his lead group was Habitat for Humanity. "We cleaned up houses for people who didn't keep them up and for some younger families who were busy with jobs and couldn't keep up."

Hestekin said his group helped an elderly woman. "We painted and cleaned up her house," he went on, adding the group washed all her windows, painted her kitchen and disposed of all the garbage that was scattered on her front sidewalk.

This was the second work camp experience for Clark Stamm, who said he had been approached two years ago by CYE (Catholic Youth Education) leader Sharon Warsh and her main assistant, Monica Lettow, about the camp and decided it would be a great opportunity to help others.

The first year he went with four other young men from Holy Trinity and was ready to go back this summer after "experiencing Jesus by serving the less fortunate as Jesus did."

Stamm's group helped an elderly woman who has a heart condition which prevents her from lifting more than 10 pounds without the risk of having a heart attack.

"In one week, my group completely gave the house a new face," Stamm said, reporting this included painting, disposing of refuse, grooming her yard and exercising her dog who was not being properly cared for.

Stamm, who has the lead in the Springs play and also has a parttime job at Hon-E-Kor, said the woman cried when the young men had to leave. "She never imagined how much we would help her," he said. "The entire trip touched me spiritually in a way nothing has ever done before."

"I guess I came closer to God ... I could see God in the peoples' faces," Hestekin said. Incidentally, Hestekin is a starting tackle on the KHS football team and has one of the leads in the upcoming musical, Bye Bye Birdie.

"I wish I would have gone before Confirmation," Schoofs, phasis. She is employed in the promotions department at Clear Channel Radio in Milwaukee.

Nic is a 1997 graduate of Slinger High School and a 2001 graduate of UW-Stout where he earned a BS in graphic communications management. He is an account coordinator at Ken Cook Company of Milwaukee.

The couple is planning a November 6, 2004 wedding at St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Watertown.

whose friendly manner at Hestekin's Service Station is known throughout the community, said. "I think it would have made Confirmation more meaningful. It (the work camp) takes words and puts them into action."

"I grew much strong in my walk with God ... just by going to daily Mass and at the prayer services," Thull, a star linebacker, said.

"It's difficult to explain ... it was more of a an overwhelming happy feeling like God is at your side," Hestekin, who is very involved with singing and acting, said.

When asked if he would go back next year, Hestekin said, "Yes definitely," and the others nodded they would volunteer again.

Voter apathy seems to be indicated for 'The Newlywed Game' contestants

The voting public has got to realize the Friends of Kewaskum, sponsors of Kettle Kountry Kolors and its unique undertaking of "The Newlywed Game" cannot afford to advertise on TV every five minutes like those guys who are running for president but that doesn't make us totally insignificant, does it? Why is this game being ignored? Is the voting public afraid that someone will snitch and tell the candidates who voted for them? It will not happen.

From day one, this little contest has been under intense secrecy. First of all, the voting has been mostly by "anonymous" donors, and secondly, there are probably only two people in the whole world who truly know who the donors are that have not remained anonymous, and they aren't talking to anyone except maybe the CIA.

So come on voters! What is the delay here? There are only a few short weeks left to vote for your favorite three couples married over five years and three favorite couples married under five years. The couples with the most votes will be the ones who get to play for all the marbles Saturday evening, October 9, in the beer garden at Kettle Kountry Kolors.

The only votes received this week were for Kevin and Laura Stautz (married under five years) and for Linda and Gary Gavin (married over five years). I'm not saying how many votes these two couples received.... could be one or could be 101.

Just to make this interesting though, I did receive "anonymous" communication from the people who voted for Gary and Linda, stating they were not the ones who nominated them. I cannot either confirm nor deny this fact, because I did not see the original nominations. There... that puts all rumors to rest.

I was also corrected in the spelling of Teresa Fechter's name. I was spelling it with an "h" and there is no "h" in Teresa's name. That being said, whoever nominated Dennis and Teresa Fechter does not know how she spells her name if that gives you any clues. I realize members of the Boltonville Fire Department are busy burning newspapers from Milwaukee, but please take the time to vote for Dennis and Teresa and Chief Joe Enright and his wife, Ann. I believe they probably figure they have had enough absurdity for awhile, but we are taking absurdity to a new level with this contest.

Now before I close this gem, I implore friends or relatives of the married candidates listed below to send in photos they may have of our lucky twosomes. Wedding pictures would be nice, but we will take any photos that we can get our hands on. They will be published in a later edition, but if you know any of the candidates will become violent, please erase the above request.

And remember, couples, if you truly find the idea of becoming one of the winning couples completely repulsive, better start voting for your opponents... and often!

But for now, let's get those votes in for:

MARRIED UNDER FIVE YEARS

Jimmy and Kimmy Olson
Chad and Karla Schulz
Becky and John Van Beek
Kelly and Kasey Brath
Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Stautz
John and Jackie Burtard

MARRIED OVER FIVE YEARS

Dennis and Teresa Fechter
Gary and Linda Gavin
Joe and Debbie Backhaus
Joe and Ann Enright
Harry and Lori Roecker
Jim and Dianne Kleinke
Jim and Lynn Gaffke
Jim and Tracey Schaub
Dave and Sue Goeden

Send your votes in to "The Newlywed Game," % P.O. Box 98, Kewaskum, WI 53040 and then make plans to see Kewaskum's own version of... "The Newlywed Game!"

'Bye Bye Birdie' to be this year's musical at KHS

Don't miss your chance to see Bye, Bye Birdie! Conrad Birdie's singing engagement in Kewaskum is rapidly approaching and you don't want to miss him.

Yes, ladies and gentlemen, you will cry yourselves to sleep at night if you don't make time to hear him sing. Conrad Birdie, of course, is the one and only, first time on stage, Alex Herriges. He has been waiting for several years for the right part to come along and he is ready! Of course there's Abe Foerster and Kaitlyn Ogi doing their thing on stage, and Lora Jo Christie, who will be singing up a storm.

Make sure to reeve November 5th and 6th to see these young singers and actors, along with a cast that will delight your visual and auditory senses. More cast member names will be released next week, so don't let your subscription to this paper expire!

Education...
It's Everyone's Business

By Wayne P. Graczyk,
Kewaskum Superintendent of Schools
www.kewaskumschools.org

One of the best compliments is when someone asks you for help.

With this in mind, I think the School Board has complimented the people of the School District of Kewaskum. Why? Because on Tuesday, November 2, there will be 6 questions on the ballot asking you your opinion in the form of an advisory referendum. I know some people prefer to call this an unbinding referendum, and it is. No matter what you prefer to call it, your help is needed. The questions being asked will give the board direction and a clear idea of what you are thinking and where you stand on 6 different issues important to the success of our school district. You are not voting yes, or no, to any action to be taken, only yes or no to possible future action.

The district has voted against the previous two referendums. The confusing part of this isn't that both were voted down, but the reasons some people gave for voting no. For example, when the remodeling of the high school was proposed, many people told me that they were actually voting against the questions because they wanted a new high school built. Others said they voted it down because while they supported the building project, they did not support the construction of an auditorium.

To help the board reach a decision about the very future of our school district, they are asking 6 separate questions to get feedback from the residents. Your response to all 6 questions on November 2 would really be appreciated.

If you are questioning the need for the questions, remember this. John Kennedy failed to make the football team at the Canterbury School, his Connecticut prep school, and failed Latin at Choate Academy. He lost the election for president of his freshman class at Harvard University, failed to win a post on the student council as a sophomore, and dropped out of Stanford University business school. We all know JFK was also elected as the 35th President of the United States. He never gave up and his persistence was recognized and rewarded.

The 7 members of the Kewaskum School Board are committed to the children and the taxpayers of the school district. You can help by answering the 6 questions on the November 2 ballot.

The Know it All

By: A.J. Jacobs

The Guinness Book of World Records once listed a small boy as the possessor of the World's Highest Measured I.Q. Some people say the new owner of that record is a woman who lives here in the United States.

I'd like to ask either of them if having a high I.Q. means never walking into a room and instantly forgetting why you went there.

Don't you sometimes wish you knew everything? A.J. Jacobs once thought he did. That was before he spent a year reading the Encyclopedia Britannica, and in his new book "The Know-It-All" (c.2004, Simon & Schuster), he writes about his quest to become the smartest person in the world.

When Jacobs was in grade school, he read that certain chemicals in the air can kill brain cells. Since he was one of the smartest kids he knew, he took great pains to keep that from happening. Don't want to lose any of that knowledge, he thought.

As he grew up, he realized that there were people who knew more than he did, and even though he went to college and he was still pretty smart, he kind of forgot about being The Smartest and went to work as a journalist for The New York Times, Entertainment Weekly, and as senior editor of Esquire magazine. This made him really smart about pop-culture.

Inspired by his father who loves to learn, Jacobs decided one day that he wanted to read the Encyclopedia Britannica from cover to cover... from A to Z, from a-ak to Zyeiec, every Biblical reference, every historical notation, every scientific fact. Fourteen hundred dollars spent on 33,000 pages containing 65,000 articles written by 9500 contributors. Thirty-two volumes, each weighing four pounds. 44 million words.

For a year, Jacobs toted volumes around New York, quoted facts and became a Know-It-All. Throughout that year, he learned that history records lots of naked sporting events, little-known religious theories, and strange cultural practices. And during that year, Jacobs met Alex Trebek, joined Mensa, appeared on "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?", and he and his wife, Julie, tried to have a family.

I love a book that allows you to learn without preaching and teaches you something without your knowing you've been taught. "The Know-It-All" does both of those. Author A.J. Jacobs' self-deprecating humor will make you laugh out loud; he pokes fun at himself often, and freely admits that he might have been a little smug and obnoxious when spouting his new-found esoteric knowledge. I particularly enjoyed his stories about his practical-joke-loving father who, in the end, had an important lesson in store for the Know-It-All.

Trivia fans will love this book, although it's not like any other trivia book around. Be sure, if you're one of those "skip around from page to page" readers, that you read this book from beginning to end, A to Z, a-ak to Zyeiec.

"The Know-It-All" is a fun and funny book, one you'll enjoy reading.

And that is something I know.

To the Editor:

First let me say that I have great respect and gratitude for Mr. Hallen who wrote last week. He fought for this country in WWII and helped to uphold the freedom we have today. I agree that our schools should foster respect and loyalty for our great nation and the flag that represents it. I have to stop short of agreeing with his reference to this as a "Christian country," however.

It is true that this country has a large Christian majority, and that Christian principles and practices are found throughout our government. Being a democratic country, the majority makes the rules so it only makes sense that Christianity would be incorporated into the fabric of our country.

Mr. Hallen pointed out that all but two of the signers of the Constitution were devout Christians and those two believed in God as the supreme power. I'd like to point out that the Constitution was drafted so those two would also be free to practice their religious beliefs, and it appears the Christians were okay with that. There is a reason for that acceptance.

Did you ever stop to consider the consequences of making this a "truly Christian nation?" Consider the division in the Christian church. There's Catholic and Protestant, and Protestant is broken down into hundreds of different types, and there's even division within each type, usually with varying degrees of how "strictly" the rules are followed.

It would seem in a Christian nation, we could agree on a prayer to say in our public schools, but I don't think we could. And as a parent I would be uncomfortable allowing a teacher, whose religious preferences I was unaware of, lead a prayer with my children. I have the freedom to choose not only whether to be a Christian, but which kind of Christian and how I teach my children that religion. That is one of the freedoms Mr. Hallen so valiantly fought for and I appreciate that. I also want to protect that right.

We tend to forget that when we limit the rights of others, we tend to limit our own rights as well. I take the meaning of the words "under God" in the Pledge of Allegiance to refer to the way I prioritize my life - God before country. I understand that others may not call their supreme being God, or that they may not believe in a supreme being. I also realize that without this phrase, some feel the Pledge is an oath putting country before God. Perhaps there are better words to express the idea of this prioritization. I will admit, I don't have them. But in the heat of the discussion, please remember to be careful what you ask for.

To the Editor:

It was a beautiful night for going to the Marquette University Auditorium to hear the world known "Priest for Life," Father Frank Pavone speak about political abortion - pro life; which the Wisconsin Right to Life sponsored by Executive Director Barbara Lyons. Her office is located at 10625 W. North Ave., suite LL, Milwaukee, WI 53226-2331.

It was a five team women's event (and if they don't mind it, I am going to mention their names), president, Karen Ellefson, 262-626-4853, Carole Becker, 262-377-2373, Mary Wolf, Alice Barnes and myself. We left West Bend at about 5:30, leaving to get good parking and seats. The talk was about Glenn Grothman and President George W. Bush and his opponents for the Tuesday, November 2, 2004 election and abortion was what the informative guest speaker talked about. Some quotes from the women: There is never a reason for abortion - not ever!" - Mary. "People will feel like it's their duty for killing a baby." "People think this is against Christianity (Jesus being married)." - Alice. "People think anything material is bad and that Christianity is bad." - Alice.

We parked our car pretty close to the building and arrived an hour early and seated ourselves fairly close to the stage.

The entertainment was very special. They were a trio, a man and wife, Bill and Lin O'Connor and Larry Theis. The men played guitars while the woman sang. Some of the Irish songs were written by Theis himself and some were traditional. We sat there and were spellbound for about an hour.

Father Pavone started his speech by saying, "It's our Christian duty to take our citizenship seriously. People need to be approached by somebody they trust when getting someone to go out and vote. Knock on a door of a friend and say that it is important to me that you vote. Be organized and use your freedom of speech! Go to meetings, voice your opinions, have yard signs, go up and down the streets and house to house."

He went on to say, "arithmetic is the game, get out the vote. People have to pray and don't use it as a defensive. God knows what He has to do. Pledge to pray and take the process into the election office. The separation of Church and State. If you separate the state from God, the State disintegrates. While the church does not have a political mission, she nevertheless has a political responsibility - to bear witness to those moral truths without which the common good - which is the very purpose for which governments are instituted - cannot survive. These moral truths are basic and go beyond the bounds of any denominational beliefs. Because they are truths, they must shape public policy. Not only do individuals have a duty to obey God, but so do governments."

This drew loud applause from the crowd.

Get the voter to register in church, form a table by the entrances or exits. Or do it all yourself, person to person - door to door. Point out issues, study a guide or have some personal meetings. At this time Father Frank said, "Praise the Lord!" And he went on to say, "Right to Life is the fundamental issue."

Right to Life is a fundamental issue. Take for instance the killing of baby girls in Asia (China) employment, health care, throw criminals away. Why does it matter? There's evil before our eyes, because some people have no regard for terrorism, speaking of the September 11, 2001 acts. Terrorism is the same evil as abortion. Dignity of life is what we pride ourselves on. Right now we're deciding what kind of government we want. Elect people that protect life.

At this time, he said a closing prayer, "Let me not be afraid to commit myself for the culture of life. In the name of Jesus Christ, forever and forever. Amen."

He ended his fabulous talk by saying, "Register and get out to vote on election day!"

Building our reputation, one room at a time.

Kewaskum Gridiron News

Saturday turned out to be another beautiful day for the Kewaskum Gridiron Club. The fifth grade team played Thiensville-Mequon, while the sixth, seventh and eighth grade teams played Random Lake.

Though the fifth grade Indians have yet to see a win, head coach Mark Walcheske says they are a spirited bunch and are improving every week. Coach Walcheske stated that the fifth grade team is all about fundamental football and laying the groundwork for the next years in the Gridiron Club. He stressed that he wants to see everyone play and get experience on the field. Final score: Thiensville-Mequon - 27, Kewaskum - 13.

The sixth grade team did another good job, with two great wins in a row. Head coach Joe Backhaus stated that the first half was their best, performance-wise. The offensive line marched right in and did what they were supposed to. Coach Backhaus said that Ryan Ogi and Cody Nuernberg had standout performances. He went on to say that the team would be working hard at practice to get ready for some tough games coming up. Final score: Kewaskum - 20, Random Lake - 9.

Head coach Tom Kudek was happy for the seventh grade win against the Random Lake Junior Rams. He said that Random Lake has a good football program. Coach Kudek said that after an early turnover, the defense battled back with exceptional effort by Cody Enright. Putting Kewaskum on the scoreboard were Cody Lemke and Mike Eggert. Final score: Kewaskum - 19, Random Lake - 13.

For the second week in a row, the A Team (eighth grade) showed their skill and experience as they thoroughly squashed their opponents. When the final chapter is written and the book is closed on the 2004 golf season, one of the highlights for the Kewaskum team will definitely be winning the medal in the annual Washington County Scramble for the second year in a row.

Juniors Kate Korth and Nicole Rimmel teamed up for a 41 and survived a one-hole playoff to capture top honors in the event held on Sept. 22 at the Washington County Golf Course.

Joci Lutz and Amanda DiMatteo of West Bend West, team champion of the event, also posted a 41 for the front nine, so the two groups squared off in a sudden death playoff starting on the sixth hole, the No. 1 handicap hole on that side.

Korth and Rimmel parred the hole, while the two Spartans had to settle for a bogey, and the playoff was over.

This was not only the second year Kewaskum has won the medal, but it's Rimmels second straight time winning it. A year ago, she teamed up with her sister Cassie to finish first, while Korth and Crystal Dreher, who graduated last spring, finished second.

West came in with a total of 131, two strokes ahead of Hartford. West Bend East wound up third at 149, and the Indians were last at 150.

The other two KHS teams were comprised of Maggie Dickmann and Renee Wetzel and Erika Norem and freshman Jordan Benike, who is in her first year of playing golf. Those two teams posted respective scores of 54 and 55.

"Conditions were very windy, but after the first three holes, the girls got better at reading the conditions," KHS Coach Carol Martin said.

In a Little Ten Conference meet at Paganica earlier last week, the Indians finished last but had a more respectable total of 228 strokes. West won the meet with 190 to move into a first place tie with Watertown. Both schools have 13 points.

Rimmel led the Indians with a 47. "Nicole had her best round of the season, putting her in the top five individuals for the day," Martin said, reporting Korth carded a 55, followed by Norem with a 62 and Wetzel at 64.

On Saturday, Sept. 18th, the Indians traveled to the Appleton Invitational at the Winagamie Golf Course. The team was disqualified because Korth inadvertently failed to sign her scorecard before turning it in.

After finishing up the LT competition on Monday, the Indians turned their attention to the regional tournament, which was scheduled for Wednesday.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Regular Meeting
September 7, 2004
8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, in Regular Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Mathew A. Heiser presided. Trustee Steve Scheunemann arrived a couple of minutes late; all other Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the August 16, 2004 meetings were approved as printed.

Mr. James Wessing was present to ask the Kewaskum Village board for permission to pay in advance for the future development (building permits) of the RD-1 and RM-1 lots at the current sewer connection and open space fee versus the new impact fee as proposed to be reviewed and implemented in October of 2004. It was noted the suggested Sanitary Sewer connection fee is proposed to be an estimated $2,000 and the Park/Open Space fee an estimated $1,200 versus the current $200 for each that has been in existence since the 1950's. It was noted there are 9 duplex lots and 1 RM-1 lot with a proposed 48 unit multi-family to be constructed on it.

Mr. Wessing pleaded his case indicating even though this is a stand alone development it is part of the first phase and should be treated the same as the first development of 2003. It was noted there were 3 duplex lots and 1 RM-1 lot proposed to have a 48 unit multi-family complex built on it, all having been affixed the $200 per unit for both sanitary sewer and park/open space.

Attorney Gerald Kiefer informed the Board that when the 2003 development was started and until the fall of 2003, there was no action by the Board to adjust the impact fees. All developments that have occurred to this point reflect the established fee including the two that are pending approval for the signing of the Developers Agreements with the exception of proposed future building unit permits. The impact fees would be reviewed and scheduled for action in October of 2004 after notice of such public hearing and receipt of the engineer's study/report. Options and other related questions will be addressed as information is made available. The Village Board had compassion for Mr. Wessing but did not want a situation that one developer may be considered to be treated differently than the other in the future. On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni to strike and hold harmless Mr. Wessing of any future change regarding an increase in the impact fees for this Woodland Creek I development died for the lack of a majority by roll call vote. Roll call vote was 3 "Aye" 3 "Nay" 0 "Absent."

Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, Trustee Steve Scheunemann and Trustee Thomas Piwoni voting "Aye" and Trustee Andy Pesch, Trustee Harry Roecker and President Mathew Heiser voting "Nay."

A lot of follow up discussion took place with questions being asked and answers offered. On a motion by Trustee Andy Pesch, seconded by Trustee Harry Roecker to leave the developers agreement as is to capture the going rate of impact fees upon filing for a building permit per the number of units for this Woodland Creek I development died for lack of a majority by roll call vote. Roll call vote was 3 "Aye" 3 "Nay" 0 "Absent." Trustee Andy Pesch, Trustee Harry Roecker and President Mathew Heiser voting "Aye" and Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, Trustee Steve Scheunemann and Trustee Thomas Piwoni voting "Nay." Discussion continued with no resolution to the request. The item will be placed on another future agenda for discussion.

The Board reviewed bids received and opened on September 1, 2004 at 2:30 P.m. for the one block section of Western Avenue at the intersection of Braatz Drive as follows:

Scott Construction Inc., Lake Delton, WI	$24,427.80
Payne & Dolan, Inc., Jackson, WI	$25,374.90

Action is slated for new business on the above.

Fire Chief Mark Groeschel presented the July 2004 monthly report:
Fire calls 1	Year to date 21
Jaws 4	Year to date 14
Rescue call 20	Miles 354

Fire Chief Mark Groeschel informed the Board that the EMT situation is getting more difficult as to providing coverage during daytime hours. The options discussed were to have a Fire Department Officers and Village Board Joint Meeting to discuss the matter, advertise for new volunteers, possibly contract out for daytime coverage and even possibly hire a full time Fire person / EMT for daytime coverage.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel asked to be excused and was absent.

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles reported on the following:

1) Informed the Board that the hearing with the DNR was held on the 24th of August because of the overflows earlier this year because of the rain and the WPC renewal license. They are recommending three studies be completed followed by the appropriate reconstruction and updating of the facilities. There was one additional work effort regarding the outfall discharge but no study is required, just engineering. These studies and four projects will end up costing the sewer utility several millions of dollars over the next few years. It was further noted that the growth factor has nothing to do with this proposed work but rather the age of the plant and the treatment process.

On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded Trustee Steve Scheunemann and carried by the majority by voice vote, the Board approved the issuance of Operator's Licenses for 2004/2005 upon proper payment of fees and documentation for the following as recommended by the Police Department:

NEW
Hansen, Rick A. Kewaskum, WI
Pennington, Nicholas N. Whitewater, WI
Peterson, Jamie M. Kewaskum, WI
The police had no objections to those listed above.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the following with the Board:

- 1) Review of League and Taxpayer Bulletins.
- 2) Reviewed the budget control sheet for July 2004.
- 3) Review of correspondence.

On a motion by Trustee Andy Pesch, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the payment of bills as recommended by the Administrative Committee. The total of all claims as recommended are as follows:

General	127,442.27
Sewer	113,787.55
Ck #25687 - #25924
Library Fund	6,941.59
Water Fund	181,036.23
Debt Service Fund	306.50
Capital Imp Fund	20,280.0
TOTAL	$449,794.14

Board Chairperson for the Public Services Committee announce a scheduled committee meeting for September 20, 2004 at 7:00 p.m.

Board Chairperson for the Park and Recreation Committee Steve Scheunemann brought up for discussion the resurfacing/shaping of the three diamonds within the KKCP this fall and sharing the cost with the School District. The projected cost is $11,850.00. The Building and Ground Committee from the Kewaskum School District has agreed to pay for $5,000.00 if the village would pay $6,850.00. It was noted that there was no money budgeted for said work and that if the Board agreed to pay for the work it would need to be moved from the Restricted Fund under Parks & Playground Outlay. On a motion by Trustee Thomas Piwoni, seconded by Trustee Steve Scheunemann and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized said ball diamond work if the School District covers $5,000.00 of the cost.

The Board also reviewed briefly the Park and Recreation Summer Statistics for 2004. Numbers were down because of the weather.

Board Representative for the Plan Commission, Trustee Andy Pesch reported to the Board on the Plan Commission meeting of August 24, 2004. The following was reviewed:

1) Review of the concept plan for the multi-family building proposed to be located at the intersection of Bonnie Lane and Courtney Lane by JBJ Development.

2) Reviewed the concept plan for a proposed development west of the village on CTH "H" and Kettle View Drive at the SW corner currently known as the Prost Farm.

Board Representative for the Library Board, President Mathew Heiser announced a scheduled Library Board meeting for September 13, 2004.

Mid-Moraine Municipal Association Legislative Committee Representative Trustee Andy Pesch announced a Legislative Committee Meeting scheduled for September 8, 2004 at 7:00 p.m.

The Board was also informed that the Village of Kewaskum will be hosting the quarterly Mid-Moraine Municipal Association meeting October 27, 2004.

The Board was given a brief update on the Capital Improvement projects in progress.

Discussion was held on the authorization to notice a public hearing on the implementation of new impact fees. Action was taken on a Proclamation of Appreciation for Years of Service for Village Employees as attached hereto:

On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Steve Scheunemann and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board acknowledged receipt of a petition for annexation of the property adjacent to the village along Prospect Road and Badger Road (NW corner) know as the Behnke Farm and Meilahn parcel and to turn said paper work over to the Village Attorney and Village Engineers for review.

Discussion was held on the purchase of the Fire Department Brush Truck and on how it is to be paid for. Several options were discussed as to borrowing the funds. On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board directed the Administrator to prepare the resolution to borrow the fund from the Restricted Fund - DPW Machinery & Equipment account and to pay it back over a 5 year period at a rate of 3% interest. The amount of funds required will be $57,445.00.

The Bids received for the one block section for Western Avenue and intersection of Braatz Drive were reviewed and discussed. It was noted the project was not anticipated for 2004 nor budgeted for 2004, but that the street disrepair progressed exceptionally fast, requiring action. It is proposed to move the funds to complete the work from the Restricted Fund - Street Outlay account. On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board approved the contract for said work to Scott Construction, Inc., Lake Delton, WI at a projected cost of $24,427.80 the low bidder.

STATESMAN SPORTS

Offense perks up in second half in Indian victory

Indians falter at Slinger but are still unbeaten in EW

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

There was no need for a comeback by the Kewaskum High football team in Friday's game against host Kiel, but Coach Jason Piittmann did have to give the Indians a bit of a pep talk at half-time to get them to play more inspired ball than they did in the first 24 minutes.

Kewaskum scored on its first possession, then got a bit lackadaisical and went into intermission with just a 6-0 lead. At Piittmann's urging, the Indians played a little more inspired to finish with a 24-6 victory over the 0-3 Raiders. With the win, the Indians are 2-1 in Eastern Wisconsin Conference play and 4-1 overall.

Kewaskum marched 65 yards in seven plays on its first possession, which culminated with Chad Piwoni hitting tight end Matt Parrent for a 14-yard scoring strike.

The key play in the drive, according to Piittmann, was a 23-yard pass from Piwoni to Jeremy Gurholt, "the good hands man," on a third-down situation.

"Jeremy split the safeties, and Chad hit him perfectly," Piittmann said, reporting Gurholt later had a TD pass called back because of a block in the back call. Jon Olla's PAT was blocked and the score remained at 6-0.

"I don't know if they kids thought this was going to be easy" or whether they felt the pressure to beat Kiel by 30 points like the top teams in the EW did," Piittmann said, noting the Indians did get to the 2-yard line on the last play of the first half on a "dump-off pass" to Garrett Donath, who tried to turn his cutback magic into a touchdown but ran out of real estate before getting to the line.

During the break, Piittmann said he told his players to come out in the second half and strive for "perfection on every play."

The second-year head coach got the effort he was looking for. The Indians scored three more times, including once in the third quarter, using an early fumble by the Raiders to get the offense on track.

Converted fullback Jeff Thull, who has been filling in for the injured Ross Stockhausen, got TD No. 2 on a 6-yard run. This time the Indians tried for a 2-point conversion but it failed.

Thull wound up rushing for 70 yards in 13 carries.

Very early in the fourth period, Piwoni dove into the end zone to cap another drive, but the 2-point try failed again.

Kewaskum's last touchdown was scored by Donath, who was the workhorse on the team in the game, rushing for 165 yards in 31 carries.

"He ran hard. He ran well," Piittmann said about Donath. In the six games the Indians have played, Donath has gone over 100 yards in four of them.

Kiel, limited to just 119 yards of total offense, scored with :52 remaining on a short run by Eric Hoefler, who rushed for 62 yards in 15 carries.

Kiel QB Tony Tollefson went 0x5 and had one pass picked off by Eric Nass, who returned it 22 yards. This was the second straight game Nass has come up with an interception.

Defensively, Thull and Zach Wollner were each credited with nine tackles. Wollner also had a sack. Adam Janz was in on seven tackles for the winners, who host Two Rivers tomorrow night (Friday) for the Homecoming game.

Piittmann praised James Feind, who took over the guard spot after Thull was moved to the backfield. "He is making that job his," Piittmann said, lauding Feind's blocking.

Center Robert Weber had his hands full with Kiel's nose tackle Brad Ruh, according to Piittmann, who said Weber hung in there and won his share of the battles between the two.

The entire line did much better than against Roncalli, Piittmann said, indicating at times, "You could have driven a Cadillac through there (the holes)."

In other EW games played Friday night, Plymouth (3-0) topped Campbellsport (2-1) 27-7 in the battle of unbeaten, Sheboygan Falls (3-0) blasted Two Rivers 54-13 (0-3) and New Holstein (2-1) blanked Roncalli (0-3) 39-0.

Something definitely went awry for the Kewaskum High volleyball team in the Slinger Invitational on Saturday. After winning its own tournament and an EW quad meet and taking third at the tough Waupun Invitational, the Indians went 0 for 3 and did not place at Slinger.

In their first match, the Indians started with a 25-13 victory over Waukesha West in Game 1, then lost the next two, 20-25 and 16-25. Unfortunately that pattern continued in the loss to Milwaukee Lutheran and by the time the Indians got to New Berlin West, they were drained from the other defeats and could not recover.

"We just lost them all ... all close," Coach Dave Rizzardi said Sunday night, reporting there were eight teams in the competition, and teams needed to win their respective pools to advance to the finals.

Against Waukesha West, KHS got aces from Christina DeGroot, Bekki Heberer and Amanda Magnus and had some good spiking with 26 total kills, six by Heberer and Magnus. Still the play trailed off after the first game.

"We did not continue our blocking from the first game and dug a hole with poor passes and no offense," Rizzardi said.

Against Milwaukee Lutheran, the Indians looked good in their 25-17 opening win before they fell in the next two, 17-25 and 22-25.

Five Indians had perfect serving efforts in this match, led by Katie Schroeder and Danielle DeGroot, who both went 16x16. Christina DeGroot came up with three of the six aces by KHS players.

Only Briana Bastian had more than one block. She came up with two, while the kill leaders were Christina DeGroot (6), Heberer (3), Bastian (4), Danielle DeGroot (6) and Magnus (6).

"Game three saw some good rallies, but we put ourselves in a hole with some poor passing and were never able to overcome our deficit," Rizzardi said.

In their finals, the Indians lost to the new Berlin team by scores of 22-25, 25-16 and 23-25.

"On the day, we had some strong play mixed with some inconsistent play and never reached our usual level," Rizzardi said.

Individual highlights in this match included Danielle DeGroot's 17x17 serving, and a whopping eight kills by Magnus.

"No harm done," Rizzardi said about the tournament, indicating the second half of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference season starts Tuesday when the Indians host Two Rivers. Kewaskum, 7-0, is currently two games ahead of New Holstein and Plymouth, which are both 5-2.

Indians add two more EWC wins

One after another, like pins at a bowling alley, Eastern Wisconsin Conference volleyball opponents are falling to the Kewaskum High powerhouse.

Last week Tuesday, the Indians shut down second-place New Holstein in three games, and then on Thursday, they barely worked up a sweat getting past Plymouth by respective scores of 25-20, 25-17 and 25-13.

"We came out of the chute fast this evening, but Plymouth overcame our early lead to make the first game a battle," KHS Coach Dave Rizzardi said. After that, our girls took control of the match with a strong offensive effort led by Danielle DeGroot and Briana Bastian."

DeGroot had a whopping 10 kills in the three games and 16 digs on defense. Bastian chipped in with six kills, one solo block and six digs.

Rizzardi also took time to praise the continued good serving by his Indians. "Our serving accuracy is keeping pressure on the opposing team night after night," he said, reporting five of his girls with six or more attempts served a perfect 100 percent.

Leading the way at the serving line was DeGroot, going 21x21 with one ace. Amanda Magnus was perfect on her 12 attempts, while Katie Schroeder went 11x11, Christina DeGroot was 10x10 and Bekki Heberer put all her six tries in the court.

Kewaskum also blasted New Holstein on Tuesday by scores of 25-19, 25-18 and 25-14.

Schroeder had 17 assists, while Magnus had a great night hitting, and middle players Bastian and Heberer kept the Huskies off balance.

Indians finish far back in EWC tennis finale

The two smallest schools, Manitowoc Roncalli and Kohler, pretty well dominated the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Tennis Championships held at the Sports Core in Kohler last Friday and Saturday.

Roncalli players won titles at No. 1 singles and doubles, while the Blue Bombers from Kohler captured crowns at Nos. 2 singles and 2 doubles on their way to finishing first and second in the final standings with 83 and 63 points, respectively.

Kewaskum came into the meet with high hopes of getting one representative to the finals but that did not materialize as the Indians' best finishes were fourths by the No. 2 doubles team of Katie Kurer and Rachel Breese and the No. 3 pair of Theresa Trott and Ashley Feucht.

The Indians came into the meet with 18 points from the dual meets and earned four more from the two fourths for 22, putting them in seventh place among the nine teams that compete in the EW in tennis.

Kurer and Breese knocked off Duescher and Shefcheck from Kewaunee 7-5, 4-6, 6-4 in the first round and won their first set 7-6 (7-4) against Green and Foster of Roncalli in the semifinals before the Jet duo took control, winning the next two 6-2, 6-3.

Kurer and Breese lost a tiebreaker 6-7 (4-7) in the first set of their consolation match with Plymouth's team, then lost the second set 4-6.

Trott and Feucht came out on top in their opener, defeating Amy Chang and Kasia Weina of Two Rivers 6-3, 7-6 (7-3) in a pigtail match, and they won their next match as well, a 6-3, 6-4 decision over the Holzward girls from Kohler.

The KHS girls were pretty well swamped by the eventual champions from Sheboygan Falls in the semifinals. Mauer and Hoffmann downed them 6-0, 6-3, and they were competitive against Plymouth's Zimmerman and Vater in the match for third place, falling 5-7, 4-6.

No comments were available from Coach Kevin Hein on the matches. Kewaskum was the host team for this year's championships.

EWC final team standings: 1. Roncalli 83 points, 2. Kohler 63, 3. Plymouth 51, 4. Sheboygan Falls 45, 5. Two Rivers 34, 6. Kiel 27, 7. Kewaskum 22, 8. Kewaunee 20 and 9. Chilton 12.

Results involving other KHS players: No. 1 — Paige Thelen lost to Chelsea Stangel (the eventual champion) in the first round 1-6, 0-6; No. 2 — Allison Kowalczyk lost to Mary Simon of Roncalli 6-1, 0-6 in the first round; No. 3 — Krystal Cochran defeated Kayla Brenner of Chilton 6-3, 7-6 (7-4) in a pigtail match, then lost to Keenan Wolf of Kohler 1-6, 1-6 in the quarterfinals; No. 4 — Lindsey Keller lost to Nicole Shavlik of Two Rivers 2-6, 0-6 in the first round; No. 1 doubles — Natasha Lawrence and Nicole Behring lost to Kim Bruening/Bev Pence 6-4, 3-6, 4-6 in a pigtail match.

KHS kickers stay close to top teams

Steinhardt has great effort in Iron Man

"It went right to him (Kiel's goalie). Either side of him, it goes in," Hill said of Olla's powerful attempt, which garnered some oohs and aahs from the crowd.

As usual, Jahnke was a marked man for the Indians, but he still broke free from a Raider defender to drill a shot from the left side in the second half.

"They pretty much had two guys on him most of the way," Hill said, indicating the junior forward can pretty much expect double coverage the rest of the season after scoring 12 goals the first half of the season.

Playing opposite Jahnke, Hickman launched one bomb toward the Kiel net, but unfortunately it was a bit high and flew over the top of it.

"He played well again," Hill said of Hickman.

Kewaskum goal keeper Nate Kenworthy turned in his usual steady effort. The first goal was a hard shot to the left corner which he was unable to reach and the second came off a rebound shot.

"What happened is we had just taken Austin Flanders out and dropped someone in their deep," Hill said, indicating it sometimes takes a sub a minute to get in the flow of the game.

Kewaskum is now 3-4 in the EW and 5-6 overall. The Indians had lost to Kiel 4-1 in their first meeting earlier this season.

At the end of the contest, both teams displayed a great gesture of gratitude to their fans, coming over to the bleachers and applauding them for their support. A great effort

Close does count in high school sports, like early last week when the Kewaskum High soccer team nearly pulled off a huge upset against powerful Plymouth. The host Indians held the No. 1-rated (in Division 2)

In Thursday's soccer match between Kewaskum and Kiel, the score was deadlocked at 0-0 in the first half. Then Kiel scored twice in the second half. In that game, there were many spirited battles for the ball like the one above where Alex Rauch (9) and a Kiel midfielder both appear to be claiming possession.

There were past years when opposing teams would probably count a win over the Kewaskum High soccer team even before the first ball was kicked.

No longer, however, are the Indians the patsies of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. They are a few players away from becoming an upper division dweller as they showed last Thursday when they battled defending champion Kiel to a 0-0 draw at half only to lose 2-0 with the final goal coming in the last four minutes of play.

"Kiel won the conference last year. They are a good team. They are well-coached," Alex Hill, one of the team's co-coaches, said after the Indians scrapped and hustled right down to the final second of the game.

Kewaskum had approximately 11 shots in the game, which was almost double the amount by the Raiders. Included in the Kewaskum total were three by Jason Jahnke, two by Tyler Hickman and four by Noah Olla, who just missed on a header at the end.

Meyer is first but Indians take second

Coach Dave Drexler used words like "excellent" and "exceptional" to describe the efforts of his Kewaskum High boys cross country runners in Thursday's Kewaskum Invitational, but still the Indians had to settle for second place behind East Troy in the seven-team competition including Division 2 and 3 schools.

Behind second, third, 10th and 15th-place finishes, the East Troy runners wound up with 52 points, nudging the Indians, who posted a 60-point total behind the first-place effort of senior Josh Meyer.

"Josh Meyer ran an exceptional race," Drexler said. "When that gun went off, he never looked back and cruised to his best time ever for the 5,000 meter race." That time was 17 minutes and 7.77 seconds (17:07.77).

The race was held on a course behind the high school and adjacent to the school's soccer field.

The Indians' next finisher was Bob Gibson, who now appears to have taken over as the team's No. 2 runner. His time was 18:39.17, and then came Zack Van Wormer in the 11th spot at 18:59.06.

The other two counters were Jonathan Hawig (20th, 19:29.37) and Adam Janz (23rd, 19:48.63).

"All of the Kewaskum runners ran excellent races," Drexler said. "Most ran their personal best for the season."

Drexler praised the East Troy team for its effort, not just in the boys' competition but the girls as well. East Troy captured the girls title with 29 points, far ahead of runner-up Campbellsport (68 points).

In the girls' race, the winner was senior Mellisa Manke of East Troy, who completed the 4,000-meter course in 20:43.00, six seconds ahead of Anna Holzwart of Howards Grove. Katie Wondra of Campbellsport was third at 21:12.68.

Kewaskum had just two females runners, led by junior Nicole Stern, who finished 22nd with a 24:37.96 clocking.

The Indians are at the Slinger Invitational this afternoon (Thursday) at Homestead Hollow Park.

Boys team scores: 1. East Troy 52 points, 2. Kewaskum 60, 3. Markesan 65, 4. Howards Grove 86, 5. Campbellsport 125, 6. Elkhart Lake 148, 7. Ozaukee 189.

Girls team scores: East Troy 29 points, 2. Campbellsport 68, 3. Ozaukee 93, 4. Howards Grove 97, 5. Cedar Grove 105, 6. Markesan 124.

Lauren Steinhardt

Not only did Lauren Steinhardt surpass her goal in the recent Iron Man Triathlon held Sept. 12 in Madison, she finished second in her age group, which means she earned a berth in the champi-

Panthers for 69 minutes before giving up the only goal of the game in the 1-0 defeat.

"What a game it was!" Alex Hill said. "They scored with 11 minutes left in the game. Boy, we played those guys tough."

Hill went on to report the Indians had four real good scoring chances in the first half, but, "We just couldn't finish it off."

Those coming up with good shots included Jake Sabel, Jason Jahnke, Noah Olla and Matt Reward. "Olla had a real close chance ... less than one foot past the pole," Hill said, indicating when a team misses several good chances, "You usually get punished for it after while."

Hill lauded the defensive play of Austin Flanders and said, "Our keeper, Nate Kenworthy had two great saves in the first half," including one on a breakaway."

Hill admitted the Indians were definite underdogs "by a long way," but he remarked, "By the end of the game, some of our boys were disappointed we didn't beat them."

onship Iron Man that will be held in Kona, Hawaii next year.

Steinhardt finished 304th out of 2,188 participants, according to her mother, Mary, who watched the event with Lauren's dad, Mark. Her time was 11 hours and 34.54 seconds (11:34.54).

"She bettered last year's time by two hours," Mary Steinhardt said. Lauren had told the Statesman several weeks ago her goal was to break 12 hours.

Steinhardt was competing in the 18-24 age group, which she wound up second in, just eight minutes behind the winner, and among the women she wound up 35th.

Steinhardt graduated from the University of Wisconsin last May and is currently enrolled in the graduate program at the University of Denver.

"She had a perfect day," Mary Steinhardt said, reporting her daughter did not appear overly exhausted at the finish line, mainly because "She really paid attention to her body" and was very conscientious about her training the past several months.

Steinhardt had to sign up for the Iron Man in Kona the day after the Madison competition. Qualifiers not signing up within 24 hours would automatically lose their spot in the Hawaii competition.
