Volunteer firefighters band together to fight Kohlsville barn fire

Shown above are the charred remains of a fire that brought nine area volunteer fire departments together to fight one of the largest fires in Washington County this year. The fire happened Wednesday, September 30 just before 1:30 in the afternoon.

On September 29, 2004 at 1:27 p.m., the Kohlsville Fire Department responded to a barn fire located at 6386 CTH D in the Town of Wayne. The property owner was inside the barn at the time and called 911 when alerted to the fire by an employee. The employee and the property owner escaped the fire without injury. The fire quickly spread from the top level of the barn throughout the rest of the large barn and milking parlor. The structure and all the contents was a total loss. The intense smoke could be seen from miles away. The intense heat melted the siding off one side of the residence that was approximately 100 feet away from the barn.

Inside, or near the barn, were assorted tractors and vehicles that were destroyed. The property owner and employees were able to remove some of the cattle, however, 71 cows perished in the fire. The Washington County Sheriff's Department is working with the Agricultural Specialist from the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources to ensure the proper disposal of the animals and ensure public safety. The cause of the fire is still under investigation. The damage to the building and its contents were valued at approximately $500,000. Allenton FD, Kewaskum FD, West Bend FD, St. Lawrence FD, Slinger FD, Theresa FD, Campbellsport FD and Lomira FD assisted at the scene. There were no injuries of emergency personnel reported. Traffic was re-routed for more than five hours. The local Red Cross was not able to provide aide to firefighters because two disaster workers are providing hurricane relief in Florida and Alabama. Firefighters, however, were assisted by their wives and family in regards to providing drinking water. The West Bend McDonald's donated 125 cheeseburgers to the firefighters who graciously accepted the gift according to fire chief Ray Dornacker.

Kewaskum Fire Department purchases new brush fire truck

Members of the Kewaskum Fire Department will be sporting a new piece of equipment to tackle grass and brush fires this spring. The much needed piece of equipment will be replacing a 1977 Chevrolet brush truck. The village board gave their approval to borrowing the fire department $57,445 for the purchase of a 2005 GMC Crew Cab with a duramax diesel engine. The truck will feature a slide-in 150 gallon poly tank with pump. The village will charge the department 3% interest on the note. The village will take the money from its machinery and equipment outlay account at no cost to taxpayers. The fire department is completely run by its volunteer members along with its ambulance service. The department is desperately in need of new members wishing to give their talents as an emergency medical technician or a firefighter. Interested parties wanting to become a volunteer fire fighter should contact Chief Mark Groeschel at 626-2842. Interested E.M.T.'s should contact captain Sandy Hahn at 626-1320.

LOCAL NEWS BRIEFS

● KOHLVILLE AND BOLTONVILLE TO HOLD OPEN HOUSES- Two local volunteer fire departments will hold open houses for Fire Prevention week which runs from October 3-9. Kohlsville will have their open house on Thursday at their fire station on Highway W from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Highlights there will be demonstrations and a coloring contest with the winners getting a ride home in a fire truck. The boys in Boltonville will open the doors on Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. Highlights in Boltonville will be a first responder demo, vehicle apparatus display and much more. The Boltonville Fire Station is located off Hwy 144 on Bolton Drive.

● FARMINGTON CRASH LEAVES ONE INJURED- A 41-year-old Town of Farmington man was taken to Froedtert Hospital in Milwaukee via Flight for Life helicopter after a one-vehicle crash Sunday. Kenneth Otto lost control of his vehicle on Orchard Valley Road. The car left the roadway and struck a tree. A Washington County Sheriff's Deputy found the crash while on patrol at around 1 a.m. Alcohol is suspected to have played a roll in the crash.

● DEPUTY SHERIFF MAKES INTERESTING ARREST- The Green Bay Packers may want to take a look at Washington County Sheriff's Deputy Hope Demler. That's after the 5' 6" deputy tackled a suspect who fled on foot after being pulled over for D.W.I.. The incident happened around 11:30 p.m. Thursday, October 1. The 24-year-old man reportedly failed to stop and led authorities to his driveway in the Town of Addison. After fleeing from officers Demler chased the suspect into a farm field, tackling him and eventually cuffing him. Demler says the man tried tugging at her gun, so she pepper sprayed him. The man went about 6' 2". He faces charges of D.W.I., resisting an officer, and attempting to disarm an officer. Demler who is said to be able to bench press about 200 pounds has been with the department for four years.

Burglaries continue in Washington County

Washington County Sheriff's Deputies are working hard to solve a recent rash of burglaries that have plagued this area. Over the last few weeks small break-ins have occurred in the townships of Kewaskum, West Bend, Barton, Richfield and Erin. Deputies say most of the thefts appear to be related and committed by the same people. The other common thread is the burglaries occur during the daytime and when homes are unoccupied. The burglars seem to be after cash and jewelry, and leave high tickets items. If you notice suspicious activity please contact the Sheriff's Department at 335-4378.

Village Construction Project Complete

Work is progressing on the completion of the boulevard on Edgewood Road. The base course of asphalt has been laid. Landscaping and the laying of the surface course of asphalt are the only parts of the project left to be completed. Highway H west is also shaping up. Sidewalk has been completed and crews are now working on connecting a sewer line from Bel-Ric Drive to flow to the main lift station, eliminating a lift station that is about to break-down. With the new Potawatomi Prairie subdivision the Bel-Ric sewer line can run with the line from Potawatomi Prairie saving tax payers the burden of replacing the dying lift station.

Fillmore Fire Dept. to hold groundbreaking ceremony

The Fillmore Fire Department will be breaking ground for their new 3500 square foot addition to the fire station. The ceremony will begin at 12:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 10 at 8485 Trading Post Trail. Refreshments and Fire Prevention Open House will follow.

This addition was made possible by a very generous donation from Dan and Judy Arndt, members of the department. Two other grants were received from the West Bend Mutual Insurance Company and the West Bend Mutual Charitable Fund. A building fund was also established four years ago with proceeds from two annual fish fries and an annual calendar fundraiser designated to this project.

The current station is 40 ft x 60 ft and was built in 1964. This includes an expansion of 23 ft x 60 ft that was added in 1984. In the last 10 years, the department's membership has grown by 44% as well as additional equipment being added. The new addition will alleviate critical space needs, as well as provide a safer environment for the firefighters.

In the master's category a group from West Bend took first place in the relay. Runners included Amy and Ric Leitheiser, Larry Lanser and Judy Steffes.

Other local runners included Janet Roeming, Steve Wagner, Norman Tornow, Rick Punzenberger, Wayne Bohlmann, Beth Bensen, Mary Eichner, Rick Lathers, Rob Sanborn, Dave Levine, and Kellie Ferrier-Arn. Stabbing in Town of Trenton

Washington County Sheriff's Deputies are investigating a stabbing that occurred Sunday morning in the Town of Trenton. Authorities say six people were partying in the basement of a home when one man stabbed another in the abdomen.

That happened just before 5 a.m. Deputies say the men involved were drinking when an argument ensued and the knife came out. One man was taken to St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend, his condition is unknown.

Charges are expected to be filed by the end of the week against a 34-year-old West Bend man.

Washington County Sheriff asks for three more deputies

The Washington County Finance Committee will reconsider a request by Sheriff Brian Rahn for an additional three deputies. Rahn says the department has not added deputies in four years for road patrol duties and with the hospital moving out of town and an increase in population the sheriff is concerned about response time and he thinks the request is justified.

The finance committee has recommended preliminary approval of a $13.58 million budget for the department in 2005. The plan does not include the addition of three deputies.

The finance committee will review the Sheriff's requests again this week, after they wrap up their initial budget review schedule. The County Board is expected to approve a final 2005 operating budget November 4.

Hunting accident in Fond du Lac County

A Mayville man was shot in the head while bow hunting Sunday. The Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department says John Wilde was in a tree stand in the Town of Ripon when he was shot in the back of the head by a Madison man who was hunting squirrels.

Wilde was flighted by Theda Star helicopter to Theda Clark Hospital in Neenah. The shooting, which happened around 7:15 a.m., is under investigation by sheriff's deputies and the state DNR. The Madison man who fired the shot, 59-year-old Yia

Lee, said he thought Wilde was a squirrel.

Heberer finds time to help his community

Mike Heberer put numerous hours into the renovation of the ice cream stand in River Hill Park.

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Their pledge is service to the community, and the Kiwanians have lived up to that billing with their continued financial support of youth projects in the village and most recently their backing on the renovation of some of the buildings in the River Hill Park.

Still, there have to be volunteers to get the work done ... volunteers like Mike Heberer, a Kiwanian who almost single-handedly spruced up the ice cream stand in the park.

Heberer, who undoubtedly has plenty of chores and responsibilities at home with his wife and three children, found the time to close up the old swinging doors and replace them with new roll-up windows. He also installed a new entrance door.

When asked how many hours it took to finish the project, Heberer said, "probably around 35," which would have been more than a couple rounds of golf, plus trips to Miller Park and some picnic outings.

"The Kiwanis Club took this on as a project," Heberer said, indicating he, Charlie Walls and Gary Gavin formed a committee to get the ball rolling. Gavin secured permits for the project and lined up the masons for some preparation work, according to Heberer, while Walls helped organize the project and brought in all the materials.

"It's all block. It was in real good shape," Heberer said about the building. He was not certain when the stand was built, but Administrator Dan Schmidt said, "As far as I know, it dates back to the late 40's or early 50s."

Heberer also noted Lee Kempf was a big help. Kempf volunteered to build the stainless steel window sills and installed them.

"Everyone pitched in here and there. The Kiwanis Club painted the building during one of their meetings," Heberer said, figuring the Kiwanians chipped in 65 hours of work to go with his 35.

Inside the building, a sink was installed, along with a hot water heater and cabinets, making the building more functional.

The Statesman attempted to contact Kiwanis Club treasurer Kevin Scheunemann to find out the cost of the project but he was not available for that information.

"It was completed by Holy Trinity's Social Fest," Heberer said, indicating he still has one roll-up window to finish and wants to have the work completed by this weekend for the Kettle Kountry Kolours celebration in the park. The Chamber of Commerce is also attempting to finish work on its stand by Saturday.

One month until Conrad Birdie arrives at KHS

One month left before the famous teen rock idol comes to Kewaskum, and we sure hope that you are making plans on seeing and hearing this giant of the music world singing on stage in Rose Hall at Kewaskum High School. The information below should be of great benefit for those of you wanting to learn more about the dates, times and ticket prices. Next week more time will be devoted to the cast of this wonderful musical.

Tickets will be available on Monday evening, October 18, in the music area of the high school. They will be available in person from 6:00 to 8:00 PM. Cost of the tickets is the same as the past few years and all seats are reserved. You will be able to purchase $5.00 seats, which put you close to the stage, $4.00 seats, which aren't as close, but are still on the floor, and the $3.00 bleacher seats. The bleacher seats are made out of hard wood and may not be very comfortable, but they are higher than the floor seats and may have a better sight line. The floor seats are made of unyielding metal, but give you the advantage of being closer and possibly have better hearing. Whatever seats you reserve, plan on bringing a cushion along to be more comfortable.

After October 18, tickets may be reserved in person in the Choir room, or by simply calling the high school at 626-8427, extension 5471. So set aside Friday, November 5, or Saturday, November 6 and get your tickets soon.

There will also be a free performance for all area senior citizens on Thursday, November 4th, beginning at 4 p.m. at Kewaskum High School.

ABOVE: Students from Wayne Elementary School participated in a special fire drill Tuesday with volunteer firefighters from Kohlsville Fire Department. The firefighters participated in the drill as part of Fire Prevention Week. After students were accounted for and out of the building the firefighters did a walk through of the building and "extinguished" the mock fire. Students had an opportunity to check out the equipment the firefighters use when combatting fires. Kohlsville Fire Department will host an open house Thursday, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the fire station located at the corner of Highways D and W. Demonstrations will be given and a coloring contest will be a featured attraction. Winners of the coloring contest will be given a ride home in a fire truck. Refreshments will also be served. Internationally known author of teen talking circle workshop coming to Fond du Lac for weekend training; Kewaskum High School sends four staff

Most parents of a teenager are concerned about the safety, happiness and well being of their young adult. A rare few decide it is so important to them that they want to write a book about how to support their teenager into adulthood.

Linda Wolf, Director of "The Teen Talking Circle Project" and founder of DaughtersSisters BrothersSons GenderTalks has done just that. Her web site is full of her credentials, articles, books and videos she has co-authored and workshops she has presented throughout the United States and other countries. Her website address is www.teentalkingcircles.org.

Coming to Fond du Lac, on October 8, 9 and 10th to present a workshop to adults on how to start and run Teen Talking Circles, she shared the following in a recent interview.

"In 1993, as a parent of two young daughters, I feared that I wouldn't be able to be as good a mother to them as they became teenagers. I worried that much of what I'd left behind unhealed in myself from my own teen years - fears, pain, disappointments, self-doubt, confusion, anger, sadness -- would get in the way of my being able to help them make it through theirs. I wanted to be an adult they could talk with, who was still alive, vital, in touch with the spirit that abounds in the teen years, which can be both creative and dangerous. I wanted them to be able to tell me the truth of whatever they were going through, as well as to be able to give them space to have their own private experience. I wanted to honor their soul's journey. I wanted them to trust me to make mistakes, but to always love and be there for them. I truly believed, and still do, that the process of individuation didn't have to mean separation, cutting off, as is the stereotype in our culture - but that we could go through individuation while redefining our connection.

I decided to write a book which would have everything in it I felt they needed to know. A friend of mine, Karen Wind Hughes, who was also a mom, as well as a therapist, became my co-author. We began by writing letters to all of the people whose books we had read, classes we had attended or workshops we had taken; people such as Marion Woodman, Jungian analyst; Maya Angelou, poet; Carol Gilligan, scholar, and Michael Meade, mythologist. We asked them to be our advisors as we embarked on this book project together.

We pulled together a diverse group of teenage girls and told them what we wanted to do, 'to write a book for them that they would want to pass around among themselves that would not be another book to make adults feel comfortable, but would tell the truth.' To gather information we formed what we called a "Girls Focus Group," to focus on the issues girls were dealing with. We planned for the group to last for 10 weeks, but the talking circle, the safe space, was so different, so healing and important that the girls begged us not to stop the Group. So we put the book on hold and continued the group for 2 years, including inviting boys to come sit in circle with us, in what we now call GenderTalks, and then starting a group for young men as well. These groups have continued over the past ten years.

Eight years later and having facilitated "Teen Talking Circles" throughout the United States and other countries

I have learned some basic needs of young people today. Youth today need other youth and adults they can be real with, with whom they can tell the truth, people who they can trust and who will "sit in the fire" in relationship with them and also tell the truth; people who have the will and the courage to stay connected and address the issues that come up, and learn how to be in sustainable relationships.

Youth need adults who walk their talk. Adults who are willing to look at and work on their own issues, and be honest with themselves -- adults who are modeling ways to solve conflicts responsibly, support life-affirming values, be a good friend, do their best to love themselves, let go, be in the flow of life, forgive, understand, and not give up - adults who allow themselves to grow and change, and above all who see themselves, in relationship, as part of whole systems, rather than creating designated patients.

I have noticed again and again that if young people have a safe space where they can be themselves and really look at their lives and what matters to them, what has meaning, without fear of judgment and criticism, or of rejection or punishment, they begin to understand themselves better, to create better relationships and to feel more hopeful. They make healthier choices based on what is coming from inside themselves, not what is being imposed from outside.

Because Teen Talking Circles, and the use of the practice of Compassionate Listening, are based on speaking and listening from the heart, in a co-mentoring way, the relationship between the facilitators and participants can be truly nonhierarchical and au-

Education... It's Everyone's Business

By Wayne P. Graczyk,
Kewaskum Superintendent of Schools
www.kewaskumschools.org

One of the best compliments a person can receive is when someone asks them for help. Your help is being asked for on November 2.

On the upcoming November 2 General Election, there will be 6 questions on the ballot for you to respond to. Please take the time, after casting your vote for our 44th President of the United States and other candidates for elected office, to read and review the questions presented. All 6 questions ask only IF you would support a referendum, NOT asking you to vote on a referendum. There is a significant difference. This is what is called advisory questions, or as one person called it, a "non-binding" set of questions. Your responses will help guide the School Board in making future decisions in the months and years ahead.

Question #1 asks if you would support a five (5) year textbook replacement cycle funded through a referendum. If you would be willing to support this in a future referendum, simply respond, "Yes". If not willing, mark "No".

It's not about telling kids what to do; it's about really hearing where they're at which is so mutually empowering. Usually most programs are about getting kids to do certain things or be a certain way - this isn't about that.

I truly believe the more we can create safe space to speak and listen from our hearts, and hold each other as human beings in process, the better chance we have to deal with all that life brings and possibly help teens before they do harm to themselves or others.

The mission of the Teen Talking Circle Project is to give youth a safe space to tell the truth, practice Compassionate Listening, and create lasting relationships between the genders, generations and cultures. We support youth in positive self-expression, ethical leadership, and social action for a just, equitable and sustainable world."

Kewaskum High School is sending four staff members to the "Teen Talking Circles" training. A big thank you goes out to our community Lions Club who donated $600 towards the tuition of two of the KHS participants. Participants include, Christine Horbas, Principal, Stacy LaRonge, Student Council Advisor, and Arlene Paulus with Tiffany Zarling, Peers-4-Peers Advisors.

"The Kewaskum community is a fast growing place where many are choosing to live and raise their families. Our youth are a critical part of the future of our community. As we grow it will be crucial that all feel listened to and heard in order to maintain the quiet and comfortable status we have enjoyed. I am pleased to have Kewaskum staff attending this level of training that they can in turn teach our youth." shared Principal Christine Horbas.

Question #2 asks if you would support increasing technology access for students that would be funded through a referendum. This would include such things as establishing a replacement cycle for existing computers to keep them current and creating mobile computer labs, wireless computers on a cart at the middle school, since there are no rooms available for a standard computer lab. If you would support this in a future referendum, simply respond, "Yes". If you don't support it, mark "No".

If you wish to have a copy of the exact questions sent to you, please feel free to call 262-626-8427, Ext. 8001 and request that a copy be sent to you, or go to our web site shown above.

25 Months

By: Linda McK Stewart

When former President Reagan was diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease, some people cruelly nodded their heads and remarked about how that explained a lot. Most of us, though, were aghast. How sad, we said. Did he know what was happening to him? That poor man.

Alzheimer's must be terrible for sufferers who lose a little part of their past every day, but it's a special kind of Purgatory for their partners, and in "25 Months" by Linda McK Stewart (c.2004, Other Press), you'll read one woman's memoir of caretaking, loving, and bewilderment.

Jack Stewart was a healthy man, a tennis player with a sure serve. He had a quick, curious mind and he was a collector of unusual history. Nothing made Jack happier than to spend time with old friends, and his children and grandchildren. He loved summers on the beach and biking around his neighborhood.

When he met Linda, she was a U.S. representative of a French publishing firm. Linda had 3 kids, Jack had 2, but their lives melded together and they were happy.

Jack retired but never really retired, which is what happens to so many active older people. He had offers for this project and that one, and he loved a challenge. But one morning, Jack woke up from a nap, confused and discombobulated, and was taken to the hospital. Tests soon revealed that Jack had Alzheimer's.

How could this be? Didn't Alzheimer's sneak up on someone, Linda asked. She was told that, in some people, Alzheimer's appears in a single, sudden occurrence. Jack Stewart was one of those people.

For the next 25 months, Linda Stewart fought on her husband's behalf. She asked questions, searched for medical answers, and accepted help from friends, family, and an angel named Clarence Bell. As she watched her husband lose a little of himself every day, she remembered their lives together and she struggled to communicate with Jack as he swiftly deteriorated into a husk of the man he once was.

If remembrances and experiences make us who we are, what happens when they're wiped out? Linda McK Stewart asks that question, but she has no answers and neither does medical science. There is no known definitive cause for Alzheimer's Disease, and there is no cure - yet.

"25 Months" is a true story, and Linda McK Stewart vividly tells of the numb, desperate, disbelieving horror of watching someone you love disappear. While I think this book is something very unique, in that it portrays Alzheimer's from a different perspective, I think that if you're caring for someone with Alzheimer's, this isn't going to tell you anything you don't already know. Struggling readers might be off-put by the Stewart's obvious affluence; it's not cheap to care for an Alzheimer's patient, but the Stewarts apparently were well-off enough to ease the financial burden considerably. "25 Months" is a heartbreaking, eye-opening book, highly recommended for medical professionals and baby boomers with ageing parents. It will definitely make you stop and think about the future.

To the Editor:

Town of Farmington residents should be aware of a misguided and malicious recall petition against our two Town Supervisors for doing their jobs. The town clerk has published what may be assumed is the official town position. Now its time for the rest of the story...

In 1994, a newly formed Land Use Planning Committee was established and a survey was done to determine direction. In 1996 a Land Use Plan was presented to the town and approved. A tiny special interest group has kept this 20th century version from implementation for eight long years until our two diligent and responsible town supervisors were successful in installing a Land Zoning Moratorium until a 21st century Land Use Plan and Ordinances are in place.

This action, long called for, but constantly stalled was in response to the unprecedented influx of residential rezoning requests thru both minor land divisions and agricultural rezoning. The Town of Farmington is the only known township without clear, coherent and modern zoning ordinances and Land Use Plan and Map needed to insure orderly, manageable growth thus making Farmington the target for all developers.

The Planning Commission needs to address many issues such as smart growth, environmental concern, good land stewardship and the general direction our citizens desire, namely maintaining the rural character and lifestyle and reigning in unbridled, rambling developments.

It is a matter of record, that the Planning Commission approved by motion, certain revisions to lot sizes on February 17, 2004. This action incensed the special interest group who succeeded in issuing an unnecessary opinion survey, the author of which is unknown, and not consistent or in agreement with the intent and content of many commission members.

The revised ordinance, which included the increased lot sizes, was sent to the Town Board and approved. At the September Town meeting, one of the promoters of the recall claimed he was not the instigator. Incidentally, this person caused some $1000 damage to a town road and refused to pay for repairs until our two supervisors stood up and finally accepted $1000 road bond forfeiture as payment.

Another road damage incident was temporarily patched by mid-night requisitioning from the town stockpile of cold-patch. The taxpayers are out of material cost. Attempt to recover in both instances were opposed by town chairman.

Perhaps the Grand Daddy of all Boo-boos was the BFD burning of a contaminated Historic Site with open well along with damaging a neighboring structure. The town contributes $65,000 yearly to this cause. Read the Milwaukee Journal for details.

The special interest group behind this recall is responsible for many thousands of taxpayer's money wasted by their delaying tactics, extra meetings, etc.

The DNR planned North Branch Project, which encompasses roughly 1/3 of the township is in essence a PDR financed by tax money same as a PDR but without the economic benefits to the community a PDR can provide.

In this town you have a special interest group concerned over their economic interests as opposed to two fiscally responsible, diligent supervisors who champion the interest of the taxpayer. It's your choice Who Rules to Roost.

The Planning Commission Chairman at the September 7, 2004 meeting stated, "The Planning Commission and Town Board are doing a good job and should be supported." Amen.

To the Editor:

On Friday, October 1, 2004 at 7 p.m., my daughter Debbie, and my two granddaughters, Hannah and Abi went to see "Beauty and the Beast" at the Schauer Arts and Activities Center, Ruth A. Knoll Theater, Hartford.

I would like to make a comment on how the Enchantment Theater Company presented it. The scenic design by Dennis Cohen and special effects by David Hearn and lighting design by Thomas C. Hase were something of a breathtaking experience to see.

It was directed by Leslie Reidel and the cast all did well with being puppeteers. We did so very much enjoy watching it. We are very fortunate in having the Theater so close to us mileage wise. It's a pleasure and we'll continue to go there.

To the Editor:

Conservatism; a political philosophy that resents change and exalts the established institution of society, formed by the break of England, wealthy white men responding to retain their status and power. Modern conservatives have swept into office tax cuts, de-regulation, increased defense spending and attacks on welfare states. De-regulation caused the failure of many S & Ls. The cost to taxpayers - billions. Attacking welfare states, but let's not talk about corporate welfare which is probably three times more.

Liberalism; a political philosophy whose ideals of individual freedom and liberty formed the philosophical basis of the American Revolution. Modern liberalism emerged from the late 19th century progressive movement to provide for the general welfare of the population. Ideas were spawned such as FDR's New Deal program, social security, poverty relief, unemployment compensation and other social programs.

Is the Republican policy to shrink government misconstrued as shrinking the cost of government.

If so why has the national debt under Reagan and now Bush skyrocketed? Mr. Bob Dohnals comments are the kind I would expect from a right wing conservative. Name-calling and mudslinging rather than addressing the problems and being specific about the GOP platform, not vague ideas. The Republican party came into being as an issue of anti-slavery, backed by wealthy whigs. After the freedom of slaves the republicans did nothing to help the freed slaves, but made sure big-business policies were always in place. The question is this, should we as a government feel compelled to care for the down trodden and underprivileged? Or do we believe that people in general will care for those people? Do we believe that the morals in this country are going up? It seems to me our idea of capitalism has created greed, selfishness, a self-centered self-serving attitude. I'm sure Bob Dohnal believes that homeless people are there because they want to be, not because of a mental illness. Should our governments policies conform to the wealthy minority or the low/middle class majority?

EQIP working to develop nutrient management plan

WEST BEND - The Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) is a voluntary conservation program. It supports production, agriculture and environmental quality as compatible goals. Through EQIP, farmers may receive financial and technical help with structural and management conservation practices on agricultural land.

In Washington County EQIP provides technical assistance and cost-share payments to producers. Signup and details regarding eligible practices and cost-share rates are announced each year. NRCS will evaluate each application, with higher priorities given to applications that use cost-effective conservation practices, address local priorities, and provide the most environmental benefit.

Farmers will develop a farm conservation plan, if they don't already have one, for the acreage affected by EQIP practices. Conservation practices must meet RCS technical standards. Farmers may elect to use Technical service providers for technical assistance, if available.

The landowner can choose to develop a Nutrient Management Plan, with assistance from Natural Resource Conservation Service (NRCS) and/or Washington County Land and Water Conservation Division (LWCD). The plan is based on realistic crop yield goals, soil test to determine the nutrients available in the fields, and taking credit for nutrients from legumes and manure applications. The plan may also identify areas of special concerns such as flood plains and steep slopes. Nutrients are applied at proper time using the appropriate application method. Sound nutrient management reduces fertilizer cost and protects the water quality.

The EQIP program in Washington County provides $4/acre as an incentive payment to develop and apply the nutrient management plan the first year, and $2/acre/year to apply the plan to the land in each of the next two years. Payments are issued after the written plan has been completed and applied.

When planning a nutrient management plan Technical Service Providers and local conservation agencies can help you to prepare the nutrient plan. For the plan you should:

- Test soil and manure according to University of Wisconsin guidelines to get an accurate picture of available nutrients.
- Calculate nutrient credits for manure, the previous year's legumes crop and fertilizer applications.
- Make sure the nutrient management plan is consistent with your farm conservation plan, especially crop rotations and practices to prevent runoff erosion. Soil erosion must be at or below tolerable soil levels "T."

- Weigh and calibrate manure spreaders to determine the amount of manure in a load.

The EQIP check list to develop a Nutrient management plan:

- State certified soil testing Laboratory Samples in a five acre grid.
- Manure analysis
- Manure spreader calibration
- Annual manure production
- Crop rotation and crop history
- Yield Goals

For more information on EQIP, the 2002 Farm Bull, or NRCS, visit www.wi.nrcs.usda.gov or contact the District Conservationist, Mark Baran at the USDA NRCS West Bend Field Office at 262-335-4801.

New law requires wholesale motor vehicle

Starting November 1, 2004, a new law will require motor vehicle buyers at wholesale auctions to hold a motor vehicle buyer's license from the Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT). Auto dealers employ buyers to stock their inventory with used cars from wholesale auctions. Under the new law, only licensed motor vehicle dealers, wholesalers or licensed vehicle buyers are allowed to buy vehicles at auction or from other dealers. This law does not affect dealer principles and licensed wholesalers; they may purchase vehicles at auctions without a motor vehicle buyer's license. This law only affects employees or agents who act as buyers on behalf of dealer principles and wholesalers.

The buyer's license, created by Wisconsin Act 216, protects consumers and dealers by bringing all professional buyers and sellers, who move a vehicle at any point from the time of manufacture to the time of disposal, under WisDOT regulation. "This law protects dealers and consumers," notes WisDOT Secretary Frank Busalacchi. "It's a good law all the way around."

In an effort to issue several thousand buyer's licenses by November 1, auctions will collect applications on behalf of WisDOT and issue a receipt, allowing buyers to begin bidding the same day. Applicants may also find application materials online or by calling the WisDOT dealer hotline at (608)266-1425

Anderson, Henning are kings of Best Ball competitionFormer KHS Standout
Playing at UW-Stout

The final Hon-E-Kor tournament of the year, the Best Ball, was held last Saturday and Sunday. Above, Ryan Amerling tees off on blue number nine. Amerling and his partner, Tom Cole, wound up second in the First Flight with a score of 154 for 36 holes.

Their lead was just three shots at the end of the first round, but defending champions Craig Anderson of West Bend and Hartford's Bruce Henning pretty well closed the door on the rest of the competitors in the 20th annual Hon-E-Kor Best Ball with their 4-under par 31 on the Blue Nine Sunday.

"My partner made an eagle on the third hole," Anderson said Sunday night, reporting Henning followed a monster drive with a 7-iron that landed just 18 inches away from the hole for a tap-in eagle.

"I birdied the first hole (on the Blue)," Anderson went on, indicating Henning came up with a 3 on No. 3, giving them the 4-under.

This kind of team play gave the two men a 67 for the day to go with Saturday's 70 for a 3-under 137 for the 36 holes.

The Best Ball is usually held in May, but Mother Nature had other ideas this year when she dumped over a foot of water on the course. In recent years, 60 teams have competed in the event, but with the change in dates, the number was reduced to 32 this year.

Joe Doherty and Mike O'Connor Jr., both of West Bend, made a little run on the White Nine to get within four shots of the leaders but a bogey on the par-3 No. 14 halted a good run. Doherty and O'Connor ended up with a 67 Sunday for a 142, good for second place. They were followed by Keith Gagnon and Paul Ley, who carded a solid 73 on Saturday but slipped back a couple of shots for 75 and a 148 total, giving them third.

Jay Krueger, like Anderson a teacher and coach with the West Bend School District, teamed up with Mike Flannery to take fourth with respective rounds of 74 and 75 for a 149.

"Individually we probably didn't score real well. Neither of us shot better than 76 either day," Anderson said, "But we really best-balled it."

Doherty and O'Connor were in the group ahead of Anderson and Henning, and the eventual winners got wind Doherty birdied Nos. 10 and 12, and Anderson and Henning bogeyed No. 13, so another shot of their lead had vanished.

Anderson's par on No. 14 boosted the lead back up to five shots.

Anderson said after coming in with the 31, "I thought we were in pretty good shape," but indicated the strong west wind made conditions difficult and he didn't want to be overconfident.

With the win, Anderson has won eight titles in a row, including the HEK men's championship, the Kettle Moraine Amateur crown and the Best Ball.

Before teaming up with Henning last year, Anderson had won four Best Ball titles with Mike Maurer (in 1996, '98, 2000, '01) and another with Paul Kostelac in 1995, so he has seven altogether.

When asked if this final title will help him battle the winter's no-golf blues, Anderson answered affirmatively. "It was a pretty good golf year for me," he said, not just at Hon-E-Kor but in the two WSGA (Wisconsin State Golf Association) events he played in. He finished 25th in the State Amateur Tournament, automatically qualifying for the event in 2005, and in the Governor's Cup for golfers 40 and over, he finished tied for sixth or seventh.

Rounding out the Championship Flight, Lee Benish and Mike Herrick wound up fifth at 154 (77-77), followed by Joe and Mike Volesky, 155 (83-72) and Jim Rohlinger and Jim "Jonesy" Korth, also at 155 (76-79) and Jim Dean and Rod Donnelly, 156 (77-79).

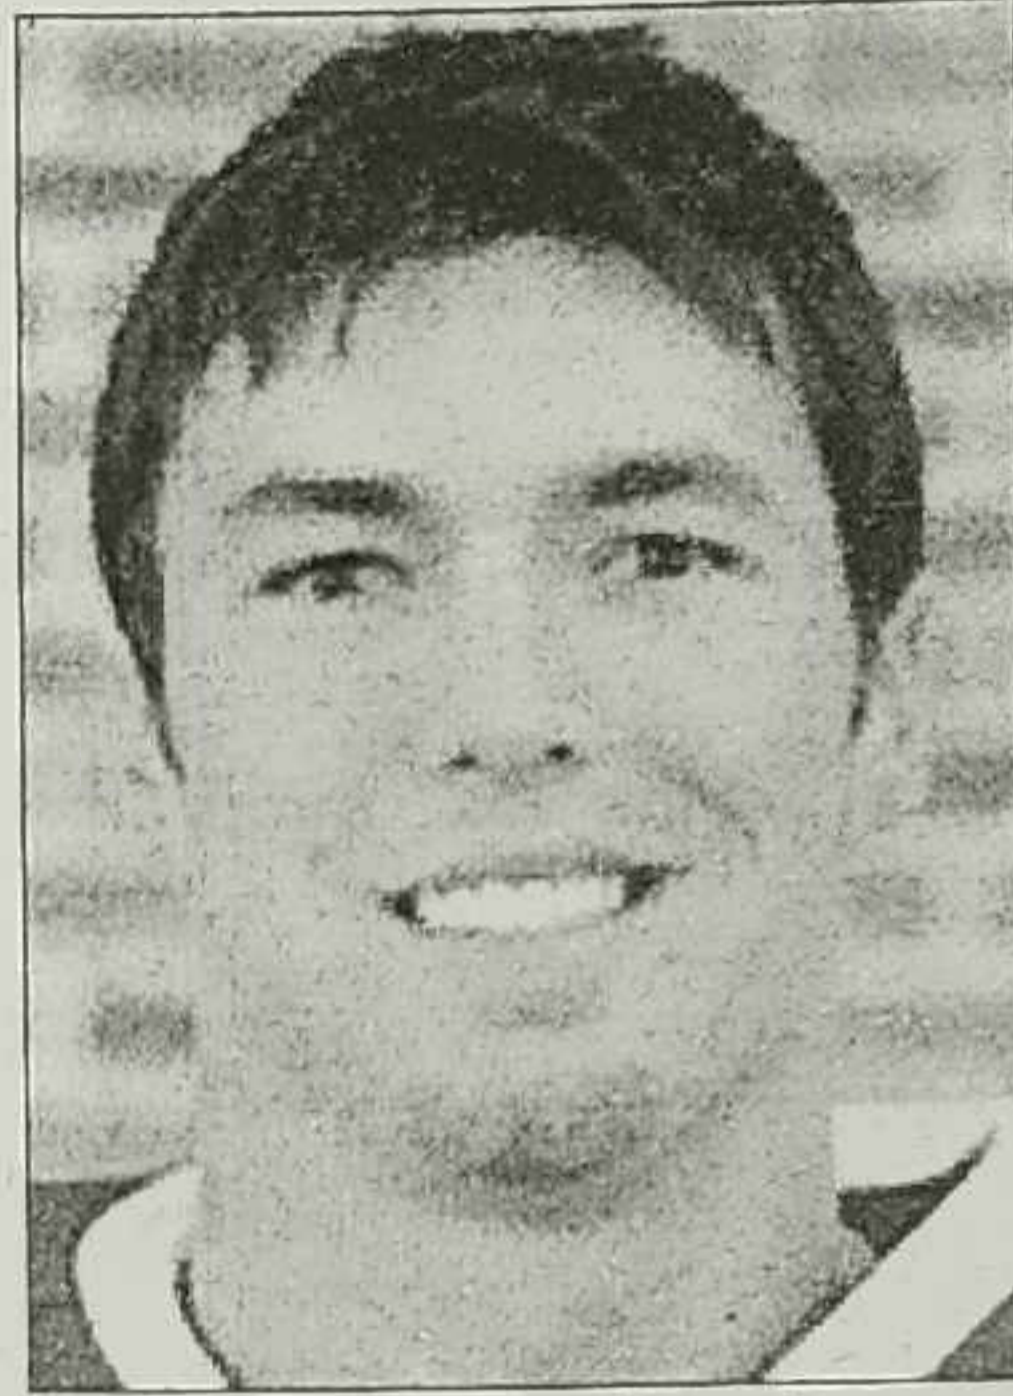

Winning the First Flight title were Larry Sterr and Kevin Youngberg with their 153 on 18-hole scores of 76-77.

Ryan Amerling, one of the greens superintendents at Hon-E-Kor, and his partner, Tom Cole, were a shot back with a 75-79—154. Ted Wuebben and Dave Davis combined skills to take third place at 78-79—157, just ahead of Mike Biersack and Dan Hopp's 77-81—158.

The champs in the Second Flight were Bob Beck and Don Zimdars, who had two shots on their chief competitors. The Beck-Zimdars duo came in at 158 (76-82), while Brian Ogle and Rob Blair were the runners-up with 160 (80-80). Third and fourth, respectively, were Tom Bartlet and Chuck Cannestra at 161 and Bill Micheels at 165.

Winning the Third Flight were Brian Dreher and Jim Kleinke, who combined for a 79-84—163, five shots up on Ken "Buck" Averill and Rick Averill's 168 (85-83). Next came Manny Alvarado and Butch Ritzman with 169, and in fourth place were Barry Bailiff and Derrick Denis at 174.

Tony Fitts

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Chris Canter isn't the only member of the 2002 Kewaskum High School football team who is currently starting defensively for a collegiate team.

Tony Fitts is the left cornerback for the UW-Stout Blue Devils, and last weekend, he nearly put himself in the Stout record book as he intercepted a pass against UW-Oshkosh and returned it 100 yards ... only to have the play called back by a block in the back.

The Titans were driving toward Stout's goal line when Fitts read a Nick Warda pass just perfectly, grabbed it out of the air and headed for the goal line.

The current record for the longest return of an intercepted pass by a Stout player is 95 yards, shared by Wallace Buffmire in a game against Eau Claire in 1921 and Richard McNamara, also against Eau Claire, in 1951.

While the TD was waved off, Fitts still gets credit for the interception, which gave Stout the ball on its own 25-yard line.

The pick was Fitts' career third. "I had two last year, one against Steve Tennies of (UW) LaCrosse (and a native of West Bend)," the former Indian standout said, and even more than the individual statistic is the fact the Blue Devils are off to a 2-0 start, 1-0 in the rugged Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference after the 49-17 victory over the Titans.

"We had a team cancel on us," Fitts said last week, concerning the fact Stout has had just two games thus far this season. The Blue Devils were set to play Waldorf College in Forest City, Iowa last weekend before heading into a steady lineup of WIAC opponents, starting with a game at UW-Whitewater the night of October 9th.

The Blue Devils and Fitts are also looking forward to their date against UW-LaCrosse on Oct. 30th at Stout.

When Fitts played for Kewaskum, he tipped the scales at maybe 180 pounds, but, "I weigh about 205 or 206 now," he said, indicating weight training is very important at the collegiate level of play.

"That's big up here," Fitts said about lifting, and adding the team also has a nutritionist, and, "She tells us what to eat and what not to eat."

Stout has a new coach, Todd Stropp, this season, according to Fitts, who said the former coach took a new position in South Dakota, so Stropp was elevated from the defensive coordinator job, which he held for the last five or six years.

Fitts worked closely with Stropp in 2003 when he started all 10 games, had 18 unassisted tackles and was the team's leading punter returner, with 15 returns for 112 yards, an average of 7.5 yards per return.

And what is the biggest difference from high school football to the collegiate game? "Definitely the speed," he said, "Everybody who starts has speed ... and everyone knows his assignment."

A typical day for Fitts includes going to classes, maybe four hours of football and then studying.

"I got there (team room) today at 2:30 (p.m.) to watch films and get taped," Fitts said, indicating these were followed by a team meeting, two hours of practice and another meeting.

Some weekends include five hour road trips, but playing in Forest City last weekend, he said, "It's only a three and a half hour drive. We're not going to leave until Saturday morning."

Fitts, who was a member of the state championship 4x100 and 4x200-meter relay teams in 2001, was studying for an Economics II test the same night. He is taking 14 credits this semester, working toward a degree in business.

And is Fitts happy with the choice he made to attend Stout? "The coach really had a big part in it (choosing Stout). I liked the atmosphere, and they had the major I wanted," he said.

Fifth graders add first win to record

Jordan Blank tackles a player from Nicolet to prevent a touchdown, allowing the clock to run out to end the game. Submitted photo by Erica Kudek

There is no "I" in team. This may well have been the motto of the Kewaskum Gridiron Club as players made their way to Nicolet High School this past Saturday to face the Nicolet Squires.

The fifth grade team can finally say the words "we won." Coach Jeff Logan and staff stated that the team played well together and has improved greatly this season. Key factors in the win were the no huddle offense and the 4/4 defense with linebackers blitzing. This D team was hungry for a win and put together a huge "big team effort," Coaches and players are pleased and proud to announce: Final score - Kewaskum - 25, Nicolet - 12.

The effort put forth by the sixth grade team was not less as the offense dominated the first quarter of the game. Coach Joe Backhaus stated that the team played hard but ran out of steam and couldn't punch it in for the touchdown. He said Michael Schladweiler played well for the team. Injuries to several players left the defense a little short-handed. Kewaskum - 0,

Third will be momentum building for Indians

By JUDY HARLOW

Considering Sheboygan Fall and Cedarburg have two very strong cross country teams this year, the third place by the Kewaskum High boys at the Slinger Invitational can be considered a rock solid effort.

Running at the picturesque Homestead Hollow course, the Indians, led by senior Josh Meyer, wound up with 103 points.

Sheboygan Falls, like Kewaskum, a member of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, was comfortably in the lead for the team title. With four of its five runners among the top 13 runners, the Falcons came in with an impressive 43 points, 12 points ahead of Cedarburg.

The winner of the race was Mike Rudekbeck, whose time of 16 minutes and 17 seconds (16:17.0) for the 5,000 meter race gave him a 25-second lead over teammate Jake Roelse.

Meyer cracked the top five, finishing in fourth place with an impressive 16:53, just four seconds behind Dallas Vincent of Mayville.

Zack Van Wormer and Bob Gibson ran together for most of the race and finished within two seconds of each other. This time it was Van Wormer ahead. He took 16th place in 17:44, with Gibson next at 17:45.54.

Jonathan Hawig chipped in with 30th place, completing the course in 18:37, and the final KHS runner was Justin Clayton in 36th with a 19:13.00.

"The boys' team again looked tough. Times are continuing to fall," KHS Coach Dave Drexler said. "The team's focus is getting more Nicolet - 18. As Coach Gregg Ziebell puts it, the seventh grade played "a hard fought game." Cody Enright had a terrific interception and the 45 yard run by Mike Eggert put the team on the scoreboard. The final seconds of the game were tense as the Nicolet Squires threatened to score, but the defense stopped them. Kewaskum - 7, Nicolet - 6.

Once again, the A team dominated and humbled their opponent. For the fourth game in a row, Coach Gil De Laurier's defense held the opposition scoreless. Coach DeLaurier gave credit to the team, stating they are "the best group of guys, they listen to the coaches, and then they go out there and execute the plays." He went on "we can substitute players and there is no decline in the team's performance, these guys know how to step up to the plate." Kewaskum - 38, Nicolet - 0.

Often overlooked, but playing an important role are the Gridiron cheerleaders. They do a fantastic job of supporting the teams and getting the fans involved. Coaches and coordinators are Jennifer Simonson, Amanda Breit, Frank Simonson and Jenny Harbin.

The Kewaskum Gridiron Club is selling raffle tickets for $1 or 6 for $5. The prize is an official Gridiron Helmet signed by several Green Bay Packers including William Henderson and Tony Fisher. The Gridiron Club sells a full line of concession items.

Make this Saturday your day to watch some exciting, live football as Cedar Grove challenges the sixth, seventh and eighth grade team on their home turf. Brookfield East travels to face the fifth grade. Come and support a worthwhile program for the youth of this area.

intense, which you can see in practice and at the meets. Individuals are realizing all the hard work in practices is paying off.

Once again, Kewaskum had just two girls and did not qualify for team standings. Junior Nicole Stern was the top Lady Indian, finishing 53rd in 19:08.

Cedarburg was convincing in winning the girls title. The Lady Bulldogs came in with an excellent total of just 33 points.

Kewaskum is at the annual Cougar Invitational this afternoon at Campbellsport High School.

Boys team scores at the Slinger Invitational: 1. Sheboygan Falls 43 points 2. Cedarburg 55, 3. Kewaskum 103, 4. Slinger 121, 5. Waupun 123, 6. Grafton 168, 7. Luther Prep 181, 8. Campbellsport 183, 9. Mayville 219.

Indians move to 9-0 in EWC but stumble in tourney

EWC defeats tough to swallow for Indians

Sophomore Bekki Heberer has been stepping up big for the Kewaskum High School volleyball team in recent matches. Above, Heberer tries for a block in the Indians' win over Two Rivers. Watching the action is Danielle DeGroot (2), the team's top spiker.

KEWASKUM — Mixing finesse with power and continuing a pattern of very accurate serving, the Kewaskum volleyball team made Two Rivers its eighth straight victim in Eastern Wisconsin Conference action held last Tuesday.

The 8-0 Indians, currently ranked 10th among the Division 2 teams in the state, scored 25 points in all three games before the visiting Two Rivers squad could accumulate enough juice to put up the "2" on the scoreboard. The game scores were 25-13, 25-16 and 25-18.

"(We had) A strong serving night and (our) continued spiking pressure eventually overcame some good defense by Two Rivers," KHS Coach Dave Rizzardi said.

Of course, the Raiders came into the Kewaskum gym with upset on their mind, and in each of the first two games, they stayed with the Indians until the score was all knotted up at 10-10. Then the Indians, behind the serving of sophomore Bekki Heberer — she wound up with five aces on the night — and the front line play of Danielle DeGroot and Briana Bastian, turned up the heat and surged to a big lead.

The pattern of close early and eventually KHS gaining the upper hand continued in the second game. Two Rivers served up a couple aces near the end but could not match the physical skills of the Indians at the net.

Two Rivers led briefly 6-5 in Game 3, and the game was tied at 8-8 before the Kewaskum players banded together to go up by four at 13-

DeGroot had a powerhouse spike to give the Indians a 14-10 lead, and the lead stayed between three and four points until 20-16 when the Indians sealed the deal on a 5-2 run. A successful spike by Amanda Magnus contributed one of the those points, and three of the others came when a Raider either hit the ball long, wide or into the net.

Looking at match statistics, DeGroot was definitely the offensive leader with her eight kills. The numbers fell off from there, with Magnus chipping in with four, Bry Timblin, Christina DeGroot and Bastian all with three.

Five of the Kewaskum players were perfect at the serving line, led by Danielle DeGroot's 16x16. Right behind her were Heberer and Schroeder, who had no misses in 15 attempts, and then came Magnus and Christina DeGroot who both went 10x10.

KHS grounds the Jets

On Thursday, Rizzardi saw a more inspired group crush Roncalli in a match played in Manitowoc. The Indians won 25-8, 25-9 and 25-9.

"We stayed fired up from the start," Rizzardi said. "Bekki Heberer had a great night serving and hitting. Everything from passing to serving was working for our team."

Heberer, a sophomore, wound up with a team-high five aces, and was a perfect 13x13 at the serving line. Freshman Christina DeGroot chipped in with four aces in going 14x14 at the serving line.

"She's got the potential to be a strong all-around player," Rizzardi said about Heberer, who did everything pretty well.

Kewaskum's kill total told the whole story of why the games were so short. For the three games, the Indians had 34 kills, including eight by Heberer and Briana Bastian, seven by Danielle DeGroot and six by Christina DeGroot. Indians stall on Saturday

For the second weekend in a row, the Indians were unable to survive pool play and get into the final round of a tournament, this one at Oostburg where Kettle Moraine Lutheran captured the team title.

The Indians easily defeated Princeton 25-8 and 25-5, and Reedsville 25-12 and 25-16, then lost to KML by scores of 25-19 and 25-13. Needing to win both games against Germantown, the Indians got the first one 26-24, then fell in the second 18-25.

Rizzardi said the first game against the eventual champs was close to 15, "then they went on a five-point run that put us out of it."

"KML was a little bit sharper today, especially blocking," Rizzardi said. "They don't make a lot of mental mistakes."

"We had up and down moments, not passing well when we really needed to," Rizzardi said.

KHS statistical leaders in serving included Amanda Magnus and Christina DeGroot, with eight and five aces, respectively. Danielle DeGroot had the most kills, 19, with Bastian and Magnus adding 11 and 10.

Marissa Dehler and Danielle DeGroot came up with 27 and 21 digs, while the Indians only had seven blocks on the day, with Bastian topping the charts with four.

The disappointment on the faces of Kewaskum High soccer players like Jason Jahnke and Nate Kenworthy told the whole story of Thursday's 2-1 Eastern Wisconsin Conference loss to Two Rivers.

The Indians had beaten the Raiders earlier this season. They scored first in the match but unfortunately gave up two goals right after that, goals which they could not overcome despite having several good chances near the end of the game.

"We scored early. I think that was the worst thing we could have done," Alex Hill, one of the team's co-coaches, said, indicating his team may have relaxed slightly after Jahnke found the net just seven minutes into the game.

The 2-1 loss gives the Indians a 3-6 mark in the EW, and they are 6-8-1 overall.

One of the best scoring chances came with about 12:00 left, as Jahnke booted a long free kick to Noah Olla, whose header missed to the right side.

Right after that, the Indians were awarded a corner kick, which came down right in front of the net, only to be picked off in midair by the Raider keeper.

"That was a really good save," Hill said. "He came through a crowd to get it."

While Hill said his team was not in sync in the first half, he was quick to point out, "We played a lot better in the second half. We played a lot smarter, but we've got to put it in the net. That's what counts."

Kewaskum, which had an estimated 14 shots for the game, including four by Olla, and two apiece by Jahnke, Tyler Hickman and Justin Brockman, had a couple chances in the closing minutes. Three Indians surrounded the ball in front of the net but could not punch it in, and one final corner sailed too far and the ball fell harmlessly to the ground.

"We had good energy in the second half. Jahnke was fantastic. He really was," Hill said, adding "Kenworthy kept us in the game" with his 14 saves.

Hill went on, "You know who played great for us tonight was Jake Cochran."

Another 1-goal loss

At New Holstein on Tuesday, the Indians lost a 2-1 heartbreaker in which they led 1-0 at half.

After the break, "They were just too strong for us," Hill said, reporting the Huskies scored three minutes into the second half and got the game-winner with 37 seconds left.

"Ryan Wunsch ... he's a freshman. He played well defensively," Hill said.

KHS scores four times

On Monday, the Indians upended non-conference foe Cedar Grove by a score of 4-2. Scoring for the winners were Hickman, Olla and Frank Cole, who had a pair of goals.

KHS was up 2-0 at half, then the Rockets scored twice off corners, according to Hill, who said his team kept the pressure on and got two more goals to go ahead and add some insurance.

The Indians are hosting Sheboygan Falls this afternoon (Thursday.)

Korth, Rimmel sail into golf sectionals

Donath, Indians put on a dazzling offensive show

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

The majority of the girls on the Kewaskum High School golf team saw their season end Wednesday afternoon, but juniors Kate Korth and Nicole Rimmel will be moving on to the WIAA Division 2 sectional tournament after placing among the leading individuals (not from qualifying teams) in the Sept. 29 regional held at Oakwood Golf Course in Milwaukee.

Korth, who also tied for medalist honors in the final Wisconsin Little Ten Conference meet at Hartford Country Club, fired a 95 on nine-hole scores of 47 and 48.

Rimmel was three shots back with a 51-47-98.

Madison Edgewood easily won the regional title with a 353 total. The other qualifying schools are East Troy, Racine St. Catherine's and Thomas More with respective scores of 398, 415 and 422, respectively.

Edgewood had the three lowest rounds in the tournament, led by Marci Hill, who came in with an 82.

Kewaskum wound up fifth in the nine-team competition with 425 strokes.

"I'm very proud of the way my girls performed at regionals. The girls have steadily improved," KHS Coach Carol Martin said.

The other two counters for Kewaskum were Renee Wetzel and Erika Norem, who carded scores of 115 and 120.

The sectional was scheduled to be played here at Hon-E-Kor on Oct. 5th. The top two teams and first three individuals (not from the qualifying teams) advance to the WIAA Division 2 state Tournament on Oct. 11-12 at the University Ridge Golf Course in Verona.

Indians finish last

In the last WLT competition of the season, the Indians finished last with 228 strokes and ended up last in the final standings.

Watertown and West Bend West went into the meet tied for first place, but the Spartans went into a downward spiral, taking fourth place which doused their title hopes.

Korth shared medalist honors with Lindsey Kuehl of Watertown. Both shot 43s on the par-37 Hartford CC course. Rimmel was next for KHS at 58, then came Jordan Benike with a 63, and Wetzel at 64.

Watertown wound up with 14 total points for the year, three ahead of West. Then came Oconomowoc at 19, Hartford with 23, Beaver Dam, 27, West Bend East, 38 and Kewaskum 48.

Abby Johnson, a sophomore from Oconomowoc, captured the WLT medal, with 268 strokes, using her low six scores out of seven. Next came Kuehl at 278.

Korth made the second team, behind her 308 strokes, while Rimmel was atop the list of third teamers, tied with Karen Grajewski of Watertown. Both had 323 strokes.

Trying to bring down Two Rivers' running back Shannon Fitzgerald was quite a task for the Kewaskum High School defense in Friday night's Homecoming game. Above, Zack Wollner (11) and Andy Marx (44) close in on Fitzgerald, who rushed for 115 yards. The Indians won easily by a score of 44-6.

Garett Donath did everything but sell concessions at Friday night's Homecoming football game between host Kewaskum and Two Rivers.

Donath, a 175-pound junior halfback/linebacker, riddled the Raiders' defense for four touchdowns and a pair of 2-point conversions, rushed for 162 yards in 18 carries and intercepted a Jake Steinhauer pass at the goal line to turn back a scoring bid by the visitors in the second quarter.

There were several others who contributed to the convincing 44-6 victory by the Indians, including the entire offensive line and wingback Eric Nass, who thrilled the rain-drenched crowd with his sparking 94-yard run early in the second quarter.

"It was a good win," KHS Coach Jason Piittmann said after gathering for the traditional celebratory meeting at midfield and taking his charges inside to more pleasant conditions.

"Good" as in it gives the Indians a 3-1 record in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference and 5-1 overall. Two Rivers fell to 0-4 and 0-6.

Kewaskum took control right off the bat, scoring on the fifth play of the game on a 38-yard scamper by Donath, who eluded a couple of linebackers and turned on the jets down the left side line.

The PAT snap was botched, but kicker Jon Olla alertly scooped up the ball and tossed it to Donath, who had drifted into the end zone.

Two Rivers went 1-2-3-out on its first series, but Kewaskum was able to pick up just one first down, then had to return the ball to the Raiders, who worked into Kewaskum territory before punting a second time. Shannon Fitzgerald's boot rolled into the end zone, so the Indians set up shop at the 20-yard line.

A couple runs netted seven yards, then QB Chad Piwoni hooked up with one of his favorite receivers, Matt Parrent, for a 23-yard pass play, giving the Indians a first down on the KHS 47-yard line. They didn't stay there long as Donath took the next handoff, burst into the secondary and outran all remaining Raiders to the end zone. Olla's kick was good for a 14-0 lead, which was expanded to 22-0 after Nass' fast dash, which included a great cutback to a wide open right sideline.

"It was one of those calls ... one of the coaches said it's either going nowhere or the distance," Piittmann said, indicating Nass is so smooth as a runner, "He makes it look effortless."

Two Rivers got its lone score on the next series, using Fitzgerald's hard running to go 69 yards in nine plays, the final 11 yards on a 13-yard pass from Steinhauer to Kris Schleis.

The Indians went right back to work offensively, needing nine plays to answer. Once again, it was Donath getting the score, this time on a short run and Olla's kick put the score at 29-6.

A steady rain drove many of the fans to find shelter after intermission, but the show on the field continued. The third quarter was scoreless, with the Raiders using over seven minutes on one drive that ended on the KHS 11-yard line.

Kewaskum was stopped at the Raiders' 8 on the next series, and then came the only fumble of the game, which was pounced on by Zack Holm. After a holding call, Piwoni tossed a screen pass to Donath, who juked his way 25 yards for his final TD.

With the four TDs, Donath now has 11 for the season, with 777 yards rushing in 114 carries for a sparkling 6.8 yard average.

Reserve fullback Andy Marx got in the act with a 7-yard touchdown with 6:45 remaining, and with a 38-point lead, there was a continuous clock the rest of the way.

"Out trap play and 25-, 26-rumble were open ... We gave Garett and Jeff Thull (10 carries for 47 yards) a lot of room," Piittmann said, adding, "Bryan Daggett and ment provided by Gary Cross will kick off the festival. More information can be found in this guide.

The Children's Tent, will once again be run by Dodie Sargent, owner of Little Folks Schoolhouse. Dodie and teachers from her center completely revamped the tent last year and have brought many new things to the tent once again. More information can be found in this guide.

Of course, not everything was changed. JoAnn Hall has again organized a bigger and better craft tent. JoAnn is also responsible for the great food at the festival. A list of vendors can also be found in this guide. The make-n-take craft center is also returning to the beer garden courtesy of JoAnn.

The Buckskinner encampment and marketplace along the Milwaukee River, has returned on the west side of the hill, along with the talent show/lip sync contest which will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Sno Chief's pavilion (beer garden).

Kettle Kountry Kolors has always been a FREE family fun festival. Originally it was decided the festival was a "gift" to area residents from local businesses to thank them for shopping here and supporting the local businesses. Please don't forget to continue doing so.

Without the support of local businesses and civic organizations donating money, time and manpower Kettle Kountry Kolors would be no more. Your "FRIENDS" wish to thank all of the businesses and the many who have helped on the various committees.

Dance and Fish Boil to once again kick off the weekend

Gary Cross will once again kick off the festival following the fish boil served by Woody's Steakhouse. Cross will begin at 6 p.m. on Friday night.

A fun night of food and music will once again kick off Kettle Kountry Kolors on Friday, October 8. Once again the Friends of Kewaskum in conjunction with Modern Woodmen, the Kewaskum Sno Chiefs and Woody's Steakhouse will be hosting a fish boil and dance. The fish boil will begin at 5 p.m. and is being prepared by Chef Craig Gloede and associates of Woody's Steakhouse of Kewaskum. The fish boil plate will include a 12-14 ounce portion of haddock, potato salad, cole slaw and rye bread.

For those of you who would prefer, there will be other food available. The Sno Chiefs will be serving brats, hamburgers and hot dogs. Other food vendors may also be open.

The dance is being sponsored by Modern Woodmen of America Insurance, under the guidance of local agent, Jeff Jaeger. Live music by Gary Cross is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. and the fun will continue until 10 p.m.

In addition to the food, the friendly bartenders from the Kewaskum Sno Chiefs will be taking care of the refreshments portion of the dance. Their bar will be open at 5 p.m. and continue throughout the dance.

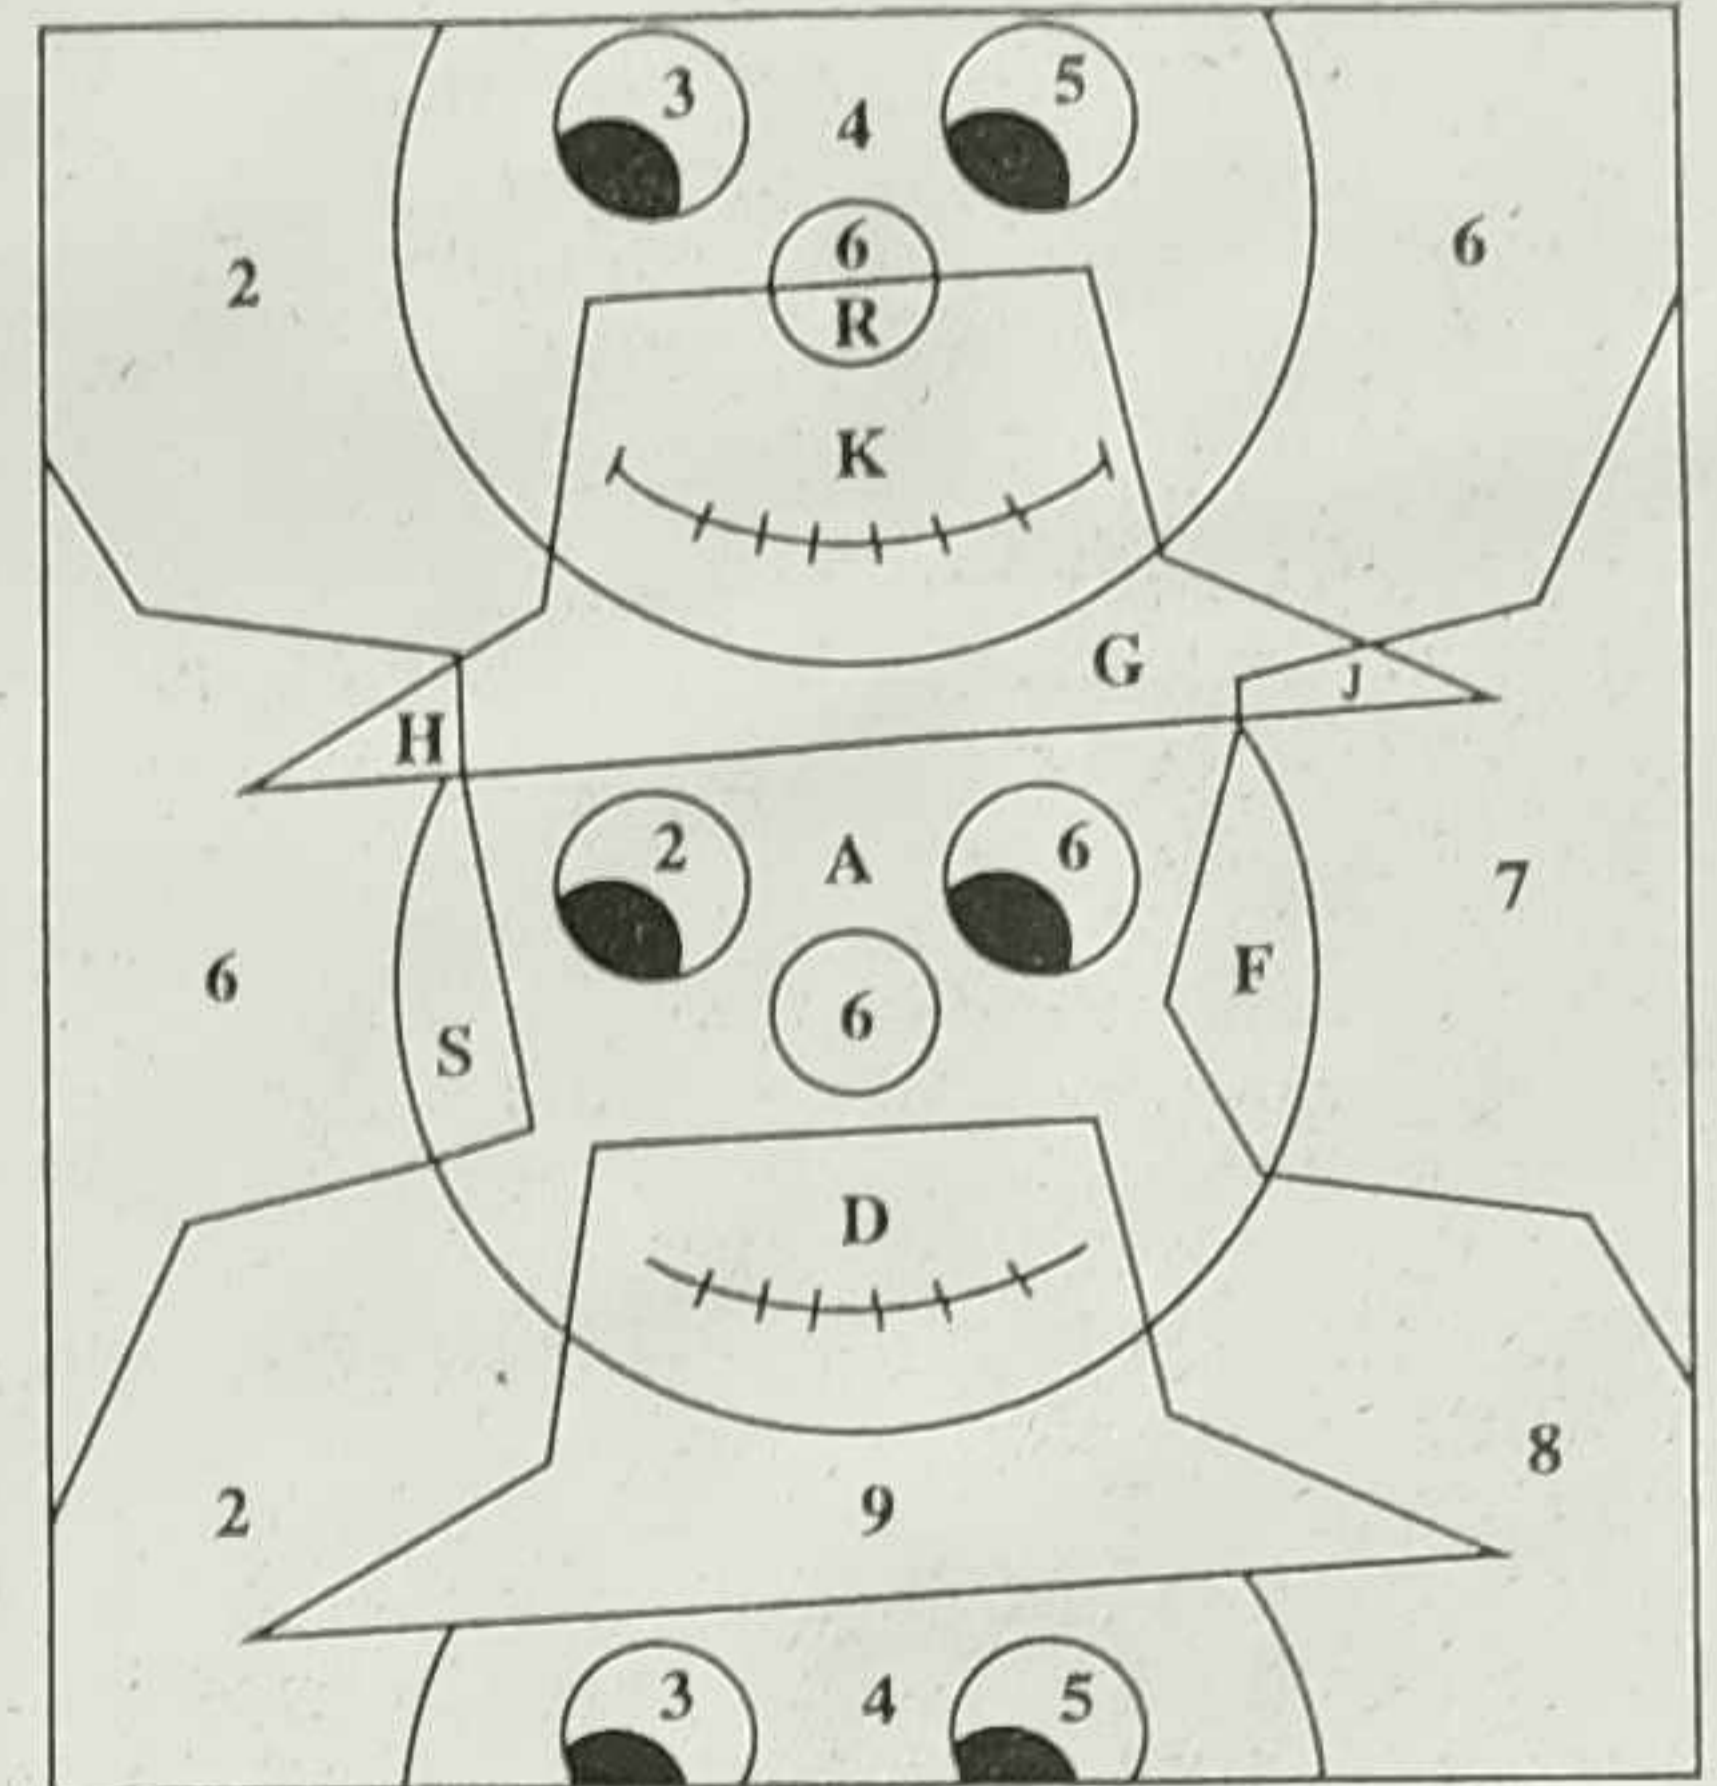

Along with the entertainment, Jeff has stated there will be lots of special raffles and games available for your enjoyment during the dance. All proceeds from the dance will also be donated to the Kewaskum Fire Department, in memory of Bob Stoltzmann.

Jeff commented that the dance will be a Modern Woodmen Matching Funds event, which means that all monies raised (up to a designated amount) by Jeff and his helpers, will be matched by the Modern Woodmen, which actually doubles the donation made to the fire department.

The Friends will also have their raffle tickets available. The Kettle Kountry Kolors raffle prizes this year will include an authentic Brett Favre "Passing through the Years" print autographed by the famous quarterback. Another prize will be a diamond and sapphire ring. More details on the raffles and photos of the prizes will be featured later in this guide.

Woody, Jeff, the Kewaskum Sno Chiefs and the Friends of Kewaskum, all invite you to come up to River Hill Park on Friday, October 8 to help kickoff the weekend's Kettle Kountry Kolors festivities. And don't worry about the weather. The beer garden will be completely tarped and in the event of cool or inclement weather, heaters will be strategically placed inside.

Lots of Entertainment in Children's Tent

This year's children's tent at Kettle Kountry Kolors will once again have all new shows and activities. This year's tent promises to entertain children and adults alike.

To start off the weekend, family entertainer Randy Peterson will perform for kids and grownups alike on Saturday, October 9th at 11 a.m.

The singer/songwriter performs throughout the Midwest, and is often featured on television and radio programs. His concerts are a fast-moving mix of music, humor and storytelling that is geared for kids, but which all ages will enjoy. Children participate throughout his shows, which he likes to call "sing-along, clap-along, laugh-along concerts."

Peterson has recently received a 2003 iParenting Media Award for his latest recording, "Let me Sing you a Story." This national level award is given to children's products deemed 'the best in the industry' by iParenting Media, which is the lading producer of parenting information in magazines, newspaper, radio and the internet. He has also been awarded the prestigious Parents' Choice Award for his earlier recordings. Readers of Northeast Wisconsin Kids Magazine have voted him their "Favorite Children's Performer" six out of the past seven years.

of smoking. You will be entertained by flying juggling clubs, razor-sharp kitchen knives and jokes that are so dull you might even like them.

The show promises to be "juggling at its worst."

Next on tap will be Pinwheel the Clown who will perform a magic show at 2 p.m.

Entertainer Kathleen Mohr will finish out the day with her show at 3 p.m. Kathleen will be performing as Pierette the Mime. Pierette will mime her way through the festival while playfully interacting with attendees of the festival.

Mohr provides entertainment and humor for all ages. She is a one woman theater troupe of over 25 costumed characters plus custom comedy routines, mime, and storytelling.

Mohr will also be performing on Sunday at 3 p.m. She will then be Mother Goose. On a sabbatical from 16th Century England, Mother Goose will playfully entertain children with traditional rhymes, riddles and songs. Her sidekick, Gertrude the Goose, is along for the ride in a basketful of props, to make sure there's lots of audience participation.

On Sunday, Magician Rick Allen will kick off the day with a show at 1 p.m.

Allen presents a high energy, fast paced, magic show with live doves, a bunny and loads of audience participation.

Also, you may be picked to float in mid-air! At 2 p.m., take a journey across continents to discover where each bird lives, how it fits into its environment, and what it eats.

The Milwaukee County Zoological Society's free Care for Critters program, Birds of the World, will visit the festival.

During the program, participants will meet live animals such as a tawny owl, a screech owl, a vulture, an auger buzzard, or red-tailed hawk, a Bateluer eagle, a tawny eagle, a falcon, a thick-billed parrot or yellow-headed Amazon parrot, a snake, and a domesticated rat.

Thanks to sponsorship by Pick N' Save, audiences will come away with a better understanding of and appreciation for the animals, their food sources, and their part of the world.

In addition to the shows, there will also be a lego table, where children may play as long as they like, a huge painting easel and a special craft. Also, there will be Child Print ID kits donated by Modern Woodmen of America. The kits are available to parents and contain all the information you would need in case your child would be lost or missing.

All events in the Children's Tent were coordinated by Dodie Sargent of Little Folks Schoolhouse, Wayne.

In addition to the children's tent, there will be other activities for children to enjoy, such as a moonwalk sponsored by Little Folks Schoolhouse and Tennes Hardware, Kewaskum, a petting zoo (weather permitting) by the Kewaskum High School FFA, strolling clowns and a make-and-take craft area.

Next to Woody's will be another Kewaskum favorite, The Silver Platter Family Restaurant who will be serving breakfast pizza Saturday morning, homemade desserts, German sausage soup, pizza, taco salads, chicken dumpling soup, coffee and soda.

The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club will lure one's appetite with everyone's Wisconsin favorite, brats and hamburgers, cheeseburgers, hot dogs, french fries, cheese fries and onion rings.

Mike's Country Meats will be serving hot turkey sandwiches, their locally famous beef jerky and sausage. They will also be offering assorted cheeses and black popcorn.

Then there's the chocolate... Julia Desterhoft from Julie's Butter Cream Fudge will be bringing her fresh, yummy, mouth-watering homemade fudge, snack mixes, cappuccino and popcorn. Julia will be located along the main park area path on the south side of the band shelter.

A new treat will also be offered at this year's festival. Kewaskum's newest business, the Candy Tree, will have a booth featuring her wonderful candy and homemade chocolate creations. Make sure you stop by for a skunk tail!

Walking up the other side of the park try a grilled steak sandwich, hot dog or beer and soda offered by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce in the north food pavilion.

Butter Rose Concessions will be offering mini doughnuts, caramel apple chips, Jim Reigle, left, and Gene Bohn, grill experts, frying brats and hamburgers at last year's festival. The Kiwanis Club will be serving from the kitchen they re-built with the Kewaskum Fire Department last summer. The Kiwanis Club also remodeled the other major food booth in Riverhill Park for their project this year.

stuffed pretzels, cotton candy, soda, popcorn, nachos, soda, water and scones.

What a variety! One could eat all day and never eat the same thing twice! Take a break from the kitchen, bring your appetite and let your favorite chefs at River Hill Park do the cookin' during Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors.

Raffles offer a variety of prizes

The gold money clip will be raffled off with $100.

Shown above is the Brett Favre print that will be raffled off at Kettle Kountry Kolors this weekend.

The diamond and sapphire ring in white gold is sure to make any woman happy.

This year the Friends of Kewaskum will be holding four wonderful raffles in conjunction with Kettle Kountry Kolors.

The proceeds from the raffles help to fund the FREE festival. The organizers encourage everyone to enjoy the show but PLEASE support the festival by taking a chance on some of the raffles.

For the Packer fan, the first raffle is for a Brett Favre "Passing Through the Years" print. The print is auto-graphed by Favre and comes with a letter of authenticity.

For the men there will be a raffle for a gold money clip with $100 cash.

For the ladies there will be a beautiful diamond and sapphire ring set in white gold.

The last raffle is for a handmade oak and cedar chest. The chest was made by students at Kewaskum High School in the wood working class.

Tickets are now on sale at Kuehl's Suds and Spirits in Kewaskum. They will also be available Friday night at the dance and throughout the weekend in the information booth at Kettle Kountry Kolors. Tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5.

The drawing for the prizes will be held at the close of the festival on Sunday.

KEYS Run/Walk Oct. 10

October 10 marks the 11th annual KEYS Run/Walk which raises money for Kewaskum youth scholarships. Each year a successful Run/Walk helps KEYS increase the number of scholarships and the dollar value of those scholarships. In 2003, KEYS awarded $70,000 in scholarships to 23 graduating seniors. Since its beginning, KEYS has given out $579,000 to assist 198 graduates with college and vocational school education.

Registration forms for the KEYS Run/Walk are available at all the Kewaskum Schools as well as at all SynergyHealth locations, the Kewaskum Stateman office, Miller's Furniture and West Bend Savings Bank. Many other Kewaskum area businesses support the race and have registration blanks available to form company teams. Registrations can be turned in at local schools or sent to Kewaskum High School, PO Box 124, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

Entry fees for the race have remained the same as last year. Pre-registration cost is $15 per person or $50 for a family of four. Additional family members can be included in the family registration for only $10 each. On race day the registration fee increases to $20. As always, registration includes a t-shirt especially designed for the race this year.

The race begins at 11 a.m. in Kewaskum's River Hill Park on Sunday, October 10. Winners in the many age groups will compete for medals as well as cash prizes. KEYS presents a challenge again this year to break the course record by beating the men's time of 14:27 or the women's time of 17:38. Breaking either record is worth an additional cash prize of $200.

As in past years, pledge incentives are being offered to all who register for the race and collect pledges for KEYS. MP3 players, gift cards, sweatshirts, stocking caps and Kewaskum Dairy Queen coupons are the prizes to be earned for collecting various amounts of pledge money. For those unable to participate in the Run/Walk itself, KEYS gratefully accepts donations as memorials, special tributes, or group gifts.

KEYS, Inc. is a non-profit, all volunteer organization. Come and join hundreds of other runners and walkers for the race on October 10 and stay for lunch, music and fun activities for the kids at Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors.

Friday night festivities to include special events for Kewaskum Fire Department

The diamond and sapphire ring and earrings shown above will be raffled off in the special raffle sponsored by Modern Woodmen.

Friday night's kickoff dance will go towards a wonderful, local, cause - the Kewaskum Fire Department. Local Modern Woodmen agent Jeff Jaeger, along with the Friends of Kewaskum, have been busily putting together the Friday night event which will be a matching funds benefit for the Kewaskum Fire Department in memory of Robert Stoltzmann. Stoltzmann was a former chief of the Kewaskum Fire Department who passed away in May of this year. The proceeds will be used toward the purchase of equipment and will include a plaque stating that it was donated in memory of Robert Stoltzmann. In addition to the Friend's raffle tickets, there will be a special raffle that Modern Woodmen will be sponsoring to go towards the matching funds.

First prize will be a diamond and sapphire ring with matching earrings. Second prize will be a casino trip for two and there will be various other prizes also awarded.

Tickets for this raffle are $1 each or 6 for $5. Tickets are available at Kuehl's Suds and Spirits and will be available at the dance.

Kids, adults, enjoy make-n-take crafts at Kettle Kountry Kolors

Shown above is a view of the make-n-take craft booth inside the Sno-Chiefs Pavilion

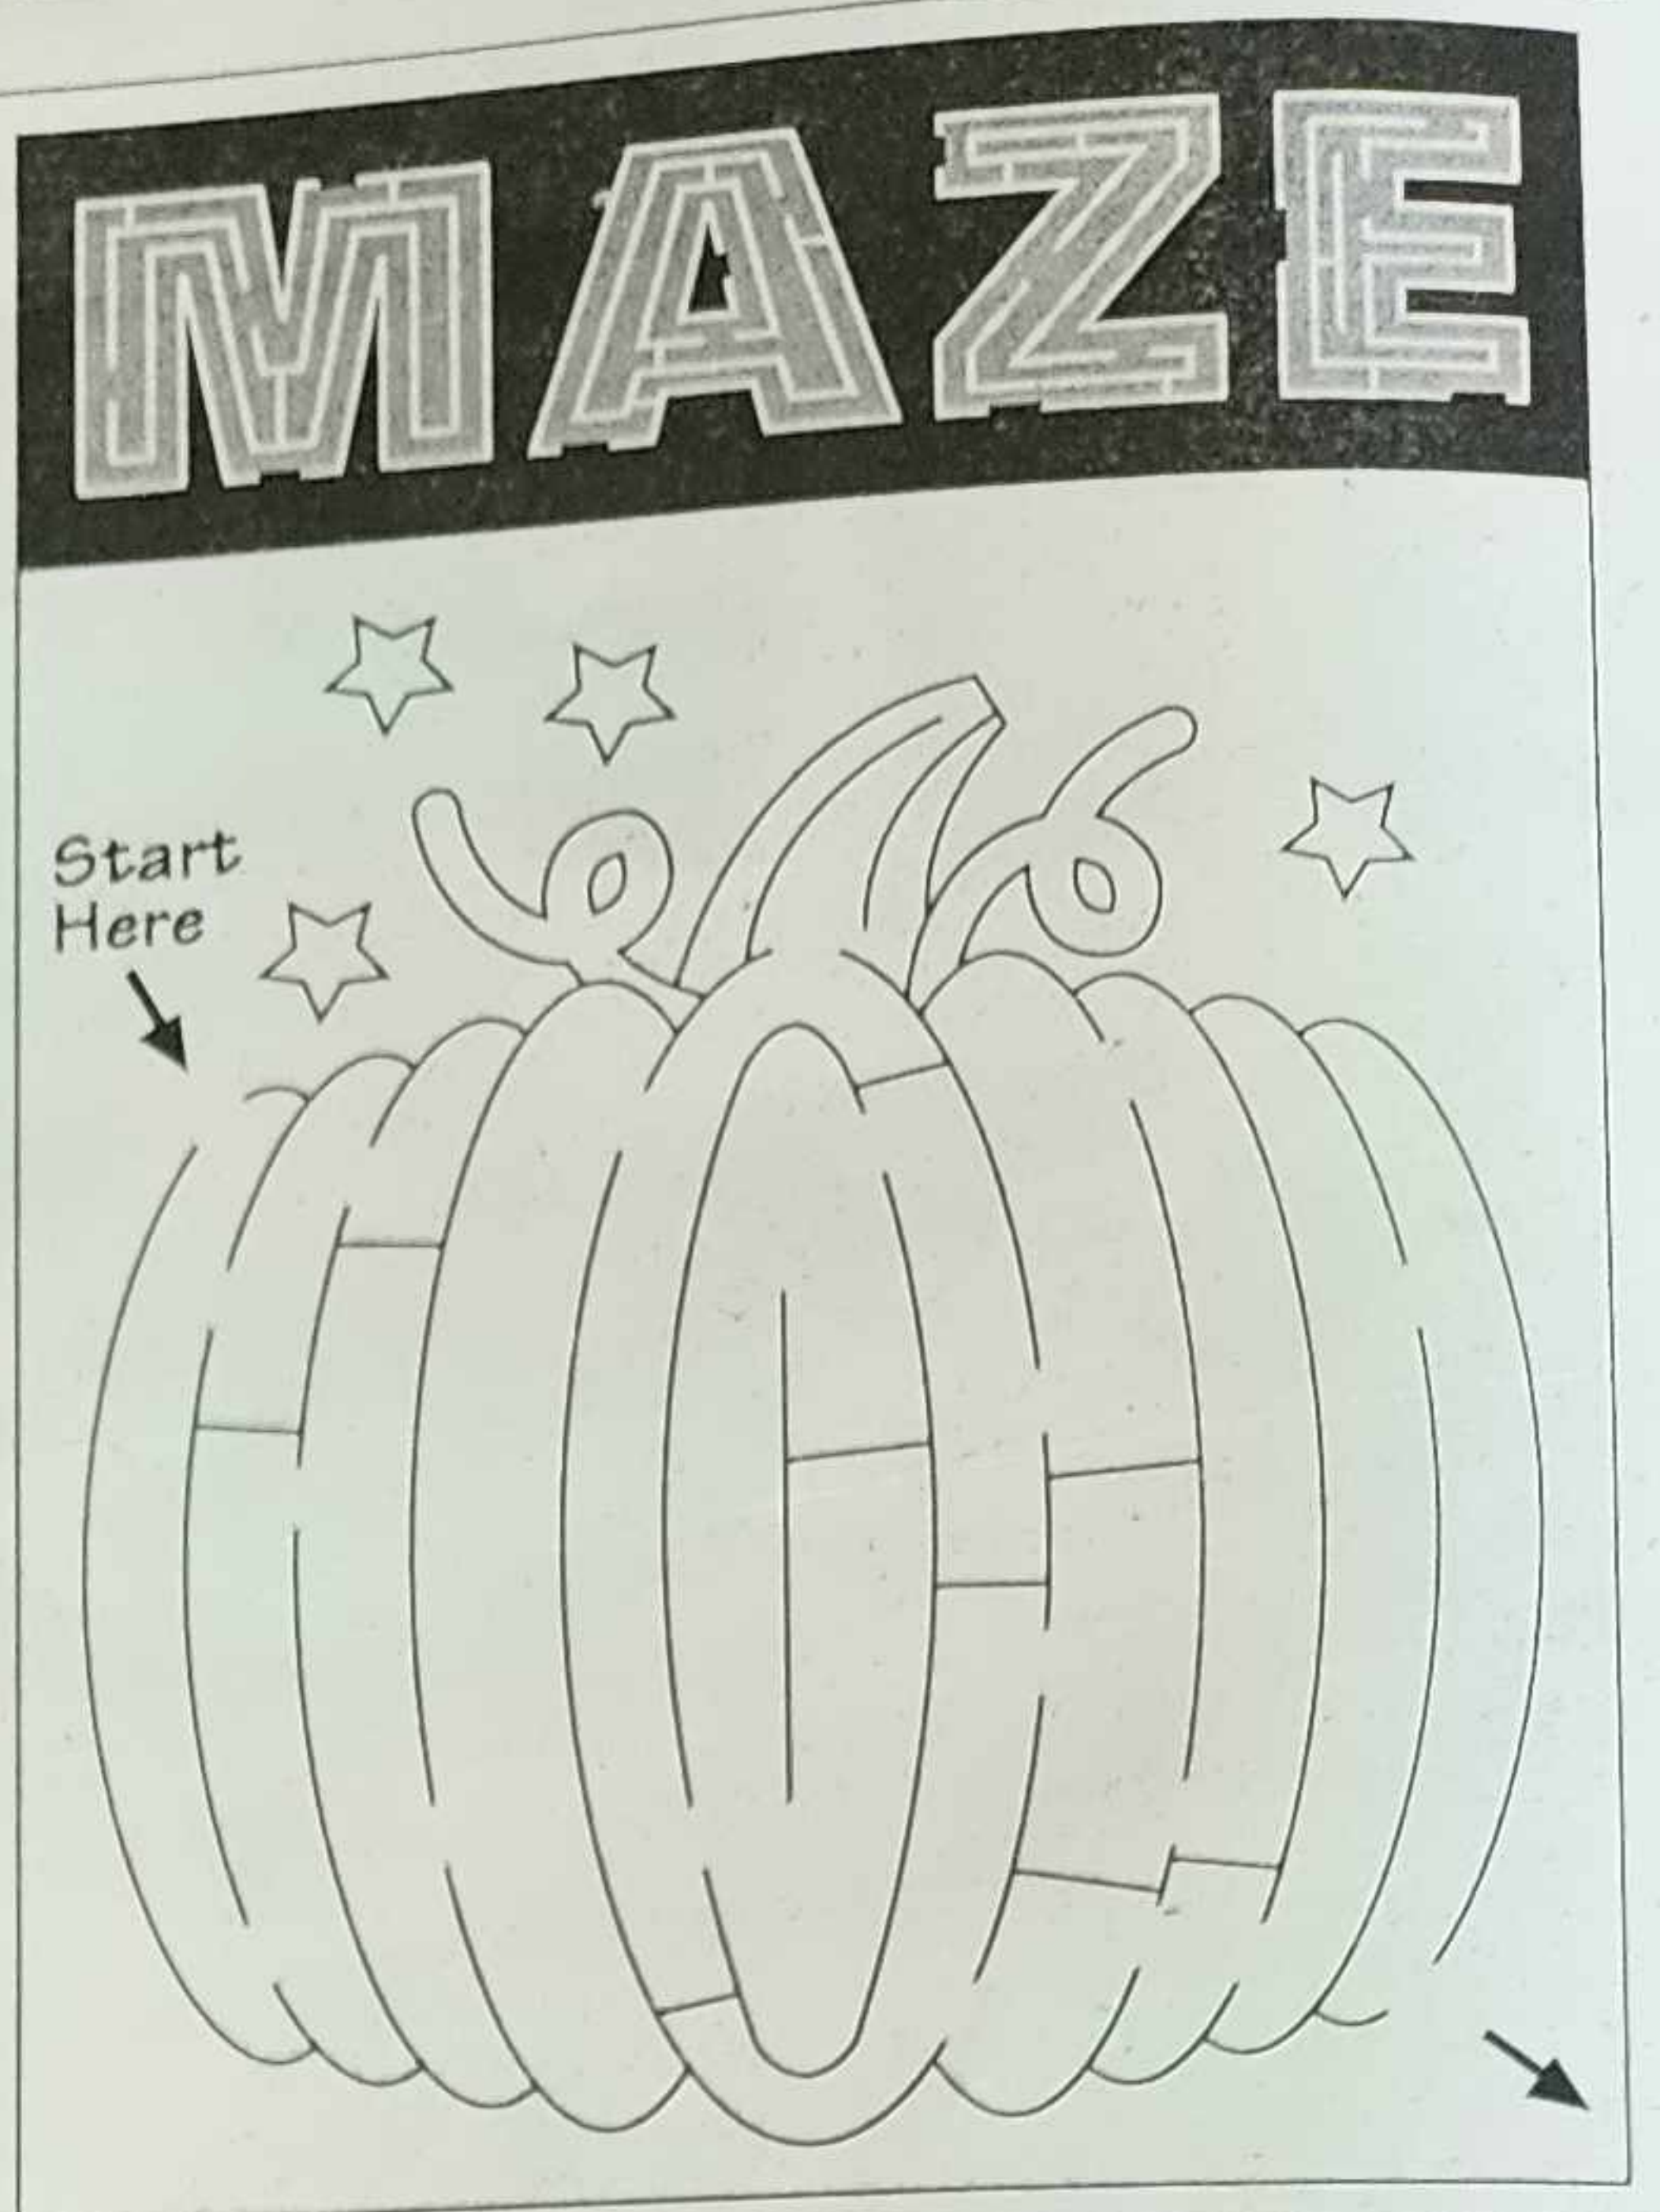

This is the 15th year for JoAnn Hall and her make-it-and-take-it crafts at Kettle Kountry Kolors. JoAnn will be assisted this year by Lucille Theusch.

They do make-it-take-it projects including ceramics. All projects fit in the 4-H program. JoAnn has been a Fond du Lac county leader for 12 years, has worked with the fair for 14 years and was a fair judge for 10 years.

Some of the make-and-take items they do are ceramics, towel painting and scenes in a jar.

Things they make to sell besides the ceramics are holiday dolls including witches, and Mr. and Mrs. Santa Clauses, Raggedy Ann and Andys, decorative lamps, baby items, crochet items, doilies and towels. Make sure you stop in to see them and make that special, personalized Christmas gift for someone special.

An abundance of entertainment can be found at Kettle Kountry Kolors

Kettle Kountry Kolors talent show is back

Local favorite Downtown Harrison will once again perform at Kettle Kountry Kolors. He will take the stage at 1 p.m. Sunday in the Beer Garden.

This weekend, entertainment will be found from end to end of Riverhill Park.

Starting off Friday, as mentioned in an earlier article, will be music by Gary Cross, starting at 6 p.m. Cross will perform until 10 p.m.

Saturday kicks off with Jimmers' Jukebox in the Beer Garden sponsored by the Kewaskum Sno-Chiefs. They will entertain the crowd from 10:30 until 1:30 p.m.

Dancers from Mirror Image Dance studio will perform at 1 p.m. in front of the gazebo.

At 2 p.m. the Talent Show/Lip Sync contest will kick off. Organizers ask that all entry forms along with the $5 be turned in by October 8th. More information on the talent show may be found at right.

The night will end off with the Newlywed game starting at 4 p.m.. The game will compose of six couples, three married five years or less and three married six years plus. It is sure to be an interesting evening! Make sure you come to cheer on your favorite couple...and don't forget to place your votes to make sure your favorite couple will take part in the game. (Voting canisters will be in the park.)

Sunday kicks off with the Sno Chiefs pancake breakfast and the ecumenical church service by Pastor Joe Brath of Living Waters Church, Kewaskum.

At 11 a.m. the KEYS Run/Walk will kick off on the west side of the Milwaukee River.

After the run, come back up to the park for the ever popular Downtown Harrison, who will be performing in the Beer Garden from 1 to 4 p.m. His show is one you don't want to miss. Downtown Harrison is being sponsored by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to the events mentioned above, make sure to visit the children's tent and see the shows there. More details on the children's tent are in an earlier article.

The festival will close at 4:30 p.m. with the raffle drawings. You need not be present to win.

Make plans to join us for the 16th annual Kettle Kountry Kolors that will take place October 14, 15 and 16th, 2005.

Ever wonder what it is like to be Toby Keith, Celine Dion, Tim McGraw or Britney Spears and sing in front of big crowds of adoring fans?

All right, that may be a stretch, but most people have talents and a hidden inner desire to perform those talents and Kettle Kountry Kolors, the fall festival which is coming to Kewaskum on the weekend of Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 8, 9 and 10, might be just the chance for you to unveil those abilities.

For the third year in a row, the promoters of this festival, the Friends of Kewaskum, are presenting the talent show, which the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce has generously agreed to sponsor. The Chamber of Commerce has donated a tidy sum of money which will be used as prizes for the top performers.

The Talent Show, which is open to all children and adults of all ages, will be held on Saturday, October 9, beginning at 2 p.m. in the south pavilion (beer garden) in River Hill Park.

Registration forms are currently available at Hair On Main, 227 Main Street in Kewaskum, or at St. Francis Bank at 1225 Fond du Lac Avenue, also in Kewaskum.

There is a $5.00 entry fee per act, and the competition is broken down into three categories: the talent show division for solos, the lip sync division, which is entertainment using a CD providing sound and music, and group routines for duets, bands, dance teams or even magic shows.

The deadline for signing up to perform in the show has been set for Friday, October 8, according to Wendi Dreher, who has generously agreed to once again be the chairman for this show. Wendi has stated the prize structure will be determined by the number of entries in each division.

When asked if all the acts are serious, Dreher said, "It's a little bit of both," indicating last year a little boy performed a very entertaining skit about the popular cartoon character, Scooby Doo.

There is no charge to watch the performers at the Talent Show, so be sure to come up to River Hill Park on Saturday to watch the show and have some fun. For further information about the Talent Show, you may contact Wendi Dreher at 626-2428. And, don't forget to sign up to display YOUR talents!

Schmidt Acres will once again have their free horse drawn wagon rides from the east side of the park to the west side. This year the rides are being sponsored by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce.

Another way to support the festival is through the purchase of Regal Ware cookware. Regal Ware graciously donated a truck load of miscellaneous cookware for the Friends to sell at last year's festival. They will be doing it again this year. Last year Jeanne Becker, Barb Liegl and Nicole Kuehl helped sell the cookware near the information booth. Make sure you stop by to purchase your cookware!

Autumn cookies are a terrific treat

(NAPSI)-Changing leaves, cool mornings and breezy afternoons all indicate the start of autumn. Fall also adds some color in the kitchen, with Easy-Bake Oven recipes that complement the season.

Simply decorated cookies, made from an Easy-Bake mix, are a fun treat to make and eat, for kids to enjoy after school or on the weekends. Either way, they're something that the little ones-and the not so-little ones-are bound to enjoy.

Autumn Leaf Cookies

Ingredients:

- 4-pack Easy-Bake Sugar Cookie and Chocolate Cookie
- 1 canister white frosting
- Blue food coloring
- Black rope licorice
- Leaf sprinkles

Directions:

1. Bake and cool the Easy-

Bake cookies by following package instructions.

2. While cookies are baking, make a batch of blue frosting by mixing a few drops of blue food coloring into the white frosting.

3. After cookies are cool, frost with blue food coloring. Use the black rope licorice to create tree branches. Sprinkle leaf confetti for leaves.

These tasty confections can also be adapted for other occasions, or enjoyed "just because." With additional packages of cookie mix, kids can easily put together trays of cookies for bake sales, school dances and more.
