Addition will be a boon to Fillmore department

By JUDY HARLOW
 STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
 jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Last Sunday was a proud day for all the members of the Fillmore Volunteer Fire Department and especially Chief Calvin Steinert, who has given the department over a quarter of a century of dedicated service.

At noon, the department broke ground for a 3,500-square foot addition, which will help alleviate critical space needs and provide a safer environment for the volunteers who meet there on a weekly basis to ensure safety for the residents of the community. Approximately 40 people were in attendance.

The proud tradition of the Fillmore Fire Department began back in 1932, according to Steinert, who said, "I think there were 12 original members, and from there it grew." Included in the original membership were Carl Goldhammer, Rich Degnitz, who is still alive, and Hugo Hauck. Steinert said the first chief was Sim Albinger.

The original fire station was located 200 feet from the site of the current station at 8485 Trading Post Trail. The old building was taken down and was restored by one of the members, according to Steinert, who said the new station was constructed in 1964, with a 23x60 expansion added on in 1984. The cost of the new project is approximately $150,000, according to Steinert.

The firemen were fortunate to receive a sizable donation from Dan and Judy Arndt, who are current members of the department. Another $2,500 donation was received from the West Bend Mutual Insurance Company, and that figure was matched by the West Bend Mutual Charitable Fund.

Other monies came in from private donations, beginning four years ago when a building fund was established by the department, and the firemen also set aside the proceeds from two annual fish fries and an annual calendar fundraiser for this project.

Steinert figures 23 percent of the total cost of the addition has already been donated to the department.

Currently the department has a tanker, two pumpers and one grass fighting truck, along with its rescue squad.

Concerning the size of the department, Steinert said, "We've got roughly 41 (members)," and there are women who have been welcomed into the organization. "I think it's 14 (women) on the rescue squad and two who are fire fighters."

Steinert figures there are roughly 1,700 homes in the area serviced by the department, which is half of the Town of Farmington.

"We run between 12 and 15 (fires) a year," Steinert said, adding, "Rescue calls run about 50 to 60. It's not a lot, but it keeps us going."

In addition to being the chief, Steinert might as well be the historian of the group because this is his 26th year as chief.

"I joined the department right out of high school and became the chief in 1978," he said, indicating Mark Vanatta is the No. 1 Assistant Chief and Jeff Steinert, Calvin's son, is the Second Assistant.

All three are elected positions.

Concerning the contractors who have been hired to complete the work on the new addition, Steinert said, T.P. (Tom Paulus) will do the concrete work, with Minz Building Supply in charge of constructing the addition, Steve's Plumbing is doing the plumbing and DJ Electric is handling electrical projects.

"We're going to do the inside work ourselves," Steinert said, indicating "We hope to be done by Feb. 1st."

Junior Women's Club adds new playground equipment

As part of a continuing project, the Kewaskum Junior Women's Club added yet another piece of attractive playground equipment to Kiwanis Park in Kewaskum. This is the second piece added this past September in between the north and south softball diamonds. Money is raised by the Junior Women's Club from their now annual Jungle Gym Jamboree. This year, the Jeff Sabish Memorial Softball Tournament gave $2,400. The club raised $5,500 and because the village's department of public works crew installed the equipment the group saved $3,000 and was able to purchase additional pieces. The Junior Women's Club also holds an annual craft fair where funds are raised for worthwhile community projects.

Expert offers fitness for breast cancer survivors

WEST BEND - Breast cancer survivors looking for an exercise and education program designed just for them need look no further than Cedar Haven Rehabilitation Agency. Sandra Artzberger, Cedar Haven occupational therapist lymphedema expert, has announced a unique new series of classes for breast cancer survivors will begin in October, National Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

30 minutes of education followed by 45 minutes of exercise, twice weekly. Topics will include lymphedema precautions related to exercise, how to pace and measure exercise outcomes, daily at-home conditioning and progressive strengthening programs, safely incorporating yoga principles, book and article discussion about cancer and exercise and more. The exercise component will be gradually graded, with stretching, conditioning, pacing of aerobic activity, safe use of exercise machines, and two aquatic exercise sessions.

"An added benefit is the fact that participants will be in a friendly environment, not a public gym, and they won't need to feel self-conscious about any of the physical aspects of their cancer treatment," Artzberger said.

The classes will be conducted by Artzberger, an occupational therapist with more than 25 years' experience and one of the nation's leading experts on lymphedema. The series begins Tuesday, October 26 and will continue each Tuesday and Thursday, except Thanksgiving Day, through Tuesday, December 9, for only $30.

Classes will be held at the Cedar Ridge Wellness Center, 113 Cedar Ridge Drive in West Bend. The registration deadline is Tuesday, October 19. If there is sufficient interest, Artzberger said, an evening course may be planned. Please call Cedar Haven, 262-306-2150, for details or to register.

Aurora Visiting Nurse Association to hold Shoo the Flu clinics in area

The Aurora Visiting Nurse Association of Wisconsin has scheduled its Shoo the Flu and Pneumonia Too! vaccination clinics from October 11 through December 4. Hundreds of clinics will be held in community locations throughout southeastern Wisconsin. Clinics have been scheduled for weekday, evening and weekend hours and no appointment is necessary.

Medicare Part B and Medicaid cover the cost of flu and pneumonia vaccinations. For people not on Medicare or Medicaid, the charge is $18 for a flu shot and $30 for a pneumonia shot.

The Aurora VNA expects to receive its full supply of flu vaccine, which is arriving in gradual shipments. The initial shipments have been received, with further shipments arriving as the clinics proceed.

An annual flu shot is recommended for:

Everyone 50 years of age or older;

Anyone who has a long-term health problem;

Household contacts and caretakers of infants and children under the age of two;

Pregnant women;

Health care workers, family members, or anyone else coming in close contact with people at risk of serious influenza.

An annual flu shot is also encouraged for:

People who provide essential community service;

People traveling in organized tourist groups;

People living in dormitories or other crowded conditions.

Since flu strains change from year to year, it is necessary to be vaccinated annually. All the viruses in the vaccines have been killed, so people cannot get the flu from the flu shot. Shoo The Flu and Pneumonia Too! clinics will offer vaccinations to people ages nine and up. Children nine through 17 must be accompanied by a parent.

Pneumonia vaccinations are also available at the clinics. It is recommended for people who are over 65 years old or under 65 with certain chronic health conditions such as diabetes, or heart or lung disease.

Area clinics include:
Aurora Pharmacy, Kewaskum, 927 Fond du Lac Avenue, October 22, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Aurora Pharmacy - Pick N' Save, 1719 S. Main Street, West Bend, October 19, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Registration deadline Nov. 5 for Dec. ACT test

College-bound high school students can take the ACT Assessment on December 11, 2004, the next national test date. The deadline for postmark registration is November 5. The late registration deadline is November 18 (an additional $15 fee is required for late registration). Students can get registration materials from their guidance counselor or they can register online at www.act-student.org.

ACT scores are accepted by virtually all colleges in the nation, including all Ivy League schools. The exam is administered in all 50 states. Students can find the closest testing location by searching on ACT's website.

Some students perform better on the ACT because it is based on achievement, not aptitude. The ACT exam includes four parts: English, reading, mathematics and science. It takes three hours to complete. The test fee is $28. Free sample tests are available from high school counselors and sample questions can be found on ACT's website, which also offers inexpensive practice tests.

Beginning in February,

2005, an optional writing test will be added to the ACT Assessment. Since many colleges will not require a writing score, students will only have to take the writing test if their college requires it. Otherwise, they may opt for the regular ACT Assessment without the writing test. Students who plan to start college in the fall of 2006 should check with prospective colleges to find out if a writing score is required.

Hartford talks about new subdivision

The Hartford Common Council recently discussed a new subdivision. The 36 acre site is on Lee Road near Highway 83. There was a delay on the designs of the new subdivision because Alderman Denis Hegy said he was uncomfortable with some of the layout. Early plans are to develop a subdivision with 90 housing units. The city's plan commission has already approved the conceptual plan and a preliminary plat.

Sheboygan men arrested for counterfitting

Two men from Sheboygan have been arrested for allegedly running a counterfitting operation. One 18-year-old was busted after trying to buy food at McDonalds with fake money. A 19-year-old was also arrested. Police say the pair had been scanning real currency and printing it onto fibred paper. The men are being held at the Sheboygan County Jail on suspicion of forgery.

Charges to be filed in child sexual assault case

Charges are expected to be filed this week against a 26-year-old West Bend man accused of having sex with a 12-year-old girl. Police chief Ken Meuler said the man was arrested after an investigation revealed the suspect had numerous sexual encounters with the victim in the last 18 months. Meuler said all of the assault occurred at the suspect's residence. During the investigation, police also recovered several items of child pornography. The suspect and victim are not related, however they do live in the same apartment building.

Fatal Accident Sunday

There was a fatal accident Sunday in the Town of Richfield. Washington county Sheriff's deputies say a 21-year-old man was headed south on Hillside Road when he lost control of his car and hit a power pole. The vehicle broke in half and the man was ejected. He was pronounced dead at the scene. Authorities believe excessive speed and alcohol are factors in the accident which happened around 10 p.m. near Monches Road. This is the 11th fatal accident this year in Washington County.

Local business news

Payless Shoe store in West Bend is going out of business. The shop is in the Paradise Pavilion next to the new dollar store. Metropolitan Title Company has moved into the strip mall by Pick N' Save North. The business is next to where the old Home Treasures store used to be. In downtown West Bend, the sign for inspirational arts has gone up at 161 North Main Street. The new gift and accessories store is owned by Sherry Kannass and it should open within the next two weeks. The shop used to be the old Jeanne's Collectibles and that's now open down the street at the corner of Cedar and Main.

Higher heating bills on the way

Higher heating bills are on tap in the area. This week, the state public service commission approved a nearly $2 increase in electricity bills for customers of WE Energies. The increase will be used to help pay for environmental upgrades at the utility's power plants. The increase won't be charged to customers until early next year. However, the hike is announced just as folks around town brace for a 13% jump in heating costs this winter.

Elderly and infants to receive flu shot priority in county

The Washington County Health Department is trying to pool supplies of the flu vaccine to vaccinate people deemed high risk of contracting the flu. Linda Walter, with the Health Department, says local hospitals, clinics and nursing homes are discussing ways to distribute the vaccine after a supply shortage was announced this week. Some of the people receiving priority will be seniors 65 and older, people ages two to 64 with chronic medical problems and kids between six months and two years old.

Allenton Firefighter hurt in motorcycle accident

A volunteer firefighter from Allenton was injured in a motorcycle accident. Forty-year-old John Breuer hit a deer while riding his motorcycle this weekend in the town of Almond, near Marshfield. Breuer was airlifted to a local hospital. Breuer was one of the local firefighters on hand last weekend to assist in the unveiling of the bronze firefighters memorial statue.

Join Make a Difference Day

On Saturday, Oct. 23, be one among millions of Volunteers taking action at one time.

Make A Difference Day began with a simple idea: Put your own cares on hold for one day to care for someone else. Now in its 14th year, the nation's largest single day of volunteering has hit its stride. Make A Difference Day is the most encompassing national celebration of helping others -- a celebration of neighbors helping neighbors. Everyone can participate. In 2003, 3 million people cared enough about their communities to volunteer on that day, accomplishing thousands of projects in hundreds of towns.

Check out the New Addition- Volunteers needed to vacuum & dust all three levels of the new addition. Also, painting tables and chairs in the backyard. 9-11:30am Haunted House Concession- Selling food, soda, candy to patrons of the Haunted House "Terror on Rural Street." Proceeds benefit the Schauer Arts Center. Two shifts 6pm-9pm or 9pm-Midnight.

Plant Control- Cut and pull invasive plants and start a pile for disposal. 9am-12pm

No need for elaborate ambitions. The power of the day is in individuals making small changes for the better.

If you like any of the opportunities we invite you to take a look at our opportunities book with over 200 opportunities in Washington County. Call us in West Bend at 262-338-8256 or in the surrounding area at 1-800-Volunteer. You can also visit us at our website volunteernow.net

11th annual KEYS Run is huge success

Brad Theyerl was the men's winner. He finished the race in 15:30.

Joe Swanson, one of the cochairmen of the event, estimated $20,000 was raised Sunday.

The overall winner was a relative newcomer to the KEYS Run but not to being a competitive runner. Brad Theyerl, who completed the race in 15 minutes and 30 seconds (15:30), was running in Kewaskum for just the second time.

"Last year I was third," Theyerl, who is 25, said, indicating he ran competitively at Goodrich High School in Fond du Lac and at UW-Oshkosh. He is also the current president of the Fond du Lac Running Club, which has a membership of about 220.

When asked how the race unfolded, Theyerl said, "Jason Mayer was with me for the first mile. Then I just gradually pulled away."

Theyerl and Mayer, who had to take two years off because of knee problems, are no strangers to one another, and Theyerl admitted, "I could never beat Mayer in his prime."

Mayer finished second in 16:12. Eric Vetter placed third in 17:08.

"I think this is like the 10th road race I won this year," Theyerl said. "Last week I won at Mayville (five mile Audubon Run).

Theyerl said he runs between 50-60 miles per week. "I usually log between 2,000 and 2,500 miles per year," he said, indicating he has kept track of his training for the past 10 years.

Matt Thull, formerly of Campbellsport and a consistent KEYS winner, did not compete Sunday in the event, and Jerry Gosa, one of the organizers of the event, said, "I think this is the first time in 11 years" he hasn't been there.

Sue (Daggett) Miller had no problem reclaiming her title as the No. 1 woman racer. After taking off last year to have her second child, Miller looked in tiptop shape, staying with the top ten men for a couple miles and taking the women's crown in 18:27.

"It was gorgeous weather I went out smart," Miller said about her race, adding, at two miles she felt, "It was going pretty well ... I was feeling strong today."

Miller has been a regular at the KEYS race and still holds the women's record. What was different this year was having her son, Blake, participate. Blake, who is 4, took part in the kids' race and could hardly wait to chomp on the Starburst candies he picked for a prize.

"I don't have as much time to train as I used to with the kids, but it's going well,"

Miller, who was recently inducted in the Illinois State University athletic Hall of Fame, said.

Taking second among the women was Grotenhuis in 19:15, with Connie McFadden 32 seconds behind her.

When asked about the number of participants, Gosa said, "A little less than 1,000," and Swanson said the record number of participants is 1,017 which was set three or four years ago.

Swanson said what helps the event run so smoothly is the volunteers who come year after year. "We have tremendous help," with everyone knowing their jobs. "We've got a really great group, and the weather was beautiful again."

A wave of orange-clad individuals took over the streets of Kewaskum late Sunday morning.

No, it wasn't the invasion of the pumpkin snatchers, just 900 plus men, women, children and even a couple of dogs participating in the 11th annual KEYS (Kewaskum Youth Scholarship) Run/Walk, and what a day they had for the 5-kilometer event which raises scholarship funds for deserving seniors at Kewaskum High School.

There was a small group of the more serious runners, but the majority of participants were just out for a leisurely stroll with friends and family and helping to support a community event.

The company will present an adaptation of Gilbert & Sullivan's The Pirates of Penzance at both Kewaskum and Farmington Elementary Schools on Wednesday, October 20, 2004. A chorus of students from the elementary schools will appear on stage, performing right alongside Opera for the Young's professional artists.

About Opera for the Young. Opera for the Young brings live, professional opera to elementary school audiences. All productions are fully staged, sung in English and adapted especially for children. Students appear onstage in chorus and cameo roles; they also help design certain elements of the production's sets and costumes. OFY audiences become acquainted with the original scores of master composers, set in contexts relevant to kids' 21st century lives. (OFY's Barber of Seville is updated to the 1950s; The Elixir of Love is set in the old west. OFY's repertoire also includes Humperdinck's Hansel and Gretel; Dvorak's Rusalka, A Mermaid's Tale and a work based on the masterpieces of Offenbach, Gluck and Monteverdi entitled, Orpheus Returns.) Opera for the Young annually presents 200 performances, reaching 80,000 children every school year throughout Wisconsin, northern Illinois, Iowa and eastern Minnesota.

About The Pirates of Penzance. OFY's Artistic Director Diane Garton Edie and Bill Lutes have adapted Gilbert and Sullivan's score and libretto. Sixteen students from Kewaskum, Farmington, and Wayne will perform onstage as Constables, Pirates and Wards. Students throughout the Midwest have contributed ideas for the professionally designed pirate ship and the Pirate King costume.

With all of its zany word play and physical comedy, The Pirates of Penzance is an excellent springboard for discussion of the time-honored values of honesty, integrity, and respect for commitment.

About OFY's professional artists. Every OFY production features four professional singers and one pianist. Professional cast members are selected after competitive auditions held each summer in Chicago, Minneapolis and Madison. All professional roles are triple cast. Recent cast members have included a Grammy award winner, two Metropolitan Opera national audition winners, several Met regional winners, two artists with doctorates, many with masters degrees, choristers from the Lyric Opera of Chicago and members of the Chicago Symphony Chorus. All are conservatory graduates and active recitalists.

Further information about Opera for the Young is available at www.operafortheyoung.org.

The performances will take place at 9:30 a.m. at KES and 1:30 p.m. at FES.

UWWC to present 'Celebration' for fall play

WEST BEND - The University of Wisconsin-Washington County (UW-WC) is pleased to announce the cast for their fall theatre production, CELEBRATION. Directed by Professor Brad Ford, CELEBRATION is a ritualistic musical that explores a mythical situation of a young Orphan visiting the home of Mr. Rich on a magical New Year's Eve. Four performances are planned for Friday and Saturday, October 22 - 23 and October 29 - 30, at 7:30pm in the University Theatre.

Rick Gilbertson of Slinger is the show's narrator, Potemkin, who urges the audience to participate in the flight of imagination. Rick is no stranger to the stage, having performed with The Hartford Players, Skylight Opera, Appleton Rep, and Musical Masquers among others. This is Rick's tenth appearance on the UW-WC stage.

Jeff Spoo of Slinger, a freshman at UW-WC, majoring in film and theatre, plays the part of the Orphan, a young boy who fled from an institutional home as it was about to be demolished. Jeff played the Cowardly Lion in Slinger High School's production of The Wizard of Oz as well as other school productions.

In Orphan's attempt to survive the cold-hearted world around him, he visits a bored and bitter Mr. Rich, played by Patrick Erdman of Hartford. Patrick's stage experience includes several performances, while a student at Hartford Union High School, as well as several plays at UW-WC. Erdman played Tipton in Fresh Horses (2003), Josh in Zombie Prom (2003) and the title role in Bridegroom of Blowing Rock (2004).

Alyssa Schuster of Slinger is cast as Angel, a girl who Orphan quickly falls in love with, after arriving at Mr. Rich's New Year's Eve party. Alyssa was active in many of the plays, while at Slinger High School and also appeared in UW-WC's summer production of Oliver (2000).

Chorus members include: Pamela Bloomfield, Germantown; Melissa Schultz, Rubicon; Ashley Seifert, Slinger; and Claire Zautner, West Bend. They are all current students at UW-Washington County.

Assisting Professor Ford will be Deanna Gibeau, Vocal Music Director; Thomas Utschig, Orchestra; Lisa Schnabel, Choreography; Mike Firari, Technical Director; Grant Weninger, Stage Manager; Bruce Towell, Sound Engineer; and Kelly Crandall, Lighting Design.

Professor Ford designed the set with the downtrodden Orphan in mind - but in a contemporary manner. According to Ford, "The stage is a condemned property shrouded in black plastic and rife with various warning signs of asbestos, radioactivity and other ugly reminders of society's ills." The story is a comparison of the dangers confronted by prehistoric man just as today's poor and homeless are confronted with the dangers of living in condemned properties and an unfriendly urban environment.

Crew members include: Abdullah Burks, Derek Butson, Mike Firari, Hailey Gelhaar, Matt Jensen, Alan Jung, Robin Jung, Travis Lester, Katie Loosen, Ross Martin, Claire Murphy, Chris Polster, Kyle Rossi, Missy Schultz, Molly Westenberger, and Amanda Voelzke.

This creative and thought-provoking play is written by Tom Jones, with music by Harvey Schmidt. Jones and Schmidt are the authors of The Fantasticks, I Do, I Do, and 110 In the Shade.

Tickets are $8 for adults and $6 for seniors (over 62) and children (under 18). Admission for UW-WC students is free, with presentation of student ID. For tickets and reservations, phone 262-335-5208.

The University of Wisconsin-Washington County is located at 400 University Drive in West Bend (off Hwy. 33 West). More information is available online at www.washington.uwc.edu.

Grandparents Day and Olympics Held at Holy Trinity

The parking lot and playground turned into the venues for the Holy Trinity Olympics Friday afternoon, with a torch run and competitions for all the classes. Above, Drew Daugherty springs forward in the sack races.

Andy Rinzel defies gravity in the long jump competition, stretching for extra inches in the event.

"We represent Mexico" is what fifth grader Lydia Schneider appears to be saying during the parade of nations around the parking lot. Each class took a different country and made costumes showing the native garb of that country.

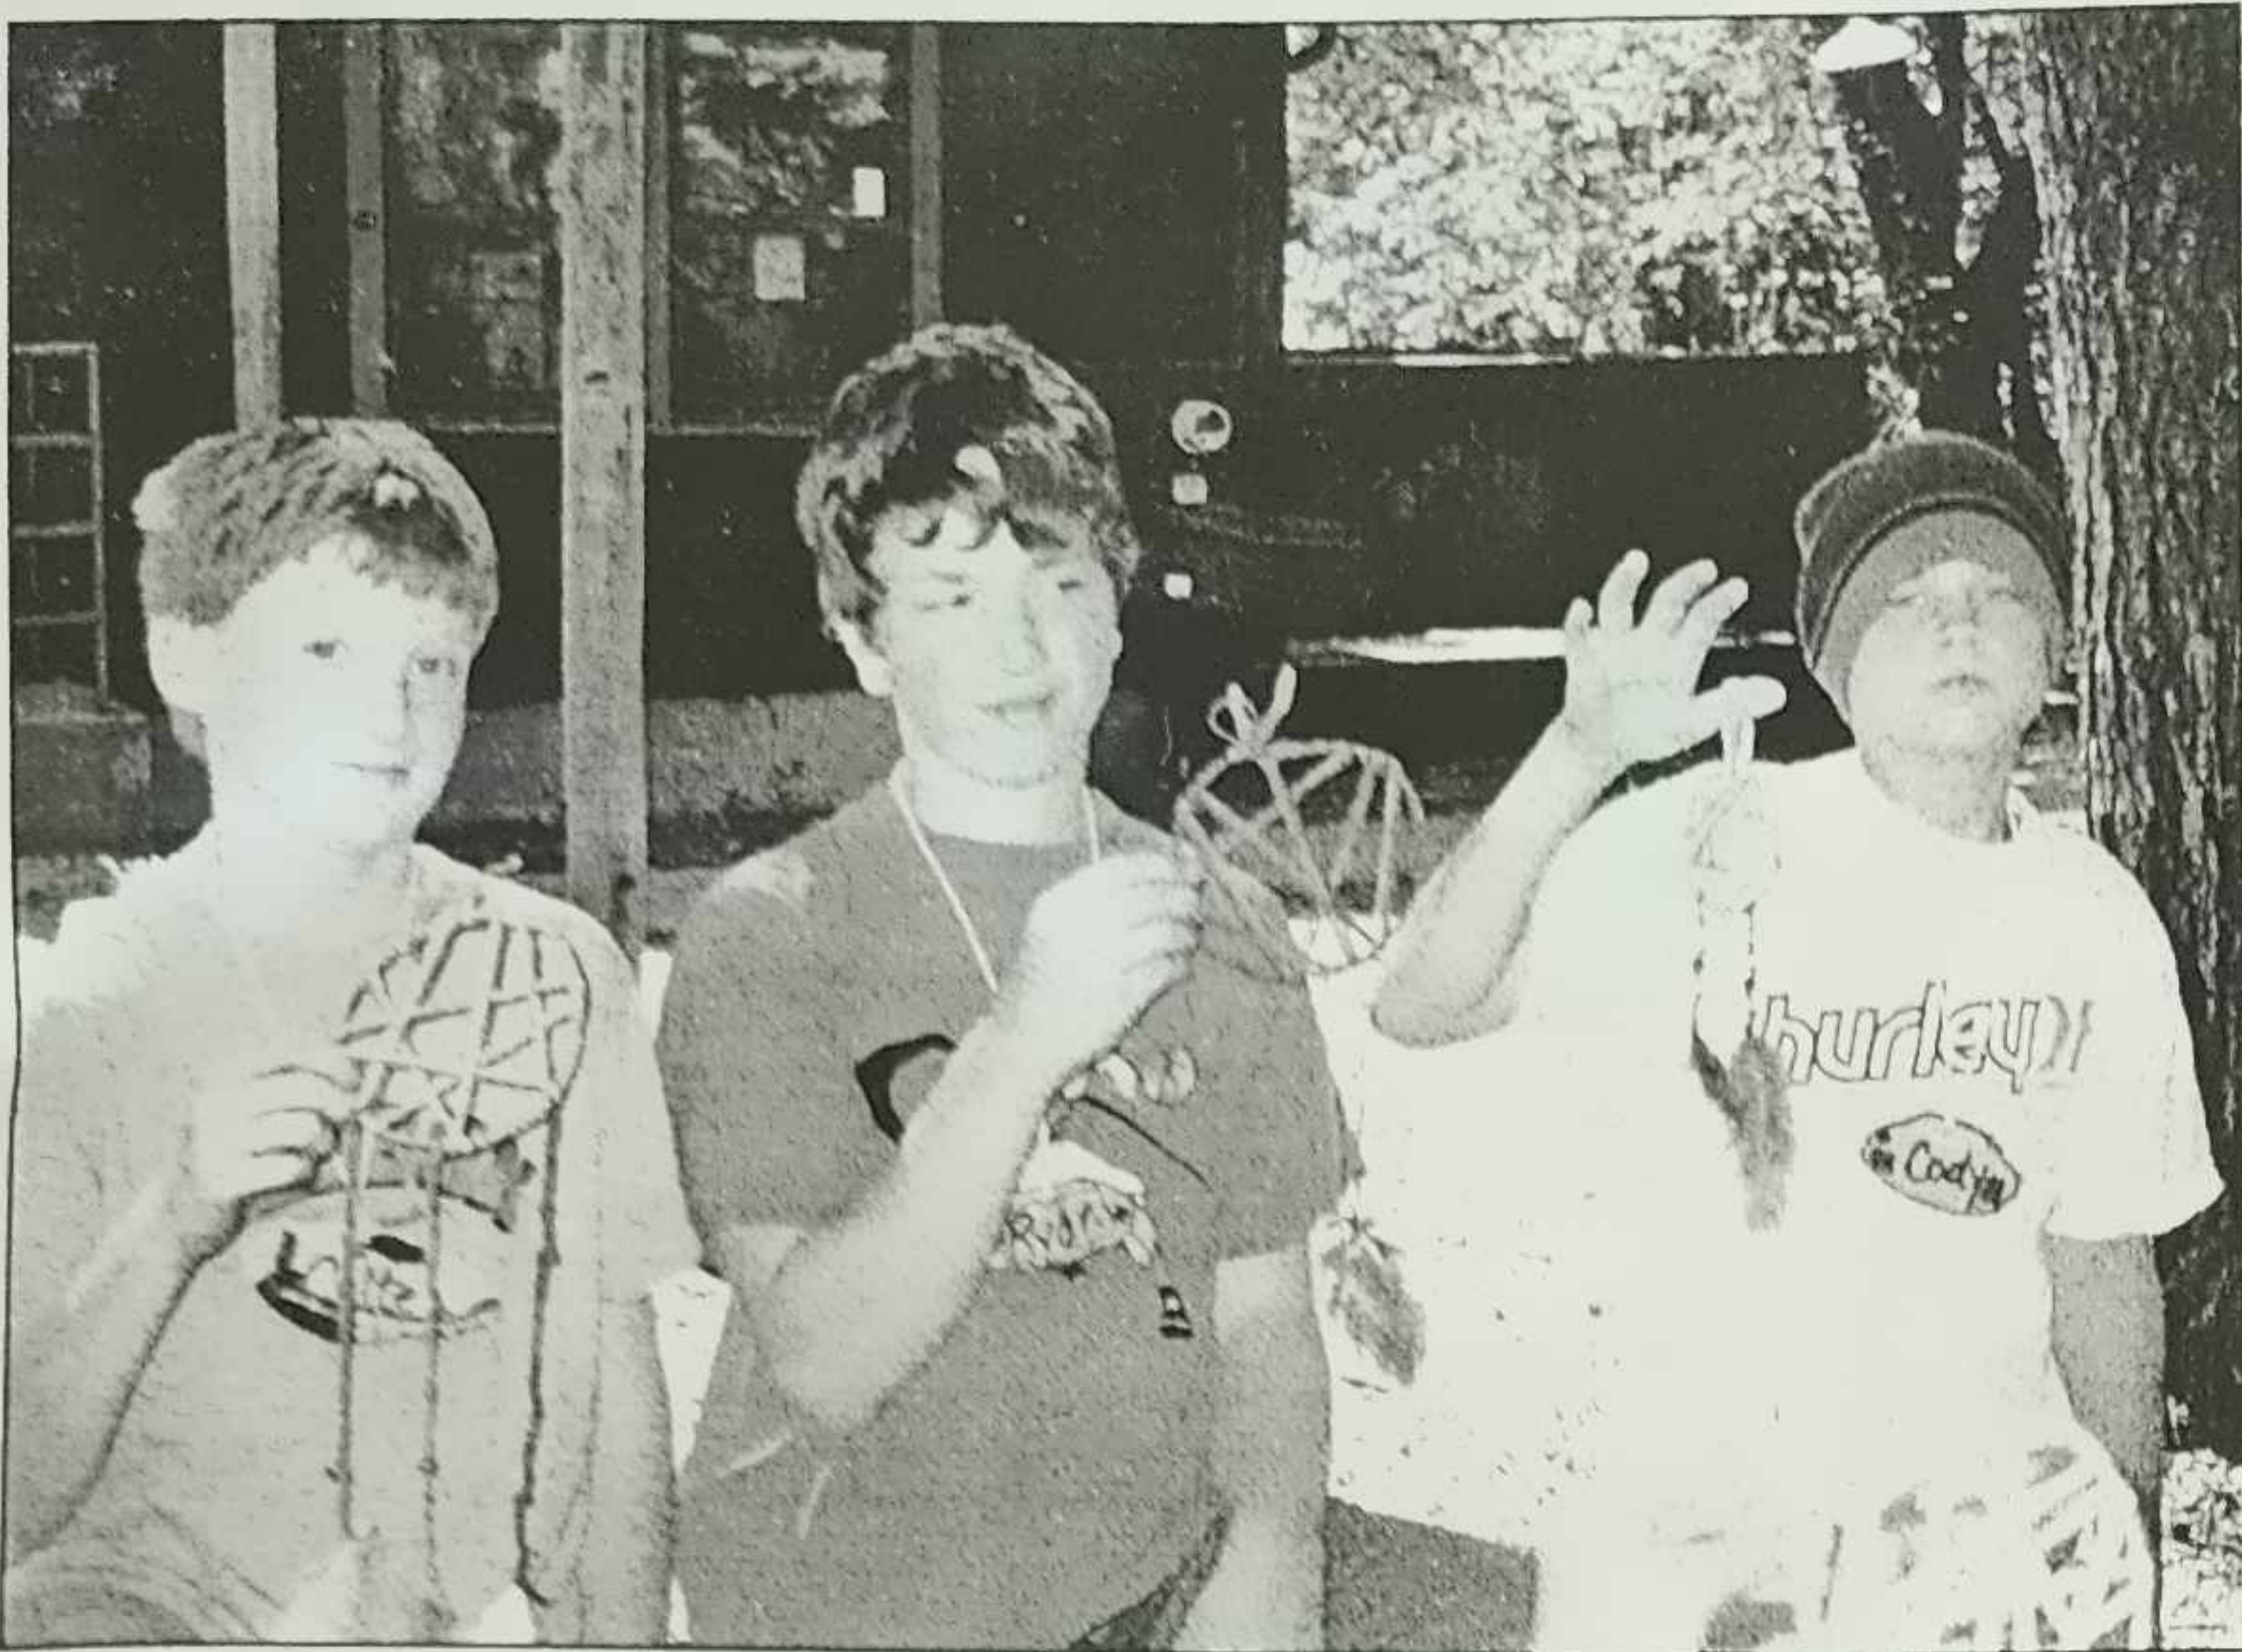

Grandparents lined the torch run with their chairs and applauded the efforts of McKenzie Rosenthal as she runs her leg of the run.

The Olympics was preceded Friday morning by Grandparents Day, starting with a special Mass celebrated by Holy Trinity temporary administrator Fr. Russell Stommel. During the latter part of the Mass, students offered a prayer for their grandparents. Jacob Verhaalen offers his prayer for his grandmother, Mercedes Verhaalen.

This year Kewaskum Middle School sixth graders again attended Camp Whitcomb on September 23-24 or September 30- October 1. Camp Whitcomb is located in Hartland, Wisconsin. It contains 284 acres of forests, lakes, marsh, ponds, open fields, cabins and lodges.

The students enjoyed a variety of activities this year, and many Kewaskum Middle School staff members volunteered their time and expertise to help make this a memorable experience. Students rotated through eight different activities: Archery taught by Mr. Boehlke; Box Baking taught by Mrs. Dorst; Cooperative Challenges led by Ms. Bruss and Mrs. Stangl; Wet and Wild Pond Study led by Mrs. Airaudi; Lost and Found Orienteering led by Mr. Uhlman; Web of Dreams Dreamcatchers taught by Ms. Schwalter; Lucky Lures Fishing led by Mr. Grotenhuis and Mr. Bannasch and Canoe Safety taught by Keith, the camp's environmentalist. A great thank-you goes to all of these people who made this trip a huge success.

Other favorite activities that the students participated in were campfire songs and activities, a night hike with one flashlight, passing the "Suzy" secretly around, tug-o-war competitions, and many cabin-time activities.

The sixth graders would love to share their positive thoughts about their experiences while at Camp Whitcomb. They all seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves while learning and gaining knowledge about the environment.

Beautiful Weekend for Morgan Marx colors a paddleball paddle in the Children's Tent at this weekend's Kettle Kountry Kolors while mom June looks on. Dodie Sargent of Little Folks Schoolhouse organized all the activities and entertainment in the tent.

Local favorite Downtown Harrison let Birthday Girl Jeanne Marchant take over for a rendition of "Crazy" by Patsy Cline. Downtown Harrison was sponsored this year by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce. Saturday's entertainment was provided by Jimmer's Jukebox, who is also an area resident. He was sponsored by the Kewaskum Sno Chiefs.

Andrew Kuehl, left, asks the ladies for a nickname for their husbands. Kevin Stautz seems pretty happy with wife Laura for nicknaming him "Superman" in Saturday evening's Newlywed Game at Kettle Kountry Kolors. The Stautz's came in second place winning a $25 gift certificate to Woody's Steakhouse.

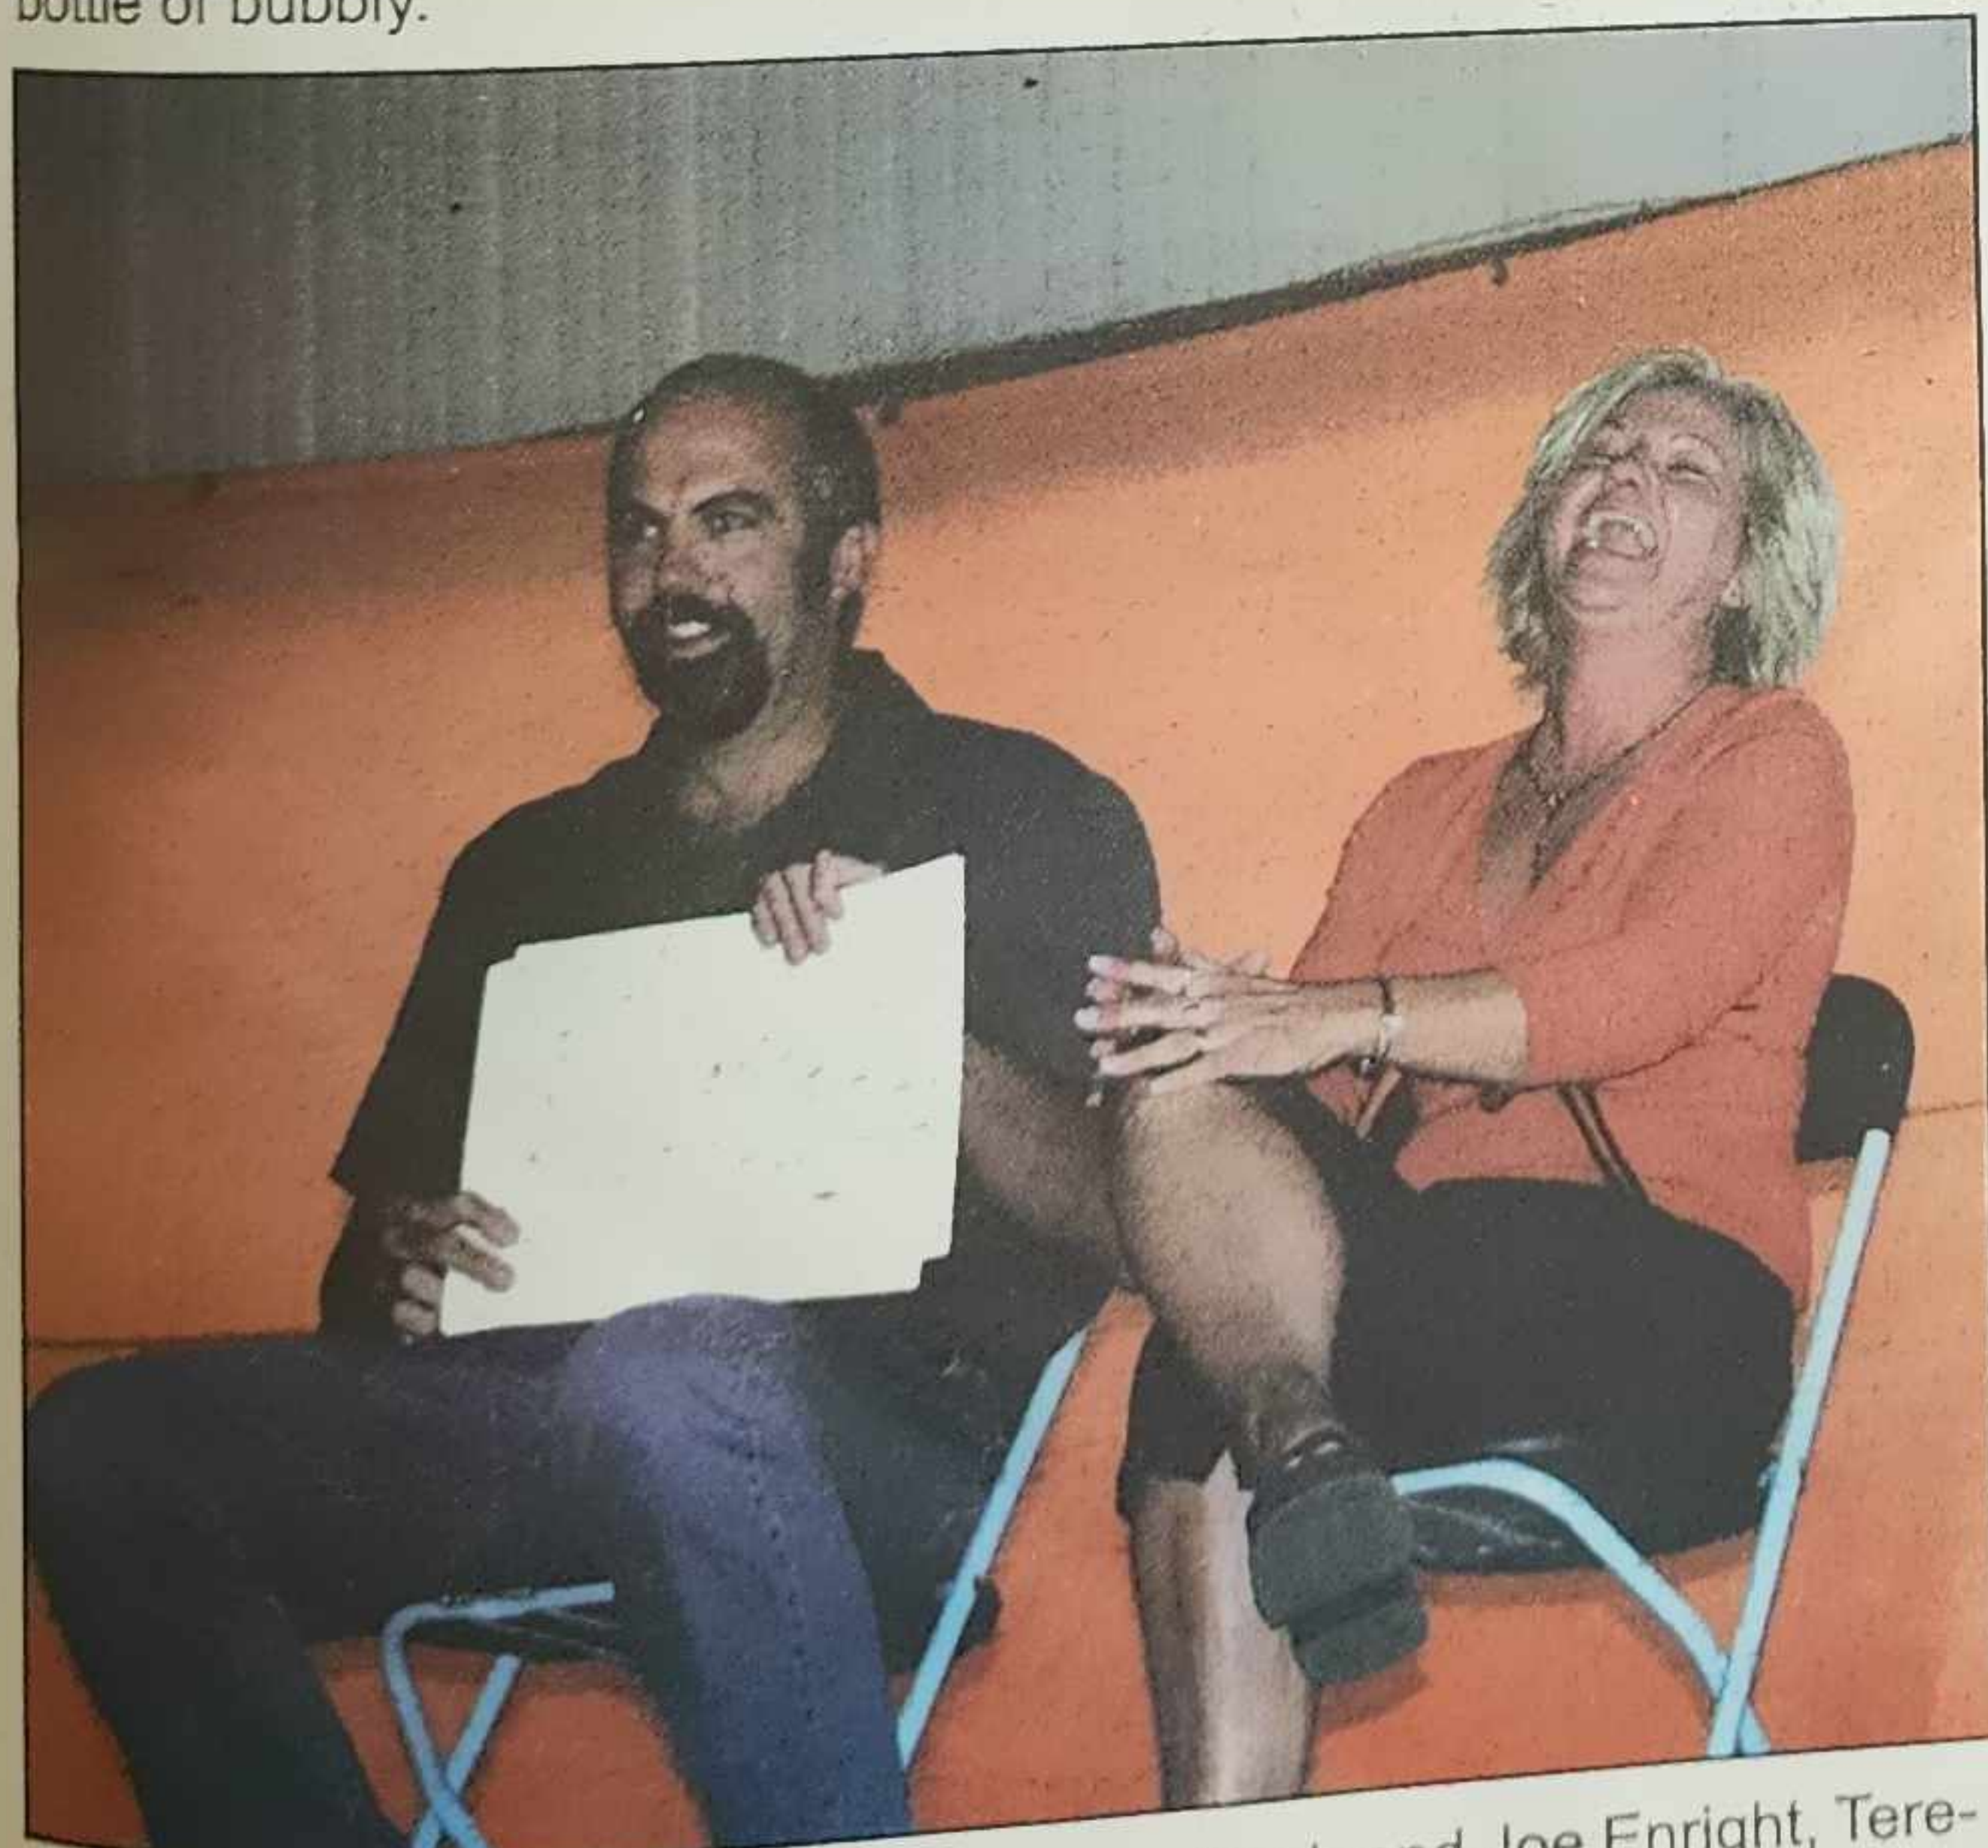

Jackie Burtard gives husband John an amazed look when he stated her bra could hold 64 ounces. John and Jackie took first place in the five years and under category winning $50.

Kimmy Olson gives husband Jimmy a look when he misses answering a question. The Olsons took third place winning a big bottle of bubbly.

The funniest portion of the game was the tie-breaker question between the Enrights and the Kochs. The question for the ladies to answer was what was the last dumb idea your husband had. Joe and Ann's answers did not match as he said, him saying burning down a certain building and her saying eating peanuts. The Enrights took second place in the six years plus category, winning the gift certificate to Woody's Steakhouse.

Dennis Fechter thinks that between Jerry Koch and Joe Enright, Teresa would like to spy on Joe in the shower. Dennis and Teresa won third place and took home a big bottle of Asti.

Jerry and Jan Koch, who were not even set to participate in the game, ended up taking first place. After some egging on by our wonderful police chief, the Kochs volunteered to be in the game after none of the other couples were in attendance. The game ended up being worth it for them as they walked away with the first prize of $50.

IN MEMORY

In memory of MICHAEL NEUENFELD.

Dad...so many images come to mind

Whenever I speak your name;

It seems without you in my life

Things have never been the same.

What happened to all those times

When I always looked at you; No matter what happened in my life

You could always make my gray skies blue.

Dad, some days I hear your voice

And turn to see your face; Yet in my turning...it seems The sound has been erased.

Oh, Dad, if I could turn back time

And once more hear your voice;

I'd tell you that out of all the dads you would still be my choice.

Please always know I love you

And no one can take your place;

Years may come and go

But your memory will never be erased.

Sadly missed by his son, Jake and Kelly.

P.S. Dad-send everyone my love: Grandma Colleen, Uncle Mark, Great-grandma Ruth, and Barney.

IN LOVING MEMORY
"UNCLE
MIKE NEUENFELD"

We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name,
But all we have are memories,

And your picture in a frame.
Your resting place we visit,
And put flowers there with care,

But no one knows the heartache,
As we turn and leave you there.

Memories are like threads of gold,
They never tarnish or grow old.

IN MEMORY

In memory of MICHAEL STERN, who passed away twenty-one years ago, October 18, 1983:

This month brings with sad regret.

The day, the hour we will never forget.

To see your face and watch you smile.

To sit with you and talk awhile.

To be together the same old way.

Would be our greatest wish today.

Only a cluster of memories sprayed with a million tears

Wishing God had spared you just a few more years.

*Thinking of you, Mike, and missing and loving you.

Why I Wore lipstick

to My Mastectomy

GERALYN LUCAS

If you are a man, scan this review, then take this newspaper, fold it up and hand it to the woman in your life. While you should read this book, chances are it's not going to mean quite as much to you as it will to her. If you're a woman, get ready for something that's going to hit you close to home - and maybe even save your life.

"Why I Wore Lipstick to My Mastectomy" by Geralyn Lucas (c.2004, St. Martin's Press) is about Lucas' diagnosis and treatment for breast cancer at the horribly young age of twenty-eight.

Geralyn Lucas was on top of her world. She was married to a doctor. She was an on-the-fast-track producer at ABC's 20/20, a job that fulfilled her and made her giddy and a little star-struck. She and her husband were thinking about having a baby.

And then she found three lumps in her right breast.

And she had a mastectomy.

And chemotherapy that made her vomit every day for six months and made her hair fall out.

The surgery hurt, of course, but she was sore all the time. She fainted at needles and learned to hate the smell of alcohol and hospital. She tried to look "cool" instead of looking sick, all the while thinking that vanity seemed silly. She blurted out "too much information" to strangers, and she was afraid of what people, especially her colleagues, would think. She cried at shampoo commercials. She mused about nipples (or lack thereof) as she endured multiple breastreconstruction surgeries. She worried that she might lose her husband while she fought against losing her life.

She worried about dying.

But through it all, Geralyn had the support of family and friends, and she had some of the best doctors in the country. Most importantly, she found a courage deep within herself that helped her face cancer, and beat it. That courage started with a sassy application of bright red lipstick.

"Why I Wore Lipstick to My Mastectomy" is a hard, almost impossible, book to read if you're new to the Cancer-Go-Round, and strangely comforting if you're an old hand at it. The loss of hair, Geralyn says, is the hardest part. The constant nausea was the most embarrassing, along with the loss of bowel control that retching caused. Learning to seize life, finding the power within, is the most important thing. Fear of the unknown is worst of all. This is brutal stuff, but every bit - every emotion, every shock, every triumph - is true.

I know. Been there. Done it. I was diagnosed with lymphoma almost 14 years ago. October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month, in case you didn't know. Some proceeds of this book go to the Young Survival Coalition to support and educate young women about breast cancer. If you practice BSE, good for you! If you don't - or if you don't know what BSE is - pick up a copy of this book on your way to your doctor's office, and find out.

It may save your life.

As I said last week, one of the best compliments a person can receive is when someone asks them for help. The Kewaskum School Board members are asking for your help on Tuesday, November 2.

The upcoming November 2 General Election will have 6 questions on the ballot for community members to respond to. All 6 questions ask only IF you would support a referendum. It is NOT asking you to vote on a referendum. There is a significant difference. These are advisory questions, or as one person called it, a "non-binding" set of questions. Your responses will help guide the School Board in making decisions that will influence children and the community in the months and years ahead. I reviewed questions 1 and 2 in the October 7 issue of The Statesman.

Question #3 asks if you would support additional capital improvements funded through a referendum?

When the Ad Hoc Community Committee presented its list of questions to the School Board, they were asked if this particular question should include the word "maintenance" along with capital improvements? Their response was that the discussions at the committee level indicated the word maintenance implied, to them, something that should already be built into the budget. Therefore they recommended that it not be included in the question.

Committee Co-Chair Wade Roberts and Carrie Kuehl felt that in the mind of committee members, capital improvements were items that are budgeted, but unfortunately have to be removed during the budgetary process in order to balance the overall school budget. They are very important items, but in times of budget shortfalls and restraints, are removed in order to cover other basic, critical items such as school supplies, utilities, etc. The committee members felt that it was only after an item was purchased and was in need of repair, attention, etc., that "maintenance" was required, hence, the use of only capital improvements in question #3.

How do you respond to this question? If you would be inclined to support this type of question in a future referendum, you would respond, "Yes". If you are not willing to support this question, you would mark "No". Keep in mind your vote is advisory only!

If you wish to have a copy of the exact questions sent to you, please feel free to call 262-626-8427, Ext. 8001 and request a copy. You may also go to our School District web site shown above.

The seven members of the Kewaskum School Board are committed to the children and the taxpayers of the school district. You can help them in this ongoing commitment by reflecting on, and then answering the 6 questions on the November 2 ballot.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

One of the earliest voices to influence the ideals of the Democratic party was a Scottish-Irish immigrant, William Findley in the 1780's. Findley was self-educated and could never / would never emulate men with the advantage of university educations or great wealth. He stated that "existence of enormous wealth in the hands of individuals was a danger in free states, since such men with the help of their dependent easily acquired a corrupt influence over the states."

Forty-six years later, Andrew Jackson strongly rejected wealthy powerful big business stating, "The electoral process impaired the morals of the people, bought a congressman and sought to destroy our Republican institutions by concentrating power in the hands of an elite few."

Then came Woodrow Wilson, by the way who won a Nobel Prize. Wilson pushed through many important political legislation; graduated income tax, banking reform, abolition of child labor, eight hours for railroad workers and women voting rights to name a few. During that time period 1% of the population owned 50% of the nation's wealth.

Even Teddy Roosevelt steered away from the big business Republican Party and an under the "Progressive Party." Teddy Roosevelt was an ecologist ahead of his time. We all know of the social progress of E.D.R. and of the civil rights programs of JFK and Lyndon Johnson. The Watergate scandal of Nixon revealed how the wealthy and big business influenced the Republican Party. After that, Congress passed laws about campaign finance. They still did not succeed enough to eliminate "soft money."

The new campaign finance laws put through by McCain and Feingold eliminates soft money but loopholes of 527's have gone unprosecuted by the Federal Election Commission.

Let's not forget Jimmy Carter who had more concern for rights of the common people than any Republican I've known in recent years. His creation of the Department of Energy was important to seek new ways of alternate fuel; only to be quickly dismantled by Reagan. If we could have stuck to his policies, we might no longer even be in the Middle East at all today. Yeah, you're right Mr. Bob Dohmal, those bleeding heart liberals have done nothing good for this country.

Vance Reif

Sensenbrenner honored by Medical College of Wisconsin

The Medical College of Wisconsin honored Congressman F. James Sensenbrenner, Jr. (R-5th District) with an Appreciation Award, Sept. 17. T. Michael Bolger, J.D., Medical College President and CEO, presented the award "in recognition of Sensenbrenner's outstanding leadership and support in Congress for the advancement of the Medical College's mission of excellence."

Among Sensenbrenner's accomplishments in the areas of medical education and health care, Bolger cited his:

Support of the National Science Foundation and the National Institutes of Health

Support for an increase in the Medicare reimbursement rate

Support of a successful amendment that exempts the national residency match program for medical school graduates from anti-trust laws

Spearheading the Medical College's efforts in Congress to secure federal funds to help build its new biomedical research building.

Local governments receive share of fuel tax, registration fees

As part of his ongoing "Grow Wisconsin" initiative to support economic development and encourage job growth, Governor Jim Doyle has announced that quarterly checks totaling $96.8 million for General Transportation Aids, Connecting Highway Aids, and Expressway Policing Aids have been mailed or electronically transferred to Wisconsin units of local government.

The Governor said that the October payments from the Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) included $93.3 million in General Transportation Aids to 1,922 units of government; $3.2 million to 121 municipalities for Connecting Highway Aids; and $260,200 to Milwaukee County for Expressway Policing Aids.

This year local governments will receive a total of approximately $387.2 million in GTA, Connecting Highway Aids and Expressway Policing Aids to help build and maintain local bridges and roads. This represents about 30% of the fuel taxes and vehicle registration fees deposited into the state transportation fund. Quarterly payments are sent the first Monday in January, April, July and October.

"A quality state and local transportation system is vital to support economic development and to help ensure that travelers can reach their destinations safely and efficiently," Governor Doyle said.

General Transportation Aids help defray the costs of constructing, maintaining, and operating roads and streets under local jurisdiction.

Connecting Highway Aids reimburse municipalities for maintenance and traffic control of certain state highways within municipalities.

The Expressway Policing Aids support the Milwaukee County Sheriff Department's patrol of Milwaukee expressways.

Communities also receive state Transportation Fund revenues for public transit, elderly and disabled transportation, and airport and harbor development from WisDOT. State and federal funds will also be allocated for specific highway and bridge construction projects.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Village of Kewaskum
Plan Commission
August 24, 2004
7:00 p.m.

The Plan Commission of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and pledge of Allegiance.

Chairperson Mathew Heiser called the meeting to order. Members present were Andy Pesch, Andrew Kuehl, Richard Schmidt, Frank Beesten and Theodore Meilahn. A quorum was present.

On a motion by Richard Schmidt, seconded by Andy Pesch and carried by the majority voice vote the Plan Commission approved the minutes as printed for August 16, 2004. Andrew Kuehl abstained.

The Commission reviewed the concept plans for the construction of a Multi-Family building on the NE corner of Bonnie Lane and Courtney Lane. The "Courtney" is proposed to be constructed by J.B.J. Development and is proposed to consist of 42, 2 BR units (1,200 to 1,400 sq. ft.), 2, 3 BR units (1,380 sq. ft.) and 9, 1 BR units (900 to 1,000 sq. ft.) with underground parking. The Commissioners asked numerous questions regarding parking, traffic, sprinkler system, building height, garbage container location and current drainage ditch for area streets. (The Village Engineers commented on a few items and that was shared with the Commission.) Scott Bence and Rob Williams were present to answer questions. On a motion by Frank Beesten, seconded by Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote the Commission approved the concept plans for "The Courtney" allowing the developer to proceed with plans to submit to the State and Village Building Inspector.

The Commission reviewed the conceptual plan for a proposed development west of the village on CTH "H" at the SW corner of CTH "H" and Kettle View Drive. The land is currently known as the Prost land and is being bought by MENSCH LLC. The property can be served with a gravity sanitary sewer line eventually (2006 & beyond) and currently does not lie within in the Land Use Plan or Sewer Service Area. The footprint lines up with the planned streets to the east and proposed 20 multi-family condominium complexes of 5 units and 93 single-family lots. There is C-1 and C-2 conservancy located on the 77 acres similar to the land use plan design, but does ask for multi-family condominium zoning. The Plan Commission weighed the proposal and Member Richard Schmidt again questioned the ability of the Village to handle all of this new growth. Gary Schneider, Steve Peters and Joseph Altschaeffl were present to discuss the noted concept Prost

Plan.

The Administrator informed the Board prior to any further action the developers would need to request the Land Use Area be amended in the Land Use Plan as well as a request for the Sewer Service Area to be amended to include said parcel. It was noted an escrow amount would be requested from the developer (?$2,500) to cover that expense. On a motion by Frank Beesten, seconded by Theodore Meilahn and carried by the majority voice vote, the Commission approved conditionally the ideas of the concept plan, pending Land Use Plan amendment, Sewer Service Area amendment and further review by the Village Engineers, Staff and Commissioners. (Richard Schmidt voted against the conditional approval of the concept plan.)

On a motion by Richard Schmidt seconded by Frank Beesten and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Commission adjourned the meeting.

Roll call vote was 6 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 0 "Absent".

Indians turn back three more challengers, clinch EWC title

By JUDY HARLOW STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Behind three thrilling wins in last week's quadrangular meet hosted by New Holstein, the Kewaskum High volleyball team gift-wrapped an early Christmas present — another Eastern Wisconsin conference championship.

For the past several weeks, veteran KHS Coach Dave Rizzardi had been saying the outcome of the second and final quad meet would go a long way toward determining who would claim the title.

Well, three other EW teams gave the Indians their best shots, and each time the defending champion Indians stayed on their feet and came back with knockout punches. With the wins, the Indians are a perfect 12-0 against EW opponents.

Kewaskum started out with a five-game victory over Sheboygan Falls, winning 26-24, 24-26, 25-15, 17-25 and finally 15-8 in the rubber game.

The second match against New Holstein, which on paper looked to be the Indians' biggest challenge, went just four games. After losing the first game 14-25, KHS came out on top 25-18, 25-9 and 25-6.

Campbellsport presented a real challenge to the Indians, extending their match to five games, but again, they were able to survive close encounters, winning 27-25, 22-25, 25-22, 19-25 and taking the finale 16-14.

"This was the final match of the evening, and Campbellsport would not quit," Rizzardi said. "Our girls played their hearts out to remain undefeated in conference and secure the conference championship with one week to play."

Rizzardi went on, "Our composure in the final game was the key, with a strong spike by Christina DeGroot and a block for game by Briana Bastian"

In that match, Danielle DeGroot led the Indian attack with 11 spikes, followed by Bastian and Amanda Magnus with eight apiece and Bekki Heberer with seven.

Bastian and Katie Schroeder both chipped in with two aces. Danielle DeGroot and Marissa Dehler contributed 26 and 16 digs, respectively.

"Falls played extremely fired-up volleyball," Rizzardi said. "We were not passing and hitting as well as we should have been. Eventually our power and ability to move the ball around prevailed."

Leaders in that match were Magnus with a dozen kills, Schroeder going 20x20 serving with a pair of aces, and Schroeder with 19 assists.

Kewaskum took care of New Holstein in one less game, and the statistics reflected that fact. The top kill total was eight, posted by Bastian, while Magnus had three aces serving, and Schroeder led the team in assists with 15.

"New Holstein came out with some great hitting and placement," Rizzardi said. "Once we regrouped, our offense was too much for the Huskies. Katie Schroeder did an outstanding job of setting and keeping the team under control. She had a great evening overall."

Member of the championship team include seniors Danielle DeGroot, Magnus and Bastian, juniors Schroeder and Leanne Kison, sophomores Heberer, Dehler, and Bry Timblin and freshman Christina DeGroot.

After playing Plymouth on Oct. 12, the Indians conclude their EW season tonight (Thursday) against Kiel, then they start the second season, WIAA tournaments next week.

Flyway Duck Hunt

Hello Friends,

The year was 1972. I was in fifth grade at Poyette Middle School and taking part in my first Mississippi River duck hunt. My brothers, Tom and Mike, and I were lucky enough to have a father that took us on all kinds of hunting and fishing trips.

On that first Mississippi River trip, we camped on an island near Ferryville and lived the good life. Fast forward 32 years, and I am helping to raise four kids, I'm a full time outdoor writer and still camping on that island.

Friday, October 1 High 66, Low 36

Stress can be defined as operating old, worn out equipment that does not work, even when you think it has been fixed. Today, Jeff Moll from Niagara, and his sons, 16-year-old Ryan, and 10-year old Ross, as well as myself and three golden retrievers, found that out the hard way.

Our plan was to pull three canoes with my 14-foot boat five miles down river from Lansing, Iowa, to our island retreat. I picked up my outboard motor last night after getting some work done on the lower unit.

Two very serious problems struck us at the same time. First, my lower unit would only function at an idle, at best. Then we were deluged by heavy rains and gale force winds that would wreak havoc for the next 12 hours. Persistence and dealing with adversity are required with this job, and we pressed forward. We built our camp and instead of a campfire experience, we played Yahtzee in my tent.

Saturday, October 2 High 55, Low 29

Building duck blinds did not happen yesterday. This morning, with a noon season opener, we had our work cut out for us. Jeff would be in a canoe with Ross. I would be in my boat converted into a blind with Ryan. There were plenty of hunters and plenty of ducks flying around.

At about 12:05 p.m., Ryan dusted a blue wing teal with a 12 gauge his dad had just bought for him. That gave us one duck for our annual campfire duck dinner.

About 1 p.m., I dusted a mallard, and my dog, Ice, made a real nice retrieve on it. Ice is in his second season of hunting and Jeff's golden retriever, Maggie, is in her third. Both dogs would do an excellent job this weekend. On the other hand, Ice's mom, Pearl, who is just about 11-years-old, seems to be reaching retirement mode. Pearl still wants to go along for the ride, but does not seem to be into jumping out of a boat and swimming after a duck.

By the time the sun hit the western horizon, Jeff, Ryan, and I had harvested seven ducks. Just the right amount for the big feed.

Sunday, October 3 High 63, Low 30

Unfortunately for Ryan and me, our chest waders leak. Wet feet and legs can be kind of hard on a person.

This morning, I actually had ducks coming into our decoys after I quacked on my duck call. Talk about a thrill. First I spot a flock of mallards 500 yards away and then I give them my best high ball.

Next, they turn in my direction, and when they get close enough, I shoot at them. I hopefully hit one and then watch my pup swim out and fetch it back.

An added bonus came our way this morning when a pair of geese flew over our decoys and I sent one to heaven. This was Ice's first goose retrieve and he performed perfectly.

From 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., we dragged our canoes through the deer tongue and lily pads and jump shot ducks. This form of hunting is extremely physical and loads of fun.

Jeff was shooting right on today, and bagged his limit. I ended up with four ducks and a goose. Ryan dropped a mature wood duck that he is going to get mounted. We went back to camp for a Packer party only to hear on the radio that they got manhandled by the Giants.

Later in the night, we experienced another big blow.

The next day we had some serious stress trying to pull three fully loaded canoes up the Mississippi River with an extremely broken down motor.

Moral of the story: We shall return next year with a better motor!

Happy hunting! Sunset

Gridiron Teams 2- 1-1 for week

By JUDY HARLOW STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Two of the teams came out on top, one lost and there was one tie in Gridiron football action over the past weekend against teams from Cedar Grove.

Playing on their home Kewaskum High School field, the eighth grade eked out a 7-0 victory over their opponents, with the lone touchdown of the game scored with just 3:30 left in the game.

Ray Wollner scored on an 11-yard sweep to break the scoreless deadlock, and it was Wollner running the ball for the extra point. (According to league rules, kicking an extra point is worth two points while running and passing is good for a single point.

"We threatened near the end of the first half but didn't score," Coach Jonesy Korth said.

Korth reported his team, which posted its fifth shutout of the season, had two interceptions, one by Conner Klug and the other by Zack Amerling, who ran the ball all the way into the end zone only to have the apparent TD wiped out by a block in the back penalty.

The play of defensive end Michael Herriges and middle linebacker Joey Paulus was praised, and Korth said this was a good game to have prior to going up against Brown Deer. "They will be a tough opponent," he said.

Seventh Grade — Kewaskum 0, Cedar Grove 0: Coach Dennis Imler said it was a "good defensive game."

Middle linebacker Cody Enright, outside linebacker Brad Wolf and defensive end Matt Toles "did a remarkable job," according to Imler, who said his team is now 3-1-1 on the year.

Sixth Grade — Kewaskum 12, Cedar Grove 6: Coach Joe Backhaus said his sixth graders were involved in an exciting game, highlighted by Cody Nuernberg's 65-yard return of the opening kickoff for a touchdown.

The other TD was also scored by Nuernberg on a short run in the second half.

This was the sixth graders' third win of the year. Backhaus is excited Ryan Ogi, who was injured two weeks ago, will be ready to play this Saturday.

Fifth Grade — Brookfield East 19, Kewaskum 6: The Kewaskum team took an early 7-6 lead, then the tables were turned when the hosts committed three costly turnovers.

Getting the lone KHS touchdown was Eric Perkins, who was "untouched" on a 7-yard end around, according to Coach Mark Walcheske, reporting quarterback Tony Gonring ran in the extra point.

"The defense played a spirited game," forcing a couple fumbles and coming up with an interception, according to Walcheske.

The fifth graders play at Whitnall this Saturday, while the three other teams play night games at Brown Deer.

KHS tennis season comes to an abrupt end

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

The Kewaskum High tennis team picked up several victories and scored seven points in last Monday's Division 2 sub-sectional held at the Pleasant Valley Tennis Club, but was unable to advance any of its players to the sectional competition.

"The whole team was eliminated," KHS Coach Kevin Hein said, reporting girls needed two victories to move along to the next level of the state championship series, and only three of the Indians representatives got one victory.

"It's just one or two teams that are pretty good," Hein said, referring to University School of Milwaukee and Shorewood, which finished first and second with 24 and 18 points, respectively.

Kewaskum was tied with Brookfield Academy and New Berlin West for fourth out of the 10 teams in the event.

Hein was hoping his number two doubles team of Katie Kurer and Rachel Breese had an outside chance to get the needed two wins, but they ran into a buzz saw in their second match.

After topping a twosome from Dominican 6-0, 6-0, they ran into the eventual runners-up, K. Guadagnine and A. Schick of Shorewood, and lost 4-6, 1-6.

"They went in with an 8-2 record," Hein said. "They were our best chance but they fell short ... they had a real good year. I'm really proud of them, especially considering this was Rachel's first year playing tennis competitively."

At number two singles, sophomore Allison Kowalczyk won her first match over Kelsey McMormach of Dominican 6-1, 6-4, then lost her second to Sarah Carns of Grafton 1-6, 2-6.

The number three doubles team of Theresa Trott and Ashley Feucht got past their first opponents from Brown Deer, H. Edstrum and A. Sapleton, by scores of 6-2, 6-1, then they were eliminated by M. Sain and M. Josephson of Shorewood, 3-6, 1-6.

At number one singles, Paige Thelen had a tough draw, getting Sarah Leonard of Shorewood right off the bat. She lost 0-6, 0-6.

Crystal Cochran gave a good account of herself at number three singles but she lost 1-6, 4-6 to Rukmani Bhattai of Brookfield Academy.

Lindsay Keller failed to win a single game in her first set against Mary Franke of Dominican and performed a little better in the second, losing 2-6.

Natasha Lawrence and Nicole Behring, who have held down the number one doubles spot all season, lost their first match to K. Tunder and E. Krenz of Grafton, 4-6, 2-6.

Kewaskum finished seventh in the final standings of the nine-team Eastern Wisconsin Conference for tennis.

KHS soccer team continues string of one-goal losses

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT

All one-goal losses are painful, but the 2-1 home defeat the Kewaskum High team suffered against Sheboygan Falls Thursday evening hurt worse than any of the others they have experienced this season because the visiting Falcons had been winless in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

"Too many chances ... you have to put them (shots) away," Alex Hill, one of the team's co-coaches, said afterward before graciously crediting the Falcons for their fine effort.

"I give them full credit. They kept going, going, going," Hill said, and, "Their goalkeeper was exceptional."

At the half of this Parents Night contest, neither team had a goal, so it was all going to come down to the final 40 minutes and who wanted it more. For a while, it appeared that would be the Indians, who got a goal from Jason Jahnke, despite the fact he was marked by two defenders most of the game.

Hill said the goal came about six minutes into the second half and reported the assist went to Jake Sabel. "It was a great move," he said, recalling how the excitement of the goal dwindled quickly because, "We kind of switched off after that ... thought the game was over."

Sheboygan Falls didn't believe it was over, however, and soon tied the game, then got what turned out to be the game-winner at 57:36.

"Sheboygan Falls had three good chances in the second half, and they scored on two of them," Hill said.

Kewaskum pushed hard to score the tying goal in the final 15 minutes but could not finish.

Jacob Cochran

After a free kick with 14:55 remaining, the ball went to Noah Olla, who touched the ball beautifully over to Jacob Cochran, whose shot hit the top right corner of the post.

Cochran had another scoring opportunity a couple minutes later, but his line drive header found its way to the goalie. Later, Tyler Hickman's long pass attempt toward Olla right in front of the net was snatched out of the air by the Falcon keeper.

Hickman's missile from the right side with 2:32 left was gobbled up by the keeper, and not even pulling Nate Kenworthy from the KHS net provided a score in the final minute.

"I'm disappointed in my guys' attitudes," Hill said. He was pleased with two of his defenders, however, namely Austin Flanders and Frank Cole.

"I thought Austin Flanders did a terrific job in the back tonight ... Cole, too," Hill said.

With the loss, the Indians fell to 3-7 in the EW and 6-9-1 overall. They have one EW game remaining, against Plymouth this afternoon.

It takes 20 years to make an overnight success.

Indians unable to pull out win for parents night crowd

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

In the fourth quarter Friday night, the Kewaskum High football team was able to move 85 yards for a touchdown in a minute and 50 seconds ... the Indians were successful on the onside kick they needed to have a chance at the tying score ... but they couldn't get three yards on a fourth down at the Sheboygan Falls 17-yard line, allowing the Falcons to escape with a 14-7 victory and a perfect 5-0 mark in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

"We should have had it," Kewaskum Coach Jason Piittmann said after watching his players battle right down to the wire against the powerful Falcons.

"It was a good call. Rock (Dave Rockhill), Tim (Tim Rohlinger) and I were all in agreement," Piittmann went on about the decision to try a draw play on the fourth down after the Indians had moved from their 49-yard line down to the SF 17 with 1:28 remaining.

After Eric Ogi had pounced on Jon Olla's onside bouncer that hit one of the Sheboygan Falls in the chest, Kewaskum moved into position to tie the game or win it, using a seven yard pass from Chad Piwoni to Eric Cain, several short runs by Garrett Donath and a 12-yard Piwoni to Jeremy Gurholt strike for a first down at the Falcons' 24.

Donath was held to short yardage on the next two downs and Piwoni was stopped for a yard gain, setting up the fourth down. Piwoni handed the ball to Ross Stockhausen, who was stopped before he ever got going.

The Falcons appeared to have gained a first down but were called for holding. It didn't matter because both teams were out of timeouts, and QB Jacob Juedes took a knee while the final seconds ticked away.

Two of the three touchdowns were scored in the thrilling final period. Sheboygan Falls went 78 yards in 17 plays on its second possession of the second half (which went into the fourth quarter) to take a 14-0 lead. Tyler Thede, a 170-pound junior halfback, lugged the ball for the final four yards, and the Falcons were successful on the 2-point conversion, with Juedes hitting Seth Mauer in the left corner of the end zone.

There was 6:56 remaining in the game after the TD, and the situation looked a little glum for the Indians, even worse when the ensuing kick-off bounced over Eric Nass' head. By the time he tracked the ball down, he was facing several Falcons who stopped him at the 15-yard line.

Not to worry, Piwoni, working from the shotgun offense, which was put in just for this game, completed five of eight passes to move the Indians right down the field for a touchdown.

Cain gathered in two of the passes for 20 yards, then Donath found a seam and gathered in another pass for 16 yards. Momentum was building and Piwoni stayed poised, first hitting Gurholt for an eight yard pass, then picking up a first down himself on a 13-yard run to the Falcons' 11.

On the very next play, Piwoni rolled left and tossed a perfect strike to Gurholt for the TD. Olla was perfect on the PAT, and suddenly the Indians were back in the game at 14-7.

The onside kick followed but unfortunately the drive stalled before producing another score.

"This group has a lot of heart," Piittmann said of the comeback try after his team had been held to just 57 total yards in the first half, including 22 by Donath in eight carries. Donath's fumble late in the second quarter set up the Falcons' first touchdown, a 1-yard plunge by Johnson on fourth down.

When asked if this was the best defense his team has faced, Piittmann said, "It was textbook Sheboygan Falls," praising the Falcons' defensive end Jake Kattner, who "kicked our butts."

Sheboygan Falls outgained the Indians 245 to 179, with Tyler Johnson, Juedes and Thede rushing for 78, 71 and 65 yards, respectively.

Donath was held to 54 yards rushing in 20 carries. The passing game produced 32 yards in the first half and 88 in the second, with Cain making five grabs for 65 yards.

"Cain had a hellava game," Piittmann said, also praising Piwoni for the way he took up to the pressure and the offensive line for pass blocking.

Kewaskum, now 3-2 in the EW and 5-2 overall, is at Campbellsport tomorrow night. Once again, Piittmann feels the Indians will match up well with the Cougars.

In other EWC games Friday night, Campbellsport (3-2) topped Roncalli (1-4) 29-6, Plymouth (5-0) blasted Kiel (0-5) 48-6 and Two Rivers (1-4) surprised New Holstein (3-2) 18-13.

Local golfers far back in sectional test

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT

As expected, Madison Edgewood walked away with the team title at the Division 2 girls golf sectional held at Hon-E-Kor Country Club on Tuesday.

Edgewood posted a 372 from its low four scorers, and another parochial school, Appleton Xavier, advanced from the sectional to the state tournament at the University Ridge Golf Course behind its second-place finish. The Hawks came in with 407 strokes.

Michelle Hird of Madison Edgewood captured the medal with an 88.

Kewaskum had two individuals, Kate Korth and Nicole Rimmel, in the meet, but neither did very well in their first sectional appearances.

Korth started out with a 58 on the Blue Nine and came back with a 53 on the Red for a 111 (25th place), while Rimmel started with a 57, then was just one shot better on the Red for a 113 total (28th).

"The scores were high for everybody and definitely higher than they should have been for our girls, especially on our home course," KHS Coach Carol Martin said. "Neither one performed up to her potential ... that's the end of our season."

Fortunately both girls will be back next year and they are currently juniors.

Martin said the golfers will meet for a post-season awards night in the next week.

Hon-E-Kor Sectional team golf scores: 1. Madison Edgewood 372, 2. Appleton Xavier 407, 3. Thomas More 414, 4. Little Chute 419, 5. Racine St. Catherine's 436, 6. Wrightstown 447, 7. Oconto Falls 453, 8. East Troy 464.

Indian runners finish third behind EWC foes

Boys teams from Eastern Wisconsin Conference schools took the top three spots in the annual Cougar Invitational cross country meet held last Thursday afternoon at Campbellsport High School.

The cream of the crop was Sheboygan Falls, which has been gobbling up invitational titles this fall. Three of the Falcons were among the top 10 finishers, helping to establish their team score at an impressive 38.

Plymouth was a distant second with 75 points, then came Kewaskum in third place with 115 points, one point ahead of Manitowoc Lutheran.

"Great meet ... some tough competition," KHS Coach Dave Drexler said afterward. "The guys are running well."

Senior Josh Meyer was in the lead pack, taking third place with a time of 16 minutes and 57 seconds (16:57). He finished eight seconds behind Dallas Vincent of Mayville, who completed the 5,000 meter event in 16:49.

Mike Redebeck of Sheboygan Falls was the individual winner. He crossed the finish line in 16:39.

"Josh is staying focused. He ran a smart race," Drexler said.

Drexler also had kind words for junior Zack Van Wormer and sophomore Bob Gibson.

"Bobby and Zack continue to battle it out for that number two spot on the team ... there's good competitiveness between them," Drexler said, reporting Van Wormer was the better of the two Thursday, placing 15th at 18:04, while Gibson was close behind, completing the event in 18:06, good for 19th.

Drexler went on about the two Adams on the team. Adam Wagner and Adam Janz, are "beginning to pull up closer, closing the gap nicely." Wagner's time of 19:38 gave him 48th place, while Janz took 49th at 19:39.

Once again, there were just two KHS girls finishing the race, not enough for a team score. Sophomore Nicole Stern wound up 56th behind a time of 19:11.

Plymouth junior took individual honors for the girls with a sizzling time of 15:09. Plymouth also won the team title with 65 points.

Next up for the Indians is the EW conference meet at Two Rivers on Saturday, Oct. 16.

Cougar Invitational boys team scores: 1. Sheboygan Falls 38 points, 2. Plymouth 75, 3. Kewaskum 115, 4. Manitowoc 116, 5. Winneconne 130, 6. Howards Grove 151, 7. Shoreland Lutheran 191, 8. Campbellsport 199, 9. Mayville 249, Incomplete teams, St. Francis, North Fond du Lac, St. Mary's Springs.
