Plan Commission pushes forward a $43.5 million TID proposal

LOCAL NEWS BRIEFS

DACO Tool & Design is one of the businesses involved in getting an industrial park in the Village of Kewaskum. By September 1, 2005 the company plans a 61,000 square foot expansion project and needs village water and sewer services. DACO is located in the former Quad Tool & Design which closed it's shop earlier this year.

Nearly 14 years later if all goes well, the Village of Kewaskum will increase its property value by $43.5 million by developing an 87-acre plot of land. The TID project requires the village to borrow $5.3 million to cover anticipated infrastructure expenses. The TID proposal is now awaiting the Kewaskum Village Board's stamp of approval because of the action taken by the Kewaskum Plan Commission. The plan commission recommended approval to the village board at their evening meeting, Tuesday, November 30. With a 6-1 vote, the plan commission accepted the boundary designations for the TID, and a public hearing is being scheduled in accordance with state statutes. Commissioner Richard Schmidt cast the lone dissenting vote. Schmidt has stated in the past he feels the village is growing too much, too fast. He has voted continuously to oppose growth in the village. The TID land is, at present, located in an undeveloped area of the Kewaskum Township. The 87-acre land parcel is north of Badger Road and runs along east and west sides of Prospect Drive and the Highway 45 corridor. According to Christine Cramer, a financial analyst from the village's engineering firm, Ruekert-Mielke of Waukesha, the village must meet several criteria before establishing a TID. State statutes requires the following: The target area must be a blighted district; at least 50 percent of the land must be suitable for industrial use, and no more than 35 percent reserved for residential development; and finally, an option of last resort, which means had the village not taken action the land would remain undeveloped. Cramer said the project plan has a potential significant increase in village revenues in the long term. A detail development plan projects 40-single family homes, 48 duplex units and 25 duplex condo units for Nature Haven Estates being developed by Gary and Linda Gavin of Kewaskum. This subdivision will be located on what is known locally as the Behnke estate. "The raw land value per acre is $2,500 without improvements," said Cramer. She said the acre per value after developments will jump to $90,000 to $110,000 per acre. Projected TID expenses are $7.792 million. In order to fund the project, the village will borrow $4.625 million and it anticipates bringing in revenues from impact fees of close to $2.33 million. Remaining revenues will come from special assessments, developer and utility fees. By taking on the TID project proposal, the village's debt limit will rise significantly, State law mandates the village only borrow up to five percent of its total equalized value. "The village has a current debt limit of 20.6 percent," said Village Administrator, Dan Schmidt. After the full village board grants approval for the boundary layout, the next step is to schedule a joint review board with the county, school district and technical college. ● NOMINATION PAPERS CIRCULATING - Less than a month after being inundated with ads from Presidential candidates another election has started, Wisconsin's Spring Election. Candidates for village, school and town boards in the area were able to start circulating nomination papers for their respective seats. Many seats in The Statesman's readership are up for grabs. Signatures must be collected by January 4 at 5 p.m. The Statesman will feature the results from papers filed and then later biographies on the respective candidates. Oh, and yes, we approve this message.

● VILLAGE TAX LEVY UP 9.7% FOR 2005 - The Village of Kewaskum board of trustees quickly passed a $2 million budget at an evening meeting Monday, November 29. That budget, is up 9.7% from 2004 and also carries an 8% bump in the total property tax levy. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt says the majority of the cost increases are due to a hike in salaries and benefits for employees under union contracts.

● WINTER PARKING REGULATIONS IN EFFECT - Winter Parking rules went into at midnight December 1 for both Kewaskum and West Bend. In the village, no cars may be parked on the street from 2 a.m. to 6 a.m. Winter parking regulations will be in effect until April 1, 2005.

● FORMER WB ASSEMBLY CANDIDATE IN TROUBLE - Rick Karshna, who lost in the primary election for an Assembly seat to Pat Strachota, is in trouble at his old job with the Cudahy Police Department. Karshna, who is a 19-year department veteran has been put on administrative leave, pending an internal investigation. No details are being released on what prompted the administrative action.

Heiser can't wait to serve as parade marshall

Matt Heiser

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

There are lots of little children who are excited about Sunday's annual Kewaskum Christmas parade and at least one adult — Matt Heiser, who has been chosen to serve as the grand marshall of the event.

"I'm pretty excited about it. I was very honored they thought of me," Heiser, who is currently the president of the village, said last weekend.

Heiser will ride right up near the front of the parade that will start at Kewaskum High School at 5 p.m. and wind its way south on Parkview, then west on Main Street and north on Fond du Lac Avenue.

"First comes the Police and Fire Department ... We'll be after them," Heiser said, indicating he will be accompanied by his wife, Lisa, and the couple's three children, 7-year-old son Max, 5-year-old daughter Alex and 3-year-old son Marty.

Heiser grew up in Menomonee Falls and moved to Kewaskum eight years ago. He currently works as a systems analyst at Community Memorial Hospital in Menomonee Falls.

Heiser is serving in his first two-year term as village president. Before that, he served for one full term as a trustee after completing a partial term on the board. He is the Village Board representative on the Library Board, and he is a member of the Plan Commission.

Heiser was informed by Linda Theisen, the president of the Kewaskum Chamber of Commerce, about his selection.

When asked if his children are excited about his being named as grand marshall, Heiser said, "Yes, yes, we've been talking about it quite a bit. We still have to make our sign for the car ... That's a fun thing."

Heiser said his family annually attends the parade. "It's one of our favorite things," he said. "We've done that since we moved into the village. Lisa's family (from England) has been visiting periodically. We take them to the parade as well."

The Season is here and so is the need

The Salvation Army's Red Kettle Campaign is off and running with mail appeals already being received throughout rural Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. After the first couple of weeks of the campaign, they are running behind last year's donations by over $53,000.

"We are concerned," says Tom Thuecks, Director of Service Extension. "With the increase we are seeing in requests for assistance and the anticipated rise in energy costs, we will need to raise additional funds to make sure we are able to provide assistance throughout the upcoming year."

While there have been some encouraging signs in the economy, The Salvation Army is being cautiously optimistic. "We are still hearing about the layoffs and plant closings which are affecting so many at this time of the year. We do appeal to you to see if you can't reach out to help us help others whether it's through the red kettles or the mail appeal. Your donations do make a difference." The Salvation Army prides itself in distributing the funds generated by its donors to the local needs.

Donations may be made locally in the red kettles or may be sent to The Salvation Army, 11315 W. Watertown Plank Rd., Wauwatosa, WI 53226. Please remember, your donations go to serve those in need in your community. May God bless you for your kind, giving spirit.

The nonprofit kids winners were the Girl Scouts, St. Mary's School, Badger Boosters, St. John's Church and Cub Scout Pack #3782.

Serigraph Building Sold

The Serigraph building at the corner of Decorah and Indiana in West Bend has been sold. Wayne Grahl with Serigraph says they have an accepted offer, but a couple of contingencies have to be worked out yet.

Serigraph put the building up for sale in April with a price of $795,000. Grahl said they wanted to sell the plant because they were going to consolidate into the plant at 3701 East Decorah Road. The initial target closing date is the end of the calendar year.

Grahl said the sale is to a group of individuals that may set up several businesses in the building.

WB Police investigate suspicious envelope at M&I Bank

West Bend police were called to M&I Bank in downtown West Bend last week because they received a suspicious envelope.

The envelope was addressed to "Bank of America or Any Bank, Wisconsin 53095."

Police initially thought that the envelope could contain anthrax, however upon further investigation they found that it contained a self addressed stamped envelope from a Rita Mulkern in Boston, MA and $1.25 with a note requesting five Wisconsin quarters.

Geise Benefit huge success

Around 1,600 people packed Northwinds Supper Club in Eden to raise more than $47,000 for Jeanna Giese this past Saturday.

Giese is the 15-year-old Fond du Lac teen who was diagnosed with rabies.

Giese's doctors stated last week that they feel she has been cured. Giese is one of just six documented rabies recoveries in medical history. Her recovery is being called a miracle.

Doctors say that although she is not talking yet, she is conscious, breathing on her own and able to sit up in a chair. To get her through the disease, doctors put her in a coma and gave her a cocktail of anti-viral drugs. After 10 days they performed a spinal tap which showed improvement in Giese's immune system.

Although they say it's too soon to make guarantees, doctors predict Giese will have no permanent effects from the disease. She is expected to be home in time for Christmas.

Surprise stock for store owner in Campbellsport

The owner of Erin Enterprises in Campbellsport got a surprise last week when he bought out a comic book store. Ed Larsen buys out businesses that are closing and then sells the items for cheap at his shop in the old Piggly Wiggly on Main Street in Campbellsport.

A teenage employee of Larsen's was pricing the comic books and asked Larsen if she could work on something else because the books were a little racy. Larsen looked at the comics and found they contained adult content.

He ended up selling the lot of comics to a private buyer for a little more than $1000. Larsen later learned the man turned around and sold the comics on the internet for different prices starting at $31.

Sheboygan woman to face charges for digging up boyfriends grave

A 44 year-old Sheboygan woman accused of digging up her ex-boyfriends cremated remains pleaded not guilty this past week in Sheboygan County Court.

Karen Stolzmann allegedly dug up the remains of Michael Hendrickson 12 years ago and kept the urn containing his remains in a box in her garage.

Stolzmann has been released on a $2,500 signature bond and is due back in court on January 12, 2005.

Holiday concerts planned at UWWC

If you're looking for a relaxing way to spend a Sunday afternoon in December, make plans now to enjoy a free winter concert at UW-Washington County.

On Sunday, December 5th, the Moraine Symphonic Band will present their holiday concert at 3:00pm. The band is directed by Dr. Daniel Ackley. On Sunday, December 12th at 2:00pm, the Moraine Chorus will present their Winter Concert. The chorus is directed by Music Professor, Dr. Peter Gibeau. Both concerts are approximately one hour long and will be held in the University theatre. Members include students and area residents. A reception with free refreshments follows each concert.

The Moraine Chorus will perform Felix Mendelssohn: Psalm 95, with soloists David Bertelsen, tenor, and Deanna Gibeau and Kate Weber, sopranos. They will also perform a Handel Coronation Anthem "Let Thy Hand Be Strengthened," two versions of the familiar holiday tune "In dulci Jubilo" (Good Christian Men Rejoice), and two works by Mozart: "Scenda Amor" (Descend Love) from his opera Idomeneo, and the beautiful and well-known motet "Ave verum Corpus." A string quartet will accompany the Handel Anthem, one version of In dulci Jubilo, and the Mozart motet.

UW-Washington County is located at 400 University Drive (off Hwy. 33 West) in West Bend. For more information about the concerts, contact Dr. Gibeau at (262)-335-0119 or Dr. Ackley at (262)-335-5226.

Festival of Trees lights up the Holidays

On Saturday, December 4th and Sunday, December 5th, Washington County Humane Society will be holding its sixth annual Festival...a beautiful holiday celebration of lights and unique designs. During that weekend, the training center will be returned to its magical Christmas wonderland complete with refreshment cafe, continuous holiday entertainment and gift boutique.

The Festival has become a very popular community event with individuals and businesses sponsoring trees, wreaths, swags and center-pieces, and then decorating them according to a particular theme. Festival-goers enjoy strolling through the "snowy" paths and also visit the beautiful holiday boutique filled with crafts from artists throughout southeastern Wisconsin. People's Choice awards are presented to those getting the most votes each year, one tree is selected and donated to a needy family in Washington County.

A party is held the Friday evening prior to the Festival so that sponsors and selected guests can preview the creations while enjoying wine, beer, and hors d' oeuvres. Trees, wreaths, mantle swags and center pieces are available for purchase, and anything not purchased is raffled off to the public during the Festival.

Hours for the festival are Saturday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Cost is $5 for adults...$3 for senior citizens 60 and older and children ages 3-12.

IN MEMORY

In memory of JOSHUA BUNCICH, who passed away two years ago, December 3, 2002.

No one can mend the hearts that broke,

The day you went away.

No one can stop the tears that fall,

When missing you each day.

No one can know the loneliness

And sadness we must face.

No one can love you as we do,

No one can take your place.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of BRIAN MOSER, who passed away on Sept. 7, 2004

People come into our lives

And walk with us a mile,

And then because of circumstances

They only stay awhile.

They serve a need within the days

That pass so quickly by,

And then are gone beyond our reach.

We often wonder why.

God only knows the reason why

We meet and share a smile,

Why people come into our lives

And walk with us a mile.

Happy 33rd birthday on December 6th to my cousin and friend, Brian Moser. Life is just not the same without you.

Love, Marni

Red Cross offers holiday safety tips

The American Red Cross urges families to use caution around the holidays when decorating with candles, cooking holiday meals and driving to and from holiday celebrations. The 12 Holiday Safety Tips are a compilation of information provided by the nonprofit National Fire Protection Association and the American Red Cross Community First Aid manual.

Beware of Holiday Lighting: take care when burning candles. Keep it away from decorations and other combustible materials. Never leave children and pets in a room unattended with lit candles. Never display lit candles in windows or near exits. Check your lights for frayed wires before you use it.

Test Tree Trimmings: use decorations that are labeled by a testing laboratory. Never use candles to decorate Christmas trees. For outside decorations, use only those lights that are labeled for outdoor use. Do not overload electrical outlets and always unplug lights before going to bed or if you are leaving your house.

Prepare for Holiday Parties: decorate with only flame-retardant or noncombustible materials. Avoid using candles during parties. If you will allow your guests to smoke in your home, provide them with large, deep ashtrays and check them frequently. After the party, check inside and under upholstery and in trash cans for cigarette butts that may be smoldering.

Keep Christmas Tree Fresh: choose a fresh tree and secure it in a sturdy stand. Place tree away from any heating source and exits. Make sure that there's at least two gallons of water in the stand. Only keep your tree up for about two weeks and dispose of your tree right away when it's dried out.

Inspect Fireplaces: have your chimney inspected and cleaned by a professional before you start using it. Always use a sturdy screen when burning fires. Never burn paper or pine boughs.

Watch your Wood Stoves: make sure that the stove you are using is labeled by a testing laboratory and meets local fire codes. Always follow manufacturer's recommendations for safe use.

Be Cautious with Portable and Space Heaters: place heaters at least three feet away from anything combustible including wall-paper, bedding and clothing. Never leave space heaters on while sleeping or when you leave the room. Never leave children and pets unattended with space heaters in use.

Cook with Care: do not wear loose fitting clothes while cooking. If you are wearing a long-sleeve shirt, make sure that you pull your sleeves up. Always turn pot handles in. Keep your appliances clean and do not overload electrical outlets with multiple appliances.

Designate a Driver: when attending a party, always designate a driver. If you do not have a designated driver, ask the host ahead of time if it's okay for you to stay overnight.

Buckle up: people travel more than ever during the holiday months. Make sure that you always wear your seat belt and all your passengers as well.

Prepare a Winter Storm Plan: put together a disaster supplies kit in your home and in each vehicle you own. Make sure that each member of your household has a warm coat, mittens and water-resistant boots to use. Listen to the weather report for storm updates especially if you are planning on traveling.

Enroll in a First Aid and CPR Course: help may not reach you immediately, knowing what to do during an emergency can save someone's life. To enroll in a class, call your local American Red Cross.

Flu Vaccine Still Available

The flu vaccine is still available for those adults and individuals who are in the priority categories. Please check with your health care provider or clinic or come to a regularly scheduled Health Department Immunization clinic on the second, third or fourth Tuesdays in November or December while supplies last.

The vaccine will be distributed until supplies are gone or redistributed by the State Division of Public Health. Medicare Part B cards are accepted, self pay cost for others is $18 and children in a priority group can receive state supplied VFC (Vaccines for Children Program) vaccine free until that supply is gone and then purchase the vaccine if it is still available.

In the Land of Second Chances
 By: George Shaffner

If you could see one year into the future, or five years, or ten... would you peek? Think about it a minute before you answer. Would you honestly want to know what happens to you, good and bad? Could you live your life freely if you knew what was coming next? Is uncertainty really the spice of life?

These are questions that the characters wrestle with in the novel "In the Land of Second Chances" by George Shaffner (c.2004, Algonquin Books of Chapel Hill) and there aren't any easy answers.

Ebb, Nebraska is your typical American small town. Everybody knows everybody in Ebb, people only just started locking their doors at night, and there aren't many secrets. The self-proclaimed Hub of Information is Wilma Porter, owner of the Come Again Bed and Breakfast, and when traveling salesman Vernon Moore shows up at the Come Again, the stories start to fly.

Nobody has seen a traveling salesman in Ebb in thirty years, and Vernon Moore surely doesn't look like an itinerant salesman. He dresses in imported designer suits and drives an expensive car. Mr. Moore says he sells games of chance, but he isn't in any hurry to show his wares. That's not such a bad thing, because the owner of Ebb's only department store, Calvin Millet, doesn't really have time to think about stocking his store with trinkets.

Calvin's daughter, Lucy, has a terminal disease, and she's dying, painfully and by inches. Calvin has been to every clinic in the country, and he's seen every doctor who might have had a smidge of chance to save Lucy, but the options have been exhausted. Now Calvin's on the brink of bankruptcy, and the owner of the bank, Clem Tucker, wants Millets Department Store.

As Calvin rails against an unfair God, Vernon offers to sell Calvin something that he needs: hope. What Vernon has for Calvin - and for all of Ebb - changes life for everyone.

Using philosophy, existentialism, and - believe it or not - comedy, author George Shaffner has written one of the most unusual, strangest little novels I've read in a long time. The character of Wilma Porter was delightful, although a complete busybody, but I liked her even so. Wilma's best friend, Loretta, who is "Ebb's sole resident black person", was scandalously enjoyable. What I found hard to swallow were the theories that Shaffner puts forth; his logic was hard to follow, and much too deep a contrast for the lightheartedness of the rest of the book. Is this book worth reading? Well, yes and no. While the heavy philosophy could be off-putting to some readers, I would hate for you to miss the comedy in this book, because it really is very funny. I think this book is worth a peek, but go into it knowing that it can be a bit heavy. And don't sneak a look at the ending. Uncertainty, in the case of this book, really is the spice of life.

Cedar Community welcomes Aurora Medical Group to onsite clinic

Cedar Community and Aurora Health Care have announced that effective Jan. 3, 2005, the Aurora Medical Group will begin seeing patients at Cedar Community's clinic space in the Cedar Lake Health Care Center building, 5595 County Road Z in West Bend.

The Aurora Medical Group at Cedar Community is open to people from throughout the West Bend area, including all Cedar Community residents, employees and their family members.

The Cedar Community location becomes Aurora Medical Group's sixth outpatient clinic in the Washington and Dodge County area.

"We welcome this opportunity to expand services for people of all ages in the area," said Dr. Steven Holcomb, Aurora Medical Group Washington County President. "The Cedar Community site will benefit both older patients looking for its easily accessible location, as well as busy families looking for the convenience of early morning and after hours appointments." Clinic hours are Monday through Friday, 7-10 a.m. and 2-5 p.m.

Muhammad Mian, MD, Internal Medicine, will head the clinic. Patients also will have access to a number of primary care and specialty care physicians and services at the site. Dr. Mian will continue serving as medical director for Cedar Lake Health Care Center as well as seeing new and current patients at the clinic.

"Aurora's quality medical professionals are clearly committed to bringing patients exceptional care, the finest resources and added convenience to this setting," said Steve Jaberg, executive director and CEO of Cedar Community. "They share our vision of providing innovative services in an efficient and friendly atmosphere." In addition to the extended morning and evening hours, the clinic offers nine large treatment rooms, where patients can feel comfortable taking their time getting dressed and/or bringing a caregiver with them.

Cedar Community is a not-for-profit, church-affiliated leader in providing superior health care, education, rehabilitation and senior housing to over 1,000 residents. Its facilities are located on three campuses in West Bend. For more information on Cedar Community, call 262-306-2100 or visit their website at www.cedarcommunity.org. Modern Woodmen adds 401(k) plans to offerings

Modern Woodmen of America, a fraternal benefit society with offices in Kewaskum, has teamed up with PAI, DePere, to offer 401(k) plans for small business owners.

Three different plans are available: a plan for sole proprietors, a safe harbor plan for businesses with two to 10 employees, and a plan for businesses that have more than 10 employees or are looking to design their own, flexible plan.

"These products offer small-business owners options to help their employees save for retirement," says Jeff Jaeger, local Modern Woodmen representative. "The 401(k) offering complements Modern Woodmen's individual life insurance and retirement plan products, giving us a full line of financial tools to help people plan for a secure future."

A full-service administrator and record keeper for small-business retirement plans, PAI manages more than 5,500 retirement plans with $3 billion in assets and 450,000 participants.

Founded in 1883 as a fraternal benefit society, today Modern Woodmen of America offers financial services and fraternal member benefits to individuals and families throughout the United States.

WINTER PARKING

The Winter Parking Restrictions and Snow Emergency Parking Restrictions go into effect at mid-night (12:00 a.m.) on December 1, 2004.

Municipal Code Section 90-96(c) Night Parking Restrictions, reads as follows: Signs have been erected at or reasonably near the corporate limits as provided in Section 349.13, Wisconsin Statutes, no person excepting physicians or licensed emergency vehicles on emergency calls, shall park or stop any vehicle on any public street or highway within the village between the hours of 2:00 A.M. and 6:00 A.M. from December 1, to April 1, of each year; provided that, notwithstanding such restrictions vehicles, may be parked a period of time not longer than 3 minutes for actually loading or unloading of passengers, and provided further that no other regulation restricting parking as to place, time, or manner violated thereby.

The fine for violating the ordinance is:
$10.00 if paid within five (5) days of the issuance of the parking citation.
$20.00 if paid between six (6) days and before twenty-eight (28) days.
After 28 days, the amount is $30.00 and a notice will be sent to the Motor Vehicle Department to suspend any and all vehicle registrations held by the owner and refuse renewals of the same until the citation is satisfied.

An important fact is the owner of the vehicle is responsible for the payment of the citation whether or not he or she was the operator.

Municipal Code Section 90-96(d) Removal of Illegally Parked Vehicles. This section covers the issuance of citations to and possible removal of such vehicles in violation of this ordinance. In addition to other penalties provided by Section 90-96 of this code, the owner or operator of a vehicle so removed shall pay the cost of the towing and storage.

November at Deer Camp

Ice has discovered twice this fall that west central Wisconsin has a growing porcupine population.

Hello Friends,

This week's column is about how I spent my time at deer camp the week before the deer gun season opened.

Saturday, October 13
High 46, Low 20

As is almost always the case, I was fighting the sun clock as it made its daily trek toward the western horizon. My plan as I arrived at camp was to get the woodstove going, unload my truck and trailer, and then head into the woods for an afternoon bowhunt to some new country.

Last December, I took a couple of Boy Scouts and came across an area just over two miles from my camp that was loaded with deer signs. Last weekend, with my stepson Travis and friends Jeff and Ryan Moll, we did a quick scouting mission in that area and saw a pair above-and-beyond-the-ears bucks, a smaller one, several doe, a fresh wolf deer kill, and almost walked onto a porcupine.

Speaking of porcupine, my dog Ice, who was along with his mother Pearl are my only companions on this trip, have gotten a mouthful of porcupine quill twice this fall, and I am seeing these nasty critters on almost a daily basis.

I hiked into deer paradise with a portable stand on my back and a bow in my hand. My hunting location would be a natural funnel between two large marshes.

I hung my stand and had just over an hour of daylight left before I could even pick my bow up. I saw movement 80 yards away in a stand of red willow.

It was a buck that was obviously in love with a doe, and he was bigger than any I have ever harvested. Right from the beginning, I felt they would not come in range, and I didn't care. Just knowing I finally found a really good spot to hunt made my day

Sunday, November 14
High 55, Low 29

I used to pretty much live at deer camp from mid-October until late January.

Last night, I had the shack to myself, and the solitude is like strong medicine for me.

About the only requirements are to keep the Coleman lanterns pumped, wood in the stove, cook my meals, and at least twice an hour, I have to pet the dogs.

Back in the late 1980s and early 1990s, when I was single and extremely cash-poor, deer camp would save my financial hiney as the expenses were low compared to traveling on a weekly basis.

This afternoon I used my mountain bike for the first two miles of my journey to deer paradise. The ride to the hunt was pretty simple. The ride back to camp was "interesting," as there was all kinds of holes and sticks that I could not see until I hit them. The marsh is now covered with "half-ice" - too strong to wade, not strong enough to walk on. I do not think deer like half-ice and hope that's why I did not see any others when I climbed into Travis's jackpine for a look around and spotted a pair making an exit.

Monday, November 15
High 51, Low 26

The sun is shining and the ice is melting! I had just made it to the tree I picked to hunt in tonight and was hanging a scent wick laced with doe urine when I felt something staring at me.

It was a 6- or 8-point buck, and he was directly under my tree. I was busted and knew it before he ran away. After settling in for the hunt, a light fog developed. Then I saw an imaginary deer in the marsh 400 yards away.

When my fantasy deer picked its head up and I saw a rack, it became reality.

Over the next 45 minutes, I watched what ended up being a fork horn feed its way toward me. Like a fantasy, it ended up about 23 yards away from my tree, offering a broadside shot. There was a branch between us that I did not like, and I wanted no part of the memory of a bad hit. Plus if I killed, I would not be able to hunt with a bow in December.

I thoroughly enjoyed the show put on by my friend and had visions of seeing him next year with a bigger rack and body. That doesn't mean that when I have a rifle in my hand I won't pull the pin on him; it just means today was a good day to be a forkhorn buck in the Meadow Valley Wildlife Area.

Stay Fun!

Broeckers experience 15 percent increase in deer registrations

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

The pattern started the first weekend and continued right on through the nine-day gun deer season ... lots of deer but not many of the larger variety.

"A lot of deer, but nothing super, super," Al Broecker, the owner of Al's Taxidermy on Old Fond du Lac Road, one of the more popular registration centers in Washington County, said Monday as he was preparing to wrap up the 2004 count.

As of 2 p.m., Broecker and his wife, Kathy, registered 411 deer, including 279 does and 130 bucks.

This total reflects a 15 percent increase from last year's gun total of 356.

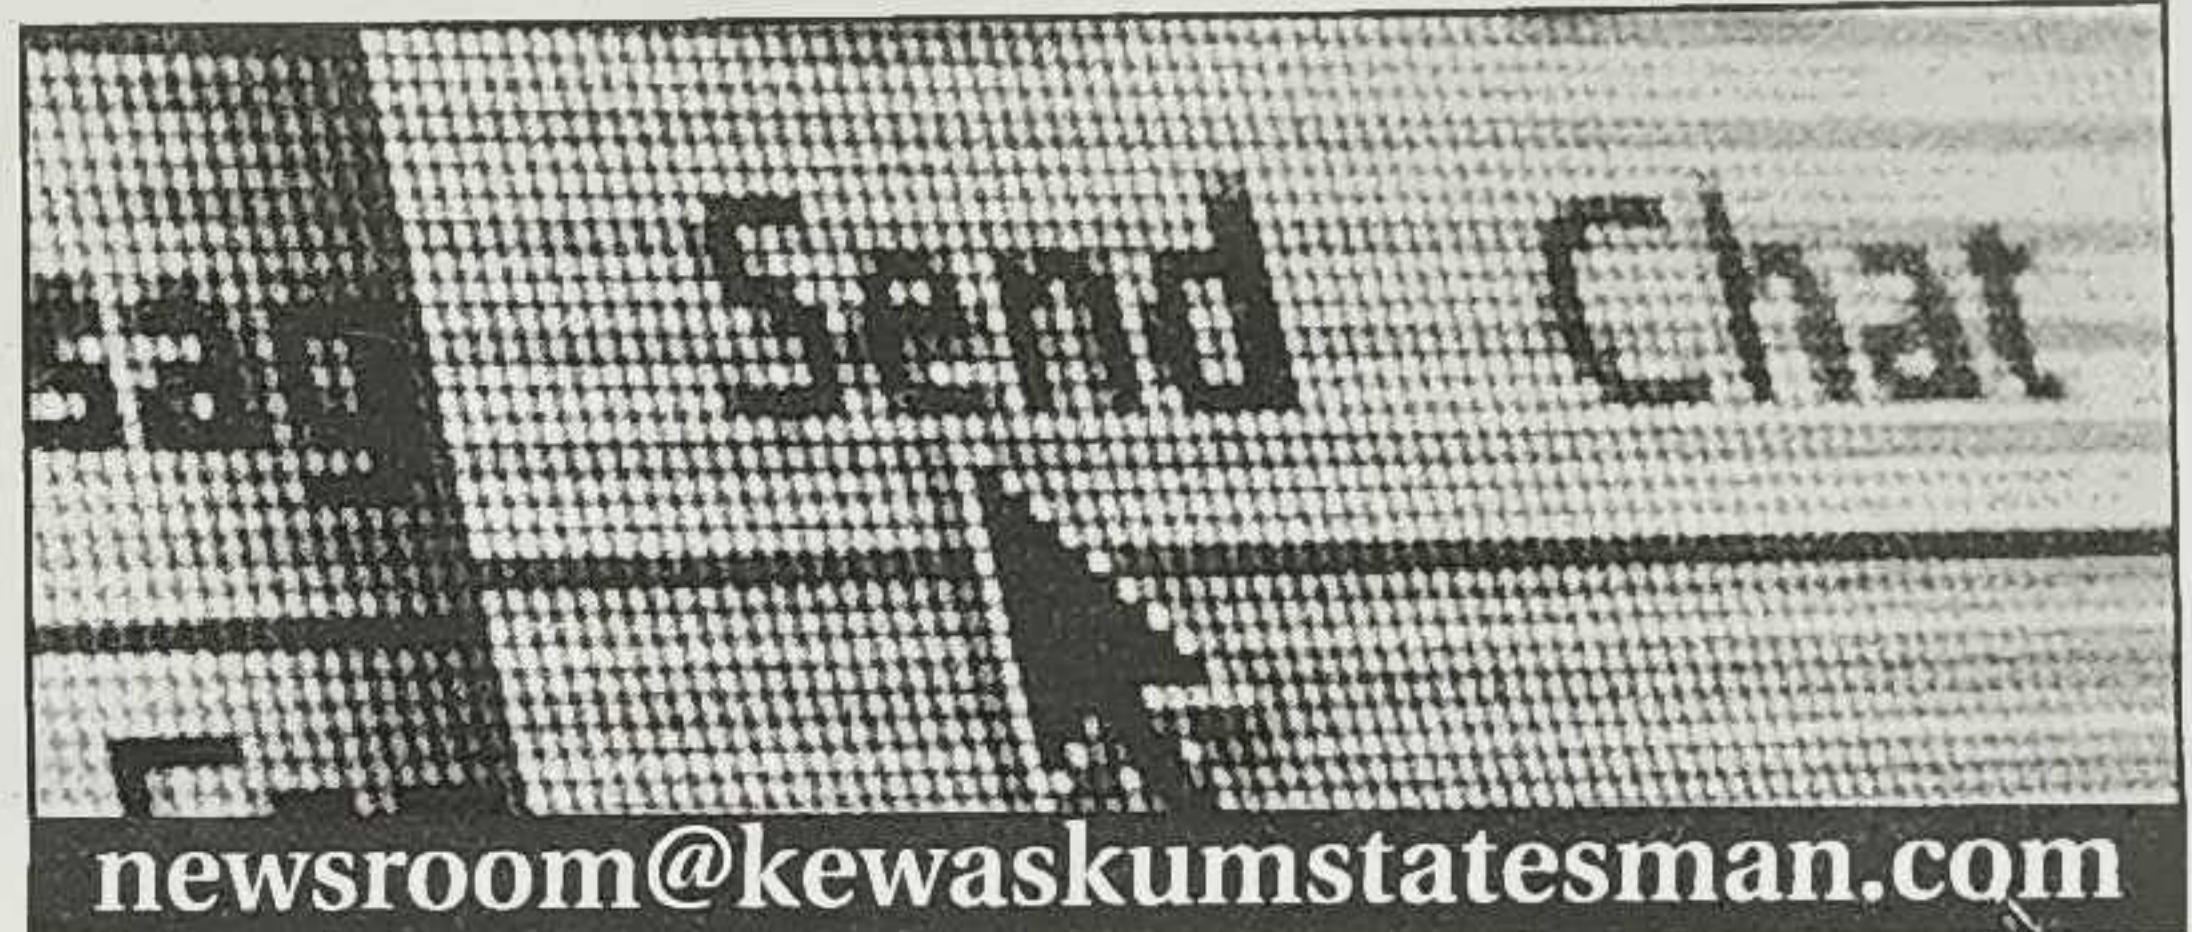

"There were some sevens (pointers), eights, nines and 10s ... the common number was mostly eights and 10s," Broecker said, then recalled, "One of the Oppermanns had a nice one ... Corey Oppermann had a nice 11-pointer. It was real wide, a 22-inch spread."

Broecker was not surprised by the outcome of the season. "That's what they (Department of Natural Resources) wanted (a big kill), and that's what they're getting," he said.

Broecker said he has been busy the past week, preparing deer for mounting the heads. "I'm caught up right now," Broecker said, but, "There's still a bunch of them coming in .. There always are."

Muzzleloading season began on Monday, according to Broecker, who said, "That season closes on Dec. 8 ... Eight or 10 is a pretty good number" of deer that get registered during the muzzleloading season.

Lots of fanfare at KHS football banquet

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

There was the usual pile of individual and team statistics, but the emphasis at Sunday's 2004 Kewaskum High football banquet at the Boltonville Fire Department was passing out awards for the recently-completed 5-4 season and celebrating the cohesiveness of players on the squad.

Junior running back Garrett Donath was named as the Most Valuable Player on Offense, while the same distinction for Defense went to senior cornerback Zach Holm.

Donath, who wound up with 1,020 yards rushing and had 1,555 all-purpose yards, including 173 yards of pass receptions, 202 yards on kick returns and 160 yards on punt returns, was selected for the second team of the Eastern Wisconsin all-conference team.

After changing the offense this season, Coach Jason Piittmann said it was true the team had an outstanding receiving corps, "but our bread and butter came on the ground," with Donath able to get the tough yards inside and use his quickness and savvy to get outside for long runs.

Holm was the leader of the defense. He stuck to receivers like glue and was the surest tackler on the KHS squad, making at least a dozen touchdown-saving tackles in the Indians' nine contests.

"Mr. Consistency is the best way to describe him," Piittmann said, also praising Holm for being "a quiet leader."

Junior punter Ross Stockhausen was named as the Most Valuable Special Teams Player, as his punts consistently pinned opponents deep in their own territory.

When it came to the Most Improved Player, it was an easy choice, according to Piittmann, who said it's not often that an athlete is able to switch from one sport to another and do as well as Jon Olla did in his first season playing football.

The Lineman of the Year award went to senior Adam Jung, who received honorable mention in the EW balloting for offensive tackles and opened a lot of holes for Donath, and the "D" Award, for desire, dedication, discipline, and determination went to Alex Herriges, who was "a leader for us at every practice, and even more important, he does it in school, too," Piittmann said.

Kevin Schaefer was honored as the Most Valuable

Scout Player. Although he weighs only 140 pounds, the junior Schaefer would help the team by attempting to play the role of opponents who were much bigger than he is.

Piittmann recapped the season, then introduced the members of the varsity team, starting with two sophomore letterwinners, starting tight end Matt Parrent and reserve linebacker/running back Jacob Turowski.

Parrent, at 6-feet-4 and 215 pounds, caught 21 passes for 260 yards and four touchdowns and was the Indians' only first-team pick in the EW voting.

The large junior class included 18 players, including nearly a dozen starters. Those introduced were: Eric Cain, Bryan Daggett, Donath, Derek Engleman, Jeremy Gurholt, Kevin Holub, Josh Kelly, James Feind, Jon Olla, Mitch Paulus, Chad Piwoni, Matt Rinzel, Schaefer, Dan Shileny, Aaron Smith, Ross Stockhausen, Robert Weber, Alex Waranius, Jeff Thull and Zach Wollner.

"The juniors were a big part of our season. They were always great at practice ... always ready," Piittmann said, looking at the fact his backfield was comprised completely of juniors, with Piwoni at quarterback, Stockhausen the fullback and Donath at halfback.

He said they all made the adjustment moving up from the JV team to competing for varsity spots and learning, "The seriousness of the game steps up a notch."

The seniors included: Herriges, Holm, Jung, Ross Kuehl, Sam Lieven, Andy

Marx, Eric Nass, Lee Schmidt, Matt Seefeld and Brett Zimdars.

"Five and four (5-4) ... not bad. Seniors, your first winning season. You deserved it. Great job! You led us," Piittmann said, also praising the kind of the people they are by saying no dress code was announced for the dinner but six of the 10 wore shirts and ties.

Piittmann stressed the need for good off-season training, and his offensive coordinator Dave Rockhill concluded by saying, "It would be nice to go to Madison next year for something other than a regular season game. Let's dedicate ourselves to doing that next year."

Note: Not all of the juniors and seniors were awarded letters. Nine were serving code violation suspensions at the end of the season and therefore did not officially conclude the season in good standing.

Academic awards for those with 4.0 grade points — Zimdars, Turowski, Paulus, Eric Ogi; those with 3.5s or better — Curtis Wetzel, Justin Wendt, Waranius, Tyler Swanson, Dan Shea, Lee Schmidt, Rinzel, Mike Pfothauer, Olla, Eric Nass, Marx, Tony Lewko, Justin Krueger, Jung, Holm, Herriges, Feind, Dan Dymond, Donath, and Ben Butler.

Real joy comes not from ease or riches or from praise of people, but from doing something worthwhile.

Third quarter miscues are costly for Indians

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

With three guards sitting out because of code violations and an unexpected asthma attack sidelining another guard for a quarter of play, the Kewaskum boys basketball team faced an uphill battle in its season opener at Lomira last Tuesday.

At one point in the final quarter, the Indians climbed to within four points of being even with the Lions, but they ran out of gas and left with a 49-42 defeat.

"Overall, our 13 turnovers in the third period only enabled us to take three, third period points," KHS Coach Glenn Eichstedt said. "We rallied to within four with two minutes to go but could not overcome their double-digit lead. Lomira pressed throughout the game and when sophomore point guard, Casey Scheel, went out due to an asthma attack for most of the third stanza, the Indians would not handle the Lions' full court pressure."

Kewaskum wound up with two players, Todd Warnecke and Matt Parrent, hitting in double figures. Warnecke had a game-high 14 points on five buckets and four free throws, while Parrent scored 11 points, including a 3-pointer in the fourth quarter.

Lomira had five players score six or more points, led by John Weninger, who had 11, with three treys.

The statistics showed KHS hauled down 32 rebounds, with Paul Gaynor and Parrent leading the way with 12 and 10, respectively.

"Our three interior players (Warnecke, Parrent and Gaynor) recorded 32 of our 42 team points, with 21 points scored in the fourth period alone," Eichstedt said. "All in all, we were fundamentally and statistically defeated by a young, aggressive Lomira Lion team, which essentially made three more 3-point field goals than the Indians would counter."

Eichstedt said the team would be at full strength for the Nov. 30 game at Slinger, and he said he would probably give JV guard Dan Shea another varsity opportunity after he performed well enough in a reserve role, filling in for the suspended guards.

Lomira 9-15-10-15 — 49, Kewaskum 8-10-3-21 — 42.

Kewaskum: Gaynor 7, Scheel 5, Warnecke 14, Parrent 11, Shea 5; 3-point goals — Scheel, Parrent, Shea; FTs — 11x18. Fouled out — Warnecke.

Indians' defense shaky in loss to WB East

Kewaskum guard Marissa Dehler (13) finds herself bottled up by a pair of West Bend East defenders, Jessica Kromray (21) and Staci Chapman (35), during first-half action in their game at Kewaskum.

Senior Paige Thelen figures to be a force in the middle for the Kewaskum High girls' basketball team. Above, Thelen tries to drive the baseline around Cheryl Bonlender of West Bend East in their non-conference game.

Outscored 27-17 in the second half, the host Kewaskum High girls' basketball dropped a non-conference game to West Bend East 46-36 last Tuesday (Nov. 22).

The game was dead even at the break (19-19), then it was a case of the Indians not being able to buy a basket and not being able to stop the Suns, especially Nicole Liebetrau, who scored 10 of her game-high 16 points in the second half.

"We played pathetic! Our defense was terrible tonight," KHS Coach Jeff Gosse said afterward. "There just was no communication."

Gosse was very disturbed how his team could not put the brakes on Liebetrau, whose 3-point goal from the right baseline with 3:07 remaining in the third period gave the Suns a 24-21 lead, a lead which they would only relinquish once more, when Kewaskum's Paige Thelen hit a pair of free throws with 2:32 left in the period.

Cheryl Bonlender answered for East with a shot from close range, and then Liebetrau and Brittany Boyer each hit a basket as the Suns began to take control.

Liebetrau, a 5-foot-7 junior, hit on five of six free throws down the stretch. As a team, the Suns were successful on nine of 12 in the final eight minutes to hold the Indians at bay.

Gosse said he would tell his girls to play tight on Liebetrau, but someone would let her free and then she would draw a foul. "It was very frustrating tonight. It was like we took two steps backward from last Friday night," he said.

In the fourth quarter, Kewaskum had just two baskets, the first by Bry Timblin with 7:21 to go and the other by Thelen in the final minute, who made a lay-up with 57.9 seconds left.

After Timblin's hoop, the Indians were only down by four points, 31-27, but East outscored the Indians 7-1 in the next five minutes, then scored six of eight free throws in the final two minutes.

After Liebetrau, Jessica Kromray and Boyer both chipped in with seven points, and Katie Gruber (whose dad, Don, was a star player for Kewaskum in the 1970s) added six points, as did Jamie Lepak.

Kewaskum was led by Thelen and Timblin, who both scored 10 points.

"Paige is playing some fantastic defense in the middle ... She's our minister of defense. She's only 5-7, but she plays tough," Gosse said.

About Timblin's effort, which included four baskets and two free throws, Gosse said, "She's played well, but she's got to learn to take more control of the offense. That will come with time."

What was a bit disappointing offensively was Lindsey Keller being held to six points, and it was Liebetrau turning in a "blue collar" defensive effort on the 5-7 senior.

East Coach Mike Kieser said it was by design that Liebetrau was assigned to guard Keller. "Nicole was on her last year and held her to six points ... Nicole always guards the other team's best player," Kieser said. "She plays tough defense."

"She (Keller) had to learn to get herself open ... she has to get more aggressive and go to the hole," Gosse said. "They're not as big as her and not as quick as her."

This was East's first game of the 2004-05 campaign. Kieser said he was happy to have a full 13 days of practice before opening this year, but, added "We were ready for a game."

The loss gives the Indians an 0-2 non-conference mark. They entertain Two Rivers in the first Eastern Wisconsin Conference game of the year tomorrow (Friday) night.

"They're (Indians) going to have to pick it up," Gosse said. "They're going to have to come back with a lot more defensive intensity."

Kewaskum will still be without three players, who are out on suspensions. "One more game they have to sit," Gosse said.

WB East 8-11-12-15 -46,
Kewaskum 6-13-6-11 - 36.

Kewaskum: Droese 8, Timblin 10, Kurer 2, Thelen 10, Keller 6, 3-point goals — none. FTs — 10x15. Fouled out — none.

WB East: Perez 2, Kromray 7, Gruber 6, Boyer 7, Liebetrau 16, Lepak 6, Bonlender 2. 3-point goals — Liebetrau (2), FTs, 14x25. Fouled out — none.

This could be a big year for KHS wrestlers

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

There is a feeling of great optimism in the Kewaskum High wrestling camp as the 2004-2005 season prepared to open.

With Nick Bartley and seven other veteran letter winners returning, it's no wonder coach Dennis Aupperle is excited to get his team into action. The junior Bartley was the third place finisher in the 140-pound weight class in the Division 2 state meet last February, and he has only moved up five pounds to 145 where he looks to improve on his 30-8 record and move up a place or two at state.

Joining Bartley are two other returning state qualifiers, senior Noah Olla, who was 25-7 a year ago and the runner-up in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, and sophomore Jacob Turowski, who finished at 21-12, which is pretty impressive for a freshman at 189 pounds when he actually weighed about 10 pounds less than that.

The other lettermen coming back are: sophomore Eric Ogi, senior Zach Holm, junior Scott Rhoads, junior Jon Olla (14-14) and junior Jon Hawig (10-12).

Aupperle said Ogi had a knee operation after the Oshkosh On the Waters Tournament last December and when he was given the green light to rejoin the team, was unable to get back into top shape physically.

Ogi, who was 15-6 when he got injured, is expected to be the starter at 135 pounds.

Holm finished his junior campaign with a 25-8 mark, and Aupperle said he won the EW title. "He is a very hard worker and excellent leader," Aupperle said, reporting Holm had the most pins (16) of any starter last season.

"The most pins we've ever had was the year Bob Ogi was here. He had 19," Aupperle said, indicating there may have been more pins by one wrestler when John Nell was coaching.

Rhoads, another conference champion, wound up with a 28-8 mark as a sophomore, and Aupperle predicts both he and Bartley will both be extremely tough this year because of their off-season workouts.

"Scott and Nick worked very hard in the off-season, going three days a week to Madison to the Advance School of Wrestling," Aupperle said. "Also there were good numbers coming up in the summer for open gym with John Nell," the former KHS head coach.

Aupperle said Rhoads and Bartley look "technically very sound, physically and mentally."

"Eric Ogi through Jacob Turowski is the strong part of our lineup," Aupperle said, indicating Ogi starts at 135, followed by Holm, Bartley and Rhoads at 140, 145 and 152, the Ollas, Jon and Noah at 160 and 171, followed by Turowski at 189.

Junior Matt Rewald is expected to be the starter at 215. He is in his second year of wrestling, and Aupperle said the 275-pound class is "up for grabs," with four football players battling it out. "Bryan Daggett is improving every day. Zach Groeschel, Frank Walcheske and J.J. Logan are doing well," Aupperle said, indicating this is the most big guys he has had at 275 in the last three years combined.

Aupperle, who will be assisted again this year by Kevin Chambers, said he also has a couple other promising newcomers, including Jeff Thull, who is at 215 pounds. Thull played basketball the past two years. He is coming off an excellent football season but will have to sit out a couple matches because of an athletic code violation.

"Jacob Sabel will also be competition for a spot in the middle somewhere," Aupperle said, reporting there are currently 31 out for the sport, which will provide more depth than the Indians have had in recent years.

Right now Stephen Kattar, a sophomore, has the inside track at 103. Kattar played basketball last year but did wrestle in middle school.

The 112 pound class is open right now. Hawig has settled in at 125, with Jason Jahnke, a junior who was 3-3 a year ago, the top candidate at 130.

"As far as our goals for this year, I think the big one is to win the conference tournament," Aupperle said.

In 2003-04, the Indians finished third in dual meets and third in the EW tournament. "The dual with Plymouth came right down to the wire. We lost 36-30,"

Aupperle said, adding, "We will be young at the lower end, so our middle will have to make that up."

"I think it will be a good race between us, Campbell-sport and Plymouth, Aupperle said about the top contenders in the EW. "I think if everyone wrestles to their ability and we stay focused on that goal, we will be right in there."

The Indians hosted Sheboygan Falls for the season opener and EW opener on Tuesday (Nov. 30), and they wrestle at Manitowoc Roncalli tonight (Thursday). They go to the Lomira Tournament Saturday.
