Auburn Township electorate to vote on slate of candidates for primary

By CASSANDRA THOMPSON
 STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
 cthompson@kewaskumstatesman.com

Numerous changes are ahead for Auburn Township voters because they have several candidates to choose from for the Feb. 15 Primary Election. Also on the horizon is possibly changing the three member board to a five member board.

Three people are vying to fill the seat vacated by Howard Laubenstein who served as town chair for several years. Five people are throwing their hat in the ring for town supervisor. Town Clerk Bonnie Berg and Town Treasurer Shelby Sarauer are running for reelection unopposed.

Town Supervisor

Name: Alice Linnabary
Family: Married, two children and five grandchildren
Community involvement: Northern Kettle Moraine Horse Trails, Low Income Energy Advisory Committee

(located in Madison, serving over 15 years on the committee), Milwaukee Energy Network.

Top Issues: Land use issues, a moratorium on subdivision, proper planning for future developments following a comprehensive growth plan are key concerns rather than random approvals with questionable future consequences. Updating the ordinances to increase the minimum lot sizes to maintain the township rural quality must be factored into the equation, in addition to avoiding undesirable environmental laws that adversely impact the township. The other goal is to increase the communication and participation of townspeople.

Reasons seeking office: "I've been attending and speaking up at our town meetings for four to five years. The issues facing the town are becoming more complex and need planning, deliberating and a wider vision. I strongly believe that with unplanned rampant growth we will lose the vision of our townspeople of a rural community. I also believe that quick and controversial decisions lacking appropriate information or research will result in future water problems, rising taxes, recreational and rural conflicts and other unanticipated problems."

Name: Mike Desterhott

Occupation: Small retailer for recreational tourism business Education: Graduate of Germantown High of Germantown, WI.

Reasons for seeking office: "The township is experiencing a lot of development issues. Agricultural land is being developed at a record pace. Instead of looking at the merits and shortcomings, the township rubber-stamps many development (proposals). I am not anti-development. I favor a cautious approach towards development and a common sense approach. I have a genuine concern for the town and the Kettle Moraine State Forest and I don't want to see it spoiled by development. Once it is spoiled, we can't turn back the clock. I

LOCAL NEWS BRIEFS

● WASHINGTON COUNTY RECEIVES $84K GRANT - Washington County has received $84,200 for the local Multi-Jurisdictional Drug Unit. The county says the grant will give much needed assistance to combating the problems of illegal drug use and violent crime. The funds are made available through the Edward Byrne Memorial State and Local Law Enforcement Assistance Program from the U.S. Department of Justice. *

● CAMPBELLSPORT KEEPS ORIGINAL GRAD DATE- The Campbellsport School Board has decided to keep this year's graduation date at Sunday, June 12. Initially, there was some debate, because the day falls on the same day as Walleye Weekend in Fond du Lac. Parents argued, that if seniors make it to the finals in athletic competitions they would not be able to participate at the Fond du Lac festival. The board said a request to change the date, came too late. *

● ANNUAL CHAMBER BANQUET- The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce will hold their annual banquet on Wednesday, February 16. The event will open at with a cash bar at Woody's Steakhouse in Kewaskum. Dinner begins at 6:30 p.m. Deb Sielski, assistant administrator for the Washington County Planning and Parks Department will speak on the Rails to Trails program. After a brief presentation Gary Cross will perform.

Referendum adopted requesting $2.15 million over five years

BY CASSANDRA THOMPSON
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
cthompson@kewaskumstatesman.com

Encouraged by community input from recent surveys the Kewaskum School Board unanimously adopted Feb. 7 a resolution, which puts a referendum on the April 2005 ballot, that requests authorization from electors to exceed budget revenue limits by $2.15 million over a five-year period.

If approved by the electorate, the additional funds will pay for "textbooks, technology, and supplemental materials." Over the five-year period, the referendum will provide the school district with $430,000 annually to update its academic curriculum. The referendum proposes spending $168,000 per year on textbooks and $262,000 per year on technology.

The tax impact to property owners will be $.484 per $1000 of assessed value. So a property owner with an assessed value of $100,000 will pay $48.40 in taxes. The tax impact for the 2005-2006 school year is $8.59 per $1000 of assessed value. With a home valued at $100,000, property owners are paying $859.00 in taxes. Upon successful approval of the referendum, the combined tax impact will be $9.07 per $1000 or $907.00 on a home valued at $100,000. The school district has two levies; they are a $6.9 million general operating budget fund and a $1.2 million debt service fund. The debt service fund is a 20-year bond that started in 2000 and expires in 2019 that provides money for the elementary school buildings. Paul Reichert, the business manager, said the school district has exhausted all avenues for state and federal grants. He said the school district will apply for grants, but the chances of receiving them are slim because specific criteria must be met.

"Most are competitive grants for low-income school districts," said Reichert.

Despite the lack of resources available from Madison, the Wisconsin Department of Instruction has imposed media and technology standards. The state mandated that the school district pass a technology plan. The school board approved a technology plan in June 2004. As students are tested statewide on math, reading and science, a new round of examinations are scheduled for media and technology proficiency skills. Beginning in 2006, eighth grade students will take a technology literacy test written by the state.

"Just as math is changing, technology is changing," said Joannie Kalina, curriculum director. She said the integrating technology into the classroom is vital to the "new learning environment" for students. Technology can be used for enrichment, remediation and tutoring.

In order to compete with neighboring school districts, the Kewaskum school board realize they must have an academic curriculum on the cutting edge. School District Superintendent Wayne Graczyk said in a conversation after the school board meeting that improving the curriculum might attract and keep students in the district. "Some students left the district under open enrollment," said Graczyk. Even with departing students under the open enrollment program, school district enrollment numbers remain relatively steady with approximately 1900 students.

At present, the school district's technology program is slightly lagging behind neighboring district's ones said Graczyk. Graczyk believes the school district is moving in the right direction and honoring the wishes of the electorate.

"In 2004, voters approved three of the six questions for the advisory referendum," said Graczyk. "People (the voters) chose textbooks, technology, and remodeling the high school and middle school."

2004 Tax Forms available at library

Tax forms are once again available at the Kewaskum Public Library. Forms for federal and state taxes can be picked up from 7:30am until 8pm Monday-Wednesday; 7:30-5pm Thursday and Friday; and 10am-1pm Saturday.

More tax forms are available in the library during regular library hours and can be printed by library staff for .10 per page.

Style show and luncheon for teens Feb. 17

The Kewaskum Women's Club will sponsor a Style Show and Luncheon for Teens on Thursday Feb. 17th.

The invites for this event have been sent to all the ninth grade girls at Kewaskum High School. This is their day to feel like a princess.

The event will be held in the Peace Church fellowship hall, at 3pm to 5:30 pm. There will be a style show with fashions from Maurices of West Bend with a light luncheon to follow.

There will be Washington Country professional women from all walks of life to sit and chat with the young ladies. The women will include lawyers, nurses, dental hygienists, teachers, hair-dressers and many others.

The cost is FREE to the ninth graders. This is a social event, so we have asked the young ladies to dress appropriately.

Deadline for this event is Feb. 14th. RSVP at the HS office or call 626-2777. Parents may pick up their child about 5:30 pm in the Peace Church parking lot on Main St.

Retirement planning workshops at UWWC

Would you like to be better prepared for retirement? Would you like to be mortgage free in 10 years or less without making extra payments? An upcoming three-night seminar, sponsored by the Continuing Education Department of UW-Washington County, will help you do just that. Using a conservative approach to wise money management, this seminar provides important information about financial basics, investment options, retirement income and lifestyles, estate planning, and risk management.

The seminar is called "Financial Strategies for Successful Retirement" and consists of three, one night per week sessions. The sessions will be held on March 1, 8, and 15th; March 3, 10, and 17th; and April 5, 12, and 19th. All classes run from 6pm to 9pm and are held in Room 101 at UW-Washington County, 400 University Drive in West Bend.

Three experienced financial professionals will present the series. They include: Joseph Herkert, President of Herkert and Associates; Jared Thompson of Sammons Securities Company; and Attorney John V. Kitzke of Kitzke and Associates.

Two persons from the same household can register for the single registration fee of $89, which includes a comprehensive workbook. For more information or to register, contact Dan Anhalt, Director of Continuing Education, at (262) 335-5218, register online at http://washington.uwc.edu/community/continuing_ed.html or email: danhalt@uwc.edu

Fillmore, others, respond to house fire fully engulfed

Firefighters with the Fillmore Fire Department had their hands full battling a fully engulfed house fire on Wednesday, February 3. Fillmore was assisted by a number of other departments who helped extinguish the blaze.

Fire destroyed a single family home located at 466 County Highway H in the Town of Farmington. The fire was called in by the homeowner at 12 p.m. on Wednesday, February 2, 2005.

The homeowner was home with her daughter when she detected a burning odor and smoke coming from the basement of the residence. She evacuated the residence and contacted the Washington County Sheriff's Department. The home was an older, two-story wood frame home on a field stone foundation.

Fillmore Fire Department responded to the scene, assisted by fire departments from Boltonville, Newburg, Waubeka and Silver Creek. Kewaskum and Newburg Rescue also assisted at the scene.

One Newburg firefighter was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend by Newburg Rescue. He was treated and released for an unspecified injury.

The fire is believed to have originated as an electrical fire in the basement of the residence. Electrical panel work had been underway at the residence. The home was totally destroyed and had an estimated value in excess of $100,000.

The Fillmore Turner Society will be holding a benefit at Turner Hall in Fillmore for the Stern family. More information on the benefit and where to send direct donation will be published in next week's Statesman.

YMCA Camp Matawa institutes teen action council

The YMCA Teen Action Council was created for teens to share ideas and concerns on youth-related issues, and plan and coordinate youth focused activities. Its main purpose is to serve as a voice for the young people attending all YMCA Camp Matawa programs, and to act in an advisory capacity to the branch Board of Managers.

The Teen Action Council, or TAC, was recently implemented under the direction of Senior Program Director, Ricky Wright. The teens were selected and invited to participate based on their relationship with the camp, their leadership skills and their commitment of time and energy. The teens also must be in high school and meet an academic grade point average. "We are very excited about offering this new program. The Teen Action Council will provide teens with opportunities to perform community service projects, develop leadership skills and enjoy time with their peers in a safe, healthy and value based program," said Wright.

The Teen Action Council

appointed Kristin Ruka as the 2005 President and Robbie DeGraff the Vice-President. Kristin is one of two teens who serve on the Camp Matawa Board of Managers and will gain valuable experience as a voting member of the board, as well as provide valuable insight to the adult board members. Ruka and DeGraff will also meet with all of the branch teen board members within the Milwaukee YMCA Association Teen Action Council.

The initial group of nine students met to discuss the application process for new recruits, the job description and responsibilities of the membership, 2005 summer camp plans, the annual Strong Kids campaign teen goal, and upcoming volunteer opportunities.

As with all YMCA programs, the Teen Action Council will strive to demonstrate the four core values of honesty, caring, respect and responsibility.

Village of Kewaskum strives to obtain voter information

Village Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt urges voters in the Village of Kewaskum to bring their Wisconsin Department of Transportation issued driver's license or identification card number with them to the polling place on February 15, 2005. After voting, citizens are being asked to provide voter registration information in anticipation of the implementation of a statewide voter registration system. The clerk will have a table at the polling place for voters to visit and fill out a form after they cast their ballots. Electors should note that registration is not required in the Village of Kewaskum in order to vote at the February 15, 2005 election.

This effort is completely voluntary for the voter at this time. However, if the voter provides the required information at the February Primary on February 15, 2005, it will save the voter from long registration lines in 2006.

The Federal Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA) and Wisconsin State Statutes require all voters in Wisconsin municipalities to be registered in order to vote after January 1, 2006.

Auburn explores expanding to five member board

By CASSANDRA THOMPSON

Auburn Township residents will weigh in on the pros and cons of expanding to a five member board in April 2005.

Town Chair Howard Laubenstein confirmed Jan. 10 at its regular township meeting that topic is placed on the 2005 Annual Meeting agenda.

Laubenstein said expanding from a five-member board to a three-member board is better for governing reasons.

"It's easier to talk to supervisors with a five member board," said Laubenstein. When two of three members discuss village business, state mandates call for an official town meeting.

Another reason for expanding to a five-member board is to bring some stability to the town board. Every two years, both supervisor and the town chair positions are elected every two years. With a five-member board, the elections can be staggered.

Laubenstein said state statute requires increasing the membership to five people when the town population reaches 2,500. According to 2000 Census Reports, the town population amounts to 2,120. If township growth continues, a five-member board is the most likely scenario in a few short years.

The 2005 Annual Auburn Township meeting is set for April 14. Residents will have an opportunity to voice their opinions on the matter then.

Mid-Moraine municipal judge seat hotly contested race

By CASSANDRA THOMPSON
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
cthompson@kewaskumstatesman.com

A municipal judge with 14-years of experience serving on the bench is meeting some stiff competition from three challengers.

Honorable Daryl Laatsch of West Bend's two-year term is set to expire in 2005. Because of accusations made by the state Judicial Committee, many court observers perceive him to be a vulnerable incumbent municipal judge. According to an article published by the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel on Dec. 19, 2004, Laatsch is under fire because of accusations made by the state Judicial Committee charging him with ethics code violations. On numerous occasions, Laatsch has denied all accusations of wrong doing.

Rollie Pieper of Jackson, John Grundahl of West Bend, and Janet Heins of Germantown will take on Laatsch in a four-way primary on Feb. 14. The primary will dwindle down the field to two candidates for the April 5 general election.

The municipal judge is a two-year elected position that pays approximately $58,000 and serves the residents in Washington County, Ozaukee County, and the city of Hartford in a portion of Dodge County. The municipal's judge responsibilities are to assist communities with issues involving municipal violations.

Pieper is a Marquette University Law School graduate who is seeking the municipal judge seat. He stresses his community roots, military service and related public service.

"I believe there are three important criteria for a Municipal Judge: Experience, Professionalism and Integrity," he said.

Pieper served in the U.S. Air Force from 1962 to 1966. He is the current Judge Advocate of the Germantown American Legion Post No. 1. He is a partner in the firm of Schumann and Pieper since 1980 practicing business law, real estate and probate. His professional credentials include being admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the State of Wisconsin, Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin. In addition to this, Pieper taught business law at the University of Wisconsin from 1973 to 1979.

As for public service, Pieper has served in various positions as clerk, treasurer, and president on the Germantown School Board from 1983 to 1992.

Heins, an employment law attorney representing employees, is running for the seat. She received her law degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Her experience includes working as a Prosecuting Attorney and Hearing Officer conducting trials for the U.S. government. Heins has served on many public and community board, such as the Germantown Police and Fire Commission, President of the Church Council of Germantown, and on the Board of Directors for the Association for Women Lawyers.

"I will treat every person who comes before me with dignity and respect," promises Heins. "I will judge each case fairly and impartially."

Restoring the integrity of the municipal seat is a vow made by Grundahl who is a law school graduate from Marquette University of Milwaukee. Grundahl has 30 years of experience in private practice and as a court commissioner. He is also a Vietnam veteran with military experience in naval aviation.

His community involvement is as follows: West Bend District Budget Committee Member and Advocate for a Balanced Curriculum, Washington County Youth Hockey Association serving as president, vice-president, board member and finance committee member, member of the State Board for the Wisconsin Ice Rink Management Association, and numerous leadership positions for Our Savior

Lutheran Church Council. If elected, Grundahl wants to "uphold the dignity of the court." He will respect the process, the participants and the values of the community. "I will listen, be respectful and fair to all who appear before me," said Grundahl.

Dear Town of Auburn Residents,

I would like to introduce myself to the people who live in the Town of Auburn, my name is Joe Minz, I live at N379 Hwy. G, Campbellsport. I am owner of J & M. Steel Sales & Hwy. G Storage. I am currently running for the office of Chairman in the Town of Auburn. It was not my intention to run for office, but I was asked by the Town residents to run for the Chairman position. I have lived in the Township since 1987, and have attended almost every meeting in the Town of Auburn since 1989. I am currently serving as a Board Member on the Fond du Lac County Sanitation, Shoreland & Flood Plain Zoning Board of Appeals, I have also served two years as a Supervisor in the Town of Auburn.

At this moment I am very concerned about the future growth of the Town of Auburn. The Town of Auburn has a Land Use Plan (Smart Growth), that was adopted by the Town Board in August 2002. On page 37 it states; 69 percent of all survey respondents said that there should be no residential development in the Town. Also, 83 percent of all survey respondents believe that the best farm land should not be developed. And it also states; three-quarters of all survey respondents feel that the Town should maintain the same population or be somewhat smaller. I strongly believe the Town Board has an obligation to follow the Land Use Plan, as the majority of the Township residents have stated. They are to represent the residents, not rule over them.

In addition I would like to start an annual newsletter to be sent out to the Town residents, informing them on what has been going on in the Township for the past year. I also believe that there should be a volunteer Committee made up of Town residents and Board Members to review and go over some of the Township Ordinances, and bring them up to date. In the last four years I have attended 34 Wisconsin Towns Association & U.W. Extension seminars, to learn how local government should be run properly. I strongly believe that if you serve on a Board, you should learn the rules and regulations about the position. My business is located in the Township and I am here most of the time, so if you need to talk to me on matters concerning the Township, I am here to listen.

PLEASE GO OUT AND VOTE

Town of Kewaskum striving to obtain voter information

Town Clerk Sandra Stern urges voters in the Town of Kewaskum to bring their Wisconsin Department of Transportation—issued driver's license or identification card number with them to the polling place on February 15, 2005. After voting, citizens are being asked to provide voter registration information in anticipation of the implementation of a statewide voter registration system. The clerk will have a table at the polling place for voters to visit and fill out a form after they cast their ballots. Electors should note that registration is not required in the Town of Kewaskum in order to vote at the February 2005 election.

This effort is completely voluntary for the voter at this time. However, if the voter provides the required information at the February Primary, it will save the voter from long registration lines in 2006.

The federal Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA) and Wisconsin state statutes require all voters in Wisconsin municipalities to be registered in order to vote after January 1, 2006.

WB Chamber looking to revitalize Maxwell Street Day

The West Bend Chamber of Commerce is trying to rally local businesses to breath new life into the Old Maxwell Street Day.

Last year some businesses participated in a poorly organized sidewalk sale. The Chamber's Kim Swisher says they're looking to do some justice to Maxwell Street Day this year, but she says, a lot will depend on the cooperation they get from the business community.

As it stands now, the Downtown West Bend Association and the West Bend Chamber are teaming up to host a Maxwell Street Day this August. A meeting was held this week to discuss how best to organize this event. Some ideas include whether to bring in outside vendors or close the streets.

Sen. Kohl pleased with Bush's budgeting for Dairy price supports

Senator Herb Kohl says he's pleased President Bush stuck with his campaign promise and included a two year extension of the milk income loss contract program in his budget. Over the past three years the program has paid about $414 million to Wisconsin Dairy farmers. Even though Bush approved the subsidy, he also proposed a 5% across the board cut in commodity subsidies for farmers, including dairy. Bush also proposed capping federal payments to individual farmers at $250,000 annually.

Feingold for President?

Democrats in the area will be encouraged to know, that US Senator Russ Feingold may be making a bid for the White House. Feingold says, if there's enough interest or encouragement from his party then he'd consider the presidency in 2008.

Feingold has received national attention for co-authoring a bill on campaign finance reform. However, he's also been criticized for being the only Senator to vote against the anti-terrorism Patriot Act.

Woman drives car through barn in Farmington

Washington County Sheriff's Deputies say a woman apparently fell asleep at the wheel Friday, February 4, and drove her car into a barn in the town of Farmington.

Lieutenant John Buck says Bridget Milinski of West Bend wasn't injured. He said the accident occurred around 2 a.m. off Highway 144 just north of County Highway A.

Crowley in court on burglary and robbery charges

Sandra Crowley, 20, of Greenfield, and Larie LaChe, 36, of Slinger, were in Washington County Court last week on charges related to the theft of $120,000 from a home in the Town of Polk. Both women were involved in the burglary and robbery last December. Some of the charges include felony robbery, with the use of force, battery and drug charges.

Snowmobike trails close in Dodge county

The snowmobiling trails in Dodge County are now closed. Officials say heavy use combined with warmer temperatures have deteriorated the trails and forced them shut until the next significant snowfall.

Farmington goes online

Town of Farmington board and planning commission meeting dates and minutes are now available to residents on line. It was announced at the Tuesday, Feb 1, town board meeting that the move to online access had been facilitated by planning committee member Diana Susen. The town site is www.town.farmington.wi.us.

With over 70% of U.S. homes now online, the move to the internet allows town residents the opportunity to easily access town board and planning meeting minutes, find member contact information, as well as information regarding ordinances, and a calendar of upcoming meetings.

At its most recent meeting, the township also voted to renew a building moratorium that has been in effect for the past year. This is to protect the rural nature of the community while a land use plan is being developed.

The process of selecting a land use planner from among three firms that presented to the board and plan commission on January 27, continued at the Tuesday, February 8 joint board/planning commission meeting. Board member Ike Roell noted that all of the land use plan presenters felt that the process could be completed in a six month time frame, which would allow the township the option of lifting the moratorium earlier.

"We have come a long way and only have a little bit to go", noted board Chairman Jim Dieringer.

In other town news, several candidates have announced for the town board elections, to be held in April. Gary Schreiber and Joe Enright are competing for town Chairman and Art Seyfert, Ike Roell, and Rich Mc Kee are running for the two supervisor positions.

An environment designed for safety.

Research shows patient safety and care can be significantly enhanced in the right environment. It's why every room in the new St. Joseph's Hospital will have an identical layout, with supplies and medications stored in exactly the same place. A MESSAGE OF THANKS FROM THE BOEGEL FAMILY

The community has been there for us with open arms since the loss of TODD. Words cannot express how we feel about the numerous people who have supported and prayed for our family. A loss like this is horrible for anyone to go through, but you all have helped to make it a little easier.

To Jim Phillip and the Phillip Funeral Home, thank you for your empathy, generosity, and professionalism you have shown to our family.

To Holy Trinity Church and all of its members who graciously brought food to our home and prayed for our family.

To Father Mark Jones for your memorable Mass along with your willingness to commute from your 'new' home to your 'old' home to be with our family.

To The Statesman staff and those of you who donated to our family through your subscriptions, your unselfishness will never be forgotten.

To Kissy from The Grand Larsony for all of your fundraising efforts...and all of the good times you shared with Todd.

To the community for sharing your thoughtfulness through your donations in the canisters placed throughout Kewaskum.

To all of you who sent cards, food, or just kept us in your prayers...we are forever grateful for you.

Todd will be missed tremendously, not only by his family, but also by all of his friends who helped him enjoy his stay with us. Even though his stay was short we have the memories of good times that no one can take away from us.

*Thank you again,
Michelle Boegel

To everyone who has been there to support our family—especially my dad and my brother Todd's family (Michelle, Alex, Austin and Tony)... I would just like you all to know that it is quite humbling to see the outpouring of concern - both financially and emotionally for our family. No words can be found that could ever explain how much this is appreciated.

I know that Todd, Mom, and Ryan are all looking down and smiling at each and every one of you for your generosity. We are a blessed family to have people who care so much.

God Bless You All!!

Celebrate Families workshop Feb. 17

This year Celebrate Families Week will include a special family workshop sponsored by Kairos counseling, Trinity Lutheran Church, Seventh and Elm and Fifth Avenue Methodist Church. The workshop will be held on Thursday, February 17th from 6 to 8 p.m. at Fifth Avenue Methodist Church in West Bend.

This event called "Virtual Families, Virtual Fun" will focus on helping families find fun activities that also strengthen their life together. Families will have the opportunity to participate in two workshops - "Family, Faith and Film" (A look at movies and TV programs as a way to talk about faith, values, and other issues. As a part of the experience there will be film clips to watch and discuss) and "Games for Growth" (how can we play together in a way that fosters communication, cooperation, and an appreciation for each others gifts.) There will also be times for the whole group to interact and enjoy time together.

Subs will be provided for dinner and there will be a few surprises (and prizes). All members of the family are welcome.

Please call Fifth Avenue Methodist to register at 262-334-2059. Registrations are requested in order to plan for food and space. The workshop is being sponsored by Kairos Counseling, Fifth Avenue Methodist church and Trinity Lutheran.

Come and join in to celebrate the joy of family fun together.

YMCA to host 'Kids Day Out'

On Monday, February 28, 2005, the Kettle Moraine YMCA will host "Kids Day Out," a supervised program for children ages seven to 12 when school is not in session. During the day kids will participate in activities such as arts and crafts, games, sports, open swim and gym time. A morning and afternoon snack will be provided but kids should bring their own bag lunch.

Kids can be dropped off at the Y after 6:30 a.m. and must be picked up by 6 p.m. This is a great opportunity for them to have fun and enjoy the day in a safe environment. The registration deadline is Monday, February 14, 2005.

The cost per day for YMCA member is $24 and the cost for community participants is $29. To register, please stop in at the Kettle Moraine YMCA, 1111 W. Washington Street, West Bend. For more information call the Y at 262-334-3405.

Animals set the tempo for KMS Children's Concert

The Kettle Moraine Symphony's annual Children's Concert Sunday, February 20 will be a "Carnival of the Animals" as the orchestra plays selections with an animal theme. The concert will be held at 3 p.m. at the University of Wisconsin Washington County in West Bend.

Tickets are $2 for children, $15 for adults, and $12 for seniors and students.

Under the direction of Albert "Bud" Asch, the KMS will play from the famous "Carnival of the Animals" by Camille Saint-Saens. The orchestral character pieces will remind listeners of different animals. Other selections include the "Waltzing Cat" by Leroy Anderson and selections from "Harry Potter."

All ages are invited. Children are welcome to bring their blankets or stuffed creatures and sit on the floor to experience the instrument "Animals." Children will also have a chance to be selected as a "guest conductor" for the orchestra, a traditional feature of the Children's Concerts.

Clergy Commentary

By Pastor Kurt Ziemann

Immanuel Lutheran - Town of Scott and St. Stephen's Lutheran - Batavia

A few months ago the kids went throughout the house searching for the correct time. My oldest son's bedroom's clock read, "5:32." The clock on the microwave said, "5:27." There were others: the dining room - 5:33, another bedroom clock - 5:31, over the sink - 5:26, and then a clock taped to the bathroom wall, a crayon drawing, forever reads 7:42. It's enough to make you wonder, "What time is it anyway?"

We should have suspected something was up. One clock chimes the hour, and then a few minutes later the bird clock chirps the hour in the kitchen. Something isn't right. And you know this has significance when it comes to starting church. When do you ring the church bell? One elder has one time, another is one minute later, while the pastor (that would be me), well, if he can't get his home clocks in order, how can you trust his watch?

Why are we so mesmerized by the clock? Why do we ask for more time? I certainly felt the time crunch for awhile. I had one service at 9:00 and another five miles away at 10:30. There was no time to spare on communion Sundays. After one last handshake, I had to sprint out the door. I didn't even have time to take a bathroom break if I needed it. Thankfully, the early service was moved back fifteen minutes. Ah, the gift of time!

Then there are those who have time but don't know how to spend it. An hour at church is too much, but a football game can go three hours, and no one is angry unless their team loses. Others feel working overtime is worth it, but rest and family times are not. How odd! Have you ever heard anyone on their deathbed complaining they didn't spend more time at work? Never. We would be wise to take notice before our time is up.

What about your spiritual life? As God speaks through St. Paul, we learn "now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation." (2 Corinthians 6:2 NIV) Yes, now is the day of salvation. You may not have tomorrow. What a waste of time it will be for us to slave under the clock, to run here and there on some frantic schedule, or to sit idly by while the hours vanish like a mist and not be ready when Jesus comes again and forfeit heaven.

They say time goes faster as you get older. I must be getting old. Every year seems to pass faster, and I'm just over forty. What is it like to be ninety? Young or old, the reality is that some of us won't live beyond this year. And so God puts our time on earth in perspective. "Now listen, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money.' Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes." (James 4:13-14 NIV)

Yes, we will live - for a time on this earth. But God has in mind a better time - eternity with Him in heaven. This is the place Jesus has prepared for all believers. Proof is in the manger in the form of a baby - Jesus, Immanuel, God with us - sent for you. Proof is on the cross in the form of a man - Son of Man and Son of God - crucified for you. "You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly." (Romans 5:6 NIV) Proof is in the empty tomb in the form of an angel

Holy Trinity - St. Michael's changing Mass schedules

As part of the ongoing discussions between Holy Trinity and Saint Michael Parishes, a revised weekend Mass schedule involving collaboration by the two parishes has been determined. It will take effect for Holy Trinity parishioners on the weekend of April 30-May 1.

This new schedule was arrived at after thorough discussions by representatives of both parishes. In December, an ad-hoc committee considered several alternatives with an eye toward the future priest staffing of both parishes. This coming June, both Holy Trinity and St. Michael's will be served by a single priest. In January, the combined Parish councils of each parish met and further reviewed the schedule. It was agreed that a four-Mass schedule involving both parish sites would be the best possible arrangement.

The new schedule will be as follows: Saturday, 5:30 declaring: "He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay." (Matthew 28:6 NIV).

So what time is it? God has the answer once again: "But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare. Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming.

That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat. But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness." (2 Peter 3:8-13 NIV) p.m. at St. Michael's; Sunday, 7:30 a.m. at Holy Trinity; 9 a.m. at Holy Trinity and 10:30 a.m. at St. Michael's.

It is taken for granted that members of both parishes will be free to worship at either church site depending on their needs and preferences.

Please remember the starting dates - April 30/May 1 for this new schedule, as it pertains to Holy Trinity parishioners.

Kiwanis Students of the Month

Paige Thelen

Joshua Bryant

Paige Thelen and Joshua Bryant were recently named Kiwanis students of the month for the month of February. Paige is the daughter of Sherry and Scott Thelen. She is an active member of the HOPE Club, Spanish Club, and is the secretary of the student council. Paige also was on the tennis team and was voted hardest worker in basketball. She also played volleyball and ran track. Paige was a representative to Badger Girls State at UW-Oshkosh last summer. In her free time, Paige volunteers at her church by helping with Sunday School and is part of Big Brothers/Big Sisters. After graduation Paige plans to attend UW-Oshkosh to major in nursing. Josh is the son of Diane and Mike Bryant. He is a member of the tennis team, Swing Choir and the Chess Team. During his Chess team career, Josh received awards for MVP and 2nd Team All Conference. Josh also participated in Cross County, the musical and Peers 4 Peers. He volunteers at the Salvation Army every year and helps with various church activities. After graduation, Josh plans to attend the University of Washington County to begin his study in Pharmacology. Students and their parents were honored at a recent meeting of the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club.

Fun had by all who attended Mardi Gras

Shown above are the Mr. Mardi Gras finalists who attended the Coronation Ceremonies at the Taste of Kewaskum and Mardi Gras festivities sponsored by the Friends of Kewaskum Saturday evening at Amerahn. Left to right: Missing his bejeweled crown was John Borland, owner of John's On Main in Kewaskum, who secured the most votes and was consequently named MR. MARDI GRAS; local Modern Woodmen representative, Jeff Jaeger, was second runnerup; Scott Rohlinger, star bartender at Woody's Steakhouse in Kewaskum, was fifth runnerup; Dave Pfeiffer, of Kewaskum, first runnerup, also got suckered into the fun courtesy of his "friends" at Woody's; Kevin Bartelt, Kewaskum's best-looking jester, was the third runnerup and last, but not least, is Andrew Kuehl, of the Kewaskum Statesman, who was hurled into the finals courtesy of his visiting mother-in-law. The contestants received 10 extra points by attending in costume and 25 extra points were awarded to the winner of the Best Costume. Kevin sure was cute, but our independent judge was overwhelmed by Jeff Jaeger's choice of coordinated clothing. It also takes a special breed of man to be able to wear underwear over his clothes! Jeff's costume alone was worth the price of admission to the event!

The limbo contest was a hit with all the age categories at Saturday's Mardi Gras festivities. Shown above getting ready to go under the limbo pole, is Brent Goeden, son of Dave and Sue Goeden of Kewaskum. During the portion of the youngest group of participants, Dodie Sargent of Little Folks School House in Wayne, is seen to the far right of the photo, holding the limbo pole steady. Little Folks School House sponsored the limbo contest.

Mardi Gras madness

Jeff Jaeger leads the Mardi Gras train throughout the dance hall at Amerahn. The music for the dancing was provided by DJ Mike Szydlowski of West Bend. The entertainment was provided by all of the above.

THANKS GUYS!
for being such
GOOD SPORTS
during the Mr. Mardi Gras contest!

JOHN BORLAND – MR. MARDI GRAS
(who is donating his proceeds to the Stern family, fire victims)

DAVE PFEIFFER – FIRST RUNNERUP
(who is donating his proceeds to the Kewaskum fireworks)

JEFF JAEGER – SECOND RUNNERUP
(who is donating his proceeds to the upcoming Modern Woodmen Matching Funds Program)

KEVIN BARTELT – THIRD RUNNERUP
(who is donating his proceeds to the Kewaskum Kiwanis)

ANDREW KUEHL – FOURTH RUNNERUP
(who is donating his proceeds to the Holy Trinity Parish Youth Program)

SCOTT ROHLINGER – FIFTH RUNNERUP
(who is donating his proceeds to the Kewaskum fireworks)

JOSH RIEBE – SIXTH RUNNERUP
(who is donating his proceeds to the KHS golf team)

The contest was an overwhelming hit and added a tremendous amount of fun to our Mardi Gras festivities on Saturday evening at Amerahn. Thank you also to all who attended and contributed to the good time.

A Valentine's Day gift for every style

(ARA) - It's Valentine's Day and the pressure is on. What will you do to show your special someone that you care? And how will you find a gift that's personal and meaningful and fits your budget? You could fall back on the predictable dinner, but why not give a gift of indulgence and relaxation by creating a spa at home.

While everyone enjoys a bit of pampering, you can go one step further by tailoring your gift to fit the unique taste of the recipient. Start with a basic foundation to turn your home into a luxurious retreat. A fluffy new robe (or a cashmere one if your budget allows), slippers and some soothing music will go a long way in creating a romantic mood and can be enjoyed long after Valentine's Day has passed.

Some people firmly believe that Valentine's Day just isn't the same without chocolate, even if it means breaking New Year's resolutions. But indulgence doesn't have to come with a fear of the scale. New from Lush Cosmetics, purveyor of hand made bath and body products, is the Honey Bunch gift box. A collection of their sweetest treats, the Honey Bunch includes a Honey Bee bath bomb that not only holds an assortment of finds, but also fills your bath with a fizzy combination of honey, aloe vera and sweet orange oil. Combine two loves -- chocolate and backrubs -- with the Soft Coeur massage bar, crafted with skin-silkening cocoa butter and a gooey honey and chocolate center. The Ma Bar bubble bar creates mountains of suds with caramelized sugar, chocolate and honey.

What could be better than sinking into the tub with a glass of Champagne? For a Parisian inspired delight, check out Lush's Je T'aime gift box. This lavender luxury will leave you anything but blue. Holding it all together is a box made from the Blackberry Bath Bomb, infused with calming frankincense. At the heart of this collection is the purple Ooh La La soap, blended with juice from organic grapes to promote relaxation and calm. The French Kiss bubble bar invites long leisurely soaks after a hard day, but for more "inspiring" baths, try the Bathos bubble bar, a lavender colored mix of aphrodisiacs like ylang ylang, jasmine and rose.

"We at Lush Fresh Handmade Cosmetics believe in long, candlelit baths, massage and pampering," says Jennifer Graybeal, U.S. media relations coordinator. "That's why these new heart-shaped gifts filled with our most sensuous and indulgent treats were created. They are a romantic way to steam things up this Valentine's Day."

Girly-girls will love the Kiss Chase collection with its sweet-smelling and heart-shaped bath treats. A heart-shaped bath bomb container scented with Lush's famous Candy Fluff fragrance tints the bathwater pink, and holds a wealth of goodies. Your sweetie won't be able to resist a bubble bar like Melting Marshmallow Moment that's made with softening and gentle cleansing marshmallow. Finish off with Rock Star soap -- pink, vanilla-scented and heart-shaped in honor of Valentine's Day. Add some fun pajamas or lacy underthings to complete the package.

If you're more of the creative type, combine lots of little goodies to create one sure to get her blood-boiling gift. Lush has lots of treats, so if you want to give just a token of your affection, exchange calorie-free chocolate kisses with Whipstick lip balm. This little pot of heaven is jam-packed with chocolate and essential oils of orange, tangerine and vanilla.

Lush Cosmetics has stores in Boston, San Francisco, New York, Washington, D.C., Orlando, Portland, California, Honolulu, Aspen, Boulder and Chicago. Log on to www.lush.com to shop online or request a mail-order catalog by calling (888) 733-LUSH.

Lovin Sweetcakes

- 1 pkg. (2-layer size) white cake mix
- 1 pkg. (4-serving size) JELL-O Brand Strawberry Flavor Gelatin, or any red flavor
- 1 tub (8 oz.) COOL WHIP Whipped Topping, thawed
- 1/4 cup seasonal colored sprinkles

PREPARE cake batter as directed on package. Stir in dry powered gelatin until well blended.

LINE 24 medium muffin cups with paper liners. Pour batter evenly into cups, filling each cup 1/2 full. Place a small marble or 1/2-inch ball of foil between each liner and one side of the cup, pushing the paper in to form a heart shape. Bake as directed on package for cupcakes. Cool completely; remove marble or foil.

SPREAD 2 Tbsp. whipped topping onto top of each cupcake. Decorate each with 1/4 tsp. sprinkles as desired. Store cupcakes in refrigerator.

OBITUARIES

LAWRENCE McELHATTON

Lawrence McElhatton, age 98, of Fond du Lac, passed away on Friday, February 4, 2005 at the Fond du Lac Lutheran Home in Fond du Lac.

He was born on September 23, 1906 in Moline, Illinois, the son of the late James and Christine (Gertsen) McElhatton, and he served his country in the U.S. Army from 1928-32. He was employed as a machinist by Giddings and Lewis Manufacturing in Fond du Lac, retiring in 1971 after many years of service.

Survivors include five children, Richard W. (LaNora) Arndt of Fond du Lac, David McElhatton of Livingston, Texas, Dennis McElhatton of Horicon, Sheila (George) Heineck of Greendale and Mary (Patrick) Cassady of Madison; two brothers, John (Mary Ellen) McElhatton of Kewaskum and Ray McElhatton of Fond du Lac; a sister, Marion "Mickey" Petermann of Campbellsport; 23 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren, a great-great-great granddaughter, other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Jim and Ralph McElhatton and three sisters, Margaret Bachaus, Gertrude Turinski and Marie Stangl.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 12, 2005 at the Miller Funeral Home in Kewaskum. Rev. Stanley Hayes will officiate and military rites will follow. Cremation will take place and burial of the cremains will be in Holy Trinity Catholic Church Cemetery in Kewaskum.

Friends may call on Saturday at the funeral home from 11:00 a.m. until the time of services.

RICHARD H. SCHROEDER

Richard H. Schroeder, 73, of Campbellsport, died on Saturday, Feb. 5, 2005 at the home of his daughter, Ann, where he had been residing the past several years.

He was born in Shawano on July 25, 1931 to the late Clarence and Mabel (Evans) Schroeder, and on May 11, 1957 he married Loretta Gau at Holy Angels Catholic Church in West Bend.

Dick was a 1949 graduate of Shawano High School and then worked at Black Implement in Shawano as the bookkeeper and parts manager until entering the U.S. Air Force in 1951.

He served until 1953 when he received an honorable discharge. He then served with the Air National Guard for an additional seven years.

Dick worked at Northern Heating and Piping Supply in Green Bay from 1953 until 1958 when he began working at H.J. Martin and Son in Green Bay until 1976.

He then moved his family to Campbellsport and opened the Coast to Coast Hardware Store. In 1985 he opened a second Coast to Coast Hardware Store in Kewaskum.

Dick enjoyed coin and stamp collecting and working with the many people he met in his hardware stores.

Survivors include a son, Steven (Paulette) of Campbellsport; three daughters, Susan (Roger) Jacak of Campbellsport, Ann (Jeffrey) Haack of Kewaskum and Lisa (Lee) Dikeman of North Fond du Lac; his grandchildren, Samantha and William Schroeder, Michael Jacak, Kathryn (William) Templeton, Tyler, Jessica and Stephany Haack and Kyle and Rebecca Dikeman; his great-grandchildren, Isaiah, Alexander and Taylor; three brothers, James (Gladys) of Shawano, John (Jean) of Mayville and Clarence "Dunk" of Waukesha; a sister, Phyllis Manning of Neenah; other relatives and friends.

Preceding him in death were his wife, Loretta, on Aug. 2, 1999; his step-parents, Martin and Myrtle Brennan, and his parents-in-law, Walter and Catherine Gau.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, Feb. 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Twohig Funeral Home, Campbellsport.

Rev. Mark Eckert will officiate and entombment will be on Saturday at Ledgeview Memorial Park in Fond du Lac.

Visitation at the funeral home will be on Friday from 3 p.m. until the time of services.

Memorials are appreciated to Horizon Hospice.

THOMAS JOSEPH SCHNEIDER

Thomas Joseph Schneider, 59, of West Bend passed away Sunday, Feb. 6, 2005.

Tom was born Sept. 7, 1945 to the late Joseph and Olive (nee Wenninger) Schneider in West Bend where he was raised and attended West Bend High School.

After graduating he worked for Wisconsin Gas Co. for 10 years before becoming owner operator of Schneider's Restaurant in Slinger for 18 years.

Tom enjoyed spending time with his family and his grandchildren and also enjoyed traveling and taking long walks.

Survivors include Mary E. (nee Troedel) and their four daughters, Ann (David) Prochnow and Kristine (Lee) Schultz, both of Campbellsport, Karen (Travis) Eichmann of West Bend and Katie (Zak) Pendowski of Campbellsport. He was the grandpa of Michael and Ryan Prochnow and Saylor Schultz; brother of Carol (Donald) Lutz of West Bend, Robert (Jo-an) Schneider of West Bend and Joseph (Janis) Schneider of Florida; brother-in-law of Audrey (James) Melchert of Missouri, Leone Hagner and Carol Grissman, both of West Bend, Betty Werner of Port Washington, Patsy (Marty) Schmidt of Plymouth and Sue (Steve) Johnson of West Bend. He is further survived by many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held Tuesday, Feb. 8 at 7 p.m. at Holy Angels Catholic Church, West Bend, with Fr. Gerald Brittain officiating.

Visitation was held Tuesday at the church only from 4:30 p.m. until the time of Mass at 7 p.m.

Memorials to Clearview Long Term Care and Rehabilitation Center or the Alzheimer's Association would be appreciated.

The Phillip Funeral Home of West Bend assisted the family.

MARY ANN FRANK

Mary Ann Frank, nee Temmer, 64, of Plymouth, formerly of West Bend, passed away unexpectedly Monday, Jan. 31, 2005 at SynergyHealth St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend.

Mary Ann was born April 19, 1940 to the late Jack and Martha (nee Markowski) Temmer, in Milwaukee, where she was also raised.

She graduated from St. Mary's Academy in 1958, and later attended Layton School of Arts.

On Feb. 18, 1961 she married Charles Frank in Fort Atkinson.

Mary Ann was a dedicated homemaker while she was raising her children.

Later, she went back to school to become a nurse's aide, and was a dedicated employee of St. Joseph's Community Hospital for 25 years.

Mary Ann enjoyed going up north, traveling, and especially loved spending quality time with her grandchildren and family.

She was a very devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, and she had a kind and gentle way.

Survivors include her loving husband, Charles; three children and eight grandchildren, her son, David (Lisa) Frank of Sheboygan Falls, and their children, Zachary, Courtney, Austin, and Kendall; her daughter, Julie (Randy) Faber of Kewaskum, and their children, Ed, Sarah, Joel, and Amanda; and her son, Eric (Vicki) Frank of Plymouth, and their son, Eric II. She is further survived by two sisters-in-law, Carol Temmer of Milwaukee and Ellen Frank of West Bend; a brother-in-law, Russell (Nancy) Frank of Ridge Crest, Calif.; nieces; nephews; other relatives, and many friends.

She will be missed by her family and all those she touched in her life.

Preceding her in death were a brother, Donald Temmer; a brother-in-law, Kenneth Frank, and a sister-in-law, Helen Bublitz.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, Feb. 5, at 1 p.m. at the Phillip Funeral Home Chapel of West Bend, with Father Jeffrey Haines officiating.

Visitation was at the funeral home on Saturday from 11 a.m. until the time of the services at 1 p.m.

DENNIS WAYNE LOBERGER

Dennis Wayne Loberger, 60, of Tamarac, Fla., died on Monday, Jan. 31, 2005 at his home.

He was born Sept. 26, 1944 in Daggett, Mich. and moved to Tamarac a year ago from Vero Beach, Fla. where he resided from 1997 to 2003.

Dennis moved to West Bend in 1959 and graduated from West Bend High School in 1963.

In 1969 he moved to Green Bay and graduated from Northeast Wisconsin Technical Institute in 1971 after which he worked in the public works department for the city of Green Bay, retiring in 1979.

Survivors include his wife of 28 years, Rev. Diane K. Loberger of Tamarac; his mother, Sighe Loberger of West Bend; three brothers, Gordon of Murray, Ky., Myron of Appleton and Victor of West Bend; a sister, Carole Dreher of Kewaskum, and his father-in-law, Warren (Jan) Fuller of Green Bay.

Preceding him in death were his father, Victor, and a brother, Elden.

A memorial service was held on Tuesday, Feb. 8 at 2:30 p.m. at All Saints Lutheran Church in Tamarac.

Memorial donations may be made to All Saints Lutheran Church, 7875 W. McNab Road, Tamarac, Fla. 33321.

The Thomas S. Lowther Funeral Home, Vero Beach, is assisting the family.

IN MEMORY

In memory of Nathan Nigh, July 22, 1926 - Feb. 11, 2001.

Though his smile is gone forever,
And his hand we cannot touch,
We have so many memories
Of the one we love so much.
His memory is our keepsake
With which we never part,
God has him in his keeping.
We have him in our hearts.

Sadly missed by his wife and family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Robert Kreif, who passed away twelve years ago, Feb. 12, 1993:

In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear brother, that we do not think of you.
The little things you used to do,
The smiles upon your face:
Are memories written in our hearts.
That nothing can erase.

Sadly missed by brother Randy

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Gilbert Reindl, on your birthday, February 13, 1916:

We thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday,
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name.
Now all we have is memories
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
We have you in our hearts.

Remembering you on your birthday and everyday!

With love from your family

By Terri Schlichenmeyer
Eyeing the Flash

By: Peter Fenton

How many stuffed animals do you have lying around? I'm not talking about the ones that belong to the kids; I mean the ones that are yours. Not many, I'd guess. At least not many you'd admit to owning. You probably think you've outgrown your need for a teddy or a stuffed monkey, and any fabric critters you have around are there for sentimentality's sake.

Then why do we envy the guy walking down the midway of the carnival, toting a huge stuffed bear that he won?

How many zillions of quarters have you spent trying to win the plush tiger at the local fair? And those guys walking down the midway with the bear and the grin? How did they win? Find out in the memoir "Eyeing the Flash: The Education of a Carnival Con Artist" by Peter Fenton (c.2005, Simon and Schuster).

Peter Fenton was a shy kid, a little nerdy, and good with numbers. That was before he met Jackie Barron one day after sophomore geometry class. Jackie owned a car and spoke to adults in a way that Peter never could. He was smooth-talking, confident, and he got any girl he wanted. Jackie was a fifteen-year-old con artist.

Because of his ease with addition and subtraction, Jackie took Peter under his wing and taught him about marked cards and games of chance. A few months after they met, they were fleecing their classmates in a basement casino, located in Jackie's house. Not long after that, the two took an elephant and a pony to another state to run a "free circus". The summer after graduation, Jackie bought a few carnival games, a couple of rides, and a piece of the action, and he hired Peter to work for him.

Though Peter was promised one of the better jobs on the midway, he started with the Hanky Pank (Pick-a-Duck and Bust a Balloon). He soon moved up to Alibis (Swinger and Knock Over the Cat) and by summer's end, Peter was working Flats and making thousands of dollars, scamming people in games they could never win. Then Peter learned that Jackie was scamming him. Is it true that you can't con a con?

For the very reason that carnival games are irresistible, "Eyeing the Flash" is equally hard to put down: there's always a chance that someone might win and you want to be there to see it happen, even though you know it probably won't. The behind-the-scenes peeks at a small fly-by-night carnival are fascinating, and, although I don't think this book was written as a warning, I got the impression that if you gained skepticism about midway games, author Fenton wouldn't mind. I liked the tone of this book, and I appreciated that Fenton didn't offer any maudlin apologies for scamming so many people all those summers ago.

Step right up, pick a duck, bust the balloon, and read this book. "Eyeing the Flash" is more fun than a stuffed teddy any day.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Gregg Underheim is the right choice as our next Superintendent of Public Instruction. Why is he the right choice? Because we not only need someone who understands the problems we face here in Wisconsin, but someone who has a solution. Let me take a moment here to show you a few reasons why he is the best choice.

First, he has proposed a W3 program (What Works in Wisconsin). Under that program the Department of Public Instruction would visit the successful high performing/low spending districts and take their success all over the state.

Second, he supports changing the way we buy insurance for teachers, we could save significant more money through a more competitive bidding process.

Third, he would allow school districts more freedom, by granting them waivers, when possible, to promote efficiency and save costs.

Fourth, Mr. Underheim has seen the positive affects of computer technology used in every other sector of our economy and knows it can be used effectively in education as well.

Fifth, he supports more math and science opportunities for students. Right now in this country, our graduate programs in engineering, math, and sciences are filled with gifted foreign students. But when the economy of those students' countries improve, many may decide to go home, leaving us with a shortage of people in those fields. The students here who have the interest and the aptitude should be given more of an opportunity to pursue those fields, and Mr. Underheim will make the changes needed to do so.

Please join me in voting for Gregg Underheim as Superintendent of Public Instruction on Feb. 15.

Sincerely,
 Meghan Johnson

Town of Auburn Residents -

My opponents state their views on the Chairman job.

Bud says that he will add business sense to the town board by adding two additional supervisors. In these days of high taxes, adding two positions would raise the budget $12,000 to $15,000 per year.

Joe Minz wants to retain the rural atmosphere for everybody else, but he built his business directly in some lowlands right at the entrance to the beautiful Kettle Moraine State Forest.

The Smart Growth Plan, developed for the Town of Auburn, states that new development should go next to existing and that is what has happened. Seventy-two percent want no expansion of industrial and commercial development. Smart Growth also states a need for 280 to 620 acres for lots by 2020 on page 35. Nowhere does it call for a moratorium.

Joe Minz attended all of the Smart Growth meetings as well and did not complain then.

Population projections made by Fond du Lac County show 2373 for 2005 and right now we are at 2250, so we're actually behind projection, see page 54 of land plan.

To the Editor,

Thank you to everyone who donated money towards my calf fund to replace my show cow that died in our barn fire and showbox. I was very surprised when I was presented with a savings account with money in it to buy another Holstein in December from my Aunt Ellen.

I was very overwhelmed by all the donations given, letters, cards and all the support I received. It has been very difficult for me losing my precious cow "Chelsa" in our fire, but has been very uplifting with all of your support. I plan to attend some auctions soon with my family and Aunt Ellen to pick out another show animal for me to show at our fair.

I know Chelsa is gone forever and is now in heaven, but I hope to find another Holstein just like her. Thanks to all of your generous support, I will be able to replace Chelsa hopefully soon.

Thank you again for putting a smile back on my face and making me realize that there are a lot of caring people who care for my family and me. Hope to see you all at the fair.

BUSINESS NEWS

Kewaskum.org selected as best design in website competition

Recently the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce was notified that the www.kewaskum.org website was recognized with Best Design Award for their website. Internet Commerce Services (ICSERV) of Rexburg, Idaho, conducted a nation-wide website contest searching for great website designs. Of the thousands of possible website submissions, kewaskum.org was voted - Best Design for its use of colors, images and design elements.

A quote from ICSERV

Director of Marketing, Kip Niels stated, "The websites in this category have designs that need to be recognized. The websites utilize colors and images in an effective manner. Attention is drawn to important areas by the use of design elements."

In May 2004, Blink Internet Consulting was contacted to re-design the website, making it more appealing and user friendly for businesses, residents and visitors.

As a result of this re-design, www.kewaskum.org now offers a more attractive, user friendly site, with easy access to area businesses and their websites. Information about the community, organizations and local events can be found on the site, as well as links to members as much as it can for their membership dues. To find out more about the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, visit their award winning website at www.kewaskum.org, join them at their Annual Banquet on February 16th by reservation or call 262-626-3336.

Grant request for Ice Age Trail expansion

The Cedar Lakes Conservation Foundation has requested state Stewardship Program and federal Land and Water Conservation Fund a grant assistance for the acquisition of more than 90 acres of land to expand the Ice Age National Scenic Trail in Washington County. If awarded, the Department of Natural Resources will administer these grants.

The property is located in the Town of Polk and is currently owned by Norman Henzelmann. Approximately 80% of the property lies within the Ice Age Trail corridor for Washington County, designated by the National Park Service, and will provide an important connection to the Ice Age Trail north of County Highway AA. The property includes about 11 acres of wetlands, 19.5 acres of woodlands, agricultural lands, kames, ravines and glaciated features. Approximately 27 acres of the property is designated primary environmental corridor and the property also contains a three-acre isolated natural area. Following the acquisition, title to the property will be transferred to the Department.

This type of project typically does not have the potential to cause significant adverse environmental impacts; therefore, the Department has made a preliminary determination that an environmental analysis will not be required for this project.

Information regarding the Department's grant determination can be reviewed at the DNR Southeast Region Headquarters. Contact Tom Blotz at 414-263-8610 or Dan Kaemmerer at 414-263-8704.

NOTICE OF SPRING PRIMARY AND SAMPLE BALLOT FEBRUARY 15, 2005

OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a spring primary election to be held in Washington County, on February 15, 2005, at which the officers named below shall be nominated. The names of the candidates for each office, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office, each in its proper column, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS:

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth or machine and cast his or her ballot except that an elector who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the elector's minor child or minor ward. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

At the spring primary election, where lever machines are used, the elector shall depress the lever or button at the right of the name of the candidate for whom he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person, whose name does not appear on the ballot, the elector shall write in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided for a write-in vote.

Where marksense voting is used, the elector shall fill in the oval next to the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office for whom he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the elector shall write in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided, and fill in the oval on the write-in line.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If an elector spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initialed by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth or machine. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in casting his or her vote may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official marksense ballot is marked, it shall be inserted in the security sleeve (if one is provided) so the marks do not show. After casting his or her vote, the elector shall leave the booth, insert the ballot in the voting device and discard the sleeve, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit. The elector shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing, or understanding English, or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the elector's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the elector.

The following is a sample of the official ballots:

BRENDA J. JASZEWSKI, WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK

OFFICIAL PRIMARY BALLOT FOR NONPARTISAN OFFICE

NOTICE TO ELECTORS: THIS BALLOT MAY BE INVALID UNLESS INITIALED BY 2 ELECTION INSPECTORS. IF CAST AS AN ABSENTEE BALLOT, THE BALLOT MUST BEAR THE INITIALS OF THE MUNICIPAL CLERK OR DEPUTY CLERK. IMPORTANT: USE A #2 PENCIL OR THE MARKING PEN PROVIDED. DO NOT USE RED INK.
To vote for the candidate of your choice, completely darken the oval to the LEFT of the candidate's name, like this . To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, write the person's name on the line provided and darken the oval.

The following is a list of the Kettle Moraine State Forest January programs. The programs are held at the Ice Age Visitor Center, Mauthe Lake Recreation Area, Long Lake Recreation Area or other spots in the forest. There are programs for all interests and age levels. All the programs are free but some forest locations require a State Park System Vehicle Admission sticker.

For more information about the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit or the public programs, please contact the forest staff at the following locations:

Department of Natural Resources, Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit, N1765 Hwy. G, Campbellsport, WI 53010, 262-626-2116 or Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center, located off of Hwy. 67, half mile west of Dundee, 920-533-8322.

An Evening with Nature Wisconsin Timber Wolves, Thursday, Feb. 10, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m., Ice Age Visitor Center.

Presenter: Mary Nortman, Timber Wolf Alliance.

Wisconsin has been a historic home for timber wolves. Learn how the wolves are recovering after being extirpated and what the next steps in their management will involve. Ms. Nortman will also cover the life history of these amazing animals. This program is most appropriate for adults and youth over 10 years old.

Tracking - Stories in the Snow Family Program, Saturday, Feb. 12, 9:30 - 11:00 a.m. Ice Age Visitor Center.

Put on your detective caps to figure out what stories the animals left behind in the snow. On snowshoes we will explore the grasslands and forests for tracks and other signs of winter animals. If there is no snow, we will hike the trail. This program is best for families with children over eight years old.

To register call the Ice Age Visitor Center at 920-533-8322 by Feb. 10.

Scampering Squirrels Storytime, Friday, Feb. 18, 9:30 - 10:30 a.m. Ice Age Visitor Center.

Squirrels of all kinds scamper their ways through our forests and backyards. Learn how these energetic creatures are adapted to life in the trees. This hour of nature fun awaits three and six years olds with accompanying adults.

Back to Waubay

Hello Friends,
The biggest gear related trip, both in bulk and weight, is my annual expedition to Waubay Lake in South Dakota. This is the fifth winter in a row that I have made the trek to a lake known for its perch, walleye, and northern pike fishing.

Thursday, January 27
High 25, Low 7
Chuck Rieb, from Mellen, and his 12-year-old son Luke, my stepson Travis, my golden retriever Ice, and I made up this year's gang. The Riebs were neighbors and good friends of mine when I lived near Mellen.

We reached Greenville, South Dakota today at 10 a.m., and we were on the ice by 11 a.m. The first thing we did was put out a dozen tip ups rigged for perch and northern pike. The spot we fish is productive for no more than an acre, and my goal before setting up our 8x24 foot shack was to try and make sure we were on top of the right spot.

Fatigue from a long night behind the wheel was a factor for both Chuck and I. Strong south winds would make constructing our cabin on the ice a challenge. We didn't get the roof on until it was nearly dark, at which time the winds actually picked up.

Last year I came here with my stepson Joey and another friend. Before all the tip ups were actually set during last year's trip, one of Joey's went off, and he iced a 20-pound northern. Today we had our first action at noon, and it was on one of my tip ups baited with an eight-inch sucker. There was no doubt that I had a fish on by the speed that the line peeled off the spool.

When I set the hook, I could tell I had a good fish on because every time I would get the fish within 10 feet of the hole, it would peel off another 50 feet of line.

When all was said and done, I iced a 13-pound northern for our first fish of the trip, and the Rieb boys had a good look at why I love Waubay Lake.

Friday, January 28
High 27, Low 22
Chuck and Luke witnessed a big South Dakota blow today. Yesterday's winds increased to a sustained 25 miler per hour, with gusts up to 40.

We were up with the sun, and Luke immediately had a flag on one of his tip ups that was rigged with an eight-inch sucker. It would be a while before I forgot the look on Luke's and Chuck's faces when they came back to the shack with Luke's seven-pound walleye.

Many of the fish I catch in Waubay have a lot of girth because of all of the healthy fresh water shrimp they eat. Luke's walleye was no exception.

Our biggest goal on this trip was to find feeding perch and catching a couple of big pig northern pike. Today's wind made exploring on the ice tough, and when we did explore, the perch action was non-existent.

Cabin time was at a premium. Dice and cards were played, we read books and yesterday's paper, and I took the opportunity to work on my taxes. Around midday, Chuck had a flag. By the time he reached it, every bit of the heavy-duty ice fishing line on it was stripped off and broke at the spool. My guess was that Chuck had one of those big pigs that was looking to steal everything he could.

The early evening bite was virtually non-existent. But once we hit the shack and started jigging Buck Shot jigging spoons and fishing with a bare hook laced with a fat-head, the walleye action was very steady.

The walleye we caught were only 13-16 inches, but with a size minimum of 14 inches, we easily made a meal. I filleted and fried the fish right after we caught them.

Since it was Friday night, we had a bit of a shindig. We laughed a lot and talked about the big gator down below dragging a spool of line, and we had great hopes for the next three days of fishing. I could go without catching another fish on this trip and consider it a success. I guess you could say I am addicted to the ice!

Talk to you soon!

EWSC reduces price in move to Manitowoc; adds new division

Less than one month after accepting a contract from the Manitowoc Expo to move the Eastern Wisconsin Stock Cars 45 year old race program to the Manitowoc track, the EWSC Board of Directors voted to reduce the grandstand admission prices for the 2005 season.

In 2004, an adult admission ticket for the 100+ car Saturday night program cost $9.00. For this coming season, the Board reduced this price to $7.00. "With the growing number of race programs and some great opportunities for the Club at Manitowoc, we felt it was right to lower the admission prices for the fans," stated EWSC Board members.

"With the lower prices for adults and student tickets and the EWSC Junior Fan Club for younger fans, EWSC looks forward to families being able to afford a great night of racing in Manitowoc." Kids 12 and younger can join the EWSC Junior Fan Club for the low price of $10 for the season and they receive many Club benefits such as free admission to ALL EWSC race programs.

In another Board decision, Eastern Wisconsin Stock Cars has reformatted the All-American Mighty 4's race program by adding heat races and a nightly payoff for the drivers. This division, started at EWSC in 2001 as a true entry-level division, has seen tremendous growth over the last four seasons. "We felt by adding more track time and pay to the division, this division would continue to grow and become a springboard for new drivers to race with the EWSC Club," reasoned the EWSC Board.

Responding to a growing demand from local racers, EWSC also has added a new entry-level division to its

Saturday night format. The new division will be titled the "Eastern 8's" and will be based around cars driven in local Challenge and Hobby Stock divisions.

As EWSC works to finalize the 2005 schedule, the Manitowoc Expo fair board and the Club have agreed to add Wednesday, August 24th to the race schedule to run during the Manitowoc County Fair. For more details about the tentative 2005 EWSC race schedule, watch for updates on the Club's website at www.ewsc.com.

To begin the 2005 Inaugural EWSC season at the Manitowoc County Expo, EWSC will host a "kick-off" event on Saturday, April 30th. Starting the day will be an Open Practice for racers to test their cars. Grandstands will be open for free to any fans who wish to get a sneak peek at the new race program at the Expo. Throughout the day, the Club will host a Car Show and Brat Fry behind the grandstands. Later in the afternoon and into the night, a band and DJ will be playing. The EWSC Season Opener is scheduled for the following Saturday night, May 7th.

For more information, Eastern Wisconsin Stock Cars hosts a monthly membership meeting on the second Monday of every month at 8 pm at the S & R Bar and Restaurant just east of Plymouth on Hwy C. All interested parties are invited to attend. The next EWSC Membership meeting will be Monday, February 14th. 2005 Rulebooks, brat fry tickets, memberships, season passes, tentative schedules and car number sign-up will be available at this meeting.

Adopt-a-Bucket for Maple Sugarin' at Riveredge

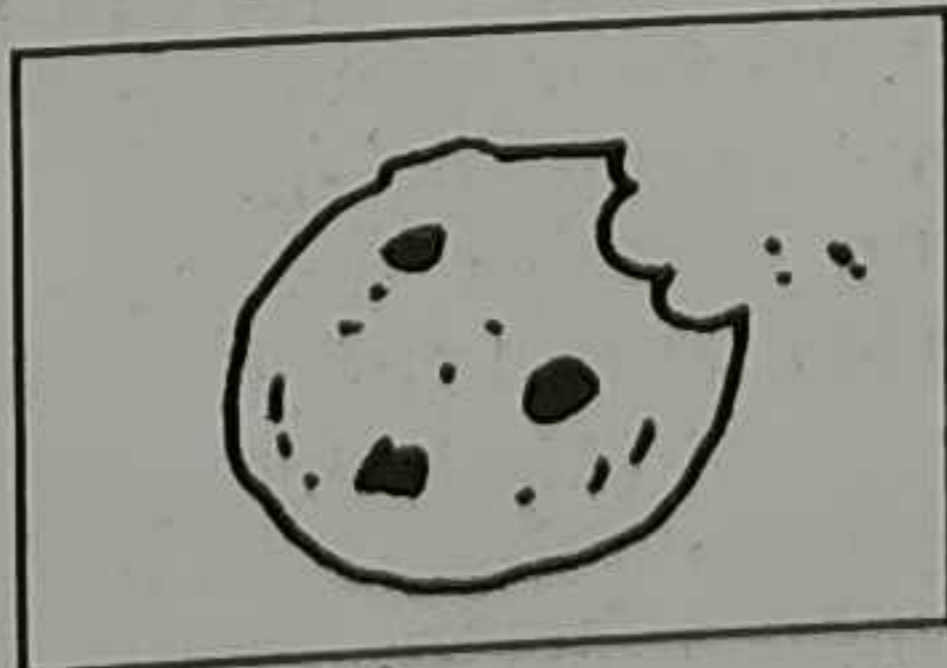

Call Riveredge Nature Center and reserve a plain sap bucket, filled with Riveredge's own pancake mix and maple syrup and give it to a special person - friend, spouse, child, grandparent - to decorate. Pick up the bucket, and then return the decorated bucket to Riveredge on Saturday, March 12, to be hung on a special maple tree to collect sap, which will be used to make pure maple syrup at the Sugar Inn at the Center. Participants may decorate with paints, markers, ribbons, bows, lace or whatever - the more colorful the better! Think of all the fun you'll have, bonding over glue and paints!

The cost to give that special someone a whole bucket of valentine wishes (or just good wishes) is $20 for Riveredge members and $25 for non-members. Return the bucket to Riveredge between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on March 12, have a picture taken, observe a tapping of a tree, and hang the bucket. You will have endowed the woods with a colorful decoration and your tree will thank you! Offense fizzles; KHS boys suffer huge loss

By JUDY HARLOW
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Just when it appeared to have turned the corner toward getting a win in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, the Kewaskum High boys basketball team hit a low point last Friday night when it lost a 60-30 decision to Sheboygan Falls.

The Indians had scored 50 points in a home loss to an upstart New Holstein team on Tuesday, then three days later, they fell 20 points short of that total in a game KHS Coach Glenn Eichstedt was figuring they would win.

With the loss, Kewaskum's record in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference stands at 0-10, with four games left in the regular season. Overall, the Indians are 1-15.

"We had a close game with them the first time. It was an opportunity," Eichstedt said about the game, reporting, "We came out kind of flat, fell behind 12-3 and never really recovered."

The Indians scored just eight points in the first half, and Matt Parent, the team's leading scorer, was the only Indian to hit in double figures. The 6-foot-4 forward wound up with 11 points.

Zach Wollner was next high with five points, and the rest struggled, according to Eichstedt, who remarked, "I'm not sure why, but we just didn't have a lot of enthusiasm and energy like you would think we would have for a game like that."

Kewaskum's other two big men, Todd Warnecke and Paul Gaynor, combined to score just six points. Warnecke hit a season-high 18 against the Huskies and appeared to be on his way to helping provide a second consistent double-figure scorer, but in this game, he hit just four points.

"He (Todd) got two quick fouls in the first quarter," Eichstedt said, indicating he has watched the tape of the game and both were "marginal" at best.

So Warnecke sat much of the rest of the first half, and when he picked up a third foul in the third quarter, he went to the bench again,

Now, in retrospect, Eichstedt said, "I should have stayed with him."

Eichstedt had scouted the Falcons a couple times and saw their tendency to want to go inside with the ball, but, "They shot better from the outside than we had seen recently." The Falcons came up with three 3-point goals, and Jake Roelse, who was starting at guard for the first time all season, responded for a game-high 17 points.

Kewaskum is at Kiel on Thursday night (tonight), and Eichstedt said, "Their only win all year was against us," so this is another big game for the Indians.

Sheboygan Falls: 12-14-20-14 - 60; Kewaskum: 2-6-11-11 - 30

Kewaskum: Gaynor 2, Wollner 5, Warnecke 4, Herriges 3, Parrent 11, Cain 2, Knoll 2, Lehnerz 1. 3-point goals — Wollner, Parrent. FTs — 8x11. Fouls — 14.

Sheboygan Falls: Juedes, 9, Mueller 8, Suemnicht 5, Lohr 2, Sterts 5, Wegner 10, Rooker 4, Roelse 17. 3-point goals — Juedes, Welter, Roelse. FTs — 11x14. Fouls — 17.

Falcons use pile of free throws to top KHS girls

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT

The officials nearly wore out their whistles in Friday night's Eastern Wisconsin Conference basketball game between the Kewaskum High girls and Sheboygan Falls, and the host Falcons certainly got the better of the deal.

"We had 30 fouls to their 15," KHS Coach Jeff Gosse said Monday, reporting the Sheboygan Falls (2-9 and 4-12) girls wound up shooting 48 free throws to come away with a 59-45 victory.

With the loss, the Indians fell to 2-8 in the EW and 3-13 overall.

"In the first quarter, we played real slow ... our usual selves," Gosse said, indicating there was a complete turn-about in the second quarter when the Indians scored 20 points against every defense the Falcons threw at them.

"They tried a press (and it didn't work). They tried a 1-3-1 zone, and we ate that up right away," Gosse went on, reporting his Indians not only caught up to the hosts but passed them and took a 24-23 lead into intermission.

It looked real encouraging at that point, but the tenor of the game quickly turned in the third quarter, according to Gosse, who said, "We got into deep foul trouble. They were in the double bonus in the middle of the third quarter."

The Falcons only had three baskets in the second half, including one in the fourth quarter when they went to the line 14 times and only missed once.

Kewaskum also shot well from the free throw line, successfully converting 16 of 18 on the contest for a 90-percent effort.

Sophomore guard Bry Timblin led the Lady Indians in scoring with 11 points, while Lindsay Keller and Paige Thelen both added 10 in what had to be the best balanced scoring all season.

In the rebounding department, "Rachel (Breese) and Lindsay both had eight," Gosse said, adding, "Rachel played really good defense."

The Indians committed just six turnovers in the contest, but unfortunately several came at key times in the last three minutes of the third quarter and the first two minutes of the fourth quarter, and, "It just slipped away on us," the coach said.

"It just didn't go our way. We didn't play badly," Gosse said, reporting on one occasion, one of the Falcons hit a three-pointer, was fouled and made the free throw for a four-point play. "The little things are killing us."

Kristine Raeder poured in a game-high 21 points, while Ashley Lorge added 11 points.

There are just four games remaining in the regular season. Kewaskum was at New Holstein on Tuesday and is at home Friday for Parents Night and Senior Night against Kiel.

Ski Trip to Bayfield

Travel with Riveredge Nature Center to beautiful, historic Bayfield on the shores of Lake Superior from Thursday, February 17 through Sunday, February 20. Besides great skiing and opportunities to explore Bayfield, participants will also enjoy a three-course lunch on Sunday at the famous Rittenhouse Inn. Travel is by motor coach from Brown Deer Park n' Ride in Milwaukee and Hwy. C parking lot in Grafton.

Ski several locations, including Valhalla in Washburn, Mt. Ashwabay in Bayfield and the Andy Larsen farm in Bayfield. Non-skiers will also have the opportunities for side trips. Enjoy a program one evening at the Sigur Olson Institute in Ashland.

The cost for the trip is $379 per person and includes all transportation, motel accommodations (double occupancy at the Winfield Motel in Bayfield on Lake Superior), breakfasts, trail lunches, and three dinners. Trail fees, extra snacks or beverages are not included.

The ski trip promises to be fun, entertaining, active and renewing. Contact Riveredge at 800-287-8098, 262-375-2715 or riveredge@riveredge.us for information on registering for the trip. Also check out the Riveredge website for additional information: www.riveredge.us.

JV team drops two games

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT

A couple of missed bonus free throws were very costly for the Kewaskum High JV basketball team Friday in its game against Sheboygan Falls.

Clinging to a 32-31 lead after Alex Rauch's three-point basket with about 45 seconds remaining, the Indians missed the front end of two one-and-ones, and then the Falcons scored what turned out to be the game-winning lay-up.

With about 2.3 seconds, Kewaskum set up a play to go to John Holt. He got off the shot, but it just missed the mark, thus the Falcons left with a 33-32 victory.

"That was a heart-breaking loss," coach Bob Bannasch said, indicating the Falcons also beat his team by a single point the first time around.

Dan Shea led the Indians with nine points, and John Holt added eight.

The Indians are now 2-8 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference and 5-9 overall.

In their game against New Holstein last Tuesday, the Indian JVs lost 52-39.

John Holt was the top scorer with 12 points and Jeremy Parker added eight.

"We pulled to within five (points) in the fourth quarter," but then his team ran out of gas, Bannasch said.

The freshmen team also came up short, losing 51-40.

Tim Thull scored 11 points to pace the Indians, while T.J. Parker chipped in with seven, according to coach Michael Hendricks.

After good first half, Indians fade

In one of its best first halves of the season, the Kewaskum boys basketball team trailed New Holstein by just one point at half, 25-24. One of the reasons the Indians stayed close was the play of Matt Parrent, who scored eight of his 10 points during that stretch. Above, Parrent turns toward the basket against the defense of Eric Meyer (44). KHS forward Luke Herriges (41) watches the action.

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT

The 9-0 start looked oh so promising, but unfortunately the Kewaskum High boys basketball team was unable to keep up the pace throughout the entire game last Tuesday and came up seven points short in a 57-50 loss to New Holstein.

With the loss, Kewaskum is 0-9 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference and 1-14 overall. New Holstein improved to 5-4 and 8-6.

Watching the game, a fan might have commented the Indians were unable to deal with the press the Huskies threw at them to overcome the early deficit, but that was just a portion of the problem, according to KHS Coach Glenn Eichstedt.

"I don't know if it was as much the press as we haven't been in the lead too much," Eichstedt said afterward. "They (Indians) got a little hyper ... when that happens, things don't run as smooth."

It took New Holstein over four and a half minutes to score its first points, a three-pointer by Colin Schneider, but once the lid was off the basket, the Huskies were able to cut into the lead and finally overtake the hosts (10-9) with a lay up by Schneider at the buzzer.

The game stayed close the entire second quarter, and it looked as if the Indians would be ahead at the break after Matt Parrent connected on a turn around jumper with :06 for a 24-23 advantage. The lead lasted just over five seconds as Scott Flesch's two-pointer dropped through the net as time expired.

Parrent had a strong second quarter, scoring six of his first-half points, and Todd Warnecke chipped in with four as he turned in a determined effort.

Kewaskum's woes began resurfacing early in the third quarter when Jason Hoerth got free for a quick "bunny" which was the start of a 10-2 run by the Huskies.

When the score reached 35-26, Eichstedt had seen enough and called a time out to steady his charges.

The Indians stayed within eight for several minutes before Kyle Stephany's trey put the score at 41-30 with :24 left in the period.

Paul Gaynor drew a foul in the closing seconds, made one of the free throws, and thus the score settled at 41-31 with eight minutes to go.

The Indians needed a score badly, but when Warnecke went to the basket hard on their first possession, he was called for an offensive foul.

No damage done as New Holstein picked up one point on a free throw and Kewaskum answered with a inside bucket by Luke Herriges, followed by a 12-footer by Warnecke and a pair of free throws by Parrent, putting the score at 42-37.

That was as close as the Indians would come, however, as the Huskies, who just recently handed Roncalli its only EW loss of the season, went on a 7-2 run for a more comfortable 51-39 lead.

David Hansmann and Flesch did much of the damage for New Holstein in the fourth quarter, combining for 11 of the Huskies' 16 points.

Warnecke, who scored a game-high and season-high 18 points, finished with a flurry, swishing a pair of three-points in a 20-second span at the end of the game, trimming down New Holstein's 13-point lead to seven.

"In the big picture, you've got to play four quarters," Eichstedt said, pointing to the seven-point third quarter as the contributing factor in the loss. Still, he was quick to add, "It's an inspired performance compared with a couple others recently, but it's still a loss."

Eichstedt lauded the play of Warnecke, saying, "I think some things that have happened recently are helping out ... We need him to be in double figures to help Matt out."

Parrent hit 10 points and Zach Wollner added nine.

The KHS coach also had kind words for Gaynor. "We knew this was a good rebounding team. Paul did a nice job on the boards, and Todd had perhaps his best game."

The game also marked the return of sophomore guard, Casey Scheel, who has been out with a sprained ankle and just received clearance to play Tuesday. He played sparingly but scored four points.

Indians blast New Holstein to claim part of EW mat title

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

The ending was far less climactic than the one at Campbellsport, still the implications of Thursday's Eastern Wisconsin Conference match at New Holstein were huge for the Kewaskum High wrestling team.

Behind the 72-12 win over the Huskies, the Indians claimed a piece of the EW dual meet "pie," which was one of their major goals at the start of the 2003-04 campaign.

"Lots of forfeits," KHS Coach Dennis Aupperle said about the rout, which gave Kewaskum a 6-1 mark in EW competition. "Noah (Olla) was out .. not feeling well, but he will be ready for Saturday (EW Conference Meet at Two Rivers). Dan Shileny wrestled well again."

Scoring pins for the Indians were Mason Smith at 119, Jon Hawig at 125, Tony Kudek, in his first varsity competition this season, at 145, Scott Rhoads at 152, Shileny, who polished off Arnie Lawrence in a mere 16 seconds at 171, and Jacob Turowski at 189.

The Indians finished the season with a dual meet record of 14-2. On Saturday, they will be involved in a Division 2 regional tournament at Horicon. This is the first step toward the State Wrestling Tournament which will be held in Madison on Feb. 24-26.

Wrestling will begin at Horicon at 10 a.m. Other schools in the competition include: Campbellsport, Grafton, Milwaukee Lutheran, Lomira, Mayville and Waupun.

The first- and second-place winners from the regional will advance to sectional competition at Elkhorn on Saturday, Feb. 19. The team capturing the regional team title will advance to the team sectionals on Tuesday, Feb. 15 at East Troy.

Kewaskum 72, New Holstein 12

103 Stephan Kattar won by forfeit; 112 Will Schisel lost by fall to Luke Lisowe, 2:08; 119 Smith pinned Levi Smith, 4:34; 125 Jon Hawig pinned Doug Schmitz, 1:19; 130 Zach Holm won by forfeit; 135 Eric Ogi won by forfeit; 140 Nick Bartley won by forfeit; 145 Kudek pinned Brett Steffen, 1:19; 152 Rhoads pinned Adam Koenigs, 2:36; 160 Justin Eithier lost by fall to Bob Beltezore, 4:29; 171 Shileny pinned Lawrence, :16; 189 Turowski pinned Kellen Grott, 2:22; 215 Jeff Thull won by forfeit; 275 Frank Walscheske won by forfeit.

With a little help, Cougars claim EWC mat crown again

In the 171-pound championship match during Saturday's Eastern Wisconsin Conference finals, it was a rematch of a week ago between Noah Olla of Kewaskum and Campbellsport's Louie Braatz. While Olla (top) didn't get the pin this time, he was in command all the way for a 6-0 victory and his first EW title after finishing second last year.

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

TWO RIVERS — Talk about an exciting finish to a conference wrestling tournament.

With just one match left Saturday, Campbellsport needed outside help to overtake Plymouth, and lo and behold, coach Mark Peterson's prayers were answered in the 275-pound match.

Jake Kattner of Sheboygan Falls first drew even (3-3) with Plymouth's Nathan Ingersoll because of a stalling point, and then he pinned him with 13 seconds remaining.

Neither Peterson nor his top assistant, Dan Heisdorf, who wrestled at Kewaskum High, could hold back their elation. The two men jumped for joy on the edge of the mat after the official signaled the pin for Kattner.

By denying Plymouth points from that match, the Panthers wound up with 165.5, but Campbellsport had the winning total of 168. It was the Cougars' fourth straight title and their fifth in the last six years.

Several minutes later, a second honor came the Cougars' way when Justin Schmidt, the 152-pound champion, was named as the meet's Most Valuable Wrestler.

Kewaskum, which shared the dual meet title with Campbellsport and Plymouth, had a few unexpected setbacks in the tournament and had to settle for third place with 156 points. Three Indians came home with firsts, however, including sophomore Eric Ogi at 135 pounds, junior Nick Bartley at 140 and senior Noah Olla at 171.

Two others, Zach Holm (130) and Scott Rhoads (152), earned berths in the finals where they lost decisions.

"Our lower weights didn't wrestle well. Fifth places were not what we needed," Kewaskum Coach Dennis Aupperle said. "I can't ask much more out of Zach, Eric, Nick, Scott and Noah ... and Jake Turowski, too."

What Aupperle was referring to at the end of the sentence was his 189-pound sophomore standout, Turowski, came within two points of getting to the finals, losing a 3-2 decision to the eventual champion, Marshall Witkowski of Plymouth.

As has been the case much of the year, the majority of Kewaskum's points came from the middle weights. "Our lower weight kids haven't stepped it up, and that hurts," Aupperle said.

Ogi and Bartley, who are 28-6 and 29-3 respectively after the day's activity, were about as dynamic as anyone in the tournament. The two didn't even have to go into the second period for their wins in the finals.

Ogi took down Derek Hafermann of Campbellsport in the first 10 seconds and posted his pin in 1:52.

When it was Bartley's turn against Campbellsport's Kenton Stevens, he used a fireman's carry for a 2-0 lead, then a side cradle to put Stevens on his back and finally to the conventional half nelson for a pin in a quicker 1:35.

Ogi pinned all three of his opponents, starting with Rob Wandrie of Two Rivers (:29) and then Nick Jens of Sheboygan Falls (1:05). Bartley picked up a first-round bye, then pinned Brett Steffen of New Holstein (1:23).

"Eric and Nick did a nice job," Aupperle said.

Olla (23-4) got the job done against Louie Braatz of Campbellsport, shutting him out 6-0 in their third meeting of the season. Braatz won the first match between the two at the On The Waters Classic in Oshkosh, and then Olla returned the favor, pinning Braatz in 5:59 in the dual meet.

In this outing, Olla broke a scoreless tie with a takedown with under 20 seconds to go in the first period. He used a switch to reverse Braatz early in the second and got another takedown in the third.

Olla had a bye in the first round and pinned Aaron Yurk of Sheboygan Falls in the semifinals.

"Noah is an excellent leader. The other kids look up to him," Aupperle said. "It's really great he didn't graduate early."

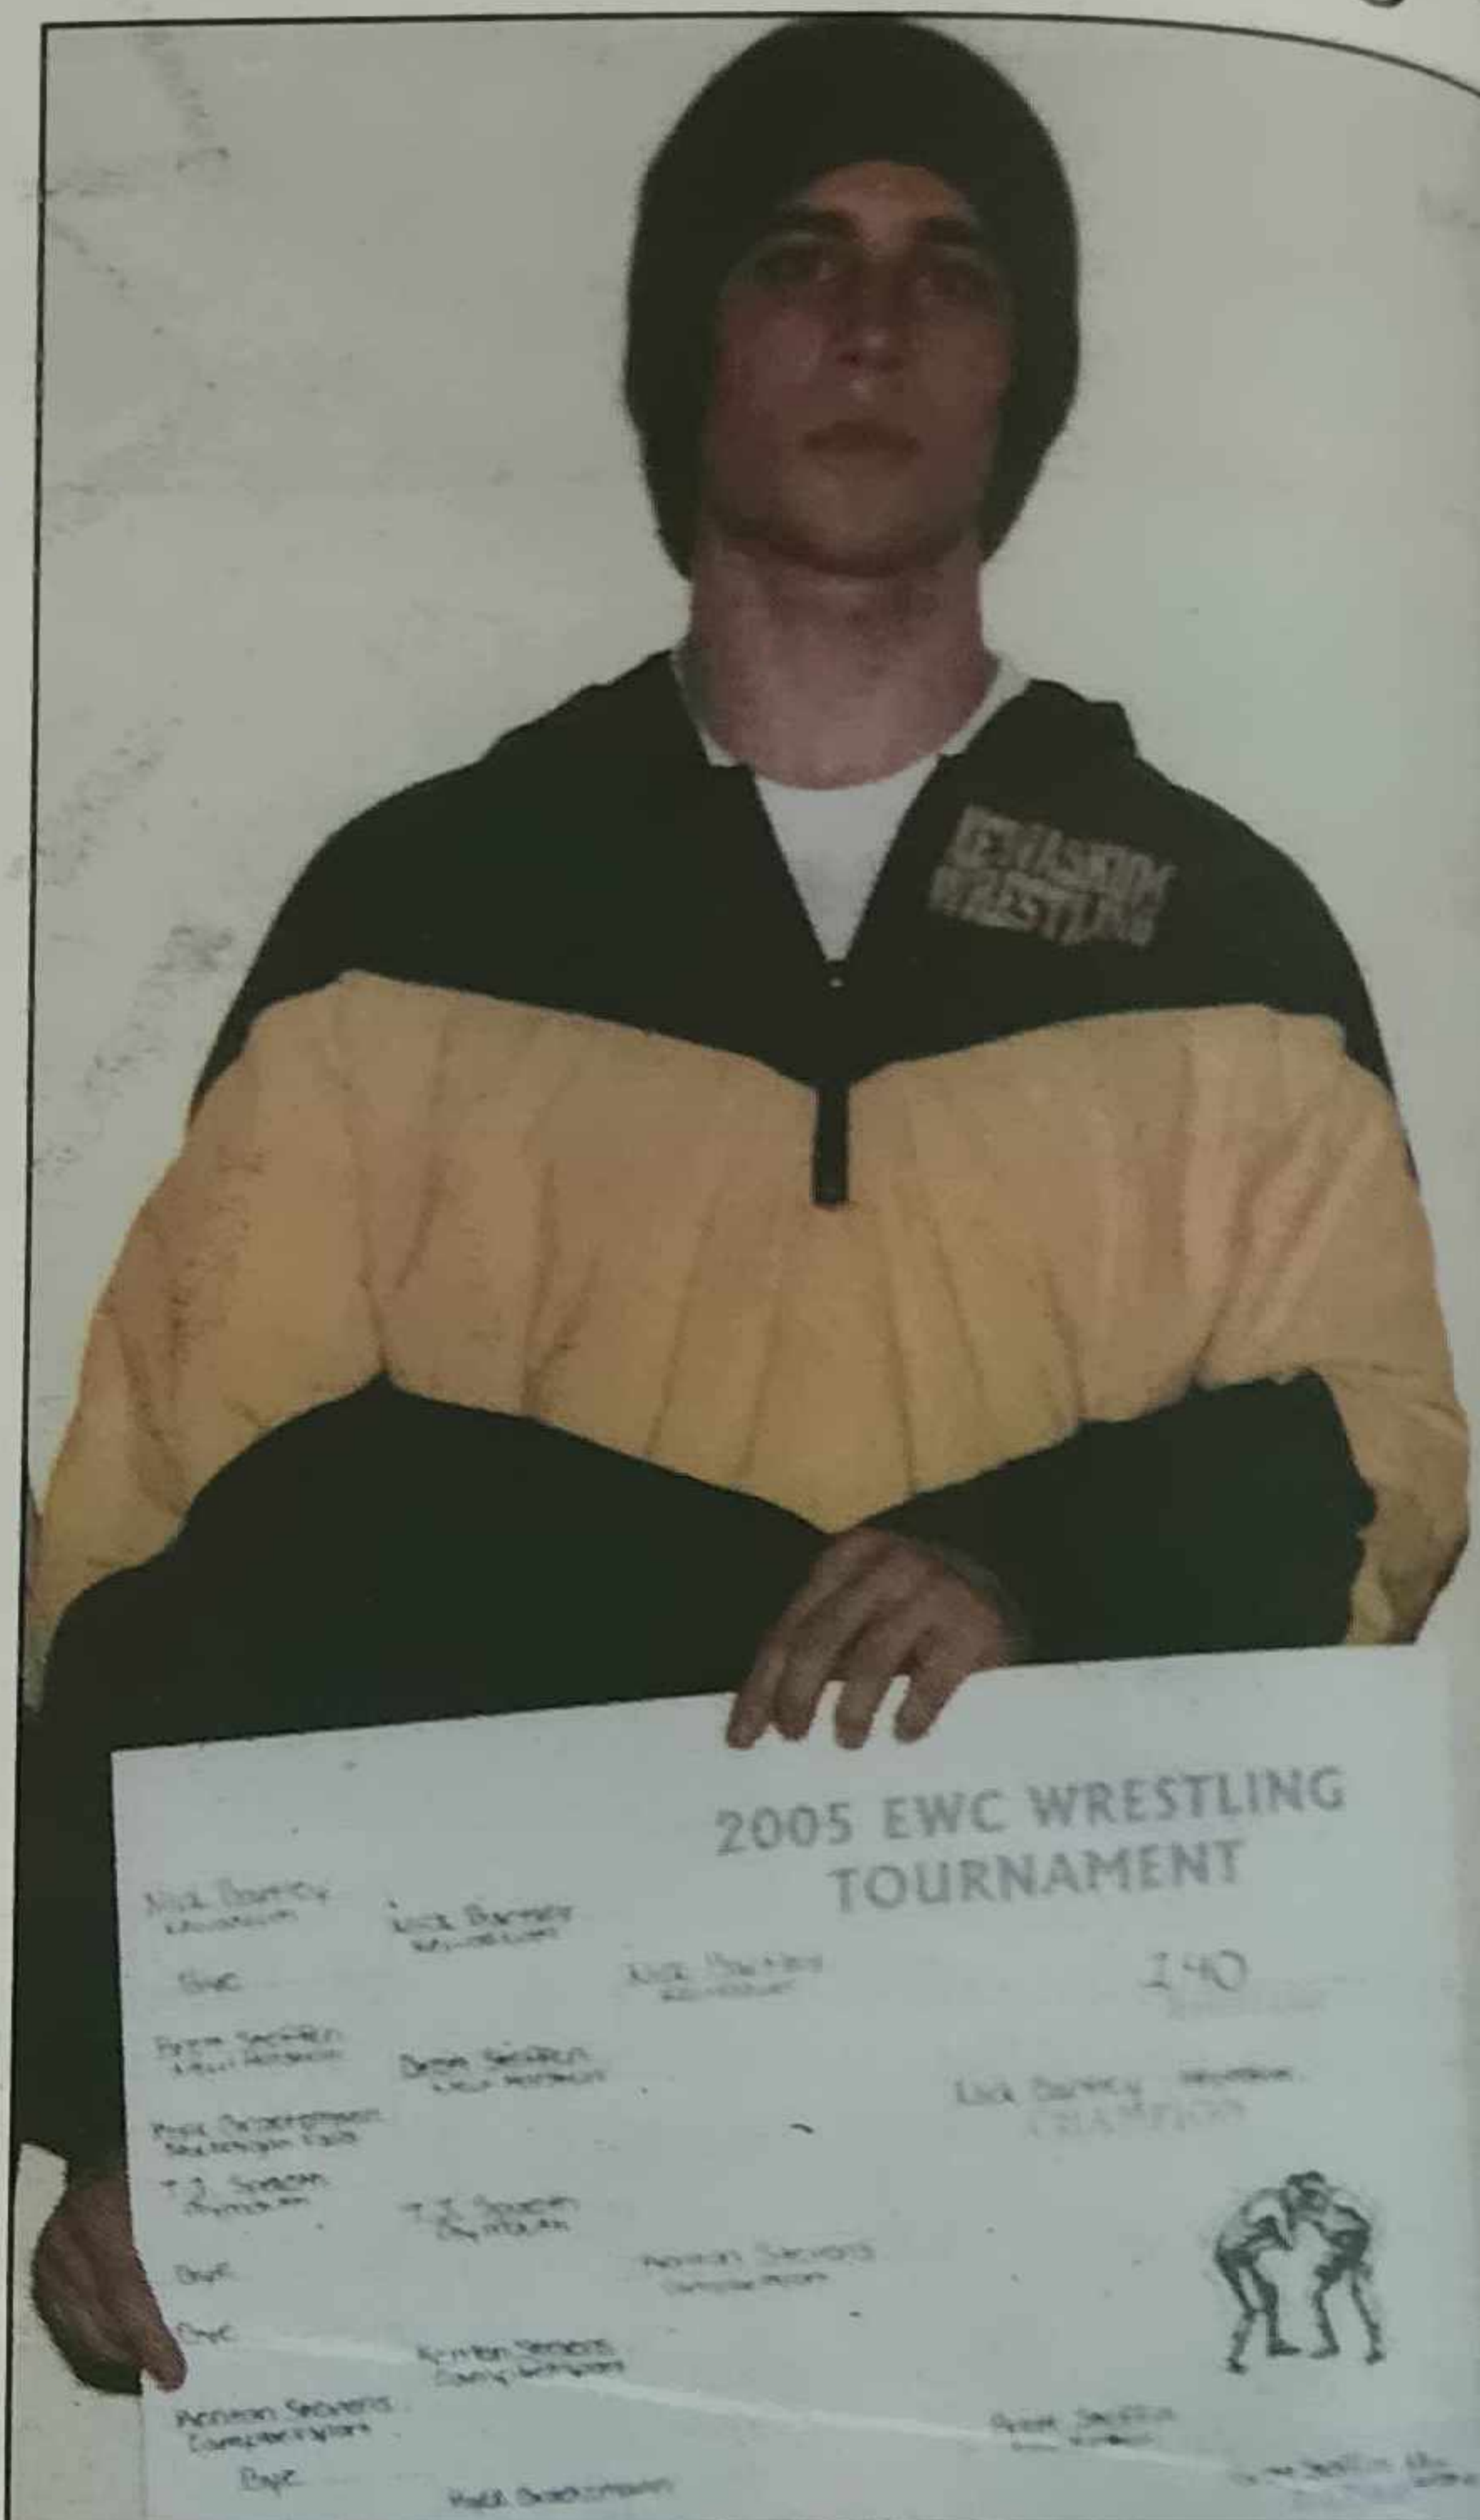

A loss in the finals was a bitter pill for Rhoads (28-3), who was hoping to pick up his second EW title. He lost a tough 5-4 decision to Tony Cresco of Plymouth, who he had beaten in the dual meet.

Cresco took Rhoads down twice and led 5-2 in the third period when his stall tactics became obvious to the referee, who awarded two stalling points to Rhoads. The KHS junior pressured Cresco right down to the final second in an unsuccessful effort to score a takedown.

"The kid Scott had did a good job of staying away from him," Aupperle said.

Holm (26-5) was also unable to defend his title because he ended up in the same weight class as Scott Briggs of Plymouth, who was seeking his fourth EW crown.

Holm got behind early, giving up a five-point move, but continued to battle and wound up scoring a reversal in the 9-2 loss.

There was no question who was the cream of the crop at 140 pounds in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Tournament Saturday in Two Rivers — Nick Bartley of Kewaskum. After receiving a bye in the first round, Bartley pinned his next two foes in a combined time of 3 minutes and 8 seconds.

Statesman photos by Judy Harlow

Holm had sprained an ankle in the middle of the week, according to Aupperle, who said, "He toughed it out and did a nice job." It's hard to wrestle a guy like that.

Holm pinned Paul Kettler of Sheboygan Falls (4:40) in the first round and scored a fall over Jordan Truttschel of Kiel (3:58) in the semis.

Aupperle was pleased with Turowski (23-7), saying, "he had two kids ranked in the state, Ruhl of Kiel and the Plymouth kid." He came back to pin Kellen Grott of new Holstein (5:10) for third place.

The other KHS third came from Jon Olla (13-10) at 160. After losing in the semis, he bounced back to pin Bob Beltezore of New Holstein (3:12) for third.

Taking fourths were: Stephan Kattar (7-14) at 103, Jake Sabel (11-7) at 152, and Jeff Thull (14-10) at 225.

Mason Smith (17-13) and Jon Hawig (13-12) earned points from their fifths at 112 and 125.
