Enthusiasm for new program continues to build

Youth wrestling club has been formed in community

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman

KEWASKUM- The wheels began turning several months ago, and now the Kewaskum Indians Wrestling Club is moving ahead at full speed and will be ready in fall to promote the sport and train young boys and girls to become proficient in it.

"We just kind of met and moved on from there," Dennis Aupperle, the head wrestling coach at Kewaskum High School and one of the originators of the club, said recently. He recalled how Jim Otten and Stan Maertz, two parents in the community who have been active in the West Bend Wrestling Club, approached him about the possibility of having club wrestling in Kewaskum.

The night the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Tournament concluded at KHS, Aupperle was understandably exhausted but Otten and Maertz didn't want to put off making plans for the new club. "Jim Otten said, 'Hey, let's get this going,'" Aupperle recalled about their first meeting together. "They (Otten and Maertz) are very interested and very willing to go the extra miles to make this work."

After several planning sessions, the men and others showing interest went ahead and selected officers for the first year. Joel Dziedzic, a four-time state place winner at KHS who served as a volunteer assistant on the high school team this past year, was voted president of the club, while Dennis was selected as vice president. Jolene Aupperle, Dennis' wife, is secretary, and Wendi Dreher will be the club's treasurer.

"As far as the timing goes, I think it is a good time. We have had a few years here where kids have done very well for themselves, and people see that so I think it can only help,"

-Dennis Aupperle

Otten has taken the role as events manager, according to Aupperle, who said, "It took off real well," to the point businesses and individuals are making donations to help the club get off to a good start. Among those supporting KIWC are PJ Magoo's, LK Heating, Kettle Moraine Appliance, Mid City Motor Sports, Hair on Main, and Dr. Stephen Van Ess.

Bobby Castro, a former standout on the KHS wrestling team and now a computer programmer, has designed a web page for the club. "He lives in Whitefish Bay... he was a lot of help," Aupperle said, indicating practices will begin in fall and be held probably on Mondays and Wednesdays in the KHS auxiliary gym. Coaches will include Aupperle, Dziedzic, who wrestled for UW-Oshkosh and also helped coach at the college, Otten and others who wish to volunteer.

"We will be having a free kickoff clinic the Sunday before deer hunting season," Aupperle said, reporting the current UW-Oshkosh coach, Mike DeRoehn, will direct the clinic.

Officials, board members and interested parents continue to meet periodically, and more specifics will be disclosed as they become available. "As far as the timing goes, I think it is a good time. We have had a few years here where kids have done very well for themselves, and people see that so I think it can only help," Aupperle said. "Everything seems to be heading in the right direction."

Writer's note: One of the first tasks completed by the club officials was to determine a mission statement. It says, "The Kewaskum Indians Wrestling Club is dedicated to promoting the sport of wrestling to area youth through organized club practices. It is our mission to educate interested youth in the basic skills necessary to succeed in the sport of wrestling through a safe and structured practice schedule. Coaches will encourage the wrestlers to reach their highest potential through hard work on the mat and in school while keeping a positive attitude and having good sportsmanship."

Hawig is outstanding KHS FFA member

State FFA Vice President Sheri Nelson congratulates Kewaskum High School senior, Jonathan Hawig as he receives an award for "Outstanding FFA Member". Hawig's parents are Jim and Kathy Hawig of the Town of Wayne. The annual Kewaskum FFA banquet was held on Thursday May 4th. Watch for more highlights from the banquet in The Statesman's special graduation tabloid being printed in June.

Kewaskum man killed in crash

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

WAUPUN- A Kewaskum family is mourning the loss of their son, brother and friend after a tragic crash with a train took the life of the 24-year-old man shortly before midnight Tuesday, May 9, 2006. The community fondly remembers Mike Farchione for his wrestling career while attending Kewaskum High School.

The Dodge County Sheriff's Department received a call from a passing motorist about vehicle parts scattered around US Highway 151 near the Highway 26 rail crossing. Authorities say that Farchione struck one of the 34 cars of a Wisconsin and Southern train when he failed to stop for a signal.

The two northbound lanes of US Highway 151 were closed while a Crash Investigation Team reconstructed the crash. Authorities felt dense fog played a role in the accident. They continue to investigate the crash.

Farchione was Dodge County's fifth traffic death of the year. A complete obituary can be found on page 14.

Town of Scott supervisors extinguish town 'fires'

By Bernadette Mondloch
Statesman Correspondent

TOWN OF SCOTT- A number of challenges faced the Scott Town board at its May meeting. From a rezoning request to denying a request to clean up a gravel pit owned by a town resident.

Kenneth and Margie Strack made a rezoning request for 18.74 acres of their 40 acre parcel on Lone Pine Road. The Stracks would like to sell a portion of the property. The land is currently zoned A-1, and they would like to change that to A-5.

The A-5 zoning would allow a house to be built on the property. The A-1 zoning requires 35 acres for building any structure. It was noted the prospective buyer has plans for a house and small barn for horses.

Strack pleaded his case, noting the number of Town of Scott farmers that are going out of business. He continued saying, the zoning change would allow him to sell that property and the proceeds would help him to update his farm equipment and continue his operation.

Newly elected Supervisor Cheryl Scholz moved to deny Strack's request. She contended that the land may be marginal but the types of soil are farmable. Her motion did not receive a second. A second motion to approve the zoning change won the support of the supervisors. Voting against the rezoning was Scholz and Chairman Steve Jung.

Claims for damages to a John Deere Gator caused by contact with the town's snowplow on December 17, 2005 have not been settled. Acting upon advice of the town's attorney, the town has offered to pay $700 to Russ Kempf who was operating the machinery at the time of the accident.

Damages were assessed at $1,087.19. A Sheboygan County Sheriff's department report indicated that Kempf was 30% at fault, so he asked for a $ 761.03 settlement and refused to accept the town's offer. The board took no further action.

The board reviewed a 1986 agreement for town use and closure of a gravel pit owned by John Schulte. The agreement gave the town permission to extract 5,000 yards of gravel for road work and once completed, to replace the pit with top soil.

The town is claiming that other individuals have continued to remove gravel and at times stored gravel and other material on the site. The board agreed to follow advice of legal counsel and to do nothing at this time except to deny Schulte's request for the town to restore the pit.

The board voted 4-1 with Supervisor Kenneth Willkomm voting no.

The members of the Batavia Fire Department and 1st Responders were questioned about the progress being made on obtaining an ISO rating. The yearly ratings are compiled by Insurance Services Office Inc., which assesses risk factors that could potentially lower or raise insurance costs for homes and businesses.

The town board suggested that if a rating is not obtained, they may not renew the Batavia Fire Department's contract for fire protection. Fire Chief Dennis Schulz said that the department is in the process and should be applying for the rating by late summer.

Another firefighter explained that 170 hours are spent on training and many hours of maintenance on the aging fire equipment. The ISO rating is not being neglected, but there are only so many hours per week to work at the fire department. No further action was taken.

Town Clerk, BJ Richter noted that the town of Scott is seeking an individual to represent the town on the Lakeview Community Library Board. Meetings are held once a month. Anyone interested in this position is to contact Richter at 262-692-9834.

Bids for road maintenance were received from Northeast Asphalt and Scott Construction along with a proposal from Sheboygan County Highway Department. A meeting is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. on May 22 to award the contracts.

A Sanitary Commission meeting scheduled followed the contract awards meeting on May 22nd. Favorable action was taken on a contract for seal coating of the parking lot at the Scott Community Center and area around three town buildings on Boltonville Road.

American Legion Poppy Days May 19-20

Memorial poppy of the American Legion Auxiliary is a visible expression of the gratitude of Americans and the Auxiliary to those who fought to keep "democracy in action." They fought to protect the principles upon which this country was founded. Each Unit supports the program in every way they can.

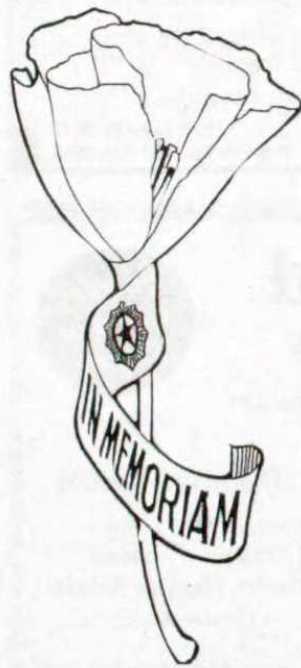

While Poppy Day is once a year, it is a year round program. The funds raised are security in America. It is a reminder for the general public that American men and women have died for their country and deserve to be remembered. By remembering, we help those who served and suffered. All monies collected goes back to veterans and their families.

Can you do less than wear a poppy on Poppy Day this year?

The Poppy Days are Friday, May 19 and Saturday, May 20 in Kewaskum. Look for members of the Robert G. Romaine Post 384 and Auxiliary distributing poppies at various business places in Kewaskum on that weekend.

Wearing a poppy is an expression of the nation's gratitude.

used for the benefit of the Veteran every day, not just one day.

The Poppy is made carefully, and slowly by hand. For many it is physical therapy. For the public, it is a person-to-person reminder that millions have died so that you and I might live in peace and

PERSPECTIVES

Guest Opinion

By Kieth Kriewaldt
Town of Wayne, Supervisor

Recently, the Washington County Board voted to keep the 1/2-penny county sales tax to help offset the cost of county projects such as additions to the courthouse, jail, retirement home, expansion of the county parks, and purchase of development rights (PDRs) to preserve land that will not be taken off the tax rolls.

The tax had a sunset clause to end in 2007. I was adamant about having this tax extension brought forward on a county-wide referendum for voters to have their say, not just the 30 county supervisors. I specifically stated in a past letter to the editor, "If the county has 'projects' they want to do, then tell us up front what the projects are and how much it is going to cost. Then ask us to vote on it. Don't just tax us and then figure out what to do with the extra money, because if you want to believe it or not, it is our money."

After talking with several very knowledgeable supervisors, they convinced me the tax was for the good of the community as a whole. Some supervisors and the county administrator did present me with a list of specific projects and approximate costs the county was going to work on with this money for the next few years. I was also informed the county had the right to tax the Washington County residents the 1/2-penny because the state says they can.

After seeing the entire scheduled projects, the cost of said projects, and the impact they will have on our county citizens, I felt the tax is something I could live with until the identified projects were completed around 2010 and the tax would once again come to a sunset.

Now, after a switch in leadership at the county level, I read that the portion of the tax that is earmarked for the PDRs is in jeopardy. This is not right.

The county supervisors resolved a resolution that Chairman Sackett had an opportunity to vote on when he was a supervisor. Now that he is in the top leadership role, he does not get another crack at the bat because he does not like a specific project.

The county residents were told what projects the tax money was going to be used for. The supervisors told the voters this at county and local meetings along with several newspaper stories so the issue of a possible referendum to continue the tax was dropped.

Community members are now asked to give ten reasons to keep the PDRs and ten reasons to drop it. I am truly disheartened by the sidestepping on this issue by Chairman Sackett. He accepted this position knowing what the money was earmarked for and how it was sold to the voters. If he wants the resolution overturned then he should use the correct process and introduce a new resolution. I would suggest it be to put the 1/2-penny tax increase in front of the voters via a referendum.

I may not give you ten reasons to keep the current plan in place, but I have a few you should think about:

1. The initial resolution passes with specific projects identified.

2. PDRs were a specific project identified as a reason to keep the tax.

3. If the list of projects change, then the issue about the tax should be brought to the voters in a referendum (This would be a courageous move for the new leadership.)

4. Current taxes earmarked for PDRs are truly only seed money to get this program off the ground. With every possible tax dollar spent towards this project, up to $3 can be obtained from other grants. (I wish I could find a return of 3 to 1 on my personal money.)

5. The land put into the PDRs remains on the tax role. It is bought and sold like all other property. It will however stay green, no building! (Given I believe strongly in personal property rights, PDRs are a good way for some of our residents to avoid the temptations of $15,000 an acre by developers and give land owner an alternative to selling off their land.)

If the county supervisors want to go back on their word about PDRs and the list of projects, then go all the way and put the 1/2 -penny sales tax on a referendum so the voters have their say. This way, county leadership can be truly accountable for the list of "projects" because all projects will need prior approval of the voters and one person would not be able to change the "projects" at whim.

Do what you told us you were going to do, pay for additions to the courthouse, jail, retirement home, expansion of the county parks, and initiate purchase of development rights fund, with the 1/2-penny county sales tax or let the taxpayers decide what to do with the money with a county referendum.

Terror of the Holocaust

The Holocaust. A myth, a legend, or the truth. The Holocaust was as real as real can get. Over six million Jews were killed over one man's hatred. Who would be so cruel as to wipe out an entire race? This man would be Adolf Hitler. The Holocaust was the biggest genocide in history, due to him. This was caused just because he hated Homosexuals, Gypsies, and Jews.

Hitler was a sick and demented man. He would have probably killed his parents if he would have got the chance. He was as sick and tormented as the terrorists who attacked the Twin Towers. They attacked the towers in spite of our race and where we live.

We should remember those who were murdered in the Holocaust. We need to remember them. If we don't, it may happen again. We need to take action. This could happen here, in our homeland. This is why we need to take action. You could inform others, start a group to spread the word, or even post articles in a local paper. What will you choose to do?

Farmington 4-H

The Farmington 4-H club held their May meeting on Thursday May 11, 2006 at the Boltonville Fire Station. The meeting was called to order at 6:30 pm and reports were given. The brat fry that the club hosted at Pick n Save was a huge success, even better than last year. Members also participated in the annual 'Jay Road Clean Up' on April 29th. Members cleaned up the road in record time this year thanks to everyone's hard work. Old business included talking about planting flowers at the Fair Park. The flower planting will take place on June 1st at 6 pm The club also talked about building a float for the Boltonville Parade. The club's float will be entered in the Boltonville Rain Days parade, which will be held on Sunday May 28, 2006. New business included discussion about upcoming Fair activities and Fair information was distributed to all members. The next meeting for the Farmington 4-H Club will be held on June 8, 2006 at 6:30 at the Boltonville Fire Station. To join the Farmington 4-H Club, please contact Karen May at 262-692-3243. Members who participated in the annual cleaning up of Jay Road in Fillmore are pictured above, left to right are Eric Spaeth, Colten Fay, Keith Belger, Ryan Sommers, Heather May, Dylan May and Justin Pesch.

Washington County tax information now available on county website

Washington County Treasurer, Janice Gettelman, as part of her commitment to provide the citizens of Washington County efficient and convenient services, is pleased to announce the update of information available on her web page. "Please take a look at your leisure!" Gettelman requested.

Already available on the County's Web Site under Land & Property Information you can go online and look for property values, tax amounts, check to see that your taxes have been paid and the date paid and also see how a property is assessed, such as, residential, agricultural or commercial.

This information is very useful if you are shopping for a new home. For the taxpayer's protection, it would be a good way to track tax payments to make sure that the payments were not lost in the mail and have been applied to the correct parcel.

In addition, users can print a 2006 Lottery Credit Claim Form from the County Treasurer's Department Web Page link, and fill it in and send it to the Washington County Treasurer's office to sign up for the Lottery Credit.

If you built a new house in 2005 and you moved in and it was your primary residence as of January 1, 2006, you need to sign up for the 2006 Lottery Credit. The qualifications are noted on the County Treasurer's Department Web Page. It must be your Primary Residence on January 1 to qualify.

Users can also check to see if you actually received the Lottery Credit on your 2005 tax bill. If you missed it, you can still apply to the Department of Revenue by simply sending the Late Claim Form for 2005 along with a copy of your 2005 Tax Bill. You will receive a check in the mail directly from the Department of Revenue.

Information regarding the Agricultural Use-Value Change Penalty is also found on the County Treasurer's Department Web Page. This information affects the farming community and any land that is assessed agricultural where the owner plans to change the "use" of the land from agricultural to residential, commercial or manufacturing.

There is extensive information on the County Treasurer's Department Web page which explains what this is all about, the change penalty rates per acre, how to estimate what the penalty amount will be, and the frequently asked questions. If you are planning to change the USE of your land, please take a look at this information.

Finally, Washington County has added a link to the Wisconsin County Treasurers Association web site for paying property taxes on line with a credit card or an electronic check payment. The web address is: www.witreasurers.org.

If you own property in Washington County or almost any other County in the State of Wisconsin, you can now pay property taxes from the comfort of your home online or through the phone IVR system.

In almost all the counties you will need to know your parcel number and the amount due. "Hopefully, it will be a little less painful and a lot more convenient to pay property taxes," Gettelman said. There will be a nominal fee for this automated service to be paid by the user of the service.

Please take a look at the Washington County Web Site and in particular the County Treasurer's Department Web Page links. As always, the information is also available by calling the treasurer's office at (262) 335-4324 between 8:00 am and 4:30 PM Monday through Friday.

To access the Washington County Web site type www.co.washington.wi.us.

50th Anniversaries Celebrated

Bernie and Linda Kaehne of Kewaskum recently celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Bernie Kaehne, formerly of Campbellsport, and the former Linda Volm of Kewaskum, were married on May 19, 1956 at St. Matthew's Church in Campbellsport.

The maid of honor at their ceremony was Eileen Volm and the best man was Robert Kaehne. Other attendants included Beatrice Manthei, Delores Kahut, Ruth Arbogash, Norman Arbogash Sr., (deceased), Merlin Volm and Leo Brown. The flower girl was Joyce Weis-Gorman, also deceased.

Bernie is retired from Regal Ware of Kewaskum and Linda retired from Amity in West Bend. Both are members of Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Kewaskum.

Their children include Sharon Burtard of Theresa, Ken Kaehne of West Bend, Nancy Kaehne of Kewaskum, Laurie Martin of Campbellsport, and Gary Kaehne of Allenton. Bernie and Linda also have nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Ruth and Sylvester "Skeeter" McNamara recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with an intimate gathering of immediate family at their home followed by dinner at the Fin 'N Feather Supper Club in Campbellsport.

The former Ruth Burckhardt and Syl "Skeeter" were married on April 28, 1956 at St. Agnes Catholic Church (now known as All Saints) in Milwaukee. Their attendants were the late Patrick McNamara (brother of the groom), the late "Gipper" Schrauth (friend of the groom), the late Carol (Schomer) Nelson (niece of the bride), and Arline (Schomer) Strasser (niece of the bride).

Ruth and Skeeter have two children, Mary (Jim) Wittmann and Thomas (deceased). They have one grandson, Tyler Wittmann.

Joining the celebration on April 29th were Sylvia (the late Patrick) McNamara; Skeeter's sisters Betty Otten and Alice (Glenn) Taylor; their god-daughter Ann (Cort) Plummer; and their surviving attendant, Arline (Tony) Strasser.

Memorial Day speaker announced

CPL Rebecca L. Plimpton

Kewaskum American Legion Post 384 is pleased to announce their featured speaker for their Memorial Day program. Corporal Rebecca L. Plimpton of the US Army.

Plimpton was born on September 25, 1982 in Milwaukee. She enlisted into the Army Reserves on May 18, 2000 as a 17 year-old junior at William Horlick High School, Racine, through the split-option program. She attended basic combat training at Ft. Still, Oklahoma and returned to Horlick to complete her senior year. Upon graduating in 2001, she then attended her Medical Specialist training in Ft. Sam Houston, TX.

Returning to Wisconsin after her medic training, she began attending her drills (one weekend per month) at the 452nd Combat Support Hospital in Milwaukee. In January 2002, she decided to convert to active duty for six years and reclass into a different job, becoming a Dental Specialist. She attended her dental training at Ft. Sam Houston for seven weeks, then reported to her first duty station at Ft. Hood, TX. Her job consisted of sterilizing, preparing, and handling of instruments with a dentist. She also received training with oral surgeons in the operating room, dealing with anything from simple wisdom tooth extractions to reconstructive surgery, and also assisted with endodontist and periodontists. While assisting by day, at night she was attending classes through Central Texas College and studying the Army's regulations and publications to perfection, preparing her for the soldier of the quarter board. After accomplishing soldier of the quarter, she continued to study and advanced to the soldier of the year board, receiving first place for Ft. Hood Dentac, 2003.

Plimpton was then elected by her chain of command to become the unit's BOSS (Better Opportunities for Single Soldiers) representative, arranging fund raisers and functions for the unit and Ft. Hood's single soldiers, which included trips to Cancun, and skiing trips to Colorado. She also volunteered in the 2004 Special Olympics sponsored by Ft. Hood, assisting the athletes with the competition. While managing these duties and responsibilities, her chain of command then elected her to become the barracks NCO, placing her in charge of all barracks personnel.

In April 2005, CPL Plimpton volunteered to become an Army Recruiter in West Bend. She attended the Army's Recruiter Course at Ft. Jackson, SC. The two-month course was very rigorous and prepared her well for her upcoming tour in West Bend.

CPL Plimpton's awards include an Army Service Ribbon, National Defense Ribbon, Global War on Terrorism Ribbon, Good Conduct Medal, five Army Achievement Medals and an Army Commendation Medal.

CPL Plimpton enjoys golfing, softball, camping and boxing. Her future plans and goals include becoming a radiologist and getting involved in competitive boxing.

See next weeks Statesman for more information on the Memorial Day program.

Lakeshore productions announce auditions for Cotton Patch Gospel

Auditions have been announced for "Cotton Patch Gospel," the musical to be presented this summer by Lakeshore Productions, Inc. of Random Lake.

Auditions will be held on Mon., May 22, and Tues., May 23, at the Random Lake High School auditorium. Ages 8 through 10 are invited from 6-7:30 p.m., while adults (ages 11 and above) will audition from 7-10 p.m. Call backs (if needed) are scheduled for Wed., May 24, from 6-8 p.m.

Director Graham Killeen of West Bend, who has been involved in more than 100 productions, says that "Cotton Patch Gospel" offers many interesting parts for youths and adults. A parent is required to accompany anyone auditioning who is between the ages of 8-12. Any potential conflicts with rehearsal dates must be listed on the information form to be filled out on audition night.

There are special parts for actors who can play guitar, banjo, mandolin, violin, string bass, washboard, saw and spoons. "Cotton Patch Gospel" will be presented on Thurs., Aug. 3, and Fri., Aug. 4, at 7:30 p.m.; on Sat., Aug. 5, at 2:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., and on Sun., Aug. 6, at 2:00 p.m.

Kettle Moraine kicks off summer programs

Memorial Day Weekend marks the official start to summer season at the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit. Every weekend from Memorial Day through Labor Day is filled with entertaining and educational nature programs for preschoolers through adults.

All the programs are free, except some events will be held at locations where a Wisconsin State Park System vehicle admission sticker is required.

This fifteen weeks of sensational summer fun begins on Friday, May 26, at 8:30 p.m. with a night hike on the Zillmer Trails (located off of Hwy SS between Hwy G and Hwy 67 near New Prospect). They will be exploring the dark for all kinds of night sounds.

On Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m. mosey on over to the Ice Age Visitor Center (located-off of Hwy 67 half mile west of Dundee) for the Tough-shelled Turtles Exploring Nature Program to learn all the ins and outs of turtles.

On Saturday afternoon from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. at Mauthe Lake (located off of Hwy GGG south of Hwy SS near New Prospect) and on Sunday from 12:00 to 3:00 p.m. at Long Lake (located off of Division Road north of Hwy F near Dundee), drop in at the beach to discover what critters are just as at home in the forest as in the city at our Animals of the Forest and City Drop in at the Beach. You can stop in for a few minutes or stay for an hour.

For the ninth year, Friends of the Kettle Moraine are sponsoring the Summer Evening Events. On Saturday evening at 7:00 p.m., come to the Ice Age Visitor Center as Jackie Scharfberg, forest naturalist, presents the program, "Taste of Nature: Wild Edibles." Jackie will give you tips on where to look for wild edibles and how to harvest and prepare them. There will also be an opportunity to try some wild fare so you can decide which are "good" to eat.

Get out of the house, venture to the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit, and join them for their summer fun nature programs. For further information, directions to forest locations or to request a complete summer schedule, contact the forest staff at the Ice Age Visitor Center.

The staff can be reach at (920) 533-8322. The center is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and on Saturday and Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Those who stretch the truth usually find that it snaps back.

MPTC Tech Knowledge College registration

Registration is now underway for Moraine Park Technical College's annual Tech Knowledge College, Aug. 1-3 at the Fond du Lac campus. Tech Knowledge College is a unique and fun way for 6th - 8th graders to explore different career choices through hands-on, interactive activities.

Cost of the three-day activity is $75 before May 18 and $85 after. Registration deadline is July 12. Registration includes a choice of two classes (8:45 a.m. and noon), a TKC t-shirt and lunch. For students who live outside of the Fond du Lac area, busing is available (included in the registration fee) from Moraine Park's Beaver Dam and West Bend campuses to the Fond du Lac campus daily.

Openings remain in nine of this year's sessions including:

Costa Rica Adventure - Learn basic Spanish and explore Costa Rica through the country's delicious food, lush rainforests and tropical beaches.

Discover Anatomy - Use models, draw, color, play bones bingo and jeopardy, and make clay models to learn how the various organs in your body work and about the bones that make up your skeleton.

Entrepreneur Extraordinary - Develop your own business along with personalized business cards and brochures.

Inter-Continental Auto Techs - Perform vehicle inspections, check under-hood fluids and access computerized service manuals used in automotive repair facilities.

International Millionaire - See if you can handle the thrill of victory or the agony of defeat when handling millions of dollars.

It's All About You - That's Who! - Kids learn how to look and feel great, just by believing in themselves.

Kidz Care - Learn what it takes to be the best babysitter on the block.

National News Anchor - Through fun games and activities, gain self confidence and learn how to get your point across clearly so others will listen.

Wide World of Nursing - Learn to monitor blood pressures, take temperatures, and measure heights, weights and body fat. A visit to a health care clinic is also included.

Additionally this year, attendees will enjoy entertainment by the West Bend Dance Tumbling Troupe, the number-one ranked performance group in the U.S. The troupe is made up of 18 young women, ages 7-16 from Washington County, along with two young men from West Bend's sister city, Pazardjik, Bulgaria. They will present a fully-choreographed, original program of acrobatics, tumbling and dance. They have performed throughout the U.S., Portugal, Sweden and Canada and have received six consecutive U.S. National Gymnastics Championships. For registration information go to www.morainepark.edu/tkc.

For questions contact Jan Logan at 920-924-6381 or 1-800-472-4554, or email at jlogan@morainepark.edu.

FEELING TIRED?

Sleep apnea could be the reason.

"If undiagnosed and untreated, sleep apnea can have serious consequences."

ERIC OLAFSSON, MD
Board Certified in Sleep Medicine

If you or someone you know has difficulty sleeping through the night, you may be suffering from a serious but treatable condition known as sleep apnea. The National Institutes of Health estimates that the disorder affects more than 12 million Americans, especially men.

Learn more about sleep apnea diagnosis and treatment options at a special presentation scheduled for the evening of Thursday, May 25, 2006, at St. Joseph's Hospital. The event is free of charge and open to all. The presentation will be made by sleep experts from SynergyHealth Sleep Center and Eric Olafsson, MD, a board certified specialist in sleep medicine and director of the center. WES student wins new bike

The Little Folks School House recently took an active role in child abuse and neglect prevention. During the month of April, each staff member wore a blue ribbon pin to support the prevention of child abuse. Child abuse training takes place annually at the child care center. Dodie Sargent, administrator of Little Folks, wanted to raise community awareness. She did this through what she knows best - kids! Little Folks sponsored a poster contest which was open to the first, second and third graders of Wayne Elementary School. The theme was "Little Things Count." Each child's poster had to be a visual representation of little things a positive role model has done for them. The winning entry was to receive a new bike and helmet.

On May 3, an assembly was planned at WES. The children laughed and giggled as principal Janet Molebash peddled her way into the gymnasium on the prize bicycle sporting the bike helmet. Dodie Sargent spoke to the children regarding safety and positive role models. She then spoke about the winning poster which was entitled "Fishing With Dad." The bike was awarded to artist and winner, first grader, Nicholas Beine.

The poster campaign was meant to help children understand there are ways they can stay safe and ways to keep families strong. Anyone can play an active role in ending child abuse and neglect. The key is speaking up. Sargent warns, "When you see or suspect child abuse, don't look the other way."

There are things you can do when you see an adult losing patience with a child. You can intervene by talking to the adult, which will direct the attention away from the child. You could divert the attention of a misbehaving child by talking to him or her. If you suspect child abuse or neglect, contact child protective services. If you notice a child is in danger or being physically mistreated, please call 911.

WES third graders learn about never ending nutrients

Third graders from Wayne Elementary School participated in a workshop at Riveredge Nature Center called "Never Ending Nutrients". Students experienced an adventure in the woods, discovering how the natural processes of the Earth recycle and reuse life's essential elements. Students here are being instructed by a Riveredge guide.

KHS Tech Ed Dept. receives grant

Kewaskum High School received some great news recently. Instructor Pat Moerchen says he has received confirmation on acceptance of a grant he applied for to upgrade software at Kewaskum High School's technical education department.

Moerchen's Architecture students currently use a program called Chief Architect 9.5. This software was given to KHS by the company that makes Chief Architect after applying for an educational grant three years ago.

In an email from the company Moerchen was told he will receive one, 24- seat upgrade version of Chief Architect 10, along with the company's Roof Designers content.

The package consists of six Getting Started Guides, six reference manuals, two Tutorial CDs, one, seven CD training video series, five installation sets (including premium content libraries) and a USB network lock for security. Also included is a stand-alone teacher copy with USB hardware.

The total retail value of this upgrade package is $1995.00 per seat for a grand total of $47,880.

This cutting edge technology allows students to create custom building plans and blueprints with a complete materials list. Students can also add details to designs with a complete CAD Software tool set.

The end result is the ability to produce dramatic, photo-realistic 3D renderings and create a virtual walk-thru.

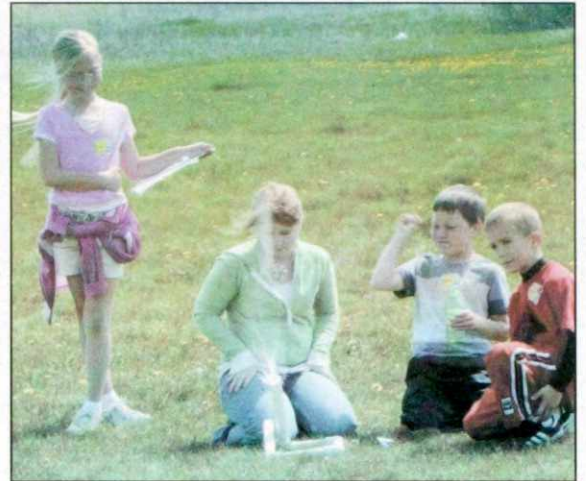

Chief Architect is used in today's architecture field. By giving students this latest software being used by real people in the field, students gets hands on training to take with them in the job market.

OBITUARIES

MICHAEL S. FARCHIONE

Michael S. Farchione, age 24, of the town of Wayne, passed away on Wednesday, May 10, 2006 in Dodge County due to injuries received in a car/train accident.

He was born on December 7, 1981 in Joliet, Illinois, the son of Richard and Patricia (Anderson) Farchione, Sr.

Michael was a graduate of Kewaskum High School in 2000, where he participated in baseball and track for one year and was a member of the football and wrestling teams for four years. He was the year 2000 Wisconsin State Wrestling Champion 189 weight division and was a class representative on the Homecoming and Prom court.

Michael was currently a student at U.W. Oshkosh, where he had been a member of the wrestling team, and he was the junior varsity wrestling coach at Winneconne High School.

He was a member of Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Kewaskum.

Michael touched the lives of many and will be deeply missed by his family and by all who knew him.

Survivors include his parents, Richard, Sr. and Patricia of the town of Wayne; his sister, Shelly Farchione of Madison; his brothers, Richard Farchione, Jr. of Madison and Jason Farchione of the town of Wayne; his paternal grandmother, Dorothy Farchione of Greenfield; his step-grandmother, Mary Anderson of Muskego; two uncles, Clifford (Laurie) Anderson of Barrington, Illinois and Tom (Sue) Farchione of Waterford; two aunts, Terry (Ken) Kimber of Cudahy and Pat (John) Bryson of Pennsylvania; a great-uncle, Harold (Karen) Crotteau of Stanley, other relatives, many friends and his canine companion, Sadie.

Michael was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Joseph Farchione, his maternal grandparents, Olaf and Rita Anderson and his uncle, Roger Farchione.

A Memorial Mass was held at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 13, 2006 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Kewaskum with Father Edwin Kornath officiating. Cremation has taken place.

The family received visitors at the church on Saturday from 11:00 a.m. until the time of services.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the Mike Farchione Memorial Fund at Tri City National Bank are appreciated.

The Miller Funeral Home in Kewaskum is serving the family. Additional information and guest book may be found at www.millermartinfh.com.

He was born on March 26, 1920, in LeRoy, the oldest son of Henry and Bernadette Koch Weinberger.

On June 13, 1945, he married Delores Duncan at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Milwaukee.

Joe was employed by the Civilian Conservation Corps for two years and then by Maysteel Corporation in Mayville for 35 years as an electrician, retiring in 1982. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus Third Degree and St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Surviving are his wife, Delores of Mayville; five sons, Richard (Elaine) of North Fond du Lac, David (Cheri) of Newport News, VA, Jordan of Mayville, Jacob (Judy) of Mayville and Peter (Wendy) of Mayville; four daughters, Clara Weinberger of West Allis, Joan (Jim) Noren of Kewaskum, Beth (Russell) Hartwig of Fox Lake and Laure (Wayne) Hartwig of Horicon; 16 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; one brother, John of West Bend; one sister, Sister Bernadette O.S.C. of Racine; nieces; nephews, other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; four sisters; one brother; and one grandson, Jared Noren.

A Mass of Christian Burial was at 2 p.m. on Friday, May 12, 2006 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Mayville. The Rev. Thomas Biersack officiated.

Interment was at St. Mary's Church Cemetery in Mayville.

Visitation was from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Friday, May 12, 2006 at the church.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to St. Agnes Hospice or St. Mary's Catholic Church in Mayville.

Cottrill Funeral Home, Mayville, served the family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of LESTER EHNERT, who passed away nine years ago, May 14, 1997 and ESTHER EHNERT, three years ago, May 24, 2003:

We said a prayer for you today
And know God must have heard -
We felt the answer in our hearts
Although He spoke no word!
We didn't ask for wealth or fame
(We knew you wouldn't mind)-
We asked Him to send treasures
Of a far more lasting kind!
We asked that He'd be near you
At the start of each new day
To grant you health and blessings
And friends to share your way!
We asked for happiness for you
In all things great and small
But it was for His loving care
We prayed the most of all!

Missed and loved by the family.

Asthma month program features Dr. Daniel Hambrook

Daniel Hambrook, MD, of SynergyHealth Hartford Clinic will provide answers to questions about asthma at the next SynergyHealth Breathe-Free Asthma Education program Thursday, May 18. Dr. Hambrook is board certified in pediatrics and provides complete allergy, asthma, and immunology care for children and adults.

The free program will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at West Bend Clinic, 1700 W. Paradise Drive, West Bend. Participants are asked to register by calling 262-306-7888.

May is National Asthma Month and a good time to learn to better manage asthma symptoms, according to Gail Smith, RN, AE/C, certified asthma educator with SynergyHealth St. Joseph's Hospital. She will be providing information on medications, asthma triggers, and the use of inhalers and other devices.

BreatheFree is open to children and adults newly diagnosed with asthma and those who need help managing their asthma. It is held on the third Thursday of each month in the West Bend Clinic boardroom.

SynergyHealth is a regional health system serving the greater Washington County community. St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend Clinic, and SynergyHealth Foundation are members of SynergyHealth.

Hospice and Abider Volunteers Sought

Cedar Community is seeking volunteers to participate in their hospice and Abiders programs. Hospice volunteers receive eight hours of training and provide residents with companionship by spending time visiting with them, taking them outside on the grounds and to various Cedar Community programs. Hospice volunteers provide emotional and social support in a caring environment. Each hospice volunteer is assigned to one resident and visits with the resident one day a week for as long as they wish.

Cedar Community Abiders also receive training prior to being assigned a resident. Abiders sit with a resident during their last hours. "It is the most rewarding thing I have done in my life," said Mary Ann McKinnon, an Abider volunteer for three years. Abiders are assigned one resident at a time and assist on an on-call basis.

Anyone interested in learning more about these and other volunteer opportunities available at Cedar Community should contact Bonnie Amerling, Cedar Community volunteer coordinator, at 262.306.4218. "Volunteers make a significant impact on the lives of our residents," Amerling said.

Cedar Community is a not-for-profit, church-affiliated leader in providing superior health care, education, rehabilitation and senior housing to over 1,000 residents. Its facilities are located on three campuses in West Bend, Wisconsin. Cedar Community is ranked among the top 100 largest not-for-profit senior housing providers in the nation. For more information, visit their website at: www.cedarcommunity.org.

If the Creek Don't Rise

By Rita Williams

Harcourt $23.00 322 pages

Because. Remember how much you hated that word? You'd ask your parents why you couldn't eat dessert first / go outside in your stocking feet / wear your swimsuit to school and they'd give you that word as an answer.

Usually followed up by the other three words you hated: "I said so."

Every kid pushes limits and questions rules, but they still know they're loved.

Most of them do, anyhow. Author Rita Williams would've settled for knowing she was at least liked, and in her new memoir "If the Creek Don't Rise", you'll meet the reason why she wondered.

Like many four-year-olds, Rita Williams enjoyed sleepovers. Still, no one can remember why Rita was staying with her aunt on the night that carbon monoxide crept into the room of a Denver boarding house and claimed the life of her mother. At age four, Rita was motherless, and Rita's aunt Daisy now had "someone else's child to raise".

Years before, Daisy had married Mr. Anderson, a prosperous Civil War soldier who had once been a slave. When the two were wed, Mr. Anderson owned a ranch in Nebraska and enjoyed a rather genteel life. Over the years and possibly without his knowledge, his young wife sold their assets - an acre here, three acres there - until there was nothing left.

And now Mr. Anderson was gone. Daisy was the last surviving African American widow of a Union soldier.

To say that she was nonsense was to put it mildly. Life wasn't easy for Daisy; having food on the table was a struggle, money was tight, and clothing often came second-hand or from a dumpster. Even so, Daisy took her sister's daughter in and set out to "make something of her".

For many years, Rita Williams wondered if she was loved. Daisy was brutal more than affectionate. Smiles were infrequent; switchings were common; and laughter, nearly non-existent. And then Williams began to notice the sacrifices Daisy made, the lessons paid-for with house-cleaning services, the small awkward gifts. But did Daisy love her niece, or was Rita's presence merely tolerated?

Wherever she is, Daisy has reason to be proud. "If The Creek Don't Rise" is a lushly harsh and brutally beautiful book and author Rita Williams has a voice that makes you feel comfortable, like you're sitting on the sofa next to her.

My only complaint - and this is a big one - is that the ending of the book simply isn't there. It's as if Williams' printer ran out of ink or her fingers ran out of steam. The wrap-up is so abrupt that I kept looking behind the dust jacket to see if somebody hid some pages. While I never expected a "happily ever after" sappy ending, I sure wanted a whole lot more than an unfulfilling two-paragraph finale.

For a first book, this one is mostly stellar. The writing is incredible, the memories are sharp, and the story is second to none. You're going to love "If the Creek Don't Rise"... right up to the second-to-the-last page.

Emergency Physicians Want You To Bike Safely This Summer

For many of us, especially young people, summer means hopping on your bike and going for a ride. Unfortunately for approximately 500,000 people each year, it is a ride that ends in an emergency department.

In fact, more children ages 5 to 14 visit U.S. hospital emergency departments for injuries associated with bicycles than any other sport. The American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP) is urging everyone who rides a bicycle to wear a protective helmet and ride in a safe manner.

"The use of helmets is the single most effective way to reduce head injuries and fatalities resulting from bicycle crashes," said Dr. Rick Blum, President of ACEP. "If everyone who rides a bike this summer would first put on a helmet, there would be far fewer bike riders in emergency departments with serious injuries."

Universal bicycle helmet use by children ages 4 to 15 would prevent between 135 and 155 deaths each year, plus 39,000 and 45,000 head injuries and 18,000 to 55,000 scalp and facial injuries, according to the National SAFE KIDS Campaign. However, there is no federal law requiring children to wear bicycle helmets, and as of February this year, only 20 states and the District of Columbia had helmet laws applying to young bicyclists.

Dr. Blum and ACEP suggest you keep the following safety advice in mind as you head out on your biking adventures this year:

- Make sure your helmet fits properly.
- Obey traffic signs and signals.
- Never ride against the flow of traffic.
- Use proper hand signals.
- Never carry another person on your bike.
- Never ride with headphones. Make sure your bicycle is well-maintained and is the correct size for the rider.

Dr. Blum says the best advice regarding bicycle safety is to use common sense. "Many of the people, of all ages, that I've treated in the emergency department over the years for injuries sustained from a bike crash told me they were doing something they knew wasn't the right thing to do." "And once they are treated in the emergency department, they vow never to do it again."

Scooter and Skateboard Safety

As scooters and skateboards gain popularity, so do the number of injuries related to their use. In 2000, as non-motorized scooters literally took off, the Consumer Product Safety Commission estimated more than 40,000 emergency room visits were due to scooter injuries. The CPSC estimates more than 10,000 emergency room visits were the result of injuries due to motorized scooters in 2003-2004. Two-thirds of those injured using motorized scooters were under 15 years of age. ACEP urges parents to carefully monitor children using scooters and skateboards and to always have your children wear pads protecting their elbows, wrists and knees.

"Kids don't typically ride as fast on scooters and skateboards as they do on bicycles," says Dr. Blum "but falling on unprotected elbows and knees causes a lot of injuries." "One key way to reduce these injuries is to wear pads and ride on smooth surfaces."

ACEP is a national medical specialty society representing emergency medicine with more than 23,000 members. ACEP is committed to advancing emergency care through continuing education, research and public education.

STATE OF WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES PUBLIC NOTICE OF INTENT TO MODIFY A WISCONSIN POLLUTANT DISCHARGE ELIMINATION SYSTEM (WPDES) PERMIT No. WI-0021733-07-1

Permittee: Village of Kewaskum, 204 First St, PO Box 38, Kewaskum, WI 53040

Facility Where Discharge Occurs: Village of Kewaskum, 1000 Fond du Lac Avenue

Receiving Water and Location: Milwaukee River (East / West Branch) in Washington County

Brief Facility Description: Kewaskum operates a 0.75 MGD activated sludge facility.

Basin Engineer/Permit Drafter: Judith Gottlieb, DNR, SER Headquarters, 2300 N. Martin Luther King Dr, Milwaukee, WI 53212, (414) 263-8636, judith.gottlieb@dnr.state.wi.us

Proposed Modifications: The permit modification reestablishes alternate effluent dissolved oxygen (DO) limits, based on a study conducted by the treatment plant personnel. The alternate limits account for the oxygen that is gained in the outfall line, which has a significant elevation drop. May-Oct DO limit is 4.0 mg/L. Nov-April DO limit is 3.0 mg/L. When the DO at the Parshall flume drops below these levels, plant staff are to sample at the East Manhole and at the river outfall. If the DO at the river outfall is 6.0 mg/L, the effluent is in compliance.

The compliance schedules for the SSES, Clear Water Removal and Plant Upgrade are revised to reflect the delay caused by weather. Collection system flow monitoring in 2005 was unsuccessful due to lack of rainfall. The compliance schedules were lengthened by 6 months to 1 year.

The Department has tentatively decided that the above specified WPDES permit should be modified.

Persons wishing to comment on or object to the proposed permit action, or to request a public hearing, may write to the Department of Natural Resources at the permit drafter's address. All comments or suggestions received no later than 30 days after the publication date of this public notice will be considered along with other information on file in making a final decision regarding the permit. Where designated as a reviewable surface water discharge permit, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is allowed up to 90 days to submit comments or objections regarding this permit determination.

A public informational hearing may be held if response to this notice indicates significant public interest pursuant to s. 283.49, Stats., or if a petition requesting a hearing is received from 5 or more persons. Requests for a public informational hearing shall state the following: the name and address of the person(s) requesting the hearing; the interest in the proposed permit of the person(s) requesting the hearing; the reasons for the request; and the issues proposed to be considered at the hearing.

Information on file for this permit action, including the draft permit and fact sheet (if required), may be inspected and copied at the permit drafter/basin engineer's office, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between 9:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Please call the permit drafter/basin engineer for directions to their office location, if necessary. Information on this permit action may also be obtained by calling the permit drafter at (414) 263-8636 or by writing to the Department. Reasonable costs (usually 20 cents per page) will be charged for copies of information in the file other than the public notice and fact sheet. Permit information is also available for on the internet at: <http://www.dnr.state.wi.us/org/water/wm/ww>. Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, reasonable accommodation, including the provision of informational material in an alternative format, will be made to qualified individuals upon request.

Kempf delivers big effort to help Point knock out UW-Whitewater

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Talk about an emotional roller coaster ride!

The UW-Stevens Point baseball team lost a heartbreaking 5-4 decision to top-rated UW-Whitewater in the opening round of the WIAC (Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Association) Baseball Tournament last week, only to come back and win four straight games, including two over Whitewater, to claim the title and advance to the NCAA III tournament.

Travis Kempf, a four-sport standout at Kewaskum High School during his prep days, played a big role in helping the Pointers accomplish this unusual feat.

Kempf, who transferred to Stevens Point last year from the University of Illinois-Chicago, was tagged for the loss in the opening heartbreaking loss to Whitewater when he gave up one hit in the last inning and then was the victim of a couple errors that allowed the Warhawks to escape with the victory.

Kempf had come on in relief with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning.

Kempf got a second chance against the Warhawks, however, and this time it was as a starter. After beating UW-Oskosh in Game 2 of the double-elimination event, all the teams had to wait until Sunday until the rains subsided to see more action.

The Pointers were a different team Sunday. According to the school's web site, they played solid defense and came armed with hot bats that did not cool down no matter who they played. In the three games Sunday, they scored 36 runs on 45 hits of which 21 went for extra bases.

Facing elimination, the Pointers first had to face and beat UW-La Crosse, which they did by a score of 10-9, then coach Pat Bloom called on Kempf to start in the first game against Whitewater.

Kempf went 8 and 1/3 innings in what turned out to be a 14-7 win for the Pointers. Point was up 14-4 when Kempf, possibly tiring, gave up three runs in the bottom of the ninth.

For the game, the 6-foot-6 right-hander struck out two, walked three and gave up seven hits and seven earned runs. With the win, he is 4-2 for the season.

Now the tournament came down to a one-game, winner-take-all series, and the Pointers continued to dominate the defending NCAA champions, winning 12-2.

The Pointers had done it ... win three games in a single day on the Witter Field in Wisconsin Rapids and have earned a return trip to the NCAA III regional, which they will host for the first time in history.

UW-Stevens Point, now 29-15 for the season, took on St. Scholastica Wednesday (May 17) in the opening round. The winner of the game was set to play Ripon at 8 p.m. Wednesday. Other first-round games had second seeded St. Olaf taking on seventh-seeded Dominican and third seeded St. Thomas meeting sixth seeded Coe.

This is UW-Stevens Point's eighth tournament appearance, including their seventh in the past 10 years. The Pointers advanced to the regional finals in its past two appearances in 2005 and 2002.

Lettow limits Falcons to 2 runs; Indians wins twice

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Rain wiped out two of the Kewaskum High fast-pitch games last week, but the Indians did get in their doubleheader against Sheboygan Falls on Tuesday night and what a shot in the arm it was for them to win both games. The final scores were 9-1 and 14-1.

With the two wins, Kewaskum improved to 4-8 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference and 5-10 overall.

Conditions were less than ideal on the Kiwanis Park diamond, but the Indians didn't let that bother them, according to coach Jeff Gosse, who said, "We worked the diamond between innings and we worked the diamond between games ... and am I glad we did. It would have been almost impossible to work in two doubleheaders before the regionals (May 18th)."

April Lettow pitched both games and was credited with the two victories. "She my mudder," Gosse said, explaining the weather conditions dictated he not try Corrin Groth in one of the games because "she was having trouble gripping the ball."

While Gosse didn't have an exact count of the hits Lettow gave up in the two games, he was pretty certain of one very important statistic. "I think she only gave up two walks in each of them," he said. "She did a real nice job."

In Game 1, the Falcons committed nine big errors, which helped the Indians pile up more runs than they really needed.

Tiffany Hedlund did the best at the plate for the home team, going 2x3, while junior second baseman Bekki Heberer came through with one hit.

In game 2, the Indians had seven hits, including three by Courtney Uttech, who went 3x4 and had a pair of RBIs.

Marissa Dehler was another of the KHS offensive stars. She went 2x3 with one RBI, and she had a stolen base. Breann DeLaurier and Groth both had single hits.

Gosse was pretty excited about the way his girls play defense. "You've got to give April credit. She stopped some tough shots up the middle," he said, adding, "Tiffany made a couple of nice plays in the outfield."

Gosse had made some defensive changes for the game, and they all seemed to work out. "Marissa went back to shortstop (from catcher), and we moved Courtney (from short) to third" to solidify the infield, with Heberer staying at second.

Taking turns at catcher for the two games were sophomore Julie Sargent and freshman Shaylah Haire.

Monday's twin bill against Roncalli was postponed by rain. Those two games were rescheduled for Tuesday (May 16), and Gosse said the Indians would be playing the opening round of the Division 2 regionals against Kiel at Kiel this afternoon at 4:30 p.m.

"It's a very winnable game for us," Gosse said, indicating his intentions are to start Groth with Lettow set to see action if his starter has any control problems.

Indians have fine tuneup for EWC track test

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

It seems not to matter what event coach Jerry Gosa puts Garrett Donath in, he does well.

The final triangular meet of the season, held Tuesday, May 9th in Kewaskum, was a perfect example of the senior's versatility. Donath long jumped for the first time, going just two inches under 20 feet (19-10), good enough to finish first in the event on his way to a four-win performance.

Donath also led the field in the 100-meter, hitting the tape in 11 and .75 seconds (11.75), he was first in the 400 in a fine time of 52.16, and he topped the pole vault by clearing 12 feet.

Despite the fine effort, Kewaskum was not able to get past New Holstein, which scored 73.5 points, 8.5 ahead of the Indians (64). Plymouth was third with 47.50.

With Jake Sabel taking second at 19-0, the Indians picked up eight points in the long jump in what had to be Kewaskum's best event for the afternoon.

The only other KHS winner, other than Donath, was senior Luke Herriges, who was the best high jumper of the day with his jump of 5-10. This is about six inches lower than Gosa is hoping Herriges can clear in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Meet (May 16th) and the WIAA Division 2 Regional, which will be hosted by Kewaskum on Monday, May 22nd.

New Holstein managed to win all the sprint relays, the three distance races and one of the hurdle races.

The Indians did pile up quite a few seconds, including: 200, Dan Dymond, 25.37; 800, Bobby Gibson, 2:10.6; 1,600, Gibson, 4:44.50; shot put, Ross Stockhausen, 46-0; discus, Logan Staeger, 136-10; 4x100 relay (Chad Hackbarth, Jake Turowski, Justis Clayton and Sabel), 47.13; 4x200 relay (Hackbarth, Clayton, Dymond and Sabel), 1:37.75; and 4x400 relay (Dymond, Herriges, Gibson, Zach VanWormer), 3:45.88.

Dymond picked up a second in the 200 (25.37) and a third in the high jump (5-4), while Ben Boettcher was clocked in 45.56 in the 300 hurdles for another third place, and he was third in the discus (131-04).

Junior Stephan Kattar added a point with his fourth in the 1,600, finishing the four laps in 4:55.49.

The girls had a good outing, taking first place with 67 points. New Holstein came in second at 59, while Plymouth was last at 53.

Sophomore Kelly Uelmen was a star for the Lady Indians, winning the 100 in 13.17, the 200 in 28.36, and successfully anchoring the 4x200 relay to a win in 1:55.11. Other girls on the finest sprint foursome were Alissa Clapper, Jenny Wicklund and Nichole Kison.

Kison was a major point contributor with her first place in the long jump (15-02) and second in the 400 (66.84) ahead of teammate Kristin Vogt, who was third in 70.48.

Crystal Treptow cleared 8-0 to win the pole vault, and a pair of freshmen, Tonya Janssen and Crystal Lepp went 1-2 in the 800, with respective times of 2:48.11 and 2:49.47.

Plymouth's Nicole Krueger dominated the weights (shot — 37-07.50 and discus 104-06) but KHS girls were right behind her. Erika Brock heaved the steel ball 35-08.25, her best of the season, and young Catherine Stoffel tossed the discus 91-04 for second place.

Sophomore hurdler Liz Potter had a good outing, winning the 300 in 54.09 and placing second in the 100s at 18.70.

Other KHS places included; 4x400 relay (Kison, Amber Struck, Treptow and Vogt), second at 4:48.18; high jump, Jessie Liniewski, second in the high jump, 4-10; Struck, third in the long jump at 14-05; Struck, third in the triple jump, 29-11.50; and Brock, third in the discus, 86-08.

Kewaskum will entertain nine other schools in one of the 16 Division 2 regionals on Monday. The meet will begin at 3:30 p.m. The first four finishers in each event advance to the Whitewater Sectional on May 25th.

Close but no wins for Indian kickers

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Both Kewaskum High soccer games against Roncalli were close this spring, but unfortunately the Indians came out on the short end of the score on both occasions.

Last Monday, the Indians fell 2-0 to the host Lady Jets, and coach John Berst said it wasn't a case of not getting enough shots — the Indians had 12 of them — but not being able to convert on them.

Kewaskum had the first shot of the game, according to Berst, who said Roncalli countered and scored at about two minutes.

From then until the 68:00-mark, the game was fairly even. At that point, the Jets went up 2-0, and while the Indians "pressed," according to Berst, they were unable to get the ball past the Jet goalie.

"Midfield play improved with Danielle Yanke supporting the strikers with some good through passes," Berst said, adding, "Lindsay Krautkramer continued to improve her winning the ball and control of the center midfield area."

Also praised was Katie Gaynor, who thwarted many Roncalli scoring opportunities, the coach said.

 Recently, in what Berst called the most fun they have had all season, the Indians lost a 2-1 decision to Roncalli.

"It was 1-0 at half-time," Berst said, reporting the Jets scored 10 or 15 minutes into the first half and then got an "own goal" later. "Katie Gaynor tried to clear the ball. It hit Katie Schoofs, and the ball ricocheted back into the goal."

Even with the bad break, the Lady Indians did not fold their tents and give up. They battled back and finally scored with 10 to 12 minutes remaining in the contest.

"Lindsey Krautkramer scored a real nice goal on about an 18-yard shot," Berst said, reporting, "It was a high arching shot ... the goalie was able to get her fingertips on it" but it had enough impetus on it to end up in the net.

"I think we had about 10 shots on goal to their six or seven," the coach went on. "Both Lindsey and Danielle Yanke did an awesome job. I thought this was Danielle's best game so far."

Defensively, Gaynor, a sweeper, and Allison Kowalczyk were cited for good play. "Katie played a really good game. She's really getting to feel much better back there," he said, adding Kowalczyk "continues to improve each game. She's really got a nice leg that can win the ball and send it in the right direction."

After two games earlier this week, the Indians host Plymouth this afternoon (Thursday) on the KHS field. Game time is 4:30 p.m.

Pitching will be very strong

A's have some pretty big goals and should reach them

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Fans of the sport don't have to drive all the way to Miller Park to see good baseball.

On Sunday afternoons, Kewaskum Kiwanis Park will be the site of some pretty exciting games this summer. The Kewaskum Athletics have some top-notch pitching and good hitting, which could produce even more excitement than last season.

In 2005, the A's finished second in the SWABA (Southeastern Wisconsin Amateur Baseball Association) Tournament, losing 4-2 in 12 innings, and they also were the runner-up team in the Plymouth Tournament, losing a tough 9-6 decision in 10 innings to the Cedarburg Mercs.

A third close loss in the 20-17 campaign was the one against Rubicon (score of 2-0) in a game to determine the fourth and final spot in the Rock River League playoffs.

All the key players, except for catcher/first baseman Steve Ketter, are back and rarin' to go, according to player/manager Jason Strobel, who said, "We're excited about this season."

Ketter has been picked up by an independent team in Gary,

Indiana, but Strobel is certain Adam Sarauer, newcomer Mark Rady or Jake Panzer will be able to handle the chores behind the plate.

"Our strong point will be pitching," Strobel said, looking at the fact he has Jim Ziegler, Ben Huffman and Kevin Olson in the starting rotation. Ziegler, who is a good fastball pitcher and also works the curve, was the no. 1 pitcher on the UW-Oshkosh team this spring and was sporting a 5-3 mark there going into the WIAC Tournament.

Huffman was on the UW-Oshkosh team for four years, graduating in 2005, and now he wants to join Strobel, Ziegler and the other A's in making a strong bid for titles in the Rock River and Tri-County Nite Leagues.

Olson showed last season he is very capable on the mound, and Strobel said Bobby Ogi will pitch some this season.

At first base, the two leading candidates are Rady and Sarauer. Cory Immel has the inside track on second base because of his defensive skills and good hitting, but young Josh Heisdorf, who was on a couple of the West Bend East teams that went to state and is now playing for Concordia College, will also see plenty of action there.

The shortstop position will be filled by Ty Schill, who played two years at Madison Area Technical College and is now a medical red-shirt at UW-Milwaukee, and Josh Parrent is back at third base.

Schill is from Campbellsport, while Parrent played at Kewaskum High School several years ago.

As far as the outfield is concerned, Jake Spaeth of Slinger, Strobel and Tim Rowe look to be the starters.

Subs include Dustin Doyle of Campbellsport and Keith Heberer of Kewaskum.

"As a team, we hit 17 home runs last year," Strobel said, reporting the leaders in that category were Immel and himself, with five apiece.

The team batting average was an impressive .305, with Ketter and Spaeth the two leaders with their respective marks of .415 and .375. Then came Strobel, Adam Sarauer and Immel, who all hit around .330.

The A's also were represented in the Rock River All Star game by five players, including Ketter, Sarauer, Immel, Ziegler and Strobel.

Kewaskum, off to a 3-0 start, was rained out in a couple of games last week and will entertain Waupun in a RR game at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Indians rev up their engines, close in on Plymouth

BY JUDY HARLOW

It's kind of like a NASCAR auto race on a Sunday afternoon.

The Eastern Wisconsin Conference battle for the golf title started out with Kewaskum taking the early lead but was passed by Plymouth on the second corner. Then the Panthers pulled to a comfortable lead on the backstretch and threatened to lap the Indians.

But wait, thanks to a win at the Fox Hills Nationals Golf Course near Two Rivers last Wednesday, Kewaskum is finding more horsepower and currently stands just two points behind the Panthers, seven points to nine.

The added horsepower came from senior Chad Piwoni and junior Andy McDonald, who shot scores of 36 and 39, respectively, to lead the Indians to a 154 total at Fox Hills, a single stroke in front of Plymouth.

Piwoni, who has been fairly inconsistent this spring, picked a great time to have his best round of the season. The even-par 36 tied for the medal with Kerry Frederich of New Holstein.

McDonald, who was ineligible the first part of the year, came flying through with a 3-over-par 39, and the great scoring continued as senior Jason Jahnke also carded a 39, which was tied for sixth overall, and freshman Ethan Geidel posted a 40.

The 43 by Casey Scheel was the throw-away score.

This was definitely just a two-team battle, as Roncalli finished third with a 162, seven shots behind Plymouth. Taking third at 167 were the host Raiders, followed by Campbellsport, 168; New Holstein, 169; Kiel, 174; and Sheboygan Falls, 179.

"They stepped up huge," KHS Coach Glenn Eichstedt said about Piwoni and McDonald and adding the 154 was the Indians' best total of the season.

This was definitely a turnaround from Monday when the Indians skidded to third in the match held on the back nine at Badger Creek near New Holstein.

Plymouth finished first at 163, and Two Rivers somehow slipped into second with a 164. Kewaskum finished third at 168, followed by Roncalli, 169; Campbellsport, 172; New Holstein, 175; Kiel, 180; and Sheboygan Falls, 181.

What happened on this day, according to Eichstedt, was only two of the Indians were able to crack the top ten. Jahnke bettered his average with a fine 38, which was the low score for the afternoon along with Adam Reich of Two Rivers and Ryan Feldman of Plymouth.

Geidel managed a 41 to finish in a tie for sixth place. Piwoni ballooned to a 47 and did not count.

"Needless to say, this was not the type of scoring the Indians had hoped for," Eichstedt said.

The Indians have redeemed themselves, however, going into the last week of action, which included a dual meet at Kiel (Quit-Quit-Oc) and the 18-hole EW Conference Tournament at The Bull in Sheboygan Falls on Saturday.

Fifths by Parker, Graham highlight tourney effort

The tennis players from Kewaskum High always seem to have difficulty competing against the powerhouse representatives of the larger Division 1 teams, but in this year's meet, the Indians' No. 3 and 4 singles players both won consolation honors.

Coach Dan Ross actually had to do a little shuffling in his lineup because of the absence of Jacob Cochran at No. 2 singles, still Jeremy Parker and Justin Graham responded well to their new spots for the tournament that took place on courts in Hartford and Slinger.

"It obviously made it even more impressive," Ross said of the two who played well and were going up against tougher foes.

Kewaskum scored five points, four coming from Parker and Graham and the other one from the No. 1 doubles team of Travis Bryant and Kyle Stoffel, who were 7-5, 1-6, 6-1 winners over a pair from Milwaukee King.

Parker started out with a 3-6, 1-6 loss to a Germantown player, but he bounced back to defeat Frank Downing of Hartford 6-1, 6-2 in round 2, and then topped Robbie Brunette of West Bend West 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

"I didn't get to see much of Jeremy because of the meet's multiple locations, which means he did a good job figuring things out for himself," Ross said. "All I saw was his last three games of his last match."

About Graham's effort, Ross said he got to watch his two sets and thought his man, who normally plays at No. 3 doubles, was "running out of steam after losing the second set and falling behind 3-5 in the third ... He sucked it up and won the last four games. An excellent comeback."

In the opening round, Graham was overwhelmed by Adam Benjamin, 6-1, 6-0, but he, too, showed good resiliency, coming back with a 6-3, 6-1 win over Eddie Cullen of Milwaukee King and he followed that win with a 6-2, 3-6, 7-5 effort over A. Valdez.

West Bend East easily won the team title. "I think they doubled up on everyone," Ross said. "It wasn't even close."

The Indian netters had two dual meets and an invitational wiped out by rain last week.
