KHS student, 14, alleges sexual assault on school property

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

KEWASKUM- A 14-year-old female who attends Kewaskum High School has told police that she was sexually assaulted by another student on school property. The Kewaskum Police Department has referred a 15-year-old Kewaskum boy to juvenile court authorities with charges pending for second-degree sexual assault.

The 14-year-old victim told authorities that on Monday, March 12, at approximately 3:30 p.m. she and a 15-year-old male student went for a walk along the Milwaukee River in the back of Kewaskum Middle School. The alleged victim told police that the two walked for awhile and then stopped at the end of the stairs near the walkway. She went on to say she and the other student were kissing and the male student told her "he was ready to have sex with her." She reported that she said no many times and he persisted attempting to remove her clothing twice.

The victim then told police she was in "shock" and tried to get up from where they were seated but he pushed her back and removed portions of her clothing. He then attempted to have intercourse with her but stopped and asked for another sexual act. She again refused. She stated the male saw someone approaching and the two left the area in different directions.

After contacting police four days later, on Friday, March 16, the area where the alleged assault is to have taken place was covered by water from the river.

Later that day the male student accused of the assault, was taken to the police department and questioned. He refused questioning and was arrested.

Kewaskum School officials are unable to comment on the situation, but say they are working with authorities.

The Statesman will update this story as more information becomes available.

Meeting of school electors planned

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

KEWASKUM- The Kewaskum Board of Education will hold a special meeting of the electors on April 30 at 7 p.m. in the district's business office. The meeting will have one agenda item, discussion and consideration of salaries for members of the board of education.

The meeting will be held like the district's annual meeting where the electors will vote on the agenda item.

Petitions with 200 signatures were received by the district on Monday, March 26.

The salary of board members is set annually at the district's annual meeting. Board of Education members had their annual salaries taken away at the 2005 annual meeting after electors became angry at the buy-out of the former superintendent of schools.

At the annual meeting held in July of 2006 the electors also voted against providing salaries for board members.

According to district policy, salaries of board members must be set by the electorate at the annual meeting or a special meeting.

FDL Sheriff credits teamwork for drug-homicide arrest

Home from Koser fire razed

The last chapter has been closed on the story of one of Kewaskum's most horrific crime scenes. On Tuesday, March 27 a wrecking crew quickly razed the home that was involved in a murder-suicide which ended in flames in June of 2006. Village officials quickly approved a permit allowing Christine Sheridan to have the structure on Bonnie Lane demolished. The tragic events surrounding the fire saw Sheridan's ex-husband, William Koser, murdering the seven-year-old daughter they shared and then setting the home on fire and killing himself. In January of this year, neighbors in the area complained to village officials, who requested Sheridan appear before the village board and explain the situation. She explained that her insurance company was holding up demolition. Residents stated that the home was a constant reminder of what happened and they wanted to have it removed. One neighbor stated she contemplated selling her home. A vacant lot remained Wednesday morning, March 28.

Pesch to make comeback, township remains unchanged

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

KEWASKUM- A village of Kewaskum trustee who filed papers declaring his non-candidacy has decided to try to keep his seat. This eleventh hour action throws a bit of contention in the assumed uneventful race. Township voters will see zero change as all current incumbents are seeking re-election.

Trustee Andy Pesch filed for non-candidacy in December. Incumbent trustees Derek Peterson and Tom Piwoni were set to run unopposed.

When village officials put out a plea for a write-in candidate 18-year-old Brandon Belger filed a declaration of candidacy papers. This week, Pesch filed a declaration of candidacy. This last minute filing leaves Peterson, Piwoni, Belger and Pesch looking to fill the remaining seats.

Belger says he believes government must live within a budget and be mindful of an increase in property taxes.

Andy Pesch

Brandon Belger

"I am specifically concerned about unneeded sewer treatment mandates from the state of Wisconsin causing any unnecessary fee or tax burden for the residents," he said.

Village President Matt Heiser also runs unopposed.

In the town of Kewaskum voters will see their current officials re-upping. This is the first time however that supervisor Allen Hron and clerk Nancy Boden will be on the ballot. Both were appointed by the town board.

Both municipalities will vote in the county-wide referendum regarding the implementation of a county-funded PDR program and the race for Mid-Municipal Judge. More can be found on both items in this issue. Polls open at both municipalities at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Because of the last minute filing information on the village board candidates information could not be received. Information was received on Belger when he was a new candidate looking to fill Pesch's once vacant seat.

Open enrollment: outgoing students increases again, more than twice incoming

The Kewaskum School District is anticipating losing 175 students through the state's open enrollment policy. They expect to gain 85 students. Last year the district lost 136 students and gained 43.

"While there is an increase in the number of outgoing students, the number of students coming here through open enrollment has almost doubled (from 43 to 85). This is a significant increase and is a trend we hope to build on," stated business manager, Paul Reichert.

Reichert continued, "We also expect that a significant number of the new applicants who want to leave the school district next year will not actually do so. Historically, the percent of the applicants who actually leave the school district is around 60%."

Parents served by the Kewaskum School District needed to make a choice in February if they wanted to place their students in another district. Parents who decide to switch are required to provide their own transportation.

POLICE REPORTS

Disorderly Conduct

On March 9 the school liaison police officer was advised of a fight in the hallway of Kewaskum High School in front of the main office.

Two female students were involved and separated. During questioning the officer learned that the two were text messaging "saying mean things to each other on the way to school." The messages were starting to revolve around their mothers.

Once at school one of the females made a comment to the other, and a fight ensued. Teachers later broke up the fight.

Both received a citation for disorderly conduct. Both of their fathers were also advised of this incident and the citation.

Drug paraphernalia found on KHS student

On March 9 the school liaison police officer received an anonymous note indicating that a student was in possession of drug paraphernalia.

The officer and vice principal made contact with the student. The student admitted to having the items in his backpack.

The items were believed to be marijuana pipes. One was made of plastic approximately one inch long, with a nut glued to the top. The student admitted he used this to smoke marijuana and called it a one-hitter.

A brass fixture, approximately one and a half inches long, was also located. This item was in the process of being transformed into a pipe to be used for smoking marijuana.

The student's locker was searched and nothing was found.

Battery

On March 16 the school liaison police officer received information regarding a fight between two male students.

One student punched another in the mouth area causing injury. The first student stated that as he was walking in the hall he saw the other student arguing with one of his friends.

He then hit the other student in the groin area. That student then yelled at him and then struck him causing him to lose consciousness.

Chairman, clerk being challenged in Wayne Township

By Andrew Kuehl

Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

WAYNE TOWNSHIP- Residents in the town of Wayne have an opportunity to make some changes in their town government. Both the town's chairman and clerk are facing opposition in the Spring Election being held Tuesday, April 3.

Incumbent Leander Herriges has been the chairman of the township for 10 years. Before that he served as a town supervisor for two years. Herriges says that if re-elected, he hopes to rebuild Townline Road and with elector approval, purchase park land. He also reports that he would like to continue working on the county's Smart Growth Plan that has already started. He has also maintained a working relationship with the Washington County Highway Department. He has been active in the Wisconsin Towns Association, attending many meetings and serving as chairman for five years.

Herriges' only opponent is a former town supervisor. Scott Weiss, who served one term as a supervisor. "I want to get the public back involved in local government. Our present board is not interested in the ideas and opinions of the people they serve. I think that preservation of farmland has to be a top priority," said Weiss of his reasons for running. He also contends that he is a supporter of the PDR referendum that is in front of voters next week.

Incumbent Christian Kuehn has been the town's clerk since the retirement of the late Orville Kern. Kuehn states he would like to continue serving the residents in the township. He is presently the chair of one of four subcommittees working with Washington County and 13 other municipalities to develop the Smart Growth Plan for the county and various municipalities.

Kuehn is facing a challenge from Julie Kriewaldt, wife of supervisor Kieth Kriewaldt. She states she would like the opportunity to serve town residents in a professional manner. "I hope to communicate effectively with the town of Wayne residents and others whom the town does business," she remarked.

Supervisors Carl Klemme and Kieth Kriewaldt, along with treasurer Gerald Schulz, run un-opposed. Polls will open at 9 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Residents in Washington County will also be voting on the PDR measure. More information on the referendum and state-wide races can be found in this edition.

Local News IN BRIEF

Heins gives Grundahl another challenge for municipal judge

By Andrew Kuehl

Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

Voters in municipalities served by the Mid-Moraine Municipal Court have a repeat election on Tuesday, April 3. Incumbent Judge John Grundahl is once again being challenged by Germantown attorney Janet Heins, who lost by 53 votes in 2005.

Grundahl has been in the news a lot lately, but not because of his re-election campaign. The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel reported recently that Grundahl was admonished in a letter from the chief judge of Wisconsin's third judicial district. That judge told Grundahl that he was levying fines higher than the law allows. The fines were doled out to five convicted drunk drivers.

That newspaper also reported local officials upset with Grundahl for "being soft on youth." He has had two of eight of his rulings overturned by circuit court judges. Six of those are still in the appeals process.

When replying to a questionnaire sent by The Statesman, Grundahl stated, "With other juvenile offenders I will work with the juvenile and family to hold the juvenile accountable for his or her acts, and in addition, help the juvenile develop competence to live responsibly and productively."

Grundahl further says that if he is elected he would continue to operate the court with fairness, dignity and respect for all who appear.

"I will continue to require juvenile and adult underage alcohol offenders to participate in assessment and impose license suspensions and enhanced penalties to those who choose not to cooperate in the assessments," Grundahl stated.

John A. Grundahl

His opponent, Janet Heins says she wants to use her 16 years of courtroom experience to improve the municipal court and restore the confidence of the voters and village officials who are served by the municipal court process.

"I have been endorsed by most mayors and village presidents. I want to bring real leadership and integrity to this position and stop all the negative publicity on the court," she concluded.

Synergy nurse may plead guilty

WEST BEND- A former SynergyHealth nurse who worked at St. Joseph's Hospital may plead guilty according to her attorney. The plea is dependent upon negotiations with the district attorney's office.

Barbara Hansen, 45, of Random Lake, who faces six felony counts of obtaining a controlled substance by fraud, waived her preliminary hearing that was held on Monday, March 26 in Washington County Court.

Hansen admitted to taking morphine from a drug dispensing machine at the hospital, drinking it and then replacing it with saline solution and putting it back in the machine. She faces a maximum prison term of 36 years and up to $60,000 in fines.

Homicide charges result from Ashford drug death

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

FOND DU LAC- Four individuals have been arrested in regards to the death of a 25-year-old town of Ashford man. The four face charges of first degree reckless homicide and delivery of a schedule I or II narcotic.

Erin K. Gill, 24, of Campbellsport; Veronica A. Volkaitis, 26, of Campbellsport; Michael T. Resop, 35, of Fond du Lac and Candace K. Schraven, 24, of Fond du Lac were all charged in Fond du Lac County Court on Tuesday, March 27. The four are all being charged with homicide under the Len Bias law.

This is believed to be the first time the Len Bias Law has been used in Fond du Lac County. The law allow prosecutors to charge drug dealers who supply drugs to individuals that result in death. Len Bias, a well known college basketball player who died of a drug overdose is the law's namesake.

Erin K. Gill

Resop is accused of owning methodone prescription drugs that ended up killing Richard B. Bubbs Jr. on September 5, 2006. Schraven is alleged to have sold the drugs to the two Campbellsport women.

It is Gill who is accused of sharing methodone pills with Bubbs the evening of his death.

If convicted, the four face up to 55 years each in prison.

In a press conference held on Monday, March 26,

Fond du Lac County Sheriff Mick Finck credited the combined efforts of his department, the Lake Winnebago Metropolitan Enforcement Group, The Fond du Lac Police Department and the Fond du Lac County Medical Examiner's Office for their efforts in the investigation.

As of press time Gill and Resop remained in custody of the Fond du Lac County Jail. A preliminary hearing is scheduled for April 27.

Spring burning planned for four area counties

MILWAUKEE- The Department of Natural Resources is proposing to conduct prescribed burns during April and May on lands in Sheboygan, Washington, Ozaukee and Fond du lac Counties. Prescribed burn sites typically range in size from seven to 80 acres. Depending on weather conditions and other environmental factors, prescribed burns may be conducted on as many as 600 total acres in these four counties.

Prescribed burns are used to increase plant diversity and density on grasslands, to prepare sites for the seeding of warm season grasses, to set back undesirable woody vegetation or invasive species, and to improve waterfowl brood and migration habitat. A primary goal on upland sites is to improve nesting habitat for bird species such as mallards, blue-winged teal, pheasants, bobolinks, dickcissels and grasshopper sparrows.

In Sheboygan County prescribed burns will be conducted on wildlife properties such as the Sheboygan Marsh, Nichols Creek, and Adell Wildlife Areas and other extensive wildlife habitat sites. Numerous prescribed burns will be conducted in the Northern Unit of the Kettle Moraine State Forest in Sheboygan and Fond du Lac Counties. Prescribed burns will also be conducted by department staff on private lands in all of these counties. A prescribed burn will also be conducted at Harrington Beach State Park in Ozaukee County.

This type of project does not have the potential to cause significant adverse environmental impacts and the department has made a preliminary determination that an environmental impact statement will not be required.

Prescribed burn proposals may be reviewed at the DNR-Plymouth Service Center at 1155 Pilgrim Rd, Plymouth, WI. Questions or comments regarding the burns should be directed to Wildlife Management staff at the Plymouth Service Center. Telephone: 920-892-8756.

PDR referendum question faces voters Tuesday

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

WEST BEND- To buy or not to buy? That is the question Washington County residents will answer Tuesday, April 3 regarding a Property Development Rights (PDR) program. In January, the Washington County Board approved a measure to ask county residents if they approve of a county subsidized program.

The program has been a hot topic issue since last year. The last time PDR came up for a vote, supervisors voted against the idea of purchasing development rights from large land owners, mainly farmers.

To fund the program the county could tap into county sales tax revenue, borrowing and possibly from property tax.

The referendum question is set to be worded in this manner: "at least $800,000 per year for 10 years" on the program on the condition that all county spending would be matched dollar-for-dollar with funds from federal, state and private sources.

Under the PDR program a property owner is able to voluntarily sell the right to develop land to the county or a land trust. In exchange, the county or land trust would be given a permanent conservation easement restricting subdivisions and non-farm building construction on the land.

Supervisor Dan Stoffel who represents the town and village of Kewaskum has been an advocate for the program.

Supervisors also agreed to create a land conservation effort by 2008 if approved by referendum voters in April.

Murder on the Grill

Hey guys and dolls! You are invited to a backyard cookout and rock n' roll party. We'll be jivin' to the Top 40 hits of 1959 while the chicken is grillin' on the barbecue. Let us set the mood... The 1950's hula hoops, hot rods, black leather jackets. It was the birth of rock n' roll and backyard cookouts. The setting for this mystery is the suburban home of Tom Dooley in Kansas City, Missouri. Tom, owner of the local car dealership "Honest Tom's," and master of the charcoal grill has invited his neighbors over for a little get together.

A sudden thundershower sends his guests rushing into the house while Tom stays behind to finish cooking the chicken. When the squall ends a short time later, Tom's guests return outdoors to find his lifeless body lying beside the barbecue and the chicken burning to a crisp. It is a case of cold-blooded murder over a hot grill and you may be a suspect!

The Kewaskum Junior Women's Club is hosting its 3rd Annual Murder Mystery Event on Saturday April 21st. The "Murder on the Grill" will be held at the Kewaskum Village Annex Building (across from Miller Furniture on HWY 45). Cocktails will begin at 6:30pm followed by the mystery at 7:00pm. Dinner and a complimentary margarita are included in the $25 adult admission.

This annual fundraising event supports Kewaskum community projects. For more information, please contact Cindy Koester at (920) 533-5769.

Kewaskum Theater seeking donations

Have you marked your calendars yet? Saturday, May 12th is the dinner and auction fundraiser for the Kewaskum Theater. A table for eight can be purchased for $120, that's only $15 per person! This includes a tasty dinner catered by Woody's Steakhouse and an evening of entertainment provided by community performers plus the chance to bid on items in both the silent and live auctions.

Some of the auction items which have already been donated are a week's stay in a Myrtle Beach condo, a sea kayak, Brewer club seat tickets, a horse and carriage ride through the Kettle Moraine, a couple of evergreen trees and hand-crafted items.

Many more donations are needed. Ideas for donations consist of purchased items, gift cards/certificates, services (be creative) or cash that may be used to purchase items.

Dinner tickets may be purchased at Geidel's Piggly Wiggly, The Little Folks School House, Mid America Bank or from Lori Schoofs.

Auction donations may be dropped off at The Little Folks School House on Milan Drive, or call 262-626-8427 to arrange for pick-up.

'Moscow Nights' at UWWC

"Moscow Nights" is being presented at UW-Washington County (UWWC) on Friday evening, April 13 at 7:30pm. The show offers an entertaining glimpse into Old Russia through music, song and dance. Three very talented, world-recognized musicians from Russia will present a lively program that presents an authentic picture of Russian folk traditions and culture. From gently humorous songs, to elaborate lyrical suites and energetic dance numbers, the dynamic program expresses the national character of Russia - outwardly reserved and cool - but brimming with vigor and mischievousness inside. The toe-tapping music is suitable for all ages - with something to appeal to everyone.

Led by Vitaliy Bezrodnov on Bayan Accordion, the group was initially formed under his direction in Kaluga, Russia in the late 1980's where Mr. Bez-rodnov attended Kaluga Music Conservatory. After completing his conservatory studies, he successfully reorganized the group in the United States in 1996. Completing the ensemble are Vladimir Sedykh (balaika) and Dima Busov (contrabass balalaika). The musicians incorporate obscure folk instruments such as percussion "Treshotki" and birch-bark whistles, offering a glimpse of a culture that had almost lost its original identity. The concert, which has the air of a spontaneous impromptu performance, begins at 7:30 pm in the University theatre. Tickets are $13 for adults, $10 for seniors (over 62) and youth (under 18).

To reserve seats, phone UW-WC at (262) 335-5208 during normal business hours (Monday through Friday from 8am to 4:30pm). The campus is located at 400 University Drive (off Hwy. 33 West) in West Bend.

Lighthouse Concert April 20

Light house Ministries, Inc., a nondenominational ministry which has been putting on concerts for the past 20 years, invites the public to a free Christian concert with a coffeehouse atmosphere on Friday, April 20 from 7 - 10 p.m.

He has opened for Charlie Louvin, Joanne Cash, Janie Sealy, and Stella Parton. Jim has a strong faith in Christ and has had the opportunity to be on TV commercials and played before Congress and President Carter.

Also a special wood carving presentation by First Century Ministries will be featured this evening. Come witness this lost art as Wade Burleigh carves the hand of Christ as his wife Jennifer narrates the Biblical story of Jesus. This will be an unforgettable night for the whole family.

Admission is free and there will be door prizes. Refreshments will be available. Lighthouse meets at Silverbrook School, 120 N. Silverbrook Dr., West Bend. Enter and park in the rear of the school. # HAPPY EASTER

Egg-cellent Easter Memories in the Making

(ARA) - Each year, Easter brings families together to celebrate and enjoy quality time with each other. In 2007, 90 percent of American families will decorate Easter eggs, according to a recent survey commissioned by PAAS, the egg decorating kit preferred by more than 83 percent of American families.

Not surprisingly, decorating eggs ranks as the activity people have the fondest family memories of doing, finishing ahead of gathering for Easter dinner, indulging in Easter candy and attending church services. All generations can join in the fun, with 91 percent of families making egg-decorating an event for the entire family.

These easy tips will help your family create "egg-ceptional" eggs that are sure to wow the Easter bunny himself:

* Keeping with the fashion trends for spring, bright colors are the most popular for eggs. Purple (36 percent) is America's preferred color for eggs, with teal (17 percent) a runner-up and denim blue (14 percent) not far behind. To make your eggs very vibrant, add a few tablespoons of white vinegar, such as Heinz White Vinegar, to the egg wash before dyeing eggs.

* Kids love having multiple options to really get crafty. Between stickers, sparkles and getting wild with tie-dye, there's something for everyone. Have kids personalize their eggs by using a wax crayon to write their name before dyeing. Use the dyed eggs as place cards for Easter dinner or place them together as a centerpiece.

* Try wrapping rubber bands around eggs before dyeing. After the rubber bands are removed, the areas where they were will remain white. Repeat this several times for each egg to create a very cool tie-dye effect.

* Take a new twist on an old tradition -- arm the kids with flashlights and have your Easter egg hunt at night! Use glow-in-the-dark paints and stickers from the PAAS Eggs-A-Glow egg decorating kit to help make the moonlight search a little easier and a lot of fun!

* A tisket, a tasket ... a basket of hand-decorated eggs will brighten anyone's day! Have children decorate a few special eggs and deliver them to friends and neighbors. Taking a basket of eggs to a local nursing home is a sure way to bring smiles to residents' faces and show children how rewarding giving to others can be!

If you are wondering what to do with all those beautiful eggs, don't fret about cracking your family's art. More than 85 percent of people say they chow down on their eggs right away or within a few days of Easter.

For more Easter egg decorating tips and tricks, visit www.paaseastereggs.com.

Braised Chicken With Fennel and Dried Figs

Fig Heaven (William Morrow, 2004) by Marie Simmons
Serves 4

- 1 fennel bulb, about 12 ounces
- 8 ounces Blue Ribbon Orchard Choice or Sun-Maid Figs, stemmed
- 1 whole chicken, about 3 1/2 pounds, cut into 8 serving pieces
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1 tablespoon unsalted butter*
- 1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 medium or 1 large leek, roots and green tops trimmed, soaked in warm water, rinsed thoroughly, cut into 1-inch lengths
- 2 medium carrots, cut into 1-inch lengths
- 1 teaspoon fennel seeds, bruised with a mortar and pestle or a large knife
- 1 garlic clove, minced
- 1 cup chicken broth
- 1 cup dry white wine

Trim stem end and dark green tops from fennel; reserve a few fronds for garnish. Cut fennel bulb lengthwise into quarters; cut across into 1-inch pieces. Chill in a bowl of iced water 20 minutes; drain. Place figs in small bowl and cover with boiling water; let stand 10 minutes; drain and cut in half. Sprinkle chicken with salt and pepper. Heat butter and olive oil in large deep skillet until sizzling. Add chicken, a few pieces at a time and cook until lightly browned, about 5 minutes per side. Remove chicken to a side dish as it browns. Leave a thin film of oil in bottom of pan; discard remaining oil. Add fennel, leeks and carrots to pan. Cook, stirring, until vegetables are softened, about 5 minutes. Add figs and fennel seeds to pan. Cook, stirring, until cut sides of figs are lightly browned, about 5 minutes. Add garlic; cook, stirring, 1 minute. Add chicken broth and wine. Heat to boil, boil, uncovered, until reduced by half, about 5 minutes. Add chicken and juices to pan. Cover and cook over medium-low heat until chicken juices run clear when pierced with a fork, about 15 minutes.

With slotted spoon transfer chicken, vegetables and figs to warmed serving platter; cover to keep warm. Boil juices over high heat until reduced and slightly thickened, 1 to 2 minutes. Pour juices over chicken; garnish with fennel fronds and serve.

*Can omit butter and increase olive oil to 2 tablespoons, if desired.

Fig-Honey Nests

Makes 12 nests

- 8 ounces Blue Ribbon Orchard Choice or Sun-Maid Figs, stemmed and coarsely chopped
  - 1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts
  - 1 tablespoon sugar
  - 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
  - 4 sheets phyllo dough, thawed
  - 3 tablespoons melted butter
- Honey syrup
- 1/4 cup honey
  - 1/4 cup sugar
  - 1 tablespoon water
  - 1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice

Heat oven to 375°F. Combine figs, walnuts, sugar and cinnamon; set aside. Lightly brush 1 phyllo sheet with butter; keep remaining phyllo dough covered with a damp towel. Place another sheet on top and brush with butter; repeat with remaining sheets. Cut into 12 equal squares. Place 2 tablespoons fig mixture in center of each square. Gather and crimp edges of phyllo dough around filling to form the "nest." Place on baking sheet coated with cooking spray. Bake 8 to 10 minutes or until edges are lightly browned. Remove.

For honey syrup, combine all ingredients. Bring to boil; reduce heat and simmer 3 minutes. Drizzle 1 teaspoon over each nest.

Figs for Easter and Passover Meals

Pistachio-Fig Macaroons

Makes 20 cookies

- 1 1/2 cups raw, unsalted, shelled pistachio nuts or slivered almonds, divided
- 3/4 cup plus 2 tablespoons granulated sugar
- 1 large egg white
- 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract (or almond extract with almonds)
- 1 cup Blue Ribbon Orchard Choice or Sun-Maid Figs, stemmed and finely chopped
- 2 ounces chopped semisweet or bittersweet chocolate (optional)

Adjust oven rack to middle position and preheat oven to 325°F. Finely chop 1/2 cup nuts; set aside. In food processor, combine remaining 1 cup nuts and sugar. Process until nuts are finely ground. Add egg white and extract. Process until dough forms a ball. Remove dough to a separate bowl (dough will be a little sticky). With lightly oiled hands, mix in figs. Form dough into 20 (about 1-inch) balls. Roll balls in chopped nuts. Place on large greased baking sheet. Flatten balls to 1 1/2-inch rounds. Bake 15 to 18 minutes, just until edges and bottoms of cookies are light golden brown; do not overbake. Cool on sheet 5 minutes. Remove from sheet to wire rack to cool completely.

For chocolate drizzle, melt chocolate in double boiler over simmering water, stirring often. (Or melt in small microwave-safe bowl in microwave oven on 50 percent power 2 to 3 minutes or until smooth, stirring every 30 seconds.) Drizzle over cookies.

Roasted Salmon With Caramelized Onions, Figs and Wine

Serves 4

- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 pound yellow onions, halved and thinly sliced (4 cups)
- 1/2 teaspoon salt, plus more to taste, if desired
- 1 cup Blue Ribbon Orchard Choice or Sun-Maid Figs, stemmed and quartered
- 1/2 cup red or white wine
- 1/2 cup chicken broth
- 1 tablespoon balsamic vinegar
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh rosemary or 1 teaspoon dried rosemary
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 1 to 1 1/3 pounds salmon filet, skinned and cut into 4 portions
- Chopped parsley

Preheat oven to 450°F. Swirl olive oil in bottom of medium nonstick skillet. Add onions and sprinkle 1/2 teaspoon salt. Cover and cook over medium-low heat, stirring occasionally, until onions are soft, about 10 minutes. Remove cover; cook, stirring often, until onions are golden, 15 to 20 minutes. Stir in figs, wine, broth, vinegar and rosemary. Increase heat to high; simmer until sauce thickens, about 5 minutes. Add salt and pepper to taste. Keep warm.

Sprinkle salmon with salt and pepper to taste. Place on lightly oiled heavy baking sheet. Roast in oven 7 to 10 minutes or until fish flakes. Sprinkle salmon with parsley. Serve with fig sauce.

FAMILY FEATURES

Rich family traditions of fun and laughter shared around the Easter and Passover dinner table beckon for a fresh holiday spread. Try one that captures awe with new, inventive and delicious recipes. Greet your family and guests' fancy for flavor with the sweet and satisfying savor of figs. Figs add pizzazz and texture to salads; a hearty richness to whole-grain side dishes; and a pleasant, subtle contrast to such savory entrees as lamb, beef, pork, chicken or fish. Follow the featured recipes for simple, yet elegant holiday dishes.

Besides the sweet and full flavor that figs bring to the table, they are a healthy ingredient with dietary fiber, rich complex carbohydrates and such essential minerals as potassium, iron and calcium.

While shopping, look for Mission figs, which are sweet and dark purple, or the lighter Golden figs with their firm texture and nutty flavor. Both varieties work equally well in recipes.

World Family and Consumer Sciences Day highlights need for life skills

The Kewaskum FCCLA Chapter recently participated in the Elder-Beerman Community Day Coupon Booklet Sale. The funds raised through the sale support two scholarships for graduating seniors. In this recent photo taken at Elder-Beerman in West Bend, are (L to R) Ashley Weiss – Vice President, Robin Dorst, Assistant Advisor, and Kerrie Winter – very active member.

Kewaskum FCCLA Chapter joins the International Federation for Home Economics (IFHE) in recognizing World Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) Day, "Home Economics Supporting Sustainable Development and Quality of Life for All," on March 21, 2007. World FCS Day highlights the need to provide critical life skills, which help individuals and families improve their quality of life while addressing some of the challenges of sustainable development.

For nearly a century, FCS professionals have been developing, integrating, and providing life skills and research in the areas of personal finance; child care and parenting; consumer education; housing and environment; apparel and textiles; and dietetics and nutrition. In the U.S., life and leadership skills are taught primarily by elementary, secondary, and post-secondary educators, Cooperative Extension educators, and professionals in business, government agencies, and not-for-profit organizations. In the U.S. and abroad, FCS professionals are working to address major societal issues, such as an alarming rise in obesity rates in some countries and a lack of food in others.

The Bookworm Sez

by Terri Schlichenmeyer

Avalanche

By Patrick F. McManus

Simon & Schuster $28.99 291 pages

Most people would agree that this has been a weird winter.

In many places, unexpected warmth in usually-cold climates left snow blowers and snow shovels temporarily abandoned, while surprise freezes in Sun-&-Fun areas sent people scrambling for coats they didn't have.

And then there was the snow. For lots of people, this winter will be remembered as the year with too much of it.

Nature caused most of that which landed on the ground, but what if that snow was rearranged for murder? In the new novel "Avalanche" by Patrick F. McManus, a hill full of the white stuff almost meant ice-blue death for Sheriff Bo Tully.

Being the sheriff in a small Idaho county might seem like a quiet existence, but Bo Tully has his hands full.

Daisy, the receptionist at his department, is clearly in love with him. Herb, his under-sheriff, never appears to do anything without prodding. Bo's father, Pap, does some work for the department, but he's a bit of a renegade. The only person in the department with true dedication is Lurch, and Bo worries about the boy. Lurch is a little too dedicated.

When the call comes in to report a missing person, Bo seizes the opportunity for some relaxation. Two days prior, ski resort owner Mike Wilson stalked up the mountain in a snit and never returned. Mike was a very unpopular guy and finding him is going to require a few days at the resort, eating steaks and soaking in a hot tub while following clues.

Bo and Pap jump in the SUV to head up the mountain, but there's trouble right from the beginning. On the way to the resort, an avalanche almost kills them and blocks the only road out. Then a body is found back in town and the clues point to Mike, who is discovered floating face-down in the river. How could a dead man kill someone on one side of the avalanche and end up the other side of an unbreachable snow pile? Could a couple of two-million-dollar life insurance policies have been reason for murder? With the help of an "Indian" tracker, a stranded coed, and a reclusive mountain man with an itchy trigger finger, Bo aims to find out.

Do you love dark, dangerous, violent novels of intrigue?

If so, look elsewhere because "Avalanche" is obviously not that kind of book.

Yes, this is a mystery but fans of author Patrick McManus know that his books don't contain a snowflake's worth of seriousness. "Avalanche" is filled with comedy, goofball characters, off-beat circumstances, an impossible murder, and a sheriff who solves it in very unconventional ways. While you might have the crime figured out halfway through the book (it's kind of a snow-brainer), there are occasional plot twists to keep you interested as you watch Sheriff Bo Tully get to the same conclusion.

For light-hearted mysteries readers or avid McManus fans, this is a book to scoop up. "Avalanche" is a snow-shovel full of fun, if you catch my drift.

Car-Shopping Survey

(NAPSA)—Even though the American auto industry is experiencing some economic uncertainty, customers continue to positively rate their car-buying experience.

According to a survey of new-car buyers, shoppers, nonshoppers and media, sponsored by Automotive Retailing Today:

• 91 percent of new-car purchasers were satisfied (extremely, very or somewhat) with their purchase experience.

For most consumers, buying a new car remains a satisfying experience.

In most cases, consumers only visited multiple dealerships to compare prices;

• Minority vs. nonminority overall shopping experiences remain positive, with minorities beginning to surpass nonminorities, 85 percent versus 84 percent;

• There is improved satisfaction with financing, particularly among minorities; and

• Women rate the purchase experience highly (92 percent extremely, very or somewhat satisfied with their overall experience) and exhibit confidence in buying vehicles.

VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM NOTICE

WOOD CHIPPING SERVICES RESUMED

The Department of Public Works will resume wood chipping services beginning Monday, April 2nd. Weather permitting. Service will continue each 1st and 3rd Monday through late fall. The chipping route follows public streets.

Please follow these requirements:

1. Place large (butt) end toward the street, at the curb. Long branches are OK, chipper will feed into itself.
2. Pile branches no more than 2 feet high; a long low pile is best for feeding the chipper. Leave a gap in the pile every 8 feet.
3. For small brush, TIE IN BUNDLES with string or twine. No boxes, bags or cans of branches will be chipped. (Reason, is that if stone, gravel, wire, metal or dirt enters the chipper it will destroy the knife edges on the chipper, delaying our chipping until the knife is replaced and sharpened).
4. No roots of any kind, or material with any dirt on it.

Note: Yard waste, garden plant waste, corn stalks, sun flower stalk, leaves, grass and materials that will rot down in a compost pile can be brought to the DPW yard and placed in the yard compost bin.

Hours are 7:00 AM to 3:30 PM Monday - Friday.

Saturday, April 21st 9AM - 2 PM, during spring clean up day.

NOTICE OF SPRING ELECTION AND SAMPLE BALLOTS April 3, 2007

OFFICE OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF KEWASKUM TO THE ELECTORS OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF KEWASKUM:

Notice is hereby given of a nonpartisan spring election to be held in the several wards in the Counties of Washington, Fond du Lac and Sheboygan on the 3rd day of April 2007, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office, each in its proper column, together with the questions submitted to a vote, for -a referendum, if any, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth and cast his or her ballot except that an elector who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the elector's minor child or minor ward. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

At the spring election, where marksense voting is used, the elector shall fill in the oval or connect the arrow next to the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office for whom he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the elector shall write in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided and fill in the oval or connect the arrow on the write-in line. On referendum questions, the elector shall fill in the oval or connect the arrow next to "yes" if in favor of the question, or the elector shall fill in the oval or connect the arrow next to "no" if opposed to the question.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If the elector spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initialed by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth or machine. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in casting his or her vote may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official marksense ballot is marked, it shall be inserted in the security sleeve provided so the marks do not show. After casting his or her vote, the elector shall leave the booth, insert the ballot in the voting device and discard the sleeve, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit. If a central count system is used, the elector shall insert the ballot in the ballot box and discard the sleeve, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit. The elector shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the elector's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the elector.

REFERENDUM - WASHINGTON COUNTY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that at an election to be held in the County of Washington on April 3, 2007, the following proposed Resolution of the County Board will be submitted to a vote of the people:

2006 RESOLUTION 44

Creation of Land Preservation Program Upon Approval by Public Referendum

WHEREAS, agriculture and natural areas are integral to local water supplies, the economy and quality of life in Washington County; and

WHEREAS, urban pressures have caused the loss of farmland and natural areas in the county and made it difficult to purchase land for farming, especially for young farmers; and

WHEREAS, Purchase of Development Rights programs have been successful in many other states at preserving farmland and natural areas; and

WHEREAS, the Washington County Board of Supervisors adopted a Park and Open Space Plan in March of 2004 that emphasizes preserving prime farmland and natural areas and targets limited resources to those areas of the county needing the most protection; and

WHEREAS, the opportunity to preserve local prime farmland and natural areas diminishes with each passing year, causing the issue to be of immediate concern;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Washington County Board of Supervisors that a Land Preservation Program and an associated fund shall be created and used for the purpose of preserving prime farmland, water resources and natural areas in Washington County through purchase of development rights, land acquisition or similar programs, in accordance with plans and procedures to be approved by the Board;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that starting in the 2008 budget, the County Board shall allocate, through the capital planning process, at least eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000.00) per year for 10 years funded by either sales tax, long-term debt obligations and property tax, or a combination thereof, for the purpose stated herein with the condition that all expenditures from the fund shall be at least equally matched by non-county funding sources, including donations by local landowners;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Land Preservation Program and associated fund shall be operated and administered by the Washington County Planning and Parks Department, in accordance with plans and procedures to be approved by the Board;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Board shall authorize a public referendum for placement on the April 2007 ballot asking for approval of the program and funding stated in this resolution, which shall not become effective unless approved by public referendum (binding referendum).

The question will appear on the ballot as follows:

Shall the Washington County Board of Supervisors allocate at least $800,000 per year for 10 years funded by either sales tax, long-term debt obligations and property tax, or a combination thereof, to preserve prime farmland, water resources and natural areas in the County through purchase of development rights, land acquisition or similar programs from willing sellers, on the condition that all County expenditures are at least equally matched by non-county funding sources?

EXPLANATION

The referendum election ballot will ask electors to vote "yes" or "no" on the referendum election question as set forth above.

A "yes" vote on the question means that you support the allocation of at least $800,000 per year for 10 years funded by sales tax, long-term debt obligations and property tax, or a combination thereof, to a county land preservation program on the condition that all County expenditures are at least equally matched by non-county funding sources and therefore approve the County Board's adoption of 2006 Resolution 44.

A "no" vote on the question means that you oppose the allocation of at least $800,000 per year for 10 years funded by sales tax, long-term debt obligations and property tax, or a combination thereof, to a county land preservation program on the condition that all County expenditures are at least equally matched by non-county funding sources and therefore disapprove the County Board's adoption of 2006 Resolution 44.

Ned Sengpiel, Route 2, Kewaskum, Senior Vice President of Finance, and Treasurer for Regal Ware, Inc., Kewaskum, has been selected as 1981 forestry award winner by the Southeastern Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts. The award recognizes outstanding achievement in forest management activities by landowners who are cooperators with the Soil and Water Conservation District and members of the American Tree Farm Program. Sengpiel, in planting almost 80,000 trees and shrubs, has converted his entire 170 acre farm to woodland and wildlife habitat. In addition to the tree planting, he has been active in managing the existing woodland. His contributions to wildlife habitat include 15,000 feet of hedgerows, four ponds, and a 450 foot ditch for ducks. Dozens of brush piles and acres of food patches and nesting cover round out the accomplishments. The farm includes a licensed game preserve. Ned raises Japanese Sika deer, three species of peacock and six of pheasant, in addition to approximately 100 ringneck pheasant raised and released each year.

His waterfowl flock includes mallards, mute and black swans and seven species of geese.

The village caucus last Thursday evening was the quietest held since the incorporation of the village, with only 31 votes being cast. The office of Village President goes a begging. Although Theo. Schmidt, the present incumbent, received the nomination, he refuses to be a candidate, which leaves the candidacy open. Joseph Eberle, who received the nomination for trustee, also withdrew, which leaves three names for trustees on the ballot and three are to be elected. The official village ballot will read: President - Blank; Trustees - Frank Hefpe, John F. Schaefer, Chas. Hafeman; Clerk - S.N. Casper; Treasurer - John Marx; Assessor - A.P. Schaeffer; Supervisor - N.W. Rosenheimer; Justice of the Peace - Otto E. Lay, Emil Backhaus. Constable - Fred H. Buss.

PERSPECTIVES

Town of Wayne Voters,

At last you have the opportunity to make your voices heard at Town of Wayne board meetings. The way to accomplish this goal is to vote for Scott Weiss as Town Chariman. Scott has the integrity, courage, and motivation to execute change. If you have ever attended a town board meeting, you know how frustrating it is to attempt to voice any concerns or opinions. Currently, you cannot express your concerns, ask questions, or utter a single word until the very end of the evening's agenda. And then, your comments are limited by a kitchen timer that is set to cut you off at the end of the allotted time—usually one to three minutes, maximum.

A town government is elected to carry out the wishes of the people. They are our representatives. If they are not interested in what we have to say, how can they make decisions for the good of the community? Is it their own self-interest or their need for power and control? Are they afraid that they won't agree with what we have to say? Other town governments do not operate in this manner, and neither should the Town of Wayne. It would seem that town residents' opinions and concerns should be considered when decisions are made. How else can town government make the decisions we elected them to make?

We need a chairman who is strong and unafraid to carry out the citizens' wishes despite outside pressure and controversy. We need a chairman who does not cower at the threat of a lawsuit by a developer. We need a chairman who has the best interests of the town citizens in mind.

Please vote on Tuesday, April 3. Vote for Scott Weiss, Town Chairman.

Judith and Clem Jacak

To the Editor:

The Scott Smart Growth Survey results have been compiled and presented in a 49-page report by University Extension Community Resource Development Agent David Such at a 6:30 meeting Monday, March 19.

Three board members, the clerk-treasurer and two citizens were present.

The next step is to meet statutory requirements for public participation in the next five stages. The plan must also include the Plan Commission, which must make the recommendation to the Town Board.

Many helpful suggestions were given in the survey. These need further investigation, public discussion and debate in order to develop the required vision for Scott Township in the next 20 years.

The Board voted to adopt the requirements for public participation and will post the notice and agenda at the three designated locations 24 hours before the meeting. The next meeting is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. on Monday, April 23.

Election Day is April 3, and the Annual Town meeting on Tuesday, April 10.

Citizens who want to have any input in this important plan will need to put the PUBLIC in public participation.

Letter to the Editor:

The much talked about Property Development Rights (PDR) program up for referendum has two big programs in my opinion.

Farmers already receive subsidies with tax dollars by the USDA. From 1995-2004 Washington County farmers received $31 million.

Secondly, a state measure called unit value assessment (UVA) took liability for $1.5 billion in property taxes from farmers and spread it to state taxpayers. The measure was to lower property taxes by assessing farmland on its agricultural value, not on development potential.

The county now wants to buy farmland through PDR. Supporters of the PDR program say landowners receive the difference between the value of the land in the marketplace and its ag value. The landowner receives no more or less than could have been received from a private buyer.

The county sponsored PDR task force report says an average of about $5,500 per acre or $550,000 for 100 acres would be paid out. There are two things to observe here.

The landowner can invest the money at say five percent and end up with about $1.45 million in 20 years or $14,000 per acre. The annual county share of property taxes for this land is 80¢ per acre under the UVA formula or $80 for 100 acres. At $80 annually it will take 6,875 years for the county to get the $550,000 purchase price back.

Let private enterprise pick up the cost, specifically agricultural business. This business has revenues of $630 million annually and depends on farmland for its very existence. Collectively such businesses could put aside one percent of revenue before taxed and generate over $63 million in one year to underwrite a private PDR program.

By privatization, there would be a chance for a taxpayer bonus. County Supervisors would have a great opportunity to give a tax refund of at least $8 million over ten years.

I urge you to vote no on April 3rd.

Frank Beesten
Kewaskum

To the Editor:

It's not too late to save our farms. Farms are a limited resource and we are consuming them at an alarming rate. Since 1995 we've been losing them at a rate of over 2.3 square miles per year. This rate is double what it was in the 1970s.

As many of our communities go through comprehensive planning, they are finding that the loss of farmland is the biggest concern of their citizens. Large areas of prime farmland still exist in Washington County, but it won't last long unless the county and local governments come together and plan their future growth.

Purchase of Development Rights (PDR) is one of the best tools for saving prime agricultural land. Counties all over the country have been using this program for decades. PDR is an effective tool with a proven track record. Places such as Lancaster County, Pennsylvania have done so well with their program that a tourism industry has developed as a result. The time is right for PDR in Washington County!

Adam Sayre
City of West Bend

To the Editor:

The PDR program appears to be another step toward diminishing our independence and allowing for bigger government control.

Our government already owns more than 20% of all land in Wisconsin (per DNR) and controls much more. Proponents say we can get matching funds to increase the program, but remember matching funds come from our wallets.

The government would need to hire more staff, which requires more spending on wages, health care insurance, and retirement benefits. Is this a good idea? Or another step towards George Orwell's Big Brother, owning and controlling more by the government.

If you feel so strongly about this program, you could buy the farm land, donate it to a land conservancy, and take the tax deduction.

Do not force everyone to take part in this expansion of government. Vote NO for PDR on April 3rd.

Del Ellefson

To the Editor:

Cost of services vs farmland preservation

Urban sprawl pressures more than just farmers. It also challenges county governments struggling to provide services.

Washington County officials need to weigh the cost of road construction and repair, water and sewer construction, fire and police protection, school construction and operation, drainage construction and expansion and other infrastructure needs VS the cost of farmland protection.

I firmly believe that using a small portion (9%) of our sales tax dollars towards the preservation of Washington County farmland will save the taxpayers money in the long run.

In my family, in the final analysis, the question has been: "What would you rather look at: A productive farm or "McMansions" and/or "cookie cutter subdivisions"? We also realize that not all farmers, although many do, wish to sell their development rights to preserve their land for farming. The point is: It will be their choice.

Encourage your family and friends to Vote YES for Land Preservation on April 3rd.

Sincerely,
Eugenie Olsen

To the Editor:

As a long time resident of Washington Co., I'm very concerned about land preservation. I work in Waukesha county and on a daily basis, see what can happen to our community. Huge numbers of developments with all the related concerns about water/well problems, highways etc. I'm not against all development, I guess it's unavoidable. But we now at least have a chance to preserve more valuable farm land.

I plan to vote "Yes" in the upcoming referendum because the cost to each of us is so small when compared to the regrets we will have years down the road when "it's all gone"

To the Editor:

I wish to direct this short letter to the ladies in the reading audience. I am a mother, grandmother and great-grandmother and feel that the PDR program is extremely important for the future of our children, grandchildren and future generations.

I was born in Milwaukee and remember quite vividly going to the fruit boat docked in the Milwaukee River. We bought fruits and vegetables, took them home and canned them for the year. I do the same thing with our garden now and if there is something which I have not grown, will purchase same from the farmer's market.

Can you image our generations to follow not being able to do that because the land has been destroyed by developments and large subdivisions? If we do not stop this, our children will see only concrete and no natural preserves, farms, and will not be able to have fresh water as we do. We cannot depend on other counties to provide them with produce for which they have no control as to how it has been grown. We have to look to the future now instead of waiting when it will be too late.

When you get into the voting booth on April 3rd, think of your kids and vote YES to the PDR question.

Outdoor Tips & Tricks

by Dave Gowdey

Some retrievers, especially young dogs, can be reluctant to turn over the game they have retrieved. Trying to tug the game out of the dog's mouth can result in significant damage to the game, potential damage to the hunter and provide encouragement to the dog to continue this undesirable behavior. On the other hand, punishment during a retrieve could make the dog reluctant to retrieve game at all. In such situations, one easy solution is to grab firm hold of the dog's collar and then blow a gentle puff of air in the dog's nose. This will result in the dog opening its mouth, allowing the game to be safely and easily recovered without conflict. Be careful not to blow too hard to avoid potential damage to the sensitive linings of the dog's nose.

One of the most valuable things an outdoorsman can carry in his pocket is a red cotton bandana. Not only does a bandana have an infinite number of everyday uses—from cleaning glasses to blowing your nose—it is also a valuable survival tool. It can be used in an emergency as a bandage, a signal flag, and pieces can be shredded and used as tinder to start a fire.

Most fishermen know spots where streams enter and exit a lake attract fish and can provide for some excellent fishing. Fewer fishermen pay attention to the underground springs that can also provide excellent fishing at times—particularly when outside temperatures are extreme. The water from such springs generally remains within a fairly small and stable temperature range—which means that such areas provide cool spots in hot summer weather and warm spots in icy winter weather, and those stable temperatures attract fish. The location of such springs can often be found on hydrographic maps, older topographical maps of areas flooded by reservoirs and through local knowledge. In arid regions, shoreline concentrations of water-loving vegetation such as cottonwoods and willows where no surface water is visible can also indicate where shallow springs may enter a lake.

If you have a tip to do with hunting, fishing or outdoor skills that you would like to see printed in this column, e-mail the tip to davegowdey@fastmail.fm. Credit will be given in the column to those whose tips are selected for publication.

Seniors eligible for courtesy card at school sports

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman.com

KEWASKUM- Seniors wanting to attend Kewaskum High School sports events received another perk. The district's courtesy card is now valid at all Eastern Wisconsin Conference (EWC) events.

The Kewaskum Board of Education took action to approve an update to the Senior Citizen Courtesy Card policy that allows senior citizens free admittance to all home games excluding W.I.A.A. tournaments. The policy was changed and approved to allow access to away games should the EWC approve a conference-wide card.

Kewaskum High School Athletic Director Jason Piittmann explained that each school in the EWC has done their own thing regarding senior citizen passes. Some have passes for free admission, some have had reduced admission rates.

Piittmann explained that the principals of the EWC schools are discussing a way to bring uniformity for a program to give back to senior citizens for their years of support to school programs.

"Personally, I think this is a good idea. Senior citizens are often on fixed incomes and while the cost of going to a game may not seem like much, it can add up over time as they come out on a regular basis to see their grandchildren compete," Piittmann remarked.

Senior Citizens who do not already have a card should visit the school district's business office behind Kewaskum Elementary School to apply for a card. Anyone over the age of 60 is eligible if they are a resident of the Kewaskum School District.

Parrent, Witek win events in strong County Indoor meet

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

Even after a year's absence from the sport, Kewaskum High senior Matt Parrent didn't miss a beat in the annual Washington County Indoor Track and Field Meet held last Tuesday in the West Bend Field House.

Another highlight was the performance of freshman Amanda Witek in the high jump, indicating she has the potential to do great things in the sport during her career.

Parrent and Witek were the Indians' lone winners in the highly-competitive event. Once again, it was Germantown taking the boys title, scoring a whopping 140 points, 28.5 more than runner-up West Bend East.

Slinger finished third at 95, followed in order by Hartford, 88; West Bend West, 59.5; Kewaskum in sixth with 49 and Kettle Moraine Lutheran last at 27.

Slinger had enough talent and depth to come out on top in the girls' race for the title. The Lady Owls tallied 111 points, with West Bend West breathing down their necks with 102.5. East placed third with 96, then came Kewaskum with 69.5; Hartford, 64; Germantown, 63.5; and Kettle Moraine Lutheran, 55.

"You look at the points we scored, and we did all right," KHS Coach Jerry Gosa said about the efforts of his athletes. "It's tough competition. We enjoy the chance to compete against these athletes, but they are very good."

Obviously he was pleased with the run turned in by Parrent in the 440-yard run. Parrent hit the finish line in 57 and .46 seconds (57.46), a good time considering he missed last season after suffering a stress fracture the year before.

"Matt won the race going away," Gosa said about the talented senior. "He just ran a very good race. It's nice he came out. He brings a super work ethic."

The Indians also got a fifth in the event from Dan Dymond, who is expected to carry the load in middle distances and a couple field events this spring. Dymond's time was a 59.24.

Somehow there were no official times for the 440, but Gosa said he secured the two for his athletes from a lady timer.

Senior Bob Gibson was an "iron man" for the Indians in the meet, placing second in mile, third in the 880 and helped the *10-lap relay to a fourth place in 3:32.9.

Others making up that relay were Dymond, Dylan Kenworthy and Parrent.

"The top five places (Tuesday) ran times faster than the winning team from the previous year," Gosa said.

Gibson and East's Tanner

Pruitt staged a good battle in the mile, with the Sun junior winning by .5 of a second, 4:48.8 to 4:59.3.

In the 880, Gibson was just .4 out of second place with his time of 2:11.7.

"Something's really changed with Bob. He now has the mental maturity to go with his physical ability," Gosa said. "You can tell he is in very good shape."

The Indians double-placed in the shot put, with Logan Staeger taking seventh with a heave of 44 feet, 3.5 inches (44-3.5) and Tyler Swanson eighth with an effort of 42-7.5.

Kevin Schellinger cleared 10-6 in the pole vault, which was good for eighth place. Gosa said he definitely has potential. In a scrimmage meet at Slinger on Thursday, Schellinger cleared 11-0.

Other top-eight efforts came in the following: high jump — Dymond 6th with a 5-6; and Dickman, 8th, 5-6; six-lap relay, 6th in 2:06.4; and 20-lap relay, 5th with an 8:58; 50 yard. low hurdles, Ben Boettcher, 7.87.

Witek won the high jump on fewer misses after she, Qudija McDade of East and West's Kristina Wentz all cleared 4-10. That is two inches higher than she went in her first varsity competition last Saturday in Kewaskum.

Jess Liniewski added a fifth in the event by clearing 4-4.

Gosa is eager to see how high Witek can go this spring and commented in the Slinger meet, I had three girls go 4-10, Witek, Candace Beine, and Jess Liniewski."

As usual, the Indians were solid in the pole vault, with Crystal Treptow second by making 9-0 and Alissa Clapper third with a vault of 8-0. Clapper helped the Indians with her fourth place in the 50-yard high hurdles (8.80).

In the 50-yard dash, it was Jessi Forbes placing fifth with a 6.99 clocking, and the veteran Kelly Uelmen eight with a 7.24.

Sophomore Nicole Kison placed in two events, taking third in the 440 (1:12.2) and sixth in the long jump (13-7.5).

The best finish by a KHS relay came in the 6-lap race where Jessi Forbes, Liniewski, Nicole Kison and Uelmen combined for a time of 2:21.0, good for fourth place.

Other top eight places by KHS athletes included: 50-yard low hurdles, Grace Polk, 5th in 9.12 and Haley Gregorio, 6th, 9.25; 880, Morgan Gradingan, 6th, 2:53.6; and Crystal Lepp, 8th, 2:58.9.

The KHS boys are at the Oshkosh Indoor Invitational tomorrow (Friday), while the girls compete at Oshkosh on Tuesday, April 3rd.

NOTICE OF SPRING ELECTION AND SAMPLE BALLOTS

April 3, 2007

OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK

TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a spring election to be held in Washington County on the 3rd day of April 2007, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office, each in its proper column, together with the questions submitted to a vote, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth and cast his or her ballot except that an elector who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the elector's minor child or minor ward. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

MARKSENSE VOTING

At the spring election where marksense voting is used, the elector shall fill in the oval next to the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office for whom he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the elector shall write in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided and fill in the oval on the write-in line. On referendum questions, the elector shall fill in the oval next to "yes" if in favor of the question, or the elector shall fill in the oval next to "no" if opposed to the question.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If the elector spoils a marksense ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initialed by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth. Sample ballots or other materials to assist the elector in casting his or her vote may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official marksense ballot is marked, it shall be inserted in the security sleeve so the marks do not show. After casting his or her vote, the elector shall leave the booth, insert the ballot in the voting device and discard the sleeve, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit. The elector shall leave the polling place promptly.

TOUCH SCREEN VOTING

At the spring election where touch screen voting systems are used, the elector shall depress the button next to the name of the candidate for whom he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the elector shall type in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided for a write-in vote. On referendum questions, the elector shall depress the button next to "yes" if in favor of the question, or the elector shall depress the button next to "no" if opposed to the question.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. The elector may spoil a touch screen ballot at the voting station, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a touch screen voting booth. Sample ballots or other materials to assist the elector in casting his or her vote may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official touch screen ballot is marked, the elector shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the elector's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the elector.

The following is a sample of the official ballots:

Brenda J. Jaszewski, Washington County Clerk
