School District will look at redrawing boundary lines in May

By Andrew Kuehl

Statesman Managing Editor akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

KEWASKUM- Students attending Kewaskum's elementary schools may have some changes in where they will attend classes for the 2007-08 school year. Kewaskum's director of elementary education helped prepare the board for questions they could receive at the May meeting, at a special meeting held Monday, April 23.

Kieth Kriewaldt began the meeting by announcing that according to the latest numbers, approximately 840 students will walk through the district's elementary schools on the first day of school this upcoming year. This is an increase of eight students. At KES, 433 are expected, at FES, 242 are expected, and at WES, 165 are expected.

"We are starting to see a pattern at Wayne. We are seeing larger and larger class sizes. Classes are returning to the sizes seen prior to 1991, when the district revised their boundaries the last time," Kriewaldt reported.

The township of Wayne has recently seen an influx of new residential development, while the township of Farmington has just lightly taken their foot off the brake in regards to the same.

Currently the boundaries are set up so that students/families living east of Forest View Road (near the St. Michael's hamlet), attend FES. Students/families living west of Highland Drive in the Kewaskum township, attend WES, and everyone in the middle attends KES. Noticing dwindling attendance numbers at FES in the last few years, Kriewaldt would like to move the boundary lines to ensure balanced class sizes and best use of the district facilities.

Under Kriewaldt's recommendation, families living west of Townline Road, excluding the Essence of Time subdivision would have students attend WES. Families living east of Hickory Drive, Salisbury Road and all roads east would have their students attend FES. Those in the middle will attend at KES.

Kriewaldt stated he wanted to bring this to the board's attention two years ago but with things happening at that time, he held off. He brought the issue to interim superintendent of schools Scott Peterson last year who asked him to hold off until the hiring of Mike Krumm.

"This plan allows for future growth. This plan is equable among the schools. As much as I hate change, this plan is going to help maintain balanced class sizes into the next five or six years," stated Kriewaldt

Kriewaldt alerted the board that not every parent is happy about the situation, however some are very happy. Most of the parents were contacted by phone calls and all were fol-

Camera Case to open here

By Andrew Kuehl Statesman Managing Editor akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

KEWASKUM- Wireless phones and satellite television are two more items that folks in Kewaskum will now be able to purchase in the village. The Camera Case with it's main store in Hartford, will open mid-May in the Kewaskum Green and Gold Shopping Center.

Bob Stumpner who has been in the business for 30 years now, confirmed that he will open his fourth store in Kewaskum around May 15. The store will offer wiressless phone service through U.S. Cellular and satellite television through Dish Network and Direct TV.

Camera Case is the fourth store to open in the shopping center with Cousins Subs, Snap Fitness and Chinatown Restaurant. The store is 1,800 square feet according to Stumpner.

"Ultimately, this allows us to service our customers better," stated Stumpner. He also indicated they are looking at additional things to offer in the store making it unique from their other stores in Hartford, West Bend and Cedarburg. Photography would not be offered at the Kewaskum store.

More information about the company and their other stores can be found on their website at www.cameracase.com. This newspaper will carry more information after the store opens.

Road construction begins here

The village of Kewaskum Department of Public Works has had a busy week so far after two road construction projects got underway. Western Avenue from North Avenue to Brooklane Drive received some improvements. According to DPW director Jerry Gilles, pavement was milled Monday. A number of catch basins were replaced along with some shallow curb stops and some curb and gutter were repaired. Depending on the weather, Gilles said Stark Asphalt was going to lay the base course of asphalt on Friday. Surface course will be two to three weeks later. Shown above, workers from the DPW and Mueller Excavating replace a fire hydrant in front of 1175 Western Avenue. Work also began on replacing the parking lot in Kiwanis Park. The base course of asphalt was expected to be installed Wednesday morning. New lighting was also recently installed and is ready for use.

Chimney fire leaves smoke damage, no injuries

The Kewaskum Fire Department was called to the home of Leo Thull Wednesday morning, April 25 at 9:23 a.m. for a reported chimney fire. Firefighters remained at the home located at 8650 Kettle Moraine Drive in the town of Kewaskum as of press-time. The Washington County Sheriff's Department was also called to the scene and handled traffic. Further details were unavailable. On Sunday, April 22, the department was called out to N100 Highland Drive in the town of Auburn at 2:59 p.m. Fire chief Mark Groeschel reported "the property owner was burning garbage in a burn barrel, when burning embers started a corn stubble field and some grass on fire. We responded with 17 personnel and extinguished the fire.

Graczyk finalist for Richfield Super of Schools

FOND DU LAC- Former Kewaskum School Superintendent Wayne Graczyk, is reportedly one of five finalists for the district administrator job in Richfield. The job has been open since Craig Baker was fired there in November 2006 for failing to return from medical leave.

Graczyk left the Kewaskum School District in 2005 after the board bought out the final year of his contract for undisclosed reasons. He is currently the administrator for the Fond du Lac Area Catholic Education System.

POLICE REPORTS

Identity theft

On April 12, at 4:55 p.m. a Kewaskum Police Officer was dispatched to 1017 Edgewood Road in reference to possible fraud.

The complainant met with the officer and stated approximately two weeks ago, she attempted to activate a cell phone account. She was told there was a subject in Illinois who had already started a cell phone account using her social security number.

The subject had not made any payments on that account. The complainant stated on yesterday's date, she tried to open a checking account and was told the same subject had used her social security number again to open a checking account in Carpenterville, Illinois.

The complainant was asked if any of her accounts had money taken from them or if the subject attempted to use her name. She stated no, just her social security number was used.

She was advised to contact the local social security office and attempt to get a new social security number.

Lewd and lascivious behavior downtown

On April 13, at 2:47 a.m. a Kewaskum Police Officer observed a vehicle parked in the downtown parking lot. The officer reported the vehicle's windows appeared to be steamed over and there appeared to be motion inside the vehicle.

As the officer approached the passenger side, he saw two individuals inside on top of one another, nude. The officer believed the pair were engaging in sexual intercourse.

The two were identified and the officer ordered them to put their clothing back on. The female stated she was there on her own free will.

Both received a citation for lewd and lascivious behavior for having sexual intercourse and/or being naked in the downtown parking lot.

Hit and run accident

On April 19 at 9:20 p.m., a Kewaskum Police Officer was dispatched to the intersection of Fond du Lac Avenue and Knights Avenue in reference to a hit and run accident.

The complainant advised the officer that while she was attempting to make a left hand turn onto Knights Avenue from Fond du lac Avenue, she was rear-ended by a minivan. When the vehicle took off, she noticed the front end of it was crumpled in and the vehicle was leaking radiator fluid.

The complainant had two passengers and the three were uninjured.

The officer tried to find traces of the vehicle but was unsuccessful.

Teen fight at KHS

On April 17, at 8 a.m. the School Liaison Officer was advised of a fight between female students.

One of the students stated she was hit twice in the face by another female student. The student stated the altercation occurred in physical education. She was talking to her friend when another girl came up to her friend and said something to her that sparked the fight.

The officer then interviewed the teen who was accused of the hitting. She stated the girl's friend was using derogatory terms about her so she confronted her. Additional comments were made and the fight ensued.

The third girl, a friend of the girl who was hit, stated the two were talking amongst themselves. She believed that the second girl thought they were directing the words toward her. She stated words were exchanged and the fight ensued. Charges of disorderly conduct will be referred to Juvenile Intake for the teen who started the fight. The other two teens were warned for their actions.

Police reports are compiled and written by staff member Andrew Kuehl with the cooperation of the Kewaskum Police Department. If you have information on any of these incidents please contact the department at (262)626.2323

Friends helping friends

A friend is a person who is there when you need them, and someone you can talk to and trust. Twenty-six youth and seven adults from Washington and Dodge County recently completed a "Friends Helping Friends" training held at the Washington County Fair Park.

The workshop focused on the importance of self-esteem, communication, cooperation, and the role of being a friend. Kandi O'Neil, Washington County 4-H Youth Development Educator and Sally Schoenike, Dodge County 4-H Youth Development Agent taught the workshop.

Washington County 4-H youth and adults attending were: Laura Schwartz and her son, Nathan Schwartz, along with Emily Benzing and Allison Johnson from the Badger Boosters 4-H Club. Representing Freistadt 4-H Friends were Mary Pearson, Alexia Wilcox, and Donna Nash and her daughters, Abby and Nicole Nash. On the team from the club but not present was Khia Kurtenbach. Coming to the training from the St. Lawrence Eager Beavers 4-H Club were Michaela Riepl and LeAnn Rettler with her son, Shea and daughter, Brady.

"Friends Helping Friends" is an educational program sponsored by the University of Wisconsin Extension, 4-H and Youth Development. The program has been designed to be presented by young people who are concerned about problems youth must face in their communities. It is based on the theory that youth are powerful teachers and role models for one another.

Brayshaw sentenced to 14 years

WEST BEND- He was gone for more than 10 years and owed his family one-quarter-million-dollars-plus in child support and now, 58-year-old John Brayshaw was sentenced Thursday, April 19 in Washington County Court.

Judge Andy Gonring sentenced Brayshaw to 14 years in prison with an additional five years on probation, plus he is ordered to pay close to $360,000 in back support, interest and alimony. Authorities say Brayshaw had moved around since 1996, finally ending up in Key West, Florida, where he remarried and took his wife's name.

Judicial Commission to investigate

Ethics board files complaint against Judge Ziegler

MADISON- The Wisconsin Ethics Board has filed a complaint against Washington County Judge Annette Ziegler for alledgedly violating the state's code of ethics for public officials.

Specifically, for presiding over five cases taking place over the last two years involving West Bend Savings Bank, where her husband is a paid director.

The board issued the complaint on Wednesday, April 18, based on results of an investigation done by former Assistant Attorney General J. Douglas Haag. A public hearing is scheduled for May 17 at the Dane County Courthouse in front of court of appeals Judge David Deininger.

The Ethics Board will ask Ziegler be issued a monetary penalty of possibly up to $5,000 on each violation, and has also sent a letter to the state Judicial Commission urging them to look into the matter

Two days after the state ethics board filed a complaint against state supreme court justice elect Annette Ziegler for alleged conflict of interest violations, the Wisconsin Judicial Commission is launching an investigation of its own.

According to a statement from Ziegler's attorney Mark Hildebrand, the commission has informed Ziegler that it is authorizing an investigation of "certain allegations," although it didn't say what they were.

The Ethics Board complaint was against Ziegler who presided over several cases involving West Bend Savings Bank, where her husband is a paid director.

In March, a government watchdog group asked the commission to investigate the bank cases and those involving companies in which Ziegler held more than $50,000 in stock.

Ziegler takes over for retiring Justice Jon Wilcox on August 1.

Weiss pleads "no contest"

WEST BEND- Accused child abuser Junior Weiss pled "no contest" on Wednesday, April 18 to intentionally causing harm to his room-mate's 19-month-old son, Joseph Halbert. However, he now may face charges in connection with the death of Halbert's sister, six-month-old, Serenitee Halbert.

Halbert's sister, six-month-old, Serenitee Halbert.

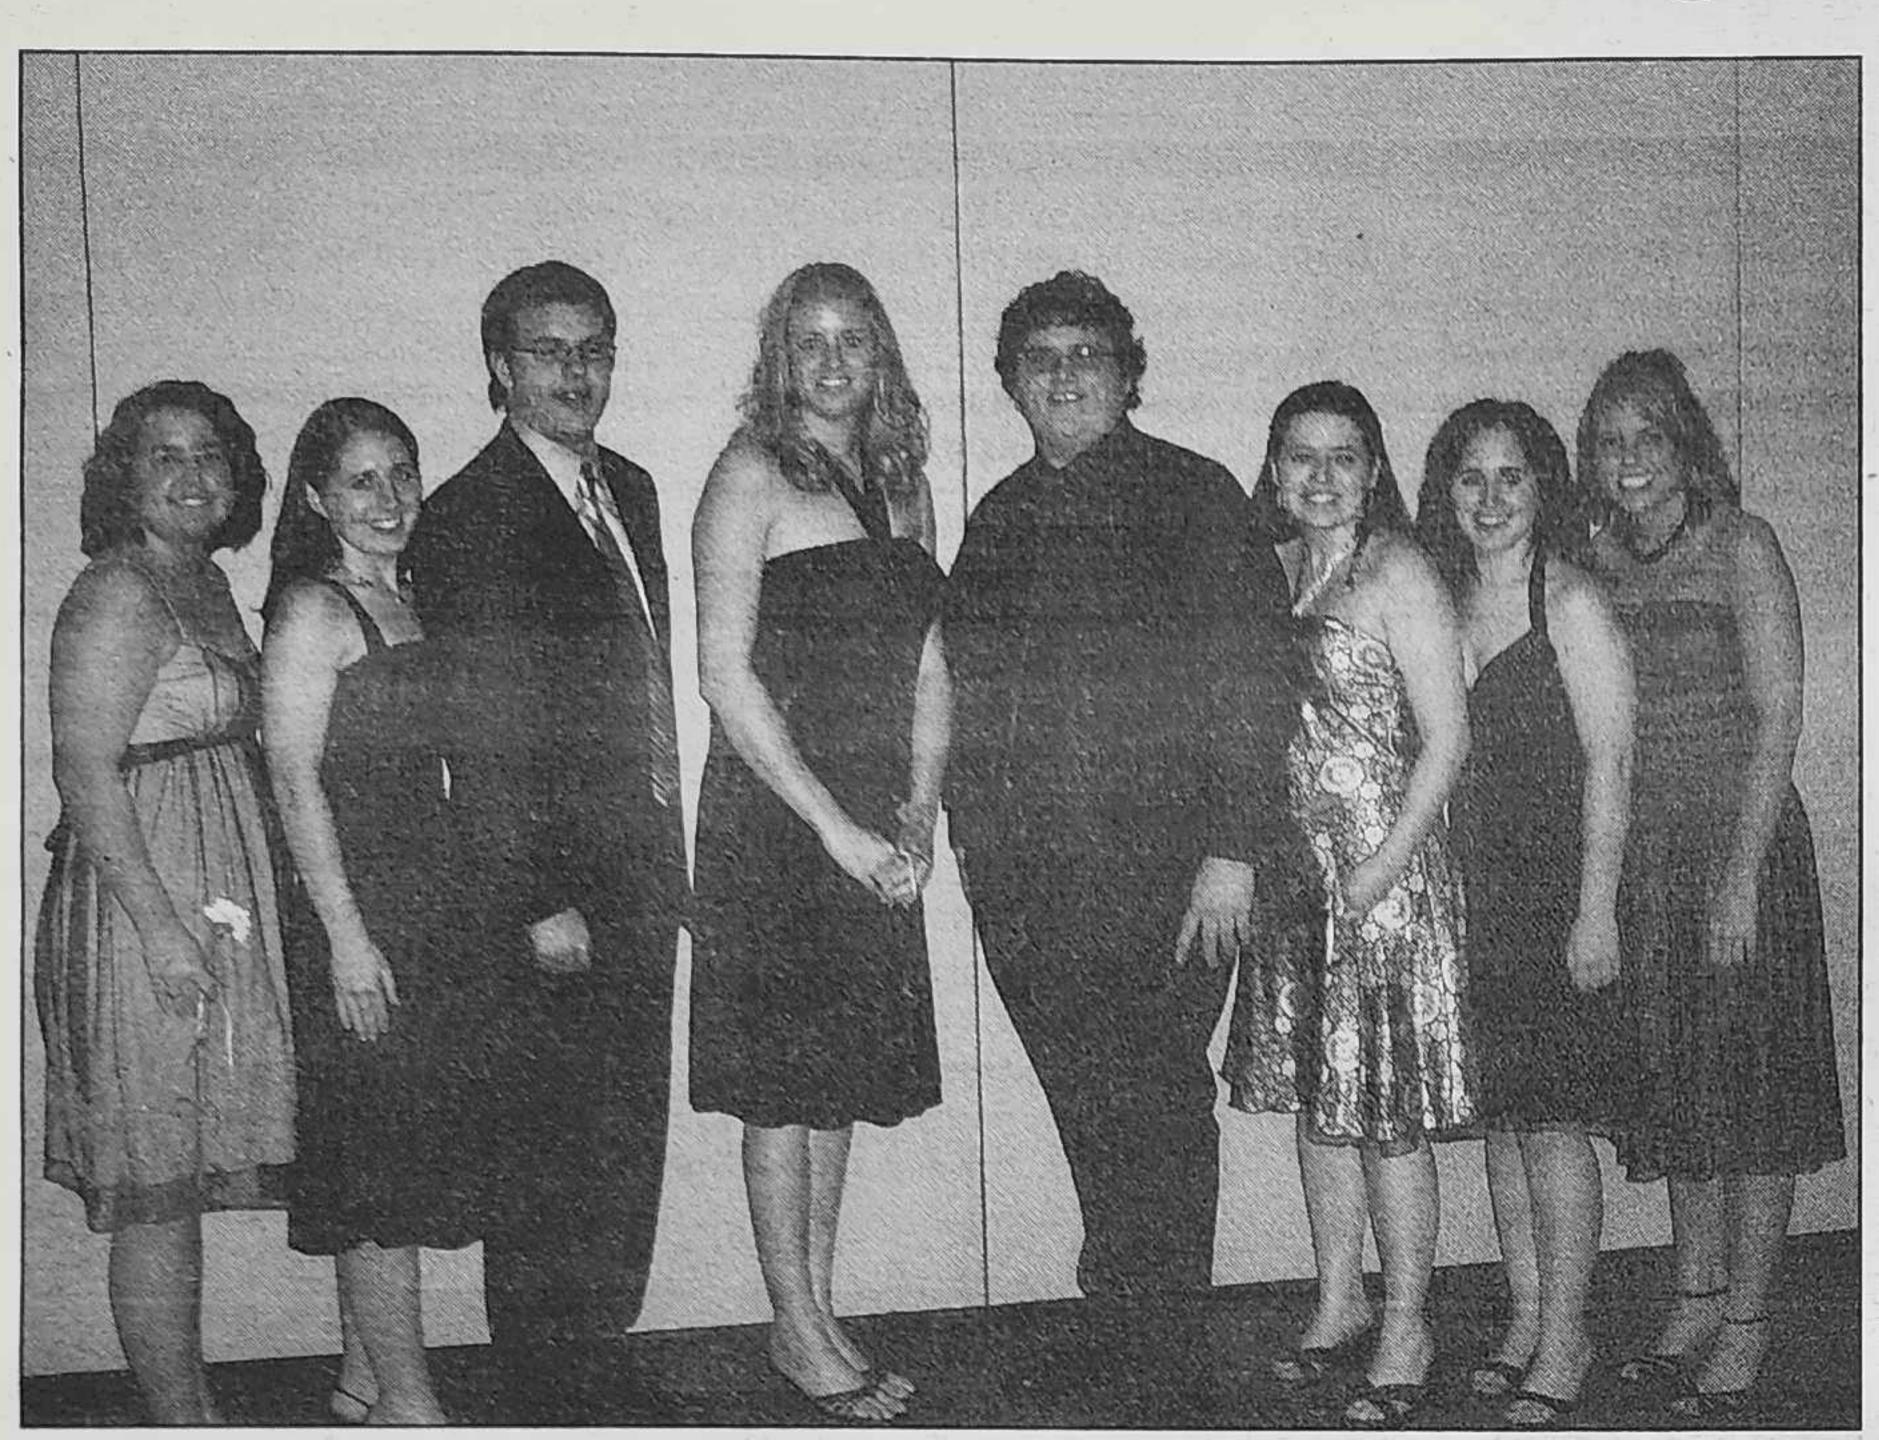

Weiss's other roommate, Craig Tolonen, is scheduled to stand trial for the girl's death on September 17, but Tolonen's lawyer now says Serenitee's medical records show she suffered trauma to her brain two to three weeks before she died, last August, when Weiss may have had contact with the baby. Weiss is supposed to be sentenced for the abuse to Joseph Halbert the morning of June 6.

On April 1st, another successful and absolutely remarkable Circle KInternational year will come to a close. This has been yet another year where KHS graduates have dug in deep and basked in either general member or leadership roles within this amazing service oriented campus organization. Circle K International (CKI) boasts well over 12,000 members on more than 500 campuses in 13 nations. Wisconsin-Upper Michigan District, the district to which these dedicated students belong, consists of seven divisions and a total of 23 clubs on college and university campuses. Circle K closely follows Key Club as the next level in the Kiwanis Family.

so many Circle K members hail from such a small town as Kewaskum. Nearly three years ago, a group of friends graduated from Kewaskum High School, many members of Key Club, and in an effort to stay in touch while miles away, vowed to join Circle K and attend district events. Throughout the next three years, they would keep in touch with each other at Circle K conventions, conferences, and district service projects. This group of students from Kewaskum is known by most in the W-UM (Wisconsin-Upper Michigan) District due to their active involvement, close ties, and dedication to an organization that has grown to be an essential part of their lives.

From the University of Wisconsin - Oshkosh there is Sarah Stevenson, Peter Paulus, and Erin Rammer. The University of Wisconsin - La Crosse Circle K is represented by Katie Kowalczyk and Bree Boettcher. Eric Vogt belongs to the Marquette University Circle K Club and Margaret Reindl and Mary Reindl are part of the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee Circle K. They all have taken amazing steps in bettering their communities while bettering themselves and forming lasting strong relationships within their club and district. A few of these students, along with other responsibilities and obligations, will be taking positions on the District Board this year and others have been elected to their Circle K Club executive One might wonder why boards. These students have handled the stressful academics that go hand in hand with college life and contributed immensely to their Circle K club. They all definitely deserve to be recognized for their hard work that goes well beyond the classroom and for their commitment to the Kiwanis Family.

Additionally, there are a few members of this group who have been recognized with at the last District Convention. Erin Rammer and Margaret Reindl were honorable mentions in the categories of Best Club Vice President and Best Club Treasurer, respectively. Sarah Stevenson was the recipient of a prestigious Circle K award and scholarship. Sarah has done a phenomenal job this last year as the president of her club. She has instilled enthusiasm in her members and inspired many others along the way all the while keeping up with the more mundane administrative details that are a part of being club president. Sarah was one of three in the district selected to receive the Alan Anderson Award.

The three tenets in Circle K are Service, Leadership, and Fellowship. This group of KHS graduates has proven to be perfect example of such tenets and is absolutely committed to lifelong community service. Kewaskum should be honored to have these young and determined adults out in the world representing Kewaskum in such wonderful and giving ways.

Wine tasting at annual 'Pawsatively a Ball' event

The Fond du Lac Humane Society will hold their sixth annual benefit on Saturday, May 12th from 6 to 11 p.m. The event, "Pawsatively A Ball" will be held at The Windhover Center for the Arts. A new venue this year also includes wine tasting by Cujak's Wine Market with a specialty raffle.

This is the Humane Society's largest and most important fundraiser for 2007. Funds raised at this premier event are directed to the general operations which includes the Sweetie Medical Fund. This particular account was established to help cover the veterinary costs that occur on a daily basis for the shelter animals in need of medical treatments.

The Fond du Lac shelter cared for 2065 homeless animals in 2006. The Fond du Lac Humane Society is an independent, not-for-profit organization which does not receive state or federal funding. Your continued support is needed to maintain Shelter operations.

This gala event features a champagne and hors d' oeuvre reception which includes a silent auction, live auction, raffles and music by Ray Wifler's jazz quartet, "Doc and the Jazz Box", and the Pets and Pearl's Fashion Show. Shelter animals and alumni pets will be dressed their best by local pet boutiques and friends of the shelter will be in the latest fashions provided by Cinderella's Closet.

Some of the many great live and silent auction items highlighted this year include airline tickets, a private dinner and wine tasting event from Fond du Lac Seafood and Cujak's Wine Market, a half day salmon charter fishing trip by Captain Joe Walcott, a Chicago weekend stay at a new boutique hotel, an Elkhart Lake historical boat cruise, rounds of golf at The Bull, Milwaukee Brewers club seats and a unique jewelry creation by The Goldsmith.

Advance reservations are required as seating is limited. Event admission is $45 per person for Humane Society members and $50 per person for non-members. For more information, including reservations or sponsorship, please contact Lucy at (920) 922-8873. Please make your reservations by Friday, May 4.

Hon-E-Kor Ladies Golf League

The Hon-E-Kor Ladies Golf League opening golf/luncheon will be held on Wednesday, May 2. Golf will begin at 10 a.m., cocktails at 12:30 and a luncheon at 12:45. Non-Hon-E-Kor members are welcome to attend.

A short meeting will follow the luncheon. Call Hon-E-Kor at 262-626-2520 to sign up for either or both. Reservations are accepted until April 30.

National Day of Prayer

The hearts and minds of Americans were moved by the horrific events on the Virginia Tech campus last week, the senseless murders of 32 professors and students. In the aftermath, people gathered in twos, small prayer circles and large groups to pray. They felt that there was nothing else they could do but to pray to God.

One of our best loved Presidents felt the same way. Abraham Lincoln stated, in the middle of the awful days of the Civil War, "I have been driven many times upon my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go."

At just such times as these, we need to go to God. This year's National Day of Prayer calls to us -- "America, Unite in Prayer." The theme verse promises that God will listen. "If my people, who are by my name, will humble themselves and pray" (2 Chronicles 7:17). The 56th consecutive observance takes place on Thursday, May 3.

Millions of Americans will gather at government buildings, offices, flagpoles, parks and churches to pray. We have much for which to be thankful. We have freedoms, prosperity and blessings from God that the rest of the world envies. There are also many needs for which to pray -- the future of our children, people who are hurting as well as government leaders to be wise.

A local event will take place at noon on May 3. It will be held outside the Campbellsport Village Hall, 177 E. Main Street (inside if there is bad weather). Everyone is invited to join in praying for our country.

The half hour event will include a moment of silence for those who were killed at Virginia Tech as well as time to pray for family members who are mourning. There will also be time to honor the sacrifices of those who have served in our nation's armed forces.

More information is available by calling the Campbellsport Alliance Church at 533-5123.

Kettle Moraine Scenic Drive Earth week clean up

Join the Friends of the Kettle Moraine for the 18th annual Earth Day litter pick up along the Kettle Moraine Scenic Drive through the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit. The event will be held on Saturday, April 28, starting at 8:30 a.m. Participants are asked to meet at the Forest Headquarters to receive their road or area assignment.

After a morning of cleaning up and camaraderie, everyone will meet back at the Forest Headquarters at noon for refreshments and snacks. The Forest Headquarters is located off of Hwy G between Hwy SS and Hwy S (north of Kewaskum).

This is a great service project for individuals and especially for youth and other groups. Individuals do not need to sign up ahead of time, but groups need to register by calling the Forest Headquarters at (262) 626-2116 by April 27. Bring your own gloves.

Garbage bags will be provided.

A special thank you is extended to Waste Management, Inc. They will be donating two large dumpsters for all the solid waste and recyclables collected during the clean up. Celebrate Earth Week by joining the Friends of the Kettle Moraine to help make the Scenic Drive truly scenic for the hundreds of thousands of annual forest visitors. For further information contact Jerry Leiterman, Forest Superintendent, or Jason Quast, Assistant Forest Superintendent, at (262) 626-2116.

Theater dinner and auction May 12

Have you purchased your tickets yet? Well, there is still time to do so, just by stopping at Geidel's Piggly Wiggly, Little Folks School House or the MidAmerica Bank. Tickets must be purchased by May 7.

Maybe you can't get enough people together to purchase a table for eight or just want to go by yourself. That can also be easily done just by calling Lori at (262) 626-2525.

If this is the first time that you have heard about this dinner, here's some information. The dinner is a special fund-raiser being planned by the Kewaskum Theater Fund-Raising Committee. It will be held at the Amerahn on Saturday, May 12, 2007 beginning at 7:00 p.m. The cost for a table that will seat eight people is $120, or, the cost per person

To make this dinner more exciting (beside the chicken cordon bleu, tenderloin tips with noodles, potatoes, veg-etable, salad from Woody's Steakhouse and homemade dessert) the committee is also planning on having a silent auction and cocktails which will begin at 6:00 p.m., as well as a live auction immediately following the dinner, at approximately 8:00 p.m. Mike Paul of Paul Auction Service will be the auctioneer for the evening.

If the dinner and auction isn't enough to enjoy an evening out, how about adding some musical talent from the Kewaskum High School. Beginning at 6 p.m. the high school Swing choir, Jazz Choir, Steel Drum Band and several selected solos and small ensembles will be performing. As an added treat, David Bertelsen, Choral Director at Kewaskum High School, will be performing songs from the many musicals that have been produced over the past 30 plus

After the auction, a raffle drawing, sponsored by the Modern Woodmen of America, will take place. Tickets for this raffle may be purchased from Jeff Jaeger at his office on Fond du Lac Avenue, any member of the theater committee, or by calling (262) 626-8427, ext. 4354. All monies raised at this dinner/auction will be part of the matching funds program sponsored by the Modern Woodmen of America and will be used to help with the construction cost of the new Kewaskum High School Theater.

On Saturday, April 17, at Bay Shore Mall, the World's Largest Orchestra boomed out "The Star Spangled Banner" and Kewaskum was there in force to beat the world's record with 6,179 musicians. Those Kewaskum area residents who were part of the mighty moment included Bud and Anna Asch, John and Pat Coulter, Jackie and Jennie Coulter, Sandy and Heidi Schleiter, Gunner and Jayson Schleiter, Kathy Anderson, Paul and Jenny Anderson, Pat and Mugs McFadden, Shannon McFadden, Joan Rosenberger, Andy and Ann Rosenberger, Val Plaum, Jan Hazlewood, Heidi Edgar, Sue Schmitt, Andy Eisenmann, Connie Nigh and Shelly Fritz.

Melissa Koch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koch of Kewaskum, has been selected as the recipient of the $500 Valley Bank Scholarship, given each year to an outstanding graduate of Kewaskum High School.

Each year some 2,000 junior boys and girls throughout Wisconsin are selected to represent their schools and community at a state gathering of Wisconsin school students. The delegates are sponsored by the local American Legion Post or Auxiliary as well as other local organizations. This year, Amy Vetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vetter, Adell; Connie Nigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Nigh, Kewaskum, and Jackie Bartelt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bartelt, Kewaskum were the three junior students selected from the top third of junior class girls. Dan Gerhartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Gerhartz, Kewaskum, and Mark Rodenkirch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Rodenkirch, Kewaskum, were the two junior boys from the top half of their class

Forty Art III and IV students from Kewaskum High School's art department went on a field trip April 13, to view nearly 1,000 paintings on exhibit in the Gallery at the Performing Arts Center in Milwaukee. What made the excursion even more meaningful to the students was that three of their fellow classmates had their paintings on display. The five KHS entries include David A. Goeden with his painting entitled, "Self Protrait," Julie Lauters with her painting of "Still Life," and Brad Schmidt with his three entries, "Ma-chines," "Still Life," and "Self Portrait." Julie received a Silver Award for her entry and Brad Schmidt received an Honorable Mention.

Host family needed for French student

A host family is needed for one teen boy who will attend Kewaskum High School in September. One family has already been found according to Carrie Schulz.

Yann, 17, is from Saint Maurice, France. He speaks English, French and Russian.

Yann loves sports specifically badmitton, bowling, baseball, swimming canoeing, ice hockey, rugby, snowboarding, table tennis, volleyball, climbing, and skiing. He is also interested in art, computers, and would like to learn about American culture. He is a B student in 11th grade.

He says he is somewhat comfortable living with small children and prefers a twoperson living arrangement as opposed to living with a single person.

The student will have money to pay all personal expenses, and have complete insurance while they attend school for the year.

Please contact Schulz at 262-544-1183 for more information.

Spanish-language trips to Mexico offered through MPTC

As part of its International Studies offerings, Moraine Park Technical College has upcoming language-learning trips to Mexico that community members can join.

The July and December excursions to Cuernavaca, Mexico, are offered in conjunction with Milwaukee Area Technical College. There are four July trips of various lengths from which to choose, each starting July 19 and returning July 28 or Aug. 4, 11 or 18. The December trips depart Dec. 27 and return Jan. 5, 12, 19 or 26.

Offered as a noncredit course, the trips are open to students, staff, alumni and community members and provide intensive training in the Spanish language for all skill levels from beginning to advanced. "Since this course is so intensive and takes place in a Spanish-speaking country, it's an effective way to learn the language in a short time period," said Bobbi Laine, Moraine Park dean of international education. "The course is helpful for business manag ers who work with employees who speak Spanish," she added. Cultural seminars are also con-

Known as the City of Eternal Spring, Cuernavaca is located 50 miles south of Mexico City. Trip participants will attend the Cuauhnáhuac Language Institute, stay with a Mexican family and enjoy optional day visits to places such as Taxco, the silver capital of the world; Teotihuacan, the pyramids north of Mexico City; Tlayacapan, a town with a ceramic marketplace; Mexico City; and Lake Tequesquitengo, a resort

The Forgotten Players

It's times like these that make me wonder. What am I really doing up here?

Do I even fit in on this court?

Does my hard work even pay off anymore?

They all don't even notice it.

They all don't even notice it.
All they seem to see are my flaws.

But do they matter enough to quit?

No, not this time. This time I remember why I play.

nagine a food low in carbohydrates, fat and calories but high in protein. Imagine a food that improves heart health, reduces hypertension, boosts the immune system, helps fight autoimmune disease, improves mental health and cognitive performance and reduces the risk of certain cancers Sound fishy? It is!

Omega-3 powerhouse foods like tuna, salmon and sardines boast a lengthy list of health benefits, as well as amazing versatility and ease in the kitchen

"Salmon and albacore tuna are especially low in fat, contain high amounts of protein and have a variety of essential vitamins and minerals," says registered dietitian Margo Kraus, a nutritional consultant for Bumble Bee Foods and a champion of healthy eating habits.

Kraus notes that salmon, tuna and sardines are all excellent sources of

Omega-3 fatty acids, and the conveniently packed Bumble Bee canned and pouched scafoods lend themselves well to simple and flavorful food

A colorful Mediterranean pasta featuring tomatoes, garlic, rosemary, red bell pepper, olives and tuna makes short work of dinner. A quick sauté in the skillet turns out a zesty sauce, perfect for tossing over your favorite pasta. Add a dash of aged grated parmesan, a pinch of hot pepper flakes or a sprink-ling of minced parsley, and you have a dish elegant enough for company or simple enough for weeknight family fare.

In the mood for a good sandwich? Try a tasty salmon burger spiked with lemon zest and Dijon, married with crisp celery and green onions. Top it off with a savory, creamy dill sauce. Add some chunky slaw and oven-baked potato wedges to round out the meal.

Whatever the preparation, the American Heart Association recommends eating fish (particularly fish with Omega-3 fatty acids such as salmon, tuna and sardines) at least two times a week as part of a healthy diet. Your doctor will thank you ... and so will your taste buds.

Rigatoni Pasta Makes: 6 servings

- 2 6-ounce cans Bumble Bee Solid White Albacore tuna in water, drained
- ounces unsalted butter 1/2 cup extra-virgin olive oil,
- divided large sweet onion, cut into 1/4-inch dice
- 2 medium red bell peppers, seeded and cut into 1/4-inch dice
- large vine-ripe tomato, diced cloves garlic, minced
- 1/3 teaspoon fresh rosemary leaves Sea salt and freshly ground
- pepper 1/2 cup dry white wine

— Amazing Omegas

Omega-3 fatty acids, or essential fatty acids, are critical for good health. Since the body can't produce sufficient essential fatty acids on its own, Omega-3s must be consumed through food sources Omega-3s are found naturally in coldwater fish, with salmon albacore tuna and sardines ranking among the top fish sources of Omega-3 fatty acids.

at state meat convention

The exceptional quality of meat products produced by Kewaskum Frozen Foods of Kewaskum was recognized at the 68th annual convention of the Wisconsin Association of Meat Processors, held in Madison on April 13 and 14. At the Meat Product Show held in conjunction with that meeting. Kewaskum Frozen Foods received the following product awards:

Cooked Bratwurst, uncured, reserve grand cham-

Ring Blogna, fine cut, champion.

Wisconsin Meat The Product Competition the largest of its kind in the United States. Meat processing plants and meat markets from throughout the state this year entered 870 individual products into 36 product categories, including summer sausage, bratwurst, ham, bacon, smoked poultry and a variety of other types of meat products.

Over 40 judges including food scientists, out-of-state meat processors, and other food-industry professionals were required to effectively evaluate the many products during the product evaluation session on Saturday, April 14. Individual products are scored for external appearance and eye-appeal, internal appearance, aroma, and taste, using a scale of 1,000 points.

The size of this product show and the quality of its entries demonstrates the important role that sausage and processed meats play in Wisconsin's meat industry and among state consumers. Wisconsin is known around the US for the quality of its meat products.

Thomas Edison for Kids By Laurie Carlson Chicago Review Press $14.95 148 pages

Think about your favorite cartoon or Manga character.

You know what happens when they get great ideas? Yep, a light bulb appears over their heads.

Now imagine no light bulb. Imagine no movies, recorded music, or electric can openers, and no tattoos. A man named Thomas Alva Edison invented all those things, and in the book "Thomas Edison for Kids" by Laurie Carlson, you'll read all about Edison's life and the stories behind his creations.

Thomas Edison was born in 1847 in a prosperous little town in Ohio. The town was dependent on canal transportation but when the railroad came to a nearby town and merchants began to ship products by train, the little town was nearly abandoned. Mr. Edison moved his family, including young Tom, to Michigan.

Tom Edison was a rascally boy and it seemed that he was always in trouble. He was fascinated with useful inventions and disobeyed his father repeatedly so that he could study things he liked. His father said he didn't have good sense, but the fact was that Tom was just plain curious and always deep in thought.

When Tom was a young boy, he taught himself Morse code (a code that uses a series of "dots" and "dashes") and he became fascinated by the telegraph. When a stranger noticed Tom's interest in the telegraph, he offered to teach Tom how to become a telegraph operator. Tom learned quickly, but his thinking got him in trouble again. He invented all sorts of things that made his job easier, but his bosses weren't impressed one

As an adult, Thomas Edison knew that there was a race to find a better way to harness electricity to make light. Several different methods had been tried, and Edison sent explorers around the world to gather materials to try. After more than 6,000 failed lab experiments, Edison finally found a product that worked. The light bulbs we use today still look very similar to the one Thomas Edison made over 100 years ago!

Do you have a budding scientist on your hands? "Thomas Edison for Kids" is the perfect book for any kid who loves to invent, build, experiment, or just mess around with different compounds to see what happens. Author Laurie Carlson does a fine job presenting a kid-friendly, detailed, highly illustrated biography of Thomas Edison, and I was delighted with the references to Edison-as-troublemaker, since it allows kids to easily identify with him. I also appreciated the list of muse ums that you and your kids can visit.

Then - and this is what your future Nobel Prize Winner will love - scattered throughout this book are 21 experiments that he or she can do, using common household items to learn more about the science that's mentioned in Edison's biography.

"Thomas Edison for Kids" is a book for kids ages 12 and up, but I think a very bright, scientific-minded 9 or 10 year old would relish it. Pick up a copy and turn your kids on to one of America's most prolific

Staege shines but Indian boys have to settle for 5th place

BY JUDY HARLOW Statesman Correspondent

Darn tough ... that pretty well describes the competition at the fifth annual Indian Track and Field Invitational held last Friday afternoon.

New Holstein and Kiel, two of the stronger teams in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, were there to compete, along with New Berlin West and West Bend East, which traditionally fields a good team in the Wisconsin Little Ten Conference.

In the end, it was New Holstein, behind six first places, claiming the team title by scoring 179 points. Kiel was the runner-up, with 147 points, seven more than New Berlin West, and West Bend East rounded out the top four by coming up with 128 points.

Kewaskum, competing without Bob Gibson and Matt Parrent, battled hard to make up for their absence and ended up in fifth place with 90 points, followed in order by Random Lake and Oshkosh Lourdes, which posted numbers totaling 83 and 53, respectively.

The Statesman learned Tuesday evening that Gibson was injured in a physical education class recently. His loss could be disastrous because he excels in the 800 and the 1,600 and often helps run the 4x400meter relay.

Without these two seniors, Kewaskum had to settle for one first place. It was recorded by Logan Staege in the discus. Staege, a three-sport standout at KHS, tossed the discus 150 feet, 5 inches (150-5), and with that effort he had 11 feet to spare over the runner-up in the event.

The best any of the other Indians could do was finish third. Senior Stephan Kattar finished third in the 1,600-meter run, while Kevin Schellinger was in the same spot in the pole vault, and junior Tyler Swanson placed third in the shot, an event he continues to improve in during the still young outdoor season.

Kattar covered the four laps of the 1,600 in 4 minutes, 49.48 seconds (4:49.48) to earn six points for his team, and he added another four points by taking a fourth in the 800 with a fine time of 2:07.67.

Schellinger cleared 11-6 in the pole vault, while Swanson put the shot 44-4.25, his best effort of the year.

Other top-six places included the following: 220, Dan Dymond, fifth place, 24.90; 4x100 relay, fourth, 47.50; 4x200 relay, fourth in 1:37.01; and 4x400 relay, 3:39.78; pole vault, Jake Dickman, sixth, 10-0.

With a lack of depth and experience, KHS coach Jerry Gosa knew his boys would have trouble with teams like New Holstein and Kiel but will be happy if the Indians work hard and continue to improve.

Kewaskum is at the Altheimer Invitational in Pewaukee on Friday.

Kauth ends winter of golfing in grand style

Cornie Kauth

BY JUDY HARLOW Statesman Correspondent

Cornie Kauth called it "a perfect shot," and it certainly was.

Her 8-iron on the 16th hole at Windswept Dunes near Fort Walton Beach, Florida on Thursday, April 19th rolled right into the cup, 99 yards from the tee.

The ace was the first ever by the Port Washington native, who now splits time between Sandestin in Florida's Panhandle and Wisconsin's Kettle Mo-

Kauth had been struggling with her putting much of the day, and a hole-in-one can certainly be a quick cure for the "yips," and it's also a good way to help the scorecard.

Kauth, a former club champion at Hon-E-Kor Country club, was playing in a foursome with her husband, Tom, and Joe and Judy Harlow, who were visiting them for a couple days before attending a family wedding.

All four golfers saw the ball roll into the hole after taking several bounces on the green.

The ace was the first ever by a woman on this hole at Windswept.

The funny thing about the historic event is the two women talked about one of them getting an ace as they were standing on the tee. And they certainly had fun, adding their 1 and 3 for four strokes on the hole, then asking their husbands what their total was.

The Kauths spent Monday and Tuesday driving back to Wisconsin for the summer, and Cornie is eager to play in the Thursday Nite League at Hon-E-Kor, so she can tell her teammates about her perfect shot.

Outdoor Tips & Tricks

by Dave Gowdey

When spring turkey hunting, it isn't uncommon to hear a number of turkeys gobbling just at first light. Trying to decide where to set up and which turkey to target can sometimes be puzzling. A good rule of thumb is to target the turkey that is gobbling on its own rather than just in response to the call. A turkey gobbling on its own is a turkey that is raring to go, and as a consequence is more likely to respond to the call and be easier to decoy.

There are many species of fish that generally hunt for their prey close to the bottom. With a regular fishing rig, where you have a hook with a sinker some distance above it, by the time you can "feel" the bottom with the sinker - your hook and bait is usually dragging where it is likely to get snagged. One way to avoid this is to reverse the normal sequence of hook and sinker. Often called a flounder or halibut rig, this simple rig can be quite effective. One easy way to make such a rig is to use a three way swivel - tie the rod end of the line to the top swivel, a section of line connected to the sinker to the bottom swivel.

and then the hook on a section of line is tied to the middle swivel. By varying the lengths of line attached to the middle and bottom swivel, you can control how close the bait gets to the bottom.

There are many elements that go into making the perfect campsite. Great views, beautiful scenery, proximity to water and shade - these are the ones that we always seem to daydream about. However, there are more important elements we need to consider when we actually pick a campsite. A good rule of thumb is to consider how your beautiful campsite would look after a week of storms with heavy rain and winds. If you'd be able to ride the storms out in relative safety and comfort, you have a great campsite. If not, you should consider moving your campsite to a place where vou would.

If you have a tip to do with hunting, fishing or outdoor skills that you would like to see printed in this column, e-mail the tip to davegowdey@fastmail.fm. Credit will be given in the column to those whose tips are selected for publication.

Moo Juice

Do you know where milk The ave comes from? Hint: it's not from the refrigerator, and it's not just from a carton. Take a sip of moo juice while you read these funto-know facts about your bovine buddies... About 96 million cattle live

About 96 million cattle live on U.S. farms and ranches, and about one-third of those are milk cows (as opposed to beef cattle, which aren't used for milk production). Strictly speaking, cows are of the female variety. Bulls are boy cattle.

Cows weren't always kept as a milk source. Ancient people milked goats and sheep; cattle were used for pulling wagons and for hauling. Mooooooving things around was the cow's first job.

The average milk cow weighs well over a thousand pounds and gives milk enough for 40 people per year. In exchange, she needs 20 pounds of hay, up to 35 pounds of corn and silage, grain supplements, and a bathtub full of water every day.

Think one cow is the same as the next? Not at all! A cow's spots are like fingerprints, and no two are alike.

Now you know a few things about cows... and that ain't no bull!

Kettle Moraine State Forest needs volunteers

The Kettle Moraine State Forest – Northern Unit covers almost 30,000 acres and has approximately 900,000 visitors annually. With all this land to cover and with all those visitors, the forest staff needs some extra help with a variety of tasks.

Are you a people person? If you answered yes, they are looking for you to help staff the front desk at the Ice Age Visitor Center, which is located half mile west of Dundee. They need volunteers who would be willing to give four to five hours on Saturdays and Sundays from May through October. The hours would be from 11:00 am until 3:00 or 4:00 pm. Volunteers would greet forest visitors, help them get orientated to the forest and assist with selling Friends of the Kettle Moraine merchandise. Training will be offered on Wednesday, May 9, at 6:30 p.m. and volunteers will work sideby-side with a forest employee.

Do you have a favorite trail that you enjoy walking? They could use you as one of their Trail Watchers who help them keep alert to the maintenance needs and unique natural happenings on "their trails." Volunteers would sign up for trail or specific trail loop/section on which to be a Trail Watcher. They would inform the forest staff of any maintenance needs like downed trees or vandalized signs. They would inform the staff of what flowers are blooming, what birds/animals were sighted and what other unique finds were found. This information would then be posted at the Ice Age Visitor Center.

Extra volunteers are always needed with special programs offered by the naturalist staff. Help is needed to lead activities, engage people to participate, and set up before and clean up after the event. They are looking for people to help with their Summer Sun Celebration on Saturday, June 16, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. at Long Lake, and on Sunday, June 17, from 12:00 to 3:00 p.m. at Mauthe Lake. Volunteers will assist with sun experiments and solar crafts. On Sunday, July 22, from 12:00 to 4:00 p.m., they need help with their Old-time Nature Skills, Games and Crafts at Mauthe Lake leading old-time games, helping with the crafts and assisting with the nature skills.

For more information about volunteer opportunities in the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit, please contact Jackie Scharfenberg, Forest Naturalist. She may be reached at the Ice Age Visitor Center. The center's phone number is 920-533-8322.

Young KHS track team performs well, takes second behind Kiel Heather Schmitt took sixth place with a jump of 14' 5.75". Schmitt is a sophomore at

BY JUDY HARLOW Statesman Correspondent

They're getting closer. The Kewaskum High girls were just three points behind Kiel in the fifth annual Indians Invitational held Friday, April 20.

Kiel, which has beaten the Indians in a triangular meet this season and at the Oshkosh (Indoor) Invitational, edged the hosts 159-156.

Random Lake was a distant third with its 111.50 points, followed by New Holstein, 94;50; New Berlin West, 55; and Oshkosh Lourdes, 39.

Only six teams showed up for the event, which featured many multiple finishes by the Indians, including the high jump, discus, long jump, 100-meter dash and pole vault, and a sweep in the 4x100 and 4x200-meter relays.

Right from the first individual event, Kewaskum looked strong. In the 100, senior Kelly Uelmen and Jessica Forbes led the final field to the tape, finishing first and second in the event with respective times of 13 and .89 seconds (13.89) and 14.26. Those efforts gave the Indians 18 team points.

Both Uelmen and Forbes were members of the sprint relays, along with Jess Liniewski and Nichole Kison. In the shorter of the two races, it was the Indians going the one lap in 54.09, near a second and a half in front of Kiel.

The 4x200 race was even better for Kewaskum, which was clocked in 1:54.78, with Kiel far back at 1:59.72.

Once again, Kison was a busy gal for the Indians. She had a good afternoon in the long jump, going a personal best of 15 feet, 6 and a quarter inches (15-6.25) to take third place.

Kison, only a sophomore, also ran the tough open 400 where she was second in 1:05.48. the winner of the race was Random Lake's Ashley Maxon, who clocked off a 1:03.25.

In the pole vault, Alyssa Clapper and Crystal Treptow both cleared 8-6, but Clapper got the second place over her teammate because of fewer misses.

Samantha Koch won the pole vault by clearing 9-0.

The high jumpers were very strong Friday as Candace Beine and Liniewski both went over 4-10 before bowing out of the competition. The two tied for second place, earning 14 team points.

And then there was the discus where Lacy Taylor eclipsed the 100-foot mark with her best toss, 105-2, good for second place. Catherine Stoffel wasn't far behind, throwing the silver platter 98-

The Indians got points from the hurdles, as Elizabeth Potter came through with a third in the 100 highs (18.47) and third in the 300 lows (54.54).

Other good efforts came in the final events: 220, Liniewski, second in 28.36; and the 800, Brooke Waala and Morgan Gradingan placed fourth and fifth with respective times of 2:46.41 and 2:49.35.

The distance events probably kept the Indians from overtaking Kiel. Kewaskum scored no points in the 1,600, 3,200 and the 4x800 relay.

Kewaskum competed at the annual Washington County Meet on Tuesday and will be at the Altheimer Invitational at Pewaukee on Friday afternoon. Traditionally the Indians have done very well in the latter event.

Indians netters take their lumps vs. Waupun, Kohler

BY JUDY HARLOW Statesman Correspondent

The Kewaskum High tennis team has had some tough sledding in two of its first three matches of the year, getting shut out by Waupun and winning only once against Kohler.

The best effort thus far came against host Two Rivers on April 17 when the Indians came up one victory short of getting the team win, falling 3-

"We looked much better. Two Rivers and us are usually fairly equal in this one and is usually a good gauge of where we stand," KHS coach Dan Ross said.

About the loss to Waupun, Ross said, "It was our first match of the year, and it looked like it. Waupun's got a good team and had played several matches previously. They outplayed us. No doubt

All the matches were decided in straight sets. The senior tandem of Alex Rauch and Travis Bryant did the best of any of the Indians, winning five games against Derek Braesch and Parker Winter-

"We were hoping to get wins at a few key spots as they are in our sub-sectional," Ross said, referring to the importance in seeding and concluding, "Obviously that didn't happen."

Waupun 7, Kewaskum 0 Singles: 1. Dan Parker lost to Ross Dary, 1-6, 0-6; 2. Justin Graham lost to Paul Towne, 0-6, 2-6; 3. Nathan Bandy lost to Mike Casper, 0-6, 2-6; 4. Kyle Stoffel lost to Derrick Winterhack, 1-6, 1-6

Doubles: 1. Rauch/Bryant lost to Bruesch/P. Winterhack, 2-6, 3-6; 2. Jamie Wiedmeyer/ Chris Larson lost to Kyle Vande Zande/Seth Duarte, 4-6, 0-6; 2. Tony Lewko/Marcello Franco lost to Tyler Gitzel/Caleb

Stenz, 0-6, 2-6

Against Two Rivers, Dan Parker was the lone winner in singles for KHS, and what a match he had, whipping Brian Streu, 6-0, 6-4.

"Dan played very well played smart," Ross said. "Straight set wins at one singles is tough."

"Our one doubles has looked good this season. They play an aggressive form of doubles and work well together," Ross went on about Rauch and Bryant, who defeated Justin Cookle and Kris Kubsh, 5-7, 6-1, 6-4.

"Both the one and three doubles came back after losing the momentum ... tough to do," Ross said, continuing about Rauch and Bryant and praising the play of Lewko and Franco, who came out on top 6-4, 3-6, 6-4

Two Rivers 4. Kewaskum

Singles: 1. D. Parker def. Streu, 6-0, 6-4; 2. Jeremy Parker lost to Mike Koutnik, 1-6, 2-6; 3. Graham lost to Casey Gares, 2-6, 4-6; 4. Stoffel lost to Nathan Joeckeis, 0-6, 2-6

Doubles: 1. Rauch/Bryant def. Cookle/Kubsh, 5-7, 6-1, 6-4; 2. Larson/Bandy lost to David Charles/Jake Kohlmeier, 5-7, 6-3, 6-3; 3. Lewko/Franco def. Tom Schug/Paul Schefel, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Even though the Indians won just one match against Kohler, Ross was pleased with the effort of his athletes.

We did our best against one of the top-rated teams in the state." Ross said. A couple scores were not truly indicative of how our guys played ... lost a lot of ones that went to multiple deuces. That often happens against a really good team. They're more capable of digging in and winning two points in a row when they really need to."

"Our three (Lewko and Wiedmeyer) did a good job obviously. It was the first time they played together, but it didn't look like it. It was good to walk out with one

Kohler 6, Kewaskum 1

Singles: 1. D. Parker lost to Charlie Reinertson, 1-6, 0-6; 2. J. Parker lost to Colin Johnson, 2-6, 0-6; 3. Graham lost to Tim Fehling, 5-7, 1-6; 4. Franco lost to Adam Kellner, 0-6, 0-6

Doubles: 1. Rauch/Bryant lost to Kyle Wuthrich/Michael Knabel, 0-6, 0-6; 2. Bandy/ Larson lost to Andy Copel/Jeremy Mani, 1-6, 1-6; 3. Lewko/ Wiedmeyer def. Douw Vander-Schaef/Nick Ven, 6-2, 6-4.

All Kewaskum players are listed first in results.

The Indians, 0-2 in Eastern Wisconsin Conference action and 0-3 overall, host Roncalli today (Thursday).

Geidel's 35 takes medal in EWC meet No. 2

Statesman Correspondent

Recovering from a higher than expected round in the first Eastern Wisconsin Conference Meet of the year, sophomore Ethan Geidel fired an even par 35 on the Red Nine at Hon-E-Kor Friday afternoon, helping Kewaskum to a second place finish in the competition.

Geidel and senior teammate Casey Scheel, who finished tied for third overall with a 39, both played solid golf toward the Indians' 163 total, but defending champion Plymouth was even better, carding a total of 157 from its low four players.

The Panthers used balance to come out on top as Zach Hunter and Ryan Feldman came in with a 38 and 39, respectively, and Tyler Geldman and Alex Hintz were close behind with identical

Kewaskum's third and fourth men, Nick Gutbrod and Ryan Nuernberg, both fairly new to varsity competition, had a few high scores that led to their totals of 44 and 45.

Kewaskum just nipped Kiel, which soared to third with a 164, while Sheboygan Falls made the top half of the field with its 173.

Manitowoc Roncalli, the winner in the opener last week, struggled and had to settle for fifth place overall with a 177, then came Two Rivers, 181; New Holstein, 184; and Campbellsport, 185.

With two meets in the books, Plymouth is back in familiar territory, leading the field with 4 points, with Kewaskum and Roncalli close behind with six points, and Two Rivers and Kiel tied for fourth with eight points.

Scheel is also showing he can push for an all-conference award after carding a round in the 30s for the second meet in

Athletic complex dedicated

Kewaskum High School officially dedicated their athletic complex, formerly known as the track and football field on Friday, April 20, during the Kewaskum invitational track meet. A new sign replaces a letter board sign for the high school. The new wooden sign, decked out in the Indians' colors, honor the former district educator, principal and coach Ernie "Doc" Mitchell. Mitchell passed away April 9, 2004. Over 40 people attended a social for the Mitchell family before the dedication ceremony. Shown above is daughter Pat Carriveau showing her mother, Ernie's wife, Marion, the sign. Pam Mitchell, far left, also admires the sign. "This is a wonderful honor for our family. Everybody in Kewaskum was his family," said Pam The bottom photo is one of the many teams "Doc" coached. Jet golfers surprise other EWC teams

BY JUDY HARLOW Statesman Correspondent

There was a surprise ending in the first Eastern Wisconsin Conference mini-meet of the year held recently at the Meadow Links golf course.

Defending champion Plymouth was not the winner, nor was Kewaskum which figures to be strong this season.

It was the host Roncalli Jets

It was the host Roncalli Jets claiming top honors in the nine-hole event. Their 153 was better than the winning total the past two seasons, and it was two shots better than the runner-up total submitted by Two Rivers.

Kewaskum and Plymouth had to settle for third and fourth place, respectively, with scores of 162 and 163.

KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt called the Jets' total "super," especially for this early in the season. He said coach Razor Rizachek was shocked by his team's total, which was the best total a Jet team has had in approximately 10 years.

What helped the Jets was consistency. All four counters wound up in the 30s, led by Anthony Nett's 37. Ryan Augustine was next at 38, while Mike Ruzek and Noah Franz both carded 39s.

Kewaskum's No. 1 man, Ethan Geidel, struggled a bit and had to settle for a fiveover-par 40.

Senior Casey Scheel started off well in league play, however, turning in a 38, which put him in a tie for fourth place overall.

Kewaskum's other two counters were Ryan Nuernberg and Andy McDonald, who shot 42 and 43, respectively.

Adam Nebel of Two Rivers, playing in the No. 5 spot for his team, and Kyle Schram, the Raiders No. 2 man, shared the medal. Both shot 36s.

Despite having to start with four points for the fourth place, Eichstedt was quick to comment, "One match does not a season make," and adding, "We are looking for better results on Friday (April 20th) when his Kewaskum team hosts the mini-meet at Hon-E-Kor.

EWC Mini Meet: 1. Roncalli 153, 2. Two Rivers 155, 3. Plymouth 162, 4. Kewaskum 163. 5. Kiel 169, 6. Sheboygan Falls 172, 7. Campbellsport 173, 8. New Holstein 179.

Sectional prices going up

STEVENS POINT- The Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association (WIAA) will increase the price of admission for selected sectional tournament events to $4, effective with the fall sports of 2007. The WIAA Board of Control approved the increase at its monthly meeting Tuesday, April 17.

Sectional ticket prices will go up by $1 to offset an increase in expenses for the administration of tournaments, and for general operation and insurance expenses. Ticket prices for regional and subsectional tournaments, as well as State Tournament ticket prices will remain unchanged.

The WIAA oversees interscholastic athletic programs for 504 senior high schools and 117 junior high/middle level schools in its membership. It sponsors 25 championship tournament series. For more information, please contact the WIAA office at (715) 344-8580.
