School District will look at redrawing boundary lines in May

By Andrew Kuehl
 Statesman Managing Editor
 akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

KEWASKUM— Members of the Kewaskum Board of Education were given back their salaries thanks to the help of one of their political brethren. As of April 30, board members will now receive their $2,050 annual salary prorated.

The meeting was attended by 43 electors of the school district. Town of Farmington Chairman Gary Schreiber, organized the gathering of signatures for the meeting and proposed a resolution before the audience asking that the salary given to board members be returned to them at the rate it was prior to having it taken away in 2005. Christine Horbas seconded the motion.

Neal Weare questioned the legality of holding such a special meeting. Paul Reichert, the district's business manager, quickly pointed out that state statute permits a special meeting of the electors to be held if a petition of 100 signatures or three percent of the electorate was presented to the clerk. For this meeting, 120 signatures were obtained he reported.

Reichert also explained that a special meeting has the same powers as the annual meeting meaning that the district can set salaries, contract with legal counsel and sell property primarily through resolutions. He confirmed this information with an attorney from the Wisconsin Association of School Boards (WASB)

That attorney reported two options could be taken: give the board their salaries from the time the annual meeting of 2006 took place, (including giving a salary to Tammy Eickermann who is no longer on the board) or give the board a prorated salary from April 20 until the time of the next annual meeting, (set for August). Reichert asked if that was the option that Schreiber wanted. He asked the motion read that the salaries would end on July 1, when the district's fiscal year ends.

Schreiber and Horbas concurred and amended the motion.

"When I became aware of what happened at the annual meeting (last year), I called the district office to find out what could be done. I was told if we got 100 signatures on a petition we could hold a special meeting. I did that because we got four new members, one just elected, another just a year and another just over a year. I think it's time we show some support for these people by giving them their salaries back. The only thing you hear from people is when they are upset with you. I think they deserve to get their salaries back," stated Scheiber.

The motion passed, 31 to six to give a prorated salary to the board members.

Mid-America Bank will change hands

By Andrew Kuehl
 Statesman Managing Editor
 akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

Just a few months after a name change to their former St. Francis Bank branches, Mid-America Bank based in Clarendon Hills, Illinois has been acquired by National City Corporation out of Cleveland Ohio. Officials from National City did not comment on how the change will affect their 82 branches in Wisconsin and Illinois.

The two banking giants made the announcement Tuesday, May 1 that they have reached a definitive agreement for National City to acquire MAF Bancorp, the parent of Mid-America Bank.

MAF has $11.1 billion in total assets. MidAmerica Bank is the 11th largest banking institution in the Chicago market with $5.7 billion in deposits. Upon completion of this transaction, National City will have 126 branches in the Chicago market and deposits of more than $10 billion, making it the fourth largest bank in that market. The transaction also marks National City's entrance into Wisconsin.

"The acquisition of MidAmerica Bank aligns perfectly with the strategy we have articulated over the last several years. It provides us the opportunity to serve customers in Milwaukee for the first time," said National City Chairman and Chief Executive Officer David A. Daberko.

More information on the acquisition will be given in future editions.

VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM NEWS NOTES

RECYCLING TIPS

H.D.P.E. #2 PLASTIC

Type: Plastic Bottles, Jugs and Wide Mouth Food Containers. This plastic is normally found in milk, water and detergent bottles & jugs. Wide mouth food containers are normally ice cream, margarine and cool-whip containers.

Hint: H.D.P.E. bottles, jugs and wide mouth food containers will carry the #2 emblem stamped or molded on the bottom. Some milk and water jugs carry no emblem but they are recyclable.

Preparation: Remove caps, rings and metal handles. RINSE CLEAN. This is the most important aspect of a successful recycling program. Bottles that contain liquid residue cannot be recycled. Place #2 plastic bottles in your dark green recycling bin or blue recycling bag along with the other recyclable items. Place bin or bag at the curb on the same day that your solid waste is to be collected. Pick up will be Wednesdays for both solid waste and recyclables. Multi-family dwellings of six or more, remember, your recycling pick up will be the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month.

Note: Do not place automotive product bottles in the recycling bin or bag.

THE KEY WORDS IN PLASTICS: 1 & 2 Bottles, jugs and food containers.

Next week: Corrugated Cardboard

Kewaskum Junior Women host successful mystery

KEWASKUM- It was a night of rock 'n roll, barbecued chicken and corn on the cob in a setting of hula hoops, 45 vinyl RPM records, Frisbees, Twister games, rolled up pants with bobby socks and Marilyn Monroe silhouettes as members of the Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club hosted their third annual murder mystery entitled, "Murder on the Grill".

The mystery story took place in the suburban home of Tom Dooley in Kansas City, Missouri. Tom, owner of the local car dealership "Honest Tom's", just happened to be grilling chicken when his guests began to arrive. A sudden thunderstorm sent his guests rushing into the house while Tom stayed behind to finish cooking the chicken. After the storm, Tom's guests found his lifeless body lying beside the grill as a result of a stab wound leaving those in attendance to determine, "who did it?"

After a night of accusations, twists and turns, the murder mystery was solved. Joe Enright of Boltonville was selected to receive the prize from the entries naming the correct suspect.

The evening was attended by 122 guests who helped the club achieve a net profit over $2,700 that the Juniors have earmarked for the Emergency Medical Services for Children (EMSC) project.

The club will work to fund specialized bags that put critical pediatric emergency equipment and supplies in one place for area ambulances. These "ped bags" will enable EMS (Emergency Medical Service providers) to respond to pediatric calls with organized, easily accessible, and properly sized equipment.

Kewaskum Juniors would thank all who made the night a success especially, Boltonville Fire Department, Tennessees Ace Hardware, Prairie Gardens Realty, Geidel's Piggly Wiggly, The Statesman Weekly Newspaper, Engelhardt Dairy, all the local businesses who displayed table ad tents, all those who attended and special thanks to all who volunteered to play a character.

From last week...

School boundary lines will be discussed at May meeting

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

EDITOR'S NOTE: A portion of this article ran on last week's front page with the continuation to appear on page three. Because of breaking news the continuation was pulled and not put on another page. We apologize for keeping you in suspense this week. My fifth grade English teacher, Sister Janet was right when she preached "Andrew, haste makes waste!" Sorry Sister!

KEWASKUM-Students attending Kewaskum's elementary schools may have some changes in where they will attend classes for the 2007-08 school year. Kewaskum's director of elementary education helped prepare the board for questions they receive at the May meeting, at a special meeting held Monday, April 23.

Kieth Kriewaldt began the meeting by announcing that according to the latest numbers, approximately 840 students will walk through the district's elementary schools on the first day of school this upcoming year. This is an increase of eight students. At KES, 433 are expected, at FES, 242 are expected, and at WES, 165 are expected.

"We are starting to see a pattern at Wayne. We are seeing larger and larger class sizes. Classes are returning to the sizes seen prior to 1991, when the district revised their boundaries the last time," Kriewaldt reported.

The township of Wayne has recently seen an influx of new residential development, while the township of Farmington has just lightly taken their foot off the brake in regards to the same.

Currently the boundaries are set up so that students/families living east of Forest View Road (near the St. Michael's hamlet), attend FES. Students/families living west of Highland Drive in the Kewaskum township, attend WES, and everyone in the middle attends KES. Noticing dwindling attendance numbers at FES in the last few years, Kriewaldt would like to move the boundary lines to ensure balanced class sizes and best use of the district facilities.

Under Kriewaldt's recommendation, families living west of Townline Road, excluding the Essence of Time subdivision would have students attend WES. Families living east of Hickory Drive, Salisbury Road and all roads east would have their students attend FES. Those in the middle will attend at KES.

Kriewaldt stated he wanted to bring this to the board's attention two years ago but with things happening at that time, he held off. He brought the issue to interim superintendent of schools Scott Peterson last year who asked him to hold off until the hiring of Mike Krumm.

"This plan allows for future growth, this plan is equitable among the schools. As much as I hate change, this plan is going to help maintain balanced class sizes into the next five or six years," stated Kriewaldt.

Kriewaldt alerted the board that not every parent is happy about the situation, however some are very happy. Most of the parents were contacted by phone calls and all were followed up by letters explaining the situation, he concluded.

Parents unhappy about the situation may have the opportunity to keep their student in the school they are attending now if they are outside of the boundary. However it must be approved by Kriewaldt and the parent/s would have to provide their own transportation for the student/s. To ensure that classes are not overcrowded, parents interested in this option will have to wait until after registration in August, when class sizes are better determined.

"The bottom line here is that if this does not occur we will have empty classes at FES and have to build at WES," concluded Mike Krumm, superintendent of schools.

ANTIBIOTICS

Antibiotics are medications designed to kill bacterial infections. They do not work for viral infections. Antibiotics work well when taken for strep throat, some sinus infections and ear infections. Because viruses cause colds, the flu, most coughs and most sore throats, antibiotics do not cure them. These illnesses most often need to run their course naturally, which can take about two weeks. See your doctor if you suspect strep throat, a sinus infection, or ear infection. It is important to take antibiotics only as prescribed, and always take the full course of medication even when you feel better. When antibiotics are used improperly or excessively, certain bacteria become resistant to them, rendering the antibiotic ineffective.

Motorcycle crashes result in injuries

TOWN of BARTON- Speed appears to have played a role in a motorcycle accident that occurred shortly after 10:15 p.m. on Saturday, April 28. One adult was injured as a result of the accident which occurred in the 3400 block of Town Hall Road.

The Washington County Sheriff's Department reports that a mini-van being driven by a 44-year-old village of Newburg man, with his wife pulled out of a driveway from a residence on the south side of the road. The driver of the mini-van went east on Town Hall Road.

A short time later, a motorcycle driven by a 26-year-old city of Milwaukee man, headed east bound on Town Hall Road, rear-ended the mini-van. The operator of the motorcycle, who was wearing a helmet, was ejected from his motorcycle.

The driver and passenger in the mini-van, who were both wearing their seatbelts, were not injured.

West Bend Fire and Rescue responded to the scene. Flight For Life Helicopter transported the operator of the motorcycle to Froedtert Hospital in Milwaukee.

The operator of the motorcycle received several injuries, none were thought to be life threatening. The extent of his injuries is currently unknown.

The accident remains under investigation by the Sheriff's Department.

TOWN of ADDISON- A second bike accident occurred shortly after 1:00 a.m. on Sunday, April 29. The driver and a passenger were both injured as a result of a one-vehicle accident involving the motorcycle they were riding on.

The accident occurred on Highway W south of Highway 33 in Allenton.

The Washington County Sheriff's Department reports the motorcycle was being driven by a 33-year-old city of West Bend man. A 44-year-old-female was a passenger on the motorcycle.

The operator of the motorcycle was northbound on Highway W, negotiating a curve, when it appears the motorcycle exited the roadway on to the gravel shoulder. The operator then lost control and the motorcycle skidded along the gravel shoulder.

Both the operator and passenger on the motorcycle were ejected and neither of the subjects was wearing a helmet.

Allenton Fire and Rescue responded to the scene along with West Bend Rescue.

Both subjects were transported to St. Joseph's Hospital, in the Town of Polk, as a result of their injuries. The female was later transferred to Froedtert Hospital in Milwaukee by Flight For Life. Shortly after, the female was transported to Froedtert Hospital. The male was transported to Froedtert Hospital by Life Star Ambulance. Both subjects' suffered head trauma. Their injuries are not believed to be life threatening.

During the initial investigation into the accident it appears speed and alcohol were probably contributing factors.

Deceased goats found in Farmington

TOWN of FARMINGTON- The Washington County Sheriff's Department along with the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (DNR) are investigating the finding of a number of animal carcasses.

Captain Steve Gonwa reports the department received a report of goat carcasses on Wednesday, April 25. Thirteen carcasses were located along the ditchline of Scenic Drive west of Maple Tree Road. One group of seven and one group of six were found at various stages of decomposition. Closer examination showed six geese and duck carcasses and a dog carcass as well.

Benefit planned this weekend

Wondra not complaining about his rollercoaster ride with cancer

Tom Wondra works with Dave Schmitz at Back in Action Rehabilitation. Wondra suffers from bone cancer. A benefit to help pay for his medical bills is being held in Lomira this weekend.

You could call Tom Wondra of Campbellsport an expert on Murphy's Law of cancer. However, since his fight began, he's been fighting hard, with a smile and his chin held high. Friends and family are holding a fundraiser in Lomira this coming weekend to help assist with his medical expenses.

Tom's cancer rollercoaster began when doctors discovered renal cell cancer in 1999. He subsequently underwent surgery to remove a kidney. From that time until September of 2005 Tom went cancer free. While doing work at home, Tom broke his arm.

During care it was discovered that a tumor was forming on the bone. The cancer weakened and ate through the bone causing the fracture. The following month the infected bone was removed and replaced with donated bone allowing a reconstruction of his humorous (arm). Two metal plates were also installed on each side of the bone to aid in healing and to strengthen the bone.

As a precautionary measure, in January of 2006, a cat scan was performed to watch for other potential places the cancer may have spread. It was discovered that another tumor had started in Tom's femur. Another surgery, more metal parts, and a pin was placed in that bone.

Subsequently, the screws broke in his repaired humorous and a second similar surgery was performed in April 2006. This time a pin was placed inside the bone and connected to the stable bone to make the arm stronger.

In August of 2006 a staph infection was discovered from the first surgery. A third surgery needed to be performed to clean out the infection and Tom subsequently went through eight weeks of daily intravenous injections.

Tom continues to fight bone cancer but is well on his way to recovering. He has not been able to go back to work at Regal Ware in West Bend since his rollercoaster ride began. Regal has held his job for him so that when he fully recovers, he can return.

"I wouldn't change any of this. I have so many people caring, giving calls, cards and letters," Tom stated.

Tom works on his therapy seven days a week, two hours a day, on his own at home. He supplements that with care at Back in Action Rehabilitation Center in Kewaskum and at The Health Hut in Campbellsport.

Tom began his care at Back in Action in Fond du Lac with Dave Schmitz and when Dave transferred to Kewaskum, he

"There is so much individualized care. It's fantastic. He (Dave) does everything with you. He's a great friend," stated Tom

Back in Action maintains three satellite offices in Kewaskum, Mayville and New Holstein with a larger facility in Fond du Lac. Dave says the goal of the satellite clinics is to provide convenient one-on-one care for these smaller communities.

Dave has been with Back in Action for over 12 years, with the last one-and-a-half at the Kewaskum office. He brings over 20 years of orthopedic therapy experience to his patients. He specializes in shoulder, spine and lower extremity rehab and movement retraining.

"You have to want to get better," Tom concluded.

A fundraiser to help Tom with his enormous medical expenses is slated for this weekend, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 5, 6 and 7 at Mid West Shooters Supply near the Highway 41 and 67 intersection in Lomira. Friends and family will grill out and sell brats and burgers. A bake sale and raffle is also planned.

EVENTS

Not too late to attend Theater Dinner and Auction

Still haven't decided on what you are going to do on Saturday, May 12? The Kewaskum Theater Fund Raising Committee has a great choice for you to consider.

Just imagine having a chance to bid on a week's stay at a condo in Myrtle Beach, a weekend get-away on the lake in Shawano or even four front seats for the fall high school musical. There are many other items on the auction, both silent and live, that include: numerous wood working items (birdfeeder, child's stool, wooden boxes, squirrel feeder), two evergreen trees, delivered and planted, shadowbox photo/scrapbook, 10 year subscription to The Statesman, a Sea kayak, gift cards, club seats to a Milwaukee Brewers game, painted wine glasses, painted wash tub filled with bottled water, soda & snacks, a quilt, horse & carriage ride through the Kettle Moraine, floral gift basket, cook ware, coffee maker, popcorn popper, autographed & numbered artists prints, door mirror, Milwaukee Public Museum admission passes, lift tickets to Sunburst Ski Area, hand quilted tote bag, home tooth whitening kit, grapevine basket with bottles of wine, a basket of hair care products, a three story swallow house and a beautiful Hunters Table. All of these items and more will be available for you to bid on at the Kewaskum Theater Dinner/Auction.

Woody's Steakhouse is providing the dinner. Pre-dinner entertainment will include the high school Swing Choir, Jazz Choir and the Steel Drum Band. The silent auction, entertainment and cocktails begin at 6 p.m., dinner at 7 p.m., live auction at 8 p.m. and the Modern Woodmen raffle drawing will take place at 9 p.m.

The dinner tickets will be on sale until Monday, May 7, 2007. Tickets for the dinner are selling at $120.00 for a table of eight, or $20.00 for individual tickets and may be purchased at Geidel's Piggly Wiggly, MidAmerica Bank and Little Folks School House. Individual tickets may be purchased by calling Lori Schoofs, at (262) 626-2525.

Pioneer family day May 5

Have you ever wondered what life was like for early Wisconsin pioneers? Here is your chance to find out. The Washington County Historical Society will be hosting pioneer family day.

The event takes place at the Historical Society Museum, 320 S. Fifth Avenue in West Bend on Saturday, May 5, from 10 A.M. until 3 P.M. This free program is fun for the entire family anytime during the day.

Performers dressed in authentic period outfits will be reenacting early history at their "Living History Encampment" on the Old Courthouse grounds. Visit with a blacksmith, a fur trader, a German immigrant family, a flintknaper, a spinner, sing songs and play instruments with a primitive musician, and more.

Get a hands-on and up close look at what life was like for early settlers of Wisconsin. At each encampment you will be able to see, feel, hear, and even smell the heritage and history of Wisconsin. Light refreshments will be available.

The Washington County Historical Society is a not-for-profit organization funded largely through public support. For more information about the Society and other upcoming events please check their website at www.historyisfun.com, or call 262-335-4678. If you are interested in volunteering at the Society please contact Ted Condé, Volunteer Coordinator, at 262-335-4678 too learn more about volunteer opportunities.

'Survivor - Africa' winner, Zohn joins West Bend effort

WEST BEND- Ethan Zohn, winner of "Survivor - Africa", the third season of CBS television's landmark reality series, has stepped forward to support the fundraising efforts of "Brick by Brick for Tanzania!" a benefit concert being held in West Bend to build a new "head start" preschool and daycare facility in the African nation of Tanzania.

Ethan Zohn
Winner: Survivor Africa

Zohn knows well the debilitating effect that poverty has upon the peoples of Africa. Since winning the million dollar Survivor prize in 2002, Zohn has dedicated his life as a celebrity towards raising awareness and funds for AIDS education and research in Africa. The primary vehicle for his effort has been an organization that he co-founded called Grassroot Soccer. (www.grassrootsoccer.org)

Much of Zohn's inspiration came first hand from the children of Africa during his 39 day Survivor experience. Early in the competition, Ethan earned a reward journey to the Kenyan village of Wamba. While visiting a local hospital, the former standout soccer star struck up a raucous, makeshift game of hackysack with a group of children playing outside.

The joy of the spontaneous moment however was shattered abruptly when Ethan was told by a nurse that the children with whom he was frolicking so gleefully were patients of the hospital - all dying of AIDS. It was to Zohn, "an experience I'll never be able to forget." It was an experience that would drive his later activism and commitment.

Much like the children of Wamba, Kenya, in neighboring Tanzania approximately 40% of the total population are HIV positive with another 40% having a direct family member diagnosed as having AIDS. The lack of appropriate education and adequate healthcare have combined to fill the many orphanages with children who have lost both parents to the devastation of the epidemic.

"Poverty can lead to many outcomes, malaria, infant mortality, and child labor. But one of the most devastating of these, of course, is AIDS," Zohn stated. "We founded Grassroot Soccer to work directly to raise awareness and enhance education through sport. The efforts of 'Brick by Brick for Tanzania!' to build a pre-school uses education for the same aim - to improve conditions for the children of Africa. I commend the people of West Bend for supporting this wonderful effort."

To help raise awareness for "Brick by Brick for Tanzania!", Zohn has graciously offered several pieces of autographed Survivor memorabilia to be auctioned off at the event. These items will be auctioned off during the concert performances on May 11 and 12 at 7 p.m. at the West Bend Downtown Cinema.

As two additional prizes, Ethan and his fellow Survivor winner, Jenna Morasca (winner, Survivor - Amazon) have offered to auction off individual ten-minute personal phone calls to discuss Africa, Survivor past or present, the latest efforts with Grassroot Soccer and KickAIDS, give a pep talk for a youth soccer team, or whatever topic the auction-winner may choose to discuss.

Tickets are available at a price of $25 for adults, and $15 for children (12 and under) and can be obtained at many Washington County locations (including First Bank, The Grill, The Statesman, Morning Glory Café, St. Somewhere, and the White House of Music) or at the Trinity Lutheran Church office on 7th Ave in West Bend. All proceeds go directly toward materials needed to build the preschool facility in Tanzania. Unfortunately, this event is NOT wheelchair accessible.

Women's retreat to be held May 19

The women of St. Michael and Holy Trinity Catholic Parishes are busy planning a second women's retreat. The theme of the retreat is "Reflections: Seeing God's Image in Ourselves".

The event is slated for Saturday, May 19th at the Cedar Valley Retreat Center on Highway D in Kohlsville. The day of spiritual growth begins with check in at 8:30 a.m. The day will end at 4 p.m. with celebration of Mass at 4 p.m.

A guest speaker, Carol Sullivan, will be presenting "...Praying with women of the Bible". There are many more details to the day, including time to socialize, or take some quiet time on the beautiful retreat grounds at Cedar Valley.

The registration fee for the day, including lunch, morning and afternoon snacks, is $30 and should be made payable to Holy Trinity Parish.

Those not able to attend the entire day are able to request a reduced registration. For that and any other questions, please call Sandy Passineau at (262) 305-7512.

Make a Hummingbird Habitat for Mom This Mother's Day

(ARA) - From the first breadcrumbs she helped you toss on the lawn for the birds, your mother has nurtured your love of the natural world around you. This Mother's Day, why not help her foster a closer relationship with Mother Nature by creating a backyard habitat for one of her favorite creatures?

"Just as every mother is unique and wonderful, hummingbirds are unlike any other species of bird," says John Schaust, chief naturalist of Wild Birds Unlimited. "Beautiful and delicate, they are also capable of amazing feats of strength and endurance, just like Mom. With a few simple touches, you can create an environment that will draw hummingbirds to Mom's backyard throughout the season."

The 320 species of hummingbirds live only in the Americas, and only about 16 species can be found in North America. In most areas, the tiny wonders arrive in the south as early as January or February, and make their way north by April or May. Because hummingbirds use so much energy flying, they need to eat up to twice their weight in nectar or other foods each day. The hummingbird's voracious appetite creates a great opportunity for humans to enjoy their company.

"All birds, including hummingbirds, have basic needs for their habitat," says Schaust. "They require food, water, shelter and a place to raise their babies."

To create Mom's hummingbird habitat, first decide if her backyard meets the requirements of shelter and a place to nest. Does the yard have mature trees or are there trees nearby where the birds could nest? Hummingbirds will only nest in trees, and each nest is a golf-ball-sized concoction of lichen, thistle down and spider webbing.

Next, tackle their nutritional requirements. Nectar makes up a good portion of the hummingbird's diet. In the wild, they draw nectar from flowers using their long, slender tongues. You can create nectar for them by mixing one part regular table sugar to four parts boiled water. Be sure not to boil the water with the sugar already added. Mix in the sugar after the water has come to a boil. Allow the nectar to cool completely before filling your feeder and refrigerate any extra. Never add food color to your nectar or use artificial sweeteners, honey or fruit juice to feed your hummingbirds.

Choose a hummingbird feeder based on its appeal for the birds, not on how well it fits into Mom's outdoor décor. Wild Birds Unlimited sells a 16-ounce polycarbonate feeder designed on the advice of hummingbird experts. The feeder is easy to fill, hang or post mount, is dishwasher safe and equipped with a built-in ant moat to keep away one of the perennial pests of hummingbird habitats.

Hummingbirds also eat small insects for protein. You can further enhance Mom's hummingbird habitat by placing overripe fruit in hanging baskets near your feeder. This will attract small fruit-loving flies that hummingbirds like to dine on.

The next step is to add a hummingbird-friendly water feature to the habitat. Hummingbirds prefer to fly through moving water, rather than perch on the edge of a bird bath. So consider installing a birdbath with a drip feature, or placing an independent dripper - such as Wild Birds Unlimited's Lily Pad Dripper - on a tree or pole near where the hummingbirds eat.

Finally, create Mom's place in the habitat by arranging a comfortable lawn chair and shade umbrella in a quiet spot where she'll be able to watch the hummingbirds visit. For more ideas on creating a backyard habitat for hummingbirds and other wild feathered friends, visit www.wbu.com.

Salmon Wellington

Puff pastry encloses flavorful salmon, spinach and herbs in a main dish fit for a special occasion. Wellington preparations are thought to take a great deal of time and skill to make. However, with the time saver of purchased puff pastry, it's a breeze. The bundles can be prepared up to a week in advance and then frozen. Just pop them in the oven when needed.

Note: Puff pastry must be cold (but not frozen) when placed into a hot oven in order for the pastry to become light and flaky.

Makes: 4 servings

- 1 tablespoon sweet butter
- 1-1/2 tablespoons shallots or onion, minced
- 1/2 cup frozen spinach, defrosted and well drained,
- 1/8 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1/2 tablespoon lemon zest
- 1 teaspoon thyme or dill, minced
- Kosher salt and cracked black pepper
- 1-1/2 tablespoons crumbled feta cheese
- 4 thick, skinless fillets of salmon (about 6 ounces each)
- 2 packages puff pastry (defrosted in refrigerator)
- 1 lightly beaten egg
- 1 teaspoon milk

1. Heat sauté pan with butter over medium heat. Add shallots and sauté 3 to 4 minutes until softened. Reduce heat to medium-low and add spinach, nutmeg, lemon zest, thyme, salt and pepper. Sauté 2 to 3 minutes; remove from heat and stir in feta. Taste for seasoning and let cool.
2. Lightly salt and pepper each piece of salmon and top with 2 tablespoons of spinach mixture.
3. Roll out pastry sheets on lightly floured board. Cut 1 piece of pastry for bottom of each fillet — about 1 inch larger than the salmon. Cut a second piece large enough to drape over fillet and touch counter, plus 1 inch to spare all the way around.
4. Brush edge of smaller sheet with lightly beaten egg mixed with milk. Place 1 piece of salmon in center of pastry. Drape larger piece over salmon and seal the two pieces of dough together by folding and pleating like a pie crust. Repeat for each "package." Chill at least 30 minutes or freeze up to 1 week before baking.
5. Preheat oven to 425°F. Brush top of each package with a small amount of egg/milk mixture. Put on sheet pan lined with parchment paper and a dusting of corn meal. Bake in preheated oven for 18 to 23 minutes, until golden. Let rest 5 to 10 minutes before serving.

Treat Mom

on Her Special Day

FAMILY FEATURES

What can family members do special this year for Mom? Most Moms dream of a fine meal they don't have to shop for, cook or clean up afterwards. Often going out for breakfast on Mother's Day can mean dealing with long lines and slow service. But Dad and the kids can rise to the occasion and prepare a meal themselves at home that can be a real treat.

Even the dad who only makes breakfast on weekends can cater a fine restaurant meal at home, with kids as willing sous chefs. It's easy when your family shops where the pros shop, such as Sam's Club for frozen appetizers, readymade pastry, organic produce, fine wines, quality meats, great breads and fabulous cheesecake ready to thaw and serve.

For a crowning touch, add an unexpected and affordable luxury gift and Mom just might decide to sign on for another year.

Check out www.samsclub.com — or the Sam's Club nearest you — for more great Mother's Day ideas.

Mother's Day Game Plan

Here's the game plan for catering a Mother's Day meal at home.

- Chill the champagne or make a delicious punch a few hours before the meal.
- Read the instructions on the box, then pop those frozen appetizers in the oven.
- Prepare and cook the salmon.
- Slice up some fresh fruit or bread.
- Finish with a deliciously moist cheesecake — a Mom favorite. (Remember to thaw it beforehand.)
- Serve Mom in bed — let her relax and enjoy the meal and her day.
- Have the kids clean up the kitchen.
- Watch Mom smile.

Mom's Secret Wish List

Mom usually puts the needs of her family first. But if she were really honest, she would say she'd love to have something from this list. And, Dads, when you shop smart, these become affordable luxuries.

1. Diamonds. They're always a girl's best friend. Diamond solitaire earrings go with everything — jeans on the soccer field, a suit at the office or workout clothes at the gym.
2. Designer Fragrances. Perfume and cologne in her special scent makes Mom feel pampered and special.
3. Furniture. Surprise her with something she's been wanting, whether it's the armoire for the great room, a new desk for the home office or even a new leather sofa.
4. Chocolate. Always a treat, especially now that health experts have declared that dark chocolate is actually good for us. Now, will it be Godiva or Ghirardelli?
5. Culinary Ware. If Mom has been trying to make culinary masterpieces from a mismatched set of cookware from her early married days, it's time for an upgrade. Or, maybe she'd love a stand mixer or a great platter.

Cranberry Splash Punch

Makes: 8 servings

- 4 cups cranberry juice
- 3 cups pineapple juice
- 1/2 cup cherry juice
- 2 cups puréed strawberries or raspberries (fresh or frozen)
- 6 cups ice cubes
- 2 lemons, sliced
- 2 limes, sliced
- 3 cups orange soda or ginger ale

Mix all juices and puréed berries and chill thoroughly. To serve, put punch in handsome container and add ice and fruit. Slowly stir in orange soda.

Sylvan Learning's Helpful Hints for Student Success:

Teachers say parents are often "unpleasantly surprised" by child's report card

Report cards are part of every child's academic experience, and don't need to be a surprise to parents. If a parent is surprised by a poor report card, it often means that they haven't been effectively communicating with their child or their child's teacher throughout the year. Students who are surprised by their own report cards also need to improve their communication and organization patterns.

It shouldn't take a surprise report card for parents and teachers to communicate effectively. Sylvan Learning Center offers the following advice to help parents maintain clear communications with their children and teachers:

Tips for Talking To Children

- Talk about school every day. Make it a regular part of the family's routine.
- Frequently discuss with your child how she is doing in each subject and what grade she anticipates receiving.

- Encourage your child to tell you about his day. Find out what he learned and what are his favorite activities.

- Teach your child that education is important to your family.
- Discuss goals and objectives for the school year. This may be a great way to learn about difficulties your child is having in specific subject areas.

- If your child is having trouble in school, talk about a method to help organize her schedule, subjects and activities.

- Talk with your child about his study habits and develop a study plan. Set aside specific time for studying, projects and activities each evening.

Tips for Talking to Teachers

- Develop a parent/teacher relationship with your child's teacher and talk with this teacher at least once a month throughout the year.

- Your child's teacher can benefit from background information about him - talk about activities he likes, special needs, close friends, motivation and things going on at home.

- Find out what the teacher's expectations are for the year and what type of curriculum she has set for the students.

- Remember - teachers are busy people, too. Find out the easiest way to communicate - by email, phone or in person. Finding the right communication method will make it easier to speak on a regular basis.

WES holds spring concert

Wayne Elementary School fifth grade students Jessica Nurkala, Carly Reif and Marissa Philippi perform "Jim Along Josie" while the kindergarteners participate in an accompanying folk dance.

WES fourth graders Melanie Juech performs a piano solo for the audience before the concert begins.

KMS concert May 7

The Kewaskum Middle School (KMS) Bands will present their final regular concert of the year on Monday, May 7, at 7:00 pm in the KMS gym. This should be the last concert in the gym for the KMS music department as the construction gets underway for the new Kewaskum Theater at the High School.

The concert will feature all three grades and the jazz band playing a variety of "pop" tunes that everybody will recognize. Come and hear Rock Around the Clock, Themes From Harry Potter, the Josh Groban's You Raise Me Up, tunes from Grease and the Beatles' Yellow Submarine and other familiar songs.

Special guest artists will be the new fifth grade band, combining Wayne, Farmington and Kewaskum elementary schools in one fifth grade band.

KHS honors ceremony May 9

Kewaskum High School will be holding the 22nd annual Scholastic Honors Ceremony on Wednesday, May 9, at 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. This program will recognize the accomplishment of Kewaskum High School students, scholarships will be presented, and the community will have an opportunity to recognize the accomplishments of the fine student body.

Light refreshments will be served.

OBITUARIES

JOHN 'NED' GRAEF

John "Ned" Graef, of the Village of Kewaskum, went home to be with his Lord on Wednesday, April 25, 2007 days after his 94th birthday.

He was born on April 23, 1913 in Dayton, Ohio to the late Forrest and Ora Donella (nee Wicks) Graef.

As a young man, Ned was very interested in flight. He enjoyed designing and flying his own glider as well as inventing a variety of toys and his very own camera. Throughout his life, Ned was fascinated by the theories of gravity and magnetic fields. He was also very interested in the theory of relativity.

Ned was united in marriage to Mary Summers and together they moved to Michigan where Ned began designing cameras and camera equipment for a company named Argus. Ned continued his career in camera design and optical technology for a variety of employers including ones that worked closely with NASA. Before his retirement, Ned was employed by Realist Inc. in Menomonee Falls as the chief design engineer of 3D photography. While working there he received the Governor's Award for New Design of the Year for inventing the Vantage Microfische Reader. Ned was a wonderful father, and was known by his grandchildren as Grandpa the Great.

Ned is survived by his two loving daughters, Diane (John) Engel of Kewaskum, and Kathie (Larry) Whiffen of Milwaukee; his five grandchildren, Michael (Bridget) Carbiener of Denver CO, Darrin (Karla) Engel of Lake Worth FL, Justin Engel of Albuquerque NM, Brian Whiffen of Myrtle Beach SC, and Lisa (Joe) Garner of Jackson TN; his four great-grandchildren, Emily and Elizabeth Carbiener, and Shelby and Mason Whiffen. He is further survived by a brother Gordon Graef of Fort Wayne IN; and many other relatives and dear friends.

He was preceded in death by his wife, his parents, and his two brothers, Dick and Dan Graef.

A celebration of Ned's life was held on Saturday, April 28, at 1:30 pm at First Baptist Church in West Bend. Rev. Bruce Dunford officiated and burial followed in Cedar Creek Cemetery in the Town of Polk. Visitation with the family was at the church on Saturday from 12:00 pm until the time of service at 1:30 pm.

Memorials to the First Baptist Church will be used to plant a tree in Ned's memory, and would be greatly appreciated by the family.

Myrhum-Patten Funeral & Cremation Service of West Bend served the family.

ERNA H. KOHL

Erna H. Kohl (nee Rate), age 91, went home to the Lord Saturday, April 28th, 2007 at Samaritan Health Center in West Bend.

Erna was born to Edward and Rose (nee Buddenhagen) Rate on September 6th, 1915 in Addison.

Erna married the love of her life, Otto Karl Kohl, on June 17th, 1939. Together they farmed in the Town of Kohlsville for 46 years while raising their family. In addition to farming she gardened and raised poultry, selling farm fresh eggs for many years.

Erna is survived by her cherished husband of 67 years, Otto; one daughter Janice (Harold) Ehlke, Jackson; two grandchildren, Lisa (Jon) Nimmer, Milwaukee and Daniel Ehlke, Allenton; sisters-in-laws Mary Rate, West Bend; Grace Rate, rural West Bend and Sylvia Heinecke, West Bend. She is further survived by many loving relatives and friends. Erna was preceded in death by two brothers Roland and Marvin.

Funeral Services were held on Wednesday, May 2nd, 2007 at 7:00 p.m. at the Phillip Funeral Home Chapel, West Bend, with Rev. Steve Bode officiating. Friends visited with the family from 5:00 p.m. until the time of service at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday, May 2nd, 2007.

A service of committal took place Thursday, May 3rd, 2007 at 9:30 a.m. at Washington County Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers the family would appreciate memorials to Zion Evangelical Church of Allenton.

MARVIN R. 'MARV' KUEHL

Marvin R. "Marv" Kuehl, of West Bend, entered into eternal peace on Thursday, April 26, 2007 at Cedar Lake Healthcare Center, after 89 years of life.

Marvin was born on March 1, 1918, the son of John and Dorothy (nee Herman) Kuehl in the town of Wayne, where he was also raised.

Marvin left school, and began farming in 1956. He later started his career in the residential construction business, and in 1960 he pioneered his own home building and renovations company. In his free time, Marvin loved fishing and playing cards. He was a member of Salem United Church of Christ in Wayne.

Marvin is survived by his daughter, Elaine (Kenneth) Schmidt of Richfield; his four cherished grandchildren, Doug (Jen) Schmidt, Debbie (Paul) Fait, Daryl (Brenda) Schmidt, and Diann Schmidt; six great-grandchildren, Taylor, Katyr, Keegan, Lexi, Emily, and Justin; and his sister-in-law, Darlene Kuehl of Campbellsport. He is further survived by many nieces, nephews, other special relatives and friends. Marvin was preceded in death by his parents, his beloved wife, Celeste I. (nee Foerster) Kuehl on January 21, 2007; his daughter, Gladys; brothers, Romand, Elmer, and Lester; and sister, Wynona Stroman.

A Funeral Service in memory of Marvin was held on Tuesday, May 1, 2007 at 12:00 p.m. (noon) at the Phillip Funeral Home, with Pastor Daniel Schultz and Rev. Donald Koehn officiating. Visitation with family and friends was held on Tuesday, May 1, 2007 from 10:00 a.m. until the time of the Funeral Service at 12:00 p.m. Interment took place at 2:30 p.m. at Salem Cemetery on Tuesday.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Salem United Church of Christ in Wayne.

ROBERT R. REUTER

Robert R. Reuter, 73, of West Bend, passed away Wednesday, April 25, 2007 at Froedtert Memorial Hospital in Wauwatosa.

He was born on May 30, 1933 in the town of Barton to the late George and Dorothy (nee Fuller) Reuter. Robert was united in marriage to Shirley Abel on June 9, 1956 at St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church in West Bend.

Robert worked at Regal Ware in Kewaskum for 27 years and then for the City of West Bend in the Parks Department for 17 years, retiring in 1996. He was a member of St. Andrew Lutheran Church, West Bend. He enjoyed fishing even though his lures always got stuck somewhere, working in his garden, bird watching, and playing Sheephead.

Robert is survived by his wife, Shirley; three children Cindy (Michael) Tomko of Eagle River, Terry Reuter of West Bend, and Debbie (Gary) Puestow of West Bend; four grandchildren, Tracy (Randy) Rein, Michelle (Lee) Sommerfeld, Jesse (Mária) Reuter, and Jason Tomko; five great-grandchildren, Miranda, Shawn, Zachary, Lilly, and Faith; a sister, Audrey (Roger) Heberer of Campbellsport; a sister-in-law, Lucille (Arland) Seyfert of West Bend, three brothers-in-law, Milton (Lorraine) Abel of Random Lake, John (Ruth) Abel of Eagle River, and Virgil Hackbarth of West Bend; his phone buddy, Raymond Fuller, his canine companions, Misty and Muffy; other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his stepfather, Roy Meyer; a sister, Mary Hackbarth, two brothers, George Reuter and John Reuter; his parents-in-law, John and Esther Abel, a sister-in-law, Lucille Abel; two brothers-in-law, Alois Braun, and Ray Abel and his wife, Jeanette Abel.

Funeral services for Robert were held on Sunday, April 29 at 5:00 p.m. at St. Andrew Lutheran Church, with Rev. Robert Korytkowski officiating. Visitation was at the church only, on Sunday from 2:00 p.m. until the time of service. Burial was in Washington County Memorial Park, West Bend, on Monday at 1:00 p.m.

Memorials to St. Andrew Lutheran Church are appreciated.

Myrhum - Patten Funeral & Cremation Service, West Bend, assisted the family.

THOMAS P. MAINZINGER

Thomas P. Mainzinger, 84, of West Bend passed away Thursday, April 19, 2007 at St. Luke's Medical Center in Milwaukee.

He was born on Oct. 15, 1922 in Detroit to the late Harry and Wilhelmina (nee Paull) Mainzinger.

Tom graduated from Michigan State University in 1943 with a degree in metallurgical engineering. He served in the U.S. Navy as an officer on the submarine USS Cavalla during WWII and was present for the signing of the Japanese surrender that ended the war.

Tom was united in marriage to Edith Gould on June 23, 1951 in Detroit, Mich. Edith passed away on Feb. 15, 1982.

Tom was employed at Attwood Corp. in Grand Rapids, Mich. for several years and later was vice president at Kainer-Wesco in Wheeling, Ill. In 1971, he moved to West Bend and purchased the Allenton Metal Finishing Corporation where he served as president until the time of his death.

He is survived by three children, Tom (Vickey) Mainzinger of Boltonville, Sandy (Gordy) Miles of Whitewater, and Brent (Elaine) Mainzinger of Batavia, Ill.; six grandchildren, Krysti (Michael) Turznik, David Mainzinger, Paul Mainzinger, Laura Mainzinger, Alison Miles and Kelcie Miles; other relatives and friends.

An open house in celebration of Tom's life will be held on Saturday, May 5, from 3 to 7 p.m. at Tom's home in West Bend.

In lieu of flowers, memorials to the American Heart Association would be appreciated.

Myrhum-Patten Funeral & Cremation Service, West Bend, is assisting the family.

Why Don't Woodpeckers Get Headaches? And Other Bird Questions You Know You Want to Ask

By Mike O'Connor

WHY DON'T WOODPECKERS GET HEADACHES?

And Other
Bird Questions
You Know
You Want to Ask

few weeks each spring.

And just in case you were wondering about other birds of a feather, O'Connor includes answers to questions about penguins, auks, roadrunners, flamingoes, storks, and, yes, the woodpecker in bad need of a bottle of aspirin.

As both a casual bird watcher and a lover of little-known tidbits, I was eager to read this book when I got it. I expected to learn a few things. I didn't expect to laugh so hard doing it.

Author Mike O'Connor's answers are entertaining and educational at the same time, kind of like getting answers from that smart guy in high school who was always goofing around. O'Connor doesn't take himself seriously, but his answers are. They're common-sense and easy to understand no matter what your bird watching skill level. They're also easy for most birders to carry out, even though some of them are kind of no-(bird)-brainers.

If you're itching to fly out of the house to watch your fine feathered friends, take a couple hours to read this book first. For neophyte bird lovers and veteran birders alike, "Why Don't Woodpeckers Get Headaches?" is a book worth crowing over.

OBITUARIES

A memorial Mass of Christian Burial was at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, May 1, 2007, at Clement Manor Chapel, Greenfield.

Family and friends gathered and shared memories from 10 to 11 a.m. on Tuesday, May 1, 2007, at Clement Manor Chapel.

Mass offerings would be appreciated.

Prasser-Klecza South Suburban Chapel, Milwaukee, served the family.

OUR THANKS

We would like to thank all of our family and friends for all their care and concern during the recent loss of our son, brother, and uncle RON PROCHNOW. Special thanks to the pallbearers and Twohig Funeral Home for all their support, for the beautiful service and words of encouragement at the loss of our brother Ron.

We would also like to thank all who sent plants and floral arrangements, all who sent cards and gave us words of encouragement at this difficult time. We would also like to thank Manor Care for the special care they gave to Ron during his stay. It will never be forgotten.

The Ron Prochnow Family

THANK YOU!

According to an online search, bird watching is one of America's top five favorite hobbies. And why not? It's inexpensive - you only need your eyes and maybe a set of binoculars - it's something you can do anywhere, and it's easy for anyone of any age or skill level.

But when it comes to all things avian, do you feel a little like a bird brain? Then learn more about your fine feathered friends in the new book "Why Don't Woodpeckers Get Headaches? And Other Bird Questions You Know You Want to Ask" by Mike O'Connor.

As the owner of Bird Watcher's General Store on Cape Cod, Mike O'Connor gets his unfair share of questions about winged critters. He says in his introduction that he started writing a birding column for a local newspaper in the spring of 2000. The columns were very popular, and O'Connor found himself photocopying the most popular of them. Pretty soon, bird lovers were asking for all the columns. That's when he decided that he had spent too much time at the copier and his customers were right: a basic bird watcher's book, filled with answers to the most-asked questions, was exactly what every bird lover needed.

So, in order to be a backyard bird watcher, you have to have birds in your back yard, right? O'Connor starts out by offering ideas on what to feed the birds that are in your yard now, as well as the kinds of birds you want to attract; what kinds of birdhouses to put up and where; and why you should clean your birdhouses out each year, even though it might be illegal to do so.

O'Connor answers questions about weathers and feathers, field guide confusion and squirrel baffling, birdbaths and electricity, how to clean (and how not to clean) your "stuff", and why some birds poop-bomb major water sources for a

According to the Lyme Disease Association, quick diagnosis and appropriate treatment of Lyme disease are critical in preventing chronic disease. People with Lyme disease usually recover if diagnosed and treated early with proper antibiotics. However, according to a Columbia University study funded by the National Institutes of Health, on average, patients with chronic Lyme disease have symptoms for more than one year before being correctly diagnosed. Information about Lyme disease can be found on the Web at www.lymediseaseassociation.org or www.timeforlyme.org.

AUTOMOTIVE ANSWERS

Alternative Fuel Autos Catching On

(NAPSA)—Consumer interest and new technology are helping to drive the development of alternative fuel vehicles. That's the word from experts who say there are over 10 million alternative fuel autos on the nation's roads today. That's according to data from R.L. Polk & Co.

The Polk figures also reveal that an unprecedented 1.5 million alternative fuel autos were sold in 2006, surpassing automakers' sales expectations by 50 percent. That's according to the Alliance of Automobile Manufacturers.

Currently, manufacturers are offering 60 models of alternative fuel automobiles up from just 12 models for sale in 2000.

Currently, manufacturers are offering 60 models of these hybrid, clean diesel and ethanol-capable e-85 alternative fuel automobiles—up from just 12 models for sale in 2000.

Automakers are also working with the energy industry, the government, fuel providers and fuel retailers to help grow the e-85 ethanol-fueling infrastructure.

For more information on advanced fuel-savings technology, visit autoalliance.org.

DAYS GONE BY

25 Years Ago

April 30, 1982

Jill Yearling and Ric Leitheiser, seniors at Kewaskum Community High School, have been awarded the 1982 J.O. Reigle Scholarships by Regal Ware, Inc. The scholarships, which carry a cash value of $4,000 each, were established in honor of Regal's founder, Jill, the daughter of Gerald and Eileen Yearling, rural Kewaskum, has maintained a 4.0 grade point average throughout her high school career and is now ranked number one in her class. Richard, the son of Kenneth and Carol Leitheiser, Kewaskum, has a 3.85 grade point average and is ranked number 112 in his class. The Reigle scholarships have been awarded since 1963 on the basis of scholastic achievement and extracurricular activity.

Like a current song lyric says, "and another one bites the dust" seemed to fit the situation as the new Kewaskum School Board reversed a previous Board decision to purchase an "in-house" computer system, which was expected to save Kewaskum taxpayers approximately $100,000 in processing costs over the next seven years.

A record number of Kewaskum forensic students participated in the state forensic contest held in Madison on Friday, April 23. Those receiving top honor "A" ratings were Beth Strigenz, Mary Schmidt, Doreen Jacobs and Denise Mayer in Declamations and Darla Prost and Tim Indermuehle in Prose Reading.

Shelly Sekas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sekas, Campbellsport, and Jennifer Zemlicka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zemlicka, Kewaskum, have been selected to receive $500 scholarships from the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club.

Gina Luedtke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Luedtke, Adell, and Karen Kudek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kudek, West Bend, have been selected to receive $250 scholarships from the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club.

A daughter, Michelle Jo, was born to Roger and Patti Kirchner, Lomira, on April 21. Paternal grandparents are Wilton and Patricia Kirchner, Kewaskum, and maternal grandparents are Ralph and Shirley Leemon, Lomira. A daughter was also born to Raymond and Joan Lackas, Campbellsport, on April 25.

Sons were born to Thomas and Pamela Bauer, Kewaskum, on April 19, and to John and Cindy Turk, Kewaskum, on April 22.

55 Years Ago

April 25, 1952

Patricia Stenman, Kewaskum High School senior, won an "A" rating for her declamation "The Snow Goose" at the state forensic tournament in Madison. It is believed that this is the first time such an honor has come to the local school. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Walter Stenman of Kewaskum. Pvt. Lyle W. Manthei, Kewaskum, and Pvt. Ralph W. Liepert, Route 1, Kewaskum, both recently completed basic training with the Fifth Infantry Division at Indiantown Gap, Pennsylvania.

Work is rapidly progressing on a new home being erected by Mr. and Mrs. L.N. Peterson, Kewaskum, at the west end of Forest Avenue. Excavating has also been done for another new home in the village being erected by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Korth on East Water Street across from the entrance to the park.

Baby daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Aloysius Zehren of Kewaskum on April 18, and to Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Herriges, St. Michaels, on April 20. Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Thull, Route 2, Kewaskum, on April 17, and to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hammen, Route 1, Kewaskum, on April 20.

At the meeting of the Evangelical Association Conference held at Prairie du Sac last week, it was decided to have the Home of the Aged at Lomira. A large building will be constructed this summer at a cost of about $20,000. There is only one other institution of this kind in the United States, and this is located in New York.

At the baseball meeting held in the village hall last Saturday evening the following officers were elected: Manager, Byron Rosenheimer; captain, Ervin Koch; secretary and treasurer, John Schaefer.

A bouncing baby boy brightened the home of Rev. H. Schultz and wife of Wayne last Friday. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bonlender of St. Kilian last Tuesday. Baby boys were also born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haessly of Kewaskum on the 15th and to Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Bier of Edell last Tuesday.

Wheelin' Wizards complete another season

The Milwaukee Wheelin' Wizards JV Youth Wheelchair Basketball team recently completed their 2006-2007 season. Once again the young Wizards undertook a grueling six month schedule that started in October and finished in March at the National Tournament held in Peoria, IL.

The Wizards qualified for nationals by competing at many weekend venues including Chicago, IL, Addison, IL, Rockford, IL and Minnetonka, MN. There were also many home games in West Bend and Waukesha.

The JV team consists of handicapped kids ranging in ages from eight to 15. This year's All Star Team consists of kids from Oshkosh to Racine.

The kids lost at nationals to the champion Sterling Heights, MI, team.

Kewaskum native Caleb Timblin, started every game this season and was a major contributor to the team's success. Caleb is an eighth grader at Holy Trinity Catholic School this year. Caleb was also honored at the recent Athletic Awards Banquet held at the Zoofari Center at the Milwaukee County Zoo by being named as the team's Defensive Player of the Year.

This tough group of role models displayed unending grit and determination all year, and as usual, far exceeded everyone's expectations. At the awards banquet, a proclamation was presented from Governor Jim Doyle proclaiming Sunday, April 29th as Wheelin' Wizards Day in Wisconsin.

The Wizards varsity team won the national championship this year. All three graduating seniors received college scholarships to play at the next level. Becca Murray of Germantown has been invited to the National Tryouts to try to earn a spot on the Olympic team that will travel to Beijing, China in 2008.

Tyler Andrews, 13, of Campbellsport, shot his first turkey during the youth hunt April 7-8. The bird weighed 20 pounds, and had a 10 inch beard. It was shot in the Beechwood area. Tyler was guided by his uncle Steve Siebenaler on the hunt.

The right start for native plantings

The Evening with Nature Series at the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit concludes for the season with the program, "The Right Start for Native Plantings." The program will be held on Thursday, May 10, from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center. The Ice Age Visitor Center is located off of Hwy 67 half mile west of Dundee. The program is free, but donations are always gratefully accepted.

If you traveled through southern Wisconsin prior to European settlement, you would have encountered mostly prairies and open oak savannahs, not thick forests. Prairie is derived from a French word meaning meadow, and that is exactly what a prairie is, a grassland community with no or very few trees. Oak savannahs are more park-like in appearance with grasses and flowers growing below scattered oak trees. These two plant communities are the most endangered communities in Wisconsin. Today, we have only about 0.5% of original prairies left and less than 0.01% of our native oak savannahs. To help preserve this part of our natural heritage, many people are filling their gardens and yards with native prairie plants including such beauties as rattlesnake master, prairie violet, pasque flower, purple cone flowers, big blue stem, Indian grass, and blazing star. An added benefit to planting native prairie plants is that they are adapted to our climate and soils, thus they require less maintenance than other non-native species.

Randy Powers, owner of Prairie Future Seed Company, has been helping people for many years establish and maintain native prairie gardens and restorations. He will explain the nine essential concepts for successful native plantings. Randy will have resources available for a nominal fee. Join in for an evening of dreaming about summer blooms and learning how to bring back the beauty of native Wisconsin prairies.

For further information or directions contact the staff at the Ice Age Visitor Center. The center's phone number is 920-533-8322 and is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and on Saturday and Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Parrent to participate in All-Star basketball game

The Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association takes pride in announcing their recent selection of Matt Parrent from Kewaskum High School (KHS) to participate in their 30th Annual Boys All-Star Games. The W.B.C.A. Boys All-Star Games will be held on Saturday, June 23, 2007 at the UW Fieldhouse in Madison. Proceeds from this annual event will go directly to the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer, otherwise known as the MACC Fund.

On the morning of the Boys State Tournament Championship Games (March 17th) over 160 high school boys basketball coaches gathered in Madison to select ten boys from each division (one thru four) and from the northern and southern sectionals in the state. Matt was selected to play for the Division Two South Team from over two hundred senior student-athletes nominated. The Division Two Boys' All-Star Game is scheduled to start at 10:45 a.m. following the division one game and preceding the other division games.

Besides being the all time leading scorer and re-bouncer in KHS Boys Basketball history, Parrent started in every game of his four year varsity career. The Kewaskum senior athlete is a multi-letter winner and a three year All Eastern Wisconsin Conference Basketball player.

Parrent's athleticism and awards in other sports were noted and voted upon as well. However, the final decisions were based on character since every player nominated has impressive individual statistics.

The players begin their week by practicing in the hometown or the school of their respective all-star head coaches. The 2007 Division South Head Coach is Dave Scheidegger from New Berlin Eisenhower High School.

On Thursday of all star week the players and teams from around the state travel to Madison for scrimmages, media sessions, meetings and game preparations. On Friday, the teams practice, tour Children's Hospital and are honored during the all-star banquet at the Marriott Hotel. Game day is on Saturday, June 23, with post-game receptions.

The MACC fund is a non-profit charitable organization formed to support research, treatment and hopefully cures for kids suffering from various childhood diseases and maladies. Parrent is expected to raise some substantial funds for Children's Hospital. Every participant raised over $500 last year.

Anyone wishing to support Matt's involvement in the 2007 WBCA All-Star Boys basketball game, please make checks payable to: WBCA/MACC Fund and send them to Kewaskum High School, 1510 Bilgo Lane, Kewaskum, WI 53040, in Parrent's name.

The KHS boys basketball coaching staff is organizing round trip transportation and a game ticket for under $10. Feel free to contact the Parrent family at (262) 626-4476 or the KHS office at (262) 626-2166 for further information and tickets.

SPORTS

Martin participates in Boston Marathon

Lanaya wrapped in a solar blanket receives a Boston Marathon medal from a volunteer.

Lanaya A. Martin of Kewaskum participated in the 111th Boston Marathon held on Patriots Day, April 16, 2007. Running her second Boston Marathon, Lanaya was one of 23,869 registered runners. Despite adverse weather conditions caused by a Nor'easter storm, Lanaya finished 9,984 with a time of 3:47:52.

Before the marathon start at Athlete's Village, runners tried to stay dry by huddling under tents for two hours. By the time the race began, everyone had wet shoes, wet socks and cold feet, but everyone pushed onward. The temperature was perfect for a long run, yet between miles six and nine the rain started again and the wind picked up. It then became a psychological run, trying to push through the numbness.

When the rain stopped, there were 16 miles to dry off. At mile 20.5, the infamous Heartbreak Hill begins. The Hill received the name not for its steepness, although its incline should not be underestimated, but rather for its placement on the course. A runner can be keeping a great pace, but when they come to Heartbreak many times their dreams of a fast time vanish. After climbing Heartbreak Hill and a few more miles, the finish was a most welcome sight.

An avid long-distance runner since her senior year in high school, Lanaya is a member of the Marathon Team at the U. S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland. She has participated in a total of seven marathons to include, Wisconsin, Virginia, Washington DC, and Pennsylvania, a duathlon in Appleton, a triathlon in Pewaukee, several half marathons, 10K and 5K runs.

As a quantitative economics major, Lanaya is in her final year at the U.S. Naval Academy. She is a 2003 graduate of Brookfield Academy in Brookfield and 1999 graduate of Holy Trinity Catholic School in Kewaskum. Lanaya is the daughter of Larry and Louise Martin of Kewaskum.

Outdoor Tips & Tricks

by Dave Gowdey

If you reload your own shotgun shells, it can sometimes be difficult to keep track of which shells contain what loads. Often the original loads identified on the empty shells we use don't correspond at all to the loads we put in. One easy way to keep track is to color code the brass base of the shells with Sharpie indelible markers. These come in a variety of colors that you can assign to different loads. When you reload the shell, mark an easily visible dot on the brass next to the primer, and you will be able to easily identify different load in the field. If you are carrying a variety of loads, you can write a color coded table on small card and place it as a reminder in your vest or shell carrier.

Many game fish have an irritating habit of only biting the bait where the hook isn't. If you've hooked bait through the head, they will bite the tail and vice versa. One way to try and outsmart such fish is to use a "stinger" hook. Take a slightly smaller hook than the original and tie it to the bend of original hook with a short piece of monofilament. Adjust the length of the monofilament so that the two hook rig is slightly shorter than the bait. Put the first hook through the head of the bait, and the "stinger" hook through the tail. This will often catch those extra smart fish that tend to strike short.

A hay hook can be a surprisingly useful tool at camp. They are inexpensive and are easily found at any store that sells hay or farm hardware. They can be used to lift hot pots from the fire, collect and handle firewood, and to pull up recalcitrant tent stakes. One particularly effective way to pull out stubborn tent stakes is to slip a small knotted loop of strong parachute cord over the end of the hook. Then place the loop over the head of the tent stake, twist the hay hook until the cord is tightly secured around the head of the tent stake, and pull the stake straight out.

If you have a tip to do with hunting, fishing or outdoor skills that you would like to see printed in this column, e-mail the tip to davegowdey@fastmail.fm. Credit will be given in the column to those whose tips are selected for publication.

When people experience outstanding health care, they spread the word. Just ask Paul Slesar, a Washington County native and parent to two teenage athletes. When both his daughter Abby and son Noah tore an ACL within weeks of each other, friends and coaches were quick to recommend Aurora Health Care for their treatment. From surgery to rehabilitation, Paul was impressed with the consistently exceptional care his children received. He's glad that their health care providers were also members of the community, and that the orthopedic expertise his family needed was just minutes away with Aurora Health Care.

Indian netters starting to turn the corner

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

A little shuffling of the lineup and some gritty play in third sets last Friday helped the Kewaskum High boys tennis team win its first match of the 2007 season, a 4-3 decision over host St. Mary's Springs.

Two of the Indians' singles players, Kyle Stoffel at No. 3 and Marcello Franco at No. 4, were victorious, and the Nos. 1 and 2 doubles teams came through for coach Dan Ross.

"We turned the tables on the tiebreakers and three-setters. That was the difference between what were two pretty evenly-matched teams," Ross said. "(These are) important wins since they are in our sub-sectional."

"Kyle confirmed his consistent play," Ross went on about Stoffel's 6-3, 6-4 win, adding, "It was a huge win by Marcello. He came back from a tough first set. We discovered a weakness in his opponent, and he kept going back to it. He played very smartly and consistently. He was the last one off the courts. The match was tied 3-3, then he secured the win."

Franco won 1-6, 6-4, 7-6 (7-4).

Ross felt really good when he saw Alex Rauch and Travis Bryant make quick work of Matt Wittkopp and Eric Furness, winning 6-1, 6-4.

Nathan Bandy and Chris Larson survived a three-set 7-6 (7-4), 4-6, 6-4 match to help clinch the win.

"Doubles played up to their ability for, I think, the first time this year," Ross said. They are two good singles players, learning to play doubles, which is a totally different game. They appear to be catching on how to win points through strategy."

With the win, KHS is 1-4

on the year.

KEWASKUM 4,
ST. MARY'S SPRINGS 3

Singles: 1. Dan Parker lost to Jason Alexander, 2-6, 0-6; 2. Justin Graham lost to Dan Crak, 0-6, 2-6; 3. Stoffel def. Mitchell Christianson, 6-3, 6-4; 4. Franco def. A. Trac. 1-6, 6-4, 7-6 (7-4)

Doubles: 1. Rauch/Bryant def. Wittkopp/Furness, 6-1, 6-4; 2. Bandy/Larson def. Jake Meyer/Shawn McClone, 7-6 (7-4), 4-6, 6-4. 3. Tony Lewko/Jamie Wiedmeyer lost to Dustin Birschbach/David Mielke, 3-6, 2-6

On April 23, the Indians lost to Milwaukee Lutheran 5-2, and Ross said, "We did not play well. The teams were fairly equal. We shouldn't have lost 5-2. We can't lose all the tiebreakers and all their three setters and expect to win."

The lone Indian winners were Kyle Stoffel at No. 3 singles and Rauch and Bryant at No. 2 doubles.

"Kyle played very well at three singles. He exploited his opponents' weaknesses," Ross said, indicating his top doubles team "has played solidly all season. They are still lacking a little consistency but have the ability to have a very solid season."

Scheel's 39 paces KHS golfers to win at The Bull

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

In the past, the Kewaskum High golfers had not mastered the tough Bull Golf Course located near Sheboygan Falls, but the Indians changed all that last Monday as they used a 1-2-3 sweep of the top three places to win the third Eastern Wisconsin Conference mini-tournament hosted by Sheboygan Falls.

Senior Casey Scheel continued his hot play this spring, carding a 3-over-par 39, which earned him medalist honors for the first time. One shot back was talented sophomore Ethan Geidel, followed by senior Andy McDonald, who tied for 42 and won the third place honor from Ryan Feldman of Plymouth by going back on the scorecard.

Kewaskum came in with a 166 total and was the only team to dip under 170. Plymouth, the current leader in the points standings and the defending champion, wound up with a 173, 11 shots ahead of Kiel's 184.

Two Rivers placed fifth at 187, followed in order by Sheboygan Falls, 189; Campbellsport, 195; and New Holstein, 201.

In the first three of the eight conference tests, Scheel had nine hole scores of 38, 39, 39 and must be in first place in the race for the conference medal, while Geidel has a pair of 40s and the 35 he shot at Hon-E-Kor.

As far as McDonald's year has gone, he started with a 43 and 45 and now had the 42 on a course that measures 3,271 yards, according to Eichstedt.

With the win, the Indians have narrowed Plymouth's lead to just one point, six to seven. Roncalli is sitting in the third spot with 10 points, and Two Rivers is a point back at 11.

On Thursday, the Indians dominated the large school teams involved in the Oriole/Ledge Invitational held on the Rolling Meadows Golf Course. The Indians came in with a 328 total in the 18-hole competition, 24 strokes ahead of Ripon.

Berlin was a distant third with 364, followed in order by Winneconne, 366; Campbellsport, 367; Winnebago Lutheran Academy, 393; Mayville, 397; and Omro, with the whopping 404.

Low for the Indians was McDonald with a very consistent 40-39-79, which was tied for the low score of the tournament. McDonald and Berlin's Scott Falk were involved in a playoff, which went one hole and was won by Falk.

Geidel took third place with a 41-39-80. Just one bad hole prevented Geidel from being in the 70s.

Scheel and Nuernberg were the other two KHS counters with 84 and 85, respectively.

The Indians walked away with a championship plaque, medals for all five golfers and for McDonald and Geidel for being in the top five.

Lady Indians fall in marathon contest versus Plymouth

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

The message was the same last Thursday and Friday, April 26 and 27, for members of the Kewaskum High School softball team, games cancelled because of rain. The Indians were scheduled to host Two Rivers both days, and now their doubleheader will be played on Monday, May 7th, starting at 4 p.m.

Kewaskum did get in a game and a half on Tuesday, April 24, traveling to Plymouth and playing toe-to-toe with the Panthers for 11 innings before falling in the 12th. "We lost one (game) and the other was called by darkness after five (innings)," KHS coach Jeff Gosse said.

The opener ended up 8-7, and Gosse said, "It was just a great game." Lindsey Grahn, the Panthers' ace for the past three seasons, picked up the win. Amazingly she struck out 20, while walking none, the Indians did manage to pick up 11 hits off this all-Eastern Wisconsin Conference pitcher.

"Both teams had chances to win," Gosse said. "Plymouth had four runners thrown out at home" between the eighth and 11th innings, and Kewaskum had some opportunities, "but we just couldn't capitalize."

Senior infielder Bekki Heberer led the Indians' hit parade. She went 3x5 with 4 RBI, according to Gosse, who said her total included a double.

Others who contributed two hits were Courtney Uttech, 2x5; Marissa Dehler, 2x5; Tiffany Hedlund, 2x5; and Brandi Wagner, 2x5.

"This was the best I've seen a team from Kewaskum hit," Gosse said. "They came out swinging."

Brooke Wodsedalek took the loss and did not pitch badly, according to her coach, who said her stats included three strikeouts, four walks and 11 hits.

In the bottom of the 12th, the Panthers got the winning run, thanks to a pair of KHS errors and a base hit by Lauren Pieper.

In Game 2, Plymouth was leading 9-2 when the umpire declared it was too dark to continue.

"It was 3-2 going into the fifth, then Shaylah Haire, our catcher, got hurt," Gosse said. "After that, the bottom fell out. Brooke walked four, and there were two errors behind her and two mental errors that were very costly. She should have been out of the inning without giving up a run."

Wagner, the Indians' young third baseman, came up with two hits in three trips to the plate, and, "She blew one out of the park. That (the home run) was just crushed."

With the loss and suspended game, Kewaskum is at 1-2 against EWC foes and 4-4 overall.

Back on April 14, the Indians were involved in the Wau-pun Tournament and ended up second.

"We got to the championship game," Gosse said, reporting, "We skunked Mayville which was rated eighth in the state."

The final score was 3-0, with Wodsedalek picking up the win. Wodsedalek's lucky number in this game was three. She struck out three, walked three and gave up three hits to the Cardinals.

Kewaskum could not hold the host Warriors, however, who beat them 8-0 to take the title.

"It was 3-0 in the fifth, then we ran out of gas," Gosse said. "We only had nine girls."

The offensive punch was provided by Uttech, the first baseman, who had four hits on the day, going 4x5.

Kewaskum had games with Lomira and New Holstein on Monday and Tuesday and is at Campbellsport for a twin bill this afternoon (Thursday), starting at 4 p.m.

KHS golfers move into EWC's top spot

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

Move over Plymouth. The red-hot Kewaskum High golfers are coming through!

On Friday, playing on the Auburn Bluffs Golf Course in Campbellsport, the Indians fired a sizzling 152, second-lowest score in the history of the sport at the school, to finish first in the fourth Eastern Wisconsin Conference mini-meet and take over first place in the EWC standings.

Senior Andy McDonald, who started the season out with a couple mid-40 rounds, is certainly finding his game. McDonald carded an even par 36 on the relatively short but also challenging Campbellsport course, and all of his teammates were also among the top-10 finishers.

Sophomore Ethan Geidel finished third overall with a 38, while sophomore Nick Gutbrod broke loose with a 39 (sixth) and Ryan Nuernberg also fired an identical score but was seventh based on tie-breakers.

Casey Scheel, who had been in the 30s for all the previous three EWC meets, had to settle for a 41 on this day and did not count for Kewaskum's team total.

"This was the lowest away match total," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said.

With the victory, Kewaskum now has 8 points, while defending EWC champion Plymouth, who slipped to fourth in the meet with a 165, is now in second place with 10 points.

Kiel was second at Auburn Bluffs behind a 162, and Roncalli slipped into third place with a 164, a shot ahead of the Plymouth squad.

Roncalli's Ryan Augustine finished second overall with a 37.

There are three mini-meets remaining on the schedule and then the 18-hole finale, which will be played at Two Rivers.

Current EWC standings: 1. Kewaskum, 8 points; 2. Plymouth, 10; 3. (tie) Roncalli and Kiel, 13; 5. Two Rivers, 21; 6. Sheboygan Falls, 22; 7. Campbellsport, 26; 8. New Holstein, 31.

Relays, 200, sweep in boys discus highlight track effort

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

The Kewaskum High School track teams were unable to duplicate their past successes at the annual Altheimer Invitational in Pewaukee last Friday, April 27. However, there were some good individual efforts by the Indians.

The Pirates who played host, won the girls competition, scoring 101.50 points, eight ahead of Greendale (93.5) and 10 in front of Elkhorn (91.5). Kewaskum finished fourth in the 11-team field with 90 points.

The boys' field teams saw Pewaukee finishing at the top of the list with 132 points. The Indians finished sixth overall with 67.50. "I thought we had a lot of people with good efforts," KHS coach Jerry Gosa said.

Highlights by the girls included wins by the 4-by-100 and 4-by-200 meter relays after a couple of rough outings recently. "The 4-by-100 relay ran very well," Gosa complimented, referring to the time of 53 and 20 seconds (53.20) turned in by Jessi Forbes, Jess Liniewski, Nichole Kison and Kelly Uelmen.

In the 4-by-200, "We suffered through a couple so-so exchanges," Gosa said of the same quartet which posted a time of 1:54.27, .23 of a second ahead of Greendale.

One of the two other KHS wins was provided by Liniewski in the 200 where she hit the finish line in 27.84, winning by nearly a full second. "That was a good effort," Gosa recounted.

Crystal Treptow won the pole vault, clearing 8-feet, 6 inches (8-6). Kison also did well in the long jump, taking third with a leap of 15-1.50 in a pit that isn't the easiest to jump in.

Other top-six places included the following: 100 - Uelmen, 4th at 13.72; 100 hurdles - Liz Potter, 6th with an 18.58; pole vault - Alissa Clapper, 3rd, 7-6; high jump - Liniewski, 5th, 4-8; Candace Beine, 6th at 4-8; shot put - Lacy Taylor, 6th, 28-10; and discus - Catherine Stoffel, 4th, 93-05 and Taylor, 5th, 88-2.

"Our (girl) throwers didn't have a very good day," Gosa said, "but the boys had a very good day in the discus," referring to the 1-2-3 sweep by Logan Staege, Ben Boettcher and Tyler Swanson for 24 team points.

Staege's winning effort was 142-10, then came Boettcher's 137-03 and a 135-8 by Swanson. "Tyler Swanson added 15 feet in the discus," the coach said. "That's very good."

Senior Stephan "Bud" Kattar had another good day on the track, placing third in the 1,600 with a fine time of 4:48.24, fifth in the 800, dipping under 2:10 with a 2:09.65 and helping the 4-by-400 relay to a fourth place at 3:36.12.

"Of course, we were at a disadvantage without Bob Gibson," Gosa went on about his senior ace distance runner being out with a broken collarbone. Gibson's return to the team is doubtful, according to the coach.

Gosa was pleased with the fact Jake Dickman cleared 10-6 in the pole vault, good for fifth place. And the 4-by-400 relay team of Dan Dymond, Kattar, Dylan Kenworthy and Matt Parrent took fourth, covering the four laps in 3:36.12. "They were very competitive," Gosa said.

Other top-six places were: high jump - Dymond, tie for 5th, 5-8; pole vault - Kattar, 6th, 10-0; shot put - Swanson, 41-8; 200 - Dymond, 6th, 24.51; and 400 - Parrent, 5th, 54.16.

My Flight

Scared to take the first step, like a toddler trying to walk. Scared to say the first word, like a toddler trying to talk. Afraid you will tell me what I cannot bear to hear. Afraid you'll walk away because you sense my fear. My friends say we could work as a couple. I can't help but ask, "A couple of what...?" It would be too weird. Though they may be right, I'm just not ready. This is my flight.

Fly away from the doubt and fright. Well, cheers, to what could be beautiful. Cheers, I say. I'll never see the day. It could be beautiful, but most likely a disaster. A lick of fear in the fire of my heart. I cannot do this, Not right now. Watch me as I fly away...

Efforts are good but not enough to earn any wins

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

Neither the rain nor unseasonably chilly weather kept the Kewaskum High School (KHS) girls soccer team from entertaining Plymouth last Thursday afternoon, April 26.

While all the other outdoor sports were postponed by the weather, the soccer show went on, and the Indians came out on the short end of a 5-1 score.

"We got a little wet, but that was OK," coach John Berst said about the contest in which the traditionally strong Panthers took a 4-0 half-time advantage and added a single goal after the break.

"Our goal was scored by freshman Elissa Miller," Berst reported, indicating Miller scored midway through the second half, and the goal was unassisted.

Berst reported the girls had about six shots at making goals while Plymouth had about two dozen. This did not mean his goalkeeper played poorly, however. To the contrary, junior Julie Sargent came up with a good effort, according to the coach.

Katie Gaynor was lauded for her efforts. "For the last number of games, Katie had stepped to the ball well and cleared the ball," Berst said, adding Jenna Buker "has progressed and done some good things for us defensively. She is starting to fit into the lineup." This was Kewaskum's third Eastern Wisconsin Conference game of the week and all against strong opponents, according to Berst, who said, "On Monday we lost to (host) Kiel 4-1. This week we played three very good teams, it has helped us to intentionally raise the bar."

Team travels to New Holstein

On Tuesday evening, April 24, the Indians played under the lights at New Holstein, in a game they were shut-out 4-0.

Berst said his team hung with the Huskies for about 30 minutes of the first half, then gave up a pair of goals. In the second half, New Holstein scored a pair of goals in about 10 and 15 minutes, "then we played them even up," Berst said.

The coach gave nods to Lindsay Krautkramer, "(she) ran her shoes off" in the midfield, while Nicole Hesprich, who moved up to the midfield for this game, did a good job of distributing the ball.

Kewaskum had several scoring opportunities but the shots either went right to the keeper or were wide of the net.

With the losses, KHS is 1-5 in Eastern Wisconsin Conference action and 1-8 overall. The Indians host New Holstein this afternoon (Thursday) at 4:30 p.m. The field is located northeast of the tennis courts.

Track teams struggle against others in the County

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

The weather wasn't very good Wednesday, April 25, for the annual Washington County Track and Field Meet. KHS head coach Jerry Gosa summed up conditions for both his boys and girls teams, "We had no firsts at the County... we were not at our best."

Both finished last in the seven-team competitions held at the Hartford Union High facility. The girls slipped a bit in a couple events and had to settle for 69.5 points, which was a little more than half of what the victorious Slinger Owls amassed.

On the boys' side of the ledger, it was perennial powerhouse Germantown winning another title, behind 141.5 points. The host Orioles gave a good account of themselves, finishing as the runner-up team with 130.5 points. Then came Slinger with 98.5, and West Bend East took fourth with 96.

Kewaskum, again running without ace distance runner Bob Gibson, struggled to come up with 47.5 points, and KHS coach Jerry Gosa said it looks doubtful he will make it back this season.

As far as the girls were concerned, the top efforts were the second by Nichole Kison in the long jump, Candace Beine's second in the high jump, Crystal Treptow's second in the pole vault and Liz Potter's finish in the 100 hurdles.

"Kison's second. That was a high point," Gosa said about the versatile sophomore's best jump of 15 feet and 8 inches (15-8), just two and a half inches out of first place.

Treptow cleared 8-6 in the vault event, which was won by Abby Slesar of West Bend West, who went 9-0. The Indians also got a third from Alissa Clapper (8-0) in the event, so the team got 14 points from the two of them.

The high jump was another event where Kewaskum placed two athletes. Candace Beine, a freshman, cleared 4-6 and got second based in misses, while Jessie Liniewski was fourth after going over 4.5.

Potter took a third in the shorter hurdles race, with a clocking of 18 and .33 seconds (18.33). "She ran well," Gosa said.

One other highlight was the fourth place by Tonya Janssen in the 1,600. She was clocked in 6:11.49. Lacy Taylor also contributed two points from her seventh in the discus (87-5).

Things went awry for the Indians when Amanda Witek, normally the team's top high jumper, missed the meet because of disciplinary action, and then there was the disaster in the 4x200-meter relay.

"We were the number one seed in the event, and we had one very poor exchange and we dropped and kicked the baton," Gosa said. So instead of a first or second, the quartet of Jessi Forbes, Liniewski, Kison and Kelly Uelmen had to settle for sixth place with an uncharacteristic time of 2:04.59.

Looking at the bright spots for the boys team, Gosa was quick to praise Ben Boettcher in the discus. "Ben did a good job. He PRed (got a personal record) in the discus and took second place. He added four feet," Gosa said, referring to his mark of 148-6, which was even better than Logan Staeger, who had to settle for third place with a best toss of 142.

The discus produced 14 of the Indians 47.5 points, and senior distance runner Stephan Kattar chipped in with nine points on his own behind a fourth in the 800 (2:11.11) and fifth in the 1,600 (4:53.50).

Dan Dymond's high jump effort of 5-8 gave the Indians eight points (second), while Jake Dickmann cleared 5-4 for a tie for sixth.

The Indians were unable to pick up any points in the hurdles and sprints, but Matt Parrent, who has not been feeling well and only competed in the relay of the Indian Invitational, ran a 54.8 in the 400, good for sixth place in a good field.

The lone relay points came in the 4x400 where Dymond, Zach Herriges, Dylan Kenworthy and Parrent combined for a 3:47.52, good for fifth and in the 4x800 where the quartet of Tyler McElhatton, Anders Thomsen, Austin Yadro and Herriges, covered the eight laps in 9:20.10, for a fifth.

McElhatton and Herriges just missed placing in the 3,200, finishing ninth and 10, respectively, with time of 11:15.09 and 11:36.38.

The Indians are at the prestigious VanderPan Invitational at Sheboygan Falls on Friday, May 4.

Ways to purchase fishing licenses

The opening day of the 2007 regular fishing season is May 5, and more than 400,000 people have already gotten their license to fish.

As of 11 a.m. on May 1, 417,266 people had purchased fishing licenses or patron licenses that bring fishing privileges.

People who still need to purchase a Wisconsin fishing or patron license before the season opens can do so online over the Internet with a credit card or in person at any of more than 1,400 license outlets statewide and in neighboring states. Licenses may also be purchased toll-free over the phone, but anglers would not receive the license in time for opening day using this method.

Purchasing a license via the Internet is particularly convenient, according to Diane Brookbank, director of customer service and licensing for the state Department of Natural Resources.

"You can print the license at home. Order it online, print it, and you're ready to head out on the water," Brookbank says.

Fishing licenses can be purchased: over the Internet through the Online Licensing Center; at any DNR Service Center; at automated license issuance system sales locations; or by calling toll-free 1-877-WI LICENSE (1-877-945-4236).

"Wisconsin has one of the nation's highest participation rates in fishing, and the first day of the season is something anglers look forward to all winter," says Mike Staggs, Wisconsin's fisheries director. "Now what we need is some good weather."

Wisconsin typically sells about 1.4 million fishing licenses during the regular fishing season. That ranks Wisconsin fifth nationally in total number of licenses sold, behind more populous states such as Texas, California, and Florida.

The regular inland fishing season runs May 5, 2007 through March 2, 2008, for many game fish, and people can fish year-round for panfish and certain other species on a number of state waters.

Wisconsin residents and nonresidents 16 years old or older need a fishing license to fish in any waters of the state. Residents born before Jan. 1, 1927 do not need a license, nor do people who exhibit proof they are in active service with the U.S. armed forces and are a resident on furlough or leave.
