Area teen drowns in Long Lake

TOWN of OSCEOLA- Summer-time fun turned to tragedy for a Fond du Lac County foster family on Sunday, May 27, after a 16-year-old boy drowned in Long Lake. Rescue workers found the boy in 22-foot of water a little over an hour after the family called 9-1-1.

Sivad D. Monroe, 16, of the township was reported missing in the waters of Long Lake after his foster family told authorities that he jumped off their boat into the water and did not resurface. The foster family and a friend of Monroe's were boating approximately 80-yards west of the east shoreline, west of Beach Avenue in what is locally known as Chinatown.

A town of Osceola Water Patrol officer working in a boat on the lake immediately responded to the scene. The Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department's Dive Team also responded with the Campbellsport Fire Department and EMS and a City of Fond du Lac ambulance. The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources rang-

Additional PFC hearings set for end of June

By Andrew Kuehl

Statesman Managing Editor

KEWASKUM- The Kewaskum Police and Fire Commission met with attorneys representing Police Officer Troy Ellis and police Chief Richard Knoebel Tuesday evening, May 29. About 25 people attended the preliminary hearing.

The first order of business was to adopt the rules of procedures for the disciplinary hearing. The commission's attorney, Paul Alexy, presented these procedures at the commission's May 21 meeting. All commissioners voted in favor of the procedures.

Attorney Nancy Pirkey who is representing Chief Knoebel anticipated bringing in about six witnesses. Attorney William Rettko, who is representing Ellis, anticipated anywhere from five to ten witnesses. Some who could be witnesses of both Ellis and Chief Knoebel.

The commissioners decided that the hearings would be heard over a period of two days, Tuesday, June 26 and Thursday, June 28. Both hearings would begin at 5 p.m. hearings would go no later than 10 p.m.

Troy Ellis, a member of the Kewaskum Police Department for 18 years is on administrative leave from the department while a decision regarding his employment is made. This is the first time Ellis has had any disciplinary actions taken against him.

Chief Knoebel requested charges for Ellis for violating the following procedures and policies unbecoming conduct, immoral conduct, off-duty hours and use of alcohol. He is asking that Ellis' employment be terminated from the police department.

The village's Police and Fire Commission accepted those charges on May 7. The charges stem from a March 18, 2007 incident where Ellis is believed to have entered his neighbor's house thinking it was his own. That neighbor called police not knowing Ellis was a member of the department.

One of Ellis' fellow officers responded and removed him from the residence and took him to his own home.

Ellis also admitted to drinking 10 beers and then driving his vehicle to a local bar and drinking more. He asserts that he did not drive himself home but could not remember who drove him from the bar.

Last week The Statesman reported that Ellis has been entitled to collect his $999.60 weekly salary since being put on administrative leave on April 28. During the course of the week The Statesman obtained invoices for attorney's fees for Chief Knoebel's attorney. Those fees through April amount to $1,969.50.

Amounts for the Police and Fire Commission attorney have not been processed at this time. By the start of the hearing on June 28, Ellis will have received approximately $10,196.54.

Audio from the hearing can be found on our website at www.kewaskumstatesman.com

Village Public Works Committee recommends four firms for WWTP

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

KEWASKUM- The Public Works Committee met Thursday, May 24, to review proposals for the mandated upgrades to the Village's wastewater treatment facility. The committee chose four firms they will interview in June.

Chairman Derek Peterson announced the village received six proposals. Those submitting them were Applied Technology, Brookfield; Ayres Associates, Madison; Graef, Anhalt, Schloemer and Associates (GAS), Milwaukee; McMahon, Neenah; Robert E. Lee and Associates, Oneida, and Ruekert-Mielke, Waukesha.

Bob Manthei, lead operator for the plant stated, "I know most of these firms. McMahon did work for us before. It was a small project and they had a major goof-up. Slinger and Saukville were not pleased with their work. With GAS I have worked with them before. They don't listen to the operator as much." He went on to say that each engineering firm has their faults and that just because other communities had problems, doesn't mean the same problems would arise in Kewaskum.

Peterson agreed with Manthei. The committee continued their review of each of the proposals.

Peterson pointed out that in their request they asked that prices for each proposal were submitted separately so that cost was not the only deciding factor. After the discussion ended, he revealed the bids from each firm.

Each firm's bid only included labor, materials and miscellaneous charges.

They did not include equipment. Applied Technologies, $468,000; Ayres, $557,800; GAS, $600,950; McMahon, $392,600; Robert E. Lee, $314,263 and Ruekert-Mielke, $562,702

Kevin Scheunemann made a motion to recommend Applied Technologies, McMahon, GAS and Ruekert-Mielke to the complete village board. The motion carried and the committee members discussed when to have the board meet with the firms individually.

Village Administrator Jay Shambeau suggested holding a special meeting on June 18 at 6 p.m. at the village hall. He indicated that the board could take action that evening or decide at the June 25 meeting.

Copies of the proposals can be reviewed at the village hall during normal business hours.

Annual Village Beautification project underway with Women's Club

The 15 village cement flowerpots were planted before Memorial Day weekend by Kewaskum Women's Club members Joyce Schlieff, Judy Geidel, with special help from granddaughters Nicole and Tessa, and Gwendolyn Dreher. The flowers were donated by the Village Parks Committee, the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce and the Kewaskum Women's Club who also donated the 30 American flags to give Kewaskum a patriotic spirit. One flag was stolen on the first night. PLEASE do not take the flags.

Watering the flowers and maintenance will be done by the Kewaskum Women's Club members, but if business sites would help water that would be greatly appreciated. Special thanks to Jeanne Moe, Mrs. Petri and Mrs. Weddig for watering flowers also.

Now is the time to get your yards ready for the Village Beautification Awards which will be chosen by members of the Kewaskum Women's Club in mid-July. Awards and Beautification signage will be presented to four winners at the village board meeting on Monday, August 6 at 7 p.m.

Do your part to help keep our village a beautiful place to live.

Drowning

An unidentified water patrolman assists at the scene of a drowning that occurred on Long Lake Sunday, May 27.

ers and wardens responded to the lake with a boat to assist the aforementioned agencies.

Campbellsport Fire Department requested mutual aid from the Washington County Dive Team, who dispatched their multi-agency dive team to the lake as well. Flight for Life Helicopter, responded and conducted an aerial search.

At 5:43 p.m. a rescue diver from the Kewaskum Fire Department located the victim not far from where he jumped from the boat. The boy was pulse less and not breathing. Medical personnel attempted to resuscitate him. He was transported to St. Agnes Hospital in Fond du Lac, but resuscitation efforts were unsuccessful.

According to Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department Sergeant Ryan Waldschmidt, the victim did not know how to swim and was not wearing a life preserver. The foster parents stated Monroe wanted to jump into the water to see how cold it was, but immediately after jumping in they could see he was in distress and could not stay afloat. They threw him a flotation device, but he was unable to swim to the surface to grab a hold of it.

The Fond du Lac County

Sheriff's Office is continuing its investigation into the incident.

Monroe was commonly referred to as David at Campbellsport High School where he started second semester. CHS principal Tom Hercules, stated that counselors have been made available to students needing someone to talk to. The high school has a student population of 521 students.

"He was a fun-loving young man who cared about others. David will be missed and our thoughts go out to his foster family during this time of tragedy," Hercules professed.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

I guess it was time that someone tell Mr. Gavin exactly what many are thinking, but may be afraid to say. Thanks to Mr. Gavin, the Planning Commission and the Kewaskum Village Board, most Village residents do not know Officer Ellis, because they are not natives of Kewaskum. Being a Kewaskum native, I am appalled by what has happened to Kewaskum. There seems to be a few that think that they are above the law and try to control everything that happens in Kewaskum, because they are "from here." I applaud Chief Knoebel for treating this situation with authority, that is his, and for not having a lapse in judgment based off the fact that Mr. Ellis is a life-long resident of Kewaskum. I am not judging Mr. Ellis, because I do not know all of the facts, but I agree with Mrs. Vogt Germano that if any average citizen would have done what Mr. Ellis is accused of, they would have the book thrown at them. Being a police officer, he should be a role model for our youth. What a travesty it would be if he could walk away without punishment and Mrs. Vogt Germano's family was severely punished for speeding, while following an ambulance with a dying loved one. Officer Ellis, don't you think a police escort would have been the appropriate thing to do?

Unfortunately, the Village Board and Planning Commission don't have the same guts, as Chief Knoebel, to stop the ridiculous amount of home building and the destruction of the natural beauty of Kewaskum, because they all know Mr. Gavin, Mr. Timblin and Mr. Wessing (all Kewaskum natives). I look forward to the day, when the Village Board members, Planning Commission members, and police force are not natives of Kewaskum (which will happen one day). That they don't know or care who you are, all they care about is what is best for the community. Mr. Gavin, when does moral value outweigh greed or social status?

New bike trail will connect Mauthe Lake and Long Lake Recreation Areas

A view of the new boardwalk constructed for a biking and hiking trail that will be completed this fall. The trail will connect Mauthe Lake and Long Lake Recreation Areas.

By Andrew Kuehl

Statesman Managing Editor
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman

NORTHERN KETTLE MORaine STATE FOREST- Haven't been to the state forest in awhile? This summer a few of the facilities here will see some additions and improvements. The first in a number of improvements is the construction of a trail connecting Mauthe Lake and Long Lake campgrounds.

Money for the project comes from the state's Knowles-Nelson Stewardship Fund according to forest superintendent, Jerry Leiterman. The Knowles-Nelson Stewardship Fund was established in 1989, to preserve Wisconsin's most significant natural resources for future generations, as well as to provide the land base and recreational facilities needed for quality outdoor experiences. The program was reauthorized in 2000 and is authorized through 2010.

The fund was named for two of Wisconsin's most revered bipartisan conservation leaders, former Wisconsin Governors Gaylord Nelson and Warren Knowles. To date, the Department of Natural Resources (DNR), local governments, and nonprofit conservation organizations in 71 of 72 Wisconsin counties have protected nearly one half of a million acres. These improvements to the forest are hoped to help continue the success of the Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest.

Leiterman explains that the bike trail initiative to connect the Long Lake Recreation Area and Mauthe Lake Recreation Area is anticipated to be complete in two phases by the fall of 2007. The limestone surfaced trail will be 10 feet wide much like the Eisenbahn Trail. The trail will also have two boardwalks, one three feet in length, the other 600 feet through wetlands as well as two bridges.

He was pleased to announce that bikers on the trail will be able to enjoy a number of different ecological communities, those being a conifer (pine tree) plantation, upland and lowland areas, as well as prairie settings.

Leiterman explained that the idea for the trail came from concerns of bikers in the late 1980's. At that time, bikers were concerned about the narrow roads in the forest. It was put into the master forest plan, and has now been given funding for the project to proceed.

Knowles-Nelson Stewardship Fund and the Federal Land and Water Conservation Fund are paying for the trail. The first phase is expected to cost more than $400,000, while phase two will be over $200,000.

Phase one construction is scheduled to begin in late July. That phase will take bikers on a five-mile trek to Dundee. The Fond du Lac County Highway Commission is completing all construction. Without any bumps in the trail phase one should switch gears to phase two in approximately 40 days.

Phase two will take bikers the final mile and a half through Dundee to Long Lake.

"The trail is geared toward families so we minimized the grade, and kept it close to the Highway G corridor. We are very excited," stated Leiterman.

Kohlsville woman injured after Sunday crash

TOWN of BARTON- A 56-year-old Kohlsville woman was seriously injured in a single vehicle accident on Highway D at Kettle View Drive early Sunday morning, May 27.

The Washington County Sheriff's Department received a call at 7:07 a.m. stating a vehicle rolled over in the ditch and there was one injured occupant. Kohlsville Fire Department and First Responders, along with West Bend Fire and Rescue, were dispatched to the scene.

Beverly A. McDonald was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital and later flown to Froedtert Hospital in Milwaukee due to the extent of her injuries. Though they were serious, her injuries were not believed to be life threatening.

Lt. Robert Martin of the Washington County Sheriff's Department stated that an investigation into the crash revealed that McDonald's vehicle was westbound on Highway D. For unknown reasons, her vehicle failed to negotiate a curve in the road, skimmed over the edge of a guardrail, traveled down an embankment, and struck an asphalt drainage ditch. This impact caused severe damage to the vehicle, but did not cause it to overturn. She was not believed to have been wearing a safety belt.

McDonald remains in critical condition according to Froedtert Hospital spokesperson Kathy Siesjs.

Alcohol and speed do not appear to have been factors. The accident remains under investigation.

Scheel receives Verizon Foundation Scholarship

KEWASKUM - Casey Scheel, who recently graduated from Kewaskum High School, has earned a college scholarship from the Verizon Foundation, the philanthropic arm of Verizon Communications.

Scheel is one of 250 students nationwide and two in Wisconsin who received a scholarship this year through Verizon's program for the children of company employees. He intends to pursue a Business Education/Finance degree at Marquette University.

Scheel, the son of Dean and Coyla Scheel of Kewaskum, will receive $5,000 annually toward his college expenses. The scholarship is renewable for three years and has a total value of $20,000. His father is a Verizon local manager-customer operations at Campbellsport.

Verizon's scholarship program selects recipients based on financial need, academic achievement and extracurricular activities. The scholarships are for high school seniors who plan to attend an accredited four-year institution.

Since 2001, more than 1,800 students from across the country have benefited from the scholarship program, which has invested more than $27.7 million toward the college education of children and dependents of Verizon employees. For the 2007-2008 academic year, the Verizon Foundation will invest approximately $4.8 million toward the education of 957 Verizon scholars, including 250 freshman and 707 upperclassmen.

"Verizon's long-standing commitment to invest in education starts with the children of our employees," said Mike Millegan, Midwest region president. "We congratulate our scholarship winners and wish them success in the coming years."

The Verizon Foundation awards the scholarships in partnership with Scholarship America, the nation's largest nonprofit, private sector scholarship and educational support organization, which was founded in 1958.

A list of Verizon scholars is available on the Verizon Foundation Web site, at www.verizon.com/foundation.

The Verizon Foundation is committed to improving literacy and K-12 education; fostering awareness and prevention of domestic violence; and promoting the use of technology in health-care delivery. In 2006, the foundation awarded more than $69 million in grants to nonprofit agencies in the United States and abroad. The foundation also matched charitable donations from Verizon employees and retirees, resulting in $29 million in combined contributions. Under the foundation's Verizon Volunteer initiative, one of the nation's largest employee-volunteer programs, company employees and retirees have also contributed nearly 3 million hours of community service since Verizon's inception in 2000.

'Manitou or Spirit Stones' program at Ice Age Center

The Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit's Summer Evening Events continues with "Manitou or Spirit Stones." The program will be held on Saturday, June 2, from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center. The Ice Age Visitor Center is located off of Hwy 67 half mile west of Dundee. Through the generous support of the Friends of the Kettle Moraine, this program is free, but donations are always gratefully accepted.

Since ancient times, the Native Americans of North America have believed in the existence of a supernatural, omnipresent and omniscient "force" or "presence." For many of the Native Americans living here, manifestations of the supernatural could be expressed in one word, Manitou. Manitou itself was seen to rest in rocks and boulders, sometimes referred to as "spirit" or "image" stones. On the cultural landscape, the stones together with their physical settings were considered sacred sites. These included such sites as hilltops, springs, river bends, trails and other significant places.

Join Herman Bender of the Mid-America Geographic Foundation as he shares his nearly 20 years of research into Manitou or spirit stones. Mr. Bender will share images of Manitou stones found spread out across North America. He will also try to unravel their meanings according to Native American traditions and cosmologies. Don't miss this fascinating glimpse into the lives of the ancient people who once resided in this area.

This program is best for adults and youth over the age of 10 years.

For further information or directions, contact the forest staff at the Ice Age Visitor Center. The center's phone number is (920) 533-8322 and is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and on Saturday and Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Sylvan Learning's Helpful Hints for Student Success:

How can parents know if tutoring is right for their child?

The notion of tutoring, whether it's to catch up, keep up or get ahead, has been around for a very long time - Socrates, for instance, tutored Plato and Plato tutored Aristotle. These were all bright philosophers and scholars who learned from someone who knew more. So, how can parents know when a tutor is right for their child?

A tutor may be the answer, if your child:

- Demonstrates a pattern of slowly worsening grades in school
- Develops low self-esteem and thinks negatively of himself in relation to his school performance
- Makes excuses as to why she is not working up to potential
- Misbehaves in school or loses interest in learning
- Is preparing for college testing, including college entrance exams, SAT and ACT tests
- Struggles to focus on a task (e.g. - spending more time daydreaming than on homework)

- Has test scores that do not reflect her daily performance

When children are successful in school, they build confidence that translates into all areas of their life, helping them build a strong foundation for a successful future. The purpose of tutoring is to teach children efficient learning skills and techniques to use in the classroom and ultimately in the workforce as adults. It is important that parents take action early and seek a tutoring service that develops these skills for success.

Even a child who is doing well in the classroom may benefit from outside help to sharpen study and test-taking skills. A tutor or supplemental education provider can help your child prepare for a test, catch up or get ahead in a particular subject area.

What should parents look for when selecting a tutor? Make sure the tutor is licensed and certified. Get recommendations from family, friends and teachers, and ask prospective tutors for references from previous employers and students.

Ask tutors how they will help your child master a specific skill and request an assessment to gauge your child's current level. A good tutor will require that a child learn a specific skill before advancing to the next academic level, and by utilizing the results of an assessment, you can benchmark your child's progress. Most importantly, ensure the tutor will work with you and your child's teachers to create an individual program based on your child's current needs.

WALKING FOR YOUR HEALTH

If you walk, make the most of your 30-60 minutes. Pump your arms with elbows at a 90-degree angle to increase intensity. Although tempting, don't take long strides. Short, quick ones give you more powerful "pushing-off" movement. Keep good posture so you breathe easier and put less pressure on your neck and back. In order to be sure you are walking "briskly," see how long it takes to walk a full mile. If it takes 15 minutes or less, you're doing well.

If you want to start walking, see your physician as you would before starting any exercise program. Start slowly and work your way to a brisk pace. If unable to hold a conversation while walking, slow down. Should you feel very short of breath or have chest pain, see your physician.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of MARVIN TACKES, who passed June 2, 1997:

Somewhere back of the sun set
Where the loveliness never dies
He lives in the land of glory
Mid the blue and gold of skies.

Gone from us who loved him
Into the Heaven of peace
The home of our loving Saviour
Where his soul is happily at ease.

His life is a beautiful memory
His absence a silent grief.
He sleeps in God's beautiful garden
In the sunset of perfect peace.
Dearly missed by his wife, children, and grandchildren

IN MEMORY

In memory of GERALDINE (GERI) GAVIN, who passed away 17 years ago, May 28, 1990:

We can't believe it's been seventeen years,
Since we said our last goodbye.
But everyday we remember your smile,
And many times have asked why.

We have learned to go on without you,
Even though it has been tough.
Our love and faith have kept us going,
And then the road seems less rough.

Sister, you will always be in our hearts,
And memories are still told.
We know you're in a better place,
Our love for you will never grow old.

*Forever missed,
but never forgotten,
Mom and family*

Women of the Harvest

By Holly Bollinger and Cathy Phillips

Voyageur Press, $24.95 160 pages

Every year, you wait, eagerly.

Trips to the mailbox at Christmas hold cards and presents, but that's not what you're looking for.

You can barely wait for the promise of spring in the form of gardening catalogs that get you through winter until you can order plants and plan your garden. Even though it's gardening time now, don't you almost wish you could have that kind of anticipation every day?

Ever dream of making your hobby into a way of life? In "Women of the Harvest" by Holly L. Bollinger and Cathy Phillips (foreword by Maryjane Butters), you'll meet a few women who took the next step down the garden path to live life by the seasons of their land.

If you've ever grown anything, no matter if it's in a hundred-acre plot or a Styrofoam cup on a grade-school windowsill, you know the kind of satisfaction you get when you see a seed become a green, healthy plant. According to Bollinger and Phillips, twenty-seven percent of American farmers are women and they get the same sort of excitement about their crops.

Right about now, you've probably got a fixed image of a female farmer stuck in your brain, don't you? She's ruddy and bibs-clad, wearing a dirty ball cap and looking over her cows and her corn field, in love with her tractor, right?

Not quite.

In this book, Bollinger and Phillips visited a village herbalist who grows medicinal plants in the hills of Vermont while she teaches people to eat healthier. They interviewed an Ohio grandmother who runs a retreat where future farmers come to learn how to run a sustainable farm. In Florida, they met a tree farmer who avoids clear-cutting, preferring to allow for nature's cycles to play out on their own. Also in Florida, the authors talked with a woman who farms clams. In the Pacific Northwest, an apple farmer gave the authors some of her time, as did an alpaca farmer and a woman whose goal is to live entirely off the land in her Oregon valley.

And yes, the authors met a woman who stands in the middle of her cows and one who loves her tractor.

Like a paper-based coast-to-coast farm exchange program, authors Holly L. Bollinger and Cathy Phillips give you a peek inside the lives of women who have chosen lives in agriculture in so many different ways. While the narrative is a little dry and lacks pizzazz, there's a better reason you should pick this book up: the photos of "Women of the Harvest" will take your breath away. Images of lush New England gardens compete with those of dusty Arizona cactus beds, and pictures of peaceful Colorado mountains follow those of an Oregon spread that seems to go on for miles.

If you're a farmer of either gender, or if your little garden isn't enough to fulfill your dreams, you'll love paging through this book. When it comes to off-the-beaten path agriculture books, "Women of the Harvest" is the cream of the crop.

Not the Time to Expand 4-Year-Old Kindergarten

By Senator Glenn Grothman

One of the disturbing trends we have seen the last few months is the degree to which we have politicians falling over themselves to have the government take care of young children. In Governor Doyle's budget, he proposed a 1.7 billion dollar increase in taxes and fees over the next two years. Due to past fiscal mismanagement, this will be a difficult budget to balance. But Governor Doyle has taken this opportunity to expand the number of 4 year-olds attending kindergarten in the state of Wisconsin by starting a new three million dollar-a-year program. Currently in Wisconsin, about twenty-four thousand of seventy thousand 4-year-olds attend regular kindergarten. (An additional ten to fifteen thousand attend a federal program called Head Start.) This amount has shot up significantly from only fourteen thousand kids 5 years ago. Districts adopt 4 year-old kindergarten in part because it is cheap to run and the state allows the same spending allowance for a half day of kindergarten as they do for a half day of high school which is much more expensive to run.

The first reason to oppose 4 year-old kindergarten is that it doesn't improve achievement. Studies show that a 4 or 5 year-old outperforms a child in reading who doesn't learn how to read until the age of 6 (in first or second grade). This is common sense. But what these studies also show is that by third grade every child is caught up. Of greater concern are studies that show less aggressive behaviors among children who stay at home with parents in their early years.

In the United States high school students do very poorly on standardized tests compared to other modernized countries such as Asia and Europe. However it is also true that American students are some of the best in the world on fourth grade standardized tests. It is in middle and high school that students fall behind. In fact, in international tests U.S. students surpasses 92% of their international peers in the 4th grade but only 29% in 12th grade. In math, U.S. students are better than average out scoring 14 of 26 participating countries. By 12th grade U.S. students only out perform students from Lithuania, Cyprus and South Africa. If Governor Doyle really cares about student achievement he would not focus on elementary schools where we are doing fine but on the abysmally low performance of middle and high school students.

The second reason to oppose this program is that it is unnecessarily expensive. A 4 year-old kindergarten teacher makes the same salary as a physics teacher in high school. The federal program, Head Start, costs less and has lower class sizes than 4 year-old kindergarten as well. Of course the Head Start program does not increase the amount of highly paid members of the teachers union which may be Governor Doyle's hidden objective.

The third and most important reason to oppose this program is that families are responsible for young children. This is the age in which values and loyalties are instilled and that is why communist countries like China or Cuba want to care for children as soon as possible. The government wants control. Why we would follow the paths of socialistic states and have the government raise little children is beyond me.

The effort to drive children away from mothers is not limited to Governor Doyle. On a national level Senator Hillary Clinton has proposed that the Federal government pay for 4 year-old kindergarten for the whole country. (Which is better than Al Gore's plan in 2000 in which he wanted 3-year old kindergarten). Congress lost its head last week and voted to increase funding for Head Start by 7.2% next year. They also increased the income ceilings so that more parents are eligible for the program. You'd never guess that our current national debt is 900 trillion dollars (which is 30,000 dollars for every person in the country). Of Wisconsin's eight congressmen only Congressman Sensenbrenner voted "no". Even Republicans Tom Petri and Paul Ryan got it wrong. It has been a while since President Reagan pointed out that it is unconstitutional for the Feds to even be involved in education.

Some people will say the world has changed and that all mothers work. But studies show that out of the majority of mothers who work only a small minority work fulltime. Further more many of those who work fulltime leave children with extended family. The most recent numbers I could find show that while over half of mothers with children under 5 work at least part time only 19% work fulltime and leave the child with someone other than a relative. If the state of Wisconsin wants to help parents with young children they can give those parents a tax credit. Some parents will use the money to stay at home while others can choose a day-care provider of their choice. Now at the time when the state is so deeply in debt is not the time for a massive expansion of Government.

Pecan Pie...A Dessert For Any Occasion

(NAPSA)—Pecan pie doesn't have to be just for special occasions. Try a twist on a favorite and serve it anytime. The next time you're entertaining or just want a comforting dessert that your family and friends will enjoy, try this recipe. This version is made with a sweet potato crust that should get people talking around the table.

Pecan Pie With Sweet Potato Crust

Sweet Potato Crust:
1½ cups Bruce's Sweet Potato Pancake Mix
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
4 tablespoons cold butter
4 tablespoons cold water

Pecan Pie Filling:

¾ cup butter
¾ cup light corn syrup
¾ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
3 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cups pecan halves

To prepare crust, combine sweet potato pancake mix and cinnamon in a small mixing bowl. Cut in butter with a pastry blender until pieces are pea size. Sprinkle water over flour mixture one tablespoon at a time, stirring gently with a fork just until all crumbs are incorporated.

Press dough into a ball and flatten slightly. Roll out on a lightly floured surface and fit into a 9-inch tart pan with removable bottom; trim edges. Place pan in freezer for 25 to 30 minutes.

Meanwhile, prepare filling: Melt butter in a saucepan over low heat. Remove from heat and stir in corn syrup, sugar and salt and stir until sugar dissolves; cool slightly. Stir in eggs and vanilla and pour into crust. Arrange pecans in circles on top. Bake in a 325°F. oven for 45 to 50 minutes or until pie is set. Cool on a wire rack. Makes 8 servings.

Here are a few facts that may make the pie even more pleasing:

- The French created pecan pie after settling in New Orleans and being introduced to pecans by the Native Americans.

- The nut-bearing pecan tree of the walnut family is classified as a species of hickory native to North America. Pecans are distinguished by their thin-shelled nuts with sweet kernels.

- Over 250 million pounds of pecans are harvested each year in Southern orchards.

- The first recipe for pecan pie dates back to 1925.

- Sweet potatoes are the most nutritious and heart-healthy vegetable, according to the Center for Science in the Public Interest.

- Sweet potatoes are fat-free, cholesterol-free, low in sodium and high in fiber.

- Besides the great taste, sweet potatoes are a wonderful source of vitamins A, C and E.

So not only can you enjoy this simple homemade dessert anytime of the year; you can feel good about serving it and eating it, knowing it's been made a little healthier. What's more, it stays fresh for a week and makes a terrific gift.

It's on to State for 2 relay teams, Staege and Treptow

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

They had done well in most of their tests this season, and the members of the Kewaskum High girls sprint relay teams aced the biggest exams of the year last week, finishing second in the 4x100-meter relay and fourth in the 4x200 of the Division 2 Sectional Meet hosted by Kewaskum.

Both finishes were enough to earn Jessi Forbes, Jess Liniewski, Nichole Kison and Kelly Uelmen berths in the WIAA Division 2 State Track and Field Meet which will be held in La Crosse Friday and Saturday.

"They ran well," KHS coach Jerry Gosa said over the Memorial Day weekend.

The 4x100 clocking was 51 and .52 seconds (51.52). "Off the top of my head, I think that was their best time of the year. Our previous best had been 52.24," Gosa went on. "I think we're the second seed (at state)."

Brown Deer, which was first at the sectional, has the fast time of the 16 in the field, a 50.25. "They're way out there in front of us," Gosa said, "but after that, they're all (times) right on top of each other."

The 4x200 unit made the two laps in 1:50.02, another season low after running a 1:51.30 in the regionals at Lomira on Monday afternoon.

"A couple of our handoffs were just not good. To their credit, they ran hard, and we got ourselves in," Gosa said, noting most teams have been cutting their times. "This is what happens this time of year. Everybody is bearing down."

Kewaskum will have one individual in the girls' state field. Senior Crystal Treptow qualified in the pole vault where she was fourth with a jump of 9 feet (9-0).

Treptow had to survive a long and exhausting jumpoff to win the fourth spot, according to Gosa, who said she and Andrea San Felippo from Thomas More both went out at 9-6, then in the jumpoff, missed at 9-3, missed at 9-0 and finally at 8-6, "Crystal made it."

"I'm pretty sure she's vaulting on Saturday," Gosa said.

And as far as the boys are concerned, Logan Staege was the lone survivor at the sectional. He finished third in an excellent discus field, tossing the silver platter 153-7.

This will be Staege's second trip to state. The winner from Lomira had a toss of 159, and the runner-up hit 156-10, "so he was right there," Gosa said, reporting, "(Ben) Boettcher threw well. He just didn't get them in bounds.

Gosa was not sure if Staege's event will be held Friday or Saturday.

Uelmen made the finals of the 100-meter dash Thursday but her time dropped off from 13.35 in the trials to 13.99 in the finals, so she had to settle for seventh place.

"She (Uelmen) ran so well at regionals and conference, but she looked like she did have a good start (in the finals)," Gosa said about his ace spring, who is only a junior. "On the plus side, in the 4x100 relay, when she got the baton, I think we were in fifth place," and she caught several runners to get the second.

Liniewski, only a sophomore, reached the finals of the 200, taking seventh in 27.80, a little higher than her qualifying time of 27.55.

In the battle for the girls team title, it was Lakeside Lutheran winning with 75 points, followed by Whitewater with 61, East Troy at 57 and Brown Deer with 55, one point ahead of Waukesha Catholic Memorial.

Kewaskum finished 10th with 22 points.

Whitewater captured the boys title, scoring 65 points, one ahead of New Berlin West. Pewaukee took third with 61.5. Kewaskum scored nine points, good enough for 21st place.

The state meet takes place on the UW-La Crosse track.

Outdoor Tips & Tricks

by Dave Gowdey

One of the most frustrating characteristics of modern fly leaders is their tendency to float in the surface film rather than sink. A leader floating on the surface casts a shadow, and disturbs the surface film, in a way that makes it particularly obvious to fish. This can be the kiss of death when fishing dry flies, particularly on hard fished streams. The best solution is to thoroughly wet your leader with any of the commercial leader sink products available before you start to cast. Alternatively, you can soak your leader in stream-side mud, which should help the leader sink.

One of the primary factors in determining how well you can hit moving targets with a shotgun is how well the shotgun fits you. The whole concept of shotgun fit is quite complex, and some wealthy hunters pay tens of thousands of dollars to have shotguns custom made to fit their body. At its simplest, shotgun fit basically refers to a shotgun that, when mounted, points where you are looking without requiring excessive aiming or adjustment on your part. When shopping for a new shotgun, one trick for testing fit that I have found useful is to locate and focus on an aiming point in the store, take a comfortable hunting stance, close my eyes, and then throw the shotgun up to my shoulder quickly as though I were going to shoot the spot. When I open my eyes I can see if the shotgun is pointing true, if it is pointing up or down, right or left. The one that points true in a majority of tries is likely to be a fair fit. This technique works best if you wear clothing similar to that in which you will be hunting.

One of the simplest and safest ways of cleaning canteens and water containers is to rinse them with a mixture of water and household bleach. The bleach will kill harmful bacteria and molds, and take away any musty smells. Be sure to thoroughly rinse the containers, out with clear water before you store or use them.

If you have a tip to do with hunting, fishing or outdoor skills that you would share with other hunters and anglers, e-mail the tip to davegowdey@fastmail.fm. Credit will be given in the column to those whose tips are selected for publication.

Amanda Donath, Lady Titans both claim national titles

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

If there's one thing the other teams learned over the past weekend at the NCAA 3 Track and Field Championships, it would be to never count out the UW-Oshkosh Titans in the title race.

Although they were figured to finish third or fourth in the three-day competition held May 24-26 in Oshkosh, the Lady Titans bettered most of their seed times and distances to score 57 points and win going away. This was Oshkosh's eighth national title in the sport.

The second obvious lesson in the meet is probably that the 400-meter dash title is pretty securely wrapped up for the next two seasons after sophomore Amanda Donath, a Kewaskum High School graduate, won the event and did so impressively, turning in a time of 54 and .68 seconds (54.68).

"Oh boy! It was pretty crazy," Donath said Monday night about the entire weekend, her winning a title and taking a third place with a relay team for All-American honors in both events ... the team winning the overall title ... and the weather everyone had to compete in.

"In the 400, I guess it comes with maturity, I was able to win my race," she said, indicating she was running second behind Rachel Anderson of Illinois Wesleyan with about 100 meters to go. Donath said she could see evidence Anderson was "starting to tense up," and so was another runner in the lane on her other side, so "I made my move, finished strong, and it paid off."

This was Donath's first national title, and she has worked hard for it the past couple of years at UW-Oshkosh where she is heavily involved in weight training in the off-season.

"Once you get stronger, you will be faster," Donath said, indicating her time might have been faster Saturday had it not rained, "but it's a new school record, so I can't be disappointed with that."

The 4-by-400 relay was also a thriller with Donath anchoring and moving a Titan foursome up a few spots. The Titans' time in the event was a 3:46.96.

Writer's note: When she was a senior in high school, Donath finished second in the WIAA State Track and Field Meet, running her all-time prep best of 57.75. Donath is the second Kewaskum High graduate to become an NCAA 3 national champion. Marni Lynn, who ran for Carroll College in Waukesha, won the national indoor title in the 1,600-meter run, and in 1999, she captured the outdoor title in the 3,000-meter race in Ohio.

Soccer coach focuses on improvement, looks ahead

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

Although it won't show up in the win-loss column, the Kewaskum High girls soccer team closed out the 2007 season with a couple of good efforts.

In their Eastern Wisconsin Conference finale on May 21, the Indians fell to powerful Plymouth by a score of 4-0, and in the opening round of the WIAA Division 2 regional, it was another 1-0 heartbreaking loss to host Campbellsport.

With these two games, Kewaskum finished at 2-11-1 in the EWC and 2-15-1 overall.

When asked if his team made progress this spring, coach John Berst quipped "Yes, we did."

Kewaskum came closer to Plymouth in the second meeting between the two schools. "I think it was five or six (goals) given up the first time," Berst said, explaining also one of the goals this time was challenged by a couple of his players, who claimed the ball did not go over the line.

"We played pretty well. Elissa Miller played well," the coach went on, adding, "Katie Gaynor had helped anchor the defense."

Generating offense had been a problem for the Indians, and was again this time. "I think we had two or three shots on goal ... I was proud of them. They weren't a Plymouth, but they worked hard with what they had."

In the first half of the regional battle, Campbellsport got the wind and made use of it, scoring the loan goal with about 10 minutes remaining.

"I thought Julie (Sargent, goalie) made some nice saves," Berst said, reporting in the second half, "the heavens opened and it rained like a monsoon ... it made everyone a little cold."

"We pushed hard for the last five minutes," Berst said. We had two or three good shots at the end, I think one of them grazed the post." He wasn't sure just who took that shot because several players from both teams were bunched up around the ball.

This was the second time within a week the Indians lost 1-0 to the Cougars.

While Berst had hoped the team would come up with half a dozen wins, that did not happen, "but we did have four people received honorable mention (in the Eastern Wisconsin all-conference balloting)." Those girls included

Gaynor, defender; Nicole Meyer, striker; Sargent, the team's goalie, who was in her first year of soccer; and Lindsay Krautkramer, midfielder. Gaynor and Krautkramer are seniors, while Meyer is a sophomore and Sargent, a junior.

"We've got a good crop of sophomores coming through," Berst said, indicating the junior varsity battled Plymouth to a 2-2 draw in their finale, which is an encouraging sign for the 2008 season. "We're going to get excited about moving forward."

Geidel takes medal, Indians 2nd in regional action

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

Rebounding from the disappointments of the final week of Eastern Wisconsin Conference action, the Kewaskum High golfers soared to second place in a WIAA Division 2 Regional Tournament held at the Hawthorne Hills Golf Course last Wednesday.

The Indians established a seven-shot lead after the first nine holes by posting a 157 team total, but on the back side, the Wildcats of Milwaukee University School warmed up like the weather, firing a sizzling 145 to take the team title with a 314, three shots ahead of Kewaskum, which won the regional title last year.

On the back nine, Bill Crimmins, Michael Crimmins and Garth Hatersley all shot even par 36s, while Dan Simonsen carded a 37 for the 145.

Kewaskum did have the medalist in the meet as sophomore Ethan Geidel played a very solid round, firing a 1-under-par 35 on the front nine and a 40 on the back for a 3-over-par 75, which was a stroke ahead of Hatersley and Joey Monty of Brown Deer.

What really helped Kewaskum was the excellent performance by sophomore Nick Gutbrod, who shot his best round of the year, a 40-37-77 playing in the No. 4 spot on the team. The 77 was the fourth best of the day, and it helped erase memories of the 99 he shot in the EWC Tournament.

Senior Casey Scheel stayed very consistent, putting together a pair of 40s for an 8-over-par 80, and Andy McDonald was the final counter with a 42-43-85.

University School, Kewaskum and host Random Lake, which finished third at 331, all advance to the Division 2 sectional at The Bull in Sheboygan Falls on May 29th.

The other teams in the meet, and their respective scores are as follows: Brown Deer, 333; Kiel, 339; Grafton, 340; Winnebago Lutheran Academy, 349; Kettle Moraine Lutheran, 353; Sheboygan Falls, 354; and Campbellsport, 355.

The top three teams from our regionals feed into the sectional at the Bull, and from the 12 teams, two advance to the WIAA State Tournament at University Ridge Golf Course near Verona.

"Overall we are very confident heading into the sectionals," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said, noting the Indians missed going to state last year by a single stroke.

Loss comes at the wrong time for baseball team

BY JUDY HARLOW
Statesman Correspondent

Their first outing was just so-so, but the Kewaskum High School baseball team also posted back-to-back, one-run wins Saturday, May 26, to finish as the consolation winners in the annual Germantown Tournament.

The Indians, coming off a great season in which they earned a berth in the State Baseball Tournament, opened with an 11-1 defeat at the hands of eventual champion Menomonee Falls, then came back to tip Greendale 3-2 and Waukesha Catholic Memorial 5-4 for a 2-1 start in the 2007 campaign.

"Other than for that first game, we played well," KHS coach Dave Donath said, referring to the fact the Indians committed five errors in the opener, then had just one error the rest of the day.

Kewaskum managed just two hits against Nick Erd in the opener. Senior Dan Shea hit a double in the first inning, and John Holt came up with a single in the sixth, and that was it.

The Indian's lone run came in the first when Cody Seibel drew a walk, was moved to second with a bunt, and scored on Shea's hit.

Holt pitched for KHS, giving up seven runs on seven hits before being lifted. He struck out three Indians over the six innings he worked.

In Game 2, it was Logan Staeger's offensive show helping the Indians to a win.

"The story of this game was Logan Staeger. He had a two-run homer in the fourth," according to Donath, who went on to report Staeger also drove in the winning run with a clutch single in the bottom of the sixth.

"With one out and two guys on, he hit the game-winning single to right-center," Donath said about his catcher.

Matt Parrent started this game for the Indians, according to Donath, who said, "He did make one mistake. The guy hit a two-run homer. Other than that, he did well." Parrent allowed five hits, struck out seven and walked just one.

Nic Olla was called on to finish up the final two innings and picked up the win. Olla gave up no runs on three hits, with a pair of strikeouts.

Staeger went 2x4 with the three RBIs, while Shea also picked up two hits in four trips to the plate.

In their last game, the Indians were down 3-1 after five innings, then score two in the sixth and two more in the seventh for the victory.

"The winner was Nick Olla again. He pitched two innings again," Donath said, indicating it doesn't happen very often that a pitcher gets a pair of wins in just four innings of action. The sophomore pitcher gave up one run on one hit and had one "K."

Olla finished up for Nick Ebert, who did well except for a bit of wildness. "He struck out four, walked three and he hit five guys," Donath said, reporting his starter hit the No. 9 Crusader hitter three times.

Kewaskum had eight hits in this game, with Shea (2x4), Parrent (2x4) and Holt (1x4) combining for five of them. Parrent had one RBI and Holt three.

"In the sixth, he (Holt) had a big hit. He had a single to the right side, scoring Parrent and Staeger," who had both singled, Donath said.

The veteran KHS coach liked what he saw from his pitchers but said, "We struck out way too many times. We had 24 strikeouts in the three games. That's too many, and many were of the looking variety ... We've got to get a little more aggressive with the baseball bats."
