Five alarm fire destroys C-Sport barn

Campbellsport firefighters called in mutual aid from four area fire departments on Wednesday, May 14 when they found themselves contending with a fully engulfed barn fire. The Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department dispatched the department at 10:33 p.m. to the structure owned by Peter and Michelle Groom, W2196 County Road Y. Campbellsport was assisted by fire departments from Kewaskum, Beechwood, Eden and Lomira. The storage barn and its contents were completely destroyed. The cause of the fire does not appear to be suspicious in nature. Campbellsport Police Department directed traffic. Statesman photo: Andrew Kuehl • andrew@kewaskumstatesman.com

Former Village President Heiser selected as new Kewaskum Village Administrator

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Publisher

KEWASKUM- Village trustees voted Monday, May 19, to offer a contract to former Village President Matt Heiser to replace Village Administrator Jay Shambeau, who will leave the village after two years. Heiser will officially assume his responsibilities as Village Administrator on Monday, June 23.

Village trustees met in closed session on Monday, May 12 to interview Heiser. From that meeting they came to the consensus to offer the Administrator position to Heiser. "The Village Board appointed Matt as Village Administrator without undertaking a search for other candidates believing he has demonstrated qualifications to be the Village Administrator based on his education and experience and his years of service to the Village. After extensive deliberations and an interview, the Village Board determined there was no need to look elsewhere in light of the fact it already had an individual in Matt who possessed all of the qualifications the Village desired," stated Shambeau.

Heiser will start with a salary of $75,267. He will receive the village's health insurance plan that pays 92.5% after a $500 deductible. He will also receive a $2,500 flexible health spending account.

Heiser will receive two weeks of vacation upon starting. Village President Andy Pesch thought because the Heisers visit family overseas, he should have an additional week after 6 months of employment. Fellow board members agreed.

Heiser will not receive the $60 monthly vehicle allowance that Shambeau received because the village now has a company vehicle in that of a former police squad. However if that vehicle is not available, Heiser would be compensated for mileage.

Trustee Harry Roecker introduced a motion to offer the position to Heiser and quickly received a second by Trustee Tom Piwoni. All Trustees voted in favor of the motion, Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, who was absent, expressed his support by letter.

Heiser, his wife Lisa, and their five children, are 11-year residents of the Village. Heiser has served on the Village Board for eight years, the past five years as the Village President. Due to his interest in the vacant Village Administrator position Mr. Heiser submitted his resignation as Village President on April 21.

Heiser is also active in the Mid-Moraine Municipal Association, the Kewaskum School District, and many community events in the village of Kewaskum. He is a 1988 graduate of Lake Forest College, Illinois and has completed coursework for a master's degree at UW-Milwaukee.

Heiser was employed with Froedtert and Community Health since 1988 and most recently promoted to the position of Senior Systems Analyst in 1997.

Andy Pesch, Village President, stated, "I am confident that Mr. Heiser is the right fit to be the Village Administrator. The Village Board is excited about working with Matt in a full-time capacity."

Heiser expressed, "I am looking forward to serve the Village in my new role. My family is deeply rooted in this community and I consider this a great opportunity to become even more involved in Kewaskum, working as a public servant."

The Village Administrator position will be vacant when Shambeau departs on Friday, June 6 until Heiser begins on Monday, June 23.

Are You Deaf? Immanuel Lutheran to offer night for the hearing impaired

BY PASTOR KURT ZIEMANN
Immanuel Lutheran - Town of Scott and St. Stephen's Lutheran - Batavia

Okay, I confess. I have asked this question before, but not with a good intention. You might know the scene. You tell your son or daughter to do something, and they just sit there with a blank expression. Maybe you ask again, a little louder this time. There still is no response. You wonder. Then you say it, "Are you deaf?" To which the answer is always, "No." And you wonder what kind of kid lives in your house who can look and act deaf at one moment, but then hear the potato chip bag being opened in another room the next moment.

"Are you deaf?" There's nothing complimentary here. You are usually angry. You mean to tell your child to get moving or else. And what do our children learn? Deafness is a motivation technique? Deafness is a put down? Deafness is some form of punishment? Deafness is for bad people? What is the truth? Deafness is reality - a reality for more people than you would imagine.

I found some statistics that was based on the National Center for Health Statistics back in 1994. While I believe the numbers are even higher today, they give a good glimpse of just how many people are affected by hearing loss.

Summarized and edited, it said that "While most people with hearing loss are older folks who have lost hearing with age, approximately 12 out of every 1,000 persons who are deaf are under 18 years of age, based on the most recently available NCHS statistics. That means that the chances are excellent that at least one student in your child's school will have a hearing loss." Other statistics included:

Hearing loss is the number one disability in the world.

Hearing loss is the most preventable disability in the world.

Number of people who need hearing aids: 25 million

Number of people who own hearing aids: 5 million

15 of every 1000 people under age 18 have a hearing loss.

Nearly 90% of people over age 80 have a hearing loss.

The hearing aid is the second most widely used assistive technological device after the walking cane.

3 out of 100 school children are affected by hearing loss.

Barry Manilow was sued for giving a concert-goer a noise-induced hearing loss. He settled the suit by donating $5,000 to the American Tinnitus Association.

Percentage of inductees into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame who have a hearing loss: 60%

Former President Ronald Reagan incurred a noise-induced hearing loss from firing pistols in the movies.

What does this mean? It means the question, "Are you deaf?" is not such a bad question after all. Used in the right circumstances, it is good and valid because the answer just might be: "Yes!"

What are we in the church going to do about it? Are we willing to let the deaf slip through the cracks? Are we really willing to turn a deaf ear to their spiritual needs? I hope your answer is "No!"

I'm not sure what other churches are doing in this area, but the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod in our area have begun the process of finding the deaf in our area and find ways to minister to them. Currently, a deaf group has formed at Immanuel Lutheran in the Town of Scott (W8497 Brazelton Dr. - Random Lake 53075). What we are offering our deaf friends as far away as Waupun, Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, and Hartford and as close as Beechwood, and Random Lake the opportunity for fellowship and spiritual growth. Rev. William "Bud" Palmer drives up from the West Allis/Mukwonago area and leads monthly meetings. Activities, Bible Study, food, and fellowship are offered to all. The hearing are invited also. Rev. Palmer teaches sign language before each event. As the group grows, there is even the opportunity to form a deaf church to serve the entire area.

We invite you to join us on the evening of May 22 to see what all the excitement is about. Our future goals include: recruiting and training deaf pastors and interpreters, providing Bible Study and fellowship opportunities for the deaf, and educating the hearing about deafness and the challenges our deaf face every day. Recently, the Lutheran Church Extension Fund provided a grant of $1000 to get us started. We welcome your gifts and prayers too.

"Are you deaf?" No problem. After all, the only thing a deaf person can't do is hear. The rest is within their reach. So let Christ Jesus serve you through us. Questions? Call the church at (920) 994-9060 or e-mail Gina Wilson at fivewils@gmail.com. What an exciting time for the deaf in our area! The silence is ending. Become a part of this ministry through your participation, donations, and prayers.

SynergyHealth, Froedtert & Community Health boards approve affiliation

WEST BEND- The SynergyHealth Board of Directors has approved a definitive agreement to affiliate with Froedtert & Community Health. The affiliation process is expected to be complete by July 1.

Under the agreement, St. Joseph's Hospital, the West Bend Clinic and the SynergyHealth Foundation will become part of Froedtert & Community Health. Froedtert & Community Health also includes Froedtert Hospital and Community Memorial Hospital in Menomonee Falls. Together with Columbia St. Mary's, Froedtert & Community Health anticipates forming Progressive Health, a larger regional health system.

"This affiliation is the culmination of many months of study and work on the part of board members and senior leadership at the hospital and clinic," said Greg Banaszynski, Chief Executive Officer of SynergyHealth, Inc.

In a press release from SynergyHealth the health care provider states that benefits of the affiliation include opportunities to improve care coordination across a broader network of providers and expand health care services available to patients in Washington County. The affiliation agreement includes plans to broaden care offerings in cancer, cardiovascular services, primary care and other services.

"We look forward to building on our existing partnership with St. Joseph's Hospital and the West Bend Clinic," said Bill Petasnick, President and CEO of Froedtert & Community Health. "We already serve many of the same patients and communities. This affiliation will allow us to expand local health care services and develop closer working relationships between providers across our growing system."

Under the agreement, both St. Joseph's Hospital and the West Bend Clinic will retain their names and a significant degree of local governance and decision-making for the provision of health care in Washington County. Leadership and staffing at St. Joseph's Hospital, the West Bend Clinic and the SynergyHealth Foundation will not change as a result of the affiliation. The boards of directors for St. Joseph's Hospital, the West Bend Clinic and SynergyHealth Foundation will be retained. Two community members of the hospital board will serve on the Froedtert & Community Health board in addition to a third member from the community who will serve on both the hospital board and Froedtert & Community Health board.

"This relationship formalizes our existing linkages and sense of partnership with Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin," said Dr. Gregory Blommel, President and Medical Director of the West Bend Clinic. "As part of a larger system we can offer access to a broader continuum of care and recruit new specialists to the area. A collaborative clinical relationship with Froedtert & Community Health and the Medical College of Wisconsin will benefit our patients with chronic illness, with the ultimate goal of improving the health status of the community. Through this combination, we can offer the right care at the right time and in the right setting."

"The Medical College of Wisconsin favorably supports the integration of Froedtert & Community Health with SynergyHealth," said Peter Plantes, MD, CEO of Medical College Physicians. "We look forward to working both with St. Joseph's Hospital and with the physicians at the West Bend Clinic, many of whom trained at the Medical College. Working with both St. Joseph's Hospital and West Bend Clinic, the Medical College of Wisconsin can expand targeted sub-specialty services in Washington County. We look forward to delivering the full value of our academic medical center enterprise to patients and communities in Washington County."

As part of the agreement, Froedtert & Community Health has committed to significant investments in the development of hospital and physician services in Washington County. This investment includes plans to create a more robust hospital campus, including the addition of a medical office building that will facilitate the future relocation and expansion of cancer services. The building will also provide space to specialists from the Medical College of Wisconsin and other physician groups.

Froedtert & Community Health says they will continue to support local community missions by investing in scholarships, community outreach and the accelerated development of local health care services by the West Bend Clinic and St. Joseph's Hospital.

Opinion

Dear Editor,

As the debate over the final state budget repair continues, remember what got Wisconsin into this mess. Fiscal responsibility is hard to find in the Wisconsin Legislature, as evidenced by the earmarks passed in the state budget last October. Here are just some of the wasteful handouts passed:

1) $4 million for a soybean crusher in Evansville.

2) $2.8 million to help build a Fox River Boardwalk, which was added in the budget by Sen. Dave Hansen (D-Green Bay).

3) Many road favors. According to the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel (10.27.07), "The DOT would be required to give grants to two dozen communities. Among the awards: $950,000 for Kenosha streets; $100,000 for a pedestrian path and bridge at the Milwaukee Urban Ecology Center; and $800,000 for a West Allis bike trail."

4) $2 million for a Hmong cultural center in Dane County, and an additional $250,000 for a Hmong cultural center in La Crosse.

5) $1.2 million for street improvements in Pleasant Prairie.

6) $1 million for youth summer jobs program in Milwaukee.

7) $500,000 for a civil war exhibit in Kenosha (which already will have over $1 million in private money to work with).

8) $360,000 to the communities within Wood, Adams, and Portage counties because their state senator (Julie Lassa, D-Stevens Point) wanted to offset the loss of property values. Never mind that other parts of the state are suffering their own economic downturn.

9) $142,000 to the International Crane Foundation.

10) $125,000 to the Painters and Allied Trades Council 7.

11) $100,000 for two ice arenas in Ashwaubenon & Eau Claire.

12) $35,000 for a windsled in the Bayfield School District.

13) $25,000 for the Lake Superior Big Top Chautauqua musical troupe to visit public schools.

Besides being a waste of money, allowing earmarks causes a snowball effect. As Sen. Robert Cowles (R-Green Bay) stated, "...Once you do this for one place, there's an expectation in other parts of the state that the legislator who represents that area will give equivalent pork." Most importantly, when legislators find it acceptable to waste money on earmarks, what other waste do they accept in a 1,600 page budget?

Although state government has supported this bloated budget, at least there is some leadership from Wisconsin's Congressional delegation at the federal level. According to a Wisconsin State Journal editorial (2.16.08), U.S. Representative Paul Ryan (R-Janesville) and U.S. Senator Russ Feingold "were among only a dozen House members and six senators who refused to ask for any budget earmarks last year, according to Taxpayers for Common Sense, a budget watchdog group."

Russ Feingold played a role in getting rid of Sen. Hillary Clinton's proposed $1 million earmark for a Woodstock museum. The embarrassing ordeal left the opening for Sen. John McCain (another enemy of earmarks): "I wasn't there. I'm sure it was a cultural and pharmaceutical event. I was tied up at the time," then added, "No one can be president of the United States that supports projects such as these."

The total cost of earmarks last year at the federal level was at least $18 billion. One would hope leaders in Madison would learn from the disgust at the waste handed out in Washington. So far they haven't.

Big Couple of the Year, Roger and Judy Vavra with little, Nick

Big of the Year, Tim Leitheiser with little, Stewart

WEST BEND - Over 200 volunteer mentors, their mentees, board, staff, and local community partners attended Big Brothers Big Sisters of Washington County's 2008 Recognition Banquet at the Horizon Room on Friday, April 18. It was great to see so many matches, family members and community members come together to honor "superhero" volunteers who change children's lives through mentoring.

Following dinner, BBBS honored several superheroes. Awards were presented to matches celebrating a one or five year anniversary. Six "Littles" graduating from high school thus graduating from the program, along with their volunteer "Bigs" were honored for their participation.

Bigs of the year were announced - Community Based Bigs, Roger and Judy Vavra and Site Based Big, Tim Leitheiser, were recognized for their outstanding service and excellence in volunteering this past year.

The outstanding Business Partner of the Year, was awarded to West Bend Mutual Insurance Co. and the New Business Partner award was given to API software, Inc. in Hartford. Rossman Elementary in Hartford and Kewaskum Elementary were also honored as School Partners of the Year.

A highlight of the evening was the first time that the new Cynthia Mott Memorial Scholarship award was given. Congratulations to Emily Bunzel, West Bend East High School graduate and five year "Little Sister."

Organizers of the event would like to thank Buck's Kinn Catering for their help with the hall and the meal, to Fuzzy Duenkel for taking awesome match pictures, to Kohl's Dept. Store for the stuffed animals and books distributed to the Littles at the end of the evening, and to the West Bend Optimist Club for their donation! It was a great evening of food, fun, friendship and shining Superhero moments!

You can buy your own home!

Wells Fargo Home Mortgage is teaming up with local REALTORS planning an "Affordable Home Tour and Buyer Workshop" on Saturday, May 31. The workshop will begin the event at Washington County Fair Park. Come and go between 10 a.m. and noon. Sixty-five Washington County homes will be on tour starting at 11 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Watch for the ad in next week's issue of the Statesman for more information.

The workshop portion will consist of experts explaining: down payment assistance programs, WHEDA (Wisconsin Housing and Economic Development Authority) programs, Slinger Housing Authority, title insurance, home inspections, Wells Fargo Mortgage programs and home improvement tips. REALTORS will have information on various aspects of the home buying process: Rent vs Owning, Wants and Needs, Budget and Correcting Credit, Buying Process/ Contracts, Tax Benefits and more.

Armed with this information and the Affordable Home Tour Listing Guide, consumers can then visit the properties during the Open House events coordinated for the tour. Pick up the tour guide at Fair Park between 10 a.m. and Noon. Pre-registered attendees will be entered into a drawing for a grand prize of four Brewer's tickets with parking pass and 20 second place prizes of a $25 gas card. Names will be drawn prior to the event, prizes to be awarded at the workshop. Winner must be present to redeem prize. One prize per household.

To pre-register call Wells Fargo Home Mortgage: Shelli (262) 893-2942 or Darlene (414) 507-6474. However, if you do not pre-register you are still welcome to attend. There will be door prize entry forms available at each Open House.

Kewaskum Realtor, Sharon Ellis of Prairie Gardens Realty LLC said, "My goal is to help buyers get into a home and start earning equity. It's like having a savings account. The workshop and tour is a great way to educate new buyers. It's a wonderful time to buy."

RE/MAX agent, Ann Enright invites first-time home buyers and those buyers that want to sharpen their home buying skills to the event. "The Tour/Workshop is a double-pronged effort to educate prospective home buyers about the mortgage lending process and let buyers see what homes and condos are currently available in their price range. Now is a great time to buy real estate; interest rates are low, there are down payment assistance programs and home prices are very reasonable and affordable. We hope that buyers don't pass up this window of opportunity."

Calling All Youth Anglers

All anglers and potential anglers 17 years old and younger are invited to the first Fishing Derby at the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit.

The Fishing Derby will be held on Sunday, June 8, from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Long Lake Recreation Area Fishing Pier. The recreation area is located off of Division Road north of Hwy F near Dundee.

It is Free Fishing Weekend so no one, not even adults will need a fishing license. It is also the Wisconsin State Park System's Open House, which means that admission into the forest is free for the day.

A festival of hands-on angling skills will continue throughout the day for youth to learn and/or practice their fishing skills. The festival will include booths on casting techniques, knot tying, tackle box basics, fish identification, fishing regulations and safety tips. Every youth who participates in each booth's activities will receive a fishing goodie bag and be entered into a door prize raffle.

There will also be plenty of time for fishing, too. Experienced anglers will be on hand to help all those who want to drop a line in hopes of catching the big one. Bring your own gear or borrow one of our rods/reels and some tackle. Bait will be provided. At the end of the event, prizes will be awarded for the largest game fish and largest pan fish caught. A prize will also go to the youth who caught the most fish by end of the afternoon.

If you have any questions, contact forest staff at the Ice Age Visitor Center (920) 533-8322. The center is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. Join us for a great day of fishing in the Northern Unit at Long Lake.

Celebrating 50 Years Along the Ice Age Trail

The Saturday Evening Events Series at the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit continues with the program Celebrating 50 Years Along the Ice Age Trail. This evening event is sponsored by the Friends of the Kettle Moraine.

The program will be held on Saturday, May 31, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. at the Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center. The Ice Age Visitor Center is located off of Hwy 67 half mile west of Dundee. The program is free, but donations are always gratefully accepted.

The Ice Age National Scenic Trail is a national treasure that winds its way for 1000 miles through the entire state of Wisconsin. In 1958 Ray Zillmer, a lawyer and outdoor enthusiast, formed the Ice Age Park and Trail Foundation. It was his way of trying to complete his dream of a national park which would protect the glacial legacy of Wisconsin. After starting 50 years ago with the "Glacial Trail" in the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit, the Ice Age Trail is now about 60 percent completed. In recent years great strides have been made in finalizing trail corridors and constructing new miles of trail by the foundation's volunteers and staff members.

Join us on May 31 to help celebrate this special anniversary and to learn more about the Ice Age National Scenic Trail from those who have actually hiked it. At least one through hiker (a person who hiked all 1000 miles in one journey) and a segment hiker (a person who completed the trail in segments) will share their first hand experiences of journeying along this glacial odyssey. Hikers from the local Ice Age Park and Trail Foundation chapter will also be in attendance to provide insights to our region's segments of the trail, completed and planned.

For further information or directions to the Ice Age Visitor Center, contact the forest staff at the Ice Age Visitor Center. They may be reached at (920) 533-8322, Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and on Saturday and Sunday from 9:30 am to 5:00 pm.

HAVE A SAFE MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND!

Give respect this Memorial Day

By John A. Scocos

This Memorial Day is a day of national observation and remembrance for those soldiers who never came back - those who have truly sacrificed everything for this country.

It is our most solemn national holiday - and, to me, our most important.

But this Memorial Day, I would like to also honor those who have given nearly as much as our fallen soldiers: The mothers and fathers, the children - the families - of our soldiers who lie in graves, marked and unmarked, around the world.

For them, Memorial Day is more than a ceremony. It is more than flowers to mark and honor the graves of fallen soldiers, which we have been doing as a nation since just after the Civil War.

For those families, Memorial Day marks the day they buried part of themselves. They too have sacrificed profoundly for this country. This Memorial Day, I would like to honor our Gold Star families, those who have lost children, husbands, wives, siblings, fathers and mothers to war.

I would like to profoundly thank people like Judith Singer, the founder of "Being There-Reaching Out," for creating an organization dedicated to supporting those grieving families. Judith, of Wauwatosa, saw how much these families needed support and personally created an organization to help them deal with the pain and grief of their loss.

Wisconsin families have already lost 87 young men and women in the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan - and the war won't likely end soon. That means the contributions of Judith and her organization will continue to play an immediate, strong role in the lives of Wisconsin families for whom the pain of loss is fresh.

Last Memorial Day brought for me yet another level of appreciation for that sacrifice. While I was serving with the U.S. Army in Iraq, the day was just like any other for our military operations there. However, my thoughts kept falling to the many cemeteries I have visited on Memorial Day to address Wisconsin citizens on the importance of Memorial Day.

As a result of my experience, I am even more committed to ensuring that what we do at the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs honors those men and women - and their families - on Memorial Day.

Our Department, our state and our governor are national leaders in ensuring that our veterans are supported when they return home. We have more numerous state programs for veterans and their survivors that truly set Wisconsin apart from other states.

In fact, it was two Memorial Days ago in the Capitol that Gov. Jim Doyle signed into law our state "GI Bill" - enhanced state education benefits for our veterans. In fact, a word about Gov. Doyle: he doesn't call attention to it, but he has attempted to privately attend every funeral of every young Wisconsin man and woman who did not make it back from Iraq and Afghanistan. If he couldn't make it, Lt. Gov. Barbara Lawton attended.

That is leadership and compassion. And that is truly what Memorial Day is all about.

Our veterans deserve our support. Our Gold Star families need our support - and your support. And for those who have fallen, we give our deepest honor and respect on this Memorial Day.

Madison hummed with the voices of over 5,000 boys and girls from every corner of the state for the Annual State Music Festival on May 10. Kewaskum was not without its share of participants being represented by a triple trio, a clarinet duet, and an alto vocal solo. The triple trio was composed of Gloria Schaefer, Connie Rossow, Sharon Harbeck, Gwen Edwards, Patty Edwards, Geraldine Guttman, Karen Gruhle, Sandra Gruhle, and Carole Schultz. Gwen Edwards and Eileen Hanselman played a clarinet duet, and Shirley Strehmel sang an alto solo. The triple trio received a Division I (superior) rating. Martz wins Silver Key award

Sam Martz

The National Scholastic Art Competition annually recognizes the best art in Wisconsin and the nation. Students may enter art and designs of any kind including electronic images, architectural and product designs. The art judged best in the state receives a silver key award.

Sam Martz, a seventh grader at Kewaskum Middle School, has been awarded a silver key for his animated video titled "Sam's Project."

In his video, Sam created a humorous scene in an office being invaded by a miniature alien spacecraft. Sam was honored with other silver key winners on January 26th at the Milwaukee Art Museum.

The drawings and paintings of three KMS students was displayed in the annual Youth Art Month exhibit. This year the Northeast regional exhibit was held at the Algoma Public Library in Algoma. The selected artwork includes sixth grader Erika Buchel's drawing "A Cloudy Day," seventh grader Robin Schmitt's painting, "Three Views," and eighth grader Joel Turk's colored pencil drawing "Fractured Sky."

Pictures of KMS and KHS students who participated in the 2007 Visioneer's Design Challenge were featured with an article written by KMS art teacher Lynn Molenda in the state journal of the Wisconsin Art Education Association. The article was published in March and mailed to each art teacher who is a member of the organization.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of AARON "TOMMY" KLUEVER, who passed away five years ago, on May 23, 2003:

Life goes on and has gone by, But precious memories never die,

After the end of five years. Our hearts ache with sadness And God only knows - How much we miss the one we loved so dear.

Living on, in this world of sorrow and strife Until we will meet again in Heaven

To live "together forever" in, THAT happy life.

Sadly missed by your son Brian and family.

SEARCHING FOR PARADISE in Parker, PA

in Parker, PA

A Novel

Remember when you and your Better Half met?

Perhaps you had been dating others but when you saw him, you knew he was "it". Or maybe you'd seen her around town and were totally floored that she would date someone like you.

And the thing is, over the years, with kids and jobs, mortgage and chores and everyday life, sometimes, it's hard - but necessary - to remember the moment you knew this perfect person would be your Better Half.

Addy Lipton can't remember that at all. The anger she feels for her husband, Lucky, consumes her so much that she just wants to forget everything and ram her car into his garage. In the new novel "Searching for Paradise in Parker, PA" by Kris Radish, Addy takes another route instead.

Addy Lipton could not recall the last time she actually parked her car in that garage. For years now, old washer parts, bowling balls, junk that Lucky picked up from dumpsters and side streets packed the entire two-car space. Because of that, the garage was deemed the Kingdom of Krap.

Addy hated it.

Lucky was a lout, and clueless. When did he start preferring the company of his bowling buddies to her? What happened to the Lucky she fell in love with?

She thought briefly that she might find out when Lucky brought home tickets to a Costa Rica vacation he won at work. Paradise: the sun, the beach, just the two of them. Certainly, they'd find the connection they lost.

That was the plan, until Lucky hurt his back. When he came home from the hospital, he was dependent on Addy, who was starting to really hate her husband.

Leaning on her Y friends and her beloved sister, Addy realizes that her soul has been dark for years. It doesn't get any better when Lucky moves out, so Addy files for divorce. But because he says he still loves her, Lucky enlists the help of his bowling buddies and neighbors to get her back. Soon everybody in Parker, PA, knows about the Liptons' lives.

And it's about to change a lot of relationships.

Did you ever witness a he-said-she-said break-up that went on forever? That's kind of what it's like to read "Searching for Paradise in Parker, PA". I loved the first three-quarters of this book. Author Kris Radish writes as if she's tapped straight into your world with a direct line to your thoughts. That had me snagged.

For awhile.

Eventually, though, I got mighty tired of Addy's do-I-don't-I, uber-angry waffling and I thought the non-stop Female Bonding was quite overdone. It was fun at first, but it got repetitive, outrageous, and tedious. It made me want this novel done a long time before it actually was, and it marred a basically decent story.

Would I recommend this novel? Barely yes, if only to enjoy Radish's quirkily dead-on writing style. If plot and fast pacing are of the utmost importance, though, "Searching for Paradise in Parker, PA" will be purgatory for you.

Legion in need of funds to purchase more calling minutes for troops

Last September, The Wisconsin American Legion presented satellite phones to Golf Company, 2nd Battalion, 24th Marines Reserve Unit out of Madison and Fox Company, 2nd Battalion, 24th Marines Reserve Unit out of Milwaukee. Both units are currently deployed in Iraq fighting the War on Terror.

The Legion purchased enough time in September to charge each phone with 5000 calling minutes. These phones, purchased through the "Wisconsin American Legion Troop and Family Support Fund," are just one example of the support being offered to troops and their families by the Legion.

"It is important to us that our young men and women serving overseas have the ability to connect with their families back home in Wisconsin. It means so much to hear mom's voice or to have a chance to talk to your kids about their day at school. This is the least we can do to make these Marines' deployment easier," said Department Commander David Kurtz.

Recently, the Legion received word that Fox Company had exhausted their minutes and that Golf Company is running low.

"The Marines of Fox and Golf Company would like to thank all for the satellite phones. The Marines have been using these phones everyday to stay in contact with their families. They count on these phones more than any other communication. We have the phones available to the Marines 24 hours a day and it is a rare sight to see it sitting unless the battery has to be charged," reports First Sergeant Ty Travers from Iraq with Fox Company's Marines.

He continued, "The sat phones are one of the many contributing factors of achieving high morale and troop welfare among the Marines and Sailors."

In order to recharge the phones with additional minutes, help is needed. The Wisconsin American Legion needs to raise $50,000 to provide deployed Wisconsin Reserve and Guard units with phones and sufficient calling minutes to allow all of their members to call home to Wisconsin.

To contribute to the "Wisconsin American Legion Troop and Family Support Funds," please send checks payable to: The Wisconsin American Legion Troop and Family Support Fund, P.O. Box 1000, Portage, WI 53901. Donations are also accepted by credit card on our website at www.wilegion.org/howcanyouhelp.

Donations are tax-deductible and 100% of all funds received directly benefit the troops and their families.

The Wisconsin American Legion has been serving US troops, their families, and veterans since 1919 and is the state's largest veterans' service organization with over 70,000 members and 523 posts. To learn more about our programs and membership in the organization, please visit www.wilegion.org.

Samuelson Sez

Critics Want A Meatless World?

The subject of this week's Samuelson Sez was prompted by an e-mail from a farmer who asked me this question: "Why are people in the United States so angry with those of us in farming and ranching? They are blaming us for everything; for taking feed and food and putting it in our gas tanks. They are blaming us for using technology. They are blaming us for mistreating animals. We seem to get blamed for all the ills of the world, and frankly, I wonder if these people understand that if my neighbors and I weren't out here using the technology and doing what we do, there would be no food on the table, or if it was there, it would cost a lot more. There would be no clothes on their back, no roof over their head and yes, no energy in the tank."

Well, I hear you my friend and I share your frustration. But the criticism is there and it seems to be building. I was looking at the website of The Indianapolis Star newspaper last week and in the Letters to the Editor column, I found this letter written by Ike Gallego of Indianapolis, a reader who obviously would like to put all livestock producers out of business.

This is what he wrote... "The prestigious Pew Charitable Trusts and Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health recently concluded that factory farming takes a big toll on human health and the environment, undermines rural economic stability and fails to provide humane treatment of livestock. Capping a two year study, the report calls for a national phase-out of all intensive confinement of farm animals."

The letter writer goes on to say "The report is long overdue. For the past 60 years animal agriculture has been devastating our country's vital natural resources, including soil, water and wildlife habitats. It has been generating more greenhouse gases than transportation. It has been elevating the risk of chronic diseases that account for 130-million deaths annually. It has been abusing billions of innocent animals." And here is the final line; "The only long-term solution to this tragedy is to gradually reduce the consumption of animal products to zero." In other words, no more meat on anyone's dinner plate; we should all become vegetarians for the good of the planet.

Of course, it is distorted, untrue and unfair, but it is out there and we in agriculture need to deal with it. Perhaps one of the reasons it's out there is because farmers and ranchers do their job so well. We don't have food shortages in this country and, despite the recent food price increase, U.S. consumers still spend less money for food than consumers in any other country. It is more important than ever that agriculture responds with a unified voice to help people understand that without agriculture, there would be nothing.

My thoughts on Samuelson Sez.

SPORTS

Getting second is quite satisfying

Junior Alissa Clapper, is shown participating in the pole vault event at Plymouth on Tuesday, May 13. Clapper cleared 9-6 to win the event.

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

Where they were good — in the sprints, relays, high jump, hurdles, pole vault — they piled up lots of points, but there are still a few weak spots in the Kewaskum High School girls track team line up, and Plymouth took full advantage in those events to beat out the Indians for the 2008 track and field title.

On their home track, the Panthers wound up with 144 points to 125.33 for the Indians. Sheboygan Falls was third with 117, and Two Rivers also went over the century mark, posting 106 points.

Neighboring Campbellsport placed seventh with 46 points.

Kewaskum had four individual first places and a victory in the 4x200-meter relay team.

Kelly Uelmen, one of only three seniors on the team, won the 100-meter dash and successfully anchored the winning relay. Her time in the 100 was 13 and .79 seconds (13.79), a little higher than what she had been running but not bad considering the sprinters were running right into the teeth of a strong wind.

Has her senior year been successful thus far? "I think so ... My hundred time is getting down to where I want it to be," she said.

"The four by 200 went well. Our handoffs weren't as successful as they could be, but we'll get it," Uelmen went on. Looking ahead, she said, "Regional is never very tough for the relays, but in the sectional, we face teams like Brown Deer and Catholic Memorial."

And longer range ventures than earning another trip to the WIAA Division 2 Track and Field Meet are Uelmen's college plans. "I'll be going to UW-La Crosse," she said, and yes, she hopes to be on the track team there.

In the 100, Alissa Clapper helped out with a sixth place, running a 14.82.

"The experiment of putting her (Clapper) in the 100 worked," KHS coach Jerry Gosa said. "She got three points."

Members of the 4x200 relay that won with a time of 1:50.49 were Haley Gregoriou, Jessie Liniewski, Nichole Kison and Uelmen.

"The four by 200 ran well. They're going to have to run faster if they want to go to state," Gosa said.

Liniewski proved she is the top 200 runner in the EWC, turning in a time of 27.61, .54 ahead of Falls' Brooke Buehler, who had the fastest time in the trials.

Candace Beine is the '08 high jump champ, clearing 5 feet, 2 inches (5-2), a good jump in the windy conditions.

Liniewski tied for eighth in the event after going 4-6.

By clearing 9-6, Clapper won the pole vault, and the good news was her near miss at 10 feet. "She was so close on her first try," vaulting coach Josh Parrent said, fully expecting she still may make that height this spring.

Kewaskum got a second in the 4x200 relay with a 53.85 clocking by Jess Forbes, Liniewski, Kison and Uelmen. Kison, who had just run the 400 a couple events earlier, had trouble getting the baton to Uelmen, who nearly made up the difference lost on the exchange.

"If I would have had five more steps, I probably would have caught her," Uelmen said about the Sheboygan Falls anchor runner.

The Indians did well in the hurdles with Gregoriou taking second in 18:42 and Liz Potter third in 18.43. Clapper fell in the finals, and still recovered to take eighth.

In the 300 hurdles, Gregoriou and Potter went 2-3 in 51.34 and 52.78.

The 4x400 relay team (Heather Schmitt, Megan Thorton, Ashley Roeske, Rachel Yocum) finished second in 4:27.78. Three of these runners are freshmen, while Schmitt is a sophomore.

The 4x800 (Brooke Waala, Crystal Lepp, Jessica Beaupre and Tonya Janssen) placed fourth with an 11:18.83 in the 4x800.

KHS also got two places in the 400, a fourth from Kison (63.3) and an eighth from Schmitt (66.21), and the same two took fourth and eighth, respectively, in the long jump with jumps of 14-7 and 13-11.75.

Lacy Taylor helped out with a sixth in the discus (99-06) and seventh in the shot (30-03).

The only point scored in the distance events was an eighth (13:24.61) in the 3,200 by foreign exchange student Helen Schoenborn, who ran very well considering this is her first year out for a competitive sport.

KHS hosts a Division 2 sectional this afternoon.

Sophomore Haley Gregoriou, took second in the hurdles event with a time of 18:42. Gregoriou also did well in the 4x200 relay taking first with team members Jessie Liniewski, Nichole Kison and Kelly Uelmen

Team score isn't good, but Geidel stands tall in EWC golf

Junior Ethan Geidel won season medalish honors at the EWC tournament at Hon-E-Kor.

By Judy Harlow

Except for the 4-over-par 74 by Kiel sophomore Brandon Gries, the scores were a bit high in Friday's Eastern Wisconsin Conference Golf Tournament held on the Blue and White Nines at Hon-E-Kor Country Club here.

Gries easily won the tournament medal by shooting rounds of 34 and 40, while Plymouth put the finishing touches on an already-successful season with its team total of 335, 20 strokes ahead of Waupun (355).

KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said playing conditions were excellent, except for the wind that kicked up in the afternoon, but, "The clear and decisive winner was the golf course as only one scholastic competitor was able to break 80."

Kewaskum had hoped to use the home course advantage toward a third straight runner-up finish in the league standings, but inconsistency and the absence of No. 3 player, Paul Marchant, were the cause of a drop to sixth (366) in the 18-hole test. This caused the Indians to fall to third place in the final standings.

Based on the finishes in the seven mini-tour meets and the tournament, Plymouth ended up with 10 points, while Waupun was next with 29 and Kewaskum was third at 35. Then came Kiel, 42; Two Rivers, 44.5; Campbellsport, 46; Sheboygan Falls, 57.5; and New Holstein, 60.

There was some good news from the KHS camp, however. Junior Ethan Geidel played well enough to win season medalist honors for the second year in a row.

Geidel shot a 40 on the Blue Nine and did well on most of the holes on the White, except for Nos. 14 and 17. On the par-3 14th hole, he hooked his tee shot out of bounds and wound up with a triple bogey six. This after scrambling for a nice par on the long and difficult 13th hole.

The peninsula 17th hole also caused Geidel some problems, and he posted an eight there to come in with a 43 and an 83, putting him in fifth place overall for the day.

Geidel was joined on the all-EWC first team by Plymouth's Cory Rhyhan, Gries, Jordan Mock of Waupun and Zach Hunter of Plymouth.

Kewaskum's Nick Gutbrod and Hayden Serwe of Campbellsport were among those making the second team.

Gutbrod was unable to make the top-25 in the tourney, soaring to a 47-49-96 on the day, while senior John Holt, who moved up to the varsity midway during the season, was the second low man for KHS with his 48-42-90.

The other counter was sophomore Jacob Durian who had a 97.

Marchant left for a family vacation on Thursday, according to Eichstedt, who said John Beiswenger was unavailable to play because of a hand injury he suffered while playing softball.

"The second nine proved to be friendlier to KHS golfers as most recorded rounds six to nine strokes better, such as John Holt and Jacob Durian. We need to be more consistent to have any hopes of advancing in the regional in Fond du Lac."

A 'perfectly' great start

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

Talk about a major turnaround.

A year ago, the Kewaskum Athletics home talent baseball team managed just eight wins total, and this spring already the A's have four wins in four starts.

Last Friday night, the A's bats exploded for 21 hits, including one home run and four doubles, and the end result was a commanding 14-4 victory over host Pardeeville in a seven-inning Tri-County Nite League game.

With the win, Kewaskum improved to 3-0 in the Tri-County and remain in a tie for first place with West Bend Seven Up.

The A's led just 1-0 after two innings — in the first Ty School led off with a single and eventually scored on a wild pitch — then they added three runs in the third and fifth frames, a single run in the fourth and six big runs in the sixth to break the game wide open.

The runs in the third came after two outs, started by a bloop single by Steve Ketter, who stole second and came home on a single by player/manager Jason Strobel. Strobel advanced one base on an error, then after Jon Olla drew a walk, Nick Whitty followed with an RBI single.

Remember the names Strobel and Whitty, along with Austin Sarauer. They all played key roles in the rallies that came in the late innings.

After the Braves came up with three runs of their own in the fourth, thanks to three Kewaskum errors, the A's answered with three runs in the top of the fifth. The big blow in the inning was a homer by Strobel, his second of the season.

Whitty followed with a double, then Matt Parrent, playing in his first full year for the A's, delivered a two-out, RBI single.

Kewaskum still was not finished offensively and batted around in the sixth when it tallied six more runs. The A's pounded out eight hits in the inning, with Sarauer and Schill each collecting two hits. Strobel had a single to center, driving in his fourth run of the night, and two batters later Whitty singled to knock in his third run of the game.

Jim Ziegler picked up his second win of the season, going the first five innings, giving up just four hits and three runs, only one of them earned. Ziegler struck out six Braves and walked none.

Whitty saw his first mound action, finishing up the final two innings. He gave up three hits, one earned run, struck out three and walked one.

The leading hitters for the game were Strobel, 3x5, with 4 RBIs; Whitty, 4x5, with 3 RBIs; Schill, 3x5, and Austin Sarauer, 3x5.

Hon-E-Kor Bestball drew 39 men's teams, 6 women's teams

Anderson in winners' circle again, this time with Doherty

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

It doesn't seem to matter who Craig Anderson has for a partner in the annual 36-hole Hon-E-Kor Bestball.

In the last 13 years, Anderson, a math teacher and golf coach at West Bend West High, has won the event nine times, with five different partners.

This past Saturday and Sunday, Anderson and Joe Doherty used a 32 on the final nine holes (on the White Nine) to surge ahead of their nearest competitors, John Haag and Jay Krueger to win with a 137 total. Krueger and Haag came in at 141.

The field was pretty well bunched after the first day, with three 71s, by Doherty and Anderson, Krueger and Haag and Jim "Jonesy" Korth and Jim Rohlinger, a 73 and two 75s in the Championship Field.

The top two finishers were still tied after playing the Blue Nine on Sunday, then Anderson and Doherty went 344-433-344 — 32 for a 66 and the victory.

Anderson carded a 69 all by himself on Sunday, leading to a lot of good-natured ribbing for Doherty.

"You try to help out a 69 ... I did on three holes," Doherty said later in the clubhouse, noting his partner "could have easily had a 65" because he missed four putts of under six feet for birdies.

"I played well," Anderson said, still he wasn't about to take all the credit for the win.

"Joe's birdie on No. 10 was big. That gave us the lead," Anderson said, adding Doherty came up with a par on No. 13 that was very important. "He came through for us at opportune times," adding, "Help at the right time makes the difference between winning and losing."

"We were 1-down after No. 1, then we parred No. 9, and they bogeyed," Anderson went on, noting Doherty's par on 13 gave their team a 2-shot lead.

Concerning his birdie total for the two days, Anderson said, "I had two yesterday and three today," indicating a key to the win was coming out of the event without a single bogey.

Anderson's first HEK Bestball win came in 1995, then he won in '96, '98, 2000, '01, '03, '04, '05 and now this year. His previous partners were Mike Mauer, Paul Kostelac, Bruce Henning and Jeff Anderson, Anderson's son.

Doherty won the event once before. "I won with my brother (Tom) a long time ago," he said.

The 2007 champions, Todd Rathkamp and Paul Koszarek, were not in this year's field as Rathkamp reportedly is recovering from back surgery.

Keith Gagnon and Ty Wietor combined for a 73-73-146 to finish third, then came Korth and Rohlinger, 71-78-149; Steve Wolter and Ken Collins, 75-78-153, Mike Markowski and Greg Pintar, 75-80-155; and the father-son team of Joe and Mike Volesky, 79-79-158.

From his top-25 finish in 2007, Anderson earned an automatic exemption for this year's Wisconsin State Men's Amateur event (at Old Hickory in Beaver Dam), and he said, "Right now my plans are to play in it," he said.

In the First Flight, Scott Leitheiser and Ryan Doherty teamed up for identical scores of 74 for a 148. Posting the same total were Tony Cole and Lee Zarnott, and in a playoff, Leitheiser and Doherty won in one extra hole.

Finishing third were Rob Bertram and Tim Taylor, 73-78-151, then came Dave Wietor and Dale Jung, 77-77-154; and Russ Averill and Randy Averill, 80-74-155.

The Second Flight champions were Tim Rohlinger and Rick Averill, 76-79-155, winning in a playoff over Brian Ogle and Chuck Cannestra, 78-77-155.

Taking third were Bob Beck and Louie Santini, 77-79-156, followed by Dick Wietor and Tom Bartelt, 81-78-159; and Dave Denis and Mike Stickney, 79-82-161.

The top two teams in the Third Flight were Chris Kerry and Don Zimmel, who cared a 77-84-161 and Art Lawniczak and Anthony Vichathep, 81-82-163.

There were six groups of women who played 18 holes on Saturday. Using handicaps, Pat Taylor and Dianne Kleinke were the winners with a 36-33-69, one shot ahead of Linda Horn and Sue Zugbaum, who turned in a 36-34-70.

New tournament director Larry Sterr was pleased with the way the event ran. "It went real well, no negative comments, just positive ones," he said, indicating this year's total of 39 teams was up five from last year.

Dickmann, Boettcher earn Eastern Wisconsin Conference titles

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

PLYMOUTH — Ben Boettcher, Tyler Swanson and Jake Dickmann all placed in two individual events, but as was the case all season long, the Kewaskum High boys track team did not have enough depth to come up with the points needed to finish in the upper division of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Track and Field Championships.

The meet was held here last Tuesday.

The Indians, behind two first places, wound up with 69.5 points, which put them in sixth place out of the eight EWC teams.

As expected, Plymouth and Kiel duelled for the 2008 title, and the host Panthers got the nod by scoring 154.5 points, 14.5 points ahead of the Raiders. Two Rivers was also in the mix, taking third with 138, then came New Holstein with 78.

Sheboygan Falls (73.50) finished just 4.5 points ahead of the Indians, then came Waupun with 41 and Campbellsport, way back with just eight points.

Boettcher was especially impressive, successfully defending his discus title with a toss of 166 feet, 10 inches (166-10).

"I guess it was all right," Boettcher said about his top throw, which was a couple inches better than his previous best toss of the season. "It was a little windy, as you can tell."

Now with two conference titles to his credit, the muscular senior looks ahead to the WIAA Division 2 state series. (The Indians were scheduled to be at the Lomira Regional Tuesday and will host the sectional this afternoon, starting at 3 p.m.)

"I'll make it to state with what I'm throwing, but I'm looking to improve ... You can't be satisfied," Boettcher said.

And does Boettcher have his sights set on Charlie Spark's KHS record of 172? "Yeah, I have two big meets coming up ... It will come," Boettcher said.

Another question on the minds of Kewaskum sports fans is whether Boettcher, a star running back last fall, plans to play college football in the fall. "Right now, I'm undecided. I want to talk it over with my coaches" to go over the options open to him, he said, indicating he has been accepted at Concordia College.

For now, though, Boettcher was just enjoying his track success, which also included a third place in the shot put (44-8.5).

Swanson, also a senior, had a big afternoon in the discus, with most of his throws better than any he had all season. The best landed 148-9.5 from the ring, his best by over nine feet.

Swanson also finished fourth in the shot put (44-2.50), so those two athletes earned 29 of the Indians' points.

Dickmann didn't let the wind bother him and managed to soar 12-6 to win the pole vault, and he also was the second best high jumper in the field, losing only to Seth Rooker, who stands 6-6. Rooker cleared 6-2, while Dickmann made 6-0.

Later in the day, Alissa Clapper won the girl's pole vault, so the Indians swept the event, much to the delight of the teams' vaulting coach Josh Parrent.

"They're both working their tails off," Parrent said in praising his two young athletes.

KHS coach Jerry Gosa said Dickmann had a great day and is having an excellent season.

Kevin Schellinger helped out in the pole vault with his third place jump of 11-6.

The Indians may have been able to pass up Sheboygan Falls for fifth place, but, "We lost Jon Komp yesterday. He's got mono."

Komp may have scored several points in the 100, and he would have helped the sprint relay teams.

Eric Turowski picked up a seventh in the 100 (12.96), and the Indians got an eighth place in the 200 from Dan Dymond (24.48), and an eighth by soph Zach Herriges in the 800 (2:11.43).

The best the Indians could do in the relays was a fourth in the 4x400 with Dylan Kenworthy, Herriges, Dickmann and Scott Steldt running a 3:38.72.

The sprint relays notched a pair of sixths. The 4x200 foursome of Zach Amerling, Kenworthy, Nick Olla and Matt Donath were clocked in 1:40.23, while Turowski, Donath, Amerling and Olla hit the finish line in 47.32 in the 4x100.

Panthers are solid again

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

The reign continues.

The Plymouth High golf team clinched another Eastern Wisconsin Conference golf championship, their 15th in the last 16 years, on May 14 by finishing first in the final mini-tour meet of the year played at the Quit Qui Oc Golf Course.

Even though Kiel was the official host of the meet at the Elkhart Lake course, Plymouth also plays its home meets there, and their 157 total proved they know the course well.

Plymouth had a 7-stroke advantage on second place Waupun (165) and nine shots ahead of Kewaskum, which had hoped to stay mathematically alive in the EWC race.

With the win, Plymouth expanded its lead on the rest of the field. The Panthers have eight points to 23 for the Indians and 25 for Waupun.

Kewaskum's fine junior Ethan Geidel did capture the medal for the day with his 1-over-par 36, a stroke ahead of Waupun's Jordan Mock.

Winning this medal was especially important for Geidel because Plymouth's Corey Rhyan, his biggest competition in the battle for the EWC medal, slipped to a 41, failed to make the top-five and didn't earn any points toward the medal.

Senior Paul Marchant took over the second scoring spot for this match, posting a 40, while Nick Gutbrod carded a 44, and John Holt rounded out the scoring with a 46.

Campbellsport, sixth in the meet with a 171 total, was led by sophomore Hayden Serwe, who shot a 40.

Lady Kickers ready for Kiel in Regional

By Nathan Kenworthy
Statesman Correspondent

The Kewaskum High School girls soccer team likes the hand that they have been dealt. The Indians will most likely take on Kiel as the sixth seed, despite their recent success over the past two weeks. They weren't able to put enough wins together in the first part of the season to earn a better spot, but the team is playing great soccer when it truly counts.

The Indians started their final full week of the season on the road at Elkhart Lake on Monday, May 12. The Indians got on the board in the 20th minute on a Jenna Buker goal assisted by Christine Bohn. The Indians took that 1-0 lead into halftime.

Coach Amy Piwoni said, "Our defense played really well and was led by Amanda Osswald at sweeper and Lindy Taylor at stopper. (Julie) Sargent also made some great saves in goal (seven total)."

The Indians out shot Elkhart Lake 16-6. Elissa Miller scored the winning goal in the 65th minute on a turn around shot from the 18' yard line. Piwoni added, "It was a great team effort. The girls wanted (the win) it and we came out with a nice non-conference victory."

The Indians got back into the conference swing with a visit to Waupun on Tuesday, May 13. The Indians scored early with a Miller floater at the five minute mark.

Waupun answered in the 15th minute with a shot just out of the reach of Sargent. The first half ended in the 1-1 deadlock. Waupun scored the decisive goal in the 60th minute on a shot from well outside the 18.

Piwoni said, "They had the wind at their backs, which greatly helped the trajectory of the shot. Waupun is a very physical team and we battled every inch of the field with them. This was a frustrating loss for the team and myself."

The Indians took 12 shots compared to Waupun's 7, but Kewaskum could just not seize their opportunities.

Rival Campbellsport visited the Indians on Thursday, May 15. The Indians were not or giving their opposition any chance of making the early upset. Boy, did they hold tight to their gameplan.

The Indians stood behind their starting pitcher, who threw a no-hitter over the five innings of play. She had 11 strikeouts and only two base on balls. Coach Jeff Gosse said "the team entered the game very businesslike and we wanted to get in, do our jobs and get out with the victory. They (Milwaukee Lifelong Learning) is a new program and only a few years old."

That is exactly what the team did. The Indians' offense was led by Danielle Miller (2x2) and Ashley Faber (2x2). The Indians won 12-0 over Milwaukee Lifelong Learning on Thursday, May 15.

Win streak alive at five

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

In its first home appearance of the 2008 season, the Kewaskum Athletics home talent baseball team used another fast start and excellent pitching for a 3-2 victory to stretch its win streak to five.

With the win, the A's improved to 2-0 in the Rock River League and 5-0 overall.

Playing on the Kiwanis Park diamond, the A's relied on the pitching of Mitch Huffman and Cory Tjader to make its three runs in the first inning stand up.

The runs came after the Astros' starter had gotten the first two batters out. Steve Ketter, hitting in the No. 3 hole, drew a walk, then Jason Strobel got the fireworks going with a double was just fair down the left-field line, putting runners at second and third.

Quickly the bases were loaded as Jon Olla was hit by a pitch, then Nick Whitty, who went 4x5 in the team's last game against Pardeeville, delivered a clutch single through the left side to drive in Strobel and Ketter. Dan Shea followed with an RBI single to right field, giving the A's a 3-0 advantage.

For the remainder of the game, the A's had just one more hit, a single by Olla.

The A's did threaten in the third when Strobel got hit by a pitch and Olla followed with his base hit. Strobel was thrown out trying to advance to third on the play, and Olla eventually was left stranded.

It didn't matter as Huffman scattered seven hits and gave up two runs in pitching the first six innings of the contest. He struck out four Astros.

Hustisford scored twice in the fifth on back-to-back singles and later, after pair of strikeouts, two more singles. Huffman got out of the jam when he got the next Astro to pop out.

Newcomer Cory Tjader finished up the game, giving up two hits in the final three innings. He walked one and struck out one.

According to team spokesperson Jim Ziegler, Tjader worked around a two-out single in the eighth and a two-out walk in the nine the pick up his second save of the season.

The A's were slated to play a Tri-County Nite League game against Sullivan in Johnson Creek on Wednesday. On Sunday, Oakfield will host the A's in a 1:30 p.m. RR game.

Indians unable to overcome powerful teams in quad

By Nathan Kenworthy
Statesman Correspondent

The Kewaskum Indians boys tennis team started the weekend out on a double fault but finished with an ace.

The Indians took on Roncalli in the first round, and got handed a 0-7 loss. Ross said "Roncalli was awfully tough. They will probably finish second in conference."

The closest match was at # 2 singles (Chris Larson), where he nearly won the first set (5-7). Other than that one set, the Indians were handled.

However, the conference quad did go on and the Indians were going to have a chance to right their wrongs that they made in the first match. Kewaskum took on Two Rivers and it came down to close matches at # 2 singles and # 2 doubles, but Two Rivers managed to escape with victories in each key spot and beat Kewaskum 4-3.

Winning for the Indians were Dan Parker (#1 singles), Nathan Bandy (#4 singles), and Travis Rogne and Ben Adkins (#3 doubles). Ross said "we played decently on the whole, but we would have liked to have gotten the win, but lost the two close ones. The new combo at # 3 doubles got their first win and looked good doing it. They are young and have potential. (Travis is a freshman and Ben is a sophomore)"

Larson lost a three setter after being the last to finish against Roncalli. Ross believed "he was out of gas."

Kewaskum, after having close losses all day, broke out for a grand finale against Kewaunee. The Indians won the final match 6-1, with the only loss at # 3 doubles. Parker, Larson and Bandy (#1, 2, 4 singles) all won fairly easily. TJ Corey and Ryan Gibson (#1 doubles) won in straight sets. James Wiedmeyer (#3 singles) held on for a three-set win. Ross was impressed with his #2 doubles team of Aaron Monte and Nic Gerharz who pulled out very good win. They lost the first set 4-6, and then won the next two sets 6-0. Ross said "they hadn't played that well against Two Rivers earlier, and then lost the first set (against Kewaunee). They were challenged to pick up their game and really did."

Ross said "all in all, it was a decent day for us. We knew Roncalli would be tough and we were hoping to beat the other two. We didn't, but the way the conference keeps score, we went 9-12 (every match counts as one point, not just the overall score) on the day. So it was really important for our team to pull out the three-setters against Kewaunee, otherwise we're 7-14 on the day, and that doesn't look nearly as good."
