School District residents approve $8.33 tax rate at annual meeting

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Publisher

KEWASKUM- A handful of residents approved a $19,755,389 budget for the School District at the annual meeting held Monday, August 25. Those in the school district can expect a tax rate of $8.33 when their tax bills come in December. This is a 25¢ increase from 2007.

The District's Business Manager Paul Reichert, addressed residents of the district's financial affairs explaining a planned for $917,475 deficit for the not yet audited 2007 budget.

Good news came as Reichert explained the deficit was $40,000 less than they anticipated a year ago. The planned deficit came after completing the high school renovation project to the tune of $204,412, the purchase of a new telephone system for $110,742 and prepaying a state trust fund loan at $618,171. Funds for these projects came from the district's fund balance.

In further detail, Reichert reported a $124,695 deficit in revenues and also reported that expenditures were under budget by $165,011. He described the deficit came after interest on income was $77,000 less than anticipated. Medicaid reimbursements were also $19,000 less than what was predicted.

Total tax levy projected to be $19,755,389

Reichert showed the District started the year with $2,641,496 in fund balance. Fund balance is where surplus money from various budgets are placed at the end of a budget season. At the beginning of this budget year, the District starts with $1,724,021 in fund balance.

The district's general fund will realize a 3.7% increase ($704,943) in revenues while expenditures will be decreased by 1.3% percent ($252,848).

Highlights from the general fund included an overall $35,963 decrease in staff/program budgetary items. This is due to a reduction in staff due to staff retirements without replacements, a decrease in support staff (aides), decrease in open enrollment and curriculum expense.

The referendum fund, in its fourth of five years will again cost taxpayers $430,000. This is projected to sunset with the 2009-'10 budget.

The special education fund, amounting to $2,577,639 will decrease, 2.4% ($64,930). This comes after a reduction in staffing.

Reichert explained the district receives their funding from a variety of sources, however much of it comes from three funds. Equalization aid from the state amounts to 45% of the budget while property taxes amounts to 44%. The remaining 11% is comprised of grants, open enrollment and student fees.

On the expenditures side of things Reichert explained that 75% of the expense of the district comes in the form of wages and benefits. The next share, eight percent goes for pupil transportation and then seven percent in the form of supplies and equipment.

The District will receive an estimated $9,550,000 in equalization aid. Wisconsin State Equalization Aid is general financial assistance to public school districts for use in funding a broad range of school district operational expenditures. The purposes for which general aid can be used are not restricted as they would be in a categorical aid program. By October 15 of each year, Equalization Aids for the current fiscal year are computed.

As expected, the district's tax levy is the highest in the history of the district.

Former Board Member Jean Goeden asked Reichert for information regarding the District's staff mentoring program. Her primary question was whether teachers are paid extra if they become mentors to new teachers. Reichert indicated that was the case.

Once a point of contention, salaries of $3,500 for Board of Education members was approved. Expenses of $125 per day was also approved by the electors.

Next year's annual meeting will be held on Monday, August 24, 2009 at 7 p.m.

Audio from the Annual Meeting should be posted on The Statesman's website by the end of the week.

Townline Road bridge project complete

A three-year project to repair a dilapidated bridge is complete this week in Kewaskum Township. Chairman Ellis Kahn announced Tuesday the bridge on Townline Road, north of State Highway 28 is finished. The project was a joint effort between the township, county and federal government. Construction took just over a month according to Kahn. The bridge cost taxpayers $24,424.43 after aid from federal and county sources.

Derge Run/Walk funds given

Booster Club seeks community volunteers

The Kewaskum High School Booster Club is looking for more help from parents and community volunteers for fundraising activities especially the busy football concession stand help this fall.

The Kewaskum High School Booster Club's mission is to promote co-curricular activities of high school students. Past disbursements from The Booster Club include funds toward post prom, game bags for various sports, batting screens and bats, heart rate monitors, wrestling mats, weight room equipment, dance mirrors and seats for the school theatre. The Booster Club annually awards a $1,000 scholarship to a high school senior pursuing a technical or college degree.

Funding for The Booster Club comes primarily from their annual Three-on-Three Basketball Tournament held every spring, from sales at the football and track concession stand adjacent to the football field and the recently held Booster Club Golf Outing. It's a common misconception that the proceeds from the concession stand only fund the football program.

This is incorrect; the proceeds go back to The Booster Club's general fund for distribution.

Volunteer help is needed on football game nights (especially Fridays) and also during the track season. To offer your help, contact Amy Ermer (262) 626-4915 (home) or (262) 707-6909 (cell). Duties are varied and can include grilling, selling concessions, making popcorn, keeping the shelves stocked and other tasks. During one football season, volunteers fried and served 820 pounds of hamburgers and 315 pounds of brats. Additionally, they topped their fries and nacho chips with 455 pounds of nacho cheese. Booster Club membership is not a requirement to volunteer.

The Booster Club by-laws permit any adults living in the community to be members. They would welcome your help. Booster Club meetings are held at the high school at 7 p.m. during the school year the third Monday of every month except December in The Rose Library. Please contact Ermer for more information or come to the next meeting.

Senator Grothman calls for special session on Affirmative Action

MADISON - Senator Glenn Grothman (R-West Bend) calls for legislative action in light of the revelation that the University of Wisconsin spent $1.3 million more than necessary to expand a science hall at its Stout campus. The affirmative action contract went to a company operated by a man of Chinese descent operating a business with annual revenues of $75 million.

"This illustrates as clearly as anything the absurdity and motivation behind any affirmative action," Grothman said. "It is not about helping the poor or even disadvantaged groups."

Grothman says the real goal of affirmative action is revealed: It is to buy votes from groups by ancestry and gender. While the short term loss is bore by taxpayers and the losing bidder or job applicant, the long term loss will be bore by our nation as politicians attempt to set one ethnic group against another.

"It's time for the Legislature to step in and save the taxpayers money, the students' tuition and stop dividing our society by ethnic group," Grothman said.

Grothman vows to reintroduce a constitutional amendment to ban affirmative action for both ethnic and gender purposes in the next session. Grothman also calls upon the Board of Regents to ask for an exemption on the affirmative action requirement from the Doyle administration, so they can hold down tuition costs and protect low income students.

"Not only does the current policy allow very wealthy people benefits," Grothman said, "But also people who are one-quarter or one-eighth of a minority groups' ancestry."

-Letters to the Editor-

To the Editor:

I had an opportunity to speak with Karl McCarty on the grounds at the Washington County Fair. In the few minutes of our discussion of taxes, school taxes were part of the topics. His answers were that teachers do not get paid enough, and he would vote to overturn the state spending limits (which presently are the only controls we have on schools).

With the projected heating fuel to be 22% more this winter, we need to think about electing anyone who states he will vote to raise taxes.

So I cannot vote for Mr. McCarty, as he indicated to me that he wants to raise taxes.

Increased cost of living and taxes tend to force senior citizens out of their homes, and often shortly thereafter into nursing homes - which can also be at the taxpayers expense. Nursing homes are an expensive way to care for seniors when options could be made available.

Personally I feel senior citizens should not have to pay school taxes at all. Wisconsin would then be able to compete with other states where this program has been in practice for many years.

I will vote to re-elect Dan LeMahieu to the 59th District Assembly seat. He has a six-year record of working diligently to prevent further tax increases.

Del Ellefson
Town of Wayne

To the Editor:

In response to election opinions by Karl McCarty from The Statesman of August 2008, criticism is always hindsight and he does not state how or what he would have done differently.

We have a long record of supporting conservative candidates for public office and have never supported one that stooped to calling his opponent a liar.

If so called corruption exists Mr. McCarty needs to explain what he really means.

In other literature put out by Mr. McCarty he accuses Dan LeMahieu of not "leading the charge" on the Great Lakes Compact, he also states the only reason the compact passed this session was because Gov. Doyle called a special session. It took compromise in the session to get what was needed to benefit other major interests within the state that share our conservative values that would have also been denied use of lake waters.

Would Mr. McCarty vote for anything sponsored by Gov. Doyle without compromise even if it put his constituents at a disadvantage?

If Mr. McCarty wants to vote with liberal views why doesn't he run as a democrat?

We have known of Dan LeMahieu during his time on the Sheboygan Co. Board, also since he has been our assemblyman and we do not know of anything he has done to deserve being criticized in this way.

We sincerely hope people in the 59th assembly district get out and vote for Dan LeMahieu on September 9th.

Marvin & Eileen Hoffmann
West Bend

To the Editor:

Dan LeMahieu deserves another two year term in the State Assembly. Dan has led the efforts in Madison to help counties with their ever increasing costs.

Recently, the Washington County run health center, the Samaritan Health Center, received over $650,000 of federal money to help offset MA patient losses. This is a direct result of a bill Dan authored and passed the legislature three years ago and gives county taxpayers a $650,000 reduction in the levy.

It is for efforts like this that Dan has been named Wisconsin Counties Association Legislator of the Year. The taxpayers will benefit if Dan is re-elected.

Dan has also been a huge defender of the farm community. Dan has received the Friend of Agriculture Award all three terms in the Legislature and is a member of and has been endorsed by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau.

Please join me in voting for Dan LeMahieu on September 9.

To the Editor:

There is an important election coming up in September. Conservative leader Dan LeMahieu is being challenged by Karl McCarty, who is promising new ideas. One new idea that scares me is ending your right to vote in Supreme Court elections.

Since Wisconsin has been a state, we have elected our seven Supreme Court Justices. After ultra-liberal Louis Butler and Linda Clifford lost their elections, Senator Fred Risser (D-Madison) announced that after 150 years of electing judges, he wants them appointed! McCarty has come out for an Alaska System in which the Bar Association and Governor's appointees nominate judges. The people have no say!

Dan LeMahieu will fight to keep your rights to vote for your own judges. Dan LeMahieu has repeatedly used his experience as a business owner and County Board Chair to promote conservative values in Madison. Please join me in voting for Dan LeMahieu for State Assembly on September 9th.

Thank you,
State Senator Glenn Grothman

Fire still under investigation

A burned out shell is all that remains of a vacant residential structure that became enflamed in Auburn Township on the morning of July 24. Lieutenant Bill Flood of the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department stated Tuesday that the fire was still under investigation and that data had not yet been released from the state's crime lab. Firefighters from Campbellsport, Kewaskum, Cascade, Eden and Beechwood responded to the fire. Once the blaze was extinguished, firefighters alerted the Sheriff's Department who handed the scene to state authorities. The home, which was in foreclosure, was formerly owned by Donna Vogt. The Statesman will continue to update this story. Photos from the fire can be found on The Statesman's website.

Opinion: McCarty responds

Challenging an incumbent in a primary is rare. The purpose of my campaign is to make our Republican Party better in regard to economics, energy and ethics.

1) Economics. Republicans are a pro-business party yet we are witnessing the collapse of the fishing industry in Lake Michigan. Controlling the foreign ships ballast water would have prevented the mess our lakes presently endure.

Likewise, millions of our tax dollars goes to K-12 education and the university system. We need to have a bigger discussion on how to tie education to economic development. Former Republican Governor William Dempster Hoard single-handedly reeducated Wisconsin from wheat farming in the 1870s to dairy farming by the 1890s. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower understood the necessity of science and math in order to keep up with the Soviets during the Cold War. Our workforce will only compete if it has a solid and efficient education. Presently, the United States isn't competing with China or India.

We have to keep people in Wisconsin and not tax them to death. We should follow Tennessee's lead and freeze property taxes on the primary home of those 65 and older. Stabilizing property tax bills will let the elderly stay in their homes, and help stabilize the housing market. The longer we keep people in their homes, the greater our local communities benefit.

We must be aware of major roadblocks in the near future. There are 5 million people in the US with Alzheimer's, as one in eight people 65 and over have Alzheimer's. And according to the Alzheimer's Association, "When baby boomers with severe disabilities or disease like Alzheimer's disease begin to reach the median age for admission to a nursing home in 2025, Medicaid long-term care spending will skyrocket. Medicaid costs for nursing home care alone will climb from $21 billion in 2005 to $38 billion in 2025." This disease is on the verge of destroying our health care system, and no one in Madison is talking about it. We need research and planning for this horrid disease. NOW. In addition, we must re-evaluate the university system's spending so it aids purposeful research, including breast cancer.

We need jobs in this state. Wisconsin must supply the jobs which will be demanded in the future. Solar and wind installations are predominantly manufactured in Europe, we should be making those installations here.

2) Energy. Wisconsin lacks a comprehensive future in energy. Solar works in Germany. Germany has a climate like Wisconsin. Solar energy can work here. Most Republicans are frustrated that government is so bureaucratic it lacks the mindset of private enterprise. We pay millions annually to heat and air condition our prisons, schools, and government buildings. We should invest in solar panels for those institutions to save taxpayer dollars in the future. This idea is already being done elsewhere in the country. Republicans are a pro-business party, and we need to be open to the science, ingenuity and technology that alternative energy offers. If Wisconsin misses out on alternative energy, Wisconsin will miss out on jobs.

Republicans must talk about energy. Yes, we can drill for more oil, but that is a federal issue. When it comes to state politics, we have to bring attention to the potential refinery expansion in Superior. It is the only oil refinery in this state. We have a huge job creation tool that many are unaware of, and this expansion would help supply more fuel.

3) Ethics. Republicans are a value-based party. We can't be quiet on ethical issues. Legislators still use taxpayer-funded mass mailings in election years and still fundraise when the state budget is being finalized. Legislators dip into their campaign accounts the same day they claim the state's per diem for working in Madison. Earmarks should be illegal, but the 2007 state budget had over $30 million in pet projects. We need budget and lobbying transparency. Our state government is a moral disaster, and we need to elect leaders to address it.

Coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress and working together is success.

Post office to be closed Aug. 30 - Sept. 1

The Kewaskum Post Office recommends that customers who need stamps utilize Automated Postal Centers at select Post Office lobbies, Stamps on Consignment locations and Contract Postal Units in local communities. The United States Postal Service also offers on-line mailing and shipping options for customers at www.usps.com.

There will be no mail delivery on Monday, September 1. However, letter carriers will make their regular deliveries on all routes on Saturday, August 30.

Postal retail facilities will reopen at their regular times Tuesday, September 2. The Kewaskum Post Office will reopen at 9:00 AM.

LeMahieu wins WCA Legislator of the Year Award

Rep. Daniel LeMahieu has been selected as the Wisconsin Counties Association (WCA) Legislator of the Year and will receive the award at the WCA State Convention in October.

"As a former county supervisor and County Board Chairman it is a real honor to receive this award," said Rep. LeMahieu. "I have worked for six years in the legislature to give my colleagues a better understanding of the needs of county government."

The award comes on the heels of payments to county run nursing homes of over $16 million to offset MA patient losses. These payments came as a result of a bill, (AB810) that Rep. LeMahieu authored and passed the legislature in 2005.

Those federal dollars are a tremendous help to counties to control their tax levies. The 59th Assembly District received over $3.2 million and Washington County $650,000.

"Dan's dedication to tackling issues impacting county government is unmatched in recent years. Dan maintains close contact with his local county officials and is always willing to listen to the needs of county government," stated Mark O'Connell, Executive Director, WCA.

The power wind being realized by Alliant Energy

The photos above depict the scene of an wind turbine erection project in the Eden township. Alliant Energy of Madison recently held a media day to provide insight on their Cedar Ridge Wind Farm project in Eden and Empire Townships. In the small photo above blades are attached to the propeller of a turbine. Electricity from the project will be used by customers from Fond du Lac to Sheboygan once the five-year project is complete this fall. A photo gallery will be posted on The Statesman's website with additional photos.

EDEN- Going green and finding new ways to power the world is here and now. With oil prices at an all time high, the demand for an alternative power source is great. This is why Alliant Energy has invested time and money on their Cedar Ridge Wind Farm project.

Alliant Energy, through wind research, decided to set up their wind farm on 12 square miles of land on the borders of the Eden Township and Empire Township.

"We really got involved in 2005," said Alliant Energy's project manager Pat Ringler. "The original developers of this project are Midwest Wind Energy. I kind of think of them as old time prospectors. They are out prospecting around the state and other areas looking for just the right spot for a combination of high voltage transmission line axis, willing landowners that want to participate, a community, cooperation with the state with the permitting aspect and the wind."

Alliant Energy will have 41 turbines on 31 local landowners property. Each landowner agreed to sign a lease, so Alliant Energy can put the turbines on their land.

Paul Gellings is one of the landowners who have agreed to participate in the wind farm project. Gellings gave up a portion of his land on the northwest part of his property for the project.

"The portion that they actually used, they have given us crop damage money for," Gellings said.

"They actually went along a fence line and took out a lot of bad trees that were hindering what I was doing anyway. So actually it improved my property."

"The portion of land the turbine will go on was a wooded area," Gellings said. After Alliant Energy is done they will restore the land back and put in more trees.

The total height of the turbine with the blade straight up is 400 feet. That is 95 feet taller than the Statue of Liberty. The blade itself is 136 feet, weighs 16,000 pounds and made of fiberglass. All 41 turbines are Vestas model V82 1.65 MW turbines.

"It takes nine semi loads for one turbine," Ringler said.

Ringler said each turbine must be a least a quarter of a mile apart from each other. He said if they were closer the turbulence from a turbine would mess with surrounding turbines. At this project the turbines are even farther apart because of the hilly terrain the turbines are located on top of.

This wind farm will power 17,000 homes from Fond du Lac to Sheboygan. Ringler said all of the power generated by the turbines is taken through an underground electric system to a substation located at the north end of the project, which goes to a transmission line to power the homes.

Alliant Energy has also built an operations and maintenance facility that is also green. The design of the building is a Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED).

"It's not just a low energy consumption efficient building, but it is also an environmentally friendly building," Ringler said.

A lot of the materials used for the building are recycled materials. The paints and adhesives are low emissions and it has a geothermal heating and cooling system, Ringler said. It will also be powered by a turbine next to the building.

Alliant Energy plans to have all 41 turbines up and running by fall. As of now, 27 turbines are erect, but are in the stall position until the project is complete.

Be alert while driving this weekend

Between August 25 and September 1, the Washington County Fair Park will host the HOG Haven campground in conjunction with the Harley Davidson 105th Anniversary celebration. With nearly 2000 camping and RV sites on the grounds, as well as vendors, exhibitors and daily entertainment, it is anticipated that several thousand motorcycles will be operating near the Fair Park grounds daily. Thousands more can be expected to enter Washington County throughout the celebration. Many of our scenic roads will be prime touring destinations for motorcycle enthusiasts.

When traveling, especially near the Washington County Fair Park, pay attention to signs that may possibly direct drivers to alternate routes. The US 45 exits at County PV will remain open at all times for emergency access to St. Joseph's Hospital, however for non-emergency travel, motorists should consider taking an alternate route using S. 18th Avenue/Mayfield Road in West Bend, to Pleasant Valley Road, to the hospital.

Throughout the weekend, the Washington County Sheriff's Department, along with departments from all over southeastern Wisconsin, are asking motorists to be particularly attentive to motorcycle traffic. Crashes involving motorcycles frequently occur because the driver of the other vehicle never saw the motorcycle coming. At intersections or when pulling out from a side street, driveway or parking lot, make sure you look for approaching motorcycles and then look a second time before proceeding. Use your turn signals, pass with caution when following a motorcycle, keep added distance between the motorcycle and your vehicle in event the motorcyclist slows or stops unexpectedly. By driving defensively and sharing the road responsibly, motorists and motorcyclists can work together to help keep Washington County safe.

Go Hog Wild! on downtown West Bend's Main Street

Downtown West Bend will rumble with the excitement of Hog Wild on Main!, a free street party being held on Friday, Aug. 29 during a regional celebration of the 105th anniversary of Harley-Davidson.

Entertainment will be in overdrive with three popular, local bands performing live music on two stages, said Tanya Albrecht, Downtown West Bend events coordinator.

"We're really excited about Hog Wild on Main! and we know it will be as big of a hit with local residents as with Harley riders," Albrecht said.

In addition to the music, local businesses and nonprofit organizations will serve food and beverages at both music venues.

Stages will be set up in the Walnut Street parking lot and Old Settlers Park.

In the Walnut Street parking lot, blues-rock band Back Alley will perform from 5 to 7 p.m. and top 40 party rockers The Toys will perform from 7 to 11 p.m.

Januli's Pizza & Italian Deli, El Tapatio de Jalisco, Café Souerette, Sweet B's Bakery, Candyman on Main and Schwai's will serve food by the Walnut Street stage.

The Big Cedar Blue Grass Band will perform from 6 to 10 p.m. in Old Settlers Park. Relay For Life will provide food near the stage.

"We're excited about the chance to hold a great party and expose so many visitors to the friendly ambiance of downtown West Bend," said Tanya Albrecht, Downtown West Bend events coordinator.

Only motorcycle parking will be allowed on Main Street from 2 to 11 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 29.

The initial incarnation of Hog Wild on Main!, held in 2003 during Harley-Davidson's 100th anniversary celebration, was a tremendous success, Albrecht said. This year's installment will be even better.

For more information, call Albrecht at 338-3909.

People have been known to achieve more as a result of working with others than against them.

At Monday night's meeting of the Kewaskum School District, 160 residents were on hand to hear a presentation of the proposed 1983-84 budget of $5,240,000 and the resolution to approve the tax levy of $2,920,000 to provide local revenues for that budget. On a 97 to 45 vote, the electors approved the resolution.

After 55 years, Dr. E.F. Nolting is still practicing dentistry four days a week at his office at 229 Main Street in Kewaskum. A graduate of Marquette Dental School in Milwaukee, Dr. Nolting originally purchased the practice and equipment of the late Dr. Karl Hausmann.

The second hole-in-one of the season was recorded at Hon-E-Kor Country Club last week. It was scored by Clark Pearson, Kewaskum High School Principal, while he was practicing for the regular Tuesday Night League. Pearson was playing three holes with "Killy" Honeck on the front nine enroute to their league starting position on No. 12 when Pearson, using a 3 iron on the 197 yard seventh hole, hit the ace. The hole-in-one was the second in Pearson's golfing career. He also had one previously at Quit Qui Oc in Elkhart Lake in 1962.

A son was born to Carl and Cheryl Klemme, Kewaskum, on July 23. A son was also born to Craig and Cheryl Stolt, Campbellsport, on July 19.

A little two-year-old boy was saved from probable drowning in the Kohlsville pond on Monday by the quick thinking and action of his older sister. The tot, David Gruber, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gruber, who were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gutjahr of Kohlsville. The older girl, Diane Gruber, took the three younger children, ages 5, 2 and 1, for a walk over the bridge on the dam of the pond. While walking, David slipped off of the bridge and fell into about four feet of water. Diane who was unable to swim and has always been afraid of water, immediately slid down the bank after her little brother. When he came up she grabbed David and held him up. She was unable to get him out of the water alone, and using her wits, screamed for help and instructed the five year old to hold onto the one-year-old. The mother heard the screams and rushed to help the children. She also had difficulty removing the boy because of the steepness of the bank. At the same time, Warren McElroy, a Kohlsville resident, heard the screams from across the pond, came over in his boat and lifted the children into it. Although very frightened, little David was unharmed, thanks to the hasty work and adult thinking of his sister.

Robert Sparks, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks, Kewaskum, a worker on the Hwy. 41 construction project, was injured Monday afternoon when he dismounted from the truck he was driving and stepped into the path of another approaching truck. Sparks sustained a badly lacerated left forearm, multiple lacerations about the head and multiple contusions and abrasions to the body.

Max Lund of Route 1, Kewaskum, was injured on Wednesday, when his motorcycle transmission locked and he was thrown off of the vehicle on County Trunk D, east of New Fane. Lund suffered a cut on his forehead and numerous contusions and abrasions.

Unusual to say the least, this area had a stampede of cattle owned by the John Heisdorfs of Route 2, Kewaskum. Possibly scared by a dog, a herd of 11 heifers which had been on pasture on the Leroy Schultz farm a short distance west of the village, stampeded, jumped a fence and ran away while John was attempting to drive them along a road. The cattle kept on running and members of the Heisdorf family, joined by neighbors along the way, gave chase trying to round them up. It took several days before all the cattle were retrieved.

New higher postage rates will become effective on August 1, and new stamps and postal cards will go on sale on that date. The new rates will be as follows: First class - 4 cents per ounce; post cards - 3 cents per card; drop letters - 3 cents which can be sealed for village.

Soerens says 35th upcoming school year is 'exciting'

Kewaskum Middle School Principal Ken Soerens is eager to begin his 35th year in the Kewaskum School District.

KEWASKUM- Kewaskum Middle School (KMS) Principal Ken Soerens is once again upbeat and excited for the school year to begin. This year again presents change and after 35 years with the district, he is embracing change on a number of levels.

As students return to classes on Tuesday, September 2 they will be met by teachers extending a hand literally and figuratively. Soerens says he and his staff's first two weeks of school will see them greeting students by shaking hands at the start of the day. That will set the stage for something students and teachers will work on throughout the year. Developing relationships, following the golden rule and leading by example.

Inside the walls of KMS students will continue with the introduction of last year's advisement strategy brought by District Administrator Mike Krumm. "The one key thing that will be the biggest thing in the middle school, advisement. We started that last year, one day a week, this year we are going to four days a week, the first 20 minutes of every day," Soerens explained.

Advisement will not take place on early release Wednesday. Teachers will have 10-12 kids in their advisement group. During advisement, students with their advisor will discuss good citizenship along with other concerns the 12 have. Each advisement will be different.

Advisement groups will be taking the place of the traditional homeroom. All school communication will be done through advisements, not homerooms. Additionally, students' lockers will be grouped by their advisement group. "The whole idea is to bring the 12 together to develop a close relationship with each other," Soerens established.

A committee made up of KMS teachers met this past summer. This committee will continue to meet during the early release Wednesdays to develop activities and ideas for citizen projects. Soerens envisioned having a whole year of commitment to community by the students.

At the culmination of the last school year students and their advisement groups participated in a community project cleaning up the village. Students and teachers took a whole Wednesday morning and set off in the village with garbage bags and completed the project. Soerens says the project will take place again at the end of this school year because of its success. Another project that took place over the winter months saw students visiting with residents at Kettle Moraine Gardens Assisted Living.

"The whole goal is to develop relationships. When these 12 kids have this relationship with teachers and fellow students it will create a great learning environment," Soerens described.

A new reading program will be introduced to students and staff. Sustained Silent Reading (SSR) will give students 15 minutes of enjoyment reading every day except Wednesdays. Students, teachers and all staff in the building will participate.

A big change for staff at KMS will be the void left by seventh grade teacher Kris Dreher who was promoted to the High School to serve as Associate Principal. Dreher held the post as second in command of the building and was in charge when Soerens was out. In addition, he credited Dreher as a "key staff member" who mentored many of her fellow teachers.

Physical Education teacher Mary Holfeltz was promoted as the new teacher in charge. "Mary is a veteran; she's been here for many years. She's going to do a great job. I don't know if we can replace Kris, but Mary is a very good candidate."

A number of new teachers will be welcomed. Soerens explained that his building and others had somewhat of a "chess match" when finalizing staffing for the upcoming year as individuals were shuffled around the district. Chelsea Fyksen, a student teacher at KMS during the fourth quarter last year will replace Dreher. Rob Williams, a long-term sub for tech-ed at KHS, will replace Mike Cunningham who departed from KMS after three years. Lisa Cross, a district paraprofessional, will replace Carol Gonwa, who moved across the street to the administration building where she becomes that office's receptionist. Paraprofessional Cindi Canter joins the staff at KMS after being transferred from Wayne Elementary School.

Holfeltz will assist Soerens as teacher in charge

Students will receive new textbooks for Social Studies and Math. The new math program will be a continuation of the Connected Math Program that students in the elementary schools employ.

Classes will begin at 7:40 a.m. and end at 3 p.m. Any questions parents might have before the first day of school can be answered by checking the district's website <www.kewaskumschools.org> or calling (262) 626-8427.

Appointed as Associate Principal at KHS last year, she becomes Career Academy Principal and Curriculum Director

Ignatowski will again start new year with new hat

Anne Ignatowski is the principal at The Kewaskum Career Academy. She has also been named as the Curriculum Director for the District.

KEWASKUM- Just after learning the ropes of her first education administration position, Anne Ignatowski has traded in her hat. She now will lead the district's new alternative school, dubbed The Kewaskum Career Academy, and assume the role as the District's Curriculum Director.

Ignatowski says much of her summer was spent developing curriculum for the academy. She shared that the curriculum is based on actual courses taking place at Kewaskum High School (KHS), but teaching it in a different method. "We took the curriculum right from teacher created syllabi," explained the academy's primary teacher, Jeff Gosse.

Since getting approval from the Board of Education in May, Ignatowski and Gosse have had interviews with interested students and their families to establish a personalized learning plan for each student enrolled in the Academy. "We created the plan, the student, parent/s and staff had input. Everything they take leads toward a career goal, if they do not know that yet, they will find out during a class," Ignatowski explained.

Each student has a different educational plan, some courses were created as electives. Others were created to meet the learning style of the particular student. "Biology might have different choices of how to learn the concepts," Ignatowski reported.

In its first year, the Academy will enroll 25 students. Five spots remain open for students who find themselves facing challenges at KHS during the upcoming school year. The morning shift will have 15 students with 10 in afternoon session.

The Career Academy has attracted four students from other districts. A number of the students were students who have been home-schooled.

So far, the hiccups of the plan have been manageable. "Right now it's kinda been how we've envisioned. In our planning process we've tackled things one by one. I'm sure there will be things that come up, we're aware of that, we are ready to adapt," Ignatowski said.

Staff at the Career Academy, in addition to Gosse, includes, Kathy Uelmen who will serve as a paraprofessional. Uelmen has experience working with many of the students enrolled at the Academy through a program previously employed by the district called NovaNET. That program allowed students to take courses online to meet credit requirements. Donna Gajewski, a former KHS secretary, will be the Academy's secretary.

Ignatowski stated that a lot of the students who had taken NovaNET did not want to take online classes once given opportunities at the Academy. "They were excited to take more hands-on classes," she explained.

"I think this school is great, I'm very excited about this, I'm glad we have something for these kids, these are great kids," Ignatowski remarked.

To start the year each enrollee at the Academy will need to do 30 hours of volunteer/community service. This may be adjusted in the future depending on how this plays out this year. The district's Volunteer Coordinator Laurie Beimborn, will assist students in finding volunteer opportunities.

In order to get their diploma, (issued from Kewaskum High School) enrollees will need to attain 26 credits. This will increase by two with the class of 2010.

"I think it is a good idea because they (the Academy students) are still doing almost the same stuff we are and from what I understand they are doing it at a different perspective at their own level. The world has changed a lot and kids seem to be getting less interested in our future. If this keeps up what is going to happen later on?" stated KHS Senior Taylor Bocher.

After Curriculum Director Joanie Kalina, resigned from her position to work in the Erin School District, Ignatowski was given the position. While she has had her plate full with preparing the Kewaskum Career Academy she stated that she has focussed a lot on staff development.

She announced the district is bringing some very well known speakers to the community to motivate the staff as well as the community at large. The largest speaker, Dr. Hal Urban, will speak to the community on the evening of Thursday, November 6 and district staff on November 7.

Urban is the author of a number of character education books. Every staff member in the district was assigned to read "Life's Greatest Lessons" over the summer.

In addition to Urban, Education Consultant Ken O'Connor, will be shared with the Campbellsport School District to educate staff about grading practices. Bill Bond, one of the country's preeminent authorities on school violence and related issues will also address the community and staff in the new school-year.

She has also been working with staff on campaigns regarding character education, grading and bullying. "In each of those we'll be working with the teachers to integrate those concepts into their curriculum and teaching. Just basic professional growth," Ignatowski professed.

Reading and fitting it into the daily curriculum, will be a focus this year. One way of doing this will be with the new district-wide sustained silent reading (SSR) program.

continue to be a large responsibility for Ignatowski. "That has been a lot of work, we've had a lot of different courses offered and teachers taking classes," she stated.

Kewaskum University is a partnership with Viterbo University in which staff may take classes to further their education. Classes are taught here to make it easier for staff to attend.

In regards to new textbooks being implemented this year, grades 6-12 will receive new social studies and grades 6-8 math. In the new school year, Ignatowski will work with staff on ordering K-five materials for social studies, art, agriculture, health/physical education, gifted and talented and family and consumer education, and implementing them for the 2009-'10 school year.

LEO J. RESCH

Leo J. Resch, 89, of the town of Wayne, slipped quietly into heaven on Aug. 19, 2008, at his home.

Leo was born on March 20, 1919, to the late Christian and Julia (Hess) on the family homestead in the town of Wayne.

He married the late Verna (Kell) on July 10, 1943, at Zion Ev. Lutheran Church of the town of Wayne.

The couple lived on the homestead dairy farm and worked on the family farm.

Leo also received his insurance license and began writing insurance as a captive agent in the late 1940s.

In 1951, he started his own insurance agency, Leo Resch Agency, now known as Resch & Kiel Insurance Agency of the town of Wayne and Allenton, which is operated by his daughter, Diane, and her husband, Jon Kiel.

He served on the board of directors for Moraine Mutual of Jackson, and later served on the board of Wilson Mutual of Sheboygan of which he became the chairman of the board until his retirement.

During construction of Highway 41, Leo was also on the construction crew.

He loved gardening, cutting wood, playing cards, especially Hearts and Sheephead, with his family and friends.

Leo was very knowledgeable and could identify and name any kind of tree.

Leo was a lifelong member of Zion Ev. Lutheran Church, served on the church council and as the financial secretary.

He was on the school board for the Wayne Elementary School, board member and financial backer of Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School, member of the Kohlsville Volunteer Fire Dept. and a charter member of the Allenton Lions Club.

Leo is survived by his children, David (Jane) of the town of Wayne, Diane (Jon) Kiel of the town of Wayne; grandchildren, Kevin (Pam) Resch, Kerry Resch, Kim (Jim) Twohig, Ashley (fiance Matt Dover) Kiel, Lindsey Kiel; great-grandchildren, Leah and Ryan Resch; two nephews; other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Verna and two sisters, Grace Resch and Vern Hembel.

Funeral services for Leo were at 4 p.m., Saturday, August 23 at Zion Ev. Lutheran Church of the town of Wayne, with the Rev. Steven D. Bode officiating.

Visitation was at the church only on Saturday from noon until time of service, 4 p.m.

Memorials are appreciated to Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School (3399 Division Road, Jackson, WI 53037) or the charity of your choice.

The Phillip Funeral Home of West Bend assisted the family.

Dead Hot Shot

By Victoria Houston

Bleak House Books $14.95 240 pages

"Victoria Houston's love for her Wisconsin setting - and her wonderful characters - is evident on every page of her fine series. Loon Lake is a great get-away, even if it does keep me up at night."

Laura Lippman, author of What the Dead Know

When you think back about your life, what do you regret?

For many of us, it's one of two things: something we did, or something we didn't. And it doesn't matter who we are, where we live, what path we chose, or how much money we make. We still have regrets.

Heck, even Frank Sinatra had some. And then again, too few to mention.

Former-orthodontist-now-forensic-dentist Paul Osborne had his share, too, but he doesn't have time to focus on them. In the new book "Dead Hot Shot" by Victoria Houston, Paul is too busy to dwell on the path not chosen because somebody's killing his friends and neighbors.

Rumors around the northern Wisconsin town of Loon Lake were that the Reece house was more than just a house. Built to resemble a lumber baron's lodge, it boasted imported timbers and a cement roof, and people whispered that it cost millions. Surrounding the mansion was a tennis court, a putting green and a private lake.

The same lake where Nolan Marsdon Reece drowned, her corpulent body in three feet of water, an abrasion across her face. Her husband insisted she was killed by lightning, but nobody fights lightning and breaks her nails in the struggle.

But before Osborne and his girlfriend, Loon Lake Police Chief Lew Ferris could fully investigate Nolan Reece's murder, someone else is killed. Ninety-six year old Mildred Taggart is found dead in the parking lot of her general store, shot in the head with a hunting rifle.

As Osborne and Lew begin to question everyone who was at the mansion on the night of the drowning, they learn that Mildred's foster daughters are curiously involved in the Reece family. Frances and Josie Dark Sky were Nola Reece's "projects," and Reece planned on adopting the teens even though she favored charming young Josie. Mildred, on the other hand, took Frances under her wing and seemed to have affection for the girl. Blue, Reece's daughter, thought both sisters were just plain strange.

As he assists with the investigation, memories come flooding back to Osborne. Nolan Reece was controlling, a lot like Osborne's late ex-wife. The troubled Dark Sky sisters reminded him of his own nearly-estranged daughter. And then there's Lew. Will Osborne regret it if he reveals his feelings for her?

If you've never read any of the Loon Lake mysteries, you're in for a treat. If you're already a fan of author Victoria Houston's series, this book is a little different.

Many of the players will be familiar, but this novel focuses more on Dr. Paul Osborne and I liked that. Paul is contemplative and stoic, a man's man but with a soft spot as big as a muskie. I truly enjoyed getting to know this character better, and I'm looking forward to seeing him again in future Loon Lake mysteries.

If you've got a yen for a whodunit without excessive violence, gore, or "four-letter words," pick up your very own copy of "Dead Hot Shot" and give it a shot. You won't regret it.

AG NEWS

Samuelson Sez Main Streets are Here to Stay

Guess what! This week I am not going to pick on anybody or anything. As a matter of fact, I am going to pay tribute to some communities in rural America that are thriving and doing well. I know we have seen the stories, three and four times a year, in the Wall Street Journal or the New York Times that are headlined... "Main Street in Rural America is Dying or Dead; Drying Up and Blowing Away" and yes, that is the case in some rural communities, but not all of them. The inspiration for my comments come from a recent speaking appearance at Greensburg, Indiana, located southeast of Indianapolis.

I was there to address the Decatur County Community Foundation Ag Breakfast and heard an interesting story that applies to Indiana but could probably be applied to rural communities in other states as well.

A corporate sponsor provided a matching grant fund to establish a Community Foundation in every county in Indiana back in 1992. The grant was about $2-million dollars matching funds and since then, local businesses as well as private citizens have grown the Decatur County Community Foundation fund to $16-million dollars, all the while using interest from the fund to improve schools, parks, libraries and police and fire departments in the county. It is administered by a Board of Directors, volunteer citizens from the community.

The reason for the Ag Breakfast was to recognize the importance of agriculture in the county and start a new $10,000 fund in the Foundation that will focus on agriculture. As it grows, interest from the new fund will perhaps pay for judging trips for FFA or 4-H teams, or college scholarships for farm kids wanting to further their education. The community spirit shown by the 300 people who attended the breakfast was infectious and real and accounts for the success of this community.

The Indiana visit reminded me of a trip a year ago to southwestern North Dakota to the community of Bowman, a town surrounded by cattle ranches and miles away from a major Interstate, all the ingredients of a town that should be drying up and blowing away. But it was doing anything but; the lady mayor and some of the citizens who took me on a tour of the town of 1,400 people were very proud of their new school, community hospital, museum, senior citizen care center and fire department with training facilities. I was impressed by the fact that nearly every public building was named after a local citizen who had made a substantial financial contribution, again showing pride in the rural community and a belief in its future.

These are just two of many stories I could share with you from rural communities I have visited over the years; towns whose citizens turn aside the purveyors of "doom and gloom" and say "We're here, we're alive and we're thriving". Hats off to you.

My thoughts on Samuelson Sez.

Corn Silage dry down days planned

In recent years dairy nutritionists have recognized the importance of harvesting corn silage at moisture levels high enough to ensure good starch and fiber utilization. The recommendation for harvesting corn silage is based upon the moisture content of the silage. Research has shown that the best lactation performance by dairy cows occurs when corn silage is harvested at 65-70% whole plant moisture.

To help dairy producers target the ideal corn silage moisture for the storage system they use on their farm, Adell Coop, Kettle Lakes Coop, the Sheboygan County Forage Council, and UW-Extension Sheboygan County has planned two Corn Silage Dry Down Days.

The first one will be held on Friday, September 5, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Adell Coop, Adell.

The second testing day will be Friday, September 12,

10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Kettle Lakes Coop in Random Lake. Those wishing to test corn silage moistures will want to use the following sampling procedures. Collect four or five whole stalks from an area that best represents the field. Cut the sample at your normal chopping height. Bundle it together and identify with: name, address, planting date, hybrid, and maturity. After stalks have been collected from the field they should be delivered to the testing site as soon as possible to keep corn plants from drying. Stalks will be chopped, and analyzed on site for moisture using NIR. To monitor corn silage moisture from around the state go to: <http://sheboygan.uwex.edu>.

For more information about the Corn Silage Dry Down Days contact Mike Ballweg at the Sheboygan County UW-Extension Office at (920) 459-5904.

The first look at Indians football 2008

By Pat Neumuth
Statesman Sports Editor
patrick@kewaskumstatesman.com

The Kewaskum High School football team has been on the practice fields since Aug. 12 getting ready for the 2008 football season. Friday was their first opportunity to show opposing teams what they have and for the boys to tackle new blood.

The Indians traveled to Random Lake to participate in a six-team scrimmage. The Indians were matched up against Winnebago Lutheran, North Fond du Lac and Brown Deer. They did not get to play host Random Lake or Martin Luther High School in Greendale.

Each team scrimmaged three teams getting 25 plays on offense and defense. The ball started at the 40-yard line. The referees would spot the ball on the closest line to set up first downs. If a team did not get a first down, they would be sent back to the 40.

Winnebago Lutheran gave the Indians a fuss, as the Indians started the scrimmage on defense. The boys on both sides were eager to hit because helmets were flying. On the third play, Eric Turowski went to tackle Winnebago's quarterback as he was scrambling and Turowski's helmet popped off on impact. Turowski got some revenge back four plays later when the two met again for a tackle and Turowski popped Winnebago quarterback's helmet off.

Kewaskum had a tough time in the beginning. Winnebago sustained an 11-play drive resulting in a three-yard touchdown run.

Winnebago struck again following on the next play with a 40-yard touchdown pass. The Indians secondary bit on the play action option fake, which led to no one being 20 yards to the receiver.

"We were flat against WLA. They're a good team. They come hard, they always do," head coach Jason Piittmann said. "They always give us troubles at this scrimmage for the past three years. We did not have any intensity or fire."

The defense bore down to prevent Winnebago from scoring. The Indians recovered a fumble on Winnebago's second to last play.

Winnebago's option plays to the outside and passing plays were the toughest for them to stop.

Kewaskum came back with two touchdowns of their own against Winnebago. The Indians first series failed to score. Two Petrin runs gave the Indians a first down, but an incomplete pass on fourth down stalled the seven-play drive.

The second series Kewaskum moved the ball quickly ending in a touchdown. Junior Cody Seibel's 12-yard run and a 14-yard pass completion were the big plays to set up a Nate Westerman 10-yard touchdown run. Westerman broke three Winnebago tackles to get in the endzone.

Senior quarterback Nick Olla set up the second touchdown with a 28-yard scramble. Nate Seitz run up the middle for four yards set up the D.J. Ermer one yard TD.

Kewaskum manhandled North Fond du Lac in their scrimmage portion. Kewaskum started on offense first. The Indians put up four touchdowns on offense and their defense didn't even let North Fond du Lac close enough to sniff the endzone.

Westerman scored the first TD. He set up his one-yard TD with a 15-yard run to the goal line. Olla connected with Brian Backhaus for 36 yards for the second touchdown. Backhaus broke a couple of tackles at the 15-yard line before scoring. Backup quarterback Cody Lemke threw for a touchdown and ran for a touchdown.

Brandon Zolp shined over the rest of the defensive backs in this game. He deflected two passes and intercepted one. He was in perfect position to make a play on every play.

"Brandon Zolp impressed the socks of me at D-back," Piittmann said about Zolp possibly playing himself into some playing time. "Cody Lemke did a good job at there. Westerman and Ermer at times looked good. I thought (Steven) Chapman and (Brad) Wolf did a nice job inside too, they just need to get more reps and experience."

Westerman, Ermer and Chapman are all linebacker/fullbacks. Wolf is a guard/linebacker.

The final scrimmage against Brown Deer, the defensive line started to get pressure on the quarterback. Defensive end Josh Harbin was getting a lot of pressure and broke through with one sack.

Brown Deer was able to get some big plays on the Indians defense.

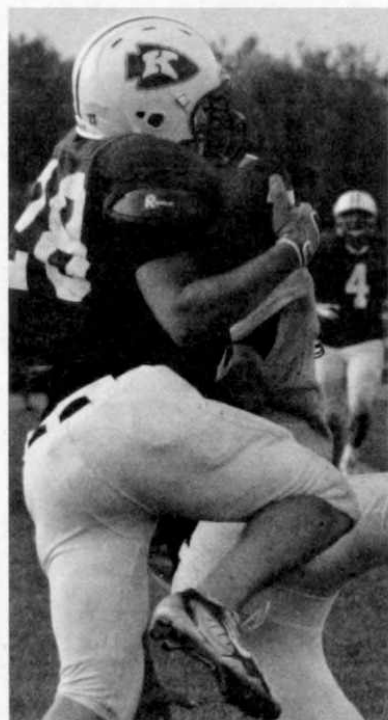

Brown Deer had a 12-yard and 17-yard passing plays come a couple of plays before a 12-yard TD reception. The Indians then gave up a 40-yard TD on the next play. Brown Deer's running back broke two tackles near the line of scrimmage before going the rest of the 40 yards.

The outside option opened up nicely for the Indians offense against Brown Deer. They matched Brown Deer's two TD's with two of their own. Olla threw a nice pass to Zach Amerling on a corner route. Amerling jumped over the Brown Deer defender in the endzone for the touchdown. The Indians other touchdown was a five-yard run by Turowski.

"You know you can play good and you know you can play bad and you have to bring your good every game," Olla said what the scrimmage has showed the team. "You saw the worst of us against WLA and you saw the pretty good us against Brown Deer."

"We have to not play at the other team's level," Harbin said of the defense. "Our line is going to have to set up more. We need to tighten up the other team's running lanes."

The Indians first game is at home tomorrow at seven at night against West Bend East.

Football Preview: West Bend East

By Pat Neumuth
Statesman Sports Editor
patrick@kewaskumstatesman.com

When the Kewaskum High School football players strap it up for tomorrow's game against West Bend East, they know it's for real now.

The Indians head coach Jason Piittmann said based on the film he watched of East's scrimmage it should be a decent match up.

"They have a few quick kids, we have a few quick kids. They're bigger in a couple of spots, we are bigger in a couple of spots, so I think we'll match up well," Piittmann said.

The two schools have a contrast of styles. Piittmann said East's runs a spread offense and 3-5 defense.

"They do the short passing game well, that looked good. Their defense was tough. You didn't know who was blitzing where. I expect that out of their defensive coordinator," Piittmann said about how East looked during their scrimmage.

East played Campbellsport and Waupun in their scrimmage. Piittmann said it was tough to examine East against Campbellsport because the Cougars have a new head coach and are still working some things out. Piittmann said East did real good against Waupun. Waupun will contend for the EWC title Piittmann said.

East returns 19 seniors from last year. Piittmann said it was tough to see how much playing experience East returns.

East's starting quarterback Steve Leitheiser has some experience. Leitheiser split time last year as a junior. Piittmann also thinks their running backs can do damage to a defense.

Piittmann likes having the West Bend schools on the schedule. Piittmann jumped on the opportunity to play both West Bend schools when he saw they had the opening to play them. Previously, Kewaskum played teams like Denmark or a Milwaukee City conference north division team.

"We thought it would be good for the communities,"

Piittmann said about playing the West Bend school's in non-conference play. "It's a close game no matter where you are going, home or away."

The Indians beat East last year in a 6-0 rainy, turnover plagued game. The Indians scored a touchdown after an East fumble inside their own 20. Quarterback Nick Olla threw a touchdown pass to then senior John Holt for the only score of the game.

Season opener jitters, volleyball losses to Slinger

By Pat Neumuth
Statesman Sports Editor
patrick@kewaskumstatesman.com

The Kewaskum High School volleyball team did not look sharp in their season opening loss to Slinger. Slinger handled the Indians, winning three of four games 25-13, 25-27, 25-21 and 25-15.

"I'll claim this one to jitters, we did not play well at all," head coach Renee Altendorf said. "Passing wasn't there, so the setting wasn't there. Setting wasn't there, so hitting wasn't there and our stats prove it."

Slinger started to take control in the middle of the first game. After a block to the net by Erika Heberer the Indians were down 11-7. Slinger pulled away and went on a 9-2 run. Even Kewaskum timeouts couldn't slow down the Owls.

There were just too many errand serves and kills out of bounds to stay in the first game.

The Indians turned everything around in the second game. It looked like Kewaskum was going to pull away from the Owls in the beginning. The Indians benefited from a lot of Slinger miscues hitting and positioning.

Slinger was down by four points when they started to make a come back. The Owls' Morgan Bartkowiak tied the game up at 15 with two consecutive unreturnable serves.

Scoring went back and forth. Slinger had two game points to work with after Bartkowiak killed the ball, making through two Indian blockers. Bartkowiak then made a crucial error of stepping over the line during a long rally.

Heberer used her serve to put the Indians back in front. After she aced to tie the score at 24, the Owls took a timeout. That didn't stop Heberer's momentum serving because she put the Indians ahead with another serve. Heberer almost served three aces to win the game, but the official overruled the volunteer back judge who called the serve in. It didn't matter because a Slinger kill went out of bounds and Brandi Wagner sealed it will a kill during a long rally.

Momentum seemed like it was shifting towards the Indians, but Slinger fought tough in game three. A Kayla Bastian kill that went into the Owls block gave the Owls a 14-10 lead. This was the Owls largest lead.

Slinger was penalized a point for serving out of turn letting the Indians inch closer. The Slinger coach talked to the official because they didn't think they served out of turn. This was the second time Slinger was penalized during the match. It took over five minutes for the officials and scorekeeper to confirm the penalty before the match resumed.

Wagner served two aces to tie the game at 20, but that was as close as the Indians could get. The Owls ended the game with a 5-1 run.

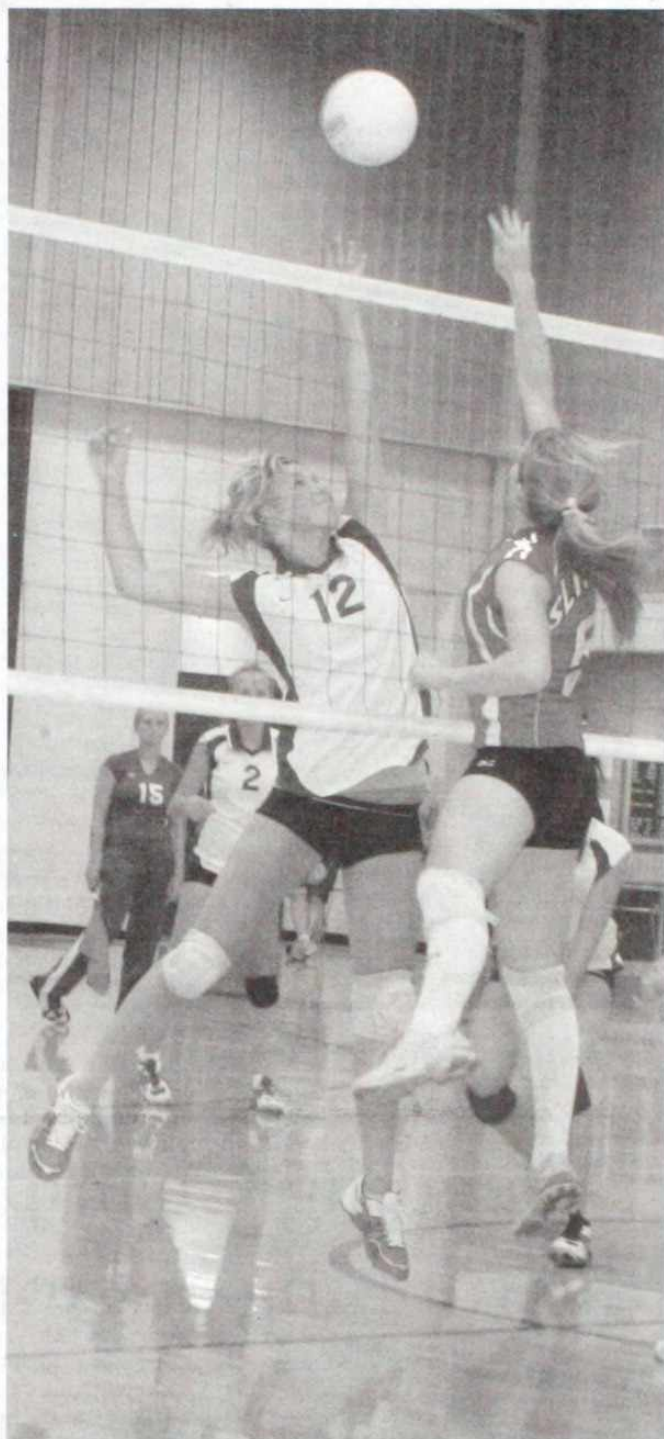

Slinger dominated the score in the final game. Altendorf had to take a timeout with the score at 14-8 to stop the bleeding. The girls never lost the fight in them. A lot of hustle went into a point for Kewaskum to inch closer to closing the 24-15 gap. The match ended when Wagner's kill went long.

"The second game we really picked it up and we were kind of excited, but at the end I think we thought we are out of in and gave up," Heberer said.

Heberer said there are a lot of things the team can work on and that they will play better. She said the team executed the plays well and overall, did better than their scrimmage on Saturday.

"We know what we need to work on. Our serving in the first game was 76 percent. That's awful for us," Altendorf said. "We also will work on passing and keeping the ball in play and put it were it needs to go."

Altendorf said the team got the jitters out from the first game being at home and will move on from here.

Plenty of room for improvement

By Judy Harlow

Two of the Kewaskum High starters came up with good rounds while the others struggled a bit as Kewaskum had to settle for last place Monday in the initial Wisconsin Little Ten Conference golf meet of the season.

Playing at Old Hickory Golf Club near Beaver Dam, sophomore Kate Winkler led the Indians with a 56, and junior Danielle Donnelly was a stroke off that pace, carding a 57 toward the team's 241 total.

Oconomowoc won the competition, posting a 204 with all four counters coming in with scores between 50 and 53. The meet medalist was Beaver Dam's Emma Dittmann, who came at 46, which is 10 over par.

"A tough day for us," KHS coach Amy Piwoni said. "We had some major trouble on hole seven. There is no drop area over the water, which made it difficult for some girls to make it over."

The other two KHS counters were Megan Gavin and Beth Noennig, who shot 61 and 67, respectively.

"The good news is this was our first meet, and we have plenty of time to get back to normal. We have much more ability than we showed today," Piwoni said. "The rest of the conference has overlooked us, so I'm hoping we can sneak up on them at some point."

WLT Golf — 1. Oconomowoc, 204; 2. Hartford, 208; 3. Beaver Dam, 211; 4. Watertown, 221; 5. West Bend combined team, 227; 6. Kewaskum, 241.

Homers by Ziegler, Olla lead A's into RR championship game

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

Propelled by a five-run second inning, the Kewaskum Athletics jumped out to an early 6-2 lead on Oakfield Saturday en route to a convincing 8-4 victory in a Rock River League playoff game held at Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park.

Taking a page from the United States Olympic basketball team, the A's were definitely the "redeem team" Saturday, erasing the sting of last week's 7-5 loss to the Oaks, a defeat which put them on the brink of elimination in the RR playoffs.

Kewaskum now takes on arch rival Brownsville, which defeated them twice in regular-season RR play but was beaten by the A's in the finals of the Plymouth Tournament.

"We take on Brownsville next weekend in a game that will send the winner to the Rock River Grand Championships," Jim Ziegler, the A's player/spokesperson, said late Sunday evening.

There as at least one scary moment in Saturday's contest, namely when Scott Stettbacher went to the plate in the first inning and cranked a 2-run homer out of the park.

Fears of another loss to the Oaks were quickly erased in the second when the A's scored five times and all after two outs.

Jason Strobel reached on an error to start the inning but the next two batters made outs, bringing Adam Sarauer to the plate. Sarauer singled to right keep the inning alive, then Ziegler made a big statement when he ripped the first pitch for a three-run homer to put his team up 3-2.

The A's still weren't finished, as Jake Panzer followed with a single down the left-field line, setting the table for Jon Olla, who belted a two-run home run to left.

The lead was expanded to 6-2 when the A's scored a single run in the third on a Nick Whitty RBI single, and four consecutive singles, by Strobel, Dan Shea, Whitty and Sarauer. Chris Morgan, who had held the A's pretty much in check in the latter innings in the first playoff meeting, managed to wriggle out of any more damage when he got Ziegler to hit into a double play to end the inning.

Oakfield scored a single run off Mitch Huffman in the top of the seventh, but the A's came back with a pair in their half of the frame on walks to Olla and Austin Sarauer and a single by Strobel.

In his seven innings of work, Huffman scattered seven hits, striking out three four and walking four, earning him his 10th win.

Ziegler came on in the eighth and finished the final two innings, giving up three hits and one earned run. He struck out one and walked one.

Kewaskum wound up with 11 base hits, including three by Strobel, who scored twice and had two RBIs. Adam Sarauer chipped in with a 2-for-4 day.

Considering the exciting games Kewaskum has had with Brownsville this year, "This might be another nail-biter," Ziegler said, figuring the game will be played Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

One-and-done for A's in Tri-County playoffs

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

The Kewaskum Athletics had an answer for every score Watertown put on the board in last Monday's Tri-County Nite League playoff game ... except for the ninth inning.

In their last at-bats, the Cardinals rallied for five runs towards a 10-5 victory, ending the A's run in TC playoff action.

In the top half of the third, the Cardinals scored a single run, but Kewaskum came right back with two, thanks to Jim Ziegler's leadoff homer and an RBI single by Ty Schill, sending Jon Olla safely home.

Watertown had a pair of runs in the fourth, but once again the A's came right back. This time it was Nick Whitty drawing a leadoff walk, Dan Shea followed with an RBI double to right-center field to tie the game, and with two outs, Jake Panzer's single gave the A's a 4-3 lead.

An untimely error allowed the Watertown team to tie the score in the top of the fifth. The A's were scoreless in the fifth, but did put up a single run in the sixth. Ziegler came up with a clutch RBI single after Adam Sarauer led off with a single up the middle, pinch runner Jason Strobel advanced to second and then third on Matt Meisenheimer's sacrifice bunt.

Watertown battled back in the seventh with a two-out walk, followed by an RBI double in the gap in right to tie the game once again.

Kewaskum started off the seventh like it would go ahead once again as Austin Sarauer hit a blast that he would likely have legged into a triple except the ball hopped the fence for a ground-rule double. Sarauer reached third but was left stranded.

In the ninth, it was the Cardinal bats coming alive to take the lead and add several insurance runs. A leadoff double sparked the rally, and the Cardinals went ahead on a sacrifice bunt, a walk and a slow roller to short which turned into a base hit.

The next man up ripped a single to right, and while it looked as if there might be a play at the plate, the ball took a nasty hop over the right fielder's head, allowing the runners at first and second to score and the batter to dash to third for a triple.

Two more runs scored before the inning ended, and this time Kewaskum was unable to threaten.

Jake Lathers pitched the first 6 2/3 innings, giving up nine hits for five runs, including three that were earned, while striking out seven. Cory Tjader came on in relief of Lathers and took his first loss of the year. He gave up four hits, five runs (four earned), striking out two and walking a pair.

Offensively, Shea was the leader three hits in four trips to the plate and one RBI. Ziegler went 2-for-3 with two runs batted in.

Watertown now moves along to Round two in the single elimination TC playoffs.

Defending Champs still in the running at Hon-E-Kor

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

Many Hon-E-Kor members have been putting off their Labor Day plans, hoping they will be busy that day playing in the club championship.

Currently the fields in the four men's divisions and two women's divisions are down to the semifinals, which must be played by Aug. 31, and the two defending champions, Clark Eichstedt and Dianne Kleinke, are still in the running.

Eichstedt recently defeated Jim Rohlinger 3-and-2 in a quarterfinal match and is now set to play Kewaskum High senior Ethan Geidel in one of the semifinals. Geidel got past Dave Olds by a comfortable 4-and-3 margin.

In the other semifinal, it will be Joe Doherty versus Jay Krueger. Both their quarterfinal matches ended with 3-and-2 scores, Doherty's win over Jason Jahnke and Krueger's against his friend and fellow West Bend golf coach, Craig Anderson.

The winners of those two matches will play in the 36-hole championship, which will be played on Labor Day.

(All the matches will be played on the Blue and Red Nines.)

Eichstedt is seeking his 11th title at the club, which began with the first one in 1972 when he was just out of high school. If Geidel or Krueger would win, it would be first for them, while Doherty has several titles to his credit.

In the Men's First Flight, the four survivors are Dale Jung, Mike Biersack, Dave Smith and Tom Pfothenhauer. Jung is slated to face Biersack in one semifinal, while Smith and Pfothenhauer compete in the other.

In the Second Flight, the semifinal pairings have Todd Wright facing Kyle Kocinski and Peter Kostelac playing against Jim Voleskey.

The Third Flight has Mike Smith vs. Chuck Rondorf and Bill Gannon against Art Lawniczak, while the Fourth Flight finds Augie Wilks going against Mike Pfeiffer and Buck Averill squaring off against John McKay.

There were six women who started in the Women's Championship Flight. Kate Korth and Kelsey Ogle both received byes, while Jane Korth defeated Debbie Timblin 3-and-2 and Kleinke bested Kelly Marquardt, 3-and-1.

In the semifinals, it will be a battle of mother against daughter when Jane Korth squares off against Kate Korth, and in the other bracket, Kleinke takes on Ogle.

In the Women's First Flight, which is a handicapped event, the semifinals will see Shelly Krueger go up against Sarah Olds and Kelly Narat face Pam Jung.

All these final matches will also be held on Labor Day.

Rain, extreme heat nor dense fog could dampen the spirits of the Printing Concepts youth softball team. The girls captured first place at the Farmington Athletic Club's midget B softball tournament.

After winning their first two games, the girls lost the third to Fresonia, but came back strong in the fourth game to beat Long Lake in six innings. The victory moved them into the championship game facing the tough Fredonia team once again. They were victorious with a score of 14-10, but according to the rules of double elimination, they needed to beat the Fredonia team twice.

Twelve hours after the start of their first game, the Concept team took the field again and defeated Fredonia by a score of 7-5.

The coaches said the wins were a total team effort led by outstanding pitching, only four walks in six games, strong fundamentals and unselfish play. The girls are a perfect example of what a "teammate" should be.

State purchases 970 acres addition to Kettle Moraine State Forest

MADISON - The Natural Resources Board has approved a land purchase proposal that will add 970 acres to the state's Kettle Moraine State Forest at a cost of $10.8 million. The approved proposal must now go to the Governor's desk for signature.

"This is a rare opportunity to provide outdoor recreational opportunities in the most populous part of our state," said DNR Secretary Matt Frank. "All types of nature based outdoor recreation including hunting and trapping are anticipated for this land. Once the purchase is completed the Walworth County portion will be open immediately; the Waukesha County portion will require some land restoration but should be opened for all activities in about two to three years."

The purchase would be funded through the state Stewardship Program which was recently reauthorized for the ten-year period 2010-2020. The Doyle administration made reauthorization a key component of the 2008-09 budget providing up to $50 million per year throughout the 10-year period for purchase of public lands.

Known as the Rainbow Springs Property, the purchase will provide protection of unique natural resources as well as opportunity for public recreation within easy travel distance of major state population centers in southeast Wisconsin. The property abuts the existing 1,800 acre Lulu Lake State Natural area and includes wetland and upland habitat, an entire lake and ¾ mile of Mukwonago River corridor. The land will be added to lands included in the Kettle Moraine State Forest as the Mukwonago River Unit.

Approximately 550 acres of the property is currently undeveloped wooded upland, flood plain or lowland corridors, about 40 acres are open water and 150 acres cropland. The property also includes a 36-hole golf course, clubhouse, a fire-damaged hotel and convention center, a residence and other improvements occupying 240 acres.

Under terms of the purchase agreement the current owners, Rainbow Springs Golf Company, Inc., and U.S. Residential Golf Company, will lease the 240 acre golf course for 2 years. At the end of the lease period the golf course, which is largely in the flood plain of the Mukwonago River, will be removed and the area restored to a natural condition.

Natural Resources

Located in the Mukwonago River watershed, the property contains many headwater springs supporting high water quality and many wildlife and plant species. The Wisconsin Land Legacy report, published in 2006, lists the watershed as a priority area for preservation. Excluding the golf course and associated buildings the remainder of the property is relatively undeveloped with a mix of agriculture, remnant oak and savanna, wetlands and some pine plantations. The frontage along the Mukwonago River is classified as an outstanding water resource and a Class II trout stream. Also included is all frontage around Rainbow Springs Lake, a 38-acre natural seepage lake.
