Neighbor complaints resolved at Farmington meeting

Lawsuit from Gordon and Kathy Michaels also announced

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Publisher

TOWN of FARMINGTON- Once again town supervisors were at the center of neighbor complaints regarding noise from all terrain vehicles (ATV) and motorbikes. Residents were also made aware of a pending lawsuit filed by Gordon and Kathy Michaels, residents of the town.

Building Inspector Henry Derler reported one new home permit was issued for the month of September bringing the total for the year at five.

Supervisors discussed the possible need for a Conditional Use Permit for Eugene Ziegler, 1120 Greenway Lane. Neighbors accuse Ziegler of operating a landscape business out of his home.

A neighbor explained there are concerns with the possible decrease in the neighborhood's property value. Equipment being stored at the home is the primary concern of neighbors. Photos taken this past Sunday were presented and showed the types of equipment being stored at Ziegler's home. Town Chairman Gary Schreiber stated that he would be speaking with Ziegler regarding the matter.

Over half of the 58 people in the audience were in attendance regarding ATVs and dirt bikes used at a track at Howard Bruss' property on Harbor Court. Lawrence Waddick, a resident on Greenway Lane stated, "We moved to that address from Barton in April of 2007. I was unaware there were motocross bikes racing nearby. Had I known that, I never would have bought the property. I have no problem with people who may want to operate ATV or motorbikes, the problem is the noise. It became incredibly intolerable. This noise became such that you could not sit outside and carry on a conversation (outside)." He explained in the last 30 days, the noise level has decreased.

Bruss stated that he wished the neighbors with concerns would have come to him and stated their issues. Rider Ben Carlson stated, "It's a privilege to be able to ride our dirt bikes. We gotta find a line where everyone gets along, just come over and let's work together. If we have a problem, come over and talk to me."

Kay Morlen spoke as chairman of the garbage committee. She presented a draft for a request for a proposal to the town board. She advised that this was only a draft and it should be modified and reviewed by the attorney. She explained the whole idea was to save the town's residents money. If that can't happen, the proposal would die. Morlen and other town residents have been investigating the cost of possibly having town-wide garbage collection.

Town Chairman Gary Schreiber stated he was concerned regarding people who already contracted with a garbage collection firm being charged by the company and then paying for it on their taxes as well. He went on to state that he wanted to see the town have the money before they contracted with a firm. "Are we going to collect taxes a year in advance, when we have the money?" The Town Board will set a time to meet with the committee and discuss it further.

The budget workshop will be held Wednesday, October 29 at 6:30 p.m. at the town hall.

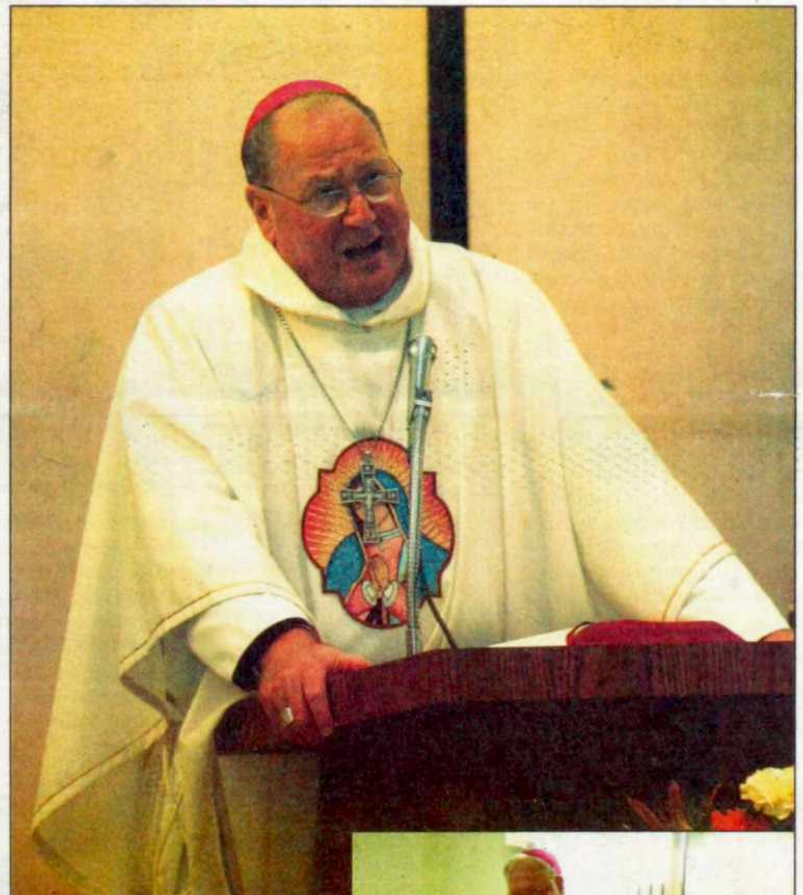

The town received their 2009 estimate for shared revenue. A total of $60,645 will again be received, as has been received annually since 2004. The town expects to receive $51,548 on November 17 for 2008.

A lawsuit against the township was announced. Gordon and Kathy Michaels have filed a lawsuit against the town, chairman, supervisors and Board of Appeals members. Town Attorney Phillip Eckert will accept the summons. This is the second lawsuit brought to the town from Michaels'.

Acceptance of a contract with the town's assessors was approved. The township will pay $15,600 for 2009. Six monthly payments will be made, this is an increase of $1,200.

Schreiber happily reported that his time working with FEMA will pay off. Farmington will receive about $40,000 from FEMA for damage done in the June rainstorms.

Archbishop Dolan visits Sisters at St. Joseph Convent

Milwaukee Archdiocese Archbishop Timothy Dolan celebrated mass at St. Joseph Convent on Tuesday, October 7. Above Dolan speaks to the Sisters during his homily and assures them of their importance to the Catholic faith even in their retirement.

Bottom left: Dolan shares a laugh during a lighthearted meeting with Sisters after mass. The Archbishop was again unsuccessful in obtaining the recipe to his favorite apricot cookies made by the Sisters. He also received a tour of the building.

Fifth Quarter tavern gets surprise drive in

It's not the first time the building home to The Fifth Quarter tavern on Fond du Lac Avenue in Kewaskum has had a vehicle drive into it, however this was the first time a vehicle completely destroyed the bar and back bar. Kewaskum Police responded Thursday morning, October 2 at 7:21 to find a large pickup truck had driven into the south side of the structure. The crash completely destroyed the bar and parts of the back bar as well as coolers behind the bar and a television as evidenced by the photo above. Chief of Police Richard Knoebel stated the driver, Dennis D Noel, 64, of Campbellsport passed out while driving and hit the structure. In his path he narrowly missed the large sign at Herriges Oil. Fifth Quarter will be closed until the bar is repaired. The building is owned by Gary Gavin, Fifth Quarter is owned by Eric Anderson. ## KHS seeks nominations for Alumni Achievement Award

Kewaskum High School (KHS) is continuing the Alumni Achievement Award to annually recognize two or three outstanding graduates who have gained distinction in their fields, contribute to their community of residence and who, by virtue of their character and accomplishments, offer admirable examples for students to emulate. Nominations are currently being sought for this year's award program.

Since the honorees at one time in their lives walked the same halls as the current KHS students, they have a greater likelihood of helping students realize that they, too, can do great things.

Nominations of worthy individuals to be considered for this year's selection are currently being sought through Friday, November 26, 2008 by Christine Horbas, KHS, 1510 Bilgo Lane, Kewaskum, WI 53040. The Alumni Achievement Award nomination application must include the following: name of Kewaskum alumni, degree(s) held, employment, achievements, honors received, membership in organizations, hobbies, resume, and other pertinent data.

Call KHS, (262) 626-8427 ext. 4127, for a nomination application. Applications are also available at www.kewaskum-schools.org.

A committee comprised of representatives from the student body, faculty, administration, alumni, community service organizations, and the community will select the award recipient(s).

KHS will publicly recognize the winner(s) of the Award during a school-wide assembly and an Kewaskum Board of Education meeting in March 9, 2009.

Letter to the Editor

Letter to the Editor

My family and I moved to Washington County in 2000 and, through the years, have been increasingly impressed by the quality of life we enjoy in this county. This quality of life is only possible by the caring nature of our neighbors.

I have witnessed, in my own company as the CEO of West Bend A Mutual Insurance Company as well as in my community involvement, a concern and desire to help others and make a difference. Washington County is indeed a family, and compared to the many places I have lived, proves to be a community invested in those that need our support.

For many years I have been involved in numerous non-profit organizations. United Way of Washington County is the only non-profit organization that can fulfill taking care of our community and family in a multitude of ways, right here at home, where we live. Although affiliated with the National United Way organization, United Way is run locally and governed by Washington County residents, which is unlike most national non-profits. This insures that your donations are creating the desired local impact. Ninety-eight percent of your contributions go directly to our community needs.

United Way of Washington County supports 20 agencies and funds 35 programs that improve the lives of our neighbors. This helps make our community stronger and a place we can feel fortunate to raise our families.

I would like to ask for the support of this year's campaign from everyone living in Washington County. I recognize these may be trying times economically and that your charitable contributions will have to be made with careful consideration. I firmly believe United Way of Washington County is the best way to invest in the future of your family and community, so please GIVE AT HOME.

Tony Warren

2008 United Way Campaign Chair

Letter to the Editor

I want to talk about a book I recently finished reading... this book is called, "Confessions of An Economic Hitman." I highly recommend anybody that feels they know a lot about politics and intends on voting this November, to read this book.

John Perkins writes his own story about working as an economic hit man (EHM) from the late 60's, 70's, 80's and his life up to 2004. Here's how it goes.

It started around 1951, just after WWII, during the Cold War. England had been taking oil out of Iran, finally Iran got fed up and decided to kick England out. England asked for help from their ally, the United States. Up until this time, military force was an easy/quick option in some cases to deal with this, but since both the United States and Russia had nuclear weapons, a different approach became necessary.

Along comes a CIA man named Kermit Roosevelt, (Teddy's grandson). He devised a plan to win over the people that involved payoffs, bribes and threats. He then enlisted them to organize street riots and demonstrations, which created the impression that Mossadegh (the leader) was both unpopular and inept.

In the end, Mossadegh went down and spent the rest of his life under house arrest. The pro-American Mohammed Rez Shah became the unchallenged dictator. This set the stage for many years to come for a new occupation called EHM's. Here's how it works.

Guys like Perkins who worked for an engineering company called MAIN, would go into these Third World countries, devise a plan to build infrastructure, such as electrification, water, sewer, roads, bridges, etc., to modernize the country. They would purposefully inflate the economic forecast of how this would benefit their country. The U.S. would offer a loan which would be funneled through the World Bank or the IMF (International Monetary Fund). As time went by, the country would not be able to repay the loan, the U.S. would say, well, we'll have to take your natural resources, oil, minerals or whatever.

Perkins goes into great detail about countries all around the world, Panama: control over the canal; Ecuador: oil; Venezuela: oil; Saudi Arabia: a deal worked out right after the '73 oil embargo called Jecor, Joint Economic Commission in which the sale of oil to the U.S., in turn the Saudis would purchase U.S. securities, which, in turn went to huge multinational corporations like Bechtel, who by the way, is at Oak Creek power plant right now, Brown & Root, Halliburton.

So in essence, the sale of oil went to pay contractors to build infrastructure. Here's the catch. The top leaders of these countries became very wealthy, while the rest of the people actually became much worse off. The land many times was left polluted, deforested, with contaminated drinking water, soil and air.

The book talks about what is really going on with the oil companies. Perkins talks specifically giving names and dates. He talks about Hugo Chavez of Venezuela; Osama bin Laden; 9/11; Iraq and Iran. He talks about people like George Schulz, once a Bechtel president served under Nixon and Reagan; how Caspar Weinberger, a Bechtel vice president, served as Secretary of Defense for Reagan, George H.W. Bush as founder of Zapata Petroleum, served under Nixon, Ford and as President and a CIA director.

He talks about how countries eventually would find a man that had integrity and moral character that would stand up to the U.S. and the multi-nationals and oil companies, refusing to give it up for nothing and how the CIA would send in the Jackals and somehow the leaders would die in a plane crash.

Is it any wonder why people around the world hate us? And yet the Republicans expound on their contentions of morals. Now they crank up the fear factor of terrorism. This is a must read book.

Why wait?

1 in 8 women will develop breast cancer, 95% of them will survive it.

This remarkable statistic is due to early detection. As a woman under 40, it is important to know how your breasts normally feel and to make your physician aware of any changes. The best way to do this is through breast self-examination.

During the month of October, Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Aurora Health Care is offering free one-on-one 15 minute appointments to teach women how to perform a breast self-examination. Appointments are available at the Aurora Health Center in West Bend and at the Aurora Medical Center of Washington County in Hartford.

To schedule your appointment, call 262-670-4219.

Remember, early detection is the key.

BREAST SELF-EXAMINATION TIPS

- Learn how to do a thorough self-examination
- Familiarize yourself with how your breasts look and feel
- Perform a self-exam once a month
- Do your exam at the same time each month
- Keep a journal
- Report any changes to your doctor right away
- Have a breast exam performed by your physician once a year

Calling all Singers

Downtown West Bend Association looking for musical groups to perform

Local singers looking for more exposure now have an opportunity to perform this winter thanks to the Downtown West Bend Association (DWBA).

Through Friday, October 17, DWBA is looking for singers to sing carols for Winter on Main on Friday, December 5 and Saturday, December 6, 2008. Event hours are 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on Friday, December 5 and 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, December 6. Carolers performing can choose a shift or sing throughout the whole night or day.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for local singers to show off their talents and take part in one of West Bend's most popular winter events," said DWBA Program Coordinator Tanya Albrecht. "It's great for boy or girl scout troops, church groups, school groups, families and friends just getting together to sing their favorite holiday carols!"

Registration forms can be picked up at DWBA (128 South Sixth Avenue, Suite One in Downtown West Bend) or requester by calling Tanya Albrecht, (262) 338-3909. Deadline for entries is Friday, October 17, 2008.

For more information about DWBA visit www.downtownwestbend.com or call (262) 338-3909.

Chamber donates to KHS Fitness Center

Aaron Laatsch, of Piggly Wiggly and member of the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, presents a check to Kewaskum High School Athletic Director Jason Piittmann for $1500.00 to go towards the Fitness Center. The money was a portion of the funds raised at the annual Chamber Golf Outing held this past July.

Cedar Community to offer Stephen Ministry orientation

WEST BEND - Cedar Community is holding an orientation program for anyone interested in learning more about becoming a Stephen Minister. The program is Monday, October 20 at 2 p.m. and then again at 6:30 p.m. in the Courtyard Kitchen at Cedar Bay East located on the Cedar Community Campus, 5595 County Road Z, West Bend. Volunteers from any denomination are welcome.

Stephen Ministry is grounded in Jesus' command to love one another. Through one-on-one caring, those who are hurting receive the love and care they need to support them through hard times. The orientation is a great opportunity to learn more about the program and its requirements, and hear current Stephen Ministers' inspiring stories and experiences.

"Stephen Ministry has deepened my respect, compassion and love for others and has drawn me closer to God," said Nan, a Stephen Minister.

For more information, contact Chaplain Susan Kolb at 262.306.4201.

Cedar Community is a not-for-profit, church-affiliated leader in creating relationships, services and environments to enhance the well-being of seniors and their families. Its facilities are located on five campuses in Washington and Sheboygan counties. Cedar Community is proud to provide a continuum of care including independent and assisted living, skilled nursing care, rehabilitation, hospice, memory loss services, subacute and home care. For more information visit their website at www.cedarcommunity.org.

Frozen Foods' owners expand Sausage Plus, Lucky's Liquor in West Bend

By Patrick Neumuth
Statesman Staff
patrick@kewaskumstatesman

WEST BEND- Local Kewaskum business owners, Steve, Paul and Allen Ries have begun an expansion of Sausage Plus in neighboring West Bend. The end result is hoped to be a new store that will be three times larger than the current Sausage Plus store.

"We basically outgrew the Sausage store the way it is," Steve Ries said. He explained that it is because of commit-customers will find a larger walk-in beer cooler.

Demmon said with more space brings more variety of meat as well. Sausage Plus will be able to double their offering of meat, cheese and seafood.

The holidays will be a little less stressful now as well at Sausage Plus. "In the holiday season, we will do over 2,000 gift boxes," Reis said of another reason Sausage Plus needed to expand.

The gift boxes are stuffed with candy, cheeses and meat. Sausage Plus offers six ted employees and loyal customers that the company can make such a bold move to expand.

"I don't have space to put everything that I could put out, everyday of the week. It's impossible. We are running out of space in every direction," said Sausage Plus' meat cutter Mark Demmon.

The Ries' have owned Sausage Plus for about two years which they acquired in their purchase of Kewaskum Frozen Foods. Adding to their expansion plans, they purchased Lucky's Liquor this past April.

Sausage Plus has been in West Bend for nearly 20 years offering the award winning cuts of meat from Kewaskum Frozen Foods. It used to be in the now razed West Bend Outlet Mall. It has been in its current Washington Street location for 15 years.

When renovations are complete, the new combined store will offer their customers an array of beer, wine and liquor, a deli and the meat they are famous for around the state. The store will boast additional new coolers and the meat counter will be extended. In the liquor department different gift boxes for sale. Customers can also customize their own box. The gift boxes now can come with a bottle of wine.

In the past Sausage Plus had to rent space in other buildings to hold the assembly line needed to make the gift boxes the last few years.

"Cheese, meat and wine go good together," Ries said. "A lot of people are excited for the one stop. It's really going to be good for grilling, for parties where you can get your meats, cheeses, meat and cheese trays. Even if you have a little football party with 10 people over, they want a cheese and sausage tray and you can grab a couple cases of beer."

The new expanded store is scheduled to open in November.

Kewaskum Frozen Foods is the parent store of Sausage Plus. Both stores sell relatively the same products. Sausage Plus, however, sells a range of seafood products that Kewaskum Frozen Foods does not have. The Kewaskum store is also a production plant, where some items go straight from the farmer to a customer and is never in the meat case for retail.

Sausage Plus and Lucky's Liquor are located in the same strip mall on Washington Street in West Bend.

Sausage Plus is open weekdays 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday. The new store will stay open until nine at night to go with the liquor store and also will be open on Sundays. Sausage Plus can be contacted at (262) 334-4355.

Three generations of musicians to perform at Symphony opener Oct. 26

WEST BEND - Three generations of musicians will perform a classical season opener for the Kettle Moraine Symphony Sunday, October 26 at 3:30 p.m. at the Schauer Arts and Activities Center in Hartford.

In this "Music for the Generations," KMS Music Director and Principal Conductor Bud Asch will conduct "Capriccio Espanol" by Nicolai Rimsky-Korsakov. His son Glenn Asch, a violinist with the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, will conduct "Overture to the Marriage of Figaro" by W. A. Mozart. Glenn's son and Bud's grandson, Charles Asch, a Northwestern University senior and an accomplished cellist, will solo in for "Concerto for Cello and Orchestra in B Minor" by Antonin Dvorak.

Tickets are $15 for adults, $12 for seniors, and $5 for children and are available at the door or by calling the Schauer Center, 262-670-0560 ext. 3. For more information, go to www.kmsymphony.org.

"The season opener is typically the most musically interesting and most classical of the concerts presented each season," said Bud Asch, who founded the orchestra 41 years ago while a professor at the University of Wisconsin Washington County. Anna Asch, his wife, is an accomplished pianist, teacher, and composer. Their children and grandchildren have inherited the couple's love for music and performance.

Under Bud Asch's direction, the Capriccio Espanol promises to "glitter with dazzling colors" in the words of its composer who incorporated melodic design, variations in theme, percussion rhythm, and Spanish dance when he created it in 1887.

"The Capriccio shows off the orchestra, there are a lot of solos for a lot of instruments, and variety in different ways," said Bud Asch.

Glenn Asch, who attended Kewaskum High School, has a degree in violin performance from the University of Wisconsin in Madison, and a master's in violin performance from UW-Milwaukee. A member of the MSO since 1980, Glenn Asch has frequently been called upon to solo in MSO concerts, in styles ranging from classical, to bluegrass, to jazz.

Glenn will guest conduct the Overture to the Marriage of Figaro, an opera buffa, written by Mozart in 1786. This story of the amorous adventures of Count Almaviva and the countess' plot to entrap him are well known. The effervescent Overture captures the essence of the opera, with lively strings and woodwind that lead up to full orchestra chords and passages. A second theme appears in the violins and basses with a passage for woodwinds, and the final theme is graceful melody in violins and woodwinds, with a closing passage for full orchestra and a brilliant Coda to close the overture.

Following an intermission, the third generation takes the stage. Charles Asch, 21, is a music performance and German major and has been a member of NU's Symphony Orchestra for three years. He has spent the last several summers studying and performing in Germany, this year playing in the Schleswig-Holstein Music Festival Orchestra, a prestigious orchestra academy in northern Germany.

Charles will perform as cello soloist in the Dvorak's Cello Concerto, Concerto in B Minor, Op. 104, considered one of the premier concertos for cello and popular all over the world. His last and finest concerto, Dvorak wrote it at the end of 1894 and beginning of 1895 during his second visit to the United States.

"I asked Charley if he could do it, and he said yes. He's performed it before and I'm confident it will be splendid," said Bud Asch.

In the piece, the middle and upper registers of the cello are used almost exclusively. With a full scale orchestra introduction, Dvorak's Concerto includes subtle variations, warmhearted melody, excitement, and ends with a vigorous concluding flourish.

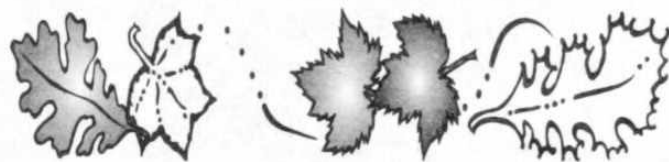

The Kettle Moraine Symphony's "Music for the Generations" promises to be a classic family affair, which individuals and families from throughout the area are invited to come and enjoy.

KEYS Run/Walk this Sunday

By Patrick Neumuth
Statesman Staff
patrick@kewaskumstatesman.com

The fifteenth annual KEYS Scholarship 5K run/walk begins this Sunday, October 12 at 11 a.m.

So far, there are 625 runners signed up. This is about 200 behind last year's total. Volunteer Jerry Gosa said registration is open through the day of the race. The registration form can be found on the Kewaskum School District's website, www.kewaskum-schools.org.

Pre-registration fee is $15 per person or $50 for a family of four or more. It is $10 to sign up any additional family members. Race day registration cost $20. All participants will receive a KEYS run T-shirt.

This year, the design of the course is different. The race begins and ends near the high school gym. Gosa said the change of the course was made for safety precautions. He said last year, drivers on Highway 45 were not patient with the race. The course of the race will stay east of 45.

Water is available on the course and medical personnel will be at the finish line.

There are cash awards for runners placing first through third. First place will receive $100, second will receive $75 and third will get $50. Breaking the KEYS 5K record will give the runner $200 more. The male record was set by Matt Thull with a time of 14:27, and the female record was set by Bethany Brewster, 16:48.

For questions or more information call 262-626-8427 ext. 4156 for details. The Kewaskum School District website is www.kewaskum-schools.org. Checks should be addressed to KEYS at P.O. Box 124 Kewaskum, WI 53040.

Heritage House Museum at Cedar Community to offer free antique appraisals

WEST BEND - Visit Heritage House Museum at Cedar Community for Bob Scharnell's Antique Road Show. The event, which is free and open to the public, will be held on Sunday, Oct. 19, from 1 to 3 p.m. Visitors are invited to bring one antique and have it appraised for free.

While waiting for your antique to be appraised, visitors can enjoy a tour of Heritage House Museum and Ye Olde School. There will also be dried flower arrangement demonstrations with items for sale.

Set on Cedar Community's 245-acre Cedar Lake campus above Big Cedar Lake, Heritage House is the former homestead of Cedar Community's original benefactor, William Koehl, and was built in 1865. Visitors relive history, playing an 1884 pump organ in the parlor, learning about pumping cistern water, using homemade soap to hand-wash and line-dry laundry, listen to a crank telephone and work a Victrola.

Heritage House hosts public events such as ice cream socials, re-enactments, holiday open houses, demonstrations, tastings and speakers.

Ye Olde School hosts youth for a day of dip pens, slates, schoolmarms and connected desks. Students receive lessons on the 'three Rs' using authentic 1920s curricula and tools.

Cedar Community is a not-for-profit, church affiliated leader in providing superior health care, education, rehabilitation and senior housing to over 1,000 residents. Its facilities are located on five campuses in Washington and Sheboygan counties. Cedar Community is proud to provide a continuum of care including independent and assisted living, skilled nursing care, rehabilitation, hospice, memory loss services, subacute and home care. For more information visit their website at www.cedarcommunity.org.

KHS Musical tickets go on sale Monday

One month of rehearsals are finished, one month remains. At this point, the actors have their songs and lines memorized, entrances and exits are all mapped out, dance steps and routines are being rehearsed daily, sets are being constructed, the pit band is working on their music, and "ONCE UPON A MATTRESS" is coming together.

Now, as the story continues, we find that Princess Winifred enters the castle after swimming the moat. The Prince, Dauntless the Drab, likes her, the Queen does not, and the ladies in waiting hope that the Princess passes the test to marry the Prince.

Tickets will go on sale on Monday, October 13, 2008, outside the high school Band Room from 6:30 - 8:00 PM. Ticket prices are $8.00 for the center section, and $5.00 for the two side sections. Beginning on Tuesday, October 14, tickets will be on sale in the high school office.

Don't forget, "ONCE UPON A MATTRESS" will be presented on Friday, November 7, and Saturday, November 8 at 7:30 PM. A Sunday matinee will begin at 1:00 PM on November 9, 2008. A special performance for area Senior Citizens is scheduled for Wednesday, November 5 at 2:00 PM.

All performances will be held in the Kewaskum Theatre.

DAYS GONE BY

25 Years Ago

September 16, 1983

Kewaskum Postmaster Frank Beesten has announced that installation of several of the Postal Service's new "Neighborhood Delivery and Collection Units" is complete and they should be in service within the next week. Beginning Monday, postal patrons who petitioned for the units may come into the Post Office to have a box key assigned to them. The 17 units will be installed at nine locations throughout the village. The units are available to anyone except residents who live within 1/4 mile of the Post Office.

Miller's Fine Home Furnishings and Funeral Home of Kewaskum Since 1910 is proud to announce that at a recent meeting of the board of directors, the decision was made to divide the present corporations of Miller's Inc. into two separate corporations, Miller's Inc. (Fine Furnishings) and Miller's Funeral Home Inc. The feeling is that in this manner a more individual service can be offered to each of the businesses to better serve their valued customers. Under the new management, Edward J. Miller will remain president of Miller's Inc. and Theodore R. Miller will assume responsibility of vice president. Frederick J. Miller will become president of the newly formed Miller's Funeral Home Inc. Edward E. (Pat) Miller will serve as chairman of the board for both corporations.

It's official! The Bartelt Insurance team are the 1983 Thursday Nite Goodtime League Softball Champs. Members of the team are: Bill "Spider" Wuebben, Mike "Rags" Pfeiffer, Gerald "Artie" Kiefer, David "Wheels" Wieter, Clark "Preston" Pearson, Perry "P.K." Koth, Bill "Gruhls" Gruhle, Tom "Bambi" Bartelt (manager), Tom "Lars" Larson, Dennis "Curly" Reha, Daniel "Ozzie" Filzen, Rollie "Road Runner" Maul, James "Jonesy" Korth, Markie Roth, Dave Maas and Joel "Vitas" Fehlhaber.

Campbellsport became the third straight victim of Kewaskum when the Indians, with their own strong running attack and offensive line, knocked off the Cougars at home Friday night, 24-6, in a non-conference game. The Cougars' ace running back, Richie Narges, was outdone by two of the Indians' ace runners, Jim Braun and Chris Harlow. Braun rushed for 177 yards and Harlow for 151 to overshadow a 145 yard effort by Narges.

A daughter, Angela Mae, was born to Kerry and Susan Klein, West Bend, on September 6. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Klein of Kewaskum. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Meidl of West Bend. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Weis of Campbellsport. Little Angela has a sister, Tonia, 15 months.

A son, Eric Joseph, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sabish, Campbellsport, on August 31. Sons were also born to Donald and Karen Schneider, Kewaskum, on September 7 and to Lawrence and Nancy Cotter, Kewaskum, also on September 7.

September 23, 1983

Fond du Lac County Sheriff's deputies were dispatched to Jan's Bar in New Fane when it was reported that the 33-year-old part-owner of Jan's Bar in New Fane fired a single shot from a .45-caliber pistol into the ceiling to help quell what another person told authorities was a "tremendous brawl." After the man fired the shot, all parties involved in the disturbance either fled from the premises or were told to leave. The owners then closed the bar for the night. The district attorney was expected to determine if charges would be filed against the man who fired the shot.

Though they are long dead, and their war is part of America's early history, one Kewaskum man has not forgotten those men who served in the Civil War and now lie in unmarked graves. James Andre of Kewaskum, has begun a project which he hopes other communities or groups will become interested and involved in, seeking out the graves of Civil War veterans so plaques may be obtained to mark their final resting place. Andre stated it doesn't cost you anything, and all you have to do is make a request to the federal government, supplying the name and a plaque will be sent for placement on the grave. Such a request was made by the local Robert G. Romaine Post on behalf of Valentine Witzig, William Wilke and Charles Schuppel. Andre volunteered to find the graves. Witzig is buried in St. Michael's Church cemetery in St. Michaels. No one knew exactly where his grave was, according to Andre, because it was never marked. Records only indicated he lived from 1827 to 1901, and was buried 30 feet from the west boundary. Andre and the parish's priest selected a plot in the general area and placed the marker. Now he has a permanent where service groups can place his flag. Wilke's grave is located in what Andre says the "old timers" call Buffalo Cemetery, and Schuppel is buried in Van Vechtin Cemetery. He said people should look in old cemeteries to see if there are more vets buried there who should have marker. He was also upset by the deserted, unkept condition of many of the old cemeteries. Recently another plaque was requested for John Jake Engler who is buried in Elmore Cemetery.

On Sunday, September 25, ten young ladies who are members of Girl Scout Troop 72 will receive the Marion Award at Holy Trinity Church. The girls will receive the award are Amy Hammes, Jean Klahn, Jeanine McElhatton, Carrie Grahl, Annette Stommel, Michelle Morgan, Pam Amerling, Cammie Amerling, Brenda Campbell and Kerri Kudek.

This year Kewaskum High School will be hosting two foreign exchange students sponsored by the AFS. Gro Omundsen is 18 years old and is originally from Sandnes, Norway. While in Kewaskum, she will be staying with Mrs. Warren Sekas and family. Alan McFarland is the other AFS student at KHS. He is 18 years old and comes from Kotonning, a town in Western Australia. He will be at home staying with the David Domasky family.

Twins, a son and daughter, were born to Terry and Mae

Koch, Kewaskum, on September 18.

50 Years Ago

August 22, 1958

The Kewaskum public schools will open on September 2 with a record enrollment of approximately 625 students expected. A record freshman class of 109 is already registered. The high school enrollment is expected to reach a new high of approximately 325 students, about 30 more than last year.

The Kewaskum High School Indians are getting set for their first year in the new, stronger Scenic Moraine Conference and first full season of 11-man football. The Indians should be strong contenders this season. Returning lettermen include Ralph Herriges, Wayne Coulter, Bruce and Pat Muckerheide, "Butch" Rodenkirch, Ken Theusch, Tom Smith, Ray Wiedmeyer and Danny Coulter. After wounding his hand in a gun mishap last season, Glen Rimmel will be back in the thick of play this year. Three bright sophomore backfield prospects include Bob Berg, Konstantyn Sadownikow and Richie Puerling. Ken Johnson, a junior, should also come along fast. Linemen who indicated last year that they will prove themselves this season include Don Theusch, Eddie St. Mary, Jim Marx and Joe Klahn. (Hey! I remember all these guys... my sister used to have to babysit me and dragged me along to all their parties!! See guys... I turned out to be more than just a spoiled brat tattletale! Oops... did I just reveal that?)

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Homuth, West Bend, on August 16. Mrs. Homuth is the former Betty Koerble of Kewaskum. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Kirschling, West Bend, also on August 16. Mrs. Kirschling is the former Patricia Perkins of Kewaskum. Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gundrum, Kewaskum, on August 15; to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kaehne, Kewaskum, on August 17, and to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stuart, Campbellsport, on August 17. A son was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meisenheimer, West Bend, on August 14. Don is a son of the Harold Meisenheimers of Kewaskum.

Sylvan Learning's Helpful Hints for Student Success: Acing the ACT takes study and practice

With more than three million college admission tests administered each year the ACTM is one of the most important exams that a high school student will ever take.

To aid students in their preparation for this high-stakes test, Sylvan Learning Center of West Bend is providing local high school students with a free ACT College Admission Practice Test. The practice test will be administered on Saturday, October 18, 2008. Designed for high school juniors and their parents, but open to 9-12 graders, schools in the area can take advantage of this free diagnostic test by contacting Barbara Hampton, Center Director from Sylvan Learning Center at 262-306-9999.

One of the most common problems students face during the ACT is not having enough time to complete every section of the test. Sylvan Learning Center offers some tips that every student should review and remember on test day:

- Unlike the SAT, the ACT has no scoring penalty for incorrect answers, so never leave an ACT question blank.
- Don't waste time reading the instructions on the day of the test; you should be familiar with them already.

- If you are unsure of a question, circle it and come back to it if time permits.
- Never spend too much time on any single question.
- Read the questions and answers critically.
- Trust your instincts on the easy questions and never leave an easy question blank.
- Utilize the process of elimination. If you spend time working on a problem and eliminate two answers, you should make an educated guess.
- Your job is to focus on the content of the test, not the frequency of the answer letters.
- Don't be lazy. Use any time remaining at the end of a section to revisit questions that you either circled or marked with a question mark.
- Check, after every few questions, whether the question number on the answer sheet corresponds with the question being answered in the question booklet.

"Our goal is to eliminate the high anxiety that comes with preparing for this important test because it helps raise a student's score," said Dr. Richard E. Bavaria, Ph.D., vice president of education for Sylvan Learning Center. "Our proven test-taking strategies are combined with multiple practice exams to make students familiar with the test format, build their confidence, and avoid common mistakes, such as 'trap-door' answers."

German

Education: Bachelor of Science in English and German from UW Oshkosh, Master's degree in Reading from UW Oshkosh.

Favorite hobbies/sports: Skiing, gardening, cooking, biking, reading.

Why did you choose to teach in Kewaskum? I wanted to teach German as well as English in southeastern Wisconsin. My parents still live here and I liked living in between Milwaukee and the Kettle Moraine.

What do you enjoy about teaching? I enjoy introducing students to a new culture. When I teach English, I enjoy students learning to appreciate American culture.

What makes being in your classroom unique? I try to make German relevant by using food, history, music, videos and other things from "real life."

What is your favorite memory from when you were a student? My English teacher, Dick Daggett and my German teacher, Helen Hillman, had humor in the classroom. They were dedicated and made learning easy.

BBQ ribs, noodles, corn, orange or kiwi, Birthday cake, milk.

Thursday - Chicken patty/bun, French fries, garden salad, waxed beans, pears, milk.

Friday - Pancake/syrup, sausage, blueberries, cheese, applesauce, cookie, milk.

KMS students practice gardening skills

On Tuesday, September 30, Mr. Gonwa and Mr. Casey's Kewaskum Middle School advisement class planted a garden for the Kewaskum Habitat for Humanity house on Stark Street in the Village. Gonwa explained that after seeing the dedication of volunteers and the future owner, led by a solid core of talented leaders build the Habitat for Humanity home, he wanted to teach his students the great benefits of cooperation and citizenship. "They learned with enthusiasm," stated Gonwa. The garden was planted by the following KMS students: Ben Kelln, Ally Koepp, Josh Limbach, Rebecca Matthies, Collin McCarthy, Caley McClyman, Jocab Neuenfeld, Melanie Otten, Rachel Rohde, Christopher Rotolo, Matthew Spoerl, Marisa Stahl, and Barret Thompson.

St. Matthew School eighth grader, Leslie Parsons, helps her little buddies, kindergarteners Claire Guell and Hope Wielke, read stories about apples. They also made apple prints. Everyone enjoyed their time together. All of the eighth graders have kindergarten buddies that they worked with. St. Matthew's School is located in Campbellsport.

"Kindergarten Explorers" is the theme of Mrs. Kowalczyk's 5K class this year. They will be exploring topics in their classroom and around Kewaskum. Recently they traveled to explore the Pleasure Valley Llama Farm in Adell. The class learned about llamas, goats, sheep, bunnies and pigs. One interesting fact they learned was that when llamas are put in a field with sheep, the lambs seem to do better. The Kindergarteners also picked pumpkins and watched pig races. The class is looking forward to their next exploration.

German exchange program still going strong

Kewaskum High School has been involved with a German exchange student program since 1992. Since 1994, Slinger High School has also been involved with the program. The two high schools send kids to Germany every other year.

This is the year the Kewaskum hosted the German exchange students. Families around the community are playing host to seven 15-year-old sophomores, Elisa Junker, Tamara Steiner, Natascha Morbitzer, Peter Plage, Cara Liedtke and Eva Bix, Anna Schart and two faculty members, Wolfgang Witting and Sina Heck.

KHS German teacher Frau (Mrs.) Terry Rosenthal said when the Kewaskum students are in Germany, they fly into Frankfurt and are scattered in little villages around Langenselbold and live with host families.

"We take a three or four day trip to Munich for a field trip," Rosenthal said. "They go on the Rhine, they go to castles, they go to birthday parties, they go to anything the family wants to."

All of the German exchange students said they were amazed about how much space people have living in Kewaskum and the rest of America. Germany is slightly smaller than the state of Montana, but has just over 82 million people. That is just about the same as California, Texas and New York, the U.S.'s three most populous states.

"There's more nature and it is not so loud," Steiner.

School in America is much different here than what they are used to. The students agreed that it is much more strict in Germany.

"We can't sleep in the lessons," Liedtke said. "We would go to the head teacher (if they were caught sleeping in Germany)."

However, their school days are shorter. They all seemed to like the fact that school was more difficult, but shorter.

The German students begin mandatory English classes in fifth grade Rosenthal said. She said they also teach different levels, A, B and C, of English in German schools. The "A" level makes the German more student college ready. At KHS, all students taking German are in one class and they only have to take the class for a couple of years. These students have been speaking English for six years.

Plage said he really enjoys how many TV stations we get in America.

"We mostly only have 30," Plage said though he is not a TV watcher. "You guys have 100 or something. I like it."

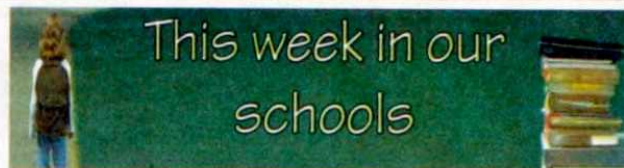

All seven of the students really like how friendly the people are around the community. They said we talk much nicer to each other. Morbitzer added: "They open the door for you and people in Germany don't do that."

Plage and Heck got first hand experience of American sports last weekend. Plage went to Green Bay to go see the Packers play the Falcons. Heck went to Milwaukee to see the Brewers win game three on Saturday.

Plage said he likes our version of football, but many of the girls did not like it because they said they did not understand the game.

Rosenthal said she has had from four students to 11 students go with her to Germany. She said it all depends on how the economy is doing when they go. The last trip cost a little over $1,800 for three weeks.

"There is no money exchange. This is not an official program," Rosenthal said. "It is a long time, but informal exchange."

KEWASKUM MIDDLE SCHOOL

Need your lawn raked/cleaned? On Wednesday, October 22, eighth grade students will be available to rake leaves for village residents needing assistance with their fall lawn cleaning. Groups of students and their advisement leaders will be taking part in this activity between 9:00 a.m. and noon. If you are a village resident and would like assistance with your fall raking please call John Breese (626-8427, ext.2121) or Nick Brettingen (626-8427, ext.2013) to schedule an appointment. In case of rain, the clean-up will be rescheduled for the following Wednesday, October 29.

KEWASKUM CAREER ACADEMY

The Kewaskum Career Academy, the new alternative school for the Kewaskum School District is off to a promising start. With only 3 weeks into the school year, the students and staff at the Academy want everyone to know that we are dedicated to making this school a success.

"I think it's a pretty good concept, you know, the way things work here. I get a lot more time to focus on certain things," says senior, Billy Utecht. The students have been working on the presidential campaign.

They are learning about the process of running for president and what is all in-olved. The students are also learning about careers opportunities. They will be compiling a binder with everything needed to apply for a job: resume, introduction letters, how to fill out applications, references, etc.

ST. LUCAS SCHOOL

St. Lucas lower grade students made a trip to the Kewaskum Fire Department for a presentation on Fire Safety as part of Fire Safety Week. They also took a field trip to the Little Farmer in Fond Du Lac.

Girls' Volleyball teams saw action on Tuesday and Thursday of this week. The Cross Country Team competed in a meet at Kettle Moraine Lutheran with over 12 other schools on Wednesday.

Students and families are invited to be guests at this weeks KML homecoming game, two students were selected to be ball/water boys/girls at the game.

Failures of the Presidents

By Thomas J. Craughwell with M. William Phelps
Fair Winds Press $19.95 320 pages

Why is it that you only spill, fall, splat, or otherwise make a fool of yourself when everyone in the world is looking?

When things are perfect, of course, nobody's ever around to notice. But capture the eyes of just one person (particularly one with a big mouth) and you fumble, flounder, flub, and fail for all to see.

With that in mind, it's no surprise that the guy who lives in the big White House on Pennsylvania Avenue is under a microscope, and his gaffes are there for everyone to point at. In the new book "Failures of the Presidents" by Thomas J. Craughwell with M. William Phelps, you'll read about many a prez faux pas.

From the Bay of Pigs to lipstick on a pig, our presidents (and presidential candidates) have surely presented their share of political bloopers.

Take, for instance, The Father of Our Country. As if being the first President wasn't pressure enough, George Washington agreed to a tax on whiskey which led to unrest in the backwoods of the newborn United States. Citizens were literally up in arms over a fee on their booze, and they rebelled. Though the wildly unpopular law was on the books until Thomas Jefferson's presidency, it was common knowledge that anyone who tried to collect the tax would meet with violence. Men, in fact, who attempted collection found themselves covered in tar and feathers. Understandably, nobody wanted to venture forth with his hand open.

Oopsie on Mr. Washington. In the early years of the Depression, when homeless, unemployed families pitched tents on the grass in Washington D.C., President Herbert Hoover authorized Major General Douglas MacArthur to clear out the squatters. Almost immediately after the orders were sent, Hoover had second thoughts and tried to pull MacArthur back.

Whoops. It didn't work. Tear gas flew, tents burned, and in the end, Hoover was blamed for the melee.

George Santayana said that those who can't learn from history are doomed to repeat it, so future presidents should observe Lyndon Johnson's lesson: never lie. Johnson and Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara fabricated a story they knew would escalate conflict in Vietnam. You know what happened next, but you might not know that it changed the way a president can wage war.

Judging from the funny, irreverent cover here, you'd perhaps expect a light-hearted book filled with plenty of laughs, right?

Nope. "Failures of the Presidents" is much deeper and drier than you'd anticipate by just picking this book up. Authors Thomas J. Craughwell and M. William Phelps include many very serious presidential losses and lack of successes that altered history, changed laws, and redirected the way Americans perceived the office and the men in it. Although I would have appreciated a smidge more humor here, this isn't a bad book. It's just more somber and serious than not.

Still, if you're fascinated with politics in this historically-political year, "Failures of the Presidents" is a definite must-have for your bookshelf. For you, missing this book is a big boo-boo.

Relatives and friends called on Sunday at the church from noon until the time of Mass.

The Miller Funeral Home in Kewaskum has been entrusted with Jerry's arrangements. Additional information and guest book may be found at www.millermartinfh.com.

ROBERT 'BOB' BACKHAUS

Robert "Bob" Backhaus, age 69, of the town of Trenton, passed away on Monday, October 6, 2008 at his home surrounded by his loving family.

He was born on June 10, 1939 in the town of Scott, to the late Arno and Elda (nee Ramel) Backhaus. Bob graduated from Random Lake High School in the class of 1957. On July 23, 1960 he married Lylalee Williams at Immanuel Lutheran Church in the town of Scott.

Bob drove truck for Hawthorn Meloddy Dairy in Milwaukee for 5 years prior to his employment with West Bend Transit for 31 years before retiring at the age of 56. He enjoyed golfing at Hon-E-Kor and numerous other courses, spending time with his friends at the V.F.W., playing guitar and singing in the band "Mountainers" in his earlier years.

He is survived by his wife, Lyla of the town of Trenton; two children, John (Dawn) Backhaus of the town of Farmington and Jill (Chad) Smith of Kewaskum; five grandchildren, Beau Backhaus and Aly Backhaus of the town of Farmington, Bridget Herriges of Milwaukee, Brad Herriges of Oshkosh and Cade Smith of Kewaskum; three sisters, Doris Frost, Mavis Zitzelsberger, Marian (Douglas) White; a sister-in-law, Chris (Jeff) Schiessl; many other relatives and close friends.

Bob was preceded in death by his son, James; his brother, Carl; two sisters, Mildred (Arthur) Gerpoltz, Margaret (Harold) Lankabel; and two brothers-in-law, Kenneth Frost and Norbert Zitzelsberger.

A memorial service in remembrance of Bob will be held on Saturday, October 11, 2008 at 5:00 pm at Myrhum-Patten Funeral & Cremation Service, West Bend. Fred Seefeldt will officiate.

Visitation will be Saturday at the funeral home from 3:00 until the time of service. Burial will be at Lutheran Memorial Park in Kewaskum. Memorials to the charity of your choice are appreciated.

Myrhum - Patten Funeral & Cremation Service is assisting the family. Online guest book and condolences may be found at www.myrhum-patten.com.

LAURIE L. SCHWOEGLER

Laurie L. Schwoegler, 34, passed away on October 1, 2008, after a courageous battle with vascular ehlers-danlos.

Laurie was born on January 21, 1974 to Thomas and Elaine Schwoegler.

She was the cherished mom of Jeffery Poupore, Jr.; precious daughter and best friend of Elaine (Larry) Ford and the late Thomas Schwoegler; loving sister of the late Tommy and Lisa Schwoegler; loving auntie of Sierra, Bryanna and the late baby Tommy Schwoegler, Illinois, and Kayla Holcomb; sister-in-law of Molly Campo; beloved granddaughter of Parry (the late John) Sears, and the late Richard (Dorothy) Schwoegler; Goddaughter of Lynne Jacques; special niece of "Unc" Jim Sears, Julie Sears, the late Peter Sears, Erika (the late John) Schwoegler and Richard (Donna) Schwoegler; loving cousin of Abbey and Brooke Sears, Dawn (Andy) Weissenburger, Richard (Kim) Schwoegler, Deanna (Carlos) Erickson, Johnny and the late Pammy Schwoegler. She is also survived by extended family, Lyn Zessin; best friend, Katie Wolf and special friend of Quentin Hanson, John Hoehne, Richard Sanders, Jeff Poupore, Sr., Tiff D'Acquisto, Nikki Branzlowski, Misty Blatt, Sherry Brooker, Mike Miglio, Les Johnson and Candy. She is further survived by the many lives she touched.

She was preceded in death by her sister, brother and dad.

Laurie was the proud owner of "Nails by Laurie Salon," in West Bend. Laurie's greatest passion was her family and friends. She had a special way of making every day fun and exciting with all her love and energy.

Visitation at the funeral home was on Monday, October 6, 4:00-8:00 p.m. with a service following at 8:00 p.m. Private entombment was at Pinelawn Cemetery.

JEROME A. 'JERRY' HOTTENROTH JR.

Jerome A. Hottenroth Jr. "Jerry" of Allenton passed away unexpectedly at his home on Monday, September 29th, 2008 at the age of 77.

He was born to the late Jerome and Marcella (nee Holz) Hottenroth Sr. on September 18th, 1931 in Colgate.

Jerry honorably served his country in the U.S. Navy during the Korean Conflict.

On January 16th, 1954 he married Patricia Wolf of Richfield, who preceded him in death on October 5th, 2002.

Jerry retired from Zuerns Building Products after many years of dedicated service. Jerry enjoyed going up north, gardening and working on his wood crafts.

Survivors include his children, Pam (Greg) Grover, Sue (Mark) Naber, Cindy Hottenroth, Tony (Shelly) Hottenroth, Randy (Sandy) Hottenroth, Linda (Matt) Briggs, Rick Hottenroth and Laurie Anders; 16 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; a brother, Charles (Faye), sisters Mildred Winzek and Dorothy (Dave) Przybylski; two sisters-in-law, Betty and Deborah; special friends, Ceil Kress and Emily Raush; other relatives and friends.

Jerry is preceded in death by his wife, Patricia; his parents; his son Todd; one brother, Kenneth; a brother-in-law, Richard Winzek and other close relatives.

A memorial service in honor of Jerry will take place on Sunday, October 12th, 2008 at 3:00 pm at the Phillip Funeral Home Chapel, West Bend. Friends and family may visit from 1:00 pm until the time of service at 3:00 pm. Cremation will take place at Paradise Cremation Services of West Bend.

Memorial's in Jerome's memory are appreciated to the Kathy Hospice of West Bend.

Dairyland Seed announces new corn releases

WEST BEND - Dairyland Seed recently announced the release of 29 new corn hybrids for the 2009 planting season. The descriptions of the products suited for this area follow:

85 Day Stealth-1985 - Conventional hybrid with tremendous top-end yield punch and exceptional adaptability from east to west. Excellent drought and disease ratings. This hybrid flowers early, has terrific staygreen yet expresses excellent drydown and high test weight. Excels at high plant population.

85 Day Stealth-7985 - Agrisure GT/CB/LL. Terrific staygreen is the result of excellent drought and disease protection. Superior stalk and root ratings. Flower early and delivers excellent drydown with very high test weight. Widely adaptable. Best yields are attained with high plant populations.

96 Day Stealth-7286 - YGCB/RR2. High yield hybrid featuring excellent agronomics. Very good stress tolerance from both drought and disease. Excellent early plant vigor establishes great roots and stalks. High test weight grain with excellent drydown. Wide soil adaptation. Excellent from the Western to Eastern Corn Belt.

89 Day Stealth-9789 - Versatile, widely adapted VT Triple hybrid provides dependable yields. Excellent early plant vigor which stimulates terrific root and stalk development. Strong drought tolerance rating helps deliver solid grain production in stress production years. Best yields are attained with high plant populations.

91 Day Stealth-5891 - Early flowering, high yielding Agrisure CB/LL hybrid that delivers excellent drydown and high test weight grain. Phenomenal early plant vigor. Outstanding plant health assures the development of a superior root and stalk system. Delivers high yields in high plant population environments.

91 Day Stealth-7891 - Superior Agrisure GT/CB/LL genetic package delivering leading edge yields. These high yield genetics will excel because of superior early plant vigor as well as exceptional root and stalk qualities from start to finish. High test weight grain. Excellent corn-on-corn hybrid.

94 Day Stealth-9594 - This VT Triple hybrid flowers early, dries down quickly and produces girthy ears of grain with 18-20 kernel rows. Tall plant type with semi-erect leaves. Excellent early vigor. Terrific no-till and corn-on-corn hybrid. Excels at high plant population.

96 Day Stealth-1896 - High yielding conventional with strong early plant vigor. Strong disease protection and drought tolerance throughout the production season. Performs very well in no-till and corn-on-corn planting conditions while favoring clay and loam soil types. Prefers high plant populations.

96 Day Stealth-6196 - A new RR2 hybrid with high yield, high test weight, high quality grain from aggressive genetics. Excels at high plant populations. Very strong in corn-on-corn growing conditions. Performs well in drought environments. Offers nice soil versatility. Proven high yield performance.

99 Day Stealth-6799 - Girthy-eared, high yielding RR2 genetics that excel at high plant population. Outstanding early plant vigor. Excellent staygreen, excellent dry down and high test weight grain. Offers wide soil adaptation including no-till and corn-on-corn growing environments.

100 Day Northern/98 Day Central Stealth-1800 - Girthy-eared, high yielding genetics with tremendous early plant vigor. Phenomenal root and stalk quality. Very strong yield performance in no-till and corn-on-corn environments. Strong disease, drought and staygreen qualities assure reliability on your farm. Excels at high plant population.

102 Day Northern/100 Day Central Stealth-1002 - Conventional hybrid with tremendous yield potential. Rapid early plant establishment. Terrific drought and disease protection. Works well in no-till and corn-on-corn planting conditions. Wide range of soil profiles. High test weight grain with excellent drydown. Utilize high plant population.

102 Day Northern/100 Day Central Stealth-6002 - Agrisure GT. Excellent yield performance from strong genetic parents. High test weight grain. Excellent agronomics generate vigorous, early plant growth which quickly establishes an excellent root system. Wide soil adaption including no-till and corn-on-corn planting environments.

102 Day Northern/100 Day Central Stealth-9002 - This high yield Agrisure 3000 GT/LL hybrid expresses excellent agronomics in a showy, upright leaf configuration. Versatile soil adaptation. Solid drought, disease and staygreen features ensure plant integrity and provide very good stalks. Excellent drydown and test weight quality.

102 Day Northern/100 Day Central Stealth-9902 - Very highly rated high yield VT Triple hybrid. Aggressive early plant growth. Excellent performance in drought and disease environments assures superb stalk integrity and excellent staygreen. High test weight grain. Outstanding corn-on-corn and no-till performance. Great soil flexibility.

104 Day Northern/102 Day Central Stealth-1904 - High yield, high test weight conventional hybrid. Tremendous early plant vigor stimulates corresponding outstanding roots and stalks. Rated very highly for disease and drought protection. Excellent test weight and excellent drydown. Grow at high plant populations for best yield results.

104 Day Northern/102 Day Central Stealth-8404 - Strong yield capability in genetics that can be placed in a wide range of soil types. Tremendous early plant vigor jump starts this hybrid quickly after planting. Root and stalk development are very strong. Excellent grain drydown. Genetics feature the advantages of Herculex Xtra.

105 Day Northern/103 Day Central Stealth-2205/LL - Tremendous yield capability. Simply a strong year-in, year-out high yield hybrid that delivers great reliability. Whether soil conditions or growing conditions are tough East to West in the Corn Belt, this Liberty Link hybrid is a winner. Excellent drought tolerance provides added insurance.

108 Day Northern/106 Day Central Stealth-1208 - Tremendous yield strength in a superior genetic package leading the industry. Great early plant vigor establishes strong roots which build the foundation for outstanding stalk strength. Staygreen is tremendous and further supported by solid disease protection and drought tolerance. Widely adaptable in varying soils. Semi-upright plant with long girthy ears with high ear flex capability.

108 Day Northern/106 Day Central Stealth-2208/LL - High yielding, widely adaptable and proven Liberty Link hybrid with drought and disease protection inside a superior root and stalk. High ear flex capability. Deep kernels and high test weight qualities. Semi-upright plant stature with terrific staygreen. Leads the industry for yield.

108 Day Northern/106 Day Central Stealth-6208 - Leading, state-of-the-art genetics pave the way for your highest yields in this maturity. A RR2 hybrid with outstanding early plant vigor, tremendous root and stalk quality, excellent disease and drought protection and great staygreen. Wide soil type versatility. Yield capability is exciting with a deep-kernelled, high test weight, high flex ear that is both girthy and long. The industry yield leader.

110 Day Stealth-9410 - Terrific grain production in a VT Triple hybrid. Superb roots, stalks and staygreen. Very strong under drought and disease pressures. Physically this hybrid expresses a more determinant ear type and therefore requires a higher plant population. Excellent test weight. A shorter-statured hybrid.

111 Day Central Stealth-1811 - High-end yield conventional hybrid featuring excellent agronomics. Excellent disease resistance and drought tolerance. Outstanding soil versatility. Excellent no-till and corn-on-corn planting capability. Taller plant with semi erect leaf structure. Excels at high plant populations.

111 Day Northern/109 Day Central Stealth-9009 - VT Triple. Aggressive, vigorous genetics with high yield potential. Wide soil adaptability provides added flexibility. Very good stalk strength and strong drought tolerance. Greatest yield potential when planted at high plant populations. Foliar fungicide application recommended.

Dinnertime Solutions

Make An Extra-Crispy Pork Chop Family Dinner On A Budget

(NAPSA)—Pork chops have been a dinner table staple for decades. Here's a recipe that can make your pork chops sizzle for a family of four for less than $10.

Fried Pork Chops

Ingredients:
1 1/2 cups LouAna vegetable or canola oil
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1 cup fresh bread crumbs
1/2 cup milk
1 large egg
4 bone-in pork loin chops
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper

Chunky Gravy:
2 tablespoons vegetable or canola oil
1/2 cup thinly sliced shallot or onion
1 (8-ounce) package button mushrooms, each quartered
2 garlic cloves, thinly sliced
1/2 cup dry white wine
1 tablespoon all-purpose flour
1 cup reduced-sodium chicken broth

Preparation and Cooking:
To prepare pork, place 1/2 cup flour in a shallow dish. Place bread crumbs in a separate shallow dish. Combine milk and egg, stirring well with a whisk.
Season pork chops evenly on both sides with salt and pepper. Heat 1/2 cups oil in a skillet over medium-high heat. Dredge pork chops in flour. Dip chops in milk mixture;

A plate of tasty pork chops can be a great answer to the "what's for dinner?" dilemma.

dredge in bread crumbs.
Fry chops 5 minutes on each side or until done.
For gravy, heat 2 tablespoons oil in a saucepan. Add shallot; sauté 1 minute. Add mushrooms; sauté 4-5 minutes or until liquid evaporates. Add garlic; sauté 30 seconds. Stir in wine; cook 2 minutes or until liquid almost evaporates. Add flour; cook 1 minute, stirring constantly. Add broth to pan; bring to a boil. Cook 1 minute or until thick, stirring often. Remove from heat.
Serves four people

Cost-saving measure: You can buy a whole pork loin and then get the butcher to cut it into smaller roasts and chops that you save in the freezer. You can keep an eye out for specials in your local newspaper. You can also reuse the cooking oil as long as you don't overheat it. After cooking, cool, strain and store the oil in a cool, dark place.

Spiderweb Munch (Makes 12 servings)

2 cups (12-ounce package) Nestlé Toll House Semi-Sweet Chocolate Morsels

1 cup creamy peanut butter, divided

1/3 cup powdered sugar

3 cups toasted rice cereal

HEAT morsels and 3/4 cup peanut butter in small, heavy-duty saucepan over low heat, stirring constantly until smooth; remove from heat. Add sugar; stir vigorously until smooth.

PLACE cereal in large bowl. Add 1 cup melted chocolate mixture; stir until evenly coated. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Using small metal spatula, shape into 10-inch circle with slightly raised 1-inch-wide border. Pour remaining chocolate mixture in center of circle; spread to border.

FOR SPIDERWEB:

PLACE remaining peanut butter in small, heavy-duty plastic bag. Cut tiny corner from bag; squeeze to pipe concentric circles on top of chocolate. Using wooden pick or tip of sharp knife, pull tip through peanut butter from center to border. Refrigerate for 30 minutes or until firm. Cut into wedges.

On Wisconsin Outdoors

With the Dick Ellis Experts

Stamp of Approval...Artist wins Great Lakes trout and salmon competition

Many years fishing Lake Michigan from shore as a young boy and later from boats helped Wildlife artist Jim Tostrud become acclimated to the fish species and habitat that would help him win the 2009 Great Lakes trout and salmon stamp competition.

There was something fishy about the bicycle accident just west of the Kenosha Harbor in the 1970s. Twelve year old Jim Tostrud peddled for home, one 20-pound King salmon tethered to each side of the handle bars for balance. Such a performance would ordinarily pose no problem for the young angling addict and aspiring Wisconsin wildlife artist. Tostrud had made more difficult journeys home with up to a limit of five steelhead, browns, Chinook or Cohos many times before after successful trips to fish the rocks, piers and tributaries of the big lake.

It was a shore thing; Tostrud would routinely catch fish and safely deliver the catch. This though, this is where a fish tail enters our fish tale. Tostrud labored on, his stinky cargo shifted, the bike wobbled and the tail of one big King found the spokes of one little bike. And one little fisherman took a solo flight.

"That's when I went right over the handle bars," Tostrud said. "I got a little beat up when I landed but I was okay. But even as a little guy I would fish Lake Michigan any time I could. I really studied the fish and the habitat. As an artist, I want to make sure that the anatomy and the posture or movement of the wildlife I paint is accurate."

It was that early and on-going education in the fields and on the water of Wisconsin and his attention to detail that helped Tostrud earn first place recognition in the 2009 Great Lakes trout and salmon stamp competition coordinated by the Department of Natural Resources (DNR). His combination acrylic airbrush and hand brush rendering of a Seeforellen Brown Trout will adorn the state stamp required of all anglers next year fishing Lake Superior, Lake Michigan, and Great Lakes tributaries upstream to the first obstruction, or dam.

The competition is one of several state art competitions for hunting and fishing seasons that require a stamp purchase to participate, including inland trout, turkey, pheasant, and waterfowl. The artist entry must be original, previously unpublished art in work that might be oil, acrylic or colored pencil, he said, and the 8-inch by 10-inch art must be submitted unsigned to ensure unbiased judging.

Revenue raised through purchase by sportsmen and women goes back to the resource, often in habitat management. Although Tostrud has placed in all of the competitions and been runner-up in the three of the contests including the Great Lakes Trout and Salmon competition, this is his first, 1st place.

"I grew up fishing Lake Michigan," Tostrud said. "I've seen the trout and salmon fishing evolve in the 1960s, seventies and eighties. After fishing all the time from shore as a kid I worked on several charter boats as a first mate. The painting shows the brown trout accurately, the sun rays carrying through the clear water on a clear day, and the big rocks that are close to the Lake Michigan shore."

Wildlife artist Jim Tostrud's rendering of a Seeforellen Brown Trout won first place in the 2009 Great Lakes Trout and Salmon stamp competition conducted annually by the Department of Natural Resources.

"I worked as guide on Pikes Creek during the Lake Michigan hey-day when everyone fished the Root River in Racine. The Wehr steelhead facility is on the Root but we have our own fish rearing facility on Pike's Creek run by the great people of the Kenosha Sportfishing Association."

It was to that association that Tostrud donated all earnings several years ago when, after finishing as runner-up in the state trout and salmon stamp competition, he produced and sold limited edition prints of the original art. Reflective of the association's non-profit efforts to improve the fishery, 40,000 salmon were raised at the rearing facility and released in 2008.

"Being the runner-up is just being the first loser," Tostrud said. "All you get is a certificate but I wanted to help the association because those people do so much for the lake and they do things like stock ponds with trout and have kids come to learn how to fish."

After 10 years of entering the state stamp competitions and being so close but so far, so often, learning he had won the Great Lakes trout and salmon contest was almost a surreal experience. Filming a turkey hunt in the northland for a cable television program had not been successful and his truck on the trip home nearly broke down. Nursing the truck home on the highway, Tostrud "nearly broke down too", when the phone call came in from the DNR informing the artist of his win.

"I've worked so hard entering these contest over the years," he said. "But I never won. It was so exciting. I've been painting for most of my life. I've owned my own art business for 20 years. My work has been published on the cover of Wisconsin Outdoor Journal, Woods and Waters, Midwest Outdoors and Deer & Deer Hunting. But to win a stamp contest gives a big boost to your artwork. It's huge. It's like winning the Super Bowl for me."

"My talent is a gift from God. The cool thing about this painting is that I have caught so many browns, and have fished Lake Michigan so long, and know the habitat so well. I come up with visions all the time before painting. And this is how I envisioned this piece of art before I started."

Gridiron teams corral Bronco foes

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

All four of the Kewaskum Gridiron teams got back on track with wins last Saturday, securing a very successful Parents Day.

The fifth graders started off with a 39-0 shutout victory over Cedar Grove-Belgium, then the sixth graders notched a 25-13 win, the seventh graders rolled over the Broncos 32-13, and the eighth grade, playing their traditional Parents Day game under the lights, came out on top 22-7.

Coach Jim "Jonesy" Korth's eighth graders (3-2) were successful scoring on their first drive, which was capped by a short Derek Aupperle run. After Alex Fechter split the uprights, it was 8-0.

Later in the first quarter, CG-B fumbled a punt, which was recovered by Nathan Koller. This set up Kewaskum's second TD, a 32-yard run by Ted Wollner, who broke several tackles on his way to the end zone. Again Fechter was perfect on the kick.

Fumbled punts hampered the Indians the rest of the first half, and the second one, with a pass interference call on the next play, gave the Broncos good field position, and they scored just before half, cutting the margin to 16-7.

The only TD of the second half was set up by a nice pass reception by Nate Krupp, who took the ball inside the five before being tackled. Aupperle got the call from there and plowed into the end zone.

Korth said he liked the play he got from his defensive ends, Kyle Bowe and Nick Banks, and added, "Corey Burdick handled himself well again at quarterback."

The seventh grade (4-1) win was the Brett Boegel and Joey Seitz show, with Seitz scoring on runs of 15 and 84 yards, the later coming in the third quarter which allowed the young Indians to start pulling away after they led just 14-6 at half.

Boegel thrilled the crowd with his 97-yard scamper in the second quarter. He added a 32-yard run up the middle with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter, then with his team ahead 26-13, Boegel intercepted a pass and returned it 40 yards for the Indians' final tally.

Coach Randy Schlice reported Alex Johnson passed to Austin Resch for one PAT. The coach cited Brian Wilson and Anthony Webb for good defensive efforts.

"It was a good day for Dylan Thull," Coach Joe Backhaus said about the sixth grade (4-1) win. "He had three touchdowns," and, "He got us out of a hole when we needed it most."

Kenny Ellis had the other Kewaskum touchdown. Backhaus went on that Max Vetter "did a job out there" at linebacker, with Thull doing well on the other side.

"Kenny Ellis, Hunter Demmon and Billy Lehmann ... they were all out there contributing," the coach said, indicating there were some anxious moments defensively in the second quarter, "but they hung in there and got the job done."

Josh Baker had three TDs for the fifth graders (4-

The Indians' first drive covered 63 yards, according to coach Mark Walcheske, who said it took his team just three plays to score, and after CG-B went three-and-out, the Indians scored again.

Thull took a punt and raced 55 yards for an apparent score, which was called back for an illegal block, but several minutes later, he got another chance and sprinted 60 yards. By half, it was 33-zip, and Walcheske played many of his reserves after that.

Thull forced a fumble, and Mason Rose and Berat Elmazi had interceptions.

Zuehlke moves on to golf sectional

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

With several new, smaller schools adding girls golf to their list of extra curricular offerings this fall, the Kewaskum High team was moved up into Division 1 for the state competitions. It pretty well took away any chance for the Indians to advance from the regional to the sectional, but Heather Zuehlke will carry the green and white banner to the sectional as she qualified as an extra individual.

"Heather had a good day and is moving on," coach Amy Piwoni said about the regional played at the Ironwood Golf Course last week. "She really took me by surprise this year with her solid performances each and every meet."

Zuehlke shot a 102 and was tied for second among the individuals not on the four qualifying teams, Homestead (357), Arrowhead (364), Sussex Hamilton (402) and Hartford (405).

Kewaskum finished sixth among the right teams at the meet. The Indians combined for a 443, with Danielle Donnelly turning in a good round of 107, and Kate Winkler and Megan Gavin counting with their 117s.

A year ago, the Indians shot a 416 in the regional and advanced to the sectional as a team for the second year in a row.

"It was a tough day for us (as a team)," Piwoni said. "The cold and wind made it tough on all the teams."

The meet medalist was Arrowhead's Erika Pfaender, who carded an excellent score of 81, two shots ahead of Sarah Gradecki from Homestead.

"It was a tough way to end the season, but we have all the players back except for Beth (Noennig)," Piwoni said.

Wings to hold annual fund raiser

Mason Newbury, shown at right, of Slinger, shot his first wild turkey this spring during the spring youth hunt. Mason harvested his turkey on the Wings Over Wisconsin wild life area located just north of Kewaskum.

This is just one of the projects the Kettle Moraine Chapter of Wings Over Wisconsin sponsors. Other projects include the ever popular bird seed sale, held the second Saturday of the month between November and March, hunter education classes, a yearly $1,000.00 college scholarship given to a Kewaskum High School student who is entering the field of outdoor education or study, an annual tree and shrub give-a-way to help restore wildlife habitat and starting this year, a Learn To Hunt program to help beginning hunters to learn about wildlife, laws pertaining to the outdoors, hunting safety and other skills that will last them a lifetime.

All these programs and more are funded by their annual banquet which will be held at the Amerahn Hall in Kewaskum on October 16, 2008. This will be the 24th annual banquet held by the Kettle Moraine Chapter. One thing unique about a Wings Over Wisconsin banquet is that all of the money raised is kept in Wisconsin and the majority of the funds raised at local banquets are kept for use by the local chapter.

For more information about attending the banquet please call Dick Knoebel at 262-626-4311 or email at knoebelr@charter.net.

Too much power from Waupun

By Pat Neumuth
Statesman Sports Editor
patrick@kewaskumstatesman.com

The Kewaskum girl's volleyball team knew they had a mountain to climb when playing against the second ranked team in the state, Waupun. The Warriors' size and power were too much for the Indians as they lost 25-8, 25-8, 25-14.

"It's pretty intimidating, but we knew they were going to be tall," Elissa Miller said of Waupun's front row that has a girl 6-foot-1 and three six footers.

Miller is the tallest player on the Indians line up at 5-foot-10.

The score may look lopsided, but head coach Renee Altendorf said the Indians scored the most points in a game, 14, and most total points, 30, against Waupun in the EWC.

Altendorf told her team before the game that this was a phenomenal team and they need to hit and dig like they know how. The team did that in the third game when they scored 14 points.

The Indians made this game interesting for a while. Lauren Gonring started game three with an ace. The score then became tied at four with a hustle play by Georgiana Abfall, which led to a Miller kill. Brandi Wagner tied it at six with a cross-court kill. The Indians tied the game up at eight and 10 as well. They broke through with an 11-10 lead when Erika Heberer won a 50/50 ball at the net for a point. Heberer and Miller extended the lead on the next play with a big block.

That was the largest lead for the Indians. The Warriors finished the game on a 15-2 run.

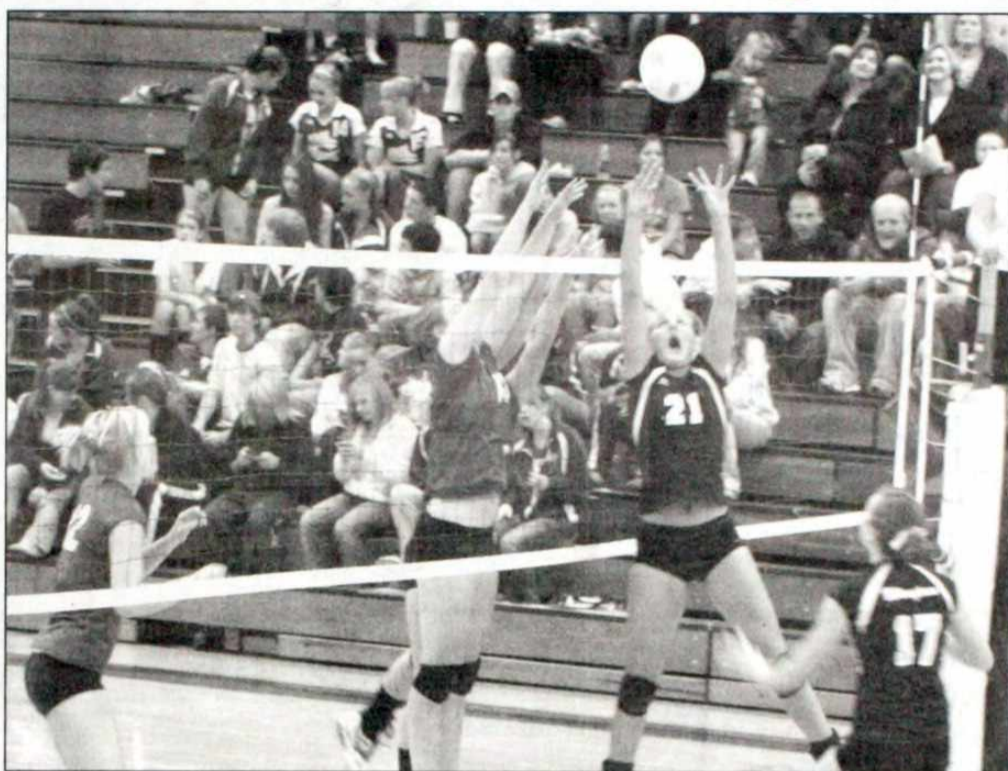

The back row had a tough time with the power generated by all of the Waupun hitters.

"I was hitting at them yesterday just as hard as some of those girls were hitting at them today," said Altendorf.

Altendorf said her team came out intimidated in the first two games and finally picked it up in the third. She said Waupun was not even hitting the ball down hard in the first two games, it was bad passing that dug Kewaskum into the hole.

The Indians started the first game out with 2-0 lead, but that lead turned into a deficit quickly. The deficit built after they were down 8-5. Waupun scored eight unanswered points to balloon their lead to 16-5. The Indians put three points in a row making the score 17-8, but the Warriors finished the game with eight more unanswered points.

The second game the Warriors started with the lead and kept building. They did not put up a large run on the Indians, until the Warriors lead went from 14-6 to 22-6.

All of the girls showed hustle for every ball and extended a lot of points. Abfall in particular saved a lot from the right hitter position in all of the games.

"We don't have enough volleyball awareness yet. We are a young team and we don't have that awareness of where the ball is going and how we have to dig it," Altendorf said.

Tonight, the Indians travel to Kiel and play at 7:30 p.m.

Disappointment against Two Rivers

By Pat Neumuth
Statesman Sports Editor
patrick@kewaskumstatesman.com

Head coach Dennis Gutbrod said their last three games against Campbellsport, Kiel and New Holstein the team played great. They lost those games, but the team controlled the ball and played together. Last Thursday's 4-0 loss to Two Rivers during Parent's Night, not so much.

"For the first time as long as I've been watching soccer here against that team, we actually passed the ball. We slowed down, we played side to side, we put four, five, six touches in a row. We played great," Gutbrod said about their 6-0 loss to New Holstein, who is ranked third in division three.

"Today, it's a team we have to beat and I don't know. This wasn't the team that I saw play the last four games."

Gutbrod said his team has been competing very well, they just give up goals because of defensive break downs.

Early on in this match both teams controlled the ball evenly. Goalie Dillon Thelen made some nice saves, including a diving stop. Two Rivers actually put one in the net early, but the Two Rivers player was offside during the scramble in the box.

Just past the midway point in the first half, Two Rivers scored off of a corner kick. The ball was too high for Thelen and Philip Kinderknecht got his head on the ball for the goal.

Then, the game got chippy. Players on both sides of the ball were tackling hard, shoving on set plays and talking to each other. Finally the official got involved. First, Nate Wendelborn was given a yellow card in the 30th minute and two minutes later Two Rivers' David Charles was cautioned. However, it did not clear up all of the aggressive slides, but both sides got the message.

The Indians went into half-time down the one goal. During half-time all of the parents of the players were honored.

Two Rivers jumped on the offense early and stayed there the entire second half. Within the first couple of minutes, Kinderknecht got the ball on a break-a-way opportunity, but Thelen stoned him. In the process, Thelen was kicked in the head and had to leave the game for about 10 minutes.

In the 45th minute, the Purple Raiders struck again.

This time it was a defensive bad touch Gutbrod said plagued the team in previous games. Kinderknecht took the ball and scored on new goalie Brad Nowack. Seven minutes later Justin Coogle scored on a great shot to the upper 90. At this time Thelen was back in goal.

Two Rivers added insult to injury with scoring the final goal inside the last two minutes of the match. This one was a header off a cross. Michael Gesch put the ball in.

Most of the Indians' shots came off the foot of Nicholas Gutbrod, but were from a long distance and not a real threat to the Raiders goalie.

"This team, we should control this game too," Dennis Gutbrod said very frustrated. "There's no reason we can't control this team, but we didn't."

Gutbrod said this game had more to it than a conference loss, but for tournament seedings. Two Rivers has two EWC wins, the Indians have one. The Indians lone EWC win was back on Sept. 8 against this same Two Rivers team. The Indians won that game 3-2 in overtime. The Indians are at home today at 4:30 p.m. against Sheboygan Falls.

The Indians lost to Waupun Monday 2-1 in overtime. The teams were knotted at zero at halftime. Nicholas Gutbrod played in goal during the first half and came out of the goal in the second to score the Indians goal. Gutbrod scored on a direct kick from about 25 yards in the 73rd minute. Ryan Gibson had a chance in overtime to end it, but the shot was wide. Waupun got the game winner after Dillon Thelen dropped the ball in the box and Waupun kicked it in.

Indians' big plays, three-and-outs ruin Panther's homecoming

By Pat Neumuth

Kewaskum 35, Plymouth 7

PLYMOUTH- In a week that Wisconsin athletic teams did not fair well, at least Kewaskum Indians fans had something to cheer about Friday night at Plymouth. The Indians stepped onto Plymouth's field on their homecoming and walked out victors with a 35-7 win.

Kewaskum gave up their first points in EWC play in the first quarter, but the 42-yard touchdown pass given up was all Plymouth got.

"[Cody Lemke] just missed it. He gambled and it's probably the wrong part of the field to gamble in, but he's a junior, he'll learn," said head coach Jason Piittmann about the Plymouth score. "We talked to him about that and he's a smart kid. He won't make that mistake again."

The 42-yard touchdown was the only defensive breakdown of the game, especially from the defensive secondary.

"D-backs played incredibly well. They did a great job, corners especially had great position defense," said Piittmann. "I couldn't complain about any of our position. We were in great spots and we picked off three balls."

Cornerback Brandon Zolp said they knew they were going to be tested Friday night and the coaches prepared them for it.

"We know their routes. We know their plays and practiced for them, practiced covering them," Zolp said.

On the second play from scrimmage, Plymouth quarterback Jon Criter threw a ball near the flat and Indian's linebacker Joe Paulus picked it off and brought it back 27 yards for the score. The extra point was blocked and the Indians had a quick 6-0 lead.

The ball was punted back and forth a few times before the Tigers scored on the 42-yard touchdown pass to Zach Suchon late in the first. The score after the first quarter was 7-6 Plymouth.

The Indians put Plymouth away with a 22-point second quarter where big plays played a key role.

Kewaskum quarterback Nick Olla hooked up with Zolp for 27 yards, getting the Indians into Plymouth territory just before the first quarter ended. Olla and Zolp finished the drive, with a 14-yard touchdown pass. Zolp ran a corner route to the goaline pylon and the ball was perfectly placed in Zolp's breadbasket. Olla scrambled for the two-point conversion, but fell short.

The Indians defense forced a three-and-out on the next Tigers possession forcing them to punt. Three and outs were the theme of the Indians defense, making them go three and out five times in the game.

The Indians took advantage of the three-and-outs

Zach Amerling (23) carries the ball during the first quarter of the Indians match up against the Panthers Friday in Plymouth. Cody Seibel (4) provides blocking. Amerling carried the ball for 43 yards.

with great punt returns by Zach Amerling. Amerling had three punt returns for 125 yards, including a long one of 63 yards.

"Our punt return team is amazing, they set up everything," Amerling said. "They make it easy for me. It's wide-open all of the time. I can make a few people miss and I'm gone."

Piittmann said special teams are the first part of practice everyday. He said he wants his team to focus on special teams and that is why he chooses to work on them before the kids get tired during practice.

Amerling's big play ability was not just in the return game. He had a 43-yard run, a 31-yard catch and an interception. Amerling had 199 yards of total offense.

Running back Cody Seibel had a four-yard touchdown and Olla had a QB sneak from one yard out for the two other touchdowns in the second quarter.

Plymouth played aggressive and went for a score after Olla's TD, but on the first play of the drive Josh Harbin came off the edge and knocked the ball out of Criter's hand. Defensive tackle Fredrick Fellenz jumped on it on the Tigers' 32 yard line.

Olla completed passes to Zolp, for 22-yards, and Eric Shaske, for six-yards, before kicker Brian Backhaus came on to nail a 22-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. The Indians went into the locker with a 28-7 halftime lead.

Fullback Nathan Westerman scored the only touchdown of the second half on the first play of the fourth quarter. Westerman got the hand-off on a fourth and one and took it 25 yards for the score.

On the night, the Indians ran for 251 yards rushing and went for 94 yards through the air. Meanwhile, the Tigers could only pile up 115 total yards.

"It's nice. They had a huge crowd there and we were able to play well," Piittmann said about beating Plymouth on their homecoming.

Preview: Sheboygan Falls, Homecoming

By Pat Neumuth

patrick@kewaskumstatesman.com

A week after Kewaskum traveled to Plymouth and beat them on their homecoming, the Indians are home against Sheboygan Falls for their homecoming.

"We kind of have to ride them a little bit this week," head coach Jason Piittmann said about preparing the team for homecoming week. "Remind them everyday at the beginning of practice, end of practice about making good choices and not getting caught up in the other stuff that happens that maybe other students do because they don't have eligibility to worry about."

Piittmann said Sheboygan Falls looked solid defensively in that they only give up about 11 points per game.

"They played New Holstein 8-6 (and lost), they beat Two Rivers 21-0, but then they got beat by Kiel 24-7, so it is hard to see which team will show up," Piittmann said.

Sheboygan Falls will run a three-man front or a four-man front. Piittmann thinks the Indians will see the 4-4 defense because of what they run on offense. The strength to the Falcons defense is their speed and pursuit to the ball carrier.

"They just get to the ball, they are not a big team," Piittmann said. "Looking at their roster they have a few guys over 200 pounds, but not a huge number of guys."

Sheboygan Falls uses an odd looking form of a shotgun spread offense where the single running back lines up behind the quarterback. Piittmann said quarterback Adam Lorenz and running back Zach Berg are their threats on offense.

Berg has rushed the ball 55 times for 158 yards for the season. Lorenz did not start the year under center, but has been started in conference play. Lorenz is 45 for 76 through the air for 507 yards, two touchdowns and one interception in the three games. He also has rushed for 84 yards on 37 attempts with two touchdowns. Lorenz' best receiver is Justin Laack. Laack has 17 catches for 192 yards and one touchdown in conference. Laack had eight catches for 117 yards and a touchdown against Two Rivers.

Even though the Indians have not been tested in conference, Piittmann said he avoids a breakdown by preparing his team every week and he stays on top of the team "so their heads don't get too big."

"Homecoming week has its own distractions in its own right, so we will really stay on top of that this week to make sure the kids are staying focused and not getting caught up with the other stuff and end up making poor choices," Piittmann said.

"To enjoy it and have fun, but homecoming isn't about them, it's about the alumni that will come back and they want us to play well. To play well we have to focus with our heads on straight."

Piittmann is 4-1 on homecoming. Friday night's homecoming game starts at 7 p.m.
