Bunkelman excels in Naval training

Adam L. Bunkelman of Kewaskum graduated from recruit training on February 5, 2010, from the Naval Station Great Lakes in Great Lakes, Illinois.

The lone Wisconsin seaman in his division, Adam was one of 79 young men who excelled in the eight weeks of recruit training at Great Lakes where honor, courage and commitment were at the core of their training.

Adam's division received notable recognition as the highest scoring rifle division in Great Lakes history. The division was entered into the Great Lakes Hall of Fame due to their outstanding academic performance, their precise performance in military drills, was undefeated in competitions and received high scores in their rifle division. Adam proudly received a National Defense Ribbon and a Sharpshooter Ribbon. Their division motto was Veni, Vidi, Vici, which means, "We Came, We Saw and We Conquered".

Adam will pursue the position of machinist's mate, a position coincidentally Adam's grandfather, the late Edward Bunkelman, held during World War II while stationed in Pearl Harbor.

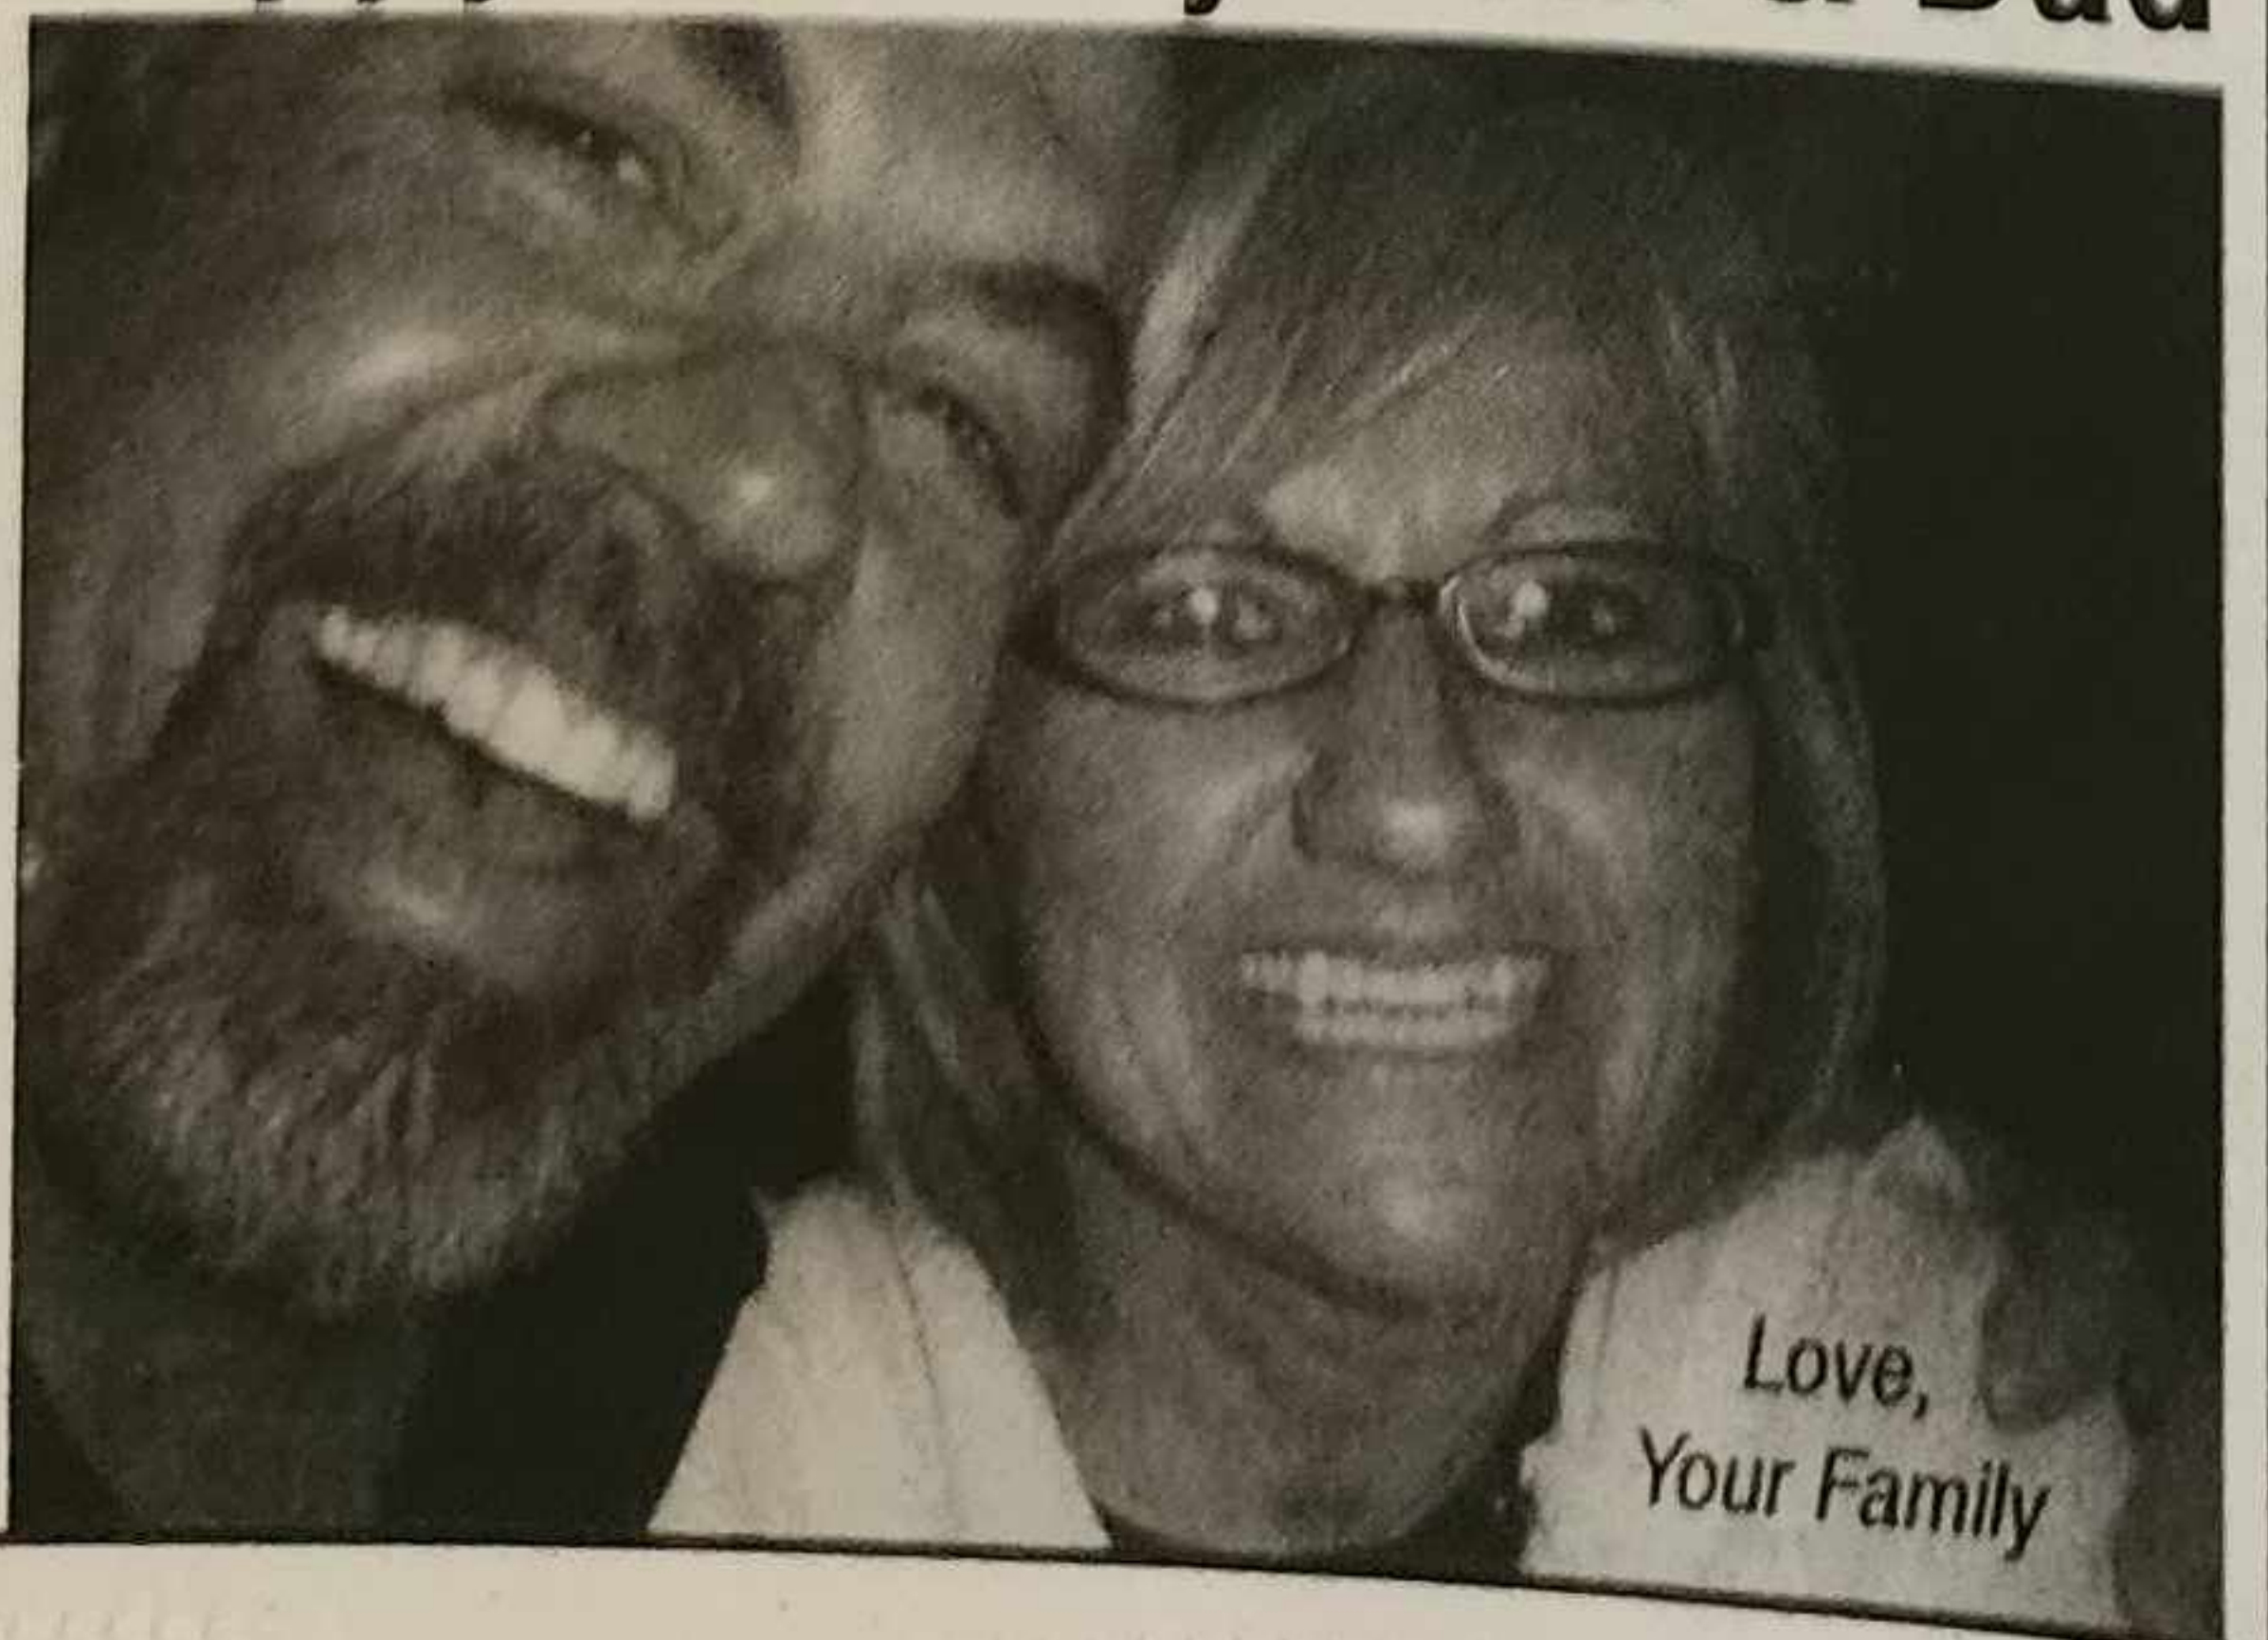

The duties of a machinist's mate are to operate and maintain steam turbines and reduction gears used for ship propulsion and auxiliary machinery such as turbo-generators, pumps and oil purifiers, electro-hydraulic steering engines and elevators, refrigeration plants, air conditioning systems and desalinization plants. Machinist's mates also operate and maintain compressed gas producing plants.

Adam has begun 14 weeks of study at the Naval Station Great Lakes as a fireman recruit, will advance to a machinist's mate/fireman recruit, onto a machinist's mate/fireman apprentice and continue to work toward the position of machinist's mate/fireman, a process that could take up to 18 months.

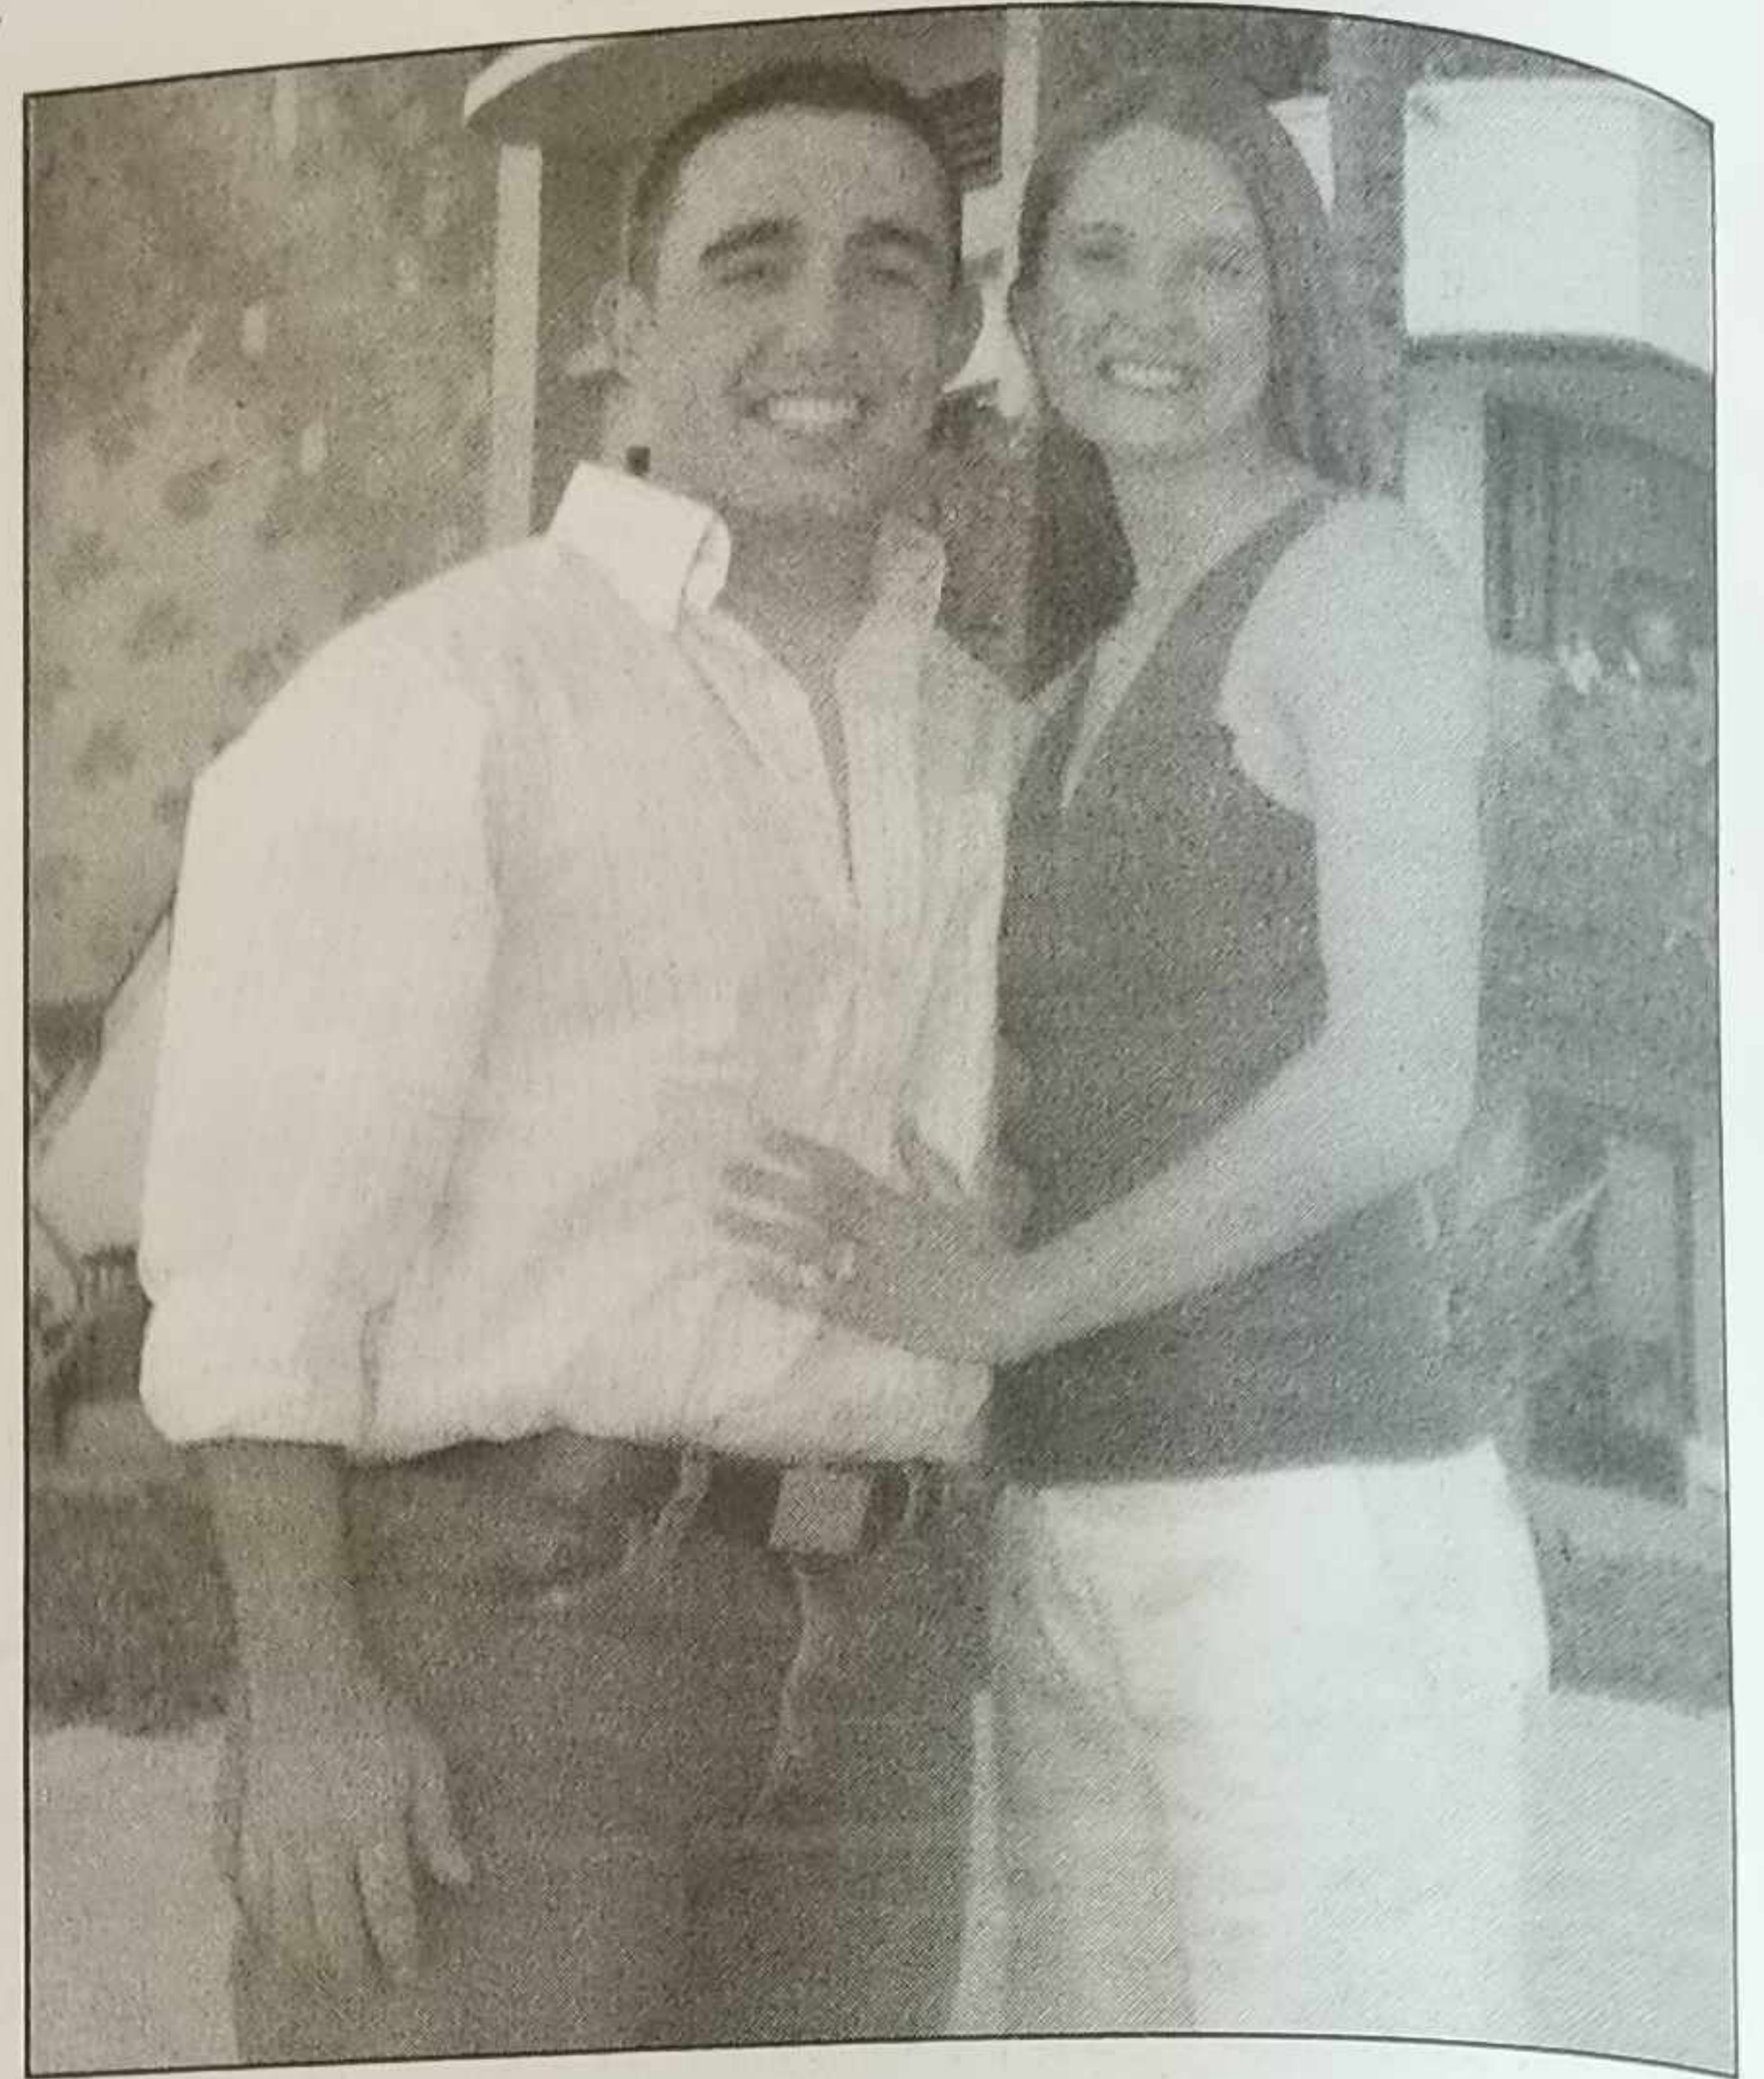

Those attending Adam's graduation ceremony were his proud parents, Lee and Deb Bunkelman of Kewaskum. Adam is the grandson of Marion Bunkelman of Kewaskum and is a 2008 graduate of Kewaskum High School.

UW-Madison group to perform at KHS Theater

"Redefined," an A Cappella vocal group from UW-Madison will perform on Saturday, March 20, at 7:00 in the Kewaskum High School Theater. Ticket prices are $5 for adults and $2 for students and Senior Citizens. The KHS Swing Choir will be the opening act.

From the founding of Redefined in 2001, it was clear that the group had a dynamic and unique sound. Redefined made their public debut on February 16, 2002 during the regional round of the International Championship of Collegiate A Cappella held at Mills Hall in Madison.

On December 6, 2002, Redefined hosted its first large theater concert. It was a smash success, selling out the 1300 seat Wisconsin Union Theater and setting a new standard for a cappella music on the UW campus and the Madison area. Redefined has continued to raise the standard for co-ed a cappella, performing across the Midwest and all over Madison. They perform a large theater concert every semester, in addition to numerous other shows throughout the year. They have quickly become favorites of fans across the country and are notorious on the Internet for their Nintendo Medley. Now an established and successful group, Redefined has released four studio albums and will be recording their fifth in spring 2010.

IN MEMORY

In memory of RICHARD HALFMANN, who passed away 24 years ago, March 7, 1986:

God saw that he was tired,
And a cure was not to be.
He put his arms around him,
And whispered, come with me.
With tearful eyes, we watched him,
So quickly slip away.
We cared for him, but we Could not make him stay.

25 Years Ago

November 30, 1984

Jon Etta, son of Ethan and Judy Etta of Kewaskum, was selected as one of 32 Wisconsin 4-H members who had the chance of a lifetime November 24-29 at the National 4-H Congress held each year in Chicago. He is a junior at Kewaskum High School.

Amber Charland, daughter of Fran and Kathy Charland, Kewaskum, has been selected as Kewaskum High School's candidate for the Wisconsin Society, Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen's Award, it has been announced.

While Gehl Company personnel worked long and hard to collect early models of Gehl farm equipment to display at Gehl Fest '84 held the past summer at West Bend, no one worked longer or harder than Craig Garbisch, a member of Kewaskum High School Class of 1984. His contribution was a gleaming red, fully restored forage harvester, vintage 1948. Garbisch, vintage 1966, first spied the old machine in a neighbor's field. After years and acres of cornfield duty, it sat there dull and rusted, and choked with weeds. Gehl began manufacturing forage harvesters in 1943, and by 1948 was turning out 2,500 units a year. Garbisch saw promise in that old machine and also saw the shop project he needed for his Ag-4 class at school. The only help Garbisch received along the way was from a high school friend helping him disassemble the machine and from Gehl supplying paint and parts. The unit will be a part of a collection of early Gehl farm equipment on display.

A daughter, Katie Lynn, was born to Tom and Pat Staehler, Kewaskum, on November 3. A daughter, Tiffany Ann, was born to George and Joan Del Ponte, Campbellsport, on November 18. A daughter was also born to Susan and James Van Beek, Campbellsport, on November 18. ## 50 Years Ago

December 25, 1959

Those who were dreaming of a "white Christmas" can stop dreaming, it's for real! With the ground bare and no snow during December, which had been a mild month, it appeared this area would not have a white covering for the holiday. But the weather made up for lost time on Tuesday afternoon and night when about six inches of snow fell. The swirling snow was accompanied by very high winds piling the snow into sizable drifts, making driving hazardous and many roads impassable.

Among the numerous servicemen from this area home on holiday leaves are the following: Pvt. Daniel Coulter, son of William Coulter Sr., Route 3, Campbellsport who recently completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, CA; Wayne Coulter, 3rd Bn., F Co., NATTC, Memphis 55, TN; Pvt. Lawrence Nischke, RA16635575 O/S Repl. Sta. (1264), Fort Dix, NJ, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nischke, Route 2, Kewaskum; A/c3 Thomas A. Smith AF 16635307 B07 3421 Sturon Lowry AFB CO. He is from Kohlsville.

A daughter, Lisa Jean, was born to Rev. and Mrs. Glenway Backhaus of Woodville, Wisconsin, on December 19. Rev. Backhaus is a former resident.

were neither absent nor tardy the past six weeks: David Backus, Rachael Brauchle, Marion Ramthun, Jerome Stautz, Lloyd Bruessel, Helen Bunkelman, James Keller, Lois Klukas, Valeria Koerble, Betty Krueger, Ray Schneider and Doris Mae Stahl. These pupils were the winners in the Good Conduct Race: Lois Vorpahl, Doris Mae Stahl, Lois Koch, Marion Ramthun and Rachael Brauchle.

Miss Marcella Casper, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S.N. Casper of this village, who recently graduated from St. Joseph's School of Nursing, Milwaukee, was successful in passing the examination given by the Wisconsin State Board of Health. Miss Casper received an average of 87.6, which ranked highest in her group of 125 classmates. She now holds the certificate of a registered nurse and may append R.N. to her name. At present, Miss Casper is employed at St. Joseph's Hospital, Milwaukee.

Miss Charlotte Lay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lay, and Miss Linda Rosenheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Rosenheimer, all of Kewaskum, were given parts in the annual Christmas play to be given by the students of Milwaukee-Downer College on December 15. Both of the girls were graduated from Kewaskum High School and Miss Lay is now a junior while Miss Rosenheimer is a sophomore at the college.

Comeback efforts produce third place for Cody Seibel, fifths for Bo Seibel and Scoles

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

MADISON - The sport wasn't basketball, but rebounding was definitely the key to a successful conclusion to the WIAA State Wrestling Tournament for a good number of the six Kewaskum Indians participating in the event.

After stumbling in the Division 2 quarterfinal round Friday, Brett Scoles, Bo Seibel and Cody Seibel all bounced back to reach the victory stand in their weight classes.

"(We had) the same number of placers as last year," KHS Coach Dennis Aupperle said about the performances of his athletes. "A couple of the (Friday afternoon) matches could have gone either way. After that, those three really picked it up and did a nice job."

Cody Seibel ended a very successful wrestling career with a 10-2 major decision over Alex Schleis of Kewaunee/Algoma to take third place at 215 pounds. As a sophomore, Seibel took fifth in his weight class, then last year he did not advance through the sectional.

Seibel finished with a record of 33-2, and for his career wound up with 131 victories, which is third highest in Kewaskum history. Only Scott Rhoads (134) and assistant coach Joel Dzedzic (132) rank ahead of him.

Bo Seibel came back from a devastating overtime loss in the quarterfinals to eventually top Noah McLay of Ellsworth 5-4 for fifth place at 160, one place higher than he finished a year ago.

The younger Seibel ended his year at 35-6.

The freshman Scoles drew the difficult task of going up against Campbellsport's Ryan Costello in the first round of wrestlebacks, and this time he was the better man, winning 6-4. After losing to Winneconne's John Roycroft 7-0 in the next match to determine who would wrestle for third and fourth places and the two for fifth and sixth, Scoles left no doubt of his superiority over Alex Hauri of Parkview, shutting him out by a score of 5-0.

For the season, Scoles notched a record of 33-13.

Scoles opened the tournament with a win by injury over Josh Farr of Prescott.

In the quarterfinals, Scoles lost to Brett Buechler of Wrightstown 6-4 after leading 4-3 at the end of the second period.

That set up Match No. 5 with Costello. After a scoreless first period, both men scored two points in the second, then Scoles went ahead when his opponent was called for an illegal hold, and he took a 5-2 lead with a reversal.

Costello came back with a reversal with :36 left, then Scoles got away from the Cougar and held on for the win.

"I just stayed in good position and kept my head up," the young freshman beamed after the match and after receiving a hug from his grandpa, legendary Wisconsin Rapids coach, Lewie Benitz.

Bo Seibel was definitely the aggressor in his quarterfinal bout vs. Spencer Meinholz of Marshall, but each time he came close to a takedown in the first period, the two were off the mat.

Meinholz managed to escape midway in the period and added an escape at the second for a 3-0 lead. Then Seibel stormed back to tie the score with a quick sit out and a takedown with 25 seconds to go.

The KHS wrestler looked fresh starting the overtime and went for another single, which Meinholz counted and turned into a takedown and a nearfall for the win.

"When I was riding, he kept balling up," Seibel said about the match, adding, "I thought I had the takedown (in OT), but he just rolled through."

Cody Seibel's match against Cody Endres of Lodi also came down to one big move at the end of the first period, giving Endres a 6-1 lead. After that, Seibel battled and worked to catch up, coming as close at 7-9 as Endres was whistled for a second stalling point, but he couldn't come up with two more to tie.

Seibel followed that match with a pin in 3:42 over Ryan Miesbauer of Northwestern. "I knew I could win it. I knew I had to win it," Seibel said. "I have to at least make the best out of this (tournament) that I can."

When it was suggested he and his brother still had chances to win thirds together, Seibel said, "Yeah, that would be sweet, but I wish it would have been better."

Junior Rob Maertz fell just short in his wrestleback match, losing a tough 6-4 decision to Brandon Schisel of Valders. Maertz was down 5-0 going into the third period when he lifted Schisel and set him down on the mat but outside the ring. Schisel injured his shoulder when he came down but continued the match.

Maertz (33-12) shot in for a successful throw, closing the gap to 5-4, then let Schisel go to try for a 2-point takedown and the win but ran out of time.

On Thursday evening, Maertz won his opening match, a 2-1 thriller over Zach Reister of Ellsworth, so he does come away with valuable experience which should help him in a return trip to Madison his senior year.

Neither Jared Koffke nor Caleb Olla got the chance for a second match. Both lost in the first round Thursday, ending their seasons. Koffke (30-11) wound up dropping a 6-4 decision to Tomahawk's Sam Arnott, while Olla (27-11), making his first appearance at state, came up short against Larry Masonick of Nekoosa/Port Edwards, losing 16-5. Both were integral parts of Kewaskum's successful season.

The girls' basketball team is taking momentum from its last three quarters of play against one of the best teams in state into Friday's regular season finale against conference champ Sheboygan Falls and into the playoffs.

Save for an 11-3 deficit after the first quarter, the Indians played a one-possession game with No. 3-ranked Lomira in Division 3 on Monday. Kewaskum lost 44-33 in the non-conference battle in which it had three players foul out. The Indians are 13-8 on the season, 10-3 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. Lomira got its 20th win of the year and stands at 20-1.

"It was a physical game so it really got everybody kind of pumped and wanting to play really hard," said senior forward Elissa Miller in anticipation of Friday's rematch with Falls.

It doesn't hurt in prepping the Indians for the week after, either, when the one-game tournament begins.

"It shows us what we're going to be coming up against because we know what's in our conference. Now that what's out there," said senior point guard Anna Butler.

"We're hoping it will prepare us for when we get to regionals, that it will help us learn how to compete with teams that are good," Miller said.

On Monday, Kewaskum got behind by as many as 15 points and could never get closer than seven. Twice in the first quarter after Indian defensive rebounds Lomira guard Emily Neitzel stole the ball and scored to help put Kewaskum in a hole.

from 15 feet away, has faded. On Monday, the Indians went 6-for-13 to the Lions' 18-for-28.

"We're going to work on free throws," Kleinhans said.

On Friday, the Indians look to even the score with undefeated EWC champ Sheboygan Falls and avoid their only season sweep of the two games. On Jan. 12, Kewaskum had a cold shooting night in losing 55-46 to the Falcons.

Sheboygan Falls enters the game with a 13-0 EWC record. Kewaskum has solo second place sealed at 10-3.

The game pits Kewaskum's top-ranked conference defense, allowing 40.4 points per game, against Sheboygan Falls' top offense (57.8).

Some of the EWC's top players face off as Butler is the third-leading scorer with 12.8 points per game and Falls' 5-foot-11 power forward Lauren Carman is second at 13.8. Butler leads the conference in assists (4.5) and steals (3.4).

On the boards, Carman ranks third at nine per game, behind teammate Eimilie Lefin at 10.5. Indian Candace Beine is fourth at 7.78.

Against New Holstein last Friday, the Indians reached double-digit conference wins and halted a two-game losing streak in a patient, 45-34 success.

Ten EWC victories are more than the Indians had overall the past two seasons combined.

Kewaskum, namely its coach, set some lofty goals at the beginning of the season, "but I don't think that we imagined that we would be beating these teams that killed us in the past year, that we'd be beating them by this much," Miller said after the game.

Butler didn't even think about 10 conference wins.

"No, I didn't, actually, to tell the truth. Feels good, though," she said.

Kewaskum got contributions from several in different ways.

"We got a lot of help off the bench. I thought Haylie Hansen played great D again. That's three games in a row for her. She got a couple good shots off," Kleinhans said. "I thought Elissa Miller played great D on that (Chelsi) Cash." "Anna played real well again, she made some good plays, good passes," he said.

Miller and Butler each scored 12 and Rauch eight. Miller pulled down eight boards. Cash led the Huskies with 13.

Just like in its 47-35 win at New Holstein Jan. 21 in which the Indians got out to a 17-9 lead after one quarter, Kewaskum started hot again. This time the Indians took a 12-3 advantage.

In the second quarter, like on Jan. 21, the Indians failed to put away their opponents. Kewaskum held a 25-22 halftime lead in the first meeting and a 21-10 lead in the second.

The Huskies played the Indians even in the second half, 24-24. Kleinhans would like to see more killer instinct out of his team.

"We haven't learned how to put them away," he said.

But, after blowing a 14-point lead against Ozaukee on Feb. 23, the coach liked his team's patience.

"I thought we were patient. That guy (Huskies coach Tom Hau) had a great game plan. He wanted to really slow it down against us and he did a great job of it," he said. "At times again tonight we were real patient and then we scored. And then there were times we were so fast and then we don't score. You're playing with the lead. Protect it a little bit."

"That game on Tuesday slipped away from us and we all know it. And we knew that patience would have helped us a lot," Butler said. "We didn't have it on Tuesday and we needed it tonight if we wanted to keep the lead, especially since our last game vs. New Holstein we had the lead and then let it slip away again." Against Ozaukee Feb. 23, the Indians tested out their village's upgraded wastewater treatment plant, sending a 14-point lead through the system into a 59-51 loss.

No word yet on whether the state Department of Natural Resources allows such things.

Kewaskum turned a five-point halftime lead into a 39-25 advantage with 3:00 to go in the third quarter before letting it slip away.

Or before Warrior point guard Kaitlyn Thill took it. The senior made a school record 11 steals, many of which led to easy points. Thill led all scorers with 26, including three, three-pointers.

The Warriors outscored the Indians 25-12 in the final quarter and salted the game away at the line, going 32-for-38 in the game and 18-for-20 in the fourth quarter. The Indians went 14-for-26 for the game.

"We had 'em on the ropes. We're that close," Kleinhans said.

Miller scored 12 and had 11 rebounds. Rauch got in foul trouble early and scored seven. Jenna Buker scored five to go with seven rebounds. Butler, Beine and Christine Bohn each scored six, Hansen five and Rammer four.

PLAYOFF INFO

The Kewaskum girls' basketball team has landed a no. 3 seed and home playoff game in its regional. The Indians on Tuesday will host Ripon, 3-14 in the Eastern Valley Conference, 3-18 overall.

The teams have played one common opponent this season. Ripon lost to Lomira, 41-33, on Dec. 1. Kewaskum lost to Lomira 44-34 on Monday.

Game time is 7 p.m. and Athletic Director Jason Piittmann provided the seating assignments.

Adult fans for each school will sit behind their team's respective benches. Students will sit across from the team benches. This divides Kewaskum's gym in half, the west end for home fans and east end for visitors. The pep band will be on the student side as well.

Should Kewaskum win, the Indians on Thursday would face the winner of no. 2 seeded-Kettle Moraine Lutheran (8-5 in the Flyway Conference, 15-6 overall) and no. 7 seeded-Campbellsport (3-10 Eastern Wisconsin Conference, 4-17). EWC champion Sheboygan Falls (13-0, 15-5) is the no. 1 seed in the sectional.
