By Andrew Kuehl

KEWASKUM- A village of Kewaskum Police Officer was injured in the line of duty early Sunday morning. While pursuing a subject in the village, the part-time officer fell off a retaining wall and broke his leg in three places.

Kewaskum Chief of Police Richard Knoebel reported that Officer Luke Wilhelm was watching three individuals who were removing political signs from a business in the 900 block of Fond du Lac Avenue shortly after 3 a.m. Sunday. He approached the three but one subject fled on foot. Later the officer made contact with the subject who was found hiding in the dumpster of a nearby business.

The subject again fled on foot towards apartments on Timblin Drive. While pursuing the subject the second time, Officer Wilhelm became injured.

Kewaskum Rescue Squad responded as did another police officer who was in the village providing security at River Hill Park for the Early Farm Days Show later that day. Washington County Sheriff's Deputies also arrived to search for the subject and remained in the village until another officer could take over Wilhelm's shift.

Officer Wilhelm was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend and has undergone surgery. Chief Knoebel indicated Officer Wilhelm will undergo extensive rehabilitation for the next six weeks.

The subject has not been found. Police know the individual and charges of resisting arrest, criminal damage to property and obstruction have been requested of the Washington County District Attorney.

Globalization is topic of UWWC community lecture series

WEST BEND - Globalization is the focus of UW-Washington County's Community Lecture Series for 2010/11. Five Wednesday evening lectures are planned for September 29, October 6, 13, 20 and November 3. The one hour lectures begin at 7pm and are followed by question and answer. Admission is free and no reservations are needed. The popular lecture series welcomes area adults as well as high school and college students.

Dr. Aliko Songolo, Professor of African Literature and Film at UW-Madison, is the speaker for the first lecture on Wednesday, September 29. Dr. Songolo's lecture titled "Cultural Influences of Africa," will focus on Africa's experience with cinema over the past 50 years, including a discussion of "Nollywood." Professor Songolo is the Chair of the Department of French and Italian at UW-Madison.

This first lecture in the series is also designated as the Matt Zillig Memorial Lecture. Matt Zillig was a University of Wisconsin graduate, a world traveler and an active community supporter. After his death in 2008, an endowment was established by his friends and colleagues to sponsor an annual lecture relating to global citizenship at UW-Washington County. This is the second such lecture to honor Zillig. A social featuring African foods and refreshments will follow this lecture.

The complete series - with dates and topics include:

Wed. Sept. 29: Cultural Influence of Africa. Speaker: Dr. Aliko Songolo, UW-Madison

Wed. October 6: Water, Development and Sustainability: Global Challenges and Local Choices. Speaker: Dr. Tim Ehlinger, UW-Milwaukee

Wed., October 13: Different Worlds of Globalization. Speaker: Dr. Shale Horowitz, UW-Milwaukee

Wed., October 20: Climate Change and Wisconsin Impact. Speaker: Dr. Daniel Vimont, UW-Madison

Wed. November 3: Food Safety in a Globally Connected World. Speaker: Dr. Stephanie Tai, UW-Madison Law School

The purpose of the lecture series is to provide fundamental information and a better understanding of a topic, which is chosen each year by the UW-WC Lectures Committee. Members of the Lectures Committee for the 2010/11 series included Sue Bausch (University Relations), Dr. Mike Mattek (English), Dr. Talitha Selby (Chemistry), Dr. Kirk Tyvela (History), Dan Anhalt (Continuing Education) and SGA student representatives, Jessica Gray and Jacob Lawrence.

Information about the Lecture Series is also available on the campus website at www.washington.uwc.edu. The first lecture meets in the theatre. All other lectures meet in Room 228. The theatre and Room 228 are located on the second floor of the campus at 400 University Drive in West Bend. Use the main entrance and follow the directional signs. Free parking is available.

A visit with Mary Todd Lincoln

Everyone is invited to enjoy a sparkling evening experiencing Jessica Michna's portrayal of Mary Todd Lincoln. This special event takes place Tuesday, September 21, at 7:00p.m., at the Old Courthouse Museum.

Mary Todd Lincoln was one of the most enigmatic women to reside in the White House. Daughter of a Lexington Kentucky banker, Mary was an outspoken and vivacious young woman. She was courted by Stephen Douglas but chose to marry Abraham Lincoln. Her years in the White House were shadowed by the tragedy of personal loss and the horrors of the Civil War.

Ms. Michna's portrayal brings this interesting character from history to life. You will laugh at her anecdotes of being married to one of the most famous presidents in the United States and cry at the losses she endured.

This very special evening is $3 per person. Washington County Historical Society members are free. For more information, please call Jessica Couch at the Washington County Historical Society at 262-335-4678.

We would like to say thank you to all our family and friends for the love and support that has been shown. It has been a difficult six months, with the loss of both Mick and Cory.

We were finally given some closure as to the reason why we lost Cory so suddenly. He was born with a rare, abnormal, left ventricular, which had caused his heart to stop.

Fire leveled a large barn and destroyed thousands of dollars of farm machinery last Wednesday afternoon on the Elroy Eger farm about 2-1/2 miles southwest of Beechwood. The loss was estimated at over $40,000. Barely two hours after the blaze was reported by the Egerers' 12-year-old son, Joseph, the barn and an adjoining 30 by 48 foot storage building were in smoldering ruin. The loss included over 100 tons of recently mown hay and a variety of equipment, including a cornpicker, chopper, swather, blower and hammermill, stored in the 40 by 100 foot barn. All the livestock was saved. The Egerers' two-story frame farmhouse, less than 100 feet from the barn, was not damaged. But the barn, adjoining structure and most of the farm machinery inside was a total loss.

The residence on the Anton Schiller farm in the Town of Kewaskum, three miles east of the village, was totally destroyed by fire together with all contents belonging to Mr. Sarnson, the tenant, who moved onto the place about a year ago.

Frank, the one-and-a-half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schneider of the Town of Farmington, met death by drowning in a trough full of water. The child was playing in the barnyard around the trough where the cattle are watered and he fell headlong into it. The father saw the child fall into the water, but before he could reach him, the infant was dead.

At a special joint meeting of the Kewaskum Fire Department held at the village hall last Wednesday evening, it was decided to hold a picnic and ball at the North Side Park on September 11. N.J. Mertes, Jake Schlosser and F.E. Colvin were appointed a committee.

A freight train going south through here last Monday at midnight had a narrow escape from meeting with a bad wreck south of here. A broken brake beam caused the derailing of a car while the train was running at a high rate of speed. The car was dragged along for several rods before the train was stopped. The track was also badly torn up.

The Kewaskum roller mill, which was being repaired lately is now in running order. Herman Suckow is in charge of the mill at present.

Al Schaefer, Joseph Eberle, Fred Witzig, Ervin Koch and Oscar Koerble took in the Buffalo Bill show in Milwaukee on Sunday.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zwaschka last Tuesday. A baby boy was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Marx at Milwaukee last Monday.

The Fabulous Flavors of FALL

FAMILY FEATURES

Fall brings a whole new set of flavors to the table, and that's reason enough to celebrate with friends.

Award-winning celebrity chef and cookbook author Michael Chiarello has created some delicious seasonal dishes that make the most of autumn's bounty and make it easy to entertain.

"If you want to create beautiful food for your friends and family, the most important thing you can do is start your recipes with the best possible ingredients," says Chiarello. "Progresso makes it easy to fill your pantry with the very finest ingredients." Using Progresso 100% natural broth and panko bread crumbs, Chiarello has created dishes with exceptional flavor and paired them with the award-winning wines of the Cavit Collection.

Find more seasonal recipes at www.progressofoods.com and www.cavitcollection.com.

Chef Michael Chiarello

Turkey Scallopini and Squash Ravioli with Cranberry Brown Butter

Makes 8 servings
Prep Time: 10 minutes
Start to Finish: 30 minutes

- 8 portions boneless turkey breast (4 ounces each)
- 1/4 cup extra virgin olive oil
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 2 cups Progresso plain panko crispy bread crumbs
- 1 stick (8 tablespoons) unsalted butter
- 1 package (18 ounces) frozen squash ravioli
- 1/4 cup finely chopped fresh sage or 2 teaspoons dried sage
- 1 1/2 cups fresh cranberries
- 3 tablespoons dark molasses
- 1/4 cup balsamic vinegar
- 1 cup Progresso chicken broth or reduced-sodium chicken broth
- Salt and pepper

Bring 4 quarts lightly salted water to a boil in a large pot.

Between two sheets of plastic wrap, pound turkey breast pieces to an even 1/4-inch thickness with a meat mallet. If you don't have a meat mallet, the back of a frying pan will work fine. You can do this a day ahead and leave them stored in the plastic wrap, folded over on each other. You can also ask a good butcher to cut and pound the turkey for you.

Heat olive oil in a large sauté pan over medium-high heat. Lightly coat turkey pieces with flour, and pat off excess; dip in beaten eggs and then dredge in bread crumbs. When oil is hot and bubbling, add turkey pieces. Do not crowd the pan. Let brown about 1 minute, then turn to cook the second side, another 30 seconds. The turkey will cook very quickly and will dry out if overcooked. When done, remove to a baking sheet or platter and keep warm. Do not wash sauté pan!

To make the sauce, add butter to sauté pan and place over medium-high heat. At the same time, drop ravioli into the boiling water. When butter begins to turn light brown, add fresh sage. Stir for a few seconds; then add cranberries, and sauté until skins begin to burst. Add molasses, balsamic vinegar and broth, scraping bottom of the pan to pick up all the flavor of the turkey. Simmer until cranberries are soft and the sauce coats the back of a spoon, about 2 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Be sure to taste sauce for seasoning before you pour it over the turkey.

Test ravioli for doneness in about 3 minutes — pinch edges of dough; it should be tender. Drain. Divide ravioli among hot plates and layer a piece of turkey over the ravioli. Spoon sauce over them.

Tip: The sauce must be put together very quickly, so have all the ingredients premeasured and ready at the side of the stove.

Enjoy with Cavit Riesling or Pinot Noir.

Wine Pairing

When it comes to pairing wine and food, there are some general guidelines that will result in great combinations. However, everyone's sense of taste is different and what tastes good to one person may not taste good to another. If you find a combination that you like, but it doesn't follow the guidelines, don't worry — just enjoy! Part of the fun is experimenting with different combinations to find the ones you like best.

- 1/2 teaspoon ground toasted coriander, if desired
- 1 1/2 cups Roasted Winter Squash (above)
- 1/2 cup half-and-half, if desired
- 2 tablespoons toasted pumpkin seeds
- 1/2 cup Progresso plain panko crispy bread crumbs, toasted light brown in sauté pan over medium heat

To make roasted winter squash: Heat oven to 375°F. Heat butter over medium-high heat in an ovenproof sauté pan; add diced squash, salt and pepper. When squash begins to brown, place pan in oven. Roast for 15 minutes or until medium-brown on all sides. Remove from oven and let cool slightly. Puree in food processor, or mash with potato masher or ricer. Measure 1 1/2 cups squash; reserve.

To make soup: Heat olive oil in large saucepan over medium heat until hot. Add onion, celery, carrot and cinnamon stick; sauté until soft but not brown, about 10 minutes. Season with salt and pepper. Add broth and coriander; bring to a boil. Simmer for several minutes. Stir in reserved squash until smooth; simmer gently to let flavors meld, about 10 minutes. Discard cinnamon stick.

Puree soup using an immersion blender or in a blender until smooth. (The soup can be made ahead to this point, cooled, covered, and refrigerated for several days or frozen for about 1 month. It will thicken as it cools and may need thinning with broth or water when reheating.)

Return soup to pan and reheat gently. Add half-and-half. Adjust seasoning with salt and pepper. Top each serving with pumpkin seeds and toasted bread crumbs.

Tip: Depending on how rich you want it, or how cold it is outside, you can use cream, yogurt or mascarpone instead of half-and-half.

Enjoy with Cavit Chardonnay.

Mama Chiarello's Stuffed Eggplant

Makes 4 servings
Prep Time: 30 minutes
Start to Finish: 1 hour 20 minutes

- 1 large eggplant
- 3 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- 1/2 teaspoon grey sea salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/2 pound ground beef
- 1 onion, diced small (about 1 cup)
- 1 red bell pepper, diced small (about 1 cup)
- 3 cloves garlic, finely chopped
- 1/2 cup chopped fresh parsley
- 1/2 cup chopped fresh basil leaves
- 1 1/4 cups grated pecorino Romano cheese
- 1/2 cup Progresso plain panko crispy bread crumbs
- 1 whole egg
- 2 chopped tomatoes

Heat oven to 350°F.

Cut eggplant in half and scoop out center, leaving enough meat inside the skin so that it holds its shape when baked. Chop eggplant that has been scooped out of the inside; place in saucepan, cover with water and boil until very soft, 10 to 12 minutes.

Meanwhile, in medium sauté pan, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil over medium heat. Salt and pepper the beef. Add seasoned ground beef to pan, and sauté until all of its liquid is evaporated and beef begins to brown slightly. Let cool briefly, and chop cooked beef so that there are no large chunks of meat. In another medium sauté pan over medium heat, add remaining 2 tablespoons olive oil, and sauté the onion, pepper and garlic together in oil.

In bowl, mix together cooked eggplant, vegetables, beef, herbs, 1 cup cheese, 1/4 cup bread crumbs and egg. Fill scooped-out eggplant halves with this mixture, dividing it evenly between the two halves.

Top with chopped tomatoes, remaining 1/4 cup cheese, remaining 1/4 cup bread crumbs, and season with salt and pepper. Place on an oiled oven tray or baking dish, and bake for 50 minutes. Let cool briefly; slice widthwise and serve.

Enjoy with Cavit Pinot Noir, Merlot or Cabernet Sauvignon.

Gridiron teams do well to open season

By Judy Harlow

The eighth graders continued their domination at home; the seventh grade posted a shutout; and the fifth graders, the "rookies" of the Gridiron football program, were all successful in season openers last Saturday against teams from Fredonia.

The eighth graders started the day with a 24-20 victory as Dylan Thull plowed his way for a pair of touchdowns.

"Dylan Thull played a great game," coach Jim Korth said, adding, "Our line played well."

Also getting in the act were Collin McCarthy, who scored the first touchdown of the year, and QB Bille Lehmann, who found paydirt on a misdirection play with 4:00 left in the game.

Cited for their efforts at defense end were McCarthy and Brad Peterson, while Derek Voight did well on kick-off coverage, and Korth said Garrett Buth and L.J. Pinchard looked good in the "D" line.

This group is 11-1 in games played at home.

Seventh graders notch win

The seventh grades scored twice in the first half, then the defense took over for a 13-0 victory.

Bert Elmazi got the opening scoring on a 6-yard run up the middle, and Charlie Witek caught a pass from Michael Prochnow, covering 27 yards for the final TD. Prochnow tossed a pass to Brandon Thull for the extra point.

"We only had 12 offensive plays in the second half," coach Randy Schlice said, reporting Ozaukee had several long drives which ate up a lot of the clock but fortunately did not end in any scores.

"Our defense bent, but it didn't break," Schlice said, praising defensive end Ben Watzig for a great game, which included causing a fumble, recovering a fumble and breaking up a pass.

Fifth graders on top

The defense scored first for the fifth graders, who came out on top, 25-21.

Willie Walters picked up a fumble and rambled 40 yards for a 6-0 lead.

Ozaukee answered with a long run out of its unusual offensive formation, but then Kewaskum took over, scoring two unanswered TDs. First, Blake Horning found the end zone from 21 yards out, and QB Gabe Christenson added the extra point on a run. Then, after Brent Goeden's fumble recovery, Cade Peterson broke several tackles on his way to a 75-yard scamper.

Kewaskum took a 25-6 lead in the third quarter after Cole Suprenant's 22-yard run after an illegal block called his previous carry to the end zone back.

The game got a lot closer in the closing minutes when the Warriors scored twice against the Indian reserves.

"The offense is starting to click," coach Jeff Logan said. "Both sides of the ball played quite well."

Sixth graders come up short

The sixth grade battled hard but came out on the short end of a 19-7 score.

Kewaskum got its lone TD on its first drive, which covered 50 yards in eight plays, according to coach Joel Tietz, who said the scoring play was a screen pass from Dalton Poole to Brady Hanson.

"Defensively, we had outstanding play from (Thomas) Strom and (Mason) Amerling," Tietz went on, noting. "We gave up too many long pass plays in the first half ... that decided the game."

The Indians also lost the battle of turnovers, coughing up two fumbles.

Kewaskum drove to the Fredonia 6-yard line in the closing minutes but lost the ball on downs.

Cross Country team posting personal bests

By Mitch Maersch

mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

Kewaskum's cross country team continues to improve as every runner had his or her personal best at last Friday's Mayville meet.

The Indian girls finished 20th out of 28 teams, with 597 points. Kiel won the meet with 57.

April Stern led with 18:58, good for 57th place.

"April Stern led the girls with an excellent time, even though she has been sick," said co-head coach Heidi Korth.

Abby Backhaus came in 61st in 19:06. Jessica Nurkala came in 105th in 20:14, Tess Bandy 140th in 21:13 and Lindsay Zuehlke 163rd in 22:06. Kelsey Koller finished in 23:03.

"The course had one tough hill, but it was no match for the Indians," Korth said.

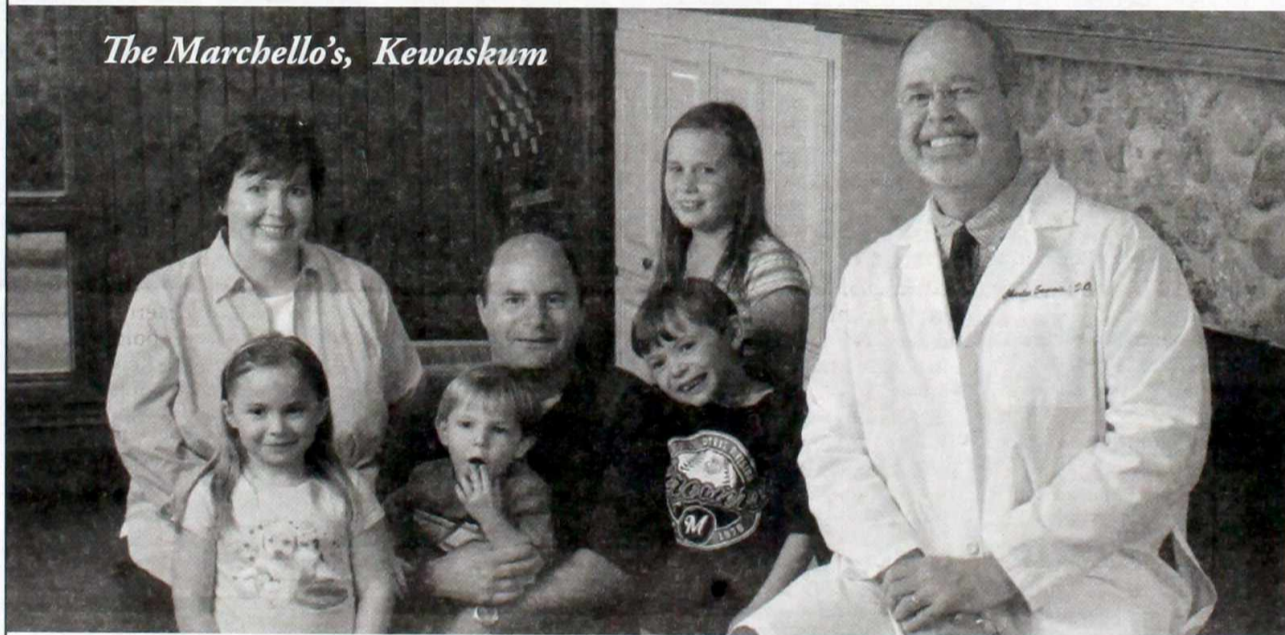

For the boys, Chris Wetzel finished in 23:23, and Matt Vogt in 25:51.

"Matt Vogt ran his first race and did well," Korth said.

On Tuesday, the Indians were scheduled to run at the Waupun Invite. On Saturday they're at Ripon.

By Mitch Maersch
mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

Kewaskum's tennis team got some help from overseas as Bolivian foreign exchange student Glenda Borht provided the only victory against Ripon on Monday.

The Indians lost the match, 6-1.

Borht won at No. 4 singles, 6-3, 3-6, 6-2.

"She had a long, three-set match, that she pulled out 6-3, 3-6, 6-2, finishing after dark," said Coach Matthew Fehlhaber.

Borht is joined by two other foreign exchange students on the team this season, one from Brazil and another from France.

The Indians' top two doubles teams lost close, straight set matches. The No. 1 team of Chelsea Watzig and Olivia Gitter lost, 5-7, 2-6, and the No. 2 team of Anna Bernhagen and Bridgette Wade lost, 6-7, 2-6.

The Indians are 3-4 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. On Thursday, they head to Chilton.

Indians continue their third place run

By Judy Harlow

Another third place and a fourth in Wisconsin Little Ten action have established the Kewaskum's girls golf team firmly in the third sport in the season standings, but coach Amy Piwoni is urging her girls to continue to play hard until all the matches are completed.

"We have to take care of business Thursday (today, in the final meet at Oconomowoc) and at conference," Piwoni said Sunday. We can't get complacent."

There were no signs of it last week when the Indians shot a 226 (third) and 212 (fourth) at West Bend CC and Watertown, respectively. Yes, the 226 was high, but all the scores were high that day, thanks to gale wind conditions. "It was miserable out there," the coach said.

Hartford won the meet with a 203, followed by Watertown, which lost on a tie-breaker. Erin Lange of Watertown won the medal with a 9-over-par 46, impressive in such conditions.

Kate Winkler was low for Kewaskum with a 55. "She was on pace to shoot fifty," Piwoni said, but she got in the sand on No. 8 and struggled on No. 9. "She was not very happy."

Megan Gavin had a solid round, shooting a 56, then came Heather Zuehlke and Sienna Warncke with 57 and 58, respectively.

At Watertown, again Hartford finished first with a 195, seven shots ahead of Watertown's 202, led by the medalist, Taylor Egnarski, who carded a 45.

Winkler and Zuehlke paced the Indians with 51s, and both had chances to break 50. Winkler played all but the par 3s very well, according to Piwoni, who said Zuehlke's round was perhaps "her best of the year."

Gavin and April Basterdash were the other two counters with 54 and 56, respectively.

The Indians finished fourth at Oconomowoc snuck in ahead of them with a 207.

After five matches, Hartford and Watertown are dead even with 8 points each, followed by Kewaskum, 15 points; Oconomowoc, 23; West Bend, 25; and Beaver Dam, 26.

Indians kickers play hard get near win against Waupun

Indians rough up Raiders with rushing

Kiel came in with a plan to stop Eric Perkins last Friday, and for good reason.

After 429 yards rushing and six touchdowns in two games, Perkins was who opponents had to scheme against.

Well, Kewaskum said, we have more weapons than that, and promptly unleashed quarterback Cody Nuernberg, who bounced, darted, juked and shook his way for 111 yards rushing and touchdown, and battering ram fullback Bo Seibel, who plowed for 49 yards and a score.

The Indians built a 28-7 first-half lead and won 35-14. Kewaskum didn't want just one player to get 2,500 yards rushing and 36 touchdowns in one season, anyway. That's just not sound offense, and it comes off as rather gluttonous. Beyond that, the Raiders didn't exactly stop Perkins, anyway. They barely slowed him. He ran for 143 yards and two scores on 19 carries for 7.5-yard per-rush average, though that's a piddly outing compared to his first two weeks when he rushed for 200-plus yards in each game and averaged 12 yards a pop.

The three-pronged rushing attack makes the Indians even tougher to defend than before.

"We've always wanted to be able to do that and that's part of what we have our offense designed to do," said Coach Jason Piittmann. "We've got to be more than one back. Other people are going to key on that and take that away. And that's the advantage we have with Nuernberg's shiftiness and Bo being able to run the ball with power."

Nuernberg shifted into a higher gear most of the night, faking out Raiders right and left in making his way downfield. Many of his big runs came on passing plays when he decided to scramble, like his 30-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

"I always have my eyes downfield looking to pass but when I see open field I like to take off and run. I guess I've got the ability to make people miss. I don't have breakaway speed," he said. "I like to break guys down and just sidestep them, just not try to take the big hit, try to get away."

Nuernberg's reads often had him handing to his fullback for a plow up the gut. Seibel obliged by carrying the pile a few times.

"A lot of the times I'll see something where a tackle will come up and I'll see the hole and I'll give it to him. He's for sure getting three-four yards a pop," Nuernberg said.

"I just like getting the ball. I'm a fullback so it's my job to get four, five yards a carry. Perkins' job is to get the touchdowns," Seibel said.

Seibel scored late in the second quarter on a seven-yard rumble, stumble and bumble.

"Yeah, I told myself I'm scoring on this. I almost didn't make it but I got in," he said.

The Indians' salted the game away in the fourth quarter on their first clock-killing drive of the season. Up 28-14 with Kiel threatening at the 25, cornerback Danny Bohn watched the quarterback and leaped for an interception thrown over the heads of Raiders who hadn't yet turned to look back for the ball.

With 11:53 to play, the Indians embarked on an 18-play drive that ate up seven minutes and 29 seconds.

The Indians converted four third downs on the drive. On a third and seven, Nuernberg hit Gonring for 10 on an out pattern. On a third and six, he hit Ryan Ogi on a slant for 16. On a third and two, Seibel blasted for six. On a third and one, Perkins beat enough defenders to the outside for two.

"It was more just a lot of will for us. Coaches really want us to just put a drive together," Nuernberg said. "In the huddle everybody was like, 'Let's go, let's go,' everybody's getting up. We just wanted to put the game away and have a sustaining drive because we didn't really have one all game. We have tendencies to score pretty quick. It felt good to put the finishing touches on that drive and get it in the end zone. It took a lot of time off the clock. That's what we were trying to do."

"That was the nice thing. We were able to run clock really well," Piittmann said.

It took four first-and-goals and two touchdowns to put the game away because both teams kept breaking the rules. The four were more plays than the Indians ran in the red zone in their first two games combined because they like to score on big plays instead of messing around inside the 20.

Kewaskum got a five-yard penalty at the six, and the Raiders returned the favor with one that moved the ball to the four. Perkins went airborne and reached the ball across the goal line, but Kewaskum was called for holding. On the fourth first and goal from the 14, Perkins burst up the middle to end it. He scored untouched as the Raiders had tried to take away the outside all night. The Indians moved to 1-0 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference and 3-0 overall. But this was a tougher game against Kiel than Piittmann remembers in a while.

"We got gassed a little bit. Kiel is very well coached, very hard hitting team. They hit harder than any Kiel team we've seen in recent history," Piittmann said. "They were well prepared for us. They did a good job. We got a couple breaks, a couple plays and put some points up early."

Kewaskum broke the ice early, taking advantage of a Mike Schladweiler interception on Kiel's first possession. On third and 15 from Kiel's 23, the Indians' fourth play from scrimmage, Nuernberg lofted a jump ball to one of his favorite targets, Sam Olla, who outwrestled a defender and came down with the ball in the right corner of the end zone.

It was Olla's third straight game with a touchdown reception.

The Raiders nearly answered on the ensuing kickoff. Isaiah Herzog returned the kick from the 15 to Kiel's 45. He was tackled by Indians kicker Hunter Flanders, the last man he had to beat.

The Raiders tied it on an option play with a 67-yard score. As quarterback Geddy Nordby was being tackled, he pitched to Herzog who had nothing but grass in front of him.

Perkins answered on the next play from scrimmage with his weekly 50-yard-plus touchdown run. This one totaled 59 yards and had the speedy back zipping down the left sideline.

Nuernberg's 30-yard score made it 21-7 and Seibel's run pushed it to 28-7.

Herzog nearly scored on the kick return again, this time with Tony Gonring punching out his legs at Kewaskum's 45. The Raiders later scored on the drive when running back Cody Retlick took it in from nine yards out to make it 28-14 at the break.

Piittmann said he will address the special teams breakdowns.

"We look good at times and then we gave up some big ones so I've got to go back to the drawing board and look at that and figure out what we have to do differently," he said.

The Indians on Friday will pile onto the bus for the road trip all the way to rival Campbellsport for the annual Kettle Moraine Bowl. The Cougars come into the game 1-0 in conference after a 28-6 beat down of Sheboygan Falls and 1-2 overall.

NOTES

Eric Perkins now has 572 yards rushing on the season and eight touchdowns. He is averaging 11.897 yards per carry. If he was a plane, he would earn frequent flyer miles.

Nifty moves: On third and three late in the second quarter, Cody Nuernberg looked to be trapped on the left sideline as the Indians were threatening to score in the second quarter. The senior faked one way, went another and burst into a sprint for an 18-yard run. Bo Seibel later scored on the drive.

Big hits: In the second quarter, junior Kenny Gigstead welcomed Kiel's David Esswein to Kewaskum with a hard hit and solid tackle on a kick return.

Linebacker Joey Wollner stuck a Raider ball carrier low, picked him up and put him on the ground, limiting him to a two-yard gain in the second quarter.

Mueller still OK: Beloved trainer Emily Mueller didn't get knocked on her fanny for the second straight game, although any play that got near Kewaskum's bench Mueller quickly backpedaled, sometimes all the way into the third row of the stands.

Since this is the second week of uneventful Mueller updates, this bit is getting boring now so the Statesman won't provide Mueller's status again this season unless it changes, and it has to be funny.

"Preserving memories for generations to come."
