Farmington board to hold special referendum meeting Oct. 19

TOWN OF FARMINGTON - The town discussed some details Tuesday night for its presentation at next week's information meeting on the Nov. 2 road repair referendum.

Farmington's referendum is for $200,000 per year to continue until it is voted down at an annual meeting.

Next Tuesday at 7 p.m. at Farmington Elementary School, town treasurer Ken Ramthun and Town Board members will lead a discussion how the referendum will affect residents' taxes, the reason the town is holding the referendum and the scope of the town's budget, namely where people's money go.

With an expected 3 percent levy limit next year, approving the referendum would raise the town's mill rate 48 cents from $1.03 to $1.51. The owner of a $200,000 home would pay an additional $96 in taxes per year and the owner of a $300,000 home would pay $144.

But the Town Board doesn't like how the referendum is worded on the ballot which is done according to the state law. It says taxes would rise by 48.62 percent, an accurate percentage. But the board fears residents will interpret their entire property tax bill will rise by that percentage, not just the town's mill rate.

That will be clarified at Tuesday's informational meeting.

Ramthun said the average property value in the town is $255,680. Passing the referendum would increase that property's taxes by $61. The average property pays $3,262 in taxes, Ramthun said, but only $255 of which go to the Town.

State aid has not kept up with the increasing costs of road repairs and revenue limits don't allow the town to raise enough money to keep up, either, triggering the referendum. At last year's annual meeting, residents narrowly voted to hold the referendum.

Farmington Supervisor Art Seyfert has said regrinding one mile of road and coating it twice with blacktop today costs $150,000 when seven years ago the bill was $65,000.

Transportation aid next year from the state totals $138,134.25, which has to cover snowplowing, salt purchase and all road repairs on the town's 66 miles of road.

Farmington is one of two area towns holding a road repair referendum. The Town of Kewaskum is holding a non-binding, advisory, $200,000 referendum. But since the vote is non-binding, even if the referendum passes, the Town Board has final say on whether or not to borrow $200,000. With interest, the tax increase would be $68 on a $200,000 home.

The Kewaskum Town Board has not specified what kind of majority vote would trigger it to go ahead with the borrowing, but has said a simple majority would likely not be enough.

KSD to host community forums through May

By Mitch Maersch

mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

Kewaskum School District Superintendent Michael Krumm knows there's a world outside Kewaskum. He's bringing pieces of it to a library near you.

Krumm has started the Kewaskum Public Affairs Forum, a series of speakers and videos that address topics from Wisconsin government to poetry and personal finance to food, and plenty more.

The idea is to open students' perspectives to a world outside the village of 4,000 and even the state and country.

"We tried to create an environment where our students are looking at the world larger than our region or area," Krumm said.

Students aren't the only beneficiaries. While speakers address one high school grade level during the school day, they talk to the general public at night - for free. Events are held at 6:30 p.m. in the high school library, an intimate setting making for an easy environment for questions and answers - "and that's what we want," Krumm said.

Krumm initially got input from curriculum groups within the district, then contacted Ben Merens of Wisconsin Public Radio, who led him to speakers who served as good radio interviews. Merens himself will be speaking on listening on Dec. 16.

Most speakers are free. Some are compensated because they are missing work, Krumm said.

Public attendance since the first event on Sept. 14 has grown, Krumm said. About half is adult and half students. Grade levels who miss the speaker are encouraged to attend the public event.

Locally made jerky makes it aboard the USS Harry Truman

By Mitch Maersch
mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

CAMPBELLSPORT - Somewhere halfway around the world, American heroes fighting terrorism on an aircraft carrier are snacking on jerky made at a local meat market, and perhaps fighting over who gets the last piece.

But not just any jerky. And by specific request.

The story connects residents from a few local municipalities proving the old cliché it's a small world after all.

Henry Hile of Mequon had purchased a five-pound bag of Mike's Country Meats beef jerky from a Cedarburg store and shipped it to his nephew, James, a Petty Officer First Class on the USS Harry Truman.

Hile soon got a request for more.

"They must have liked it a lot because he wouldn't have said anything," Hile said.

Apparently, one such request came from a rank a bit higher than a petty officer. The captain of the ship got wind of the tasty snack and said something to the effect of "Where's that jerky? I heard it's good. I want some."

A 40-pound order soon came through the meat market's Web site. Knowing where it was going, owners Mike and Lora Nitschke threw in some extra for free.

About 5,000 sailors, or the first however many who can get their hands on it, are receiving a mix of hot, pepper and regular jerky.

"We're just kind of proud," said Lora.

"It's kind of interesting. It went to the middle of the Mediterranean," said Mike.

The sailors were so impressed they made a plaque for Mike's Country Meats in the shape of their ship. Henry delivered it this week.

"He (James) is very proud that his uncle supports the troops, and Mike and Lora," he said.

The connections to the various municipalities come through one of Mike's employees, Steve Biertzer. Steve grew up in Mayville a few houses from Mike and the two have known each other for 45 years.

Biertzer later moved to Cedarburg and became a next-door neighbor of Henry Hile's son, Mark.

Biertzer worked for Hoffmann's Sausages in Cedarburg, where Hile used to buy his meat, before the business was closed a couple of years ago, completing a 92-year run. Biertzer asked for and received the recipe from the owner and now makes that sausage at Mike's Country Meats in Campbellsport.

Rollover in the Town of Wayne

The driver of this Chevrolet S-10 truck escaped injury after a rollover crash near the intersection of Highways H and W in the Town of Wayne Tuesday afternoon shortly after 4:30 p.m. The truck rolled between two trees in the front yard of Pastor Dan Schultz, barely missing he and his wife Jennifer's son. Schultz stated he put out a small fire with an extinguisher while his wife consoled his son who was shocked after witnessing the crash in his front yard. The Washington County Sheriff's Department and Kohlsville First Responders and Firefighters responded to the scene. The name of the truck driver who walked away with only a cut on his arm could not be obtained at press time. The sermon at Salem United Church of Christ this week is rumored to be on the topic of driving with your guardian angel.

'Project Gratitude' to benefit Boys and Girls Club members

The First Weber real estate office in West Bend is celebrating the 5th year of "Project Gratitude." This annual project provides all of the food items necessary for families of Boys and Girls Club members to prepare their Thanksgiving dinner.

The Boys and Girls Club of Washington County was started in 1998 and has grown to over 2100 members in three locations; West Bend, Jackson and Kewaskum. As membership is growing the need for assistance grows as well.

This year's First Weber goal is to raise enough money to provide Thanksgiving meals to at least 125 families at a cost of approximately $30.00 per family.

Additionally, a team of First Weber agents will be preparing and serving the annual Thanksgiving meal on Tuesday, November 23rd, at the Boys and Girls Club West Bend location, for approximately 300 individuals. The traditional meal of turkey, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, stuffing, gravy, vegetables and desserts will be served.

The combination of baskets sent home and meals served at the club is estimated to provide over 1000 meals.

"Project Gratitude 2010" is expected again to be a success thanks to the generosity of business leaders and individuals in the community.

Checks can be made out to First Weber-Project Gratitude and mailed to 1720 Clarence Court West Bend, WI 53095 and need to be received by November 8th. For further information contact Terri Fredrich at 262-478-5610 or by e-mail at tfredrich@firstweber.com.

KSD presents service awards

The Kewaskum School District presented the Service Awards during half-time of the Homecoming game on October 1. Members of the community are honored after being nominated by someone and then approved by the committee. KMS principal Christine Horbas is shown presenting the awards. The first honoree is Dr. Jerold Beerends, of Aurora Healthcare. He has been on the Indians' sidelines in sun, rain, sleet and snow, for over a decade as the volunteer football team physician.

Marlene and David Domasky were the founders of the youth baseball program in Farmington. As David coached, Marlene was at his side, organizing and fundraising to grow the program into what it is today. Both continue to be active at Peace United Church of Christ in Kewaskum. Marlene taught Sunday School and works endlessly to raise scholarship monies for all the congregational graduates.

Judy and Ethan Etta have supported the Kewaskum High School FFA for decades and started as 4-H leaders back in 1976. Even though Ethan has passed on, 34 years later Judy continues to donate her time in support of FFA, 4-H, and assisting students at the county and state fairs.

Doug Gonring has coached youth in Southeastern Wisconsin for over twenty years. He currently serves as the Indians Varsity Baseball Coach. He has also coached little league, pony league, and assisted with training girls for fast pitch. He and his family have opened their home to KHS athletes and their parents offering personalized batting or fielding instruction. Doug also helps students find post high school education where they can play baseball. Even though coaching has consumed about half of his lifetime, Doug says he would like to be most remembered, not as a coach, but as a mentor. He hopes the composure he teaches students for game day can be transferred to deal with life's frustrations.

LaVerne Hron was a former Kewaskum Elementary School teacher. After retirement, she volunteered as a tutor at Holy Trinity Catholic School in Kewaskum until almost turning 90 years young. She touched the lives of many people and will fondly be remembered for her years of service to children both as a school teacher and public library volunteer. Accepting on her family's behalf is her niece Judy Geidel.

John Kletti has been a local Boy Scout Leader for years. He also volunteers at his church, Peace United Church of Christ where he has taught Sunday School, served on the Board of Trustees, played ad-hoc maintenance man, and more importantly, taken congregational teens every other year on a canoe trip to Canada. National Life Chain motivates local pro-lifers

By Charles Nevsimal
Special to The Statesman

On occasion, silence can be the best line of defense for those who have no voice at all. Such was the case Sunday, October 3, from 2-3 p.m.

Members of Kewaskum and neighboring communities participated in National Life Chain Sunday, an annual, nationally coordinated effort to protest abortion by prayerfully standing in reverential silence as a public affirmation of their pro-life convictions.

Kewaskum's Fond Du Lac

Avenue and Main Street were crowded with members from St. Michael and Holy Trinity Catholic parishes, Kewaskum House of Prayer, Hartford's St. Killian, New Fane's St. John, and Campbellsport's Alliance Church and St. Matthew's. Approximately 50 people in all - ranging in age from 18 months to 95 years - held signs that support the pro-life mission: "Pray to End Abortion," "Jesus Forgives and Heals," "Adoption: The Loving Option," and other like messages encouraging passersby to join them in prayer.

The Life Chain has led thousands of Christians throughout North America to join local pro-life groups in defending the unborn through public ministry. The first Life Chain took place in 1987 in Yuba City and Marysville, California, 45 miles north of Sacramento. It was publicized as "a serious first step to pro-life activism." This year, more than 1,000 independent Life Chains are estimated to have participated in the silent demonstration.

Nationally known Catholic musician to perform October 20

Michael O'Brien, the Catholic singer/songwriter who used to lead the well-known Christian Pop band Newsong, is on a tour presently that has him traveling from one big city to another. But the award-winning O'Brien is taking time out of his schedule to make a layover in Kewaskum on Wednesday, October 20, for an exclusive show at St. Michael Parish (8883 Forest View Road).

The "Catholic-based" concert will feature O'Brien's original music, classics such as Gentle Woman and Prayer of St. Francis, and O'Brien's powerful conversion story.

Doors will open at 6 p.m., and the concert will follow promptly at 7 p.m.. The concert is open to the public and all ages are welcome (ages 12 and up are $10, ages 11 and younger are $5). For tickets, contact Tina Thull at (262) 689-9725 or Mary Feind at (262) 689-8934. All proceeds will benefit the Holy Trinity/St. Michael CYE/CCD program.

As a Rock'n'Roll performer and non-practicing Catholic, O'Brien made an unexpected pilgrimage to a Shrine to Our Lady, and it changed his life. He has since dedicated his talents to bringing people back to the Catholic faith, playing concerts and giving testimony all over North America.

October being the month of Our Lady and the Holy Rosary makes his stop in Kewaskum all the more timely.

Sheboygan Theatre Company announces auditions for 'The Dickens Christmas Carol Show'

The Sheboygan Theatre Company announces that open auditions for the holiday production of, "The Dickens Christmas Carol Show," the second production of the 2010-2011 season, will take place on Wednesday and Thursday, October 20 and 21. Children ages 5 to 15 are asked to come from 4:30 p.m. to audition, while ages 16 and up are to audition starting at 6:00 p.m.

The show is an adaptation of the classic and well-known Charles Dickens novel, "A Christmas Carol." Written by Arthur Scholey, the show offers a large variety of roles for all ages and genders. It is a wonderful show for newcomers to the theatre and the Sheboygan Theatre Company.

This adaptation of, "A Christmas Carol" does include some music, most of it being very traditional holiday songs, like "O Christmas Tree." The supporting cast and chorus will perform much of the music.

The featured roles include first and foremost the miserly businessman, Ebenezer Scrooge. Scrooge has allowed his whole life become about money and work. Bob Cratchit is the kind and giving man who works for Scrooge. Mr. Cratchit is married with a large family. His wife, Mrs. Cratchit is the largest specifically female role in the show. She is a loving woman who is very protective of her family loving. Other feature roles include: Scrooge's eternally optimistic and happy nephew, Fred Bannison, Jacob Marley, Scrooge's deceased business partner, Mr. Fezziwig, Scrooge's first boss and mentor who's joy and love of life is opposite of Scrooge's and finally that of the Ghost's of Christmas Past and Present.

Those individuals who feel comfortable enough should prepare a 30-second monologue. It is not a requirement for auditions but it is encouraged for those looking for a featured role. The director would like to see actors who want go the extra mile.

Of course there are plenty of roles for younger adults and children, not to mention those looking for smaller roles. The largest role for the children will be that of Tiny Tim, the ever hopeful and loving child of Bob Cratchit. The Cratchit family is made up of two other sons and three daughters all ranging in age from 5 to 18. There are many, up to 30, smaller roles including a young Ebenezer and Belle, Scrooge's former fiancée. The Ghost of Christmas Future is a non-speaking role but in need of an ominous presence. There is a need for a large cast, including a chorus to portray Carolers, Party Guests, Phantoms and Orphans.

Initial auditions will take place on Wednesday and Thursday at the Leslie W. Johnson Theatre at Horace Mann Middle School, 2820 Union Avenue, Sheboygan, beginning at 4:00 p.m. for youngsters 5 to 15 years of age and 6:00 p.m. for those 16 and up. No experience is necessary. Everyone is encouraged to audition and the director is anticipating a large and diversified cast. All participants are encouraged to bring sheet music, although youngsters are not required to have anything prepared. Songs should be no more than 1 minute in length.

Auditions will also involve dance and readings from the script. Though the selection process does imply some competition, it is made as pleasant as possible. Direction is given along the way and people need not fear that they will in any way be embarrassed.

Scripts and chorus books are available for a forty-eight hour loan at the Theatre Company's office in the Community Recreation Department. A deposit of $15 for chorus books and $25 for scripts is required. They may be picked up Monday through Friday between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. and must be returned by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 19.

"The Dickens Christmas Carol Show" will run from December 3 to 11, 2010, with rehearsals beginning Friday, October 22. Over a seven-week period there will be approximately 34 rehearsals, the majority of which will be Monday through Friday, 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

The production is funded in part by a grant from the Alliant Energy Foundation and is sponsored by Community Bank and Trust.

For further information contact Michelle Bestul at 459-3779.

KES fourth graders spend day in the Kettle Moraine

On September 28th, the 4th graders from Kewaskum Elementary School visited the Ice Age Center, Mauthe Lake, and Parnell Tower. While at the Ice Age Center, they watched a video about the Ice Age, looked at the exhibits, and took in the view from the observation deck of the beautiful fall colors and Dundee Mountain. At Mauthe Lake, they created various glacial formations out of sand on the beach and hiked around the lake. The view at the top of Parnell Tower was breathtaking, as was the trip up the tower! From high above, students were able to see the landscape of the Kettle Moraine. ABOVE: Forest Naturalist Jackie Scharfenberg shows the students how to make glacial landforms at the beach. Farmington 4K'ers learn about bugs

Mrs. Bergmann's K4 students from Farmington Elementary had the opportunity to head to Mauthe Lake and participate in a DNR naturalist-lead program about bugs. Students discussed what animals/bugs have 0, 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, 10+ legs. The naturalist brought magnifying glasses for the students to explore the trees and grass when searching for bugs. They also used giant nets for "scooping" bugs. Students observed grasshoppers, mosquitoes, moths, butterflies, beetles, and caterpillars. A great time was had by all when exploring Mauthe Lake in search of bugs!

Enrollment up 7% at UWWC

The University of Wisconsin-Washington County (UW-WC) has enrolled a record 1,117 students for the fall semester, an increase of 7 percent, over the fall semester of 2009.

Dr. Alan Paul Price, campus executive officer and interim dean of UW-WC, credited low tuition and easy access for the increase.

"These days it seems that everyone is talking about how to save money on college and how to avoid student debt," Price said. "At UW-WC, tuition has been frozen since 2006 at $4,268 per year, the lowest rate in the UW System. We offer an incredible value."

"Our students receive a quality University of Wisconsin education," Price said. "Class sizes are small, the professors are focused on teaching undergraduates, and credits are guaranteed to any campus in the UW System."

The University of Wisconsin Colleges is comprised of 13 campuses and UW Colleges Online that offer an Associate of Arts and Sciences degree and prepare students of all ages and backgrounds for baccalaureate and professional programs.

Since you've been gone
Through ups and downs
Our lives move on.

But, as time rolls by
One thing remains true
We will always have Memories of you.

Those we love don't go away
They walk beside us every day
Unseen, unheard
But always near
Still loved, still missed
And very dear.

Love From Mom & Tom

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of CHRISTA FLEISCHMAN, who passed away 10 years ago, October 20, 2000.

The sight of an eagle,
Soaring through the sky,
Or a deer in the field,
With his head held high.
The wisp of a breeze,
And there's no one there,
Brings you to mind,
And a tear to our eye,
As a memory of you,
Goes swiftly by.
So much has happened,
We miss you more than ever,
You may be gone from our lives,
But you'll be in our hearts
FOREVER!

Mona Anderson, 17, of Kewaskum, was chosen to reign as Washington County Junior Fair's "Fairest of the Fair" for 1985. Anderson was among seven young women who competed for the opportunity to act as official representative of the fair during its five-day run.

The third annual Holy Trinity Parish Picnic will begin with a Polka Mass at 11 am in River Hill Park in Kewaskum. Come and enjoy games for prizes, music, refreshments, food and entertainment.

New family members are expected to arrive the second week in August on the doorsteps of the Cornelius and Evelyn Beisbier and James and Laneille Dieringer families. Samuel Ortiz of Bucaramanga, Colombia, will spend a year in Kewaskum, attending Kewaskum High School, while living with the Beisbiers. Cynthia Barra of Juis de Fora, Brazil, will spend a year at Fredonia, attending KHS while living with the Dieringers.

Daniel M. Schaefer has been promoted from assistant to associate professor with tenure in the Department of Meat and Animal Science at the University of Wisconsin.

Over 163 families from 57 Wisconsin counties will be honored at the "Century Farm and Home Awards" program held at the State Fair on August 7. Honorees from this area include: Marvin and Flossie Garbisch, 3321 Boltonville Rd., Kewaskum; Robert and Janet Melzer, 9618 Rolling Dr., Allenton; Lawrence and Irene Albright, 7555 Forest View Rd., West Bend, and Herman and Mary Ann Paulus, 7360 Highway 144 North, West Bend.

Airman 1st Class James E. Rohlinger, son of Norbert and Darlene Rohlinger of Kewaskum, has participated in Global Shield 85, an exercise involving US Air Force, Air Force Reserve, Air National Guard, Navy and Marine Corps units and elements of the Canadian forces. The exercise, coordinated by the Air Force Strategic Air Command (SAC), was designed to enhance readiness and the ability of SAC to carry out orders should deterrence fail.

Kewaskum missed going to state by one game as they lost a heart-breaking 4-3 battle to the Cedarburg Bulldogs in the Sectional final game played Saturday in Cedarburg. Kewaskum advanced to the finals the day before as they beat defending state champs, West Bend West, 8-4 in their opening round game.

Kewaskum Indians' Don Menzel and Tim Dettmann were named to the first team and Tim Geidel to the second team in the All-Eastern Wisconsin Conference balloting. Tim Rohlinger, Rick Staehler and Bob Yahr were given honorable mention.

THIEMERDOME HIGHLIGHTS: The 6-1/2 inches of rainfall on Wednesday and Thursday did not stop the action at the dome. The modern tiling system drained the field perfectly and it was non-stop action at the park. Attendance was again lower than normal as many fans assumed the field would not be in playing condition. Just keep this in mind that we play ball at the dome in weather that would keep even the mailmen at home. The first game saw another milestone achieved as Mike Pfeiffer got his first hit of the year. It was a blue darter that almost tore the head off pitcher Dave Schaub. As was promised, the cork was pulled off the champagne bottle and the players reveled in Mike's honor. Bartelt Insurance managed to win another ball game over Thornton and Schaub. In the second game, BJ and Company dumped Crass Salvage, 6-4. This forced a first half playoff between Crass and Kennelly. The winner will then play BJ and Co., for the league championship. Because of the influx of news media for this week's playoffs, fans are urged to arrive early to avoid the fork in the road at the Slawson Cutoff. Highway 45 will be closed between the Buss farm and the Maynard Bartelt farm in order to allow airplanes from the EAA convention in Oshkosh to land and enjoy the action at the Dome. Rain checks will NOT be honored at this game. SPECIAL! There have been numerous complaints this year because the VIP lounge has not been serving its world famous Vermox Margaritas. The problem is that the main ingredient in Vermox is the rare ginseng root and because of its aphrodisiac, it is being used for other purposes other than the manufacture of Vermox. A very reliable source revealed in confidence that most of the midwest supply is being hoarded in a cistern in the basement of Fuzzy Dreher's home. Attendance: 99.

A daughter was born to Paul and Roxanne Konrath, Allenton on July 26. A daughter was also born to Robert and Heidi Schuppel, Germantown, on July 25. Grandparents are Herman and Miriam Baumann of Slinger and John and Shirley Schuppel of Allenton.

To those boys playing both baseball and basketball, a seven inch chenille letter was given. Herbert Hopkins received for basketball and Pirm Kohler, Anthony Uelmen, Robert Romaine, Dean Stern, Ralph Marx, and Roland Kopeke, received theirs for baseball. The cheerleaders were Janice Koch, Fred Miller, Audrey Koch, and Walter Werner and they received a four inch letter with a felt megaphone attached. Those who were cheerleaders but earned letters in other activities received the greater award. Such awards were made to Lorraine Habeck for winning the Tri-County League Declamatory contest and Anthony Uelmen, who earned his letter in baseball. During the last general assembly period of this week letters will be presented to Howard Schmidt, oratorical contest winner, and Evelyn Krautkramer, humorous declamatory contest winner. The members of the orchestra will also be given a four inch chenille "K" with an attached felt music lyre emblem as a token of appreciation for playing at various school activities. Those include: Beulah Schaub, Janice Koch, Fred Spoerl, Armond Mertz, Viola Backus, Doris Mae Rosenheimer, Rosemary Haug, Sylvester Harter, Lester Borchert, Harry Koch, and Gregor Flasch.

Agents of the Federal Treasury Department raided a still in the Town of Ashford on June 3. The officers found a 3,000 gallon tank filled with mash, while another tank showed signs of having recently run off. After making the seizure, the officers telephoned to Milwaukee for two trucks on which the salvaged equipment was hauled away. Other materials were wrecked on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Herman are the proud parents born to them last Saturday morning. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dreher on Tuesday of this week.

VILLAGE BOARD MEETING September 20, 2010 7:00 p.m.

The Kewaskum Village Board, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in regular session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Andy Pesch presided and called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. Board members present were Craig Garbisch, Harry Roecker, Mike Berger, Andy Pesch, Norman Kufahl, Tom Piwoni and Jim Hovland. Staff members present were Matt Heiser, Mark Groeschel, Richard Knoebel, Jerry Gilles, Chad Cook, Andy Petersen from Ruekert and Mielke and Stephanie Justmann. The news media and members from the community were also present.

Notice of the meeting had been posted at the PNC Bank, Kewaskum Post Office, and at the Municipal Building on September 17, 2010. Notice was also forwarded to the Village Board, Village Attorney, Village Engineer, and the News Media.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

Motion by Harry Roecker to approve the minutes from the August 16, 2010 meeting, second by Tom Piwoni. Voice vote, motion carried.

Jay Fischer and Cheryl Peterson were on hand to promote the Boys and Girls Club community involvement, programs, benefits and growth. The program currently has 80 students on a daily basis and on Wednesday early release days around 115 students. They asked for Village support of $5,000 for 3 years.

Deb Sielki and Josh Glass were present to review the Farmland Preservation requirements. The Village may appoint a representative to the Washington County Farmland Preservation Plan Advisory Committee. The committee will help determine areas significant for current and future agricultural uses through successful implementation of Farmland Preservation Areas, Farmland Preservation Zoning and Farmland Preservation Tax Credits.

Motion by Craig Garbisch to suspend the rules and bring up item C under New Business: "Discussion and possible action to appoint a representative to the Farmland Preservation Committee" second by Jim Hovland and carried by roll call vote. Garbisch-aye, Roecker-aye, Berger-aye, Pesch-aye, Kufahl-aye, Piwoni-aye, Hovland-aye (7-0-0).

Motion by Jim Hovland to appoint a representative to the Washington County Farmland Preservation Plan Advisory Committee, second by Andy Pesch and carried by roll call vote. Garbisch-aye, Roecker-aye, Berger-aye, Pesch-aye, Kufahl-aye, Piwoni-aye, Hovland-aye (5-2-0). Consensus of the Board was to appoint Jim Hovland to the committee.

Reed Rodenkirch on behalf of Tom and Allyne Rodenkirch discussed the requirement to connect to the Village water and sanitary sewer utilities. Reed Rodenkirch requested that the property located at 120 Badger Road owned by Tom and Allyne Rodenkirch not be required to connect to the Village water and sanitary sewer utilities until the property is sold. The owners are actively pursuing to sell the property which is zoned M1 - Manufacturing. To connect a residential property would be inefficient and an economic hardship. Rodenkirch stated at the time the property was annexed into the Village there was a verbal agreement that the property would not need to connect unless it was sold or the current utilities failed.

Motion by Harry Roecker to suspend the rules and bring up item A under Old Business: "Update on outstanding utility connections" and item F under New Business: "Discussion and possible action on Kewaskum School District request to be relieved from the Water and Sewer Impact Fees and Building Permit fees for the Kewaskum Food Pantry" second by Norman Kufahl and carried by roll call vote. Garbisch-aye, Roecker-aye, Berger-aye, Pesch-aye, Kufahl-aye, Piwoni-aye, Hovland-aye (7-0-0).

Administrator Matt Heiser proceeded to explain the history of the properties that have not properly connected to the Village water and sanitary sewer utilities. A deferral to this requirement was granted by the Village Board in 2005/2006 to the properties owned by Tom Rodenkirch, Charles Ogi and Marion Bunkelman. The deferred date for the work to be completed has long since expired. The Municipal Code requires that property owners connect to the sanitary sewer system and water system within 90 days of the formal notice to connect when Village utilities are available. This requirement would also be in effect for the Rempel property owned by Gary Gavin. However, it has been determined as code is currently written that this requirement does not apply to the following properties: Bernard Kaehne, James Reigle and Steven Spoerl where the utilities are not adjacent to the property. Consensus of the Board was to enforce the existing Municipal Code and to verify if a verbal agreement existed with Tom Rodenkirch. Motion by Norman Kufahl to layover the decision to have property owners properly connect to Village utilities for one month, second by Mike Berger. Voice vote, motion carried.

Jim Palmer was on hand from the Kewaskum School District to request the Water and Sewer Impact Fees and Building Permit fees for the Food Pantry be waived. The Food Pantry will be owned by the school district, located on school property and will be used for the good of the community. The current fees are: Water Impact - $3,360.91, Sewer Impact - $2,089.29 and Building Permit - $713.00. Impact fees are intended to be used when growth occurs. State laws need to be followed when implementing impact fees taking into consideration benevolent functions. The most appropriate way to handle this situation would be to collect the fees and make a donation to the Food Pantry if it was desired. Motion by Harry Roecker to deny the request to waive the Water and Sewer Impact Fees and Building Permit fees for the Kewaskum Food Pantry, second by Mike Berger. Voice vote, motion carried. (Tom Piwoni recorded as nay)

Dakota Ducks....An affordable trip for Badgers

Golden Retriever puppy, Micah makes his first waterfowl retrieve at 18 weeks, a bluebill taken in North Dakota pothole country near Devils Lake hunting with his Wisconsin family and friends from Milwaukee to Wausau

Out-of-state hunting and fishing trips don't always come easily for Wisconsin sportsmen, especially in times of economic uncertainty, even for a Badger-based writer who makes his living outdoors. In 20 years, budgeting as you undoubtedly must, I've hunted elk in Colorado, pheasants in South Dakota and Iowa, fished crappies and hunted Kentucky turkey in the spring and the lakes and hardwater of Canada.

After declining the trip for years with tenacious upland bird dog Blue not interested in water or waterfowl, a long-scheduled North Dakota duck hunting rip called this fall. Mainly, I wanted to keep my new puppy, Micah's learning curve climbing like a home sick-angel. By 16 weeks, he'd retrieved mourning doves, flushed pheasants, loves the water, and wallows comfortably among the hanging gunpowder and the sounds that go with it.

But, with another unexpected hospital inpatient stay intruding rudely on my plans, life's questions loom; is contemplating whether or not missing your dog's first duck retrieve is comparable to missing your baby's first steps also grounds for divorce? Is it really "brotherly love" when your brothers and nephews and friends, used lightly, steal your truck, your camera, and your dog with a plea that I should not die until they can give me a detailed report on how the hunting was?

Hunting was great, I'm pleased to say, and I'm still here...I'm please-der to say. A report will follow to get you started on your own trip west next year, but first, FYI, on our scheduled date of departure, I was admitted to St. Luke's in Milwaukee with high temperatures, pneumonia and fluid around the heart. They call it Dressler's Syndrome, affecting 10-percent of post-cardiac patients whose immune system apparently didn't take kindly to an invasion by the scalpel. A good dose of antibiotics and steroids later and I was ready for a wood duck hunt October 8. We'll talk about that next week.

This week, we had planned to hunt in North Dakota. My partners were to be brothers John Ellis of Muskego, Steve Ellis of Lake du Bay, his son Mike Ellis of Wausau with his sons Cole and Andy, friend Eric Pacey of Wausau, and his nephew Ben Soucek of Stevens Point. The canine arsenal included Eric's Scout and Mike's Ruger, labs with pure ability, Dylan and Rocky, a lab and mongrel, respectively, with more field work sorely needed, and Micah.

Cost of an out-of-state duck waterfowl license is $100.00, according to John Ellis, allowing the hunter 14 days on a split season if preferred with the ability to change the dates of the split. For example, John took his second week in early November, but, due to Wisconsin hunting and fishing preferences may elect to return to North Dakota in late October. There is no minimum age limit for hunters, with three young hunters in this group 13 years old or younger already participating in their third North Dakota hunt.

The target destination was pothole country near Devils Lake. What we call potholes are actually predominantly small lakes that serve as superb nesting territory for vast numbers of North America's ducks and geese. Expect an approximate 12 hour ride from Milwaukee and several less from the Wausau area. Landowners, John said, are a "mixed bag, like anywhere", with some declining permission to hunt their property and others readily giving approval.

"You will get turned down but you will find lakes on private property to hunt too," John said. "Even when they turned us down they were friendly enough. When you do get turned down, there are plenty of public lakes to hunt. Because Eric and Mike brought ATVs, we hunted a real good lake on our first morning with no competition." A gift of appreciation from Wisconsin for receptive landowners like cheese or sausage is highly recommended. It's the right thing to do, and makes your next trip easier.

What the hunter chooses to bring from Wisconsin of course is also personal preference and wide-ranging. In addition to ATVs, Mike and Eric brought a 10-foot boat to hold "tons" of decoys. John tucked a one-man eight-foot boat in the back of the truck he stole from me (when I was helpless) with one bag of diver decoys holding canvasback and bluebills and one bag of puddle ducks holding mallards and teal. Blinds were made with netting and stakes or ambushes set with chairs simply nestled into the shoreline vegetation. The hunters sometime simply sat on the shoreline ground.

Even with selective shooting (and no doubt plenty of misses by these collective "Rotten Shots"), the Wisconsin group brought home approximately 50 ducks. Included in the harvest were cans, redheads, pintails, mallards, and ringneck. The highlight for this reporter was receiving the call in the hospital that Micah, at 18 weeks had intently studied the veteran retriever before plunging in to make a perfect retrieve on a bluebill that appeared almost as large as he is. Photos captured the moment.

The waterfowl license includes geese, and multi species of diver and puddle ducks. Daily limit is six ducks per day per hunter, depending on species and sex. Expect ample shooting opportunities. John, who is very selective on what he shoots at and often simply works the camera, summed it up quickly.

"You will see virtually every type of duck that you've ever heard of and you will have all the action you could hope for," John said. "If I would have hunted just two full days and then left after the morning hunt of the third day I would have been satisfied. We stayed at the Davis Motel for about $50.00 per night for two double beds. Dogs are welcome. They had a duck cleaning station and each room has a refrigerator and freezer for the ducks."

"The whole trip including license, gas, lodging, ammunition and food was about $500.00. You were supposed to ride with me and split my lodging and gas. If you weren't faking being sick I could have cut those expenses in half."

Parent's Day party ends with split for Gridiron teams

By Judy Harlow

KEWASKUM- Even though only two of its four teams came away with victories, Parents Day was a big success for the Kewaskum Gridiron teams last Saturday. Over 160 players and their parents were honored, along with a huge contingency of enthusiastic cheerleaders and their parents.

Two Cedar Grove teams had plenty of offensive punch, but the Indians' fifth graders and eighth graders posted convincing wins.

The fifth graders (4-1) scored just 36 seconds into the contest but didn't put the game away until Cole Surprenant dashed 65 yards in the closing minutes to ice a 20-0 shutout. This was their third shutout of the year.

The other touchdown came on a short run by Declyn Gurrath at the end of the first quarter. Extra points came via passes from Gabe Christensen to Cade Peterson and Sirius Richards.

"We didn't play our best game, but it's a win, and I'll take it," coach Jeff Logan said afterward.

Once again, Logan and Mark Walcheske were pleased the defense was able to keep the opponent out of the end zone. Good defensive plays were made by Daniel Kreis, Logan Kertscher, Ayrton Lehmann, Austin Heberer, Brent Goeden and Faton Elmazi.

"They played a pretty good game all the way around," coach "Jonesy" Korth said about his eighth graders (3-2), who won 26-18. "It was like night and day from last week (against Slinger)."

Kewaskum drove to the 1-yard line early in the contest. The Broncos held, then on second down, ripped off a 99-yard run for a score and a 6-0 lead.

Behind the strong running of Zach Smith and Collin McCarthy, the Indians came back with a good drive, capped off by Matthew Elbe's 2-yard TD run. After Dylan Thull's kick, the Indians were up 8-6, and they stretched that lead to 16-6 on McCarthy's 45-yard gallop to the end zone. This time Thull's kick hit the crossbar and went through.

In the second half, Elbe turned a dive play into a 65-yard TD dash up the middle, but the kick was no good, so the Indians were up 22-6.

Kewaskum's final score was a short run by Kenny Ellis after Austin Tackes caught some nice passes from Bille Lehmann, and the quarterback chewed up 20 yards of real estate on a rollout play.

"Then we put everybody in," Korth said, adding Ricky Heinen had some nice runs, and, "We got good tackling from (Garrett) Buth and (Josh) Limbach."

Leading with about a minute and a half remaining, the sixth graders gave up a long touchdown around the end, resulting in a heart-breaking 27-26 loss.

"We played pretty well," coach Joel Tietz said. "Mitchell Tietz and Mason Amerling stuffed the middle all day, but we gave up two kickoff returns for touchdowns, and they got one on the edge at the end and that was the game."

Scoring for Kewaskum were: Tyler Schellinger on a 40-yard reverse; Kyle Pamperin on a run; Brady Hanson, a 40-yard screen pass from quarterback Dalton Poole; and Poole on a 4-yard run.

With the loss, the Indians are now 3-2, with all the wins coming on the road.

"We've got to win one at home," Tietz said, and his team will have that opportunity on Saturday.

After being very sharp vs. Slinger, the seventh graders (3-2) struggled, especially on kickoff coverage, and lost a 35-13 decision.

"They ran the opening kickoff back about 70 yards for the first score," coach Randy Schlice said, reporting his squad was down 21-6 after the first quarter, Kewaskum's TD coming on a 25-yard run by Josh Baker.

Baker added a second score in the second quarter, this one coming via a 60-yard dash. A pass from Michael Prochnow to Brandon Thull gave the Indians the PAT.

Schlice said twice his team moved inside the Broncos' 10 but failed to score. "We also threw three interceptions, and that killed us," the coach said, reporting adjustments made at halftime prevented Cedar Grove from any offensive scores in the second half. Their final TD was scored on an interception.

Defensively "Ben Watzig probably had six tackles for losses," Schlice said about the team's top defensive players.

CORRECTION: In last week's Gridiron story, it was Patrick Krier, not Henry Krier, who scored one of the TDs for the fifth graders.

Winkler ends career on a high note

By Judy Harlow

Kate Winkler ended her prep golf career in a blaze of glory!

Kewaskum's No. 1 player shot a 46-44-90 in the Green Bay Notre Dame sectional last Tuesday, leading the Indians to a sixth place finish in the event held at the Thornberry Creek Golf Course.

Only the top two teams and the top three individual finishers (from non-qualifying teams) move on to the state competition, which was held Monday and Tuesday (Oct. 11-12) at University Ridge in Verona.

Powerhouse Notre Dame and the Prairie School from Racine advance by virtue of their efforts, posting respective scores of 341 and 353.

Denmark finished third at 361, followed by Freedom, 370; Appleton Xavier, 377; Kewaskum, 413; Fox Valley Lutheran, 417; and Racine St. Catherine's, 460.

"This was the best round of her career, and she missed advancing to state by five strokes," KHS coach Amy Piwoni said about Winkler. "She was really fired up and striking the ball solidly. She was determined to take on this tough course, and she represented Kewaskum and her team proudly."

The other KHS scores included a 103 by Sienna Warnecke, who started with a 54 and came back with a 49;

Megan Gavin, 53-55-108; and April Basterash, 53-58-111.

Kate Winkler

Warnecke had an excellent chance to break 100 but had one tough hole on the front nine, which kept her from that goal.

"This was truly a very special ... coachable ... respectful group of kids. Coaching them has been a blast, and they will be tough to replace both on and off the course," Piwoni said.

Panthers stop Indians once again

Kewaskum's defense smothers Plymouth quarterback Mitch Unger for a 1-yard gain in the second quarter of last Friday's 14-6 loss at Plymouth.

By Mitch Maersch

PLYMOUTH - Remember last year's Kewaskum-Plymouth football game?

The Indians and Panthers basically replayed it last Friday. Plymouth beat Kewaskum, 14-6, the same score as last year's game, in much the same fashion - by running the ball well and shutting down the Indians' running game. The Panthers outrushed the Indians 198-67, a year after outgaining them 207-62 on the ground.

This year's version did include a little more drama at the end, with the Indians converting three fourth downs on their final drive.

With 4:13 to go and down eight, Kewaskum held the Panthers on fourth and nine and took over on their own 33. A couple of passes from senior quarterback Cody Nuernberg moved the Indians to their 44, but a sack moved them back nine.

Kewaskum called its first timeout, facing third and 16. Nuernberg threw incomplete and it was fourth down with little hope left.

Nuernberg scanned the field and found Tony Gonring across the middle. Gonring slid to a knee in catching a 24-yard pass to keep the drive alive.

Two more incompletions and it was third and 10 with less than two minutes to play at Plymouth's 38. Nuernberg scrambled left for nine and faced a fourth and one. The game was on the line again.

Another scramble, this time up the middle, gained another nine yards. Kewaskum was down to the 21 with 1:45 to play.

Nuernberg hit Eric Perkins for eight yards and then ran up the middle for no gain. A third down pass was incomplete and here it was again, fourth down. Kewaskum called its last timeout with 59 seconds left. Nuernberg ran up the middle for five yards and reached Plymouth's 7.

Tension reached full tilt on both sides of the field as Kewaskum was fighting for its life and Plymouth was trying to not get pushed into overtime. Even with two conference games left, the general belief is the winner of this game takes the Eastern Wisconsin title, the same game that decided last year's champ.

Nuernberg spiked the ball on first down, stopping the clock at 44 seconds.

One pass fell incomplete to Perkins, another sailed over the head of a receiver in the end zone.

On fourth and seven with 36 seconds left, Nuernberg moved around in the pocket, looking for a target. He threw to a diving Brad Boegel in the end zone but the two couldn't connect.

The Panthers sent up their arms and screamed in jubilant celebration. The Indians hung their heads in silence.

Plymouth remained undefeated in the EWC at 5-0. Kewaskum went to 4-1.

"Hey, we gutted it out. It was a tough ball game. Two very good football teams," said Coach Jason Piittmann. "We learn and we've got to get ready for Sheboygan Falls. It's that simple. We have two more games to play plus the playoffs."

Last year's game had the Indians driving for the tying score and falling one yard short on a fourth-down scramble by Nuernberg at the Plymouth 30. This year's game was a tale of two halves as Kewaskum went into the break up 6-0. The teams combined for about 150 yards of offense in the first half, about 100 by Kewaskum, and half of that coming on two plays - a 32-yard touchdown pass from Nuernberg to Perkins and a 22-yard run by Bo Seibel.

The two star running backs, Eric Perkins and Hayden Potts, didn't get going. Neither actually got out of the garage. Perkins had five carries for 10 yards and Potts four for five.

Perkins did some damage through the air. With 2:19 to play in the first half, Nuernberg floated a ball down the right sideline to a streaking Perkins who dove and fell forward into the end zone. The 32-yard score capped a 61-yard, seven-play drive.

"It was a great call, great play," Piittmann said. "We leaked Eric to the outside and tried to suck their d-backs in and it worked. Cody put the ball there for Eric to make the play."

The extra point was blocked but the Indians had the lead at half in a game in which scoring points was like winning the lottery.

Potts got going in the second half, finding daylight cutting against the grain. Quarterback Mitch Unger scored from two yards out on Plymouth's first possession, capping a 77-yard, 13-play drive that took five minutes. Potts ran for nearly 40 yards on the drive.

On the ensuing drive, Nuernberg threw an interception on third and eight that served as a 35-yard punt. Plymouth took over on its own 39.

It was Potts for nine, then 12. Three plays later, on third and five from the Indian's 35, Unger ran a sweep right, made a cut and flew down the sideline for his second score.

Kewaskum went three and out again, and the Panthers took the clock from 11:41 to 4:13 in amassing 44 yards before the Indians held on downs and set up their last chance.

Perkins finished with 15 yards on eight carries.

"They bottled him up well," Piittmann said. He hardly remembers a team slamming such a door on his running game.

"Their defense is stifling. It's a different look defense. Dan (Knaus, head coach, defensive coordinator) put it in. They're running it very well. They've been shutting teams down, dominating them. We didn't have a lot for yards," he said. "We did find where we can move the ball against a defense like that, through the air a little bit and spread things out. We'll learn from it and get better, too."

Perkins caught three balls for 46 yards and a score, all season highs.

"He's a good athlete. Anytime you can get an athlete his hands on the ball, that's big," Piittmann said.

Potts finished with 102 yards on 23 carries. Unger had 72 on 13.

Piittmann said the Panthers' offensive line doubled down on the Indians in the second half "and we over-pursued too much. Potts cut back a little bit. One gap, one hole - that made all the difference."

Nuernberg ended up 8-22 for 114 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Unger was 4-11 for 34 yards.

The Indians had squandered chances to go up early as the entire first quarter was played on Plymouth's side of the field. On their first possession of the game, Kewaskum faced fourth and one from the 39 and chose to punt, pinning Plymouth on its own 4.

On fourth and six from the Plymouth 40, another punt went into the end zone, putting the Panthers at their own 20. On fourth and five from the 17, a Nuernberg pass fell incomplete.

"That was big. In retrospect I probably should have taken the field goal, taken the points. I guess I just wanted to make sure we played the field position and had a chance to try to go up six early," Piittmann said. "I thought that would be big momentum for us, but in retrospect, I screwed that up. It's my bad. It's all me."

After losing at Waterford, 21-7, in the season opener, Plymouth has now won six straight games, including three shutouts and averaging allowing less than four points per game. They average scoring 28 points per game.

The Panthers have Two Rivers (3-2 EWC) and Sheboygan Falls (1-4) left to play. Kewaskum has Falls this Friday and New Holstein (3-2) the next.

NOTES

Eric Perkins now has 1,009 yards rushing on 105 carries this season, for a 9.6-per-rush average. He has scored 15 touchdowns.

Friday night was a lousy ending to a great week for Piittmann. On Wednesday, Dane Christian was born. Mother and baby are doing well. No doubt Dane will someday exact revenge on Plymouth for the gall to do such a thing to his father the week his first son was born.

Both punters shined. Indian Mike Schladweiler punted five times for 164 yards, for a 32.8 average, with a long of 45. He sent one to the Panthers' 4-yard line. Plymouth's Brock Reichardt punted six times for 207 yards, a 34.5 average with a long of 54 that reached the Indians' 2.

"Mike did a good job," Piittmann said.

Indians unable to come out on top of five game match

Kayla Bastian goes for a kill in a game against Kiel. It was a hard fought matchup with the winner being decided after five games.

Kewaskum played another marathon, five-game Eastern Wisconsin Conference volleyball match on Tuesday night and again came out on the wrong end of the stick.

The Indians lost the first two games at Kiel, then took the next two games before losing the deciding fifth game after blowing two game points.

Scores of the match were 19-25, 23-25, 25-18, 25-19, 14-16. The Indians slipped to 3-7 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, 11-19 overall.

"Heartbreaker. Had game point at 14-12 with the serve. They sided out with a kill for 14-13 us. We could have won with a kill but George got blocked and they tied it up," said Coach Joe Moser. "They scored two more off their server and ended up winning."

Kayla Bastian and Anna Aycock had 15 kills each, and George Abfall had eight. Heidi Johnson had 13 assists, Brittney Wagner 11 and Molly Potter nine. Aycock served 10 aces and Hope Hansen nine.

Bastian had 11 digs, Kelsey Phillips 10, Courtney Krueger and Hansen seven each, Sam Smallish six and Johnson five. Phillips led the team with one error on 22 service receives. Liz Schaller had four blocks.

"Hope Hansen was huge in games 3, 4 and 5 with nine aces on 21 attempts. Anna helped out with 10 aces of her own," Moser said. "Too many hitting errors in games 1 and 2."

At the Washington County Tournament in West Bend on Saturday, the Indians exacted revenge on Slinger for its season-opening loss, beating the Owls, 25-19, 25-20. Hansen had five kills, Bryana Keller four, and Becca Fahney, Bastian and Aycock three each. Potter and Wagner each had five assists. Smallish had five digs.

"We beat Slinger at the Washington County Tourney but they were missing their best hitter and libero due to injuries so I'm not reading that much into it. We did play pretty well, but faced a bunch of tough teams," Moser said.

The Indians lost to West Bend East, 16-25, 12-25. Bastian had four kills and Keller three. Wagner had four assists. Smallish had six digs.

Kewaskum lost to Hartford, 12-25, 11-25. Bastian and Aycock each had three kills, Johnson five assists and Raquel Bode four digs.

The Indians lost to West Bend West, 9-25, 21-25. Aycock, Abfall and Bode each had two kills. Potter had five assists. Aycock had three blocks. Phillips had eight digs, Bode six and Bastian five.

Last Thursday, the Indians were swept at home by Waupun on Senior Night, but if there ever was such a thing as a good sweep, this was it.

The Indians lost the first game, 25-19, and the second, 25-22. Kewaskum took a 4-0 lead in game 1 and a 10-4 lead in game 2 before the conference leader and perennial powerhouse picked away and got back in the games. Most points were hotly contested with long rallies, big kill attempts and big digs.

Tied at 19-19 in game 1, three hitting errors, an ace, four hits and a tip sent the Indians to a loss. Kewaskum had the lead or the game was tied from going down 7-6 to 19-19.

In game 2, the Indians built a 13-9 lead before the Warriors clawed their way back. The game was tied at 14-14, 15-15, and 16-16. The Warriors took a 19-16 lead before the Indians battled back to take a 22-21 lead, two points from aces from Aycock. One was a sky ball, the other a low liner.

Waupun ended the match on four straight points, the final an ace of their own that hit all floor.

Kewaskum lost steam in game 3, falling 25-12, but the energy and effort of the match wasn't lost on Moser.

"This was nice to see. I don't know how we play so poorly against other teams that are clearly not as good as Waupun," he said. "We were playing tough, we sided out right away."

Bastian had seven kills and Aycock four to go along with six aces. Potter had eight assists.

"Raquel played good, Courtney played good, Kayla Bastian was on fire," Moser said. "It's good to see us start to play. If you're going to get hot it's the right time of the year. Hopefully we can stay motivated and say, hey, we are a good team."

Even the team afterward was pleased with most of the match.

"They were excited at the end, even though they lost they were excited how they played," Moser said. "It's good to see us finally showing fire."

The Indians on Saturday head to Waupun for the EWC mini tournament before the playoffs start on Tuesday.
