City of West Bend and Village of Kewaskum Agree to Pursue Consolidation of Emergency Medical Services

Implementation Planned for January 1, 2025

The Village of Kewaskum Board and City of West Bend Common Council approved a Memorandum of Understanding to pursue the consolidation of Emergency Medical Services (EMS) between the Kewaskum Fire Department and West Bend Fire Department, with a target date for implementation of January 1, 2025.

Throughout Wisconsin, EMS providers are facing a crisis due to a shortage of volunteer and paid personnel, insufficient financial resources, and increasing demands for services. This crisis is resulting in critical stress on local EMS providers. Recognizing the paramount importance of efficient, timely, and high-quality emergency medical care, the Village of Kewaskum and City of West Bend agree that the consolidation presents a strategic opportunity to enhance the effectiveness and sustainability of EMS in our jurisdictions.

"We are confident that we can create a more robust, integrated, and responsive emergency medical system that prioritizes the well-being and safety of all community members," said West Bend Mayor Joel Ongert. "We are committed to engaging in collaborative discussions, consulting with stakeholders, and working closely with relevant authorities to develop and implement a comprehensive plan for the consolidation of EMS."

The consolidation will allow the departments to share resources, standardize protocols and practices, and leverage economies of scale, thereby maximizing the efficiency and effectiveness of resource allocation in emergency medical response. This model will build a more sustainable emergency response system capable of effectively managing diverse and evolving challenges, including staffing concerns, natural disasters, public health emergencies, and other crises.

"Like many communities, Kewaskum is suffering from a severe shortage of volunteer emergency medical technicians. This collaboration will allow our departments [to] optimize resources while increasing levels of care and helping keep our residents safe," said Village Board President Fuzz Martin. "We are grateful to all of

Memorial Day

Dear Reader,

As Memorial Day approaches, we're reminded of the solemn duty to honor those who made the ultimate sacrifice defending our freedoms. It's a day to reflect on the bravery and selflessness of those who gave their lives in service to our country.

Yet, amidst this reflection, we can't ignore the tragic reality of war – the senseless need for power, resources, and subjugation that often drive conflicts. Innocents become collateral damage in these atrocities, bearing the burden of decisions made far from their homes.

As we commemorate Memorial Day, we must contemplate the deeper meaning behind it. It's a day not just to mourn the fallen, but to question the necessity of war itself. Can't we aspire to a world where diplomacy triumphs over conflict, where peace prevails over violence?

Though the observance of Memorial Day will endure, let it also serve as a beacon of hope – a hope that one day, the need to wage war will fade into history, replaced by a collective commitment to dialogue, understanding, and peace.

Rate Increases

Dear Reader,

The United States Postal Service recently announced another 10% increase in their rates effective July 14, 2024.

Since 2021, there have been five previous rate increases; this is the sixth. This announcement coincides with severe deterioration in the USPS's performance; simply put, the mail is often late. These rate increases affect individuals sending mail as well as newspapers delivering the news. The rate increases have grown to a crisis. Your voice is needed, to ask Congress to place a moratorium on any rate increases, effective immediately. Mail is a vital service to all Americans and provides information that cannot be transmitted digitally. The USPS's price increases have been so aggressive that mail volume is declining, which creates a death spiral: Each rate increase reduces the mail volume, making another rate increase necessary, leading to still more volume declines.

Consider the following:

First Class Mail Stamps

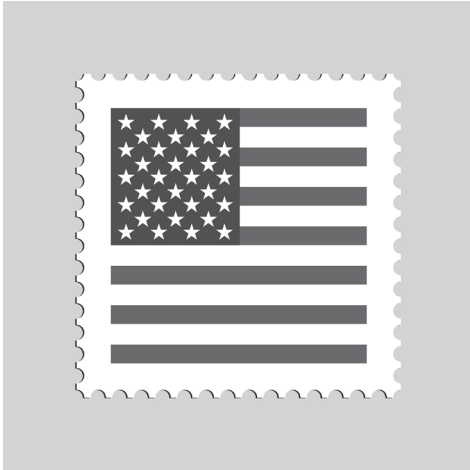

24 percent increase since 2022; another 7.8 percent increase scheduled for July 14, 2024.

Periodical Mail (Paid Newspapers)

Periodical postage increase for July 2024 will be about 5-7 percent increase since January 2024.

EDDM (Free Newspapers)

11 percent increase for community newspapers; the rate increase means newspapers are paying about 33 percent more for postage than three years ago.

Many newspapers rely on the mail to deliver local news to big, medium-sized and small communities alike. We depend on the Post Office and need it to succeed, but not at the cost of our ability to continue serving our readers.

For easy reference, following is contact information for your Senate and Congressional representatives, as well as State Senate and Assembly members.

Please call them or leave a message on their constituent website. Ask them to put an immediate stop to postal rate increases that affect all of us. This action will help stabilize local news in your and our communities and preserve the stewardship that the print medium has had in helping our communities to stay strong, dynamic and filled with character.

G.A. SCHEINOHA
CONTRIBUTOR

For many, the merry month of May has indeed been so. Despite the solemnity of quickly approaching Memorial Day, when only appropriately, we honor the memory of those who made the ultimate sacrifice to ensure our freedom, others see it as the unofficial start of summer. Leastwise, warmer weather.

The boats are out in Lakeside Marina. Though I haven't seen any cruising on Lake Winnebago yet. Not too long before the concessions stand, and the kiddie rides will be up and running. Despite all the foregoing fun activities, these remaining numbers on a calendar page are also a tribute to anyone who suffers silently among us. May is Mental Illness Awareness month.

The issue a larger one than any is in tune with. The reasons are plentiful but a few spring readily to mind. Perhaps the greatest is an unspoken fear. If you fall beneath the label, you're regarded as somehow not normal. For generations, it's kept a deeply concealed family secret, almost treated as a scarlet letter, a source of shame. Wasn't awfully long ago, we kept the afflicted locked up in our homes. Or if they were only slightly "touched", dismissed it as a peculiar eccentric bent. Which has raised a stigma and made treatment a sight more difficult.

When I first began telling folks that I'd dealt with persisting depression since age 15, (more than 50 years) immediately got a sense it was an outright admission of failure, a serious personal flaw. Is it any wonder then, we slide a smile into place, say we're okay but really aren't? It's called masking. We outwardly appear fully functional.

There are exceptions of course. Last year a fellow I'd ridden on the bus to school with confessed he had schizophrenia. Sadly, the chances to talk openly about our health, be fully understood, are still too few and far between.

LORI KREIS, DIRECTOR
 KEWASKUM PUBLIC LIBRARY

With Memorial Day weekend so close, I am sure you have thoughts of summer break and summer plans. For me, I hope to spend as much time at our camper house enjoying the outdoors. We will have the grandkids some of those times and I look forward to days of swimming, fishing, playing, and reading with them. If you have been a follower of my column, you may perceive this is a lead-in to my annual writing about summer slide.

Summer slide is quite an old trend, dating back more than 100 years. This is when school-aged children are said to have lost some of the learning and skills they gained during the school year. It has been previously noted that during the summer months, students are at risk of losing two-three months of reading and math skills if they are not engaged in learning activities. Some studies have shown that it is more prevalent among those in lower-income households.

However, more recent studies have mixed results. Some have shown no loss during the summer while other research provides information that kids forget much of what they've learned, up to three months' worth, during the summer. When the studies point to summer slide, both reading and math are affected, with a surprisingly larger amount of loss in math skills. So, is summer slide real? Most teachers say it is, especially when they spend weeks reintroducing skills taught before summer break. As a former teacher and parent, I do believe there is an increased learning deficit if children are not engaged in educational activities for a few months. School may stop over the summer but learning never should.

What can you do to help your child retain the skills learned throughout the year? Visiting the library is one way. Libraries are critical in preventing summer slide. Summer learning programs are offered at libraries and provide motivation to keep your students' educational skills refined. Is there a better season in which to foster lifelong learning and the love of reading? I used to "hold school" in the summer with my kids and their neighbor friends. Much of it included story time and quiet reading time with books checked out from our library.

Besides reading, there are other ways to advance your child's literacy and critical thinking. My daughter who is a teacher, calls it providing experiences. Whether you are touring outside of the state or just in your own backyard, the goal is to learn about new things, which in turn assists in critical thinking skills. Besides the reading incentive program we will offer this summer, look for your kids to earn challenge badges for activities through our summer learning platform.

Next week, I will discuss what will be included in our 2024 program which has a goal of increasing literacy and learning. So, whether or not you consider summer slide real, there is real value in educational activities during children's summer breaks.

The largest senior class in the history of Campbellsport High School will graduate May 26. The 178 graduates will march to their seats in the new gym to the processional music of the high school band. Valedictorian is Alan Floeter and the Salutatorian is Debra Senn.

Although the golf team missed the chance to play in the WIAA State Golf Meet when the Cougars placed third in the Sectional, Campbellsport won the Flyway Conference Championship. Coach Larry Hilgendorf was pleased with the consistent play of his squad to be champions of the Flyway Conference for the first time in school history.

As in recent past years, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Kettle Moraine Post, is offering the public a chance to participate in the Memorial Day services. A parade will gather at St. Matthew's Church parking lot for an 11 a.m. start on May 27.

Mrs. Nutter's class at Campbellsport Elementary Public School has been involved with a planting project for the past six weeks. This is the third year the class has undertaken this project. The students learn how to plant seeds, care for and to recognize the various plants. There will be approximately 1,500 plants available at the annual plant open house.

Four Cougar girls track team records were broken recently: Monica Gruber in high jump, Mary Bebow in shot put, Andi Rauls in long jump, and the 880 relay team of Rauls, Barb Jandre, Helen Mittelstadt, and Beth Bartelt.

A little patience and a risk-free opportunity has the Town of Wayne surfing the net using a cutting-edge wireless service that the national government thinks is so important it helped fund the technology. The Town of Wayne is serving as a test market for HierComm, a broadband, wireless communications company in Hartland.

The Town of Wayne will be getting a new computer that will run Windows XP rather than Vista because Vista doesn't work well with some software. The computer and accessories will cost $822.45. The computer has two gigabytes and will use WiFi service rather than dial-up.

Last week, David Schultz, a Kewaskum Middle School teacher and certified internet safety presenter, and the rest of the district's technology group showed a group of parents the dangers their children may encounter on the World Wide Web. Schultz doesn't let his children have Facebook accounts. He said predators don't need much information to be able to find children. Computers should be kept in common areas, not in children's rooms, and the parents should know the children's passwords.

Three girls relay teams and nine individuals in seven events have advanced to Sectional action. Advancing for the boys are six individuals in four events and three relays.

Big Trout/Trout Trip

MARK WALTERS
COLUMNIST

Each May, I go trout fishing somewhere in Wisconsin. This week, I headed down to Columbia County to fish Rowan Creek. I grew up in Poynette and fished Rowan Creek hundreds of times as a kid, and I have to admit, those getaways were my escape from a drawn out divorce that my parents went through when I was a young boy. Instead of fishing the easy to get to waters, I chose to put my canoe in on the Wisconsin river and go to an area that is remote and to be perfectly honest, very dangerous to get to.

Sunday, May 12

High 73, Low 44

So, here is the plan, with my 8-year-old golden retriever, Ruby, as my partner, I was going to canoe through very challenging shallow water that will soon become wild rice, and if you get stuck, it seems like there is no bottom, as in muck. Then it is at least a mile up Rowan Creek, and the last mile of this journey is one deadfall after the other crossing the creek. The shoreline is all marsh, and I honestly feel that zero people fish here as it is simply too difficult and dangerous. My two-hour trip was finalized with a decision, I will never do this again.

I have trapped, duck hunted and muzzleloader hunted back here, including one nine-day trip, and once I trout fished and caught a 19-inch brown trout. The wild rice is creating and trapping sediment and where I ice fished as a boy, it is no longer fishable. The hole I planned on fishing was choked with deadfalls, so I traveled further upstream and found an L-shaped hole that was maybe 40-yards long and deep. This is where I would spend my next 24 hours.

It was tough going to get to trout paradise.

As soon as I started to become comfortable, a powerful storm smacked the heck out of Ruby and I, and I pulled a tarp over us and weathered it out. About 4:00, I became serious as far as catching trout and went with my usual small gold hook, a current appropriate split shot and a half a crawler.

For two hours nothing happened, but I knew I had to be patient. Good luck came my way when something big hit the crawler and fought like a bull in a China shop, using the current and its muscle, I landed what was a 17-inch brown trout, and as far as I was concerned the trip was a success.

Another two hours went by, I was in my glory watching ducks and geese, and one time a hen wood duck just about took my head off before it spotted me, and just like that, I had another big fish on.

Anyone that stream fishes for trout knows how insane it is keeping a big fish out of deadfalls and that was the case today, in what for me seemed quite rare, my second trout was exactly 17-inches as well.

Day became night, I only had the two bites, I switched to minnows after dark and fished for two hours with no action. In what was a last night for a while that you could do this, I slept on a tarp on the ground. As soon as I laid down, it started raining. I covered up and made the best of it and had zero mosquito action.

Monday, May 13

High 77, Low 40

I was fishing by 4:30 and confident. By six, I had not had a bite. At 6:15, Moby Dick hit my crawler, and when I first saw Moby, I thought she was a carp. Then, I realized Moby was a sumo brown trout. My third and last bite of this trip turned out to be a 22-inch brown trout, the biggest of my life. I was careful on the handling and release, fished another six hours without anything significant happening, packed up and made the decision, possibly, I will return someday.

Sunset

This 22-inch brown trout gave an excellent fight and then was released.

Wisconsin's WWII Lost Sons and Daughters Will Not Be Forgotten

A project to write a story about the lives of more than 8,300 Wisconsin WWII fallen service persons has been underway for the past two years. More than 1,500 stories have been successfully completed by 20-plus dedicated volunteers. Volunteers come from all walks of life and not only live in Wisconsin but other states as well. All are connected to Wisconsin in some way and are driven to make sure that Wisconsin's fallen heroes are remembered. You can help tell these stories. The stories will be posted on Fold3.com and can be accessed through a Find A Grave App so that anyone can read the stories of our Wisconsin WWII fallen heroes.

The project is part of a national non-profit organization called Stories Behind the Stars. SBTs was founded by Don Milne who started writing stories about the WWII fallen. Milne says, "The daily writings have always been fascinating and well worth the effort. It never got old to find another story about World War II fallen – as a group, they are a microcosm of the America of the mid-20th century. Highly representative of rural and blue-collar America, coming from large families, and usually with less than 12 years of education. They also reflected the vast, diverse melting pot that is America. Barely a few days went by without one of the fallen being an immigrant, a child of an immigrant, or a grandchild of immigrants. They came from dozens and dozens of countries to live the American Dream and tens of thousands from these immigrant families gave their lives for their adopted land."

Stories such as 2nd Lieutenant Julia Hermina Schmid Barnes, who was the valedictorian of her high school class in Plymouth in 1932, she went on to attain her nursing degree and served with the Army Nurse Corp. She was declared missing in action on March 4, 1945, when the plane on which she was a passenger crashed killing 27 on board including 15 Army nurses (www.fold3.com/memorial/657825954/barnes-julia-hermina-schmid-2lt/stories).

Or the story of Seaman First Class Earl Lloyd Merchant, a farm hand from Monroe County. He joined the Navy and was assigned on the USS Hancock. In April 1945 he was killed when a Japanese kamikaze pilot crashed the plane into the Hancock causing a bomb that the ship was carrying to explode killing 62 men and wounding 71 more (www.fold3.com/memorial/529998554/earl-l-merchant/stories).

Or Captain Benjamin Louis Salomon Jr. of the Milwaukee area who served with the Army Dental Corp. He was working in an aid station as a surgeon in Saipan in the Marianas Islands when it was overrun with Japanese soldiers. Captain Saloman jumped into action protecting the wounded American soldiers by engaging in hand-to-hand combat with the enemy. He fought his way to the outside of the tent where he took control of a machine gun and fought bravely until his life was taken. He was found draped over the machine gun with 98 dead enemy soldiers piled up in front of his position (www.fold3.com/memorial/664255511/salomon-benjamin-lewis-jr-cpt/stories).

These are just a sample of the thousands of brave Wisconsin sons and daughters who fought for our freedom in World War II. You'll be telling stories for those who never could.

Jean Coogle, Wisconsin WWII Fallen Project director, is asking for your help in joining the mission of writing all the Wisconsin WWII fallen stories. Those that gave the ultimate sacrifice in serving their Country deserve to be remembered, wouldn't you want your loved one to be remembered in such a way? Volunteering is easy, you work at your own pace from your own home. This could also be a group project for a high school or college history classroom or a genealogy or historical society project. Please consider joining the Stories Behind the Stars Wisconsin WWII Fallen Project and helping us remember those who fought so bravely for us all. Volunteer writers receive free access to research sites Fold3.com, Ancestry.com and Newspapers.com. You can contact Coogle at jean@storiesbehindthestars.org for more information. You can also learn more about the project at Stories Behind the Stars website at www.storiesbehindthestars.org.

WE WILL NEVER FORGET.

As we celebrate with our loved ones on Memorial Day, we take pause to remember the true meaning of this holiday: To honor the courageous men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice for this great nation. We are eternally grateful for your bravery.

Memorial Day Program in Fillmore

The annual Memorial Day program will begin at 12:30 p.m. on Memorial Day, May 27, at the Fillmore Turner Hall. The public is invited. Refreshments will be available at 11:30 a.m.

The program will include the Presentation of the Colors by the West Bend VFW Post 1393. Guest speaker is a member of a Gold Star family who will share the family's story. Those who die in service to their country leave behind parents, siblings, spouses, children and extended family members who are recognized as Gold Star Families.

The program will close with the traditional fresh flower wreath procession to the cemetery with the gun salute and Taps followed by the attendees' placing flowers from the wreath on veterans' graves in the cemetery.

The Memorial Day Program takes place indoors at the historic Fillmore Turner Hall at 523

County Hwy H. Handicap access and parking are available.

The program is sponsored by the Farmington Historical Society. Our thanks to The Fillmore Turner Hall, VFW Post 1393, St. Martin's parish for the refreshments, the Kewaskum High School Band, and a very special thank you to our special guest family.

MEMORIAL DAY

REMEMBER AND HONOR

Honoring Heroes In Local Cemeteries

Town of Byron Memorial Day Program

Town of Byron veterans will once again be honored at the annual Memorial Day tribute on May 27, at the Byron Town Hall and Veterans Memorial. Doors to the hall will be open from 8-11 a.m. for an open house featuring military and historical exhibits. The outdoor program begins at 9:30 a.m., with a keynote address by Eleanor Rhodes on the significance of Memorial Day from a young person's perspective. Ms. Rhodes, a Lomira High School student, is the 2024 second runner-up in the American Legion State Oratorical contest.

American Legion Post #347 of Lomira and VFW Post 8092 of Oakfield will conduct a color guard/rifle squad salute and a roll call of the 112 veterans laid to rest at Bethel, Byron, and St. John's cemeteries in the Town of Byron. The outdoor portion of the program will end with "Taps" and a bagpipe reflection performed by Dr. Joseph Haak.

The Town of Byron Veterans Memorial was dedicated on May 30, 2005 to honor the men and women from the Town of Byron who served our country in war and peace. The Veterans Memorial Committee continues its research for names of veterans who lived or are laid to rest in the Town of Byron. For additional information, contact Tom Kelroy, chair of the Town of Byron Veterans Memorial Committee (920-539-7710) or byronhistorical@att.net.

The Town of Byron Veterans Memorial Committee and the Byron Historical Society are co-sponsors of the event. The Byron Town Hall and Veterans Memorial is located at N3097 Hwy 175 in Byron.

KEWASKUM BASEBALL

Tuesday, May 14

The Kewaskum Indians (12-12, 6-5) lost a tough game to the Winneconne Wolves (3-14, 2-8) by a score of 6-5 in nine innings. Despite not recording their first hit until the sixth inning, the Indians were able to use their speed on the bases to keep the game tied at two. In the sixth inning, Sam Ciriacks singled with one out and stole second base and scored on a Liam Stoffel single for a 3-2 lead headed into the seventh.

However, the lead did not last long as the Wolves scored three in the top of the seventh on a double, passed ball, and a dropped third strike. With the first two batters getting out to start the bottom of the seventh, it did not look promising but the host Indians battled. With two out, Austin Loehr got an infield pop up to drop in front of the pitchers mound, and after an Austin Reichel single to right, courtesy runner Tyler Densow stole second and Karter Fell delivered once again with a two out double to tie the game. A Sam Ciriacks line drive ended the inning and forced extras.

Winneconne stranded the bases loaded in the eighth inning, and Kewaskum looked to be in business with a sacrifice bunt by Andrew Reichert moving Liam Stoffel to second base with one out, but back to back pop outs ended the threat. Winneconne scored on a RBI groundout in the top of the ninth, and the Indians had a chance with a runner on second base and one out again but a ground out moved the runner to third and the threat ended with a pop out to end the game.

Indians Secure Third Place in Conference

Thursday, May 16

Kewaskum (13-12, 7-5) got revenge in their second game versus Winneconne (4-14, 2-9) scoring runs in every inning in a 16-5 victory to secure third place in the East Central Conference.

The offensive attack that had 17 hits was led by Karter Fell going three for three with a pair of RBI's. Everett Donath (RBI), Dylan Soyk (2B), Austin Loehr (RBI), Austin Reichel (2-2B, 2RBI) and Andrew Reichert each had a pair of hits while Kaiden Naumann (RBI), Tyler Densow (2B, 4RBI), Tyler Stray (RBI), and Brayden Loehr each recorded a hit.

The pitching trio of Cooper Peterman (W), Cale Heinonen, and Josh Koenig combined to scatter eight hits and three earned runs over the course of the game while walking seven and striking out four.

Kewaskum was able to steal eight bases on the day allowing lots of RBI chances to which the visitors executed well. The Indians hope to take their momentum into the playoffs starting Thursday.

Kewaskum Fastpitch One Up, Down Two for Week

Losses Dash Hope of Conference Champ Repeat

KHS FASTPITCH SOFTBALL

Kewaskum Girls Fastpitch won one and lost two in the final week of conference play. The two losses dashed the hope of repeating as conference champions.

The week started out promising on Tuesday as the girls defeated Berlin 19-6. The Indians came out of the gate with six runs in the first inning and eight more in the fourth inning. Maya Beistle led the way offensively with four hits. Julia Prochnow and Lauren Rettler also contributed with multiple hits on the day. Kyli Baka scored three runs and Prochnow, Beistle, Rettler, Ellie Calliari, and Millie Kreif all scored two runs each. Beistle and Rettler each had three RBI, and Prochnow, Hannah Galasinski each contributed with two RBI each.

Olivia Beck got the start in the circle and went three innings and gave up three earned runs while striking out four and walking two. Millie Kreif came in as relief pitcher and went two innings, giving up two earned runs while striking out three and walking just one.

Wednesday, May 15, Kewaskum Fastpitch took on the Winneconne Wolves at home and took one on the chin, with a 7-1 loss. The Indians only mustered four hits which led to the lone run. A five error defensive performance led to the Winneconne seven runs, all un-earned.

Macy Sabish pitched seven innings and struck out nine batters and allowed zero earned runs.

Izzy Wollner had two of the Indians four hits and the lone RBI on the board.

The loss to Winneconne secured the conference championship for Waupun, who the Indians would face the following day.

Much like the Winneconne game, the matchup against Waupun would see silent bats and an error-filled defensive performance. Against the Warriors, Kewaskum put up zero runs on six hits and had three errors in the field en route to a 9-0 defeat.

Millie Kreif and Julia Prochnow accounted for four of the six hits on the day. Kreif took the mound and went six innings, striking out five and walking three.

"It was a disappointing week," said Head Coach Chris Sabish. "We didn't come to play these last two games. We got away from technique and the fundamentals that put us in a position to be back to back conference champs, and when your fundamentals aren't there, neither are the wins." Sabish added, "We really need to increase our softball IQ and also get stronger. When you put our kids in a lineup next to the Waupuns and Winneconnes of the world, they are just bigger, faster, stronger kids. It's an opportunity for us for the future."

Kewaskum opened WIAA state tournament play on Tuesday at home against Port Washington.

Kewaskum Boys Golf First at Conference Tournament

CASEY SCHEEL
KEWASKUM BOYS GOLF

Kewaskum boys golf saved their best round of the season for the final, regular season match, the East Central Conference (ECC) Tournament at Hon-E-Kor Golf Course, hosted by Kewaskum.

Kewaskum took advantage of the home course to cruise to a tournament championship, shooting a 308. The Indians were led by sophomore Eli Steinbauer, who was a tournament medalist with a 3-over par 73. With his great performance, he was able to secure First Team All-ECC. The incredible part about Eli is that he just started golfing competitively for the first time last season, as a freshman. It really just comes naturally for him, and he's only going to get better.

Kewaskum had two golfers tie for second place - junior Alex Theusch and freshman Jaxson Voit. Both golfers fired a 77.

I had pretty high expectations for Alex entering the season, being a two-year varsity starter. His season got off to a great start with some really solid rounds. He put together some really consistent rounds, and then hit a mid-season slump where he was really just struggling to score. The last two weeks I could really see him turning the corner, the ball striking was better, and scores started to improve. It was great to see him put it together today for a great round of 77, and the scary part is, is that he left some strokes out there and the round could have been much better. He's been a solid leader all season for us, kids really look up to him, and it's great to see his game take shape when it really matters. Alex received Honorable Mention All-ECC, just missing out on Second Team.

The surprise of the season comes from Jaxson Voit, who is a freshman who just started golfing varsity a few weeks ago. The funny part about golf, as a coach, is that you don't always know what kind of players you are going to get when they come out. Some are brand new to the game, others have been playing for some time. I always knew Jaxson was into golf throughout his middle school years, but what a surprise for me. Jaxson has been a huge contributor for us in almost every meet he has played in, and his 77 today was huge for the team. His solid play over the last three weeks led him to reach Second Team All-ECC.

Brent Krejcarek has been solid as of late and put together a solid round of 81, which proved to be a great score on a tough course today. There were some tough pin locations, but the course knowledge and familiarity really proved to be a difference maker for us. Just a couple of weeks ago, Brent and a couple of his golf buddies were playing a round on a Saturday and he got a hole-in-one on hole 16 white. I think that helps everybody's confidence, and Brent has been really solid.

Luke Graf didn't quite have the day he wanted, but that's golf. He shot a 90, but he was all smiles knowing his four teammates picked him up today for the victory. That was very cool to see, and that's exactly what is needed from a team when one guy isn't at his best.

For the season, Kewaskum was able to jump to third place overall in conference, which is a big accomplishment.

Kewaskum will head to the Kettle Moraine Lutheran Regional on Wednesday, May 22 at Washington County Golf Course.

Campbellsport Baseball Splits with W.L.A.

BEN PRIESGEN JOURNALIST

On May 14, Campbellsport baseball beat Winnebago Lutheran Academy (WLA) 6-3 on the road for their 10th consecutive win.

Campbellsport (15-7, 9-5) got their first run of the game in the first inning, then they added a second run on a Jace Goebel RBI single in the second inning to give the Cougars a 2-0 lead over WLA (11-8, 7-7).

“We were able to manufacture runs throughout this game,” said Head Coach Jim Krug.

The Vikings tied up the game at two after scoring runs in the third and fourth innings.

The Cougars pulled ahead with two runs in the sixth inning featuring RBI singles by Kyler Bowe and Goebel to take a 4-2 lead.

Campbellsport was able to tack on two insurance runs in the seventh inning to help secure the 6-3 conference victory.

“Riley Kohlmann brought his ace stuff to the game for us,” said Krug.

Gov. Evers Signs Novelty Lighter Bill in Pittsville

Legislation was 16 years in the making

BY MIKE WARREN
EDITOR

HUB CITY TIMES-MARSHFIELD
WISCONSIN RAPIDS CITY TIMES

The family and the home are gone now, but the images of a tragic spring day in 2008 never did leave the memories of those in Pittsville who knew Mason Stasheck. That's why the events of April 5 were bittersweet for many who were in attendance, as Gov. Tony Evers signed a piece of legislation first mentioned just a handful of months after Mason's death.

"We had a fatality fire earlier that year that was a classmate of the second graders in the fall," Pittsville Fire Chief Jerry Minor told us during our April 3 interview. "In October, my granddaughter came home and there was an article in the Weekly Reader that said, 'Lighters are not toys,' and she handed it to me and she said, 'Grandpa, you need to make a law,' and that's where it started."

Mason Stasheck was the younger brother of a classmate of Kaitlyn Potts, Minor's granddaughter who went to him with the idea of banning toy-like lighters, like the one that Mason used to set the fire that led to his death from smoke inhalation.

"I thought that it was crazy that there were toy lighters, so I went and I told my grandpa we needed to do something about it," said Kaitlyn Potts, now 23, after the bill had been signed.

Gov. Tony Evers signed the bill in the gymnasium at Pittsville Elementary School where Mason was just getting a start on his education.

"It was definitely a tragedy in the community," said elementary teacher Londa Kuehn, who guided that second-grade class through those tough life lessons all those years ago now. "We needed to meet their emotions and talk about that, and their compassion for the family, for the community and that yearning to want to make a difference. So the facilitation of that yearning is what brought about this bill."

Assembly Bill 917, now 2023 Wisconsin Act 271, prohibits the sale of counterfeit and unsafe lighters to help combat the dangerous rise in knock-off lighters that fail American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Standards.

"Unfortunately, counterfeit and unsafe lighters are unknowingly being purchased every day by consumers and retailers," Gov. Evers said in prepared remarks prior to signing the bill. "These unsafe lighters are a threat to the safety of our communities, our families and our kids," Evers continued. "Kids are especially vulnerable to the dangers of unsafe lighters and fire-play, and unfortunately the folks here in Pittsville know that tragedy firsthand. Not only do these unsafe lighters endanger the lives of kids and our families, but they also place a burden on our emergency response personnel, who – with great courage – combat these preventable disasters. This law prioritizes the safety of our communities by taking these harmful lighters off the market and providing resources to customers, store owners and distributors to ensure they're making informed decisions when making a purchase."

Gov. Evers signs a bill April 5 at Pittsville Elementary School, which bans the sale of novelty lighters in Wisconsin. Joining PreK-12 students were (L-R): Rep. Nancy VanderMeer, Sen. Patrick Testin, Pittsville Fire Chief Jerry Minor, his granddaughter Kaitlyn Potts, who had the idea for the legislation, and her second-grade teacher, Londa Kuehn, who helped Potts and her classmates craft the bill. MIKE WARREN PHOTOS

Legislation aiming to prohibit the display and sale of certain lighters to minors had been introduced during almost every legislative session since 2009 but had failed to pass both the Assembly and the Senate until now. Evers, a former teacher and state school superintendent, was elated to be the one to sign the bill into law.

"It's something you just can't predict," Gov. Evers told us after the bill-signing ceremony. "It started here. The fire chief and others worked really hard to make it happen here in Pittsville, and now here I am signing it into law sixteen years later. It's amazing."

Gov. Evers had heard of the legislation, but did not realize its path to signage had taken nearly two decades, nor did he realize the bill was the result of a fire-related death in the community.

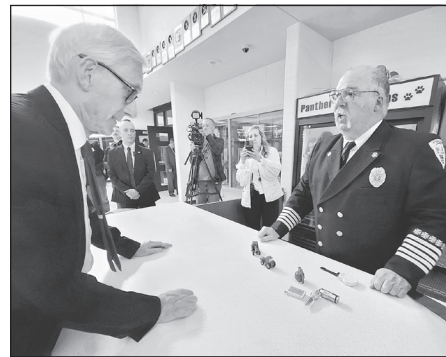

"It's also a good learning lesson for the students here, certainly about the safety issue, but also how government works," Evers added.

Evers said he had asked Chief Minor the same question we asked the governor. This seems like a no-brainer, so why did this take so long?

"You know, he (Minor) would get pushback about Nanny State and is this really the role for government and that sort of thing," Evers told us. "Well, something that causes kids to have a fire in their house and somebody died, that's a big deal and we needed to respond and [it] took sixteen years, but we did."

What Minor thought was going to be "a slam dunk" took multiple hearings over numerous legislative sessions.

"We wrote letters to the current senators and assembly people and to Governor Doyle at the time," Minor said. "Amy Sue Vruwink was our lead in the Assembly and Julie Lassa was our lead in the Senate and they had the bill written and we started going to hearings and I can't even begin to tell you how many hearings we went to," Minor recalled. "The kids came along on some of them. I think we tried everything we could come up with for all those years."

Pittsville Fire Chief Jerry Minor shows Gov. Evers a few examples of the toy-like novelty lighters which will now be banned in Wisconsin, under a bill Evers signed April 5 in Pittsville, where a young child playing with such a lighter set his family's home on fire in 2008 and later died from smoke inhalation.

Minor said there were several years when nothing happened, not even a hearing. Then he said the COVID-related pandemic derailed the bill yet again. And that's when an unlikely ally came along.

"We were approached by BIC Lighter on this, and they didn't know that we already had been trying this," said Minor. "And they came onboard hot and heavy and they had a lot of contacts within the Capital from previous issues."

Before Minor knew it, the bill had cleared both the Assembly and the Senate with very little opposition, and was ready for the governor's signature.

"It actually took me a couple days to realize that it's done," said Minor. "Sometimes it doesn't feel like it's real yet."

"I don't recall the number of states that have banned them. It's quite a few and we wanted to be part of that," Minor added. "BIC came on board with us as a huge partner, and we've always had the support of the lighter association."

Following the bill-signing ceremony, Chief Minor demonstrated some novelty lighters for Evers, who had not seen them prior to his Pittsville visit.

"No I haven't and I'll tell ya, that is one scary thing," the governor said during our conversation. "To think that something that doesn't look like a lighter is a lighter, that's a bad start. It minimizes the fact that what's inside and what you use it for is really dangerous."

The lighter Mason used in 2008 is not known. Minor said all but the metal components melted and were destroyed in the fire.

Assembly Bill 917 passed with bipartisan support and support from the Professional Fire Fighters of Wisconsin, Wisconsin Sheriffs and Deputy Sheriffs Association, Wisconsin State Fire Chiefs Association, and the Wisconsin State Firefighters Association.

Assembly Bill 917, now 2023 Wisconsin Act 271:

Provides that no person may offer for sale or sell, or offer a free sample of, a counterfeit lighter or unsafe lighter; Provides that the prohibition would not apply to any of the following: The interstate transportation of counterfeit or unsafe lighters that pass through Wisconsin; or The storage of counterfeit or unsafe lighters in a warehouse or distribution center if the warehouse or distribution center is not open to the public for the purposes of retail sale or distribution. Defines lighter as any electrical or mechanical device that operates using any type of fuel and that is intended for use in igniting cigarettes, cigars, pipes, charcoal or gas grills, or fireplaces; Defines counterfeit lighter as a lighter that infringes on an intellectual property right of a citizen of the United States or a person that is protected by federal or state intellectual property law; and Defines unsafe lighter as:

A disposable or refillable cigarette, cigar, or pipe lighter that does not comply with ASTM International standard F400-20. A utility, grill, or fireplace lighter, a lighting rod, or a gas match that does not comply with ASTM International standard F2201-20.

Prior to Gov. Evers signing the bill, Minor had a special message to all members of the Pittsville student body who had gathered to witness the historic occasion.

"When you get an idea about making something safer for others, when you get or are asked to pursue an idea that others feel is a good thing, when you know your idea is a good one, don't let go of it. Keep working to get it accomplished. Keep telling your story. Keep looking for support to make it happen. You can realize your dreams and ideas, but nothing comes easy. Don't give up when you know it's the right thing."

"I think that this journey and the way that I got to see my grandpa really take control and make it a reality was really awesome," Potts told us. "So proud of him."
