Campbellsport Football Retains the Kettle Moraine Trophy in the Game of the Week

BEN PRIESGEN
JOURNALIST

On August 30, Campbellsport football beat Kewaskum football 45-14 in the annual battle between area rivals in the Campbellsport News/Kewaskum Statesman Football Game of the Week.

The teams traded punts with two by the Indians and one by the Cougars to start the game until Kewaskum forced a fumble by Riley Kohlmann which was recovered by Gabriel Halopka at the Campbellsport 45-yard line with 5:50 in the first quarter.

Campbellsport's defense responded after the turnover to force a three and out featuring a two-yard tackle for loss by linebacker Blake Heltemes to force a Kewaskum punt.

The Cougars got the ball back at their own 28-yard line after a 15-yard penalty with a fair-catch interference by the Indians.

Campbellsport proceeded to move the ball down 72 yards in 10 plays, highlighted by a Braden Bothe to Luke Pendowski 28-yard pass to get the ball first and goal at the Indians' six-yard line which was then capped off by a Colton Ruppinger six-yard rushing touchdown to give the Cougars a 7-0 lead at the 11:27 mark in the second quarter.

"Our game is built on the running game so we are going to stick with it, and we made some early adjustments then slowly we started to move the ball," said Campbellsport Head Coach Todd Wondra.

Kewaskum punted after three and out on their next possession but the Indians almost were given a gift by the Cougars with a muffed punt.

Campbellsport was able to recover the muffed punt return and started their next possession at their own 46-yard line.

The Indians' defense stuffed a fourth and one QB sneak play by Bothe for the Cougars' offense at the Kewaskum 35-yard line.

September is Preparedness Month

JOHN M. ROSS
FOND DU LAC COUNTY EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT DIRECTOR

Each year the month of September is designated as National Preparedness Month. This initiative serves as a reminder of the importance of planning and preparing for possible emergencies we may face. These emergencies can range from things such as a fire in your home to natural disasters such as flooding, tornadoes, winter storms or extreme temperatures among others, any of which could result in a long-term loss of utilities such as electricity, gas, or water to your home. They can also be man-made or technology related incidents such as a hazardous materials release as the result of a transportation accident or a loss of services due to a cyber attack or other failure. Any of these types on incidents can result in significant impacts.

Preparedness is a whole community effort and responsibility. While responders work together to plan for and be ready for response to a disaster along side local government officials and partners from agencies such as the American Red Cross, Salvation Army, and United Way, individuals and families need to also plan and prepare to help build resilience in our communities. This resilience will serve to help mitigate the impacts of disaster as well and enhancing the response to and recovery from a disaster if it occurs. There are many things we can do to help be more prepared for an emergency. Fond du Lac County Emergency Management encourages everyone to be as ready as possible. This preparation and planning can make a major difference in your ability to respond if an emergency happens.

Make A Plan – Develop a plan for how you and your loved ones will respond during any emergency. Know where your shelters at home, work and school are located and how you will safely leave the building, if needed such as in a fire. Practice going to those safe places. Also, make sure everyone knows how to contact each other if a disaster were to occur while you are separated.

Have A Kit – Kits should include enough non-perishable food, water, and medications to last up to 72 hours. Consider special dietary needs such as formula for infants or items with those on special dietary restrictions. First aid supplies, a flashlight, and a NOAA Weather Radio, along with copies of insurance policies, prescriptions, and a list of important contact numbers, are also great inclusions. Store your kit in a location where you can access it quickly during an emergency.

Be Informed - Know the potential hazards you may encounter. Know your risk and how you will respond. Have multiple sources of information before, during, and after an emergency to receive important information from responders and local officials about the emergency including vital information such as shelters, if needed, utility restoration, and safety instructions are all important things to have available. NOAA All-Hazards Radio, local TV and Radio, cell phone apps and internet sites such as National Weather Service are examples of these types of sources of information.

Preparedness Month serves as an excellent reminder and opportunity to do what we can to plan and prepare for emergencies. We must also remember that this is a year-round need.

More information is available through your County Emergency Management Office along with FEMA's ready.gov website and Wisconsin Emergency Management's Ready Wisconsin website.

The Saints In Our Midst

Dear Reader,

In the hustle and bustle of our daily lives, it's easy to overlook the quiet acts of kindness and the unwavering strength of character that some individuals exhibit. These rare souls, who we might call the "saints in our midst," embody virtues that transcend the ordinary. They remind us that sainthood is not a distant, unattainable ideal but a tangible reality that can manifest in any of us, regardless of our circumstances.

is right, offering a helping hand to someone in need, or simply showing love and patience in difficult situations, these acts define our potential for greatness.

Every now and then, we encounter an extraordinary person whose strength of character and capacity for love shine through. These individuals are rare, but their impact is profound. They inspire us not through grand gestures or ostentatious displays, but through their consistent, quiet commitment to virtue. In a world where money and power often dominate, they remind us that true integrity lies in the purity of our actions and intentions.

In recognizing and celebrating these saints, we also acknowledge our own potential for goodness. We may not all be destined for sainthood in the traditional sense, but we can all strive to embody the virtues that define it. By doing so, we contribute to a world that is a little kinder, a little more just, and a lot more compassionate.

We all strive for sainthood at times, in our own ways and within the limits of our capabilities. When we choose to do the right thing, despite adversity, we are tailoring ourselves to be the best versions of who we are. It's in these moments of moral clarity and strength that we brush against the essence of what it means to be saint-like. Whether it's standing up for what Along about this time of year, dread sets in. Leastwise, for both some young'uns and adults. The kids know school days rapidly approach. Oh, a few look forward to a different classroom. Hanging with their friends. Or just the challenge in learning something new. Of course, the ones that did when I was a wee lad were the valedictorian and salutatorian at our graduation.

For all of 'em, reluctant or not, a certainty abides. Vacation's over. Now it's back to the rigors of studying. Perhaps unaware school is preparation for a job as a grownup. Hours behind the desk traded for those spent in front of a machine for the blue-collar worker or a computer for the white. Recess is known as breaks.

Adults may lament the summer's passing. Especially if they're a warm weather sort without the scratch to make like a snowbird and migrate south to warmer climes. Parents have the obligatory visits to the store for their children's supplies. As well as upcoming meetings with teachers to discuss their offspring's progress. Gone are the cardstock report cards with simple, single letter assessments. X, S or U for excellent, satisfactory or nsatisfactory. Going home with a slate of U's wasn't X.

Believe it or not, there's actually a group of folks who are down with it, dig these prior to enrollment sales. That'd be those individuals who refer to themselves as writers. Even if they aren't published authors. We all gotta begin somewhere. Who can't groove to finding bargains on notebooks, including the quaint marbled cover, sewn in pages type? Maybe glue sticks. Cuts down on submission envelope licking and paper cuts to the tongue. Definitely pens, for all the cursive, handwritten manuscripts.

Yes, bring it on. Run them discounts awhile please. Never can get enough. Aren't too many tradesmen who value their tools quite like the literary crowd.

Don't Let Frost End Your Garden Season

MELINDA MYERS
CONTRIBUTOR

No matter where you garden there never seems to be enough time to grow and enjoy all your favorite vegetables. Start preparing now to extend your growing season and continue enjoying garden fresh vegetables even after the first frost.

Some vegetables like cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower, kale and Brussels sprouts tolerate frost and even taste better after a slight chill. Most of these can tolerate temperatures as low as 24 to 28 degrees Fahrenheit.

Leeks are another vegetable that thrives in cooler temperature. Many tolerate temperatures as low as 20° F. Just mound some protective mulch around the plants and continue harvesting.

Take advantage of the chilly winter temperatures to store some of your carrots, turnips and parsnips in the ground for winter. Just cover the soil with straw or evergreen boughs after it lightly freezes. Dig as needed or during a winter thaw. You will enjoy their wonderfully sweet flavor.

Those first few fall frosts are often followed by a week or more of mild temperatures. Protecting frost sensitive plants from the first few fall frosts is one way of extending your season. Cover the plants with old bed sheets, mattress pads, or similar items in late afternoon and remove them as soon as the temperatures climb above freezing. Keep these handy and be ready to cover whenever frost is in the forecast.

Make it easier by using floating row covers. The spun material allows air, light and water through while protecting the plants from frost. You will find different weights of row covers that provide different levels of temperature protection. Just loosely cover the plants and anchor the edges with stones, boards or garden pins. You only need to remove the fabric to harvest ripe vegetables. Otherwise, it can stay in place until the vegetables stop producing or you decide it is time to end the season.

Create a high tunnel over garden beds filled with large plants. Use hoops and row cover to allow easy access for harvesting while protecting the plants.

Cloches have long been used to jump start the season or extend it beyond the first fall frost. You'll find a variety of shapes and sizes available. Select one large enough to cover your plants and protect them as needed. Look for those with vents to prevent plants from overheating and those that allow water through while trapping in the heat.

Don't let unripe tomatoes go to waste if you are unable or unwilling to protect them from frost. Harvest any that are starting to show color before the killing frost and finish ripening them indoors. The bottom of the tomato should be greenish white or starting to color up. Store your green tomatoes in a cool (60 to 65 degrees) location to extend their storage life.

Spread out the tomatoes on heavy paper or wrap them individually in newspaper so the fruit do not touch each other. They'll ripen over the next few weeks. Speed up the process by moving a few tomatoes to a warm bright location a few days before they're needed. Enjoy green tomatoes fried, in relish, salsa, pies or many other ways.

And when your season ends, begin planning for next year. Enlist some of these strategies to jump start the season for an earlier harvest.

K.P.D. 10th Annual Back-to-School Scavenger Hunt

Brothers, Waylon and JJ, earn a ride to school with Kewaskum Chief of Police Tom Bishop on August 29, after finding the hidden item in the back-to-school scavenger hunt. SUBMITTED

JOURNALIST

Police Chief Tom Bishop of Kewaskum recently held the 10th annual back-to-school scavenger hunt.

For the past 10 years, the Kewaskum Police Department (KPD) has held a scavenger hunt to help create a fun transition for students as summer break comes to an end and they head back to school.

"I started doing this as a way to get families outside and into our parks a bit more. It's a fun way to connect with the youth in our community," said Officer Bishop.

Before the hunt begins, the KPD hides an item somewhere outside in the community and then posts clues on Facebook to help guide students in the right direction. Whoever finds the item first receives a ride to school from the Chief in his police car on their first day.

This year, the item that the community was looking for was a KPD keychain in a plastic bag with red evidence tape on it.

The rules stated that participants must attend a school within the District of Kewaskum. Additionally, players should look for the item on public property only and the first to find the item should take a picture with it and tag the KPD on Facebook.

The hunt began on Aug. 26 at 4:00 p.m. The first clue mentioned that the item was attached to wood. The next clue, posted a few hours later, stated, "When you hear it, you know what to do."

Brothers, JJ and Waylon, found the hidden key chain fairly quickly after the clues were given.

"JJ and Waylon used their amazing detective skills to figure out the item was hidden at the base of the tornado siren located at Knights Ave Park," stated Bishop.

The boys received a ride to school from the Chief on Thursday, Aug. 29.

Early Farm Days To Be Held This Sunday

The Kewaskum Historical Society will hold Early Farm Days on Sunday, Sept. 8, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. along the west side of River Hill Park in Kewaskum.

The theme of this year's celebration is "Blacksmiths & Tools of the Trade." Admission is free of charge.

"We will have at least two working blacksmiths giving live demonstrations. They will have tools out for display and discussion," said Eva Harvey, Kewaskum Historical Society treasurer.

The day also will feature steam and gas engines, threshing and antique farm equipment, displays, demonstrations, horse-drawn wagon rides, barrel train rides, a petting farm and live music. In addition, the Kewaskum Historical Society Museum, located at 1202 Parkview Drive, will be open during the event. Food and beverages will be available for purchase, including brats, burgers and homemade pies.

Anyone with old farm equipment is encouraged to display their items at the show. Exhibitors are expected to come from all around the area for Kewaskum's Early Farm Days event.

Early Farm Days offers a chance for the entire community to share and enjoy the area's past through exhibits and demonstrations. The event is not a flea market where items are sold. Instead, it is a venue where people can exhibit their cherished possessions for others to see.

"It is always a surprise to see what shows up," Harvey said. "If you look around your house, you probably have old treasures you didn't even know you had."

Early Farm Days promises to offer something for people of all ages.

"Due to the kind of setup that we have, it is a little different from engine shows because it is not just all about tractors. There is the playground and petting zoo for the kids. It is nice to sit and look at the river and is a great time to reminisce with everyone." Harvey said. "It is a community event that offers fun for all."

Melanie Jessica Brunmeier

Melanie Jessica Brunmeier, the first child of Debbie and Michael Brunmeier, was born in Duluth, MN, on September 5, 1978, died peacefully at home in Ft Lauderdale, FL, on August 18, 2024.

Debbie preceded Melanie in death on February 3, 2012.

Melanie is survived by her father, Michael; and three brothers, M. Joshua,

M. Jared and M. James. All four children were separated by approximately 18 months in age, and all were very close to each other to the end.

Melanie passed away as she wished, in her home in Ft Lauderdale, FL, on Sunday, Aug. 18, 2024, with the Warnock's and the rest of her Brunmeier/Walsh family at her bedside.

Melanie attended grade schools in Green Bay and Campbellsport, graduated high school from St. Mary's Spring Academy, Fond du Lac, class of '97. On a whim and being nudged by a friend, Melanie applied for an appointment to the US Naval Academy (USNA) at Annapolis, MD, and to her surprise, was awarded an appointment to the Academy where she graduated in the Class of '01.

While at the USNA Melanie kept a low profile but also established a lifelong bond with many of her classmates and also with a local sponsor family, a family who offers up their home as a point of refuge away from the Academy, no questions asked, whenever a Midshipman can get away from the demands and rigors of Academy life. The Bill and M.C. Warnock family, along with their two, very young daughters at the time, Molly and Jill, who got a new big sister and have remained very close to Melanie, as well as with the entire Brunmeier family.

As part of the USNA Class of '01, Melanie applied for positions that allowed her to be on stations that were active naval vessel operations. Melanie served on the the missile cruiser USS Vincennes and on the USS Ronald Reagan, as part of the Commodores' command staff in Japan and San Diego as her duty stations. Melanie was also vetted for and given a Top Secret Security Clearance, required for her duties in the fleet.

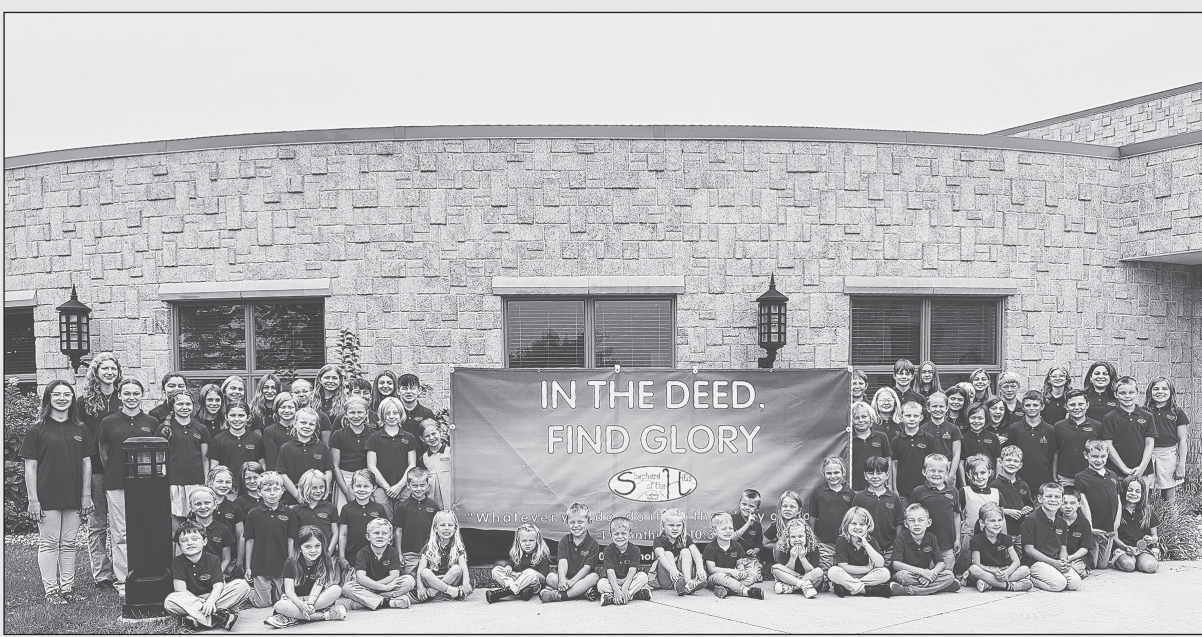

One of the highlights of Melanie's career was to be part of the USS Ronald Reagan's maiden voyage from its east coast shipyard, around Cape Horn South America to its new home port of San Diego, CA. Along the way several members of the Reagan family were flown on board the Reagan for the last leg of the maiden voyage to its new home port of San Diego, CA.

The love of the sea and the activity of being a crew member of a large ship was a calling that stuck with Melanie. After active duty with the US Navy, she went back to school and worked to become a 2nd-mate/pilot in the Merchant Marine/Maritime shipping industries up and until the time of her diagnosis of breast and brain cancer in 2021/23

The Maritime shipping industries' mandated Covid-19 vaccine program, like many other mandates by US and international corporations, poisoned a healthy, cancer-free 42-year-old with the mRNA drug that started the progression of turbo cancers, stripped her of her natural cancer fighting immunities, poisoned her body and she was unable to defend against those newly forming cancers.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held on Wednesday, Sept. 4, at 5 p.m. at St. Matthew's Catholic Church, 406 E. Main St. Campbellsport with visitation on Wednesday, Sept. 4, from 4 p.m. until time of Mass at the Church. Rev. Mark Jones officiated. A second Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Thursday, Sept. 5, at 11 a.m. at St. Patrick's Oratory, 211 N. Maple Ave. Green Bay, with visitation on Thursday, Sept. 5, from 10 a.m. until time of Mass at the Oratory. Burial will follow the second Mass at Allouez Cemetery, Green Bay.

Frank Joseph Beesten

Frank Joseph Beesten, born Franz Josef Alexander Maria von Beesten, died peacefully in his sleep at home, on July 23, 2024. Born on December 23, 1933, Frank went to his heavenly Father at the age of 90, in Canton, GA, where daughters and grandchildren could regularly visit and take care of him. He was the son of Heinrich and Franziska (Goerdes) von Beesten of Koblenz, Germany.

All who knew Frank enjoyed his compassion, curiosity, ready smile and great - at times delightfully sassy - humor. Frank consumed multiple daily newspapers and news magazines and was an active participant in the civic fabric of Kewaskum, his home with wife Mary for over 40 years.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Wachholz Beesten; son, Joseph John Beesten; and brother, Hans Joachim v. Beesten.

He is survived by his sister, Hiltrud (Tom) Melin; three daughters, Cheryl (Phil) West, Pamela (Mike) Last, and Michelle Beesten Alexander; his seven grandchildren, Katie (Clint) Royer, Hillary (Justin) Jeter, Caleb Last, Trevin Last, Gavin (Kirsten) West, Julia (James) Shealy, and Zol Beesten Sotelo; and 11 great-grandchildren, Aubrynn, Chantry, Ahava, Creed, Avionna, Liliana, Benton, Waverly, Jubilee, Theodore and Solomon. Beloved surviving nieces and cousins include Barbara and Larry, Mirja, Petra, Anna, Debbie, Mary Ellen, Nancy, Karen, Lori-Jean, Lois, Robert, Greg and Sheila.

The great arc of Frank's journey from a vanquished post-war Germany, to experiencing a hard-working version of the American dream, launched with a decision at age 14 to move to the United States. In 1951, at age 17, he boarded the Liberte from Le Havre, France, ocean-bound for New York and land-travel to Manitowoc County. Under the sponsorship of family friends, the Thiels, he received room and board on their dairy farm, a $1.00 daily stipend and a set number of years to work off the cost of his passage. When applauded for his youthful courage, he would dismiss the notion by saying he had a simple dream - to land on a farm so that he could eat. In Wisconsin he furthered his class-room English to fluency through the radio and an active social life, which included fireman's picnics, where he met his future bride, Mary. He enlisted in the Army and was stationed at Camp Wolters, TX, from 1955 to 1957, where he became naturalized in 1957. The love letters he and Mary exchanged at that time attest to beautiful dreams of family and devotion. They married in 1959, when he was 26, and raised four children. He took a job at the Manitowoc Post Office, where he continued to work, even after he and Mary bought their 28-acre farm in 1969. There they raised beef cattle, grew hay and corn, and cultivated a massive garden, living a farm life filled with dances, polka music, farm equipment, barn repairs, and fireworks over Lake Michigan.

After joining the Post Office as a mail-carrier, Frank worked his way up into management and became Postmaster in 1978. He moved his family to Kewaskum, Wisconsin, where they resided and grew their cherished network of friends for over 40 years. Frank served as treasurer in several organizations - Holy Trinity Catholic Church, the Lions Club, the local library - and served for many years on the Village Planning Commission until age 88. Frank assumed a leadership role in the federal Postmasters and Managers organization, dedicating many years volunteering to represent federal workers' interests.

In retirement, he and Mary enjoyed travel, concerts, their neighbors, and hosting good friends for memorable meals. Frank's cooking became more than a habit; his food obsession kept him active tracking down quality ingredients around the Milwaukee, West Bend and Manitowoc area. He became a full-time caretaker of Mary in her last few years, and they moved to Canton, Georgia in 2022 to be near their daughters for more immediate support.

Frank was able to truly enjoy the fruits of his life-long labors, enjoying the peace of security and comfort that his origins as a self-proclaimed "poor little immigrant boy" did not guarantee. Rather, he earned them through unrelenting cheerfulness and methodical hard work. His sharp humor, the twinkle of his eye, big heart, and insightfulness will be sorely missed.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 13, at the Harrigan Parkside Funeral Home. Rev. Christian Raj will officiate with burial to take place at St. Anne's Catholic Cemetery in Francis Creek. A luncheon for family and friends will be held at the Harrigan Parkside Gathering Center located on the south property of the Harrigan Parkside Funeral Home. The family will greet relatives and friends at the Harrigan Parkside Funeral Home on Friday, Sept. 13, from 10 a.m. until the time of the funeral service at 11 a.m. Online condolences may be sent to the family by visiting www.harriganparksidefuneralhome.com

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate memorials in Frank's name to St. Anne's Catholic Cemetery which will be used to maintain the cemetery grounds.

The Harrigan Parkside Funeral Home and Crematory, North 11th and St. Clair streets, Manitowoc is assisting the family with funeral arrangements.

Wisconsin Bear Hunters Applaud Joint Audit Committee

WISCONSIN BEAR HUNTERS' ASSOCIATION

Carl Schoettel, President of the Wisconsin Bear Hunters' Association (WBHA), made the following statement on the Joint Legislative Audit Committee's actions on the Fish and Wildlife account.

"The Wisconsin Bear Hunters' Association would like to thank Senator Wimberger, Representative Wittke and the members of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee for bringing forward an audit of the State's Fish and Wildlife Account. We would also like to thank Senator Stafsholt and Representative Green for their courage in asking for an audit. For far too long there have been questions and concerns over the handling of the dollars coming directly from Wisconsin's sportsmen and sports-women into the Fish and Wildlife account. Wisconsin's sporting community deserves transparency and accountability over where these dollars go and how they are allocated. We look forward to getting that transparency through the audit procedure."

WBHA will continue to advocate for the sporting community in Wisconsin to ensure that dollars that are earmarked for the betterment of our sporting heritage are being spent wisely.

For more information please contact Carl Schoettel by calling 608-819-0150.

Empowering Parents – Understanding the Youth Risk Behavior Survey

As we continue to navigate the challenges of raising healthy, well-adjusted children, it is essential to stay informed about the factors influencing their well-being. To support parents in this endeavor, the comprehensive guide referred to as the Youth Risk Behavior Survey (YRBS), is an invaluable tool for understanding and addressing the health risks facing today's youth.

What is the Youth Risk Behavior Survey?

The Youth Risk Behavior Survey is a nationwide initiative conducted by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) that gathers crucial data on the behaviors and experiences of high school students. This survey addresses a range of issues including:

- Substance use (alcohol, drugs, and tobacco)
- Physical activity and nutrition
- Sexual behavior and health
- Mental health and suicidal ideation
- Safety and violence

Why is the YRBS Important for Parents?

1. Identifying Trends: The YRBS provides insights into current trends among youth, helping parents understand what issues are prevalent and how they may impact their own children.
2. Guiding Conversations: The data from the survey can serve as a conversation starter, allowing parents to discuss important topics with their children and address concerns proactively.
3. Community Support: By being informed about the broader trends, parents can advocate for community programs and policies that support youth health and safety.

How Can Parents Use This Information?

- Stay Informed: Review the latest YRBS data and reports to understand the trends affecting youth in your community and beyond.
- Engage in Dialogue: Use the insights gained from the survey to have open and supportive conversations with your children about their behaviors and experiences and advocate to your school board if your district is not taking the survey.
- Support Resources: Seek out local resources and programs that address the issues highlighted in the YRBS and encourage your child's participation.

Get Involved

We encourage all parents to familiarize themselves with the findings of the Youth Risk Behavior Survey and use this knowledge to foster a healthier and more supportive environment for their children. For more information about the YRBS and how to access the latest reports, visit dpi.wi.gov/sspw/yrbs or contact us directly at info@washozwi.gov.

By working together and staying informed, we can make a positive difference in the lives of our youth and ensure they have the support they need to thrive.

Washington Ozaukee Public Health, along with community partners, is dedicated to promoting youth health and well-being through education, advocacy, and community engagement. Our mission for the YRBS is to provide resources and support to families and communities, helping them address the challenges faced by today's youth.

This class is disproportionately high because of the 16 year old students who did not enroll last year and are therefore in the present class.

The Kewaskum public school opened Tuesday for the 1949-50 term and the tremendous increase in enrollment very evidently shows how badly the new kindergarten, grade school building and increased high school facilities to be constructed are needed. A new, all-time high record of 315 pupils enrolled, 36 more than last year when there were 279. Largest class in high school is that of the freshmen, which has 74 students, far more than last year's class of 49.

Operation Musky 2024

MARK WALTERS
COLUMNIST

Hello friends,

Just to give you an idea of how fast a lifetime passes, I enlisted in the Wisconsin Air National Guard in 1981 and got out after my enlistment ended in '87. I loved the Air Guard, was a weapons loader and was good at it. The problem was I wanted to canoe up the Mississippi River, and the only way to do it was to get out. Fast forward 37 years and some of my closest friends, from the 80's, are my prior military buddies, and each year we get together with members of my deer camp and a few other good people for two days of howling at the moon and musky fishing on the Eagle River chain of lakes for a friendly musky fishing outing with just under 20 teams.

Saturday, August 24

High 77, Low 50

To say that I only put about 30 percent effort into winning this weekend bash would be correct. To say that I put 150 percent effort into having as much fun as possible and trying to talk with all 38 fishermen would be true. Generally speaking, my buddy Jeff Moll, who put in 23 years at Truax Field in Madison's "115th Tactical Fighter Wing," and I are the last ones to bed each night.

Yesterday everyone arrives, and we stay at Hiawatha Motel in Eagle River, and this place is perfect for having fun and they have a dock for your boat. We have an informal meeting outside by all of our boats and a shin dig with beer, and this year I served my homemade chili over noodles with polish rye bread. The energy at this event is top notch and for everyone. Not only is it my military buddies but it is also the official start to the Red Brush Gangs "our deer camp" season of fun.

Today would be a bit different. Jeff Moll is generally my partner, but he could not get in the tournament until late in the game, so I asked long time Walters family friend Roger Frank to be my partner. Roger goes all over North America with us and, though he couldn't catch a cold, he is a ton of fun. Because Jeff is Jeff, it was worked out that he would partner up with someone else but fish with Roger and I.

It has been three years since Jeff or I caught any form of a fish so were we ever surprised when Jeff latched onto and caught a really, enormously huge, 15-inch northern pike. Little did we know that over the next two days that would be our only fish. Actually, we were not surprised.

We hit the water at 7:30 a.m. but fished until 8:00 p.m. when the gathering ends until the following morning. Besides awing Roger with our skills and ability to talk a lot, our favorite part of the day always is pulling up to another boat of friends and in some cases five boats and just shooting the jaw. I am a competitive guy and for the most part, no one can understand how come I suck so much on this given weekend. It's because I don't care, which really ticks off my buddy Moll.

Towards dark, my stepson Joey Dushek caught a 43-inch musky and my no-good, trouble-making nephew Trent Schuster, Joey's partner, netted it for him. Joey is very good at catching musky, only because I taught him how. That comment will get me the cold shoulder for a bit but seriously, Joe and Trent do well.

Us old timers in this group, of which I would say half are over 60 and the other half are 25 to 40, have a blast with these kids and I think they have a blast with us. Many of them are our kids or friends of our kids and what I have always said about the outdoor sports is really proven here and that is, if you take your kids hunting and fishing, you will have a friend when they are adults.

Joe and Trent won; make sure you ask Joe which technique he used that I taught him. The most important thing I can finish with is this: I am proud of my days in the military, our country is free, and we have ourselves a blast each year the last weekend of August.

KEWASKUM CHAMBER SPOTLIGHT

Welcome to the Kewaskum Friends of Park, Inc!
The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is thrilled to extend a warm welcome to the newly established Kewaskum Friends of Park, Inc (KFOP). Officially gaining 501(c)(3) non-profit status in March 2024, KFOP is dedicated to promoting and assisting in the development of the Village of Kewaskum parks system. This passionate group of individuals, who utilize the parks in various ways, brings a strong sense of community to their mission.

Mission and Vision
KFOP's mission is clear: to promote and assist the development of the Village of Kewaskum parks system. The board is comprised of individuals deeply rooted in the community, sharing a collective vision of a thriving park system. Their dedication to enhancing our parks is evident through their active involvement and the events they host.

Community Events and Engagement
KFOP has already made a significant impact with their inaugural event, "Pints and Polka." They recently announced their next event, "Perfect Pairings," set to take place in River Hill Park, located at 1150 Parkview Dr. This event will be held on the west side of the river, adjacent to the Kewaskum Historical Society, which will be open for attendees to explore. Additionally, KFOP will be hosting clinics for activities such as pickleball, which fosters community engagement and promotes active lifestyles.

The Biergarten Project
One of KFOP's most ambitious goals is the creation of a Biergarten, envisioned as a gathering space for the community. This project will be accomplished in two phases, utilizing the existing beach house in Kiwanis Park. Phase 1 will focus on establishing the Biergarten space, complete with a covered pavilion and stage area. This versatile stage will serve as a venue for music performances, plays, community gatherings, and much more, making it a hub for activity and culture. Phase 2 will see the development of a community room, addressing the current lack of adequate venues for community rentals. The community room will be fully enclosed and be available for rental year-round. With both of these combined spaces, events such as farmers markets, craft fairs, family reunions, wedding receptions, and community meetings will now easily have a space within our parks. The design of this project is being generously donated by: Drexel Building Supply, assisting in initial vision planning, Kallie Ogi, Architect with Excel Engineering, and Chris Sabish Construction Manager with CD Smith. The Biergarten and community space will not only enhance our parks but also serve as a vessel for raising additional funds to further improve the Kewaskum Parks System.

Future Aspirations
KFOP has a clear vision for the future of our parks; a few key improvements include creating an all-abilities playground, adding more basketball and pickleball courts, and developing a kayak launch and fishing dock in River Hill Park. These initiatives demonstrate their commitment to making our parks accessible and enjoyable for everyone.

A Unique and Passionate Group
What sets KFOP apart is their deep passion for the community and their desire to see a thriving park system. While the organization is still young, its members have long been ingrained in the fabric of Kewaskum, contributing to the community's well-being in various ways. Their enthusiasm and dedication are evident in every project they undertake.

Collaboration with Other Non-Profits
KFOP aims to be an integral part of Kewaskum's vibrant non-profit community. The village is home to many outstanding organizations, including the Kewaskum Athletic Association (KAA), Kewaskum Youth Sports Organization (KYSO), Kewaskum Arts Council, Kiwanis Club, and many more. KFOP looks forward to collaborating with these groups to continue the tradition of excellence in community service and development.

Welcome and Thank You KFOP
In welcoming KFOP, we celebrate their vision, dedication, and the positive impact they will undoubtedly have on our community. We encourage everyone to support their efforts and look forward to the exciting developments they will bring to our beloved parks. Together, we can create a vibrant, inclusive, and thriving park system for all to enjoy. Welcome, Kewaskum Friends of Park, Inc!

omore QB Eli Ogi with three completions on the ensuing drive with his best pass to Landon Daniel for 19 yards for a first down to set up the Indians at the Cougars' 35-yard line.

Carter Gellings got an interception for the second consecutive week for Campbellsport and returned the ball to his 49-yard line.

"Carter has come up with a big interception during the past two weeks for us," said Wondra. "Our defense line is playing well as a unit and we are playing fast and hard as the defense is still learning our system."

The Cougars gave the ball to their senior running back Riley Kohlmann on the first play after the turnover and Kohlmann got a huge running lane opened by his offensive line which he used to burst up the field untouched for a 51-yard rushing touchdown to give Campbellsport a 14-0 lead with 5:17 left in the first half.

The teams traded punts on their next possessions but Kewaskum fumbled their punt return which was recovered by Gage Kohlmann at the Kewaskum 24-yard line.

Campbellsport was able to convert the turnover into a Pendowski 34-yard field goal to make the score 17-0 at halftime.

The spotlight of that drive was the Campbellsport offensive players showing concern and care for one of their teammates who didn't feel right after the third down play to get looked at by the athletic trainer. (player was fine after being checked out and returned to the game).

"This team is really playing for each other and they care about each other," said Wondra. "We continue to preach that we need everyone each week that suits up and we need to take care of each other by being there for one another."

The Cougars started with the ball in the third quarter and drove the ball to the Kewaskum 45-yard line when Trent Schladweiler supplied an explosive run of 45 yards into the end zone at the 9:43 mark in the third quarter to push the Campbellsport lead to 24-0.

Kewaskum's next offensive drive was ended by an intentional grounding penalty causing their punter to punt from their own end zone.

Campbellsport's Schladweiler blocked the Indians' punt which floated above the teams before coming into the hands of Elijah Fleischman who returned the block punt for a lineman's dream touchdown to extend the Cougars lead to 31-0 with 8:32 on the clock in the third quarter.

"Trent blocking the punt and being picked up by Eli was a big turning point for us in the game," said Wondra. "It is just our kids playing hard and coming up big to turn the game."

The Cougars got the ball back on offense after a Kewaskum punt at their own 49-yard line.

Campbellsport drove to the Indians' 38-yard line before Anthony Coleman intercepted a pass from Bothe and Kewaskum took over the ball at their own 25-yard line.

Ogi hit Coleman with a 39-yard pass on the first play after the interception to get the Indians to the Cougars' 36-yard line.

Kewaskum got another first down on a pass from Ogi before Campbellsport's Emmett Gonnering came up with a five-yard sack to set up a third and fifteen at the Cougars' 30-yard line.

The Indians responded with a 30-yard touchdown pass from Ogi to Daniel to get Kewaskum on the scoreboard with a score of 31-7 in favor of the Cougars at the end of the third quarter.

Campbellsport recovered an onside kick by Kewaskum at their own 37-yard line to start the fourth quarter for the teams.

The Cougars drove 63 yards in nine plays for the next four minutes of the game which ended with a Chris Taddey 20-yard rushing touchdown for a 38-7 Cougars lead.

"We have a bunch of backs led by Riley and Trent but we have Colton, Chris, Blake, Pierce who have fit in nicely as a group and will continue to be bigger parts of the offense as we continue this season," said Wondra.

Kewaskum's offense was stopped on a fourth down which was set up by a second-down sack by R. Kohlmann who chased Ogi down with backside pursuit.

Campbellsport took advantage of the short field with the possession starting at the Indians' 24-yard line by Schladweiler scoring his second touchdown on the day with a one-yard rushing touchdown to make the score 45-7 with 3:33 remaining in the game.

Kewaskum got a 65-yard passing touchdown from Ogi to Daniel with 1:35 on the clock for a final score of 45-14 between the two rival teams playing for the Kettle Moraine Trophy.

"It's always great to take care of business in your rivalry games," said Wondra. "We prepare for this game as a conference game because of the history between our two communities."

Campbellsport football will host NFDL on September 6 at 7 p.m. in their conference opener.

Kewaskum football will travel to Edgewood on September 6 at 7 p.m.

C.H.S. Boys Soccer Comes Away with First Game Loss

ANDY MILLER
BOYS SOCCER HEAD COACH

On Thursday, August 29, Campbellsport hosted Winneconne for what became its season opener in a non-conference match.

The Cougars struggled to get going and the Wolves controlled the game for the majority of the first half. After starting the game down 7-0, the Campbellsport boys settled down a few minutes into the second half and were able to put more shots on goal and control the tempo of the game during the second half.

The Cougars were only able to convert one goal, scored by senior Maverick Grahl on junior Harvey Buddenhagen's assist.

The game that would have been the opener for the Cougars scheduled for August 27 against Berlin was cancelled due to the weather. Campbellsport's next game is at Mayville on September 5 at 4:30 p.m.

The Mystery of Migration

On Tuesday, Sept. 17, at 6 p.m., the Campbellsport Public Library will be hosting Bill Volkert as he presents a talk titled “The Mystery of Migration.”

One of the most fascinating aspects of the lives of birds is their ability to migrate thousands of miles as they follow the changing seasons. This presentation will explore the annual migration of birds, their seasonal phenology, and explore recent studies that are revealing more information and instilling greater wonder over the phenomenon of bird migration. Birds not only come and go with the seasons, but they do so in the same order every year. This program will provide an insight into why birds migrate and the orderly succession of species that arrive in Wisconsin each spring. This program is free and open to the public.

Mix and Make Event

Starting on Tuesday, Sept. 10, school-aged students are invited to join us every second Tuesday of the month at 3:30 p.m. for a Mix and Make Event. Mix up delicious food creations and make a craft to take home with you. Join us on September 10, for ice cream sundaes and diamond art. Registration is appreciated, but not required.

Monday Movie of the Month

The Monday Movie of the Month for September 30, at 1 p.m. and 6 p.m., will be “Unsung Hero.” When David Smallbone’s successful music company collapses, he moves his family from Australia to the United States in search of a brighter future. With nothing more than their six children, their suitcases, and their love of music, David and his pregnant wife, Helen, set out to rebuild their lives from the ground up. Based on a remarkable true story, a mum’s faith stands against all odds; and inspires her husband and children to hold onto theirs. Run Time is 1 hour, 13 minutes, for this PG-rated movie.

LORI KREIS, DIRECTOR
KEWASKUM PUBLIC LIBRARY

Wondering what to read now that summer and beach read season is over? The library will be accumulating all sorts of new books from favorite authors and new ones. Historical fiction, suspense, literary picks along with memoirs and other non-fiction will be coming your way soon.

Liane Moriarity is a popular writer among our patrons, and she is releasing Here One Moment, one of this year’s most anticipated reads. When they board their short domestic flight, none of the passengers think that it will change their lives forever. They land safely at their destination and regale their family and friends with a tale of “The Death Lady” who oddly predicted the date of each of their deaths. When three passengers die exactly as she predicted, the rest of the passengers begin to wonder what they can do to live their lives in the time remaining and what they are willing to do to defy fate. Another popular author, Matt Haig comes out with a touching novel in The Life Impossible. Retired math teacher Grace Winters is shocked when she inherits a run-down house on a Mediterranean island from a long-lost friend. With a one-way ticket in hand, Grace arrives in Ibiza and searches for answers on how her friend lived and died. But what Grace uncovers seems impossible, forcing her to confront her own past. The Night We Lost Him is a thriller by Laura Dave. Stepsiblings, Nora and Sam investigate their father’s death after is ruled an accident and they feel it is anything but that. Fans of Lee Child will be thrilled with his new books, Safe Enough. This is a collection of 20 suspenseful, action-packed short stories by Child with tales about a range of characters on both sides of the law, including assassins, a bodyguard, CIA and FBI agents, gangsters, and more. Counting Miracles by Nicolas Sparks is a powerful novel about wondering if we can change — or even make our peace with — the path we've taken. Look for other new releases in fiction by Jami Attenberg, Jeffrey Deaver, Tami Hoag, Richard Osman and Sally Rooney among many more.

In non-fiction, Bill O'Reilly and Martin Dugard will issue Confronting the Presidents. He covers every president from Washington to Biden. This book is an insightful and entertaining portrait of all 45 U.S. presidents, exploring their lives, policies and legacies with detailed research and no-spin commentary on their impact and roles in history. Biographies about Ronald Reagan and Connie Chung will be coming out. Read the untold story of academics who became spies in World War II in Book and Dagger by Elyse Graham. Other releases include The Siege by Ben MacIntyre, Living on Earth by Peter Godfrey-Smith and Parmy Olson's Supremacy, Ai, Chatgpt, and the Race That Will Change the World.
