Village of Kewaskum Construction Update

BREANNA RICE
JOURNALIST

The ongoing construction throughout the Village of Kewaskum is on track to finish up around the middle of October.

Beginning in early July of 2024, the Department of Transportation (DOT) began resurfacing streets throughout Kewaskum. According to the Village of Kewaskum's website, the focus of the project is to "resurface the existing asphalt pavement on US 45 (Fond du Lac Avenue) from County Highway H to State Highway 28."

"Right now, we are on track to finish ahead of our original schedule," said Kurt Flierl, the construction project manager.

Flierl explained that during the week of Sept. 23, the workers will pave the southbound side of the roadway. Then, on the week of Sept. 30, they will pave what's left of the surface course on the northbound lanes.

"After that, we should be set to follow up with marking and project clean up on the week of Oct. 7," stated the project manager.

The DOT stated that, depending on the weather, the construction could be completed on the weekend of Oct. 11 and 12. This would be ahead of their contracted date as they originally were planning to finish up on Nov. 1.

"The department appreciates the patience of the local businesses and residents as the project has been coming along," concluded Flierl. "We are currently ahead of schedule because of the hard work of the construction crew."

K.H.S. Football Holds Lead Until Final Minute of the Game

BREANNA RICE
JOURNALIST

The Kewaskum High School football team hosted a game against Watertown on Friday, Sept. 20.

The Indians held the lead the entire match up until the last minute of the game when Watertown completed a touchdown (TD) pass into double coverage for the win with a score of 26-23.

The boys started the game off strong as they scored on their first possession of the game.

A 39-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Eli Ogi to Landon Daniels set the tone for the night. Rather than kicking a field goal, the team successfully went for two extra points. The score was then 8-0.

Watertown quickly responded by running in a touchdown of their own. Their kicker missed the extra point so the opposing team now had six points on the board.

At the start of the second quarter, Kewaskum running back Kingston Grisolono broke past the defense and entered the end zone for another Indian touchdown. The extra point was good, making the score 15-6.

With two minutes left in the half, Watertown scored on a short run to the end zone. This resulted in the opposing team adding seven more points to their score.

Going into halftime, the home team was ahead by two with a score of 15-13.

Kewaskum's final touchdown of the night occurred in the third quarter with another long 40-yard pass from Ogi to Daniels. Again, the boys were successful in gaining two extra points after the TD. This created a nice lead for the Indians as the board read 23-13.

About five minutes later, Watertown scored their first passing touchdown of the night. Their kicker was unsuccessful at the extra point. This left the score at 23-19 at the end of the third.

Unrequited Love: A Timeless Muse In Poetry

Dear Reader,

To be straightforward with you, I have a consistent dialogue in my head regarding the concept of unrequited love.

Unrequited love has been a compelling theme in literature throughout the ages, touching the hearts of readers with its poignant and universal resonance. A long past conversation with my daughter about William Butler Yeats' poem "When You Are Old" brought this theme into sharp focus. Our discussion, enriched by insights from a University of Notre Dame professor, questioned whether Yeats' poem truly deals with unrequited love, particularly when compared to its inspiration, a French poem by Pierre de Ronsard.

Yeats, an Irish poet, penned "When You Are Old" in the late 19th century. The poem speaks to a future where the speaker's beloved, now old and gray, reflects on her past and the love she received. The lines often cited are:

*And nodding by the fire,
take down this book,
And slowly read,
and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep*

The poem continues, suggesting that although many loved her beauty and grace, only one man loved her "pilgrim soul."

According to the Notre Dame professor, "When You Are Old" may not be primarily about unrequited love. Instead, it can be interpreted as a reflection on true, deep love that transcends physical beauty. The speaker laments that while others loved the beloved for her outward appearance, only he cherished her inner self. This interpretation suggests a sense of melancholy and loss, but not necessarily unrequited love.

Yeats' poem is inspired by Pierre de Ronsard's sonnet to Hélène. Ronsard's poem, "Quand vous serez bien vieille," similarly envisions a future where the beloved, now old, reflects on her past. The French poem carries a tone of regret and unrealized love, which can be seen as unrequited:

*Quand vous serez bien vieille,
au soir, à la chandelle,
Assise auprès du feu, dévidant et filant,
Direz, chantant mes vers,
en vous émerveillant:
Ronsard me célébrait du temps que j'étais belle.*

Ronsard's lines suggest a longing for a love that was never fully reciprocated or realized, aligning more closely with the theme of unrequited love.

Is Yeats' poem about unrequited love? The answer may lie in a nuanced understanding of both poems. While Yeats' version focuses on a love that sees beyond physical beauty and feels a profound loss, it does not explicitly state that the love was unrequited. However, when seen through the lens of Ronsard's influence, we can infer a deeper layer of longing and unfulfilled desire in Yeats' work.

In the end, both interpretations hold merit. Yeats' "When You Are Old" can be seen as a reflection on true love that transcends time and beauty, while Ronsard's original poem hints more strongly at unrequited love. This duality enriches our understanding of Yeats' work, allowing readers to appreciate the complexity of love in its many forms. Unrequited love remains a timeless muse, continually inspiring poets to capture its bittersweet essence.

G.A. SCHEINOH
CONTRIBUTOR

Ever had one of those days? When you wonder why in Sam Hill did I ever get involved with such stuff? Yeah, me too. Here's what connected the dots, led from there to here.

When this writer landed smack dab into the midst of social media a good while ago, it was a new-fangled experience. Didn't expect much because the lucky few had already hit the big time. Rather the early comers to Instagram who amassed massive audiences, peeps in the hundreds of thousands.

Self-issued volumes of their work sold well enough to attract commercial publishers. Who then sold a million copies of a book of poetry by Rupī Kaur. The kind of numbers unseen since Rod McKuen's day back in the 1960s.

That wasn't the case with we late bloomers. After about three years cracked the low ceiling to a 1,000, then slightly more followers. A slump in posts saw the figure drop to 800. A recent spate of new poems pushed it up to 850.

As Herman's Hermits sang, "second verse same as the first."

Actually, worse. The next wave of popularity didn't bring a wide readership. Just more of the same – groupies. Grrr.

Problem is, gals from 25-40 came looking for serious relationships, a surrogate father, husbands and/or daddies for their young'uns. Today beat all you ever saw when one begged for a quick marriage. Immediately a reason for the urgency came to mind – deportation.

This being a presidential election year saw a couple questions, which answered, brought near a 100 upvotes and five followers on Quora. Never expected to become a political pundit well into my 60s. When most are retired, i.e. marginalized, shoved aside. That's the nature of the beast.

Just can't tell when or where it'll bite. Price of fame, leastwise 15 minutes' worth.

The Immigration Problem

MARY KRIEGER
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

Unless your ancestors are Native American, your family tree includes immigrants. Our long history of immigration is celebrated by the Statue of Liberty, given to us by France in 1886, which famously states:

"Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddle masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me.
"I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

Although we are clearly a nation built on the backs of immigrant labor, instead of celebrating our diverse heritage, many are maligning immigrants. In Springfield, Ohio, Haitian immigrants are under attack due to an unfounded rumor centered around cats and dogs. Former President Trump escalated the tensions by repeating the lie on national television during his debate with Vice President Harris. He said, "They're eating the dogs. The people that came in, they're eating the cats." (ABCNews)

Since the debate, both Trump and his running mate, Ohio Senator Vance, continue to falsely accuse the Haitians of stealing pets and eating them, even though the woman who started the entire rumor has since apologized and said it wasn't true. (She filed a police report that her cat was missing and that she thought her Haitian neighbors were to blame. She later found the cat in her basement, unharmed, but her social media posts imagining that Haitians had taken her cat had already gone viral.) The mayor of Springfield and the governor of Ohio, both Republicans, were quick to publicly state that there is no evidence of immigrants harming pets. Governor DeWine went on to say that the Haitians are "very hard workers" and "Haitians who are in Springfield are legal." (NPR.org)

Vance admitted during an interview on "Meet the Press" that he knows the allegations are false yet feels justified in continuing the lies. "If I have to create stories so that the American media actually pays attention to the suffering of the American people, then that's what I'm going to do." (NBCNews.com)

How did all this controversy begin? In 1960, Springfield, Ohio was a booming industrial town with a population of 82,000. By 2011, it had lost many of its factories, and roughly 20,000 residents. Since 2019, the city has begun a revival of industries, but there was a worker shortage. Approximately 15,000 Haitians, fleeing violence and poverty in their native country, legally immigrated to Springfield under federal humanitarian programs because of the employment opportunities. Since their arrival, businesses have been booming, but the rapid increase in population has increased the costs of housing and stressed medical systems and schools. The mayor and governor both state that they are working to correct these problems. Since all the lies about the Haitians and pets have circulated, the city has been overwhelmed with bomb threats that have forced schools to close and locked down government offices and hospitals. Even the local St. Vincent DePaul received threats because they had assisted the Haitians. (yahoo.news)

Check It Out!

LORI KREIS, DIRECTOR
 KEWASKUM PUBLIC LIBRARY

October is a notable month for publishers to issue books aplenty especially from well-known authors. It is because the buying of gifts season is just around the corner. With that, there are many great books to add to our collection in October. Come on in and check them out.

This fall I look forward to new releases from some of my and your favorite authors and a few new debuts too. There is already a lot of buzz about Sophie Kinsella's latest, What Does it Feel Like? This is a story about Eve, a renowned novelist facing a devastating diagnosis and learning to live and love anew. After her brain tumor is removed, Eve must learn to walk, talk, and write again. Another popular writer, Paula Hawkins, brings us a thriller that is as page turning as it is unsettling. The Blue Hour begins on a secluded island with one house and one inhabitant. When a present-day discovery occurs it intimately connects three people and unveils a web of secrets and lies. Karla's Choice is Nick Harkaway's telling of famous spy, George Smiley and how he is drawn out of retirement to investigate a missing man tied to a Russian defector. One of the season's most anticipated reads is debut author Daniel Lavery's Women's Hotel. In this funny and poignant novel, five residents at a New York hotel in the 1960s are realizing their time there is ending and they had better make the best of it. Another new novelist, Sarah Sawyer, releases a suspense offering well-reviewed by her prolific peers. The Undercurrent is about an overwhelmed new mother who becomes obsessed with the unsolved disappearance of a young girl from her small Texas hometown — and unearths her own family's dark secret. Also, look for new books out in October by Danielle Steel, James Patterson, Debbie Macomber and Chuck Palahniuk.

In non-fiction, we will have new biographies, cookbooks, true crime and more. Gather Me written by the Well-Read Black Girl book club founder Glory Edim is a true testament to the power of literature in helping find one's identity. This inspiring memoir follows Edim from childhood to adulthood as she discovers her voice in books whose words change her life. Framed is a true crime work of non-fiction by popular legal thriller author John Grisham. Read 10 verifiable tales of innocent Americans unjustly found guilty and convicted of crimes they did not commit. Women's health advocate, Dr. Mindy Pelz comes out with a book for women to help support their natural body rhythms. Eat Like a Girl includes more than 100 recipes of nutritional choices to keep healthy. But if you are craving a snack, check out 100 Afternoon Sweets. Baker and blogger Sarah Kieffer releases a new cookbook devoted to cure your afternoon cravings. Look for tell-all biographies by Al Pacino and Alex Van Halen.

Lots of new releases in books for all preferences will be here at the library in October. Hope to see you soon.

Anna Amerling

My name is Anna Amerling and I am a senior at Kewaskum High School. I am president of Key Club, an executive board member of student government, a KIC mentor, and a senior class officer. In addition, I am in the National Honors Society and Peers for Peers.

Anna Amerling

Before and after school, I work at the Boys and Girls Club at Kewaskum Elementary School. Since I know I want to work with children in the future, I will major in something related to that field in college.

Outside of school, I love spending time with my family and friends, going on hikes or being anywhere outside. Concerts are a favorite pastime of mine, as well as playing the guitar and piano. Though I do love adventure, sometimes I just like to just chill at home and read a good book.

I also love going to all the sporting events to support Kewaskum. You will almost always see me dressed up and cheering at the front of the student section. I am looking forward to spending my last year at KHS having fun and making an impact!

Baldwin Demands USPS Provide Better Service for Wisconsin Newspapers and Their Readers

Despite thousands spent on postage, Wisconsin newspapers report nearly month-long delays, lost customers

U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin (D-WI) called on the Postmaster General Louis DeJoy to immediately address costly delays Wisconsin newspapers that rely on the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) are experiencing, resulting in lost revenue, customer complaints, and canceled subscriptions.

“Local newspapers work hard every day and week to deliver news on a timely basis to readers in their communities,” wrote Senator Baldwin in a letter to Postmaster General Louis DeJoy. “While USPS has consistently raised rates for local newspapers, service has not improved, and these newspapers are instead receiving unprecedented calls from their customers about mail delays.”

In her letter to Postmaster General DeJoy, Senator Baldwin cited several Wisconsin newspapers whose service has been impacted by higher rates and long delays at the Postal Service, contributing to customer complaints and costly canceled subscriptions. The Iron County Miner in Hurley, which spends thousands of dollars on postage each month, has received an unprecedented number of complaints due to delivery delays. The Mellen Weekly Record in Mellen reported hearing from subscribers less than 30 miles away that their newspapers have been delivered two to four weeks late. The Lakeland Times in Minocqua estimates it has lost nearly 500 subscribers and $100,000 from subscription cancellations over the past four years.

Senator Baldwin has repeatedly called on the USPS to address rate hikes and delays Wisconsinites are experiencing. In April, after another announced price increase for First Class Mail stamps, Senator Baldwin questioned Postmaster General Louis DeJoy’s leadership, which has resulted in higher prices for Americans and worse service. Despite USPS enacting their new “Delivering for America” plan – which they promised would modernize and transform the Postal Service – customers continue to experience poor customer service and significant mail delays, including for rural newspaper delivery.

“I am calling on you, as the Postmaster General, to reverse course on the Delivering for American plan and ensure that USPS service is reliable, including for rural newspaper delivery,” concluded Senator Baldwin. “We all have a vested interest in seeing the USPS succeed. My constituents depend on the USPS for their daily correspondence, bills, lifesaving medications and, in many cases, their livelihood. I urge you to fulfill your responsibilities to support and serve small businesses and rural communities.”

Some politicians claim that immigrants are responsible for violent crime. The reality is that immigrants are more likely to be employed, married and have children, and are 30% less likely to commit a violent crime than native born citizens. (siepr.stanford.edu)

Trump continues to demonize immigrants, saying they are not human, calling them "vermin," and accusing them of "poisoning the blood of our country." These are the exact words that were used by Hitler and Mussolini to justify the mass detention camps and murders of Jews during World War II. (Missouriindependent.com)

Trump has promised to deport 11 million undocumented or illegal immigrants if elected. Undocumented workers make up approximately 50% of all agricultural laborers-picking fruits and vegetables, working in meat packing plants and on dairy farms. Many have lived in the United States for more than 10 years, have families, pay taxes, contribute to the economy, yet are unprotected by any labor laws and are routinely cheated and abused by their employers. If large numbers of migrants were deported, it is estimated that groceries, such as milk, would double in price. (www.fund.us)

fund.us)

Undocumented workers are common in the construction trades, with 10% of all construction workers undocumented, and 30% of all roofers. Mass deportation would bring many construction projects to a standstill. Mass deportation would also require the building of detention camps (with no one to build them), which would be "reminiscent of Stalin's building of Gulags," according to a representative of the American Immigration Lawyers Association and would cost 300 billion taxpayer dollars. (MotherJones, Sept 2024)

Earlier this year, a bipartisan group of senators came up with a plan to address the country's immigration problems including increasing funding for border security. However, the plan was scuttled when Republican candidate Trump voiced his opposition.

We are a country of immigrants and clearly need immigrants to do many of the hard, dirty jobs that no one else wants to do. Lies and dangerous rhetoric only creates more division. Instead of politicians demonizing and using immigration as a political football, perhaps a better solution would be if they worked together to develop a comprehensive immigration policy.

Two Hunters/Two States

MARK WALTERS
COLUMNIST

Hello friends,

The last few years, I have started my bow hunting season in an adventuresome way near Durand on the Chippewa River and travel by canoe to get to my stand. This weekend, at the same time that I was hunting, my 23-year-old daughter Selina Walters, who is a biologist with the USFWS and lives in Missoula, Montana, was on her first bow hunt in Montana.

Saturday, September 14
High 85, Low 63

You better have a hang, skin, and quarter plan with plenty of ice when you are camping and traveling by canoe while bow hunting when the weather is so warm that for all four hunts you wear shorts. On the other hand, Selina was experiencing cooler temps and dressed quite warm.

So, here is the scoop, my official goal, make some fresh meat, enjoy the weather, and show my pups, Ruby and Red, a good time. In all honesty, my goal was an adult doe. On the other hand, unless something changes, I only have one other bow hunting trip this fall as I am booked until January 5th, so if a buck came within 25-yards, my max shot, I would, quite naturally, fling an arrow.

In this modern day, there is this thing called texting, and Selina and I do a lot of it. On Selina's morning hunt she was on the ground, in a low mountain valley in an area where she has been hiking and practicing with her bow since she moved to Missoula in late January. Selina purchased an elk tag as well as a deer tag and could harvest a buck and a bull, no doe, and could buy more tags if she filled her tags.

Last night, Selina had to take a four-hour online class to purchase her bow license. This morning, she saw several doe of which some were in range and a real nice 8-point buck that was just out of range.

This afternoon was my first hunt, and I was really into the entire experience. On the paddle to my hunt, I watched a kingfisher dive bomb for a minnow, and as it attempted to fly away with its supper, a northern pike came very close to gobbling it for supper, and it, honestly, looked like an alligator as it tried to catch the bird.

On my hunt, what can I say, all I have to do is sit in a tree in this Buffalo/Pepin County area and I am at peace. I honestly believe that if Michelle had not passed away that we would have moved here if we stayed in Wisconsin. On my hunt, I watched a very large doe that scared the heck out of a raccoon that climbed a tree next to me, got to my level, and it relaxed when it saw what scared it was just a deer.

A while later, a doe with two fawns presented an easy shot. The fawns were young, with a nubby having spots and maybe weighing 40 pounds; the doe was big but her ribs were sticking out.

On the paddle back to camp, I had a cold beer in a cooler just for the experience and I enjoyed every drop as I paddled in the dark.

Sunday, September 15
High 87, Low 64

Seems crazy to be leaving camp in the dark dressed in shorts. I have to wear hip boots as I am in major swamp country but there was no chill this weekend. On this hunt, I saw one doe, she was large like most of the adult deer seem to be in this neck of the woods but stayed just out of range, and I was fine with that.

Selina, on the other hand, is having deer after deer experience and what is very cool is that even though she is hunting on the ground, which is very common in the mountain states, she is not getting busted.

For me, even though I had two more hunts before breaking camp and heading home, I did not see another deer and did not care. Next weekend, I will be duck hunting in northern Wisconsin, and Selina will be texting me from her hunt and the young biologist, who so far has controlled her destiny, will be doing exactly what she has chosen to do for this period of her life.

Take your kids hunting and fishing and they just might hang out with you when you are in your 60s!

Kewaskum Races Well in the Nightfall Classic Meet

BREANNA RICE
JOURNALIST

On Friday, Sept. 13, the Kewaskum High School cross country team traveled to Neenah to take part in the Nightfall Classic meet.

“Both teams (boys and girls) finished higher than expected in a competition that had them placed in the large school division with some very strong D1 and larger D2 schools,” stated Head Coach Peterson.

The coach explained that the boys proved themselves to be an outstanding group of freshman and sophomores as they performed at a higher level meet.

“They are learning how to race as the season goes on and continue to prove they deserve to be considered an up-and-coming team in both the conference and sectional competitions,” said Peterson.

The girls team was missing their top runner at the meet but didn’t let that get them down during the competitive race.

“The girls put in a really strong effort without their top runner and continue to make strides in restocking the program to return to the heights of the last five seasons,” concluded the coach.

Kewaskum Tennis Hosts Senior Night

BREANNA RICE
JOURNALIST

The Kewaskum High School tennis team took on Plymouth and Ripon last week.

On Tuesday, Sept. 17, the girls traveled to Plymouth and participated in a very close match-up.

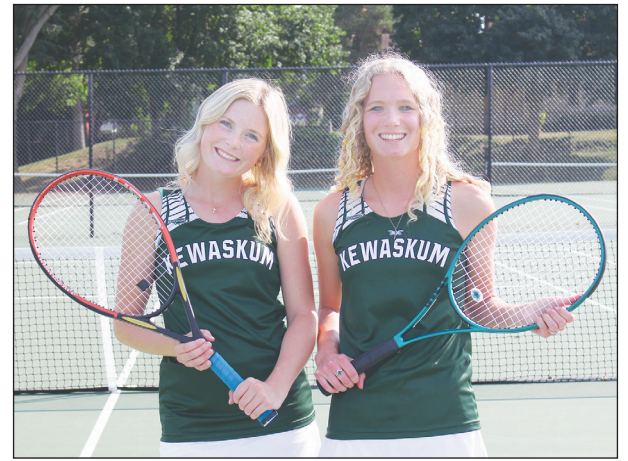

“Although we were defeated 5-2, three of the matches went to tiebreakers which means a 10-point tiebreaker is played instead of a full third set,” explained Head Coach Brad Preder.

Kewaskum won one of the tiebreaking matches and lost the other two, resulting in a close loss to Plymouth.

“If we had won all three tiebreakers we would have taken the dual meet victory,” said Preder.

Liz Erdmann served up a dominant performance at number one singles against the opponents on Tuesday. Another highlight from the meet was a win from sophomore McKenna Lange who battled a senior at number three singles.

for senior night.

“Our two seniors, Liz Erdmann and Macy Sabish, were honored before the meet and received gifts from their teammates,” mentioned the coach.

Preder explained that Liz Erdmann has been the team’s most dedicated player, and has the best record while playing in the toughest flight.

“Liz has had an outstanding high school career and is a team leader both on and off the court,” said Preder.

It was stated that Macy Sabish returned to the team after a season away from tennis last fall, and has been a positive influence on the girls.

“Macy has graciously accepted her role on the team. She is a standout softball player, and we’ve been glad to have her athletic skills and positive attitude on the team this season,” added the coach.

Kewaskum won the home meet against Ripon with a score of 6-1.

“Five of the matches went to match tiebreakers, with Kewaskum winning four of them,” stated Preder.

A highlight from the meet was Olivia Beck and Emma Klahn’s performance at number two doubles.

“The girls lost the first set and were trailing in the second set, before battling back. They won a tiebreaker to claim the second set, then won the match tiebreaker,” concluded Preder.

During the fourth quarter, Kewaskum’s defense worked hard at keeping Watertown from scoring. The clock was ticking down and it looked like the Indians were going to hold their four-point lead to the end.

Watertown seemed to be running down the clock but not making much progress down the field. With 35 seconds left in the game, the opponent’s quarterback threw the ball deep into double coverage. To the home team’s surprise, Watertown successfully caught the ball in the end zone, pulling ahead for the win.

The Indians were left with only seconds to make it down the field to get into field goal range. With a score of 26-23, all the boys needed was three points to go into overtime.

Unfortunately, Watertown’s defense did not allow for this to happen and the Indians took a devastating loss at home.

Eli Ogi led the team with 32-rushing yards, Kingston Grisolono followed with 24.

Kewaskum’s varsity football team takes the field on Friday, September 20 to take on Watertown.

Campbellsport Football Takes Care of W.L.A. in the Second Half

BEN PRIESGEN
JOURNALIST

On September 20, Campbellsport beat Winnebago Lutheran Academy (WLA) 34-21 in their conference matchup.

"The boys kept battling all night after we started slow, and it took a bit to get going but our defense played well for the majority of the game by keeping us in it while we kept making adjustments to get the offense going," said Head Coach Todd Wondra.

WLA (1-4, 0-3) got on the scoreboard first with a 73-yard touchdown by Gannan Schwartz to take a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

Campbellsport (4-1, 2-1) tied the game in the second quarter with a rushing touchdown from Trent Schladweiler at the 8:47 mark in the quarter.

The Vikings got a 35-yard rushing touchdown to retake a 14-7 lead over the visiting Cougars.

The Cougars were able to get a 15-yard passing touchdown from Braden Bothe to Schladweiler to tie up the game in the second quarter at 14-14.

Campbellsport started their first possession of the second half with Bothe airing it out to Luke Pendowski for a 70-yard passing touchdown to give the Cougars their first lead of the game 21-14 in the third quarter.

"The pass play to Luke was a huge play for us to get us on top in the third quarter," said Wondra.

Schladweiler got his third touchdown of the day by returning an interception for a 25-yard pick six for the Cougars' defense which extended the Campbellsport lead to 28-14.

"Trent's house call with the interception return just swung the momentum big time for us," said Wondra. "Trent is just an athlete who continues to work his tail off."

The Cougars continued their dominant second half by getting a 20-yard rushing touchdown from Chris Taddey to push their lead to 34-14.

"We lean on our offensive and defensive lines a lot with rotation not being very deep but the guys keep working hard for the team," said Wondra.

WLA added a very late touchdown in the fourth quarter to give Campbellsport a 34-21 victory for the Cougars' second conference victory in three games.

Campbellsport football will host Springs on September 27 in the 'Game of the Week' with kickoff at 7 p.m.

K.H.S. Soccer Continues to Improve

KHS BOYS SOCCER

Kewaskum boys soccer had arguably their toughest test to date to start week three of the 2024 season when they traveled to Hartford on Monday, September 9.

A good beginning to the contest saw Kewaskum pushing the tempo and creating a few good chances in the final third and had the team building confidence through the first 20 minutes. Eli Steinbauer continued to put pressure on the back line of the Oriole defense and was able to generate some turnover opportunities and spring quick counter attacks from his fellow attacking teammates, Charlie Gambino and Colton Rabe.

Unfortunately, that nut proved to be too tough to crack as nothing was able to find its way into the net.

Defensively, the Indians held tightly and didn't let too much through to test senior goalkeeper Riley Kuehl during the majority of the first half.

Hartford's game plan was to try to counter attack quickly by getting it out wide in the mid field and send longer through balls or crosses over the top to try to beat Kewaskum's young back line. After a back-and-forth half, both teams seemed to be creating and recovering and neither team was able to command dominance for more than a few moments at a time.

Three quarters through the first half had it still dead locked at 0-0 with Hartford starting to control possession a bit more consistently. This had the Indians chasing, and with a number of players who crossed over from the JV game to play a number of minutes in the varsity game as well including starters freshmen Blake Staral, AJ Droese, and Oliver Grover, possible tired legs allowed for a couple of late first-half goals.

The first came in the 35th minute off a corner kick that had the Kewaskum defense disorganized and saw a header from the central part of the penalty box directed to the back post of Kewaskum's goal.

The second was also off a corner kick just two minutes later. This one was cleared out only to be regathered by the corner kicker and re-sent in towards the back post where the Kewaskum defense lost track of both the ball and the Hartford attackers who again directed the ball on frame where keeper Riley Kuehl almost made a miraculous save but to no avail.

Kewaskum felt a little unlucky with how well they played and to have an 0-2 score line seemed unfair. Spirits remained high and during half time there were recollections of the number of two goal differentials from last season that this team were able to overcome and get a result.

That quickly was cast by the wayside as Hartford was able to increase their lead with a powerful strike which again came off of a cleared corner kick but was not closed out fast enough from the Kewaskum defense.

At 0-3, the team continued to fight but didn't have the same vigor as they did to begin the affair. With a big conference match the following day, the Kewaskum coaching staff began to move personnel to save and recover some of those tired and, in some cases injured legs. After valiant efforts from all of the substitutes, especially Tyler Kehres and Matthew Betz, late in the game at goalie, the final score ended at 0-6.

A poor score line but some good things were accomplished, particularly early on. With better game management and the ability to stretch their quality throughout the entire game, the Indians can compete with the bigger programs on their schedule.

Vs K.M.L.

Coming off a touch of a demoralizing defeat at the hands of Hartford a day earlier, it was right back into action for the Kewaskum boys soccer team with Kettle Moraine Lutheran (KML) coming to Doc Mitchell for the Indians' second East Central Conference contest.

This game started off with a bang. A great opportunity occurred in the first 90 seconds off a cross from sophomore Colton Rabe that was misplayed by KML and ended up at junior winger Charlie Gambino's feet and struck just wide, but a great start to get Kewaskum's confidence flowing.

Just three minutes later, junior midfielder Luciano Olla sent a long ball over the top for always hardworking, junior striker Eli Steinbauer who was able to be the first on it and was able to play it back to Gambino who had a perfectly weighted ball into a crashing Rabe who deftly touched it into the far side netting to make it 1-0 in less than five minutes into the contest. A perfect start to this rebound game.

The pressure continued with another fast break just a few minutes later that, again, was just pushed wide of target.

The boys from Kewaskum continued to forge on and control the early stages with solid play in the midfield and real attempts to control possession.

Kettle Moraine Lutheran threw some counter attacks but with a newer, more defensive-minded pattern of play from the Kewaskum defense, they were cut out fairly easily.

New center back starter Will Haydin was able to frustrate the Chargers' attack.

As the half played on, the energy and control established from the Indians began to slip a little allowing KML to gain some of their own confidence. They still tried to counter attack to their striker who found himself with some fast-break opportunities that needed to be recovered on by a Kewaskum defense that seemed to lose their shape on occasion.

The disconnect seemed to occur between the defense and the midfield as well for the Indians, where the team wasn't able to build anything out of the back. Continuing to cut out the opponents attacks, KML was able to reload and mount another attack far too easily and wore down the defense and held the ball far too long on the Indians' side of the field.

Kewaskum was able to do enough to keep the Chargers out of the goal and run out the half with a 1-0 lead.

Kettle Moraine Lutheran came out of halftime with a ramped up pressure game plan that seemed to unnerve the Indians. The team's passing and positioning seemed to get out of sorts due to the increased intensity from KML's defense.

Breakdowns on the Indians' transition defense caused some unsettling opportunities for the visitors to get some more dangerous shots that had keeper Riley Kuehl active in the early stages of the second half than he needed to be in the first half.

With an increased defensive presence, KML was able to control the middle of the field with a greater amount of ease.

This made it extremely difficult for the Indians to mount any sort of attack and thus were unable to get any real shots off at their opponent's goal. Falling into a defensive shell, Kewaskum appeared to just be trying to hold onto the 1-0 lead and really didn't press the action or match the intensity of KML.

A one-on-one occurred with KML's striker and Kewaskum keeper Riley Kuehl, fortunately, the shot went wide left. With a flurry at the end, finalizing with a shot from half field was Kewaskum's Eli Steinbauer that eventually rolled out the end line wide left with a few seconds left where time eventually ran out for a big win for Kewaskum.

This is the first win for Kewaskum against Kettle Moraine Lutheran in over a dozen years and it showed that this team is still improving with the ability to close out tight games.

At Shoreland Lutheran

Tuesday, Sept. 17, had the Kewaskum boys soccer team heading south to Kenosha to play first-time opponent Shoreland Lutheran High School.

Not knowing anything about the Pacers from Shoreland other than the fact that they are the defending division four Wisconsin State Champions, Kewaskum knew they were going to be in for a tough contest.

The game started with the Indians trying to institute a control and possession-type style. The passing had Shoreland chasing hard but Kewaskum couldn't move the possession into the Pacers half of the pitch. The trouble with passing all around on your own half of the field is that one mistake puts the other team in a favorable spot.

Just two-and-a-half minutes in, Shoreland was able to capitalize on an Indians' mistake, which saw a seemingly unthreatening cross find a wide open Pacer attacker who made a really well placed strike from outside the box that found the side netting of the goal for a quick deficit for the visitors.

The 1-0 deficit had Kewaskum trying to open up their attack a bit, which had the next 10 minutes of the game pretty wide open with back-and-forth play.

A lackluster close out from the Indians' defense on a ball bouncing through the middle of the pitch had the Pacers' striker with space to again hit an identical goal like the first one, well struck and perfectly placed to give the home team a 2-0 lead just 13 minutes into the game.

It did not get any better from there as less than two minutes later Shoreland capitalized on a truly terrible sequence from the Kewaskum back line. A poor pass from the right back which deflected off the right center back got past the left center back who had a miscommunication with both the left back and the goalkeeper and saw none of them go to the ball in front of the left side of the goal.

winger of the Pacers to pick up the unattended ball and have a one-on-one situation with the Kewaskum keeper and then finish easily. At 3-0 just 15 minutes into the game, it was not an ideal start to say the least.

Finally, Kewaskum started bringing the attack to the home team. For the rest of the first half, Kewaskum was definitely the better side, creating more scoring chances, particularly the blistering strike from Colton Rabe late that tried to bend its way inside the far post. With continued play on their offensive side of the field, the Indians were clinging to a sliver of hope heading into halftime.

The second half saw the physicality from both teams really ramp up and with an increasing number of fouls called.

This might have actually lit the competitive fire for the Indians as more and more they were knocking on the door to get on the score sheet. One of those hard challenges was when Kewaskum striker Eli Steinbauer elevated to try to win a high ball in the box and was completely flattened by a dangerous play from one of Shoreland's center backs that very well could have been a red card as he never even attempted to play the ball.

Nonetheless, it did win the Indians a penalty kick, which Mac Hasse converted brilliantly. At 3-1, Kewaskum was getting more and more confidence.

The halftime change to move Mac Hasse from defensive mid to attacking mid really proved to be a spark that improved the ability for Kewaskum to generate some offense.

Kewaskum's defense, after a rough start, really knuckled down and eliminated any chance or breakaway from Shoreland in the second half, aside from the one shot that rattled the far post.

The few shots that Shoreland were able to get off were easily handled or pushed aside by Riley Kuehl, Kewaskum's senior goalkeeper.

Kewaskum's newly found attacking commitment and the physical nature of the game saw the team get awarded a free kick just outside the opposing team's penalty area.

After a brief conference from the Indians' attacking personnel, Luciano Olla was selected to take a crack at the kick - a laser guided missile to the upper far corner that either found an existing hole, or quite possibly blew a hole into the net for Kewaskum's second goal.

Fouls going against both teams had time ticking away and, eventually, saw Rabe leave the game with an injury with about six minutes left.

A valiant comeback attempt that with more time could have and very well would have had Kewaskum get a result better than the defeat.

Vs Campbellsport

This allowed the right The home match against Campbellsport on Thursday, Sept. 19, proved to be a shooting practice event for Kewaskum soccer. With 59 shots taken, 25 were on target, but only four found their way in. The Indians definitely need more practice.

A dominating performance in the way of possession from Kewaskum should have seen a more dominating score line, and even with an outstanding performance from the Campbellsport goalkeeper, you can't really say Campbellsport did enough to hold Kewaskum to as few goals as they ended up with.

The Indians controlled the game from the start and played a tremendous amount of the time on Campbellsport's side of the field. From the outset, it felt like Kewaskum thought the Cougars were just going to lay down and let them do whatever they wanted. A couple

Gridiron Indians Defeat Menomonee Falls in All Grades

KEWASKUM GRIDIRON

The Kewaskum Gridiron Indians hit the road for the first time this season and faced some stiff competition against the Pewaukee Red Pirates. The seventh grade was able to come away with a victory while the eighth, sixth, and fifth grades all suffered their first defeats of the season.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade team got off to a slow start but continued to battle throughout the game, eventually falling 40-24.

The Indians went three-and-out on their first possession, and then the Pirates scored on their first play from scrimmage to make it 8-0. The Indians answered back on their next possession when Greyson Cook hit RJ Ciriacks on a running back swing pass that Ciriacks took all the way for a 45-yard touchdown. Kamden Derge connected on the two-point kick to tie it at 8-8. That is where the score stayed until about two minutes left in the half when Pewaukee scored again and then picked off a Kewaskum pass and was able to score another touchdown right before halftime to take a 20-8 halftime lead.

In the second half, the Indians were able to take advantage of the Pirates failing to convert on a fourth and two from their own 20-yard line when Cook hit Bryce Zehren for an eight-yard touchdown. With another two-point kick from Derge, the Indians were right back in it at 20-16. On the Pirates next possession they were able to break free for a long touchdown run to extend the lead to 26-16, and then they were able to add to that lead with two interceptions returned for touchdowns to make it 40-16. On the Indians' final possession, Jack Upson was able to break several tackles and keep his balance to score on a spectacular 59-yard run. Derge again converted the two-point kick to make it 40-24 for the final score.

Some other defensive highlights in the game included a forced fumble by Kaiden Wagner that was recovered by Porter Reis and also a tackle-for-loss from Upson, Ciriacks and Malahki Schneider.

With the loss, the eighth grade record dropped to 2-1 on the season.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade team found themselves in a battle early but were able to eventually pull away from the Pirates in a 34-18 victory.

After being down 6-0, the Indians answered back with a touchdown run by Henry Ogi to tie it at 6-6. The Pirates were next to score to again take a lead at 12-6 at the end of the first quarter. The second quarter was dominated by the Indians as both Kyle Spoerl and Ogi were able to score on rushing touchdowns with Ogi adding one two-point kick to give the Indians a 20-12 lead at halftime.

Ogi was able to find the endzone for the third time in the third quarter and added the two-point kick for a 28-12 lead. The Pirates answered back with a touchdown of their own to make it 28-18 after the third quarter. The Indians were able to find the endzone yet again in the fourth quarter with Ogi finding Bowen Nass for a touchdown pass to make the final score 34-18.

Other standout offensive plays included Spoerl with runs of 15, 20, and 25-yards, a 20-yard catch by Carson Eilbes, and a 15-yard run by Cade Wichtoski. On defense, Ogi, Carter Anderson, Paxten Boeldt, Mason Spoerl, Xack Kleinke and Oliver Fidler all contributed key tackles, and Wichtoski had an interception.

With the win, the seventh grade improved their record to 2-1 on the season.

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade team suffered their first loss of the season to a tough Pewaukee team by a score of 31-12.

Pewaukee started off scoring on their first drive behind a strong rushing attack. Kewaskum bounced back on the ensuing drive when Decker Schutz found Aiden Bartelt on a corner route for a 70-yard touchdown pass making the score 7-6. The second quarter started off with Pewaukee answering, again behind a strong offensive line, finding the end zone on the ground. Not to be outdone, Schutz once again hit a receiver in the open, this time Caleb Thull, for a 65-yard touchdown. Pewaukee added one more rushing touchdown and PAT, to make the halftime score 19-12.

The second half was all Pewaukee as they scored twice more while keeping the Indians out of the end zone.

Owen Petrie and Charlie Ogi pitched in on offense for the Indians with 35 and 32 rushing while Schutz threw for 145 yards and rushed for 27. Defensively, the team had strong performances from Petrie and Thull who each had two tackles for loss.

With the loss, the sixth grade record dropped to 2-1 on the season.

Fifth Grade

The fifth grade team battled hard in their game against the Pirates but ultimately suffered their first defeat of the season by a score of 26-14.

For the Indians, the offensive line provided some great pass blocking that opened up the passing game where they were able to get some big completions to Parker Hug and Owen Paulus. Beckett Boeldt was able to hit Parker Marx for a 38-yard touchdown pass and Boeldt converted on the two-point kick for the Indians.

Defensively, there were some great open field tackles by Hug, Benson Stahl and Nathan Fonte. Kristian Reimer was able to come up with a quarterback sack, and Boeldt had an interception that he returned 64-yards for a touchdown.

With the loss, the fifth grade record dropped to 2-1 on the season.

The Gridiron Indians will be in action again on Saturday, September 28, as all four teams travel to face Cedarburg. The eighth grade gets things kicked off at 9 a.m.

of counter attacks had the Indians dropping back but were easily handled and they continued to re-set and perform well in possession.

Kewaskum was firing from all over the field the whole game and it appeared that overconfidence from the home team had them working for individual glory rather than team success, and they had a number of ill-advised shot attempts that didn't have much of a chance of going in.

The score was 1-0 with Kewaskum leading at halftime.

The goal was put in by a blast from Mac Hasse who received a pass around 20 yards out and blasted one behind the Campbellsport keeper. There were a number of shots that did make it through the Cougars' defense but either they were wide of the target, over the target, or the keeper was up to the challenge and perfectly positioned.

We all know what can happen if you let teams build confidence by keeping them in games. This was exactly the fear going into the second half.

In the second half, one of the shots pushed aside from Campbellsport was redirected to the middle of the penalty box where a waiting Eli Steinbauer slammed home the goal.

A continued one-way possession game for Kewaskum saw them play a much more team oriented game in the second half. Better opportunities came that were continually putting pressure on the Campbellsport team but unable to convert. A while after the second goal, another one was scored in similar fashion from winger Colton Rabe. A shot from Mac Hasse was pushed aside directly to Rabe who made one side step move and converted his strike. Now 3-0, and the team was building confidence in their conversion.

The thought process seemed to revert back to earlier in the game and individuals wanted to get their goal so more shots were being forced a bit which were not really challenging their opponents.

With the game seemingly in hand, the Indians began getting a number of their substitutes involved. One of which was moving senior Riley Kuehl out from the goal and onto the field. This was rewarded for both the team and Kuehl as with just under three minutes left to play Charlie Gambino, who shifted from his left wing to the right wing, lofted a perfect cross to a crashing Kuehl who slotted home a tremendous finish. That culminated a truly dominant performance from the Indians who got their fifth win of the season and looked good throughout the game from back to front.

The defense was very stingy and didn't allow much of anything to get through. Goal scoring still seems to be a point of needed improvement for a team that continues to grow from game to game, but if they continue to put up 50 or 60 shots a game, you have to figure they will start converting at a much higher clip.

Next week has a couple of road games for the Indians to conference rivals, the Waupun Warriors, and another new opponent, the Sheboygan Christian Eagles, who are currently ranked number one in the state for division three.

These will be tough tests but, with complete performances, both games are winnable, which would improve the team's 5-3 record.

Two Area Trail Sharks Medal at Waukesha

WASHINGTON COUNTY TRAIL SHARKS

The Washington County Trail Sharks Mountain Bike Team had their second NICA (National Interscholastic Cycling Association) race weekend of the season at Minooka County Park in Waukesha, Sept. 14-15. It was a half-league race, which consisted of teams from mainly southern Wis. and northern Ill. There were 690 athletes participating in the festival weekend with 608 that raced on Sunday, Sept. 15.

We had 38 athletes representing our team. With temperatures hitting mid-80's and the trails being really dry and dusty, racing was a bit more challenging. The super dry trails made the course prone for riders to slide out, especially in high speed areas. Despite the trails and heat, the team had a fantastic day with their medals and placements.

Gracelyn Beimborn from Kewaskum medaled with a third place finish in the one-lap race. Ephraim Essinger from Kewaskum medaled with a fifth place finish in the two-lap race. Mason Dorn from Campbellsport placed 12th in the three-lap race.

Their next festival weekend will be September 28-29 with the race on Sunday at Englewood Grass Farms in Fall River.

Former Lomira Fire Chief and Village of Lomira Employee Arrested

DODGE COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

The Dodge County Sheriff's Office has arrested former Lomira Fire Chief and Village of Lomira employee Keith Joas, 40, of Campbellsport, for two counts of misconduct in public office and one count of theft.

On February 13, 2024, Joas' employment with the Village of Lomira was terminated. On February 15, 2024, the Dodge County Sheriff's Office initiated an investigation into allegations of theft brought by the village.

It is alleged that Joas utilized his position within the Village of Lomira to obtain items for personal use using taxpayer funds. Detectives, in collaboration with the Village of Lomira, analyzed financial records, conducted a thorough investigation, and determined that these charges were appropriate in this case.

Sheriff Dale Schmidt expresses his disappointment when a public employee violates the trust of the citizens in our community and indicates that public employees must be held accountable and held to a higher standard for that violation of trust. For this reason, the sheriff's office has not only requested charges of theft but is also requesting charges of misconduct in public office. The sheriff wants all public employees to understand that while public service can be very honorable and rewarding when you cross the line and commit crimes in the performance of that duty, there will be consequences.

As a reminder, all persons are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.

No further information on this case will be available from the sheriff's office or the Village of Lomira pending the outcome of potential criminal prosecution.

Questions may be directed to Sheriff Dale J. Schmidt.
